Reliable Gas Heaters

"The Golden Glow"

With a RELIABLE "GOLDEN GLOW" gas heater you can heat up a living room or sitting room—or make chilly bedroom warm and cozy in a few minutes.

People are more sensitive to the cold at the close of the hot season than at any other time, and it is during the fall months that you most appreciate the comfort of a warm house.

Considering the low price at which you can buy one of these heaters, it will be a most economical move to install one now and postpone the firing of your regular heating plant for at least two months.

Letter From Old Friend

We received a letter this week from an old friend of the Sweeney family, a friend in the years of when Mack was just a boy. The writer was Mrs. J. M. Barron of Paducah. Mrs. Barron kindly invited the Herald family to visit her and her husband and promised to show us a good time, which statement we know to be a fact.

Mrs. Barron's letter also held one dollar and a half for which she asked to be one of the star subscribers to the Herald.

Yes, Mrs. Barron, we'll be to see you before long and in the mean time, you will receive the Knox County Herald, regular.

The accident which occurred on the Guthrie road west of Benjamin Monday evening is one to make us all be more careful in driving. Although some accidents are unavoidable, many are and if all drivers are more careful less lives will be lost as the one lost Monday evening.

In this case, a home is broken, a child is left without a mother and a husband without a helpmate and the burden of being both father and mother to yet a small boy. We are prone to overlook the physical or burdensome side of tragedies of this kind. We probably do not know the heart aches and suffering thrust upon the ones who are left, yet if we try to place ourselves in the shoes of the man left, alone with his small son, we can get something of the sorrow within his heart.

Car accidents like fires are usually due to carelessness, for carelessness, as the Knox City high school boys proved Monday morning in the fire prevention program, it is always found guilty and sentenced to hardships and loneliness.

We see in the last issue of the Baylor County Banner that editor Harrison has learned that the Knox County Herald has a new editor and publisher. Well, Mr. Harrison, we thank you for this comment. Although it is a little late, we feel complimented in getting it even now for we realize you are still somewhat under the influence of your jubilee number. We took over the Herald when Mr. Harrison was at his zenith in this issue of the Banner and we know that at such a time the editor did not have the time to read all his papers on exchange to learn if some one new was moving in near by.

The Jubilee number of the Banner was great.

The Reverend T. N. Alvis of Kasey preached at the Baptist church Sunday at both the morning and evening services, the pastor, Rev. English being out of the city.

Mr. J. W. Blackwood of Palo Pinto County and who has been in Rochester working, died Wednesday as the result of an attack of appendicitis.

The many friends of Mr. R. E. Hardberger will be glad to know that he is on the road to recovery. Unless a new complication sets up Mr. Hardberger will soon be well.

Mr. W. W. Hyde and wife and son spent Sunday in Crowell with Mrs. Hyde's mother. They visited Mrs. Hyde's brother also, who was dangerously injured in a recent car accident. Sunday he was resting very well.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Smith of Rochester were in Knox City Sunday.

Hunter Sanier of Crowell was in Knox City Monday.

PREVENTION
WEEK OCTOBER 6-12

by Secretary Arthur M. Hyde, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Urging the People of America and Rural Communities to Reduce Their Fire Losses

The week of October 6-12 has been designated by President Hoover as Fire Prevention Week. The observance of this week, Secretary of Agriculture Arthur M. Hyde, undoubtedly has contributed materially to the cause of fire safety and well-being.

Following the President's announcement, fire losses in general, Mr. Hyde called attention to the following causes of fires on farms:

The farmer has as much reason as the city dweller or any other owner of property, to interest himself in these special annual campaigns against fire.

The loss on farms and in rural communities due to fires has been estimated to have been as high as 3,500 lives and $100,000,000 worth of property in a single year. The rural population of our Nation should give serious and constructive thought to this problem and make special efforts to eliminate needless fire losses.

"Lightning, defective chimneys and flues, sparks on combustible roofs, matches, smoking, spontaneous ignition of agricultural products, careless use and storage of gasoline and kerosene, faulty wiring and improper use of electric appliances, continue to be the principal known causes of fires on farms.

Mission Study Holds Much Interest

Attendance Increases

The study course, "What Next in Home Missions" of the Methodist Missionary Society is proving to be very interesting and helpful to those attending. The course was begun Monday afternoon at the regular meeting of the society. The attendance at this meeting showed an increase over the attendance of the last few meetings. It is hoped by Mrs. Edwards, Mission Study instructor, that the attendance will grow with each study meeting.

RADIO ENTHUSIASTS WELCOME NEW TUBES

Radio amateurs have shown a quick response to the new rugged rectifier Radiotron with a low and constant voltage drop which just has been put on the market by the Radio Corporation of America. The new tube, Radiotron UX-855, is of the hot-cathode, mercury vapor type, and the makers assert it is establishing a new standard of performance for the amateur transmitter operating with a rectified plate supply.

Men like these are testing your car

Types of the engineers at General Motors Proving Ground who are working for you. Drawn from photographs. They are shown examining a specially devised instrument for measuring clutch pedal pressure.

It used to be the custom for a man who wanted to buy a car to take a mechanic with him.

Today, General Motors itself employs skilled automotive engineers to make it easy for you to select your new car. These men are working for you at its Proving Ground—the 1268-acre outdoor laboratory in Michigan where every kind of car is tested.

Before any General Motors car goes into production, a fleet of advance models is constructed and sent to the Proving Ground. There these advance cars must meet every test—tests far harder than you would make. Sometimes they are rebuilt, redesigned, retested many times until they are pronounced right, and ready to be put into production.

The tests involve speed, power, endurance, braking, riding comfort, handling ease; fuel and oil economy; body strength and safety—every phase of car construction and performance.

Buying a car is easy today—because these men at the Proving Ground are working for you to assure you of value when you select a General Motors car.

Turkey Talk

An excellent plan for fattening turkeys for November 28 next is to begin around the first of October to feed night and morning. Give just enough at first, so the birds are left a little hungry, and gradually increase the quality until a week before killing time when they should be getting all they will eat three times a day. Some turkey raisers feed equal parts of wheat and oats during the first part of the fattening season, gradually changing to corn as the weather gets cooler. A grain ration of oats, wheat, and corn is probably the best. Old corn is much better than new, but it must be free from mustiness. Chestnuts, beechnuts, and acorns are also good fattening feeds. Confining free-range-reared turkeys during fattening has been tried, but with little success, as the birds lose their appetite and lose weight. However, turkeys that have been raised in semi-confinement may be fattened in confinement with good results.

Ladies, have your silk hose mended. I have the Mend-Run Needle and large or small runs in silk stockings are mended, making the hose look like new and at only a small cost to you.

Robert Quillen Dares To Tell The Truth Wedding Write-up

Robert Quillen, the strange town genius who does Aunt Hester's daily syndicated editorial feature, and writes all of the news and editorial matter that appears in small four page weekly, the Fountain Inn Tribune, at Fountain Inn, South Carolina, has turned out masterpiece in the form of a truly wonderful wedding write-up.

It is better than anything Amos Ward, Eugene Field or any other newspaper scribe ever wrote.

POPULAR YOUNG COUPLE

MARRIED THIS WEEK

Mr. Robert Chetway and Missive Broadkin were married at noon Monday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Broadkin, Reverend M. L. Gassaway officiating.

The groom is a popular young man who hasn't done a lick of work since he got shipped in middle of his junior year at college. He manages to dress well and keeps a supply of spending money because his dad is a soft hearted old soul who takes up his bad checks instead of letting him go to jail where he belongs.

The bride is a skinny, fast living idiot who has been kissed and handled by every boy in town since she was 12 years old. She paints like Sioux Indian, sucks cigarettes like a secret, and drinks mean corn liquor when she is out joy-riding in dad's car at night. She doesn't know how to cook, sew or keep house.

The house was newly plastered for the wedding and the exterior decorative scheme most appropriately, for the groom was a newly plastered, and the bride newly painted.

The groom wore a rented dinner suit over athletic underwear of imitation silk. His pants were held up by pale suspenders. His number eight patent leather shoes matched his state of tightness and harmonized nicely with the axle grease polished his hair. In addition to his jacket he carried a pocket knife, a bunch of keys, a dud for the ring and a usual look of imbecility.

The bride wore some kind of white thing that left most of her legs sticking out at one end and her bony upper end sticking out at the other.

The young couple will make their home with the bride's parents, which means that they will remain on the old man until he dies and then she will take in washing.

The happy couple anticipates great event in about five months. POSTCRIPP—This may be the last issue of The Tribune but the life ambition has been to write one wedding and tell the unvarnished truth. Now that it is done, don't have no sting—Exchange

MRS. CUMMINS KILLED IN CAR ACCIDENT

Body Shipped To Myra

Mrs. N. H. Cummins was fatally injured early Monday evening in a car accident some ten miles west of Benjamin. The car, a Dodge touring, was being driven by Mr. Cummins. He was accompanied by his wife, Mrs. Cummins and son about eight years old. Just what happened to cause the accident Mr. Cummins was not able to relate; however, he said what failed to happen as we were turning the corner, happened a few yards away.

Mrs. Cummins was fatally injured, having died within one half hour after reaching the Knox County Sanitarium, which time was about eleven thirty. The boy was not injured and Mr. Cummins received a slight scratch on one hand. When the car overturned, Mrs. Cummins was caught underneath.

The Warren Brothers Ambulance of Knox City was called and Mrs. Cummins was placed in the Knox County Hospital, drawing her last breath shortly after. Tuesday morning the body was carried to Myra, where shipment was made to Myra, the home of the Cummins family.

Mr. and Mrs. Cummins and their son were enroute home from the states where they had been looking for a place to move to next year. It is not known but believed by Mr. Warren, ambulance driver, that the Cummins family found a place suitable for them and probably made arrangements to move there.

Mr. John White was a visitor to the scene Saturday.

dustries and enterprises which have today materialized.

During the forward march of Texas, more than 1,000,000 loyal people of the Southwest have made the Waples Platter Company one of the largest food distributors in the United States. That is important. Not just because it is now a big business—but because it presents an obligation which must be discharged in full to deserve the continuance of your patronage.

Naturally, you haven't realized the business you were building. Waples Platter Company is merely a name to many of you. But in thousands of households White Swan Coffee, Wapco Beans and many other Waples Platter products mean the finest quality that can be placed on a table.

Goodwill is the most precious asset of any company. It cannot be bought like a commodity. But can be established only by insuring the lowest price consistent with the highest quality.

By going to the very source for its products, by controlling every step of their preparation and distribution, it makes sure that no finer foods can be brought into your home for the price you are asked to pay.

To guarantee this, the Waples Platter Company has become far more than a distributor of foods. It is importer, roaster, packer and preserver, selecting crops direct from the world's finest farms and plantations.

Every step from raw materials to the finished product is now supervised and packed under their own roofs. Twenty-five acres of land accommodate the many modern plants which our customers made possible to erect, and stand today as monuments to their patronage of this Texas institution.

This assures the permanency of a quality that has won your favor and acceptance, and at the same time bringing it to you at lower cost through more than 10,000 dealers who are freshly supplied from 22 Waples Platter Houses strategically located throughout this territory.

And now, with greater resources combined with facilities for greater economies, Waples Platter will endeavor to reward your loyalty with even higher quality and service.

"SINCE TAKING ORGATONE I HAVE GAINED SIX POUNDS AND FEEL LIKE A NEW MAN," SAYS SAN ANGELO MAN

Still another link is added to the long chain of evidence regarding the remarkable merits of Orgatone in the case of Mr. Walter Cowley, 801 Upton Street, San Angelo, Texas whose phenomenal wealth and strength by the use of the medicine was reported to an Orgatone representative.

"I have suffered for sometime from what appeared to be a general rundown condition and nervousness. I had no appetite and hardly ate enough to keep me alive. I was so nervous I couldn't get up in the morning sleep and would set up in the morning tired and lifeless without any energy. Gas formed on my stomach and caused shortness of breath which made me very miserable for hours afterwards. I had a very bad case of constipation and had frequent headaches. I had a dead liver. I was told, and so had pains in my back and always felt worn out and sluggish and just kept going down hill."

"I had read and heard so much about what Orgatone was doing for others that I decided to see if it would help my case, and I will say that it has proven to be the right medicine in my case. No one could have a better appetite, and I eat anything I want and digest it perfectly. My nervousness has disappeared and I sleep fine every night, and I get up in the morning full of life and energy. My kidneys and liver seem to be in good condition, and my constipation is a thing of the past. In fact, my general health has improved, and I have actually gained six pounds in weight. Orgatone has certainly helped me and I am glad to recommend it to my friends. Genuine Orgatone may be bought in Knox City, at the ORIENT DRUG STORE."

KNOX COUNTY HERALD FRIDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1929

Mrs. C. Mullens and Mrs. Lacy Finley of Rochester were guests of Mrs. C. E. Webb Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. E. Rant are parents of a new baby born during the first of the month.

Mrs. A. J. Haynes and son of Abeline are visiting this week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. Branton.

Miss Bernice Swift, who is attending McMurray in Abeline, spent the week end at her home in Knox City.

Arch Caraway and boys from Leaville are here for a visit. They attended services at the Methodist Church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, Mrs. Lee Smith and Mrs. J. W. Smith made a trip to Wichita Falls last Thursday.

Season veal cutlets or chops with a little lemon juice and Worcester sauce as well as salt and pepper, before cooking them.

Do you know Leaflet 28 "Lamb as You Like It," which may be obtained free from the U. S. Department of Agriculture? About dozen good recipes with illustrations, and a talk on the principles of cooking lamb are contained in it.

Save your baking powder tins to put left-over cooked cereals in. When these are sliced and fried to a delicate brown they are good to serve with meat in place of other starchy foods. Or serve the fried cereals with syrup, honey, or preserves, as a lunch dish.

Apple butter and other fruit "bottles" are generally popular with the family and easy to prepare. Mix bread crumbs with enough melted butter to moisten, and place them in alternate layers with fruit, spice and sugar in your baking dish. Serve hot or cold, with or without cream or hard sauce or custard.

Whipped cream dressing is especially good with cabbage salad, but it may be used for any summer salad you like. To make it, beat half a pint of heavy whipping cream until stiff. Add 4 and one half tablespoons lemon juice, 2 tablespoons fresh grated horseradish, a grating of onion, a few drops of tabasco, and salt to taste. A dash of cayenne pepper may be used instead of tabasco. If the horseradish is in vinegar use only 2 tablespoons of lemon.

The Reverend Robertson of Tennessee preached at the Church of Christ last Sunday at both the morning and evening hours.

THE BANK'S PART IN THE FARM PROBLEM

By H. LANE YOUNG
Member American Bankers Association Agricultural Commission

ONE of the most discussed and least understood questions regarding the farmer's problems is the part the bank has played, or is to play, in financing the farmer. The basis of co-operation between the two, however, is a very simple one. Both sides are subject to criticism for the condition that exists today. The major share of the blame rests on those banks that have failed through disregarding fundamental principles in loaning other people's money, that have encouraged the farmer to expect bank loans without putting his business on the earning basis which would justify a bank to lend him money.

One of the underlying reasons for the failure of so many country banks has been the existence of too many banks. With the limited business of the community divided among too many banks it was impossible for them to make enough money to justify the employment of officers with the proper ability to manage the bank successfully. Then the scramble for business was so hard that good judgment and foresight were forgotten in granting loans, with the resultant failure of the weaker institutions.

In the future, banks are not going to loan the money of their depositors without the kind of security that can be immediately realized upon in case the loan is not paid, or unless the applicant presents a sound and successful record of business operation—whether that business be manufacturing, merchandising, or farming.

Farming-Banking Interdependence

This is a perfectly obvious attitude, because country banking cannot be successfully and profitably carried on unless farming is successfully and profitably operated—the two businesses are dependent upon each other. There is no longer any question that the time has arrived for these independent businesses to reach a common ground of understanding of the requirements that both must meet for their mutual welfare.

There is no doubt but what the future prosperity of the farmer and the basis of cooperation between banker and farmer is the intelligent diversification of crops. It is necessary, however, to have the right conception of diversification.

The mistake that many farmers have made in attempting to diversify has been to invest too much money, time and land in a new and untried crop—sometimes a hazardous crop, or one for which no immediate market has been developed, resulting in a loss of the initial effort and discouragement of future efforts on a more conservative basis.

Disregarding the primary and essential principle of farming—namely, increasing earnings by decreasing the cost of production through the practice of building up soil by crop rotation and intensive cultivation, is responsible for a large share of the farmers' trouble today.

As An Agriculturalist Sees Farm Board's Job

The new Agricultural Marketing Act approaches farm relief from a materially different point of view from that of former bills before Congress in recent years, says Dean H. L. Russell of Wisconsin University College of Agriculture in the American Bankers Association Journal.

"It contains a new idea, fraught with the greatest possibilities—the organization of a Federal Farm Board," he says. "It has been possible for farm cooperatives to borrow from Federal-aided institutions before, and at a materially lower rate than city business men had to pay for working capital, but this is the first set-up made by the government in which a commission has been carefully chosen to give undivided attention to an effort to solve the problems of a farm group.

"It is hard to conceive of a higher degree of responsibility than must be assumed by this commission. No board ever created by congressional action has been clothed with as wide plenary powers. It is authorized not only to advise but to execute, to plan and put its plans into effective action, to buy and hold, to dump, to dip into the Federal treasury to accomplish its ends with what would be almost unlimited resources to any private commercial concern. The board's only job is to succeed, and no governmental agency even during the wartime emergency had a wider latitude.

"Many will think the farm relief program will be universally applicable to the individual land owner or operator. Such procedure is far from the case. Aid is to be extended through cooperative organizations by making it possible for such groups to obtain cash advances to hold crops so as to permit of more orderly marketing.

"While the primary relation is with cooperatives, the individual or unorganized farmer will also profit by the activities of his organized fellows. A stabilized program of merchandising is able to eliminate the surpluses that

Bibles in Common Use

The Bible chiefly used in Protestant churches is the King James Bible, so called because the translation was made at his instance between the years 1604 and 1611. The Catholic Bible in English is the Douay Version or Douay Bible, so called because it was translated in France and its Old Testament first published in the town of Douay or Douai, in 1609. Both have undergone a number of revisions.

Famous Violin Maker

Antonio Stradivarius was born at Cremona in 1644. He is recognized as the greatest violin maker. His best instruments were made between 1670 and 1685. About 1685 he began developing his own original type, later used so much as a model by other violin makers. His best original work is said to have been accomplished between 1690 and 1737. He died in 1737 at Cremona.

Medicine in Slot Machines

Medicine is being dispensed by slot machines in London. When the Londoner feels the need of something to cure a cold or to quiet his nerves he drops a coin in a slot machine on the street corner and receives the needed "relief." Machines will soon be ready to supply most any cure pills to hair tonic, it has been reported.

Last Roman Outpost

Scientists excavating a Roman fort in the north Arabian desert report that it was the last outpost of the Roman empire and apparently guarded the way to the forests, where the prized cedars of Lebanon were obtained.

Guides to Appetite

The best guide to what you should eat is your appetite. If you crave a certain dish, the chances are it will do you good. Diets are often necessary, but let your doctor decide that. Unnecessary diets make people wrong introspective.

"Inside Information"

Roast meat is better cooked without water. In case there is not very much fat, get an extra piece of suet and skewer it to the top. Place the meat in a very hot oven to sear on the outside. Then reduce the temperature and cook slowly until done.

Always leave at least an inch of the stem ends on beets when cooking them, so as to prevent what is called "bleeding" or having the color run out. The skins are left on for the same reason. To peel cooked beets quickly drop them for a moment into cold water and the skin and stems can be slipped off. Serve hot, sliced or dried, with butter, salt and pepper.

Soft jelly can be used up in many appetizing ways. Spread it on pancakes, on jelly roll; put it in pastry shells with a bit of whipped cream on top; fill apples that have been cooked tender in syrup with some of it; put a bit on such milk desserts as blanc mange, Spanish cream or bread pudding; use it to sweeten fruit punch; tart soft jelly is good in meat gravy.

Cheese is one of the richest of all common foods in calcium. Many Americans do not get enough calcium in their foods to furnish their bodies with the quantity of this mineral needed for building and repairing teeth and bones. Cheese made from whole milk also contains a considerable quantity of fat. The protein of cheese is the same efficient kind as that in meat. A cheese dish is therefore high in food value.

HOMEMADE COOKIES

The day is no longer dreary and gray. For I have a glimpse of home—
A little old woman offered it
With a yellow honey comb,
Round as an apple, with cheeks as red,
In her apron of cross-stitched white,
As soon as she comes in sight,
She opens a precious door to me
Calling her wares from a two-wheeled cart,
Driving her slow old nag,
Selling a thought of mother and home—
With gingerbread cakes in a bag,
"Homemade cookies, honey and bread."
She calls in cadence sweet:
And do you know what it means to me
On this lonely city street?
Saturday morning and I am a child
And mother makes cookies for me
In a big, sunny kitchen fragrant with spice,
With a tea table waiting for tea.
The old-fashioned stove, blinks its ruby-red eyes,
My cat stretches out in the sun,
The canary spills gold on geranium blooms
While I wait till the baking is done.
"Homemade cookies, honey and bread."
The call sings along on its way,
Leaving a glow from my childhood days
To light up the dreary day.

ANT NEWS

Paint and Varnish Manufacturers' Association, number 347, issued in April, 1929, gives you an up-to-date analysis of the paint being sold by radio stations in the middle west. The formulae label shows a very good per cent of Lead and Zinc. The Association, however, after having received numerous analyses, made an analysis, which we print below:

ANALYSIS OF PIGMENT

	Per Cent
White Lead	0.2
Zinc Oxide	13.0
Chromate	20.8
Phosphate	31.8
Silica	32.7
Arylates	1.5
Underdetermined

ANALYSIS OF LIQUID

	Per Cent
Linseed Oil	25.4
Gasoline	35.7
Water	35.9

You will notice that 65 per cent of the pigment is chalk and barites, and 75 per cent of the liquid is water and gasoline. This paint could not possibly last but only a few months.

Contrasted with the above so-called paint, Lincoln's line of Paint and Varnishes is superior in every way. This has been proved by many years of satisfactory service.

We sell recommend Lincoln Paint and Varnishes.

From BARN to BATH TUB

A farmer friend who owns two General Motors cars went to the city the other day and stopped in to see some cousins. They showed him around their new roof garden apartment, eighteen floors above the street, and proudly pointed out their Frigidaire in the pantry.

"Well," chuckled our farmer friend, "Mother has a garden full of old-fashioned flowers that she'd never trade for theirs... and as for the refrigerator, we have a bigger Frigidaire than they have!"

He also mentioned his Delco-Light power system and his DL water pump, which give him every other convenience. As he often says himself, his farm is "General Motorized from barn to bath tub."

It is perfectly true that General Motors, through its various units, offers even more to the farm family than to the city family. By applying methods of automobile production to home electric lighting and power plants, water pumping systems, and automatic refrigerators, General Motors can make the reliable kind of product that a farmer wants, at a price he can afford.

British to bring their cable and radio interests is a serious challenge to the radio supremacy of the United States, and of more importance to our country than all or merchant marine at this moment, according to General J. G. Harbord, who was chief of staff of the A. E. F. and now is President of the Radio Corporation of America.

"Great Britain being the great controlling power of our planet," General Harbord explained, "the combination there of cables and radio im-

Ford says "prohibition begins at home with women who wanted better home conditions," and he points out that if women uphold the law in their homes, the criminal class, because leading hostesses have said "do more cocktails on my table" it is no longer a matter to serve drinks legally disappear."

The motor car magnate denies that prohibition was forced on the country. He adds that "personally liberty has much increased in the nation's emancipation from alcohol addiction that it is childish to talk about infringement of rights."

Regarding his plan to shut down his factories "if booze returns," Ford says,

Non-Advertisers Pay It All

Whose advertising bills do you pay?

The merchant who does not advertise pays the advertising bills for the one who does.

Every merchant in business pays for advertising, whether he uses it or not. If a competitor's advertising takes any business away from him, the profit he would have made on the lost sale is what his competitor's advertising costs him.

You have perhaps wondered how some stores can afford to spend such enormous sums for advertising. That is easy to fathom. Their competitors, who don't advertise, and whose business they take, pay for their advertising costs him.

Say the Jones family is a customer of yours. They have $50 they intend to spend with you. They read advertising of your competitor and are induced to spend their $50 with him instead of spending it with you. The store makes 20 per cent or $10 on the sale. It deducts, we will say, the $1 advertising cost has $1 profit left. The advertising has cost nothing. It got back its cost and had $1 profit. It would not have had except for the advertising.

Who paid for this advertising? Did the advertiser pay? No. He got back the cost and profit besides.

Did the purchaser pay? No. He paid only the regular price.

Then who did pay?

The merchant that did not advertise paid for his competitor's advertising. He not only paid for the other fellow's advertising but he paid out of his cash drawer the profit his competitor made on the sale. The merchant that doesn't advertise pays the advertising bill for the one that does. He pays in loss of sales and loss of profits.
