

McFARLANE MAKING ACTIVE CAMPAIGN

Throckmorton, June 30. — Congressman W. D. McFarlane spoke to large crowds in Throckmorton County today, speaking at Woodson in the afternoon and at Throckmorton last night. Since returning home, Mr. McFarlane has been active in giving an account of his stewardship and has spoken at Gainesville, Shannon, New Liberty, Electra, Woodson and Throckmorton.

Congressman McFarlane was introduced last evening in Throckmorton to a large and receptive audience by Reverend P. H. Gates. He reviewed the record of the Roosevelt Administration and pointed out the legislative program enacted, and the part he has had in the enactment of this program.

Mr. McFarlane said the issue to be defined in the coming campaign by the people is whether or not they will be regimented back into the service of the privilege groups or whether or not a Democratic Administration, dedicated to the establishment of equal economic opportunity for all of our people in keeping with our democratic platform, would be maintained.

Mr. McFarlane stressed the point that one's usefulness depended first upon his earned reputation for truth and reliability. He pointed out that he has kept faith with every platform pledge and has voted 100 per cent in support of the Roosevelt Program, and that not a single vote he has cast in the past two years has been challenged as wrong by any opponent.

After Congressman McFarlane had thoroughly explained the accomplishments of the Administration, and his record of service, he deplored the scurrilous attack made by one of his opponents in an anonymous circular circulated by that opponent throughout the district. He read from a letter written by the unnamed reporter of the Chicago Tribune, purported to have made these maliciously false statements, in which letter this reporter completely repudiates the letter and states "so far as I know of my own personal knowledge these statements cannot be sustained in fact." Mr. McFarlane deplored the vicious attack being made upon him in this anonymous circular spread over the district attacking his character and standing in the congress and as a member of the Texas Delegation recommending him for the powerful Appropriations Committee; letters from the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee and the Agricultural Sub-Committee, and many important Members of Congress, including the Honorable Sam Rayburn, Majority Leader of the House of Representatives, who expressed his appreciation by writing: "I am writing you this letter to thank you for your fine spirit of cooperation with the House Leadership. It has been a pleasure and a benefit to be associated with you here as fellow Members of the Texas Delegation. I want you to know how personally grateful I am to you for your loyalty, not only to the House organization but also to the Administration." Mr. McFarlane then held up clippings of this week's news release from the defeated candidate of two years ago and answered, specifically each of the attacks made against him and pointed out that H. R. 8023, the tax on automatic machinery was introduced by him at the request of the American Federation of Labor because of the large number of people forced out of employment by large industrial plants use of automatic machinery.

Mr. McFarlane read a letter from Chairman Bobbitt of the Highway Commission commending him for his "active, efficient support of the road program in the National Congress." He pointed out that he had offered the first legislation under the Administration in the Congress on hi-jacking, bank robbing and kidnapping, and read a letter from Chairman Summers commending him for his work in pioneering with this legislation. He also pointed out legislation he has offered and actively supported; and read excerpts from the Congressional Record quoting Senators Borah and Norris commending him for his eliminating the right of large corporations to file consolidated income tax returns thereby placing back into the treasury more than $300,000,000 annually heretofore escaping taxation.

Mr. McFarlane read letters from the Farmers' Union, National Grange and other farm labor organizations, including Chairman Wardlaw, of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, all expressing their appreciation of his active support of legislation affecting agriculture and the live stock industry. He also pointed out speeches made and votes cast supporting the independent oil operators and their rights.

Mr. McFarlane closed his remarks with an appeal for support for the Roosevelt Administration and those who fought its battle against the monopolies and the program demanding equal privileges and opportunities for all with special privileges for none.

KECK OPENS FOOD STORE IN MUNDAY

The Munday store will be in charge of Raymond Stapp a well known grocery man who for almost two years was manager of the Red and White Grocery in Knox City. Mr. Stapp and family will move to Munday as soon as a residence can be secured. Mr. Keck is one of the leading grocers in this section of West Texas, having stores in both Knox City and Rochester. ## Judge J. B. Stephens Drafted by Friends

Benjamin, July 4 — James A. Stephens, pioneer Knox county attorney, and candidate for the court of criminal appeals, came near having his name in two places on the democratic ballot of Foard county.

While in a campaign tour down state he learned that friends had filed his name as a candidate for the lower house of the legislature from the 114 district. This includes Knox county.

Stephens had to notify county democratic chairmen of the four counties to withdraw his name for the legislative office.

Judge Stephens has expressed complete satisfaction at the reception accorded him by voters. He says he will visit every county in the state before the first primary election, contacting voters personally. Stephens was a candidate for associate justice of the court of criminal appeals in 1936. Although, as he puts it, he "went nowhere and did no campaigning" he polled 300,000 votes. This year, with an energetic campaign throughout the state he expects to exceed that, he declared.

Stephens was born in Johnson county, Texas. His parents families settled there in the 1840s. Orphaned at the age of eight, he attended all the schools he could reach. A woman school teacher instilled in him the ambition to become a lawyer. He read all text books published at that time and mastered the federal and state constitutions, studying at night.

Judge Stephens lays claim to the unique accomplishment of having read consecutively all opinions published by the appellate courts of Texas for 44 years.

ED GOSSETT WILL SPEAK OVER COUNTY SATURDAY

ED GOSSETT

Ed Gossett of Wichita Falls

candidate for congress from this district will address the voters of Knox County next Saturday at the following places.

Saturday July 9th, at Truscott, at 11:00 a. m. At Benjamin, at 2:00 p. m. At Goree at 4:00 p. m. and at Knox City at 8:30 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Caussey and little son spent the fourth with relatives and friends in Seymour.

The Boy Scouts will be honor guests at the services of the Methodist Church Sunday Night. Parents of Boy Scouts with all the family, are cordially invited to attend.

G. W. Moore of Goree candidate for County Treasurer was here yesterday meeting the voters.

GEORGE MOFFETT HERE SATURDAY NIGHT

GEORGE MOFFETT

George Moffett State Representative from this district and candidate for State Senator addresses the voters of Knox City Saturday night.

The largest crowd that has attended a political rally in Knox City was present to hear him, and old timers say that George made the best speech that he has made during the campaign. He told of his eight years of service in the lower house and ask that the people advance him to the Senate. He was the author of a number of important bills that are now on the statue books.

He being a farmer himself, knows the needs of the farmer and has always worked for the advancement of agriculture. He told of his efforts to secure a cotton laboratory for the State of Texas and how he succeeded in getting it passed through both houses only to be vetoed by Jimmie Allred. He is of the opinion that this state will get this laboratory as the federal government is going to erect one in the south and as Texas produces one third of the cotton in the south it stands to reason that it will be located here.

He will not be able to return to this section before the July primary, as he must devote a great deal of his time in the east part of the district. His many friends here assured him that he would no doubt carry this county by a good majority.

ERNEST O. THOMPSON IN WICHITA FALLS FRIDAY

ERNEST O. THOMPSON

Wichita Falls, July 5 — Not another West Texas Chamber of Commerce Convention, but something approaching that recent hilarious conclave here appears definitely in the making for Friday night, July 8, when Colonel Ernest O. Thompson comes to the Memorial auditorium lawn for the feature rally of his gubernatorial race in this section.

Not just because the Thompson-for-Governor club now whirling in Wichita Falls under Bert King's leadership is working day and night to boost red-thatched Amarilloan for governor, but because his supporters in all surrounding cities are taking over the parade. Reports received Tuesday from numerous communities throughout this area gave assurance that hundreds of Thompson boosters in the now seething race will be whooping it up here Friday night for their nominee.

Numerous bands already are assured for the event, with the Henrietta 35-piece ensemble beginning the musical fireworks probably as early as 5 p. m. Friday. Paul Seeds' Texans of this city, bands from Vernon and Electra, already are in the picture, and others are expected.

Definite enlistment of delegations already is under way in Henrietta, Bellvue, Bowie, Montague, Nocona, Ringold, Seymour, Burkburnett, Iowa Park, Electra, Vernon, Archer City, Megargel, and Jacksboro. The rally here will be Thompson's first major engagement in Northwest Texas since the campaign settled down to an intensive warfare two weeks ago. The railroad commissioner-candidate will reach Wichita Falls Friday.

"It's more like a companion than a magazine," remarked one high school student. "It gives advice and entertainment on every subject in which a young fellow is interested. I made our basketball team solely because of playing tips I read in the American Boy."

Trained writers and artists, famous coaches and athletes, explorers, scientists, and men successful in business and industry join with an experienced staff to produce, in The American Boy, just the sort of stories and articles boys like best.

The American Boy sells on all newsstands at 15c cents a copy. Subscription prices are $1.50 for one year or $3.00 for three years. To subscribe simply send your name, address and remittance direct to The American Boy, 7430 Second Blvd., Detroit, Michigan.

TENNANT LAND PURCHASE PROGRAM IS ENLARGED

The State Advisory Committee of the Farm Security Administration met in Dallas and designated thirty two new counties in which loans will be tenanted farmers for purchase of land during the fiscal year beginning July 1. A total of $2,747 was allocated, as compared with $820,000 during the previous fiscal year.

Rapid expansion of the land purchase program in the next few years was forecast by C. M. Evans, Texas-Oklahoma director of the FSA. Evans said that the 380 farms to be bought in Texas under the new allocation will serve only a fraction of one percent of the total tenants of the state, but that "funds will be appropriated in the future as rapidly as FSA demonstrates ability to handle them effectively."

Texas was the second state in the Union to complete its loans during the first year of the program, and credit for this achievement was given by Mr. Evans to the county committee of dirt farmers who selected the tenants to receive loans and appraised the farms bought. Eighteen percent more farms were bought than had been expected, because of the careful appraisals made by the local committees, Evans said.

Names of the 32 new counties in which loans will be made were sent to Secretary Wallace of the Department of Agriculture for approval, along with some of the 23 counties in which loans were made last year which will receive a few additional loans this year.

The counties will not be made public until confirmed by the Secretary. At the same time, county committees will also be announced.

Evans said the movement to put land into ownership of the man who cultivates it is gathering weight rapidly. He has received reports from a conference of 30 of the nation's largest insurance companies, at which it was indicated that 500,000 farms could be offered for sale through FSA, with purchase payments extending over forty years time at 3 per cent interest and no down payment required. The companies indicated that they would accept the FSA method of appraisal, according to the value of the crops which the land has produced over a period of years. This permits the purchaser to pay out from the actual yield of the land, annual payments in many cases being less than the amount which has previously been paid as rent.

Mary Cogswell, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Cogswell left last Thursday for a ten day visit with her sister, Mrs. O. L. Hays of Mt. Pleasant, Texas. On her way home she will spend a few days with her friends in Nocona where the family formerly lived.

R. O. Peevey of the Sunset community and candidate for County Commissioner was visiting the voters here Tuesday.

SUPPLY OF HOPPER POISONING GETTING LOW

Our supply of grasshopper poison will be exhausted soon, but farmers are urged to continue their fight on these pests. Walter Rice, county agent stated that the Federal Government co-operating with the commissioner's court have supplied farmers with 7 carloads of poison material and have distributed it free to control the hoppers. Crops have been saved but unless farmers continue to fight the hoppers they will move in over night and destroy large acreage of crops.

The hoppers have not migrated from the county. They are here and may start to work over night after a lull period. Feed stores have an ample supply of bran and the drug stores have laid in a supply of white arsenic.

The following formula is recommended for the best results.
 4 lb. white Arsenic
 100 lbs of bran
 2 gal sorghum or black strap molasses
 4 oz. banana oil or amyl acetate
 Mix the poison with enough water to stir into a paste, then add this paste to the syrup and cut with 4 to 5 gals. of water, mixing good. Pour this over the bran and mix thoroughly. The bait should be sown broadcast 10-20 lbs per acre, late in the evening of early of the morning.

Calcium arsenic is not suitable for grasshopper poison as it is not strong enough to get a good kill.

BIRTHDAY DINNER FOR UNCLE TOM JENNINGS

Uncle Tom Jennings celebrated his 90th birthday June 22. The following children attended. Mrs. Jim Smith of Winters, Mrs. George Murray of Brownfield, Mrs. Clarence Caviness of Temple, and Sam Jennings and family of Knox City and one grandson Jim Tom Smith of Odessa, and about thirty-five or forty other guests who are friends of Uncle Tom. A number of other children were unable to attend.

Mr. Jennings was born in Johnson Missouri and came to Texas at the age of four years. He is very active for one of his age and usually comes to town every day. His memory is good and he is quite interesting telling of the early days in Texas, especially about the Indian raids.

Denton, June 30. — With the railing as a study hall, these 2 Knox City boys are evidently taking their summer work seriously. L. N. Bridges, Jr. and Paul L. Hoge are both enrolled in the summer Speech Institute at Texas State College for Women, which they were invited to attend after being chosen All State Actors.

L. N. son of Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Bridges, is in the dramatic and declamation division, studying under the direction of Emory G. Horger and Horton Talley. Paul, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hoge, was presented this week in an extemporaneous speaking recital.

HASKELL RACE DRIVER KILLED, JULY 4TH

Haskell, July 4 — (Spl.) Joe Termin, 37, dirt racing driver of Dallas, was killed instantly here this afternoon when his machine threw the right rear tire in the third lap of the opening race.

The car skidded broadside off the south turn, tumbled down the embankment and went through a high board fence surrounding the Haskell speedway.

Termin was winner in the two feature events of the opening day of the meet and placed second in the time trials this afternoon.

He was a member of the Southwestern Auto Racing Association and a strong competitor in the championship meet sponsored by the Central West Texas Fair Association here.

At almost the same site of Termin's fatal crash, a car driven by Arthur Rhodes of Dallas crashed through the fences Sunday in the second race. He was unhurt but his machine was damaged badly. Rhodes was driving his first race.

Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Cogswell announce the engagement of their daughter Mary Florence to Mr. Ronald W. Wheeler, Jr., 1411 Sixth Ave., Fort Worth. The date of the wedding is August 5.

McFARLANE FOR Congress

On July 23rd the voters of the 13th Congressional District, comprising fifteen counties, will select their Representative in Congress for the next two years. This is a serious matter and the voters should be as careful in making their choice for this important office as they are in selecting some one to represent or act for them in their own personal business affairs.

This being true, it then should be the desire of every voter to vote for one they KNOW has been true to his constituents in every possible instance and who has not failed to vote for the interests of a majority of the people at every opportunity.

LET US CONSIDER A FEW FACTS

W. D. McFarlane was first elected to the State Legislature of Texas to represent his district in the Texas House. His record in the Lower House was so outstanding that his election to the State Senate followed as a natural consequence. While in the Texas Legislature he was always fighting for his people in every instance. Here are some of the HIGH-LIGHTS in his record:

First: He was a "conservator" of the people's tax money rather than a "spender." He fought every bill that had for its purpose the raising of taxes or the creating of more bureaus or new boards. He belonged to what they called the "Hatchet Brigade," that is, he believed in cutting expenses of the state to absolute necessities, as you, Mr. Farmer, Mr. Merchant cut your personal expense down to the lowest possible, figure consistent with good business policy. But Mr. McFarlane was constructive too, he was the joint author of the Bill that raised the allotment for Rural Schools from $10 per Capita to $17.50 per Capita.

During his service in the Texas Legislature it reduced the expenses of the state government from ten to thirteen million dollars each biennium from the figure asked by the "spenders." He was always opposed to new jobs that increased the expenses of the state government.

McFarlane vigorously opposed the "relocation of the state penitentiary" whereby he prevented the sale of 75,000 acres of state-owned land, 53,000 acres of this land being the richest land in the whole state, and we now have the best penitentiary system in the whole nation.

For these and many other remedial measures in the Texas Legislature we elected him to represent us in the National Congress, where, on account of his wide legislative experience and known legislative record, he was placed upon the Naval Affairs Committee, one of the twelve great committees of the House. He is recognized in congress as an "Income Tax Expert," having gained this knowledge by three years hard work in Chicago, prior to his congressional work.

By permission of the President, he investigated the Income Tax returns of five corporations that sold aircraft equipment to the government and found that they had evaded the payment of over two millions of dollars in income taxes. He introduced a Bill to stop these loop holes, had it printed in the Congressional Record, and made a speech on the Bill. Senator Borah, of Idaho read the Bill and McFarlane's speech, saw it would stop the loop-holes, and he (Senator Borah) introduced an amendment to a pending Revenue Bill in the Senate and it was adopted, passed by the Senate and the House and became a law and the next year there was collected more than $400,000,000 more revenue. McFarlane was "worth that $400,000,000" to the taxpayers, paid in by those best able to pay.

McFarlane has supported ALL the New Deal legislation introduced into congress since that time and which was endorsed ed by the democratic platform. Last year when Congressman J. F. Buchanan, chairman of the great Appropriations Committee of the House, a member from Texas who had been in congress for more than 24 years, died, the House Ways and Means Committee (the Committee which elects ALL members to their committee assignments) told the members from Texas that the Committee would elect any man from Texas to Mr. Buchanan's place whom the Texas delegation in Congress recommended, and McFarlane was unanimously endorsed for the place and has been on this great committee since. One KNOWS whether a man is a good workman if he has worked by his side for five years, and that was the endorsement of the men who had worked beside McFarlane and who KNEW that he was the best man for the place. It takes years of hard work to become efficient in the Congress, the greatest legislative body in the whole world and McFarlane has gained his reputation for honesty and integrity by his tireless work during his service in Congress.

McFarlane has been proven; he has been weighed in the balance of national public opinion and has been found to be true to his people. Read what "PLAIN TALK" Magazine, Inc., 1005 K St. N. W., Washington, D. C. says about McFarlane under the heading: "Facts About McFarlane of Texas"; "In Texas W. D. McFarlane again resisted all siren calls and voted for his people four times in a row, boosting his figures for his total service in Congress to 27 votes for his people and NONE against them. Texans who joined the "1,000 per cent CLUB" this Congress were Patman, Garrett, Mahon, Maverick and South. Despite Mr. Maverick's pro-Administration pro-Administration professions, he was with his people when it came time to vote. Texas farmers have particular reason to seek the re-election of McFarlane and all who voted with him on the three very important farm measures which came before the 75th Congress. Mr. McFarlane is on the powerful and important Appropriations Committee and has always championed the right of the farmer, the worker and the common man, not only on the floor of Congress but in the committee rooms as well."

From the above it will be seen that McFarlane is recognized by this outstanding Publication as a real friend to the people and especially the Farmers. He works on the theory that he was chosen by the people as their Representative and makes it his purpose at all times to vote for them. And, in calling your attention to some of his work as our Representative in Congress, let us go one step farther and say something about him that doubtless few of the people really know and fully understand, and it is simply this: Mr. McFarlane is conscientious to the nth degree; he believes in standing by the principle and of all the criticism ever directed at or against him, it has never been said that he is unfaithful to his party or people. He tells all alike how he stands and does not change his belief with every change of the wind! It must be said in his behalf that if there ever was or is now a member of Congress who is above reproach from any angle or who is without price—it is our Representative W. D. McFarlane.

With these facts in mind, let us remember that we are selecting a Representative for another two years in the National Congress and since we have this opportunity of again electing one who is faithful to every promise and who knows nothing save service to his people and conscientious work, and who is experienced by actual performance of these duties in both State and National legislative bodies, and show our own faith in him by re-electing W. D. McFARLANE to Congress.

Acclaimed by engineers, designers and artists as the most advanced development in modern rail transportation, the new Twentieth Century Limited of the New York Central's "super-luxury train," in two sections each way, went into service between New York and Chicago on a time impulse sent to each terminal by special wire from the Elgin Observatory. ### WHEN IS A POLITICIAN A POLITICIAN

That question is in the limelight in Texas these days. It is being used in a disparaging sense by quite a lot of people. Webster says a "politician" is one who is skilled in the art of government or one who is occupied with the management of a system of government." That would imply "experience." It has no meaning of disfavor or crookedness. Just as well refer in a disrespectful manner to a person who has given years and years to handling of machinery, or practicing medicine, or anything that depends on skill for success. Some people would like to see all office holders, or has been office holders kept out of governmental affairs, because they are "politicians." As long as a person's conduct holds up as to honesty and morality, and if one has proved able and efficient in public office, he is all the better fitted for better service. The chief difference between the man in office and the men out, the one in knows something and the other fellow only thinks he does. Government is a complicated machine, and just anybody can not make it go. Don't be fooled. The fellow on the ground looking at an airplane may promise what he would do if he were up there. Get into a ship of state with such a "promiser" and watch how hard the snip comes down.

The way to measure a "politician" is to think of his bearing. Is he a reasonable upright person; has he had an opportunity to see and to know about the many departments of the state; does he really know what to promise and what can be done; does he really know the limitations of the people when it comes to taxes; can he skillfully suggest needed legislation and get a majority of the legislature to see his way and really accomplish something? Such questions need first place in the minds of Texas voters this summer. Don't let fan-fare and fiction sway one from sound thinking. — Hamlin Herald

Marck Weber, conductor of that Contented program on NBC, is one artist who really made a sacrifice for a radio career. After success in every important European capital, he decided he wanted to see America. That meant giving up a country estate on the outskirts of Berlin, a 16 room castle filled with valuable antique furnishings, a 16 room apartment in Zurich, Switzerland, his second of eight floors, a 16 room apartment in Zurich, Switzerland, his second of eight floors, a 16 room apartment in Zurich, Switzerland, his second of eight floors. Here he has an entourage which includes a dignified interpreter and two Bavarian housemaids in native dress. "To give me the home touch," he explains.

Elvira Rios, beautiful young singer from Mexico, is the latest addition to radio's international colony in Hollywood. She sings little known songs of Old Mexico every week over the networks and consoles her homesickness with the thought that her countrymen hear her via short wave. Joan Blaine was hostess last week to her "Valiant Lady" Blaine at a party in the cool Roof Gardens of New York's Hotel McAlpin. Paid for by lines imposed for late arrivals at rehearsals... Amos 'n' Andy turned in what proved to be a preview of the Louis-Schmeling fight on their program the night before the fight came off.

Johnny Vander Meer, the Cincinnati Reds' wonder pitcher, is a radio holdout. He values his services for guest appearances at $1,500 and is offered $500. Bob Trout, ace Columbia commentator, got his first trans-Atlantic fan call last week after describing Coney Island in a special broadcast to England. The Englishman wanted him to look up a friend at the resort. The Detroit symphony orchestra is slated to return to the kilocycles September 11, with John Charles Thomas as the first guest artist. Wonder how you got out artificial redheads are going to be when they discover that they will photograph a muddy blonde on the television screen?

Charlie McCarthy, a recent book reveals, was used by Edgar Bergen as a horrible example of a bad boy back in his days on the Chautauque circuit and another dummy, Laura, as the well behaved child. Whatever became of Laura? Those "Vocal Varieties" have scored again, this time with their feature of the most popular songs of big stars. Their ideas are good as well as the music.

Walter O'Keefe, master of the flip retort and hero of the stage, screen and radio, returns from Hollywood to New York to finish his original "Lend Me Your Ears," a musical comedy. Bobby Dolan, O'Keefe's former orchestra leader, is writing the music for the planned fall production. Marion Talley, former Met star, has launched the third year of her programs. Dolores Gillen, pretty network actress, has set a new style for radio by appearing at the mike in culottes.

Walter O'Keefe

Harold Peary, the "Public Hero No. One" actor recently set a new record for being someone else—in fifteen minutes he was eight different people in the script. Not all of the top radio actors are going out of the country on their vacations, reports to the contrary. Jack Benny and Fibber McGee are two who expect to spend most of their vacation time at home. John J. Anthony, conductor of the "Original Good Will Hear," is one of radio's busiest men. Manages to speak before philanthropic groups average of three nights a week and last week hit a high with eight speeches.

There was no will. An executor had to be appointed by the court, a broker and a lawyer appointed by the court had terms with whom to divide the estate. Each applied for a third of the estate. The executor got 5% and had one year to settle.

Tom Howard and George Shelton are the latest comedy nominees for a cigarette show starting in August. Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy will do their portion of the Sunday show from New York during July. Maestro Andre Kostelanetz and his bride, Lily Pons, will arrive in Buenos Aires on July 4, starting a South American vacation and honeymoon. Edward Arnold takes over Don Ameche's emcee spot this summer during the eight weeks Ameche will be sojourning in Europe. Les Tremayne, NBC leading man, is trying to find time to take up sculpture again. Les is a proficient artist but has been too busy with radio this year.

Radio actors in Chicago admit that Malcolm Meacham cannot be stumped by tongue twisters. They will be surprised to learn that Malcolm stammered until he was more than twenty years old. Although Fick and Fat, CBS blackface comedy team, have been in radio more than four years, they never had their pictures taken out of blackface makeup until last week. Milton Geiger, author of the thrilling new "Attorney at Law" series which will be heard in the "Fibber McGee" period during the summer, is another Rudy Vallee protégé.

George Burns' pet name for Gracie Allen is Goochie. She calls him Nat. Nat is George's real name. J. Anthony Smythe, known to millions of listeners as Father Barbour of "One Man's Family," is a bachelor. Andy Devine is being ribbed plenty these days. Seems the big neon sign Andy put up to advertise Van Nuys, California, on a main trans-California highway, still doesn't light, weeks after Andy's election as mayor of Van Nuys. Nine motion picture players are heard regularly on the National Barn Dance. They are the four Vass sisters and their brother, Frank, and the Maple City Four.

Barbara Luddy, star of the NBC "First Nighter" program, bought a new riding habit before leaving on her recent California vacation. Tried it on after her return and found she had lost pounds. Cost her $15 for alterations. Lee Gillette, Lee Getch and Bob James sang for a couple of years as the "Three Notes" two months ago they added a "fourth note" in the person of Leo Laotyn. Now, as the "Four Notes," they're in radio big time with a regular spot on the "Fibber McGee" program.

Glen Gray

Glen Gray and his Casa Loma orchestra will be heard with Burns and Allen beginning July 4. Francis X. Bushman is heard regularly now on the "Betty and Bob" shows. "Uncle Ezra's" thought for the day: "Do the thing you think is right; if it doesn't burn out for the best, at least you know you've made a try, and the Lord will do the rest."

Driscoll warmly endorsed Thompson's candidacy from the platform. Lower right is 12-year-old Johnnie Barnhart of Beeville, who astonished the crowd with a fluent speech in which he stated that "nine years from now when I am old enough to vote, I want to find the state in good condition, and I know it will be if we turn it over now to Col. Ernest Thompson."

Bob Burton who resides in the Sunset Community and a candidate for County Treasurer was here Monday on business.

JOHN WOOD

Austin, July 7 — The action of the dominant control of the railroad commission in rescinding the Saturday closing order is definite evidence that that body plays politics with the welfare of Texas, according to a statement issued by John Wood, candidate for a place on the railroad commission.

"Three weeks ago," said Wood, "I predicted that for political purposes the Saturday closing would be rescinded.

The sole purpose was to put a lot of men back to work in the hope of getting their votes. Then after the second primary they doubtless will restore the Saturday closing and add Friday.

I do not undertake to say whether the wells should ever have been closed, but I do say, and everybody knows it is true, that there has been no statistical change in production and consumption to justify meddling with the state's largest industry just before election time. One of the commissioners announced that both Saturday and Sunday closing would be rescinded and then when he and the other voting members, the two making up the dominant control of the commission, got together they announced reopening the wells on Sunday was not justified. Of course it was proper to close the wells three months ago.

In other words, the railroad commission plays politics in everything its dominating commissioners do.

In offering my services as a railroad commissioner, I point to my own record as a member of the Highway Commission for more than five years, where politics has no place and our workers are efficient. In fact, I am not a politician, having been strictly a business man nearly all my life, and now seeking my first elective office."

Mr. and Mrs. Odie Karr and children, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Smith and little son attended the auto races in Haskell Monday.

Herbert Sams candidate for County Attorney was here yesterday meeting the voters.

GRANDVIEW—Being a baseball enthusiast and having all the superstitions of a player in a batting slump, C. V. Terrell, chairman of the Texas Railroad commission, halted his campaign for re-election just north of here at the fork of the Fort Worth-Cleburne roads to tack placards to his lucky post. "Every time I've run for state office I've tacked my own placards on this post," said Terrell. He has never lost yet.

There Are Two Ways To Milk A Cow--

Mr. Merchant:

If your advertisement were in this space, as many people would read it as are reading this. But your advertisement isn't here and people don't care a rap whether you are selling real estate, gasoline, or peanuts.

Did you ever sit down in the pasture with a pail between your knees and wait for a cow to back up and be milked? Of course not! You have better sense.

Well business is a lot like a cow. You've got to go out and round it up. The fellow with the milk pail betwixt his knees MAY get some milk, but the odds are all in favor of the fellow who drives up the cow and feeds her.

A merchant may make a living by "cussing" the government and waiting for something to happen, but the merchant who makes the MONEY is the fellow who goes after the business through the columns of his local newspaper.
