MABEL EDWARDS INJURED WHEN STRUCK BY CAR

Mabel Edwards, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Edwards, escaped serious injury Saturday night when she was struck by a car when crossing a street in Ft. Worth.

Mabel is a student at Harris Memorial Hospital and was on her way to eat before going on duty when the accident occurred. The car was driven by a negro.

The Vacation Bible School of the local First Baptist Church started with a bang Friday afternoon when more than 100 young people and teachers staged a parade through town. In the top photo Rev. E. V. Becker, pastor, and a group of youngsters are shown with the Knox City fire truck, which bore a placard reading "Put out the Devil's Fire." In the bottom picture, the sign on the wrecker from Deluxe Paint & Body Shop reads, "Wreck the Devil's Workshop." Also in the parade was Warren Funeral Home's ambulance, with a sign saying "Help Bury Juvenile Delinquency." (Herald Photos)

11th Homecoming Very Successful

The 11th annual Homecoming of graduates, ex-students and patrons of the Knox City school began Saturday evening, June 2, with a picnic dinner in the basement of the American Legion Building.

Approximately 150 ex-students and graduates registered for the dinner. Mrs. George Wall and Earl Benedict registered the guests and collected dues.

The basement was decorated in the Mexican motif, with cacti and arrangements of wild flowers and grasses decorating the serving booths and tables. Paper plates and napkins were in deep tones of browns, reds, and greens, and Texas brands were painted on the table covers.

Following the dinner, a dance was held in the auditorium. Music was furnished by Brownie Tackitt and his string band and Lloyd Huntsman and his band of Hale Center.

Sunday morning activities began at 11:00 a. m. at the school auditorium. Churches in Knox City dismissed preaching services so that members could attend the program and the dinner which was served in the school lunchroom.

Doyle Graham led the opening song. Rev. Howard Marshall, new pastor of the First Christian Church, gave the invocation, followed by a welcome by Ancil Waldrip, president of the association.

Rev. Oscar Bruce, new pastor of the First Methodist Church, read the scripture and Rev. Floyd V. Bailey, pastor of the Knox City Foursquare Church, delivered an inspiring sermon.

A trio, composed of Mrs. Neil Perdue, Mrs. Buddy Angle and Mrs. Bob Robertson, sang "Beyond the Sunset," in memory of Mary Bea Woodward Cox, a graduate who passed away during the past year. Stanley Shipp, minister of the Church of Christ, conducted the memorial service.

Benediction was pronounced by Rev. Emil V. Becker, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

Foursquare Church Plans Bible School

The annual Daily Vacation Bible School at the local Foursquare Church will begin Tuesday, June 12, and close Friday, June 22, it was announced this week by the pastor, Rev. Floyd V. Bailey.

Classes will be held each afternoon from 2:30 to 5:00 p. m. Rev. Bailey said, and boys and girls of all ages are invited to attend. There will be trained teachers for each class, and instructions will include various craft-work.

COLORED MEETING NOW IN PROGRESS

Every person in town, colored or white, is invited to the colored meeting now in progress on the Farmers Gin lot. F. A. Livingstone of Ft. Worth is doing the preaching in the meeting, and Mr. Brackett, of Vernon, is leading the singing. The two men work together in meetings most of every summer.

There will be ample parking space and a good public address system for those who wish to stay in their cars.

According to Stanley Shipp, local church of Christ minister, Livingstone has committed much of the Bible to memory, and every person that attends is urged to carry Bible, pencils and paper, and take down the scripture the preacher uses in his sermons. Livingstone is one of the outstanding evangelists among the colored of the church of Christ, Shipp added, and holds meetings throughout the United States each year.

The meeting will continue through June 15, with services beginning at 8:00 each evening.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION SHORT OF FUNDS

Have a good time during the K. C. H. S. Homecoming this year? Well, it's time to pay the fiddler.

Earl Benedict, Alumni Association treasurer, asks that all graduates and ex-students who failed to pay their dues during the reunion, please mail a check to him or leave the money at his office.

"The association is about $20 short of meeting expenses this year," the treasurer said. "We have no set amount on dues—just whatever you feel you can pay. The homecoming was a huge success, and many paid their dues, but expenses were considerably higher than last year," he added.

Washington Letter

By Congressman Ed Gossett

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 2.—This is late Saturday afternoon and I have not had time to prepare this week's newsletter. Congressman W. R. Poage, of Waco, has written a newsletter on the burning subject of the day, to-wit: inflation. With his permission, I am simply substituting his newsletter of this week and sending it in lieu of my own. I do not necessarily agree with my distinguished colleague in all particulars, but his observations are sincere and significant. Our readers I know will be interested in his views.

containing 50 names. The letter with the petition stated that this was identical to hundreds of similar petitions. This petition protests the "raggedly increasing cost of living" and urges that "prices be rolled back to pre-Korean levels, and that a new law strong enough to protect the consumers be enacted." It then states that "we also urge that new taxes not be placed on low income families, and suggest that needed revenue be secured from corporations with their record profits and from high income families who are not carrying their share."

It is but natural for all of us to seek a simple solution. The tendency of the hour is to feel that we can cure any problem by "passing a law." We have tried to stop inflation with a law. Last August Congress passed a law giving the President power to freeze ALL prices and ALL wages. I voted for this law. I thought that if we acted promptly it would be possible to use the law as a sort of temporary stop-gap to hold the line until we could attack the real causes of inflation. I still think we could have done much to stabilize the situation had we acted at that time. No action was taken to use the powers Congress granted. I fear the time in which these control devices could be used has passed. We must now follow the slower but much more fundamental policy of attacking the cause of inflation. Our people were ready last summer to accept controls across the board—controls which would control everybody. Since that time they have seen controls applied to some groups for the benefit of other groups and the American spirit of fair play has revolted against this practice. Last week we saw the price of cattle rolled back (with no reduction in the price of meat to the consumer). The livestock producer's standard of living which is today about one and one-half times what it was in the base period was reduced by about ten per cent. He was told that it would be reduced by about the same amount again this fall. The same week saw the packing house workers granted an increase of not quite ten per cent in their wages. Their living standard was already almost exactly twice what it was during the base period.

Last year in his message to Congress, President Truman said: "Price and wage controls do not cure the basic cause of inflation—the inflationary gap between the supply of goods and the value of buying power. The cure can only come by closing the gap." This statement is, of course, true. It seems to me that it is high time that we began to treat the cause of inflation, rather than the result. The cause is lessened production for civilian purposes, and increased buying power (more money).

Most ceiling prices and all price roll-backs tend to reduce production (because there is less incentive), and they increase demand (because there are more customers at the lower price). Therefore, over any extended period of time, they actually add to the inflationary process. Like a narcotic, they should be used only for a limited time in the most critical situations.

I have voted for higher taxes and shall vote for still higher taxes. Taxation is not, however, the best way of checking inflation as it definitely lowers people's living standards. It simply makes it impossible to buy so much. It is, however, necessary if we are to pay as much as possible on the current costs of government. With taxation should go a reduction of governmental expenditures. I have voted, and expect to continue to vote, for such reductions.

It is a mistake to believe that we can raise the funds needed simply by additional taxes on corporations, or the "rich". The total corporate income in the U. S. is only about $20 billion per year—less than 1-3 of our governmental expenditures. We now take approximately one half of this income. The "higher" income families pay taxes up to 87 per cent of their income already, and their incomes make up only a small part of the money needed. There is no easy way to carry the tax load. We must all share it.

The simplest and most effective attack on inflation, it seems to me, would be for everyone to work longer at present hourly rates. If we increased the work week by only 4 hours we would increase production by 10 per cent. Workers would have more money, but there would be more things to purchase. That, as I see it, is the way to strike at the cause of inflation. Inflation cannot be stopped by someone asking someone else to make the sacrifices. Is it too much to ask America to go to work?

GILLILAND GROUP APPLIES FOR SMITH-DOXEY BENEFITS

M. G. Duncan, chairman of the Gilliland Cotton Improvement Group, has turned in the first application from Knox County for 1951 Smith-Doxey cotton services.

This was announced today by H. J. Matejowsky who is in charge of the Abilene cotton classing office, U. S. Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing Administration.

Smith-Doxey services include classing and USDA cotton price quotations. "Every farmer belonging to an organized cotton improvement group can get these USDA services without cost, but first the group must file an application for them," Matejowsky said.

Applications can be secured from the county agent's office and should be filed with the cotton classing office as soon as all farmers in the group have planted their cotton.

Deadline for receiving applications from Knox County is August 1, 1951.

TAXES IN 1950
TATION, May 1—
 as farm and ranch
 increased in 1950 for consecutive year. The base for the state
 cent, compared to 1949.
 levied averaged er acre. This is cent higher than

the 1936-46 average of 18 cents per acre. A record high of 29 cents was levied in 1931.
 Taxes ranged from an average of five cents per acre in the Trans-Pecos area to $3.41 in the Lower Rio Grande Valley. This variation reflects the wide differences in Texas agriculture
 and the intensity of governmental development, according to Robert G. Cherry and L. P.

Gabbard, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station economists, who made the 1950 tax study.
 Some counties recorded slight decreases, and the rise in some counties was much higher than the state average.
 Cherry and Gabbard report
 that school districts were responsible for most of the increase in 1950. State and county taxes generally showed no appreciable change.

 In recent years schools have increased their share of the total tax bill, while the proportion from county levies has declined. In 1950 school districts accounted for 50 per cent of the farm and ranch real estate taxes, counties for 29 per cent, the state for 14 percent,
 and other districts for 7 percent.
 The extension of levies to

most land by the Gilmer-Alken school laws has been a contributing factor to the growth of school taxes, report the economists.
 Although assessments per acre were higher in 1950, taxes
 were easier to pay than in 1949.
 The relative rise of taxes was less than the rise of prices over 1949. The tax-price ratio declined in 1950 from 1.03 to .97,
 which is slightly less than the base year 1913.

However, the possible tax load
 has not been greatly diminished—because counties may now levy an additional 30-cent rate.

STREAMS in Desert Places

By OZELLE STEPHENS

"And when he had called the people unto him with his disciples also, he said unto them, Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross and follow me."

The cross which the Lord bids you to carry may assume different shapes. You may have to content yourself with a lowly and narrow sphere, you may have to go on working year after year in a small field which seems to yield you little or no harvest, you may be bidden to cherish kind thoughts about someone who has wronged you. You may have to confess the Master amongst those who do not wish to be reminded of Him and His works. You may be called to dwell among your people showing a glorious smiling face, when your heart is breaking. There may be crosses to bear, but remember, Jesus is very near when you are willing to bear them in His Name. He will draw close to ripen your courage. If you will find time to hide away and commune with Him through His Holy word, you will hear Him say to you, "I am the Lord thy God which teacheth thee to profit, Which leadeth thee by the way thou shouldst go. Even though you may have to go through troubled seas with the waves dashing high, He has promised, that they will not overcome you. He will lead you in a safe and peaceful way making the crooked straight, the rough places plain; and the Glory of the Lord shall be revealed.
