Community Outing Is Enjoyed Friday Evening

Mansfield Park, northeast of town was the scene of fun and fellowship Friday when long-time and new residents of the community joined for an evening of visiting and supper, topped off with group singing. Plans for a community outing have been discussed for quite some time and the need to welcome new residents has been on the list, but no definite or formal plans had managed to get above the discussion stage. This week no reason could be found for waiting and word was passed from one individual to another that there was "gonna be a gatherin'" and so it was. If you were not informed, it was because time did not permit. Families present Friday spent such an enjoyable evening that plans are in the making for another such gathering and Friday, May 9 is the date that has tentatively been set. The Herald has been informed that regardless of age, all interested citizens are encouraged to join in the fun and fellowship. It is hoped that local families will take this opportunity to become better acquainted with neighbors and newcomers, and to enjoy an outing which includes the whole family. More information concerning the May 9 gathering will be furnished readers at a later date.

City-County Library Not Even Average

Your public library; how does it really stack up? Texans support their public libraries to the tune of $1.24 per capita per year; in California the figure is $3.89; in Massachusetts it's $4.61. You might be interested to know that the City-County Library in Munday budget amounted to $4.41 per capita. (Considerably below even the shamefully low state average.) National Library Week in Texas (April 20 - 26) has set its purpose this year to call attention to the value of libraries in a free society, to note the essential need for books, magazines and other readily available information in a world where the sum total of all human knowledge now doubles every seven years. Your public library cannot begin to meet the demands of this technological revolution unless it gets adequate support from the community it serves. Your citizens, your children, your student researchers are losing out when your public library is NOT up to standard. Your concern with society's lasting values is vividly reflected in the nature and condition of your own public library. How does it stack up? Call your librarian or write to the Field Services Division of the Texas State Library in Austin and ask how you can help give your public library a level of support worthy of the name.

Teague-Carpenter Post Enjoying New Pool Table

The Teague-Carpenter American Legion Post No. 229 is sporting a brand new Gandy Hustler regulation-size pool table, the first new table it has ever owned. The 4 1/2 x 9' table was installed by members last Saturday night. One of two used tables was traded in on the new one which was purchased from a billiard supply house in San Angelo.

All dues-paying members of the American Legion post have access to the recreational facilities located in the basement of the Legion Hall. In addition, to pool, games of dominoes, ping pong, and bridge are also played. There are, besides the seventy-eight Legion members, about twenty-six or twenty-seven club members who do not belong to the Legion but who have been accepted and approved by the Legion membership, and by paying club dues, have access to the recreational facilities.

Members report "lots of coffee-drinking and fellowship" as well as the games are enjoyed.

Growers Vote On Transfer Of Cotton Allotments

Growers in all upland cotton producing counties will vote during the period May 5 through May 9 on whether to permit the transfer of 1970 cotton acreage allotments to farms in other counties by sale or lease.

If in any county at least two-thirds of the growers voting favor the transfer, growers of that county will be permitted to transfer their allotments by sale or lease to farmers in other counties within the same State. (Any lease agreement filed with the county ASC committee between June 1 and Dec. 21, 1969, where an allotment is transferred within or outside a county, will, if approved, be honored by the committee for the number of years specified in the lease.) Allotments may not be shifted to other States.

Where approved by at least two-thirds of the growers voting in the county, transfer of allotments to other counties will be permitted during 1970. The transfer of allotments is authorized in the Food and Agriculture Act of 1965. This Act, as amended, and the authority to transfer allotments expires at the end of 1970.

The May 5 - 9 referendum on this question will be the fourth to be conducted by mail. Ballots will be delivered to all cotton growers of record in counties holding a referendum next month. Officials said a mail vote has proved to be more convenient for growers, rather than having to appear in person at their polling place, particularly during a busy season. To be counted, all votes should be in the office of the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee before the close of business on May 9 or be postmarked by midnight May 9.

New Term For Notaries Public Begins June 1

Secretary of State Martin Dies Jr. announced that all qualified Notaries Public desiring re-appointment for the new term which begins June 1, 1969 and ends June 1, 1971, must pay the required fee and file a new oath and bond with the County Clerk between May 1, 1969 and May 15, 1969, inclusive.

Mr. Dies emphasized that Notaries Public should not send requests for re-appointment or for commissions directly to the Secretary of State inasmuch as the law specifically requires that the County Clerk approve Notary Bonds and forward copies of the Application to the Secretary of State.

Secretary of State Dies further stated that any person not now a Notary Public who desires appointment for the beginning of the new term on June 1, 1969, should apply to his County Clerk before May 16, 1969. The applicant must be at least 21 years of age, a citizen of the United States of America and Texas, and a resident of the county for which appointed. The required Application Forms may be obtained from the County Clerk.

Falconry Program To Be Presented At School Thurs.

Birds of Prey is a program that will stimulate more scientific thinking. It will help students in respecting nature's balance of conservation. This program will be presented April 24, 1969 at 2:00 p.m. Admission is 15¢ for children, 25¢ for adults.

Falconry is supposed to have originated in the Far East and spread west across Asia to Europe where it reached its peak of popularity in medieval times. It persisted longest in Scotland, where many Falconry terms originated, and in England where it is still widely practiced. Centuries ago, only Kings and Emperors were allowed to use Golden Eagles and Falcons in this ancient sport. Others and lesser folk used Hawks.

During the program, Mr. Binder will display live birds without cages. This, in itself, is a master feat as many hours must be consumed training each bird to react normally to an audience. Binder will explain fully how these birds are persecuted and how their protection can be encouraged.

Binder was trained in Falconry by the Internationally Famous John Hamlet of "Hamlet Birds of Prey", research exhibit at Ocala, Florida. This subject is of such interest that it has been featured on TV, "Zoo Parade", "Wide-Wide World", "Captain Jack" and "You Asked For It". It has also appeared as articles in Life Magazine, Argosy, True, Coronet and Popular Mechanics.

Don't forget this program coming April 24 at 2:00 p.m. Everyone is invited.

Serendipity works miracles. In fact, finding something we weren't looking for while we were seeking something else has often been a delightful thrill. Many inventions and discoveries, such as teflon, just happened while the inventor was looking for something entirely unrelated.

However, research scientists agree the solution to the riddle of cancer won't come as an accident. It will come as the result of increasingly intensive research in all areas of the disease.

Statistics show that cancer control today has been raised to a considerable level. There are about 1,500,000 Americans alive and cured of cancer. There are many others whose lives have been extended by years, fruitful years.

This is extremely gratifying. But these gains are not enough. For, despite the lives saved and lengthening survival time for patients with many forms of cancer, the number of lives saved, measured by the five-year survival figure, has not increased appreciably in the past decade. It still stands at about one in three. The biggest job is still to be done.

For many reasons, there is a measure of optimism in cancer research laboratories across the country. Restrained, cautious, and often unspoken, nonetheless it exists. It is an optimism stemming directly from key advances. Among these are advances in chemotherapy, or the use of drugs in treating certain forms of cancer, notably leukemia.

Other scientists develop promising leads in the studies of viruses and their possible relation to human cancer. Still others are exploring new vistas in immunology, the science of

Here's Chicken With Class

Make a dinner with dash—Chicken N' Vegetables. The Borden Kitchen way, it stars a versatile instant nonfat dry milk, the only nationally distributed dry milk to carry the U.S.D.A. seal certifying its packaging under government inspection.

Chicken N' Vegetables (Makes 5-6 servings)

- 1 (3-lb.) frying chicken, cut up
- 2 (10-oz.) packages frozen mixed vegetables
- 2 tablespoons butter, melted
- 1-1/2 cups water
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 2/3 cup Borden instant nonfat dry milk, dry form
- 1/2 teaspoon paprika
- 3 tablespoons flour
- 1/2 cup sliced onions
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 green pepper, sliced
- 1/4 cup water

Soak chicken for 30 minutes in ice water; rinse and dry with absorbent paper. Arrange skin side down in a 3-quart (13-1/2 x 8-1/2 x 2-inch) baking dish. Brush with melted butter; sprinkle with salt and paprika. Place sliced onions and green pepper on top of chicken. Bake in a moderate (350°F.) oven 30 minutes. Turn the chicken pieces skin side up; bake 30 minutes. In a medium-size saucepan, bring 1/4 cup water to a boil; add frozen vegetables. Return to a boil; cook about 15 minutes or until vegetables are tender. In a small bowl, pour the 1-1/2 cups water. Sprinkle nonfat dry milk, flour, salt and pepper over surface of water. Beat with rotary beater just until blended. Add to cooked vegetables. Place over low heat; stir constantly until mixture has thickened. Pour over chicken in baking dish. Return to oven for about 3-5 minutes or until thoroughly heated.

Rally Day Held Wed.

Forty-two home demonstration club members and three home demonstration agents attended the Tri-County Rally Day event, Tuesday, in Goree, at the Community Center. The participating counties were Knox, Baylor and Haskell, Out of seven clubs in Haskell County, four were represented. Two out of six clubs in Baylor County were represented, and three out of four clubs in Knox County were present.

After registration, the welcoming speech was given by Mrs. R. M. Almanrode, president of the Rally Day activities. Other officers present were Mrs. Homer Martin, secretary-treasurer. The response to the welcome was given by Baylor County, after which several songs were sung. Song leader was Mrs. Dale Phillips, and pianist was Mrs. W. T. Cook. The devotional was given by Haskell County. Several crafts were displayed, and some ladies chose to work on a single craft which was decorating a powder box with net and flowers. Other crafts were demonstrated.

Mrs. L. A. Parker gave the invocation, which was followed by the covered-dish luncheon. Several more songs followed the luncheon. The business meeting was then conducted. Since the Rally Day is to be held in Haskell next year, officers were elected from those representing Haskell County. President is Mrs. Lewis Corzine, vice-president is Mrs. Tommy Yates, and secretary-treasurer is Mrs. Hannsz.

Nine clubs presented humorous skits, after which a drawing was held for door prizes. The meeting was closed with the singing of "May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You."

PLAN YOUR ATTACK

Fishing, like football, requires a bit of strategy. And a good job of "double-teaming" will work just as well on bashful bass as it does on a bruiser fullback. Since many fishing hours are consumed in finding the right combination of lure and fishing depth on a particular day, say the fishing experts at Mercury outboards, the use of teamwork is highly recommended.

Before casting off from the dock, spend a few minutes in a skull-session with your partner. Discuss the "playing field"—its bays, rocky points, weed beds, dropoffs, etc. How is the weather likely to affect the fish? And what are the scouting reports of yesterday's anglers?

As the plan of attack is mapped out, each man is given a specific assignment. In a boat, it's usually a case of "you hit 'em high and I'll hit 'em low."

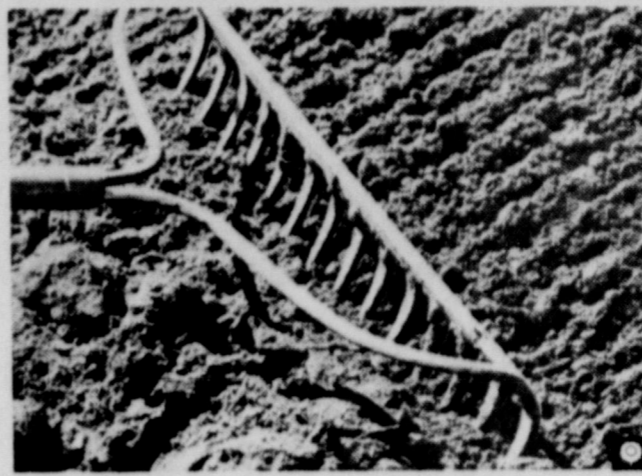

If the waters are strange and you're in the fish-finding stage, you'll probably elect to troll. With two men, both the shallow and middle, or middle and lower depths can be tested simultaneously. The inshore angler works the shallower level, while the offshore rod probes deeper—an efficient, hour-saving arrangement.

When fish are known to be in a certain spot, different combinations of lures should be tried: floaters and sinkers, spoons and plugs—even various colors of the same lure.

"Ganging up" in this manner may often cut experimenting and prospecting almost in half, note the Mercury lads. The only rule is that two different approaches should be used at the same time.

Instead of copying your partner's choice of lure, snap on what might be his next selection.

PREPARING THE SOIL

Rake and rake, back and forth until the tines have done their job of making soil particles fine. A satisfactory seed bed, soil fine and level, is good insurance that seeds will sprout promptly and seedlings grow sturdy.

Before you even think of planting seeds, think of preparing the soil to receive them. This involves first turning it over with a spade or spading fork. Then the clods of soil are broken by hitting them with the back of a rake.

Finally, the smaller chunks that result are reduced in size by the rake's tines. Back and forth you rake, as you do so, the soil particles become ever more nearly the size of the seeds you are going to sow.

That and loosening the soil so the roots can grow are the chief reasons for soil preparation. A third is the final leveling, also done with the tines, that means no high spots to dry out, no low ones in which water can settle.

Seeds are not very large, in fact some of them, like those of petunias, are fine as dust. These little bits of life cannot be expected to sprout until they have moisture. That comes from the soil, the tiny particles which closely contact the seeds.

The average Medicare inpatient hospital daily charge in Texas per day rose from $42.18 to $47.59 in 1968.

Carpet Color Important Consideration

COLLEGE STATION — Color can make a carpet easy or hard to keep clean. In fact, color plays an important role in a carpet's soiling performance, according to Bonny Lay.

Miss Lay, an Extension housing and home furnishings specialist at Texas A&M, reports on a recent study made in England. According to the survey, the lighter the shade, such as gold, peach or sky blue, the worse the performance. The muted and dark colors, such as royal blue, coffee brown and bottle green preformed best.

Single colors also varied in soil performance according to shade or hue, reports Miss Lay. Royal blue was rated very good in concealing soil; delphinium blue, good; Cambridge blue, fair; Wedgwood blue, poor; and sky blue, very poor.

Yellow and white showed soil the most. The specialist says colors which proved best were dark blues and navy, horse chestnut copper, coffee brown, dark falcon brown, hunter or tartan green, bottle green and been beetle.

Only 2.8 percent of the more than $7 billion appropriated for veterans in FY '68 went for administrative expenses, the Veterans Administration reports.

4-H Share-The-Fun-Festival Slated For Friday, April 25

By SHERYL TRIMMIE
Friday, April 25, at the Munday High School Auditorium, the Knox County 4-H Clubs will present their annual Share-the-Fun Festival. It will begin at 8:00 p.m. with a talent show. Each club will present some type of talent sketch. It may be a skit, a singing group, musical instruments or whatever the clubs choose to present. The talent show will be judged and awards given.

Following the talent show, the King and Queen will be crowned from nominees elected in each club. The nominees are: Jerry Lowe and Texanne Partridge, Munday Junior Club; Mickey Stoddard and Cynthia Partridge, Munday Senior Club; Billy Baker and Mandy Lankford, Knox City Club; Rudy Gore and Flora Loftis, Benjamin Junior Club; Bud Clower and LaNay Patterson, Benjamin Senior Club; Eldon Hamilton and Lynn Catlett, Goree Junior Club; Kenneth Walker and Cheryl Harlan, Goree Senior Club; Scotty Abbott and Treenna Cash, Gilliland Club; and Gene Allan Michels and Mary Fetsch, Rhineland Club.

The winners are determined by a penny a vote. The club collecting the most money will have the winning King and Queen. Half of the money each club collects will be kept in its treasury and half will be given to the County 4-H Council. All Knox County residents are invited to attend the Festival.

makers. The court said: "A restaurant keeper may not sit idly by and leave it to the customer to extricate himself from danger." Similarly, a protective obligation may arise from other relationships: employer and employee, carrier and passenger, hotel and guest, hospital and patient.

Still, the duty of rescue is not unlimited. The law will weigh the particular circumstances, not only to decide if there is such a duty but also to decide how far it extends. Was there enough time to interfere before the harm was done? Did the person under attack seem able to take care of himself? Might a rescue attempt have made matters worse?

Thus, a court held that the proprietor of a bowling alley was justified in staying out of a scuffle between a patron and an armed robber. The judge decided that, in the face of a gun, the proprietor's discretion was the better part of valor.

MEDICARE CLAIM FOR DOCTOR BILLS

You may claim payment under Medicare for your doctor bills even if such bills are not paid, according to Edwin Draughton, manager of the Vernon social security office. Before 1968 such bills had to be paid by the patient or submitted to Medicare directly by the doctor. Now you may submit all itemized doctor bills whether paid or unpaid, showing dates of treatment and the nature of the services rendered. Your Vernon social security office at 1728 Fannin, phone LI2-9346, will help you claiming for payment.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Damsel in Distress

Gallantry may impel a bystander to go to the aid of a damsel in distress. But if gallantry doesn't, does law? Do you have any legal obligation to help someone — man, woman, or child—whom you see under attack by a third person?

Generally speaking, the answer is no. If you are a total stranger, having played no role in bringing on the difficulty, you have no duty—legally—to go to the rescue.

Thus, bystanders who looked on and did nothing, while a drunken youth slashed a hotel clerk with a knife, were held not liable to the victim.

This doctrine is based partly on our traditions of individualism, partly on the difficulties of devising and enforcing a legal standard of unselfishness.

Nevertheless, courts have shown an increasing readiness to find a duty-to-help when there is some special relationship between the bystander and the victim. For then, in a sense, they are no longer total strangers.

What kind of relationship may create a duty of assistance?

One example is the relationship between a merchant and his customer. For instance, the owner of a restaurant was held liable for failing to help a young woman being assaulted by a pair of trouble-

Vietnam Veterans Offered Opportunities By VA Office

Vietnam veterans returning home may not be met by parades and bands but they are never overlooked by the mailman, according to Jack Coker, Manager of the Veterans Administration Regional Office in Waco.

These veterans should not overlook news they receive in the mail from VA about job opportunities, money for education, free medical care and other benefits, the VA official advised.

"Computers at Austin, Texas, are used to help bring information on veterans benefits to recently released servicemen at the time they are most likely to act on it," Coker said.

"Although veterans at this time are unsettled and likely to be moving about, they should not neglect to read their mail from VA," he added.

A copy of every discharge (Department of Defense Form 214) goes to VA's computer Center in Austin. The computer takes note of the veteran's educational attainment and any disability and produces a letter to fit the circumstances, the VA Manager explained.

Currently, about 54,000 letters a month are going out to Vietnam veterans in every part of the United States. They give a VA telephone number where more information is available. A preaddressed inquiry card is enclosed so that the man who wants help on a specific subject by mail has only to check the right box.

If he writes in his telephone number, a VA officer will call to set up an interview. In some cities with no VA office, special telephone circuits are provided so that veterans can call the nearest VA office in another city without paying for a long distance call.

For the veteran without a high school diploma who has not responded, there is still another letter. He is advised that an appointment has been made for him with a VA representative. If he can't make it, he is asked to select a more convenient time.

Coker urged that relatives and friends see to it that mail left with them for a veteran actually reaches the veteran.

"This is the time when a fellow really needs friends -- the mailman and VA," the Manager said.

FU President To Speak In Aspermont Thursday

Frank Hoy of Aspermont, president of Stonewall County Farmers Union, has announced that state Farmers Union president Jay Naman of Waco will address a meeting of the Stonewall County Farmers Union on Thursday, April 17, 8:00 p.m., at the High School auditorium in Aspermont. Letters of invitation have been issued to area Farmers Union officials, but all interested in agriculture are invited to hear the statewide farm leader.

Farmers Union has taken a leadership role in an effort to persuade the Nixon administration to extend the cotton loan program beyond the July 31 maturity date in order that farmers might market their crop in an orderly manner without interference from government sales. Naman will discuss recent USDA action on this matter as well as Farmers Union's recommendations on cotton policy.

Naman will also explain the state legislation to curb corporation farming which has Farmers Union backing. A bill introduced by Representative Charles Jungmichel of La Grange will have the effect of curbing what Farmers Union describes as a "serious invasion of Texas agriculture by non-farm, conglomerate corporations."

Naman has recently returned from the National Farmers Union convention where he discussed agricultural problems with Secretary of Agriculture Hardin and participated in the policy drafting of National Farmers Union. He will report on the national outlook for agriculture in 1969.

Wait 10 Weeks Before Writing IRS About Delayed Income Tax Refund

DALLAS — Ten weeks from the date a Federal income tax return calling for a refund is mailed, the taxpayer either has his check or a letter explaining why it is held up, Ellis Campbell Jr., District Director of Internal Revenue for Northern Texas, said today.

For this reason, a taxpayer who has not heard about his refund should wait ten weeks before writing IRS. By waiting this length of time, most taxpayers will find their inquiry unnecessary, Mr. Campbell said.

If it becomes necessary to write, the taxpayer should indicate where and when he filed his return and give his name, address and social security number, Mr. Campbell said. Millions of tax returns are handled every filing season at the Austin Service Center which serves Northern Texas taxpayers. The volume of processing operations there makes it practically impossible for IRS to locate a particular return and to answer any question about it until processing is complete.

Streams In Desert Places
BY OZELLE STEPHENS

"This is the day... It is not difficult to live intimately with God if you take one day at a time and dedicate that day and yourself to Him. David learned the secret of living with God and said, "This is the day which Jehovah hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it." He knew the importance of rejoicing in every opportunity to trust God, of seeing the beauty of God all around him, also of using his life to magnify God. We too can rejoice and give thanks to God for the resurrection power that makes our lives according to His will and purpose. We may not be able to ignore the conditions in the world but we can hold fast to the truths of God and yield ourselves into His transforming presence as the dew is caught up by the morning sun. Let our prayer be that we may live everyday intimately with God for His is the breath of our breath, the life of our body, the light of our mind.

WORTH TALKING ABOUT

The new scientific era that I urge then is really a scientific-humanistic era, one that could set the stage for the appearance of what may well be "the renaissance man of the 21st Century." But the role that such a man will play will be written today largely by our attitudes toward science and the way we apply it. And I should add that it will be written primarily in the halls of our great universities and in the minds and hearts of you [students] who have gathered here to dedicate yourselves to the scientific spirit.... You are part of a quiet revolution. It is a revolution that garners few headlines. It does not feed on fear or violence. It crosses national boundaries without suspicion or distrust. It speaks in all languages to all men who are willing to work, to learn, to change. And I think it is the one revolution that will prevail—simply because it speaks a prevailing truth.

THE COLD FACTS

Ever take meat from the freezer and wonder how it will taste? You should think twice because meat not packaged in moisture - and vapor-proof containers or meat kept in the freezer too long loses flavor and texture. Meat, improperly wrapped and exposed to freezing temperature, will "freeze-burn," that is, dry up, becoming off-color and porous in appearance and texture. When kept in the freezer too long, meat will suffer a loss in flavor. In both cases, the food is safe to eat, but dry and unappetizing.

The following chart was prepared for the Monsanto Company by the National Live Stock and Meat Board. Tape a copy of it to your freezer for easy reference.

HOUSEWARES HAVE COME A LONG WAY

Indeed, the housewares industry has come a long way. Today's housewares combine function and fashion to lighten housework and brighten the home. The National Housewares Exhibit in Chicago celebrated its 50th anniversary this January, and it showed just how far the industry has come since the National Housewares Manufacturers Association was formed in 1939. One long-time exhibitor commented, "In the last 30 years the housewares industry has made more progress in terms of function and design than in the entire previous century."

This year's show displayed accomplishments which, three decades ago, no one even imagined. Plastics are being used to supplement iron, ceramics and other basic materials in many appliances. "Oldtimers" in cookware were, for the most part, made entirely of one material, be it copper, tin, cast iron, stainless steel, heat-resistant glass, or whatever. Today, cookware manufacturers not only introduce new materials but combine old materials to get the benefits of each.

For example, stainless steel pans may have cores of other layers of aluminum or copper to provide better heat conduction.

"Teflon" non-stick finishes were a great boon to the housewares industry, and today a host of coated products ranging from electric frying pans and griddles to steam irons make housework easier and more efficient. In addition to easy-care advantages, "Teflon" introduced the use of color on cooking surfaces. Currently, the enamel is available in 20 colors, designed to coordinate with both the decor of the kitchen and the colors of foods.

Manufacturers of cookware now feature colors that match appliances, walls and woodwork, as well as ones that contrast with them dramatically. Currently, avocado is the dominant color on exteriors of cookware, but yellows and reds are predicted to become popular this spring and summer.

Modern housewares out-perform and out-shine anything heretofore available. They have come a long way, ladies.

Highway Patrol Investigates 4 March Accidents

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated four accidents on rural highways in Knox County during the month of March, according to Sergeant J. W. Garner, Highway Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in five persons injured and an estimated property damage of $2,045.00. The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first three months of 1969 shows a total of 10 accidents resulting in no person killed, nine persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $8,145.00.

The final entry in the 1968 Texas traffic records has been entered and closed. An all-time record of 3,481 persons killed, 216,972 persons injured, and an estimated property loss of $836,802,000.00 was sustained. Since the death count of 2,254 in 1960, Texas has gained steadily each year. The Sergeant stated, "If the number of deaths continue to increase as they have since 1960 by 1975 they will have increased 100 percent."

YIELDS AND USE MAJOR FACTORS IN FEED GRAIN PICTURE

Two major economic trends have largely dominated the feed grain situation in the United States during the past 20 years, reports a Texas A&M University Extension economist. John G. McHaney lists the trends as the 6 percent annual average increase in per acre yield of feed grains since 1954 and the 3.5 percent increase in the annual rate of their use.

During the period from 1949-1953, domestic use and exports of feed grains were virtually in balance with production. But, he adds, a production and use, since, have not stayed in balance and in some years large carryovers resulted. The yield of feed grains in the nation is now about double that for the 1949-53 period but total use, including exports, has increased by only about 50 percent.

The disparity between yield and total utilization has made necessary the diversion of considerable acreage from feed grains to soil-conserving uses. The current feed grain program has as its objective the diversion of 37 million acres.

The sale of feed grains in Texas, mostly grain sorghum, annually accounts for approximately 12 percent of cash farm receipts, says McHaney. Its production in both Texas and the nation is big business and means much to the economy.

The abundant supply of feed grain in Texas along with an efficient range cattle industry, feeder calves, have been major factors in the rapid expansion of the cattle feeding and meat processing industries in the state, he notes.

Grasshoppers could cause more trouble in Texas this year than last. A survey made last fall by the USDA showed 'hoppers were infesting more than 4 million acres, nearly double infested acreage shown in the 1967 survey.

The fall survey, points out L. R. Green, Extension entomologist, indicates the potential problem; however, a survey to be made this spring will give a more accurate estimate of the situation and will pinpoint areas which are likely to require control programs. Farmers and ranchers should be on the alert for hatching 'hoppers, and if numbers warrant control, treatment should be done before the 'hoppers leave their hatching beds, notes Green.

TEXAS 4-H MEMBERS TO NATIONAL CONFERENCE

Four veteran 4-H Club members, with a combined total of 35 years of membership, will represent Texas at the April 19-25 National 4-H Conference in Washington, D. C. The four are Bert Reinke, Travis County; Rebecca Hutchison, Hansford County; Ronald Rydl, Hidalgo County; and Janet Landers, Taylor County. Their selection was based upon their contributions and achievement in 4-H on the local, county, district and state levels.

IMPROVE RANGES BY CONTROLLING MESQUITE

Mesquite control reduces competition to native forage plants and also results in increased production.

Both chemical and mechanical methods are useful tools in mesquite control. During the past 20 years, more than 20 million acres of mesquite on Texas rangelands have been controlled by chemical and/or mechanical methods. But to control the mesquite is not enough. A well-developed grassland management program is necessary for long-term range condition improvement.

Due to the many seeds dormant in the soil, mesquite will continue to be a major problem. Therefore, a complete program must be carried out over a 10 to 15-year period or longer to keep forage production high and the mesquite under control.

EARLY PLANTED GRAIN SORGHUM USUALLY ESCAPES HEAVY MIDGE DAMAGE

Grain Sorghum planted before May 1 stands a much better chance of escaping heavy sorghum midge damage than the later planted fields.

Producers who plan to plant in April or May should consider the sorghum midge problem when deciding when to plant. The heavy build up of the insect usually takes place after grain sorghum has been heading the area for two or three weeks.

USE SAFETY PRECAUTIONS WITH LAWN MOWERS

A power rotary lawn mower isn't thought of as a missile launcher, but the blade can pick up an object and hurl it at more than 200 miles per hour. That is about 300 feet per second.

Inspect your lawn mower before mowing. Make sure all nuts are tight. Disconnect the spark plug wire, or break the connection on an electric mower, before working on the underside of the machine.

Inspect the lawn and clean trash or debris. Rocks, glass, wire, and steel can turn into "bullets" with a boost from the whirling blade.

Check the gasoline before starting to mow. If gas runs out before the job is finished, let the engine cool and then fill it. Never fill the engine when it's hot or in operation, the agent says.

Keep hands, feet, and loose clothing away from moving parts of the machine while it's operating. Wear leather shoes or shoes with steel caps on the toes if you have them. Don't wear sandals while mowing. Maintain control of the mower at all times. If it is self-propelled, don't let the mower pull you. Mow across steep slopes instead of up and down, and keep youngsters and pets away from the mower. Stop the motor when you leave the machine.

Uncle Charlie is very concerned about world problems...

We're very concerned about Uncle Charlie!

You see, being concerned is about as far as Uncle Charlie ever goes. He worries about this...he gripes about that...but actually getting out and doing something to solve some of those problems...well...that never occurs to him. So, the problems remain...some get worse...new ones arise...and good old Uncle Charlie always has plenty of voice concern about.

At Lone Star Gas, we believe in concern plus action. And we put that belief to work in the communities we serve, and for us more than one million customers. There are over 6000 of us at Lone Star Gas, and we like to think there isn't an "Uncle Charlie" among us!

Peace Corps Placement Test To Be Held On April 19

Area residents interested in putting their skills to use in developing nations around the world are invited to take the Peace Corps Placement Test at 1:30 p.m. on Saturday, April 19 at Room 2201 of the New Post Office Building.

The Peace Corps uses the Placement Test to determine how an applicant can best be utilized overseas. The test measures general aptitude and the ability to learn a language, not education or achievement. The test requires no preparation and is non-competitive; an applicant can neither pass nor fail.

Persons interested in serving with the Peace Corps must fill out an Application, if they have not already done so, and present it to the tester before the test. Application forms are available from post offices or from the Peace Corps in Washington, D. C. 20525.

HOUSEWIVES' SS Reports Benefit Retired Workers
Housewives are now among the best informed and motivated groups of employees when it comes to reporting their household employees' wages correctly and on time, according to Edwin Draughon, manager of the Vernon Social Security Office.
Mr. Draughon points out that there are now tens of thousands of retired household workers, and survivors of such workers, receiving social security benefits. This, he says, is a direct tribute to the housewives who have employed these folks and who take a few minutes time every three months to report their wages.
The law requires that any household employee be reported for social security purposes if cash wages to the employee are $50 or more during a three-month calendar quarter. Housewives, he says, are to be congratulated for their fine spirit of compliance with this law. Any new employer, using household help for the first time, may receive full instructions by calling or writing the Vernon Social Security office located at 1728 Fannin Street, phone LI2-9346, or Internal Revenue, Mr. Draughon added.

UP IT GOES! Milton Rowan, left and Arthur L. Cameron of O'Brien watched as a winch truck pulls up one of seventeen huge arborvitae Monday afternoon at the home of Milton's mother, Mrs. W. M. Rowan. Mrs. Rowan said the heavy snow in March had bent some of the limbs so badly that she could not trim them. She said, too, that the blind corner was said to be very dangerous and she felt it would be best to take them up.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Cash of Knox City visited Mrs. John Black Sunday.

Several farmers and ranchers have delivered cattle the past two weeks. Others have contracted calves for June delivery. Mrs. Tommy Tapp went to Wichita Falls last Tuesday.

Randy Tapp visited at Quanah over the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Word and their niece, Kay Hinton. Marion Chowning Jr. lost a butane tractor Friday afternoon. It caught fire when he was refueling and he drove the tractor out to get it away from the house.

Truscott Cub Scouts held their first meeting Tuesday afternoon at the Methodist Annex. Mrs. Don Daniel is Den Mother and boys attending were Steven Woody, Jimmy Daniel, Carl Robinson, Michael Daniel, Jerry Bob Daniel, Dwayne Daniel and Billy Brown. They will hold a bake sale Saturday, April 25.

The booster pump for the Truscott portion of the water system will be located at the corner of J. D. Cook's, according to Florence Miller, secretary for the system. This is across the road from the well at Tommy Westbrook's which is the oldest well in the community and from which water was hauled for several miles by early settlers. The Westbrooks used to haul water from that well to their place on Antelope Flat. In those days the only water boosters were an extra pair of hands on the well rope.

The annual Truscott 4-H Food Show was held at the Community House Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Bill Owens and Mrs. Jim Cash doing the judging. Blue ribbons were awarded to Christy Shaw, Ruth Brown, Renee Westbrook and Jacquelyn Brown. Red ribbons were won by Rosa Palacio and Olivia Quintana.

The Truscott Home Demonstration Club met at the Community House Thursday April 10, with Mrs. J. R. Brown presiding.

Six members answered roll call with "The most interesting place I have visited in Texas." The devotional from Psalms 30:5 was brought by Mrs. Marie Gillespie.

The Lions Club dinner for April 15 was discussed and plans were made for serving.

The program, Knox County History, opened with an account of Jim Moody related by Mrs. J. R. Brown. Mr. Moody came to the area as a line rider for the Farr Ranch. He killed the last buffalo here. Mrs. Brown used as her source a personal interview with Mr. Moody printed in the Foad County News about 1939. Mrs. Marie Gillespie told about the area before settlers arrived. Apaches may have lived in the area before the Comanches moved in, but only for buffalo hunting. An Army officer, Capt. Randolph B. Marcy, seeking a spot for an Indian reservation before the Civil War, called the upper reaches of the Wichita River, "not intended by God for human habitation in this century." Not too long after Capt. Marcy turned down this area as a reservation for one group of Indians, another group of Indians refused to discuss settling in this water short area so close to their "friends" the Comanches, who were friendliest when that particular tribe had corn and other crops to harvest.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Everson of Dumas were subjects for a family feature in the North Plains Press recently. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Everson of Crowell and she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Owen New of Truscott.

The article said the family has bought a camping trailer in order to visit the mountains of nearby New Mexico and Colorado more often, and hope to purchase a fishing boat to add to their camping equipment. Their oldest daughter, Cheryl is 11, and other children are Kim, 8, and Jim Owen, who attends kindergarten. Baseball is a favorite sport with all three children.

Mrs. Everson collects antiques and considers one of her prizes a watch pin given to her maternal grandmother as a wedding present from Mrs. Everson's grandfather. She has had it put on a heavy chain. In the Everson kitchen is a china casket which belonged to her grandmother and is filled with pieces of carnival glass and other dishes which have been in the family for years.

Her husband has taken up the hobby of antiquing furniture and has antiques a bedroom suite for the master bedroom. He is an assistant operator at the Isom Unit of Diamond Shamrock Company northeast of Dumas.

The article called the Eversons typical of the many young industrial families of Moore County who are interested in the opportunities afforded them by the many industries of the North Plains.

Curry Flavor With Chicken

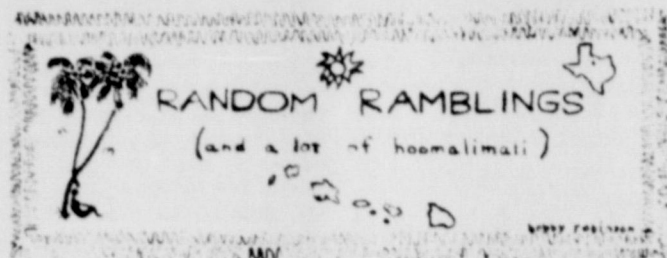

Leftovers won't be lackluster... a new twist, a creative touch and abandon them they're better than their first time 'round the family dinner table. Here, curried chicken or turkey is delicately sauced with plain Swiss-style yogurt, deliciously cupped in big red apples. For a light lunch, the Borden Kitchen suggests ten big flaky biscuits as serve-alongs.

Apples Stuffed With Curried Chicken Salad

(Makes 8 servings)
6 red delicious apples
1 1/4 cup reconstituted lemon juice
2-1/2 cups sliced cooked chicken or turkey
1 cup sliced celery
1 tablespoon chopped fresh dill
1 teaspoon curry powder
1 cup (8-oz. container) Borden Swiss style plain yogurt
1/2 cup heavy cream, whipped
Salt and pepper to taste

Cut a thin slice off the blossom-end of each apple so it will stand upright; dip in lemon juice to prevent discoloration. With a sharp knife, cut around near the stem end of each apple saw-tooth fashion. Scoop and cut out apple centers, dipping each in lemon juice. Reserve cut out fruit for salad; discard cores. Chill in refrigerator. Dice reserved apple; place in large bowl. Sprinkle with lemon juice. Add chicken or turkey, celery and dill; mix well. In a small bowl, combine curry powder and yogurt; blend well. Fold in whipped cream. Gently pour dressing into the apple-chicken mixture. Toss lightly. Season with salt and pepper to taste. Chill thoroughly in refrigerator. Spoon salad-mixture into apple-cups. If desired, garnish with fresh dill.

When Captain James Cook first looked upon these Hawaiian Islands in 1778, little did he realize that he was the first white man to visit here. Because the local native had never seen a white man before, they believed Capt. Cook to be a god, and treated him as such for some time. His mortality was discovered when he became involved in a bit of trouble with the Hawaiians at Kealahou Bay on the Big Island of Hawaii. Seems that when he was stabbed in the back by an Islander, he groaned. Now, everyone knows that a god doesn't groan. As a result, Capt. Cook was then overwhelmed and killed by a mass of dagger-wielding Hawaiians. His bones were nevertheless treated like those of a god - the flesh was stripped off and the bones distributed among all the local chiefs. After a period of fighting, parts of Cook's body were returned and buried with naval honors in the bay.

Capt. Cook's "Sandwich Islands", which he had tagged this chain of islands, have now become one of the top vacation spots in the world. As we walk along the streets of Waikiki and Honolulu we walk elbow to elbow with people of many different nationalities and races. These people are either wealthy seasoned travelers or are here as individuals like you and us who have scrimped and saved all their lives in order to fulfill the dream of a visit to beautiful Hawaii. Some are disappointed by the weather. During the December rainy season this past year tourists were welcomed to Honolulu International Airport by grey, dreary skies and drizzling rain. Some were never able to soak up the sun of Waikiki Beach during their week-long stays here. They had to be content to tour the island in the rain or to run in and out of shops on Kalakaua Avenue - the main street of Waikiki. A lifelong dream had not been entirely wasted, but many spirits had been dampened considerably.

Many fair weather tourists are content to take in all the sights of this tropical paradise while others enjoy the sounds of Alohala. While a tourist bus takes a group of sightseers around the island of Oahu to visit places as Paradise Park near Honolulu, Polynesian Cultural Center on the North Shore, the Mormon Temple at Lihue, or the Sea Life Park at Makapuu, others are frantically trying to decide which hotel show they want to attend that night. "Should we go see Don Ho at Duke Kahanamoku's, or go to the Outrigger Hotel to see the Tommy Sands Show?" "Now, let's go see the fabulous Aliis at the Hikal Canoe House!"

Decisions, decisions, decisions! ... What's funny is listening to these tourists attempt to pronounce those names? It's a real rat race downtown - open-mouthed tourists, non-

WASHINGTON AND SMALL BUSINESS

The Ambush

As everyone seems to agree, the Viet Cong would not go too well trying to stand up to the American fighting men in a direct confrontation. So, with a great deal of wily guile, they have done a great deal of damage with ambushes.

But this use of ambush is not really confined to the Viet Cong. Certain elements of the American Federal Bureaucracy also savy plenty ambush, especially in the Department of Labor. The handiest ambush device is a publication known as the Federal Register.

It is a very simple matter for a bureau to publish some order in the Federal Register and thus not have these matters exposed to a bunch of nasty newsmen who might take issue with the bureaucratic interpretations of laws passed by the Congress. The Federal Register probably does not enjoy a much wider readership than Collier's magazine does today.

Into this Federal Register on October 17, 1967, the Wage and Hour Administration of the Labor Department issued an edict putting under the wage/hour law certain classifications of business even if their volume did not reach $500,000 per year at that time, or the $250,000 dollar per year volume that now applies.

Among this listing was certain service stations, generally are classified as "retail" establishments and thus exempt to some extent.

For included are: ployers as local Commerce, accounting, private detectives, mechanics, ambulance services, commercial art firms, investment companies, senders, etc. others. Although this has already been possible that some were warned, can take steps to minimize the damage that will result when the trap is set.
