Joey Swain tied for third and fourth in reining. Brand Cude, Goree 4-H'er placed fifth in pole bending. Tammy Carver, Benjamin 4-H'er, placed her grade gelding tenth in the halter class. Tammy also made the finals in the western horsemanship class.

Lynda Brooke Hudson of Benjamin, Tamie Grindstaff and Kelley Boone, both of Knox City, each made the finals in showmanship. Joey Swain and Brett Boone were in the reining finals where Joey placed. Tamie Grindstaff, Brett Boone, and Brand Cude competed in the pole bending finals with Brett and Brand placing and Tamie having the misfortune of knocking a pole. Brett Boone, Doug Brown, Benjamin 4-H'er, and Tamie Grindstaff were in the barrel race finals with Brett placing while Doug and Tamie had hard luck.

Stasia Carver, Benjamin 4-H'er, Kristi Boone and Jerry McCown, Knox City 4-H'ers, were others who competed real well from Knox County, Collier said.

Most Merchants Will Close July 5

As July 4 falls on Sunday this year, many merchants will close Monday, July 5, in observance of this Independence Day in our Bicentennial year. This holiday is one agreed on by the Knox City Chamber of Commerce membership. Mrs. Doris Crownover secretary-manager, said.

All federal and state offices will join the merchants for the holiday, but several eating establishments and service stations have indicated that they would remain open Monday.

As the holiday observance will be on Monday, The Knox County News will be among the businesses that remain open, due to a press deadline. The News staff is asking that all advertising and news stories be called in on Monday if possible and if not, that they be ready early Tuesday. The cooperation of correspondents will also be greatly appreciated.

INVITING A CUSTOMER INTO THE MINI MALL is Lady Bug Shoppe owner, Mrs. Dessie Egenbacher, at right, who prepares to open the door for Mrs. David Lorenz and children, Sarah and Luke (in stroller). Sarah is hidden from view beside her mother. The Mini Mall, an entirely new concept for this area, is celebrating its second anniversary this weekend. The old-fashioned bench at right is a new addition.

Mini Mall Celebrating Anniversary

With this weekend marking our nation's 200th birthday, another anniversary (or birthday) will be in the making and that is the second anniversary of Knox City's Mini Mall, which opened its doors in July of 1974 after much planning.

Knox City women, Mrs. Dessie Egenbacher and Mrs. Romain Stubbs, opened the Mini Mall two years ago after their brother, Bobby Day, who is associated with Goodacre-Day Real Estate in Lubbock, promoted and developed the new concept in businesses by taking the large corner building and converting it into a Mini Mall for Knox City. Day got the idea after seeing several in operation on the High Plains.

Four businesses operate in the Mini Mall. Mrs. Egenbacher opened The Lady Bug Shoppe, Mrs. Stubbs acquired the American Handicrafts franchise and opened The Art Stall, Kenneth Crownover opened an old-fashioned ice cream parlor called Pa-Pa's Place, and a short time later, a beauty shop, The Styling Stall was added. The Styling Stall is operated by Shirley Hudgens, Joan Ray and Karen Byrd.

Dessie has not only expanded her dress shop but has added a line of infant wear. Her dress shop features clothing for teenagers and women. All types of sportswear and casual wear, in addition to lingerie and hose, hand bags, costume jewelry, sunglasses, and cosmetics are available.

Romain also sponsors classes in decoupage, tole painting, water colors and macramé at various times. She also has expanded her shop, taking in another stall for classes and the display of the various arts. Romain is becoming known for her purses of original design and has shipped some out-of-state.

Her husband, Jack, operates The Frame Shop and creates beautiful frames especially designed for the customer.

In addition to ice cream, Pa-Pa's Place has sundaes, popcorn, fountain drinks, and coffee. It is a popular place for youngsters as well as others to gather for a treat both morning and afternoon.

Styling Stall operators work three days during the week with Mrs. Hudgens open on Wednesdays, Mrs. Ray on Thursdays and Mrs. Byrd on Fridays.

This weekend the Mini Mall, in observing its second anniversary, invites everyone to come in and register for door prizes. No purchase is necessary and a drawing will be held Saturday afternoon.

The Lady Bug Shoppe also has an anniversary summer sale in progress with many bargains for shoppers including reductions of Center Stage items, tank tops, shorts, pant suits, ladies' Levi shirts and one group of blouses.

Free popcorn and balloons will be given away during the anniversary celebration July 1, 2, and 3, and a clown will be there for the big weekend.

Jo White is announcing the opening of her beauty shop, The Head Hunter, in Rochester located across the street north of Smith Funeral Home.

A graduate of Garland's Beauty School in Abilene, Jo will offer shampoos, sets, color, frosting, permanents, and manicures in addition to styling and blower cuts for both men and women.

Hours for the new business will be from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on Wednesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays and on Saturdays from 8:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. Jo explained that the shop phone has not been installed but as soon as it is, the number will be published in the News for her customers' convenience.

As an opening special, Jo is offering the new 'Great Feeling' permanent during the week of July 14 through 21 at the reduced price of $12.50.

Jo and her family live in O'Brien and her husband, Johnny, is employed by Koch Oil Company. They are the parents of two daughters, Ginger, an eighth grader and Sandy, who will be in the second grade this fall.

Correspondence may be addressed to him in care of the hospital.

RANDY COALE
...service representative

Coales Move To Knox City

Lone Star Gas Company has named Randy Coale as its service representative, succeeding Buford Wright, who was transferred to Archer City. He will serve Rochester, O'Brien, Benjamin, and Knox City.

Coale, who has been with the company for three and a half years, is a native of Wichita Falls where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Coale, reside.

He and his wife, Becky, also a native of Wichita Falls, are the parents of a 14-month-old son, Keith. Becky's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Terrell now live at Lake Amon Carter near Bowie.

The Coales moved here from Frisco and purchased the former residence of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Dake at 710 South Fourth Street.

They attend the First United Methodist Church.

G.W. Coats In Abilene Hospital

G.W. (Jack) Coats was admitted to West Texas Medical Center in Abilene Tuesday of this week.

According to his wife, Bonnie, Jack went to Abilene for a check-up, but was hospitalized and put in intensive care.

She reported that he will probably be a patient there for about seven days.

Correspondence may be addressed to him in care of the hospital.

Bicentennial Weekend Slated

Citizens across the country are creating the focal points for our Nation's Bicentennial. Flag tributes, prayer services, readings of the Declaration of Independence, bell ringing, candle lighting, dedications, parades and time capsule programs are the major activities being included in the July 4th Weekend plans of communities across the country.

In keeping with the nation's 200th birthday, Knox City is joining the many towns and communities across the United States in celebrating the momentous occasion this weekend.

Plans have been completed for an action-packed weekend with many activities scheduled for the enjoyment of residents and their family members who live out-of-town.

Slated this weekend are the annual Arts and Crafts Show, the annual Knox City Country Club's Men's Partnership Golf Tourney, and the Knox City Bicentennial Commission's July Fourth Celebration which begins at 5:00 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the City Park and concludes with a worship service.

The Chamber of Commerce has chosen this weekend for its annual Arts and Crafts Show to be held in the American Legion Hall.

Entries will be accepted Thursday (today) from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Friday from 9 to 10 a.m. only. The building will be closed Friday afternoon for judging, according to Mrs. Doris Crownover, secretary-manager.

The show will be open to the public Saturday from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. and again on Sunday from 1 to 5 p.m. The extra time on Sunday has been added for those persons who work on Saturday as well as those who have Sunday guests who would like to attend. The Sunday schedule will also coincide with July Fourth activities planned to begin at the City Park at 5:00 o'clock, Mrs. Crownover explained.

Exhibitors may pick up work after 5:00 p.m. Sunday or on Monday morning from 9 to 10 o'clock. Only baked goods may be removed Saturday evening, Mrs. Crownover said.

New categories this year include Baked and Canned Foods, Decorated Shirts in the Crafts Division, and a special one-time-only Bicentennial Division.

Best of Show trophies will be awarded in the eight divisions: Art, China Painting, Handwork, Crafts, Foods, Collections, Bicentennial and Miscellaneous and a Best of Show given in Youth and Children competition.

Rules for this year's show are as follows:

1. Entry fee will be .25 per entry for children and youth and .50 for adults.
2. Any entry taking a ribbon or trophy in previous local shows will not be eligible.
3. All work must be that of entrant.
4. All paintings must be either mounted or framed, ready for hanging. All collections must be suitably displayed.
5. Anyone desiring to sell exhibited work may do so with the stipulation they do not have the price displayed on the item before judging, and that it may not be removed from the premises until after the show. A small commission of 10% will be charged on all sales.
6. Entries will be accepted and may be picked up at the times given above.

Entry blanks may be picked up at the Chamber office, the Mini Mall, or at the American Legion Hall as participants come in. Mrs. Crownover said.

Chances will be sold on an original oil painting by Marye Hope Carr. There is no admission charge, but guests are asked to register. General chairperson this year is Melanie Whitley, with other local helpers, Elaine Lewis, Romain Stubbs, Lillian Rae Verhalen, Marye Hope Carr, Frankie Baker, Jewel Lea, Frances King, and Mrs. Crownover.

Big doings are in store for guests and members at the Knox City Country Club where the annual Men's Partnership Low Ball golf tournament will be held July 3 and 4, preceded by a Pro-Am on Friday afternoon.

Entry fee includes a ticket to the Friday evening barbecue and Saturday night dance. Entries will be accepted until 6 p.m. Friday, but will be cut off at 72 teams, a spokesman said. Prizes will be top grade irons, wood, and golf bags in each flight.

A buffet luncheon will be served on Sunday at the Country Club and townspeople and their guests are invited to join golfers in the various activities this weekend. Tickets will be available

Truscott Musical Slated Sat., July 3

Big plans are in the making for Truscott's annual Country Town Saturday Night to be July 3 in downtown Truscott beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

Area musicians will be on hand to provide entertainment to the spectators free of charge.

Everyone is invited back to the "Good Old Days" fun and entertainment under the stars in the friendly little town of Truscott as noted by their ad elsewhere in this week's News.

Gillespie Baptists Set Special Service

Special activities are planned at the Gillespie Baptist Church Sunday, July 4.

Dinner on the grounds will be served following Sunday School and morning worship service. Then at 2:00 p.m., a dedicatory service will be held with the Rev. Ray Milhoan, former pastor now with Trinity Baptist Church in Stamford doing the preaching.

Everyone is welcome to attend, according to the Rev. Foster Smith, pastor.

Fire Chief Asks Drivers' Cooperation

Fire Chief A.T. (Drew) Holcomb is asking that persons do not drive over the fire hose while it is extended during a fire or during a fire check.

Several incidents lately have caused Holcomb to remind drivers to either turn around and go another direction or wait until the hose is recoiled, as running over it causes considerable damage.

Did You Know

That Mrs. Thelma Rutledge, Meadow, Texas 79345 subscribes to The Knox County News?

OOPS! This Santa Fe freight train derailed Saturday morning about one mile north of Rochester as it was traveling north toward O'Brien. Ken Crownover of Knox City reported that he witnessed the mishap and Ken said that it actually looked like 'slow motion' as the wheels of one of the cars containing grain remained on the tracks while the car came loose and moved out almost to the edge of the highway. Two cars of wheat and two cars of sheetrock overturned. No other information was available as of press time, so no estimate of the damage could be reported.

Streams In Desert Places
 By OZELLE STEPHENS

"Love is not jealous, or conceited, Love envieth not; love vaunteth not itself; is not puffed up. (1 Corinthians 13:4b). Thoughts of generosity are found in these statements. Love never boils with jealousy. Love is not possessive. Others may have better advantages at times than you do, but remember love does not stumble over such things. The measure of your love toward your neighbor is the measure of your love of God. Love never fails. Love never desires things that belong to others. Every thing we have belongs to God; nothing is ours. We have no right to be envious of anything or any body. Paul said I count all things but loss, for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus." By learning to count everything as the Lord's and not mine, has solved many problems. It will help you to remember that every thing in the world belongs to God. He has loaned it all to us for just a little while. When we use all He gives us to his glory, we know his promise that He wished above all things that we prosper and live with joy and happiness until he comes for us.

THE GOOD OLD DAYS
 Remember what July 4th weekend was like when you were a kid in a little country town?
 It was a warm and friendly time back in those days, a pleasant time, a happy time.
 There was music and singing and laughter in the streets. Sun bronzed men in boots traded lies about drouths and cows and the mean kid things they did 20 years ago that their sons had better not do. At the concession stand, smiling, motherly women fed friends and neighbors and gave back country courtesy with the change.
 The little kids played chase up and down the sidewalk and the big ones played chase clustered around a store front - with grins and sparkling eyes and joking.
 It was a warm and friendly time, a pleasant time, a happy time. It was back in the good old days, when people had time to visit together. It was.....

The backbone of this nation...

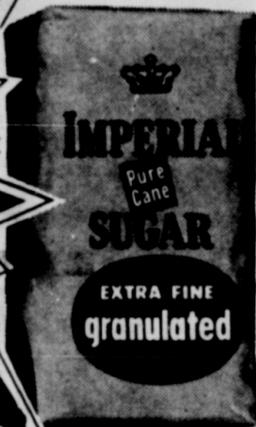

Since Colonial times, the farmers of America have fed a growing nation. Working long, hard hours, braving the elements of nature, the farmer has labored to put food on our tables. We are grateful to all the farming communities in this great nation; without them we would not eat!

WTCC Voicing Opposition To Bills

West Texas Chamber of Commerce is voicing strong opposition to two bills now pending in Congress that would have a detrimental effect upon this nation's energy supplies.

In two position papers, adopted by the Board of Directors of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at its annual convention in Del Rio, WTCC is opposing the so-called compromise bill on natural gas price controls (S. 3422). In a second position paper WTCC is expressing its opposition to portions of the proposed tax reform act, H.R. 10612.

WTCC is pleased that the Senate recognizes that action needs to be taken to modify present unrealistic natural gas regulations, but believes that S. 3422 will not accomplish the desired result of generating maximum domestic gas supply but will, in fact, do the opposite.

for the barbecue, luncheon and dance.

Many more Fourth of July activities have been finalized with the Bicentennial Commission's Sunday program beginning at the City Park at 5:00 p.m. with a picnic supper. Everyone is encouraged to bring supper and join other residents and their guests at the park for the meal from 5:00 until 6:00. Following the meal, a tricycle race will be held on the tennis courts across the street from the park and entrants will be responsible for bringing their own bikes. Mrs. Doris Crowner, Chamber of Commerce secretary said. She also suggested that everyone bring a lawn chair or quilt. Immediately after the tricycle race, a diving contest will be held at the City Pool, with three divisions including the cannon ball, belly buster, and diving for pesos.

At 7:30 the Little Miss Spirit of '76 Review with pretty little girls five years of age and under will be in the spotlight.

The KC Jamboree band also will be on hand to provide patriotic and gospel music before the evening worship begins at 8:00 p.m. Other activities include horseshoes pitching and domino games.

A city-wide worship service will begin at 8:00, and the program will be as follows: Pledge of Allegiance; Mrs. Celso Gonzales; The Star Spangled Banner, congregational song; Invocation, the Rev. John Reese, St. Paul Baptist pastor; America, the Beautiful, congregational song; Bicentennial Reflections, the Rev. Paul Anderson, First Baptist pastor; the Rev. James Patterson, First United Methodist pastor; and the Rev. Wink Shifflett, Four-square Gospel pastor; My Country 'Tis of Thee, congregational song; Scripture, the Rev. Randolph Wilson, East Side Baptist pastor; Special music, The Angle Sisters; Speaker, John Bechtold, Four-square evangelist; Battle Hymn of the Republic, congregational song; Benediction, Derrell Marion, First Christian pastor; and Taps by Brett Boone as the Boy Scouts of America lower the flag at sunset, concluding the Bicentennial weekend of activities in Knox City. Music for the program will be provided by the KC Jamboree Band.

IN FORT WORTH

Mrs. Alma Swearingen and Mrs. Kate James visited last week in Fort Worth and Bridgeport.

In Fort Worth, Mrs. Swearingen visited her sister-in-law, Mrs. Nora Dennington and her niece, Mrs. Rueden Leach while Mrs. James visited her mother, Mrs. Pierce and her grandson, Michael, who is in a Fort Worth hospital recuperating from an automobile accident.

IN RUIDOSO

Among those from Knox City who spent last weekend in Ruidoso, New Mexico, were Mr. and Mrs. T.A. Watson and Kim, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Baker and Temi, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Johnson and Dwayne.

DENTON VISITOR

Mrs. Charles Reese spent several days last week visiting in Denton.

Under the provisions of the proposed legislation, this bill phases out price controls on interstate gas produced from onshore areas over a seven-year period. The bill provides little prospect for improving prices for old flowing gas.

WTCC believes the provision in S. 3422 which permits states to set new gas prices lower than the prescribed national onshore ceiling, is ill-advised and would be unnecessary if new onshore interstate gas is deregulated immediately or phased out over a limited period.

L.H. Byrd of Midland, WTCC chairman of the Mineral Resources Development Committee, says that "this bill continues price controls on gas produced from the federal offshore areas indefinitely and at prices lower than those proposed onshore. This will accelerate the shortage of natural gas which will directly affect the nation and West Texas. If immediate decontrol of prices offshore is politically infeasible at this time, then as a minimum, price controls should be phased out over a specific limited number of years."

In a second position paper, West Texas Chamber of Commerce opposes four sections of the Tax Reform Act, H.R. 10612, which, if passed as now written, would have a detrimental effect upon this nation's energy supplies because they would severely hinder, if not stop, production of old and new energy supplies.

Commenting on this proposed federal legislation, W.A. Griffis Jr. of San Angelo, chairman of WTCC's national Affairs Committee, states that "this nation will remain heavily dependent upon oil and gas for required energy supplies for many, many years to come. At the present time our nation is importing more petroleum than it is producing, and under the present congressional political climate, this situation can be expected to get worse."

"As a larger percentage of America's petroleum needs are imported from foreign countries, this nation can expect increasing related problems. Dollar drain from this country to foreign nations will become staggering and conceivably could lead to bankruptcy of this nation. Out-flow of American dollars is said to have increased by 21 billion dollars from 1970 to 1975, and unless the oil and gas industry is encouraged or at least not penalized by Congress, the amount of dollar outflow in the next five years will rise much higher."

Bill Collins, president of the WTCC, when asked to comment on this bill, stated that "if this nation is ever to achieve energy independence; if this nation is ever to achieve permanently a plus dollar balance of exports over imports and thus stop the bankrupting outflow of American dollars; if this nation's energy producers ever are able to establish enough cash flow to meet the necessary dollar requirements for investments to create necessary and required new jobs...then the Congress of the United States must cease and desist enacting such proposed legislation as Sections 101, 202, 208 and 301 of the proposed Tax Reform Act."

Chicken Pilau Is Colonial Favorite Of Charleston

The low country of South Carolina, centered around Charleston, is much different from the rest of the state. It is in these marshes by the sea that the first plantations took form, when landowners discovered that the marshy lowlands along the banks of the Ashley and Cooper Rivers were ideal for growing rice.

Few foods seem so fitting to South Carolina as pilau. No doubt, the idea of this rice dish came to South Carolina by early traders from India in the days when Charleston became a great seaport. Southern cooks changed the ingredients from oil to tomatoes, and cooked it so that the dish came out dry and greaseless.

Rice, of course, is the main ingredient in a Pilau—pronounced pelos in Charleston. From there the ingredients vary greatly. There are pilau with squash or okra, with tomatoes or eggs, with shrimp or chicken.

This version of Charleston's Chicken Pilau is a hearty, economical meal-in-itself. The chicken and rice, cooked in chicken broth, are flavored with celery, onion, green pepper, tomatoes, cayenne pepper and bay leaf. Versatile stick Blue Bonnet Margarine is used for sauteing the vegetables and adding rich flavor to this tempting rice dish.

Accompanied by a hot bread such as corn bread, Chicken Pilau is ideal for family meals.

CHICKEN PILAU

- 1-1/2 cups sliced celery
- 3/4 cup coarsely chopped onion
- 3/4 cup diced green pepper
- 1/4 cup (1/2 stick) Blue Bonnet Margarine
- 2 cups chicken broth
- 1 can (1-pound) tomatoes, undrained
- 2 teaspoons salt
- 1/8 teaspoon cayenne pepper
- 1 bay leaf
- 1 (2-1/2-pound) broiler-fryer, cut in serving pieces
- 1-1/2 cups uncooked rice
- Chopped parsley

Saute celery, onion and green pepper lightly in margarine in Dutch oven for about 5 minutes. Stir in chicken broth, tomatoes, salt, cayenne pepper and bay leaf. Add chicken. Cover; cook over medium heat until chicken is partially cooked, about 20 minutes. Stir in rice. Cover; cook over low heat for about 25 minutes. Remove cover; cook until rice and chicken are tender and liquid is absorbed, about 5 minutes. Arrange chicken and rice in large serving dish. Garnish with chopped parsley. Makes 6 servings.

100th of AMERICAN INDEPENDENCE DAY

GREAT AMERICANS

JOHN HANCOCK

Hancock

The name that's so large on the Declaration of Independence is also large in America's history and fight for independence. John Hancock offered his country his life, his fortune and his sacred honor.

As President of the first Provincial Congress, he helped organize militia called the Minutemen. He was also President of the Second Continental Congress, which commissioned George Washington as Commander-in-Chief of the Army. It was in that capacity that Hancock was the first signer of the Declaration of Independence with a signature so large that "King George would be able to read it without his spectacles."

After the revolution, he helped draw up the Constitution.

Carrying on the work of helping Americans is his namesake: the John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company.

It invests more than a billion dollars each year in the American economy and pays over a billion dollars annually in benefits to policyholders. In addition to group and individual life insurance, the company also provides a broad range of financial services including annuities, pensions, health insurance plans, mutual funds, financial planning, association sales and funds for real estate development.

Established in Boston in 1862, the John Hancock has 20,000 employees with representatives in all states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands serving more than 18 million people insured under its contracts.

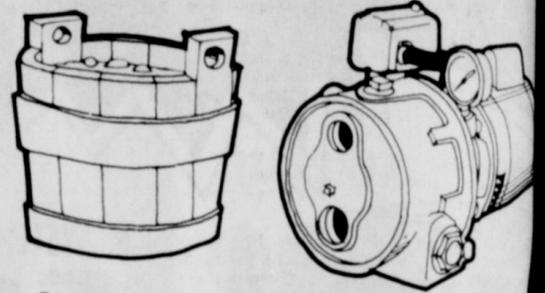

Both John Hancock the man, and John Hancock the insurance company, have contributed much toward making America great.

BICENTENNIAL BRIEFS

HISTORY CAN BE FUN

There's a new way to celebrate the birthday of a country which has reached the ripe old age of 200 years.

Children can now become better acquainted with some high points of American history while enjoying a meal. Burger Chef restaurants are featuring through July a set of 12 different cardboard models—replicas of famous American institutions—that children can build themselves. The models, complete with historical notes and assembly instructions, are printed on the colorful cardboard trays on which Funmeals for children are served.

Burger Chef Funmeals, designed to delight the younger set, contain a hamburger, french fries, soft drink, dessert cookie, and a special surprise toy—all packaged in the special Funmeal tray.

The 12 models cover the span of American history, beginning with the Mayflower, the covered wagon, and Lincoln's log cabin and reaching up through the industrial age, with the Model-T Ford, the Spirit of St. Louis, and the Saturn rocket. Other interesting replicas include the Statue of Liberty, the Alamo and the first Mississippi Riverboat.

There's a side benefit for parents too. These trays are sure to keep fidgety youngsters seated at the table during mealtime.

There's plenty of railroad tracks around for American trains. Statistics show that America has more length of railroad than any other country, with 205,782 miles of track.

There should be plenty of food available for Americans, if the trend established in the 1950s, 1960s and 1970s continues. Reliable statistics from the U.S. Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System show our food production doubled in 20 years.

There should be plenty of rooms available for Americans on the go. Holiday Inns have over 1700 places in 45 countries around the world with a reliable American standard of excellence.

Blind since birth, 30-year-old Milsap received a kindergarten-through-high school education at the State School for the Blind in Raleigh, North Carolina. After tests at the school revealed an undeveloped musical aptitude, instructors started him on violin—before he was seven. He eventually mastered all string and reed instruments and the piano.

His musical interest ranged from classical and country to rock-and-roll and blues. He was suspended from the school's music department for a year by school officials who took offense once too often to his rock and roll piano pounding.

Milsap was a pre-law student at Atlanta's (Georgia) Young-Harris Junior College with a full scholarship to Emory University's Law School when he decided on a career in music. At that time he met and married his wife, Joyce. They have a six-year-old son, Todd.

Charles Myrick, appearing the last five nights of the fair, has been voted by his peers as the "true successor to Houdini."

Myrick began his career when he was nine years old. He travels extensively throughout the United States and has appeared on "To Tell the Truth," "The Mike Douglas Show" and on his own television special, "Magic 74."

A leading escape artist, Myrick plans to attempt "The Chinese Water Torture Cell" escape while at the Fair - This is the escape stunt that killed Harry Houdini.

BICENTENNIAL AMERICA

PARADE OF SAIL HONORS OCCASION

TALL SHIP WITH A TALL GOAL—The Sir Winston Churchill, Britain's largest sailing ship, salutes the Bicentennial through participation in the Transatlantic Tall Ships Race and the Op Sail '76 Parade of Sail.

Tall sailing ships from all over the world are going on parade to celebrate America's Bicentennial.

In the major maritime salute, more than 225 ships from 35 countries sail through New York Harbor and up the Hudson River in the Independence Day Parade of Sail, one of the most spectacular gatherings of sailing ships ever witnessed.

An interesting ship to join the celebration is the Sir Winston Churchill. It is Britain's largest sailing ship, a three-masted topsail schooner, built in 1966 by the British Sail Training Association, for the exclusive purpose of training young people in good sailing and good character.

But this time the young people are something different. The Parade of Sail under the direction of Operation Sail 1976, climaxes the Transatlantic Tall Ships race which began on May 2 in Plymouth, England, headed for Newport, Rhode Island. On the last leg of the voyage—from Bermuda to Newport—the ship is manned by a crew of 42 young women, ranging in age from 16 to 25. Most have no previous sailing experience, so it's all a matter of rigorous on-the-job training.

According to J. Roy Nicholas, president of Royal-Globe Insurance Companies, sponsoring the Winston Churchill, "The Companies are proud to be associated with the Sir Winston Churchill in this international gathering. Not only is this program a fitting Bicentennial tribute to the maritime history of the United States, but it also affords thousands of young people an excellent opportunity to meet together in an exchange of international goodwill." Royal-Globe Insurance, part of an international insurance group, has 125 offices throughout the United States. Royal-Globe will provide a prize for the winner of the last leg of the competition, from Bermuda to Newport.

America's Bicentennial is a symbol—a symbol of freedom and brotherhood that has lasted two centuries. And the Tall Ships Race symbolizes healthy competition and international goodwill.

Milsap, Magician To Appear At WT Fair

Country singer Ronnie Milsap and nationally-known magician Charles Myrick will be part of the free entertainment offered at this year's West Texas Fair and Rodeo scheduled September 11-18, Bill Patton, Fair Association president, and Dennis Templeton, West Texas Fair manager, announced today.

Entertainment is scheduled each night of the fair in the tractor pull area and is free to fairgoers. Other entertainers will be announced as plans are finalized, Templeton said.

Milsap will give four performances at the fair: at 6 p.m. and 10 p.m. on the first Saturday and Sunday of fair week. Myrick is scheduled for two performances nightly Tuesday through Saturday.

Milsap, whose current single called "What Goes On When the Sun Goes Down" is on the Country Top 20 charts, boasts a long list of hit records. They include "(All Together Now) Let's Fall Apart," "That Girl Who Waits on Tables," "Pure Love," "Please Don't Tell Me How the Story Ends," and "Legend in My Time."

In 1974 Milsap was awarded a Grammy as the Top Male Country Performer in the nation. During the same year, the Country Music Association named his Male Vocalist of the Year.

Blind since birth, 30-year-old Milsap received a kindergarten-through-high school education at the State School for the Blind in Raleigh, North Carolina. Bruce A. Barrett

Pres. Gerald R. Ford
White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. President:

Let me introduce myself, I am a 38 year old male Caucasian, married, father of 3 children. I am a member of the swiftly vanishing group known as farmers and ranchers. I am not on welfare, I am not on food stamps, I am not subsidized by the Federal or the State government, I do not belong to a union, I have no pension plan, I have no paid vacation, I do not strike when each little thing is not grand and glorious. I work an average of 80 hours per week, 52 weeks per year.

If I ever have the opportunity to retire I will do so on what I have made as an individual, what I have been able to save from every kind of a tax that capable and incapable, competent and incompetent politicians have been able to levy against me. I am not complaining about this as I will take my chances.

What I am terribly upset about Mr. President, is you. Ever since the end of World War II the United States has embarked on a cheap food policy. You with your many years in the House of Representatives from the great State of Michigan are well aware of this. This worked very well for about 25 years. Our prices stayed the same while all other segments of the conomy advanced approximately 100%.

In 1973, due to many circumstances, mainly the crop failure in Russia, our prices advanced to where we were actually on a par with the rest of the economy for about one year. This of course brought cries of despair from every section of the United States. People were actually having to pay over 15% of their disposable income for food. This was terrible, how were they going to buy their motor homes for those 30 day paid vacations, how were they going to buy boats for their 3 and 4 day weekends at the lake, how were they going to pay for the 3 color T.V.s and 3 cars. This had to be stopped. But to the despair of all, we had become so dependent on imported oil to do all this running around that we were having to import great amounts of oil at black market prices from the Arabs. How were we going to pay for this?

We have only one thing to export, food. Labor, through shoddy workmanship and exhorbitant demand for wages had priced itself completely out of the world market. How were we going to export large quantities of grain and still have cheap food for the American consumer?

The answer of course was to encourage the American farmer to produce to full capacity. Plant every acre, fence row to fence row was the cry. Promise him, to use your terms Mr. President, "Unfettered world markets" hoping of course that the world grain production would be huge, thus building a huge surplus at home and depressing prices back to poverty level for us. But horrors, the plan failed.

While the U.S. farmer did his part and produced a record crop of everything the world didn't fore so well. Russia was plagued with drought. Their crop failed by 30 million metric tons from their projected production. They came to our "unfettered" market for grain.

In the meantime, the greatest pillager of the American economy our country has ever known, Mr. George Meany, saw an opportunity to drive a more plush deal for one of his supporting unions, the Maritime Union. They conspired to refuse to load our grain under the pretense of stabilizing our farm economy and our food prices. Stabilizing it lower of course. This way the union could take up the slack between the raw materials and the higher prices that were already on the way. Mr. Meany came huffing and puffing to the White House, and you, Mr. President, laid down like a whipped pup and called a moratorium on our grain exports to Russia. The plan worked well. The price of our grain has gone down ever since. It is back to about the cost of production.

You sent members of our State Department (excluding Mr. Butz, of course, because he is for the farmer) to Moscow to work out some nickle-dime deal that is shot full of loop holes and doesn't amount to anything. In the meantime, Russia bought the grain they needed from other countries. Mr. Meany is happy, he has what he wants, you have what you want, the American public has what it wants and the American farmer has been put back where he belongs, at the very bottom of the economic ladder, and all is well.

Mr. President, I have one thing to say, "Honesty knows no compromise—one is either honest or dishonest; either steals or doesn't; either lies or tells the truth."

Mr. President, you lied to the American Farmer.

Sincerely,
Bruce A. Barrett

Attention Grain Farmers...

The above letter is sponsored and endorsed by Oklahoma Wheat Growers Association as an expression of the deep resentment felt among grain producers because of federal manipulation of the commodity markets. If you wish to have a part in serving notice on the bureaucrats that farmers will not "lie down and play dead" while their livelihood is being frittered away at the whim of Washington politicians we solicit a contribution of ten dollars ($10.00) or more to help defray costs of re-printing this letter in other metropolitan newspapers of Oklahoma.

Monies in excess of publication costs will be mailed to National Wheat Growers Association to assist in bringing a legal action against the federal government preventing future interference in normal, orderly marketing processes of agricultural commodities.
