Homecoming. The long awaited day finally draws near. The floats have all been finished, the program is complete, the football team primed to perfection to give the stadium full of fans something to cheer about. Everybody is wondering who will show up this time and who won't be able to make the trip.

You start two months before homecoming planning what you'll wear. You decide to take off ten pounds before the big day and have mental pictures of yourself gliding into the packed auditorium -- all eyes turned in your direction while people whisper to each other, "She hasn't changed at all in twenty years."

The week before homecoming, you still haven't lost the ten pounds -- in fact you've gained four, so you buy a new girdle and decide maybe the dress with the long jacket will look better anyway than that sleek new outfit you bought when you were so sure you'd lose ten pounds.

You think, perhaps you need a new permanent and your hair lightened just a little. Then, you come home wondering why in the world you didn't get the permanent three weeks earlier so it wouldn't be so tight and the color makes you look just like a pickled beet.

You find yourself wondering how the high school knock-out looks now. You know, the one who always took everybody's boyfriend and had every boy in school falling at her feet. Remember? She was always voted Most Beautiful, Football Sweetheart, High School Queen. She was always head cheerleader and class favorite. You almost hope she won't even be there since you didn't lose those extra pounds and your hair looks like a poodle.

The day comes at last and she's the first person you see when you walk in to register. There she is -- and she's fat! Ha Ha! And not just ten pounds -- but FAT! And Gray! And she has just as many wrinkles as you have and suddenly you're very glad to see her as you hurry toward her, arms outstretched.

You've caught yourself wondering many times within the last few weeks if the guy with whom you were so madly in love your sophomore year will be there. The wings of memory take you back to those magical days when you were his "steady". You wore his football jacket and he wore your ring on a chain around his neck. You drove through town on Saturday night in his jalopy with the fender skirts and the loud mufflers and the radio turned up really loud. You rolled down the windows so everybody could hear Buddy Holly sing Peggy Sue and be sure to notice you.

You mix and mingle with all your old friends looking for special faces in the crowd. You see him then, but you barely recognize him. Why does he look so old? He has even more padding around his waist than the man you married and his hair -- what's left of it -- is almost completely gray. You smile and wave at him and hope you only imagine the look of surprise in his eyes when he recognizes you.

There's almost always somebody there who's twice as successful as anybody else and is afraid that everybody doesn't know it. He passes out business cards to everybody and puffs away on a five dollar cigar as he tells of his latest business venture. Everybody sits there with a forced smile as he goes on and on and you

The downtown Homecoming parade scheduled for 10:30 a.m. is shaping up nicely and will be a pleasant way to spend the remainder of the morning hours.

The homecoming football game between the Munday Moguls and the Motley County Matadors will kick off at 7:30 p.m. A special half-time performance will be given by the Purple Cloud Band and highlight will be the crowning of the Homecoming Queen and Coming Home Queen.

The days activities will conclude with a homecoming dance to be held in the Rhineland Gym beginning at 10:15 p.m.

Various classes will have meetings during the day. A list of times and places is printed elsewhere in this issue of the Courier.

Officers who have put a lot of work into this year's homecoming include Lyndle Reeves, class of '78, president; Robert Elliott, class of '58, vice-president; and Sandy Brown King, class of '61, secretary.

The next homecoming will be held in 1992. Officers are Floyd Reed, Jr., class of '70, president; Perry Kuehler, class of '80, vice president; and Phyllis Harper Reed, class of '72, secretary.

Spur Bulldogs Nip At Heels Of Moguls

The Spur Bulldogs kept nipping at the heels of the Munday Moguls on Friday night but were unable to get a good bite.

The Munday passing attack struck with 15 seconds gone on the clock when Mark Andrade hit Terry Collier with a 63 yard TD pass down the left side line. Lowell Hutchens kicked the point after and the Moguls took an early 7-0 lead.

Andrade completed 6 of 8 passes for 178 yards. Perry Collier had 3 receptions for 74 yards, Terry Collier 1 for 63, Chad Bordovsky 1 for 30, and Michael Waggoner 1 for 11 yards.

Spur completed 5 of 13 passes for 129 yards with Jerry Roberts on the receiving end, one for 90 yards and a touchdown.

The strong Mogul defense recovered fumbles with Brett Bruce and Bordovsky each falling on one and we were unable to spot the number for the other recovery. Andrade and Terry Collier each had a pass interception to their credit.

The Moguls, unable to stop the rush up the middle by the Bulldogs' defense, had one punt blocked and lost two fumbles.

Spur's first touchdown came with 6:46 left on the clock in the second quarter after recovering a fumble at the 47 yard line. Seventeen plays later quarterback Many Armendariz scored from one yard out. The point after try failed, making the score 7-6 at halftime.

A fired-up Mogul defense stopped the Bulldogs for a minus 4 yards in the opening drive after the half. Munday then took an impressive eleven play drive down to the one where Andrade took the ball over the goal line on a quarterback sneak. Hutchens' kick made it 14-6 with 5:27 left in the third quarter.

Three minutes later the Moguls scored again on a 63 yard pass from Andrade to Perry Collier and the PAT by Hutchens made it 21-6.

Spur was not about to be counted out as they came back with a 90 yard scoring pass from Armendariz to Roberts. A two point run by Terrell Brantley then made the score 21-14 with 9:44 left in the fourth quarter.

Coach Edward's crew moved the ball well in the fourth period picking up six first downs, but a fumble and

Window Decorating Contest Draws Good Response

There has been so much response to the window decorating segment of the Homecoming activities, the committee has decided to judge all the decorated windows, not just ones formally entered in the contest.

Announcement of winners and awards will be presented Saturday at the 2 p.m. assembly at the high school.

Bullock Reports Increase In Economic Growth

According to State Comptroller Bob Bullock, a surge in sales tax rebates to several large metropolitan areas in Texas reflects increasing statewide economic growth and stability.
 Checks totaling $64.8 million were mailed to 914 Texas cities that collect an optional local sales tax at either one percent or one and one-half percent, showing a growth of 17 percent in sales tax rebates this month over October, 1987, Bullock said.
 Munday received a check for $2,867.48, compared to $2,229.48 this time last year, an increase of 28.62 percent. Knox City's check totaled $7,519.10, compared to $4,616.31 in 1987, a 62.88 percent increase, and Goree's check for $512.70 showed a decrease of 18.98 percent to last year's check of $632.83. Weinert and Benjamin did not receive a check this period.

hope that nobody suspects that the check you gave for the corsages and meal tickets will probably be overdrawn.
 Somebody's always got volumes of pictures of their grandchildren. You look at them, saying all the usual things as you dig in your purse for the pictures of your own grandchildren. Then -- you extend them toward her and say, "Here are my grandkids," but you're thinking, "You thought you had pretty grandkids. Now -- eat your heart out."
 Invariably, there's an ex-student with a row of little kids at the homecoming game -- all polished and adorable. He'll turn to them and say, "See that? Did you know that your daddy was right down there on that same football field ten years ago, making long touchdown runs like that boy just made? Boy, did we have a team that year!"
 The little kids' eyes light up as they look at him in admiration and nobody anywhere around him is about to say they remember when their daddy played football and he wasn't really all that great.
 There doesn't seem to be a lot to say to the girl who was your best friend. You try to remember what you talked about on those nights when you giggled all night, telling each other all your secrets and your dreams . . . things you both swore not to ever, ever tell. Now, you can't think of anything to say after you've asked, "How've you been?" --- "How are the kids?" --- "Where are you living now?"
 The day is over and you stand for the school song and you can't quite keep the tears from filling your eyes as the voices of your former classmates, friends and acquaintances, are lifted together in the melody of your old alma mater. Suddenly, you are transplanted back to the days when these people were so much a part of your life -- the carefree days of your youth -- when your future still lay ahead, all bright and shining and untarnished.
 Most of your dreams have been replaced by the acceptance of a life that's really not that bad. Things could have been better for you, but they could also have been worse. You look around at the exes as you sing and most of them also have tears in their eyes. You wonder if they're remembering, too, and how many of them have actually realized all the ambitions they had when their footsteps resounded down the familiar halls.

You haven't thought of most of these people for such a long time, but they are always a part of you -- tucked away into the little recesses of your memory. They are a part of who you are and where you've come from -- the voices and faces from your past.

And you're glad they came home.

Volunteers Sought To Assist Elderly With Tax Returns

As the 1989 tax season approaches, the American Association of Retired Persons (AARP) is accepting applications of persons interested in assisting the elderly with their income tax.

Nationally, over 1.5 million persons were helped last season through the Tax-Aide Program co-sponsored by the Internal Revenue Service. In Texas almost 64,000 persons were assisted, including many shut-ins, a 50% increase from the previous year.

Volunteers of all ages can perform this important service and AARP membership is not required. Training will be provided. Volunteers usually work four hours per week providing free income tax help to older adults in sites such as libraries, churches and senior centers.

With more than 29 million members, AARP is the nation's largest organization of Americans 50 and older. It is a nonprofit, nonpartisan organization which offers a wide range of membership benefits, legislative representation at the federal and state levels, and educational and community service programs carried out through a national network of volunteers and local chapters. The Association also offers a variety of educational and advocacy programs for older workers, who make up one-third of AARP's membership.

For more information or to apply as a volunteer, write: Bill Condra, Overall Coordinator, 3849 Concord Drive, Abilene, TX 79603.

WHEN YOU ARE IN THE MINORITY.

During the time Noah was building the ark, he was very much in the minority - but he won.
 When Joseph was sold into Egypt by his brothers, he was a decided minority - but he won.
 When Gideon and his 300 followers, with their broken pitchers and lamps, put the Midianites to flight, they were an insignificant minority - but they won.
 When Elijah prayed down fire from heaven and put the prophets of Baal to shame, he was in a notable minority - but he won.
 When Martin Luther nailed his thesis on the door of the cathedral, he was a lonesome minority - but he won.
 When Jesus Christ was crucified by the roman soldiers, He was a conspicuous minority - BUT HE WON!
 See you next week, and remember: One plus God is still a majority.

penalties slowed their scoring effort. Munday's last touchdown came with 16 seconds left on the clock with Terry Collier scoring from two yards out around right end and Hutchens kicked the point after for the final score of 28-14.

The Moguls' win improved their record to 5-1 overall and 3-0 in district play. Spur fell to 2-3-1 and 0-3.

COACH'S COMMENTS
 We played well enough to win but I thought our concentration and intensity were below what it had been in the past. After they scored on the long pass, the Moguls started playing. We immediately drove 60 yards for another touchdown, overcoming two penalties.

We played excellent defense, especially the second half. We gave up only two first downs and one of those was the long pass play.

The Munday Moguls will play the Motley County Matadors in a homecoming game at 7:30 p.m. Saturday at Scruggs Field. This will be the first time we have ever played against the Matadors who have a 3-2 overall record and are 2-1 in district. Their only district loss was to Knox City. The game should be very good and fans are encouraged to come watch and cheer as the Moguls and Matadors fight it out on Saturday.

FCIC Extends Closing Date On Winter Wheat Insurance Sales

The U.S. Department of Agriculture's Federal Crop Insurance Corporation has extended the sales closing date for all 1989 winter wheat insurance until October 31.

FCIC Manager John Marshall said the action was taken to provide winter wheat producers the opportunity to comply with the intent of the Disaster Assistance Act of 1988.

The act requires that producers receiving disaster benefits based on losses exceeding 65 percent of a crop carry insurance on that crop for the 1989 crop year. USDA's Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service will not begin accepting applications for disaster assistance benefits until after the normal winter wheat sales closing date of September 30. Extension of the closing date from September 30 to October 31 will accommodate the crop-insurance purchase requirement of the act where appropriate.

ASCS Administrator Milton Hertz said the agency's county offices would be prepared to assist producers in evaluating their level of loss and the applicability of the insurance provision. "We intend to see that the provisions of the law are met and we appreciate FCIC's flexibility in the effort to meet the insurance requirement," he said.

The payment received under the relief legislation is forfeited unless the crop insurance provision is met, where applicable. Winter wheat producers are urged to review their situation with their ASCS office as soon as practicable after applications begin to be accepted.

Marshall said that "the crop insurance program recognizes the interest of the Congress in emphasizing the role of crop insurance as the appropriate risk management tool for producers. We are pleased to make this adjustment this year to meet the spirit of the disaster relief law."

It was not until 1840 that the first dental school was organized in Baltimore. In the 1950s, dentists discovered how important fluoride is in preventing tooth decay.

Exchange Program Offers Study Abroad To Local Students

Qualified high school students are offered a unique opportunity to spend an academic year or summer holiday abroad in a special program of the ASSE International Student Exchange Program.

Students from 15 to 18 years of age can qualify on the basis of academic performance, character references and a genuine desire to experience life abroad with a volunteer host family in Europe, Canada, New Zealand, or Australia.

ASSE families are carefully screened to provide a caring environment in which students can learn the language and the customs of their host country. Summer exchange students will live with a family abroad who speaks English. Year students will receive language and cultural instruction as part of the ASSE program. ASSE students attend regular high school classes along with their new overseas teenage friends.

Local students who are interested in receiving more information about becoming an exchange student in Scandinavia, Germany, France, Switzerland, Britain, England, Spain, Italy, Canada, New Zealand, Australia, or participating in a student travel group to Russia should contact: Sequoyah Reynolds, Box 392, Knox City, Texas or phone 658-3945.

Persons Planning Retirement Should Notify Social Security

December is a favorite time of the year for people to retire. However, September is the time you should be thinking about it. Too many people wait until the last minute and often find that the process of retirement may take a little longer than they expected.

People planning retirement should contact the Social Security Administration about three months before they are ready to retire. That would allow sufficient time to go over plans, process applications, and have benefits start the month they quit work.

In considering various retirement options under Social Security, a person should note the following:

- *Delayed retirement - People who delay retirement past 65 receive a three percent retirement credit for each year (one-fourth percent for each month) after 65 up to 70 that they do not get a benefit. Starting in 1990, the delayed retirement credit will increase gradually until it reaches eight percent by the year 2009.

- *Effect of earnings - There is a limit to how much a person can earn and still receive all social security benefits. The amount of the annual earnings limit depends on one's age and changes each year with increases in general wage levels. A monthly test is applied the first year of retirement, which makes it possible for a person to retire at any time of the year without having earnings in the months before retirement reduce benefits. For people who plan to continue to work after retirement, it's important to let social security know how much they expect to earn.

- *Medicare - People don't have to retire to get Medicare. A person who plans to keep working after 65 can still get Medicare by applying at any Social Security office two or three months before 65. Medicare provides help with hospital and doctor bills for people 65 and over, certain disabled people under 65, and people with permanent kidney failure.

- *Income tax - Up to half of the social security benefits of people in the higher income levels may be taxable. While only ten percent of beneficiaries are affected, people should determine how this may affect their benefits if their income is high.

- *Effect of other types of income - To encourage people to plan for their retirement using social security as a base, the law provides that, in general, only income from wages and self-employment affect social security benefits. This means that income from savings, private insurance, and other income may not affect benefits.

However, the public pension offset may affect a spouse's social security benefits if they also receive a pension from Federal, State, or local government employment not covered by social security. Also people who become eligible for both a social security benefit as a retiree or disabled worker and a pension from work not covered under social security may have their benefit reduced. A person should telephone if there is any question as to whether income will affect social security benefits.

Now Is The Time To Prepare Garden soil

If you're a gardener, you've probably had to pull or hoe several weeds, tried to rid your soils of nematodes, grub worms and nutgrass.

As this year's garden is ending, now would be a good time to cleanse your soil to make gardening more fun next year. By applying a product called Vapam, the soil will be like starting with sterile peat moss.

Vapam should be sprayed on the garden, watered and tilled into the soil and covered with plastic for a period of two to three weeks. The reason for the plastic is that the chemical becomes gaseous after being applied and by covering keeps the Vapam from going into the air. Thus doing a better job of controlling unwanted problems.

Gardeners using this treatment should be warned not to use Vapam if fruit trees or other ornamental plants are planted in or around the garden. The Vapam can exceed the area that was sprayed by as much as three feet.

Nevertheless, this product will certainly aid many gardeners if used as recommended on the label.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Folks:

Good morning!
The next best thing to being in Munday is reading the Courier. Enclosed is my renewal.

I read just about everything you publish, even the ads. The Weinert column is especially interesting to me, since I attended school there for 9 years until 1945.

As many of you will remember, my parents "Tuck" and Mary ran the Army store there in Munday for many years and Dad was a deputy sheriff and later City Marshal in the late 40s and Justice of the Peace until his passing a few years ago.

My wonderful Aunt Maggie Gaines still lives in Munday.

Business and "kids in school" prevent me from attending the Weinert reunion this weekend, but I'll make it next time. Keep up the good work!

Love to all!

Senator
Lloyd Bentsen
Watching
Washington

Stretches of the Rio Grande River, which divides the United States and Mexico, are filthy. The large volume of raw sewage, garbage and industrial wastes routinely dumped into the river by cities in Mexico, has so polluted the Rio Grande that it will take a substantial international effort between the two countries to clean it up.

The most distressing problem is that every day, at several points along the border, tens of millions of gallons of raw, untreated sewage is dumped into the river. In one spot, Nuevo Laredo, just across the border from Laredo, Texas, some 25 million gallons of raw sewage is discharged directly into the river every single day.

That must stop. Along with Texas Congressmen Kika de la Garza and Albert Bustamante, I am sponsoring legislation to tackle this problem by initiating a plan of action. The Senate and House have now signed that legislation and sent it to the President for his signature.

The bill authorizes the U.S. State Department, acting through the head of the U.S. International Boundary Water Commission, to negotiate with Mexican officials to find ways to correct pollution problems in the Rio Grande.

Under this bill, the State Department, through the International Boundary Water Commission, would negotiate with the Mexican government to arrive at solutions for correcting the pollution problems in that river, including the construction of treatment facilities.

Those negotiations should lead to agreements between our two countries, and steps to implement those agreements should then be undertaken with dispatch.

While visiting the border area, people have told me, "Don't authorize another study. We have no more time to study the problem to see if there is a problem. We need to get on with the business of solving the problem, and we already know how to do that."

They were right. The technology already exists to address the problem—wastewater treatment facilities, for example—and we need to use that technology along the border to protect our citizens' health and welfare.

We have the know-how, and this plan of action is a giant step forward in the long journey to clean up that river.

Traffic Safety Campaign Falls Short Of Goal

Despite a summer-long campaign promoting traffic safety, Texas didn't see a single day without a traffic death during the 101 Driving Days of Summer in 1988, the Texas Coalition for Safety Belts announced today.

Col. Joe E. Milner, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, reported that the summer's best days were July 7, August 1 and August 30, with three fatalities each. The announcement was made at a Capitol news conference held by the safety belt coalition.

Texas hasn't had a deathless day since January 5, 1977. In sponsoring the "One Deathless Day" campaign, the coalition challenged Texas motorists to break that record.

"I wish we'd been able to say that we achieved a deathless day. We'll try again next year," said George R. Gustafson, president of Texas Safety Association and a spokesperson for the coalition. "In the long run, however, I do believe the campaign has had a positive effect."

Gustafson noted that belt use among Texas drivers averaged 60% in June 1988, and called attention to a number of other people who buckled up and survived potentially life-threatening crashes during the vacation season.

The "One Deathless Day" promotion began May 28, the Saturday before Memorial Day, and officially ended at midnight Labor Day, September 5.

Feeling Good Is Important Part Of Productive Life

Feeling good physically and emotionally is an important part of a productive and enjoyable life. But people do not always do what they should to achieve good overall health.

Unfortunately, it often takes an illness or other health problem to motivate a person to become "health-wise," according to the Texas Medical Association.

This term means learning how to prevent disease as well as to promote health. The key is maintaining a healthy lifestyle by focusing on areas such as exercise, stress, smoking, alcohol, nutrition, medication and accident prevention.

"Once you identify the risks you are taking, you can work to reduce or eliminate them," says a TMA pamphlet titled "Feeling Good - Enjoying a Health-Wise Lifestyle." It offers these suggestions among others on reducing health risks.

Alcohol: Frequent excessive drinking can lead to alcoholism, heart disease, cirrhosis of the liver, and accidents. When drinking alcohol, sip it slowly, and eat something before you drink.

Eating: Being overweight can lead to such problems as heart attacks, high blood pressure and diabetes. To help avoid overeating, eat slowly and eat less at meals. Avoid crash diets, and cut back on junk foods.

Smoking: Don't. Stress: Prolonged stress can lead to both mental and physical ills. Stress can come from job pressures, responsibilities at home, or troubles with friends and family. To relieve stress, find time to relax, whether it's reading a book, exercising, or doing nothing.

Medication: Avoid mixing drugs - prescription or over-the-counter - unless your doctor says it is safe. Never mix drugs with alcohol.

To obtain a copy of this pamphlet and nine others in the TMA Health-Wise Series, call 512/477-6704 or write to the Texas Medical Association, Department of Public Relations, 1801 N. Lamar Blvd., Austin 78701.

The Texas Medical Association is a professional organization with more than 28,000 physician and medical student members. It is located in Austin and has 116 component county medical societies around the state.

If it hadn't been for the Boston Tea Party, Americans might not be the avid coffee consumers they are today! The original British colonists, like their forefathers, preferred tea. After Samuel Adams and his band of now famous patriots acted in Boston Harbor, it became a point of pride for "Americans" to drink coffee instead of tea. Some of the most famous original coffee houses in New England were hotbeds of "revolution!"

Caring For Superwash Wool

If you like wool clothing, but not the drycleaning bills, you'll be glad to know that more washable wools are now on the market. You can identify them by the Superwash label, which is a certification of the Wool Bureau. A finish has been applied to the wool fabric which alters the scale like structure of the fibers. The finish allows the item to be washed so shrinkage will not occur. Always follow the instructions on the care label. A superwash garment should be machine washed on a gentle cycle with cool or lukewarm water. It can either be machine dried or hung to dry.

Helpful Household Hints

*An easy way to fluff up bed pillows is in a dryer. Use the "air" setting and let pillows tumble for 10 to 15 minutes.

*Coffee and tea stains can be removed from cups by soaking them in a solution of liquid chlorine bleach and water. Use 3 tablespoons of bleach for each quart of hot water and let the cups soak for 5 to 10 minutes. This method applies to glass, china or plastic cups, not aluminum or metal.

*Old towels, diapers and cotton knits are soft, absorbent, lint-free and so washable. Use them for dusting or cleaning surfaces, especially those that need to be scratch-free.
*If a plastic container becomes stained or develops an odor, soak the item in a solution of dishwasher detergent and water or a chlorine bleach and water.

Tax Practitioner Workshops Scheduled

The Texas Agricultural Extension Service is cooperating with the Internal Revenue Service in offering many Tax Practitioner Workshops across the state. Twenty-eight general workshops will be held in all major Texas cities. The general workshops nearest our county are:

Stephenville, November 14-15;
Vernon, November 30 - December 1;

Lubbock, December 1-2; and Abilene, December 5-6.

There will be fifteen advanced workshops offered in major cities. The general tax workshops will concentrate mostly on personal taxes - the advanced workshops' emphasis will be on business tax problems. The general tax workshops are especially designed for practitioners who have 2 years or more experience and work primarily with individual returns and small businesses organized as proprietorships.

In addition to the general and advanced tax workshops, there will be four partnership workshops, four estate planning and tax form preparation workshops, three income taxation of trusts and estates workshops, and four problem resolution workshops.

The Tax Practitioner educational program has been highly successful. Last year about 6,000 people participated in this state-wide series. These practitioners reported filing more than 636,000 tax returns. For additional information, please contact the County Extension Office, 454-2651, for a brochure explaining more about the program and registration information.

4-H Parent Meeting Scheduled Tuesday

The parents of 4-H members are encouraged to attend a meeting for the parents on Tuesday, October 18, at the Knox County Aging Services Building, 601 N. Ave. E in Knox City. It will begin promptly at 5:30 p.m. and conclude at 6:30 p.m.

Purpose of the one hour session is to acquaint parents with the purpose of 4-H and the benefits that can be received from the program. Anyone interested in learning more about 4-H is invited to attend.

Hot vinegar can be used to remove decals and freshly dried paint from windows and cupboards.

THE ATTRACTIVE entrance to the home of Charles and Betty Baker at 250 N. 15th Avenue caught the eye of the Yard of the Week judge this week. The beds of colorful flowers, neatly edged lawn and massive pecan trees, present a welcome atmosphere to the home.

Phone Assistance Program Helps Elderly, Disabled

A new financial assistance program, aimed at older, disabled Texans, has been established by the Texas Legislature in cooperation with the local exchange telephone companies throughout the state. "Tel-Assistance" is the name given to the new program.

"Tel-Assistance will reduce certain charges on a qualifying person's telephone bill by 65 percent," according to Tim Raven, President of the Texas Telephone Association. "Eligible customers may have Touchtone service or custom calling services, however, the discount will not apply to these services."

Raven adds that Tel-Assistance service recipients will also receive appropriate reduction of the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) line charge. Discounts do not apply to long distance, telephone equipment or installation charges.

The Tel-Assistance program is under the direction of the Texas Department of Human Services. To qualify for Tel-Assistance, an applicant must meet several requirements.

Applicants must be 65 years of age or older and must be disabled. Additionally, applicants must be the head of the household and have an income at or below the Federal poverty level.

"Additional information regarding Tel-Assistance is available from the Texas Department of Human Services," Raven said. "Interested parties can call toll-free, 1-800-343-8353, or write to Tel-Assistance Service, Texas Department of Human Services, Mail Code 952-X, P. O. Box 2901, Austin, Texas 78769."

Applicants for the program are processed by the Department of Human Services, as well. The Department will advise telephone companies if a person is eligible for Tel-Assistance.

Neighborhood Fish Fry Draws Crowd

The annual "Fourteenth Street Fish Fry", hosted by Troy Moore and his assistant, Lyndle Reeves, was held recently in Troy's home.

Fried fish, salads, red beans, cold slaw, onion rings, hush puppies, hot puff biscuits, relish plates, cobblers, honey, coffee and tea were served to ladies living in the neighborhood.

Troy, whose hobby is fishing and giving a helping hand to folks, is top hand in his neighborhood, according to reports from the ladies. Lyndle is always a big help, getting samples of food for everyone while Troy is cooking, taking pictures, and serving plenty of coffee and tea.

Enjoying the outing and hospitality were Hazel Pruitt, Allene Beatty, Ruth Griffith, Jeanie Haynie, Viola Cude, Allene Koenig, Thelma Lewis, Elaine Gulley, Beatrice Campsey, Louise Amerson and Dorothy Putnam.

Cattle branding was practiced 4,000 years ago. Old tomb paintings show Egyptians branding their cattle.

Garden Club Holds Luncheon Meeting

The Munday Garden Club began their new year Tuesday, October 4, with a salad luncheon in the home of Mrs. Lonnie Offutt. Assisting with hostess duties were Mmes. Dan Offutt, Joe Roberts, Weldon Floyd and J. T. Offutt.

During the business meeting, presided over by Mrs. Lonnie Offutt, programs and committees for the year were discussed. The club voted to honor the memory of Mrs. J. S. Shannon by planting a pink rosebush at Munday Nursing Center next spring. Yearbooks and cookbooks were also distributed and new officers announced.

Officers for the 1988-89 season include: Mrs. Lonnie Offutt, president; Mrs. Dick Moore, first vice president; Louise Amerson, third vice president; recording secretary, Mrs. Weldon Floyd; treasurer, Mrs. Dan Offutt; reporter, Mrs. J. H. Amerson; parliamentarian, Mrs. Joe Roberts.

Connie Boone was welcomed as a new member of the club. Guests were Paul Richwine and David Bordovsky.

Mrs. Cordell Offutt, chairman of the Beautification Committee, expressed appreciation to the Munday citizens for their beautiful, well-kept yards and to the committee of judges who worked so hard to make the yard of the week project successful. Appreciation was also expressed to City Hall, Munday Nursing Center and Texas A & M

Research Station for their well-kept lawns.

Members present for the luncheon were Mmes. Weldon Floyd, J. H. Amerson, Dan Offutt, Lonnie Offutt, J. T. Offutt, Nolan Phillips, Joe Roberts and Sam Stone.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

Would you help me find a few good men by publishing this letter in your paper? The few good men mentioned are WWII Veterans and were assigned to the 351st Heavy Bombardment Group at Polebrook, England between 1943 and 1945. There are about 5,000 lost souls and some of them may be in your area.

We have formed a 351st Association of flying and ground crews and have annual reunions. If you fit the above description, please contact Ken Vaughn, 1 Shady Lane, Belleville, ILL 62221.

Bloodmobile Schedules Visit Here Monday

Area residents will have the time of their life when they line up to give blood during the upcoming Red Cross bloodmobile visit. This regularly scheduled visit will be held at the Community Center on Monday, October 17, from 2:45 to 6:30. Blood is needed 24 hours a day, every day of the year, and we help meet this need in Red River Region by having 60 or more persons to donate at each bloodmobile visit.

During the past twelve months, 140 pints of blood were donated by area residents. Much of it was used to save or enhance the lives of people undergoing surgery, accident victims and chemotherapy patients. Still, we are not meeting our quota! With so many eligible donors, our potential is great.

It takes less than one hour to donate blood and there are immediate benefits to each individual donor in the form of a "mini-physical". So the time spent in helping others, is in actuality, time spent in helping ourselves.

The donation process includes a check on temperature, pulse, blood pressure and hemoglobin (iron) level. It also includes a question, answer and evaluation by trained staff who work to make every donation experience a good one.

All donors must be in good health, be between the ages of 17 and 70 and weigh 110 pounds. Seventeen year olds in Texas must have written parental permission. Persons who continue to donate regularly past age 65 may now give without a physician's permission if they remain in good health.

The blood bank is presently short on type O blood and urges all persons with O positive or O negative blood to become regular donors. The shortage of type O blood occurs because it is the most common blood type and the type patients need most often. When an emergency occurs and every second counts, when a premature baby needs blood, or when there isn't time for a patient's blood to be typed, type O blood comes to the rescue. This year patients in our region will need 9,800 units of type O blood.

Remember, all blood types are needed, but if you have type O, you are really needed now!

Sales Tax Not Due On Coupons

State Comptroller Bob Bullock said recently that shoppers who use discount coupons don't have to pay state sales tax on their savings.

"Tax is collected on the actual amount you pay for a taxable item, not on the pre-discount price," Bullock said.

According to Bullock, the amount of tax paid on items bought with coupons used to depend on the type of coupon being redeemed.

As a result, business and customers were sometimes confused about the correct amount of tax due.

"I can't find one good reason to tax items at the full price if they're being paid for with a discount coupon. This is a simple issue that somehow got complicated, and I hope I've cleared it up for once and for all," Bullock said.

Bullock said that with the new rule, store owners will find it much easier to collect the right amount of sales tax due on purchases made with coupons. Bookkeepers will also find it easier to keep track of taxes due to the state.

Taxpayers with questions about this or any other state tax may call toll-free 1-800-252-5555 from anywhere in this state.

Benefit Goers Enjoy Good Music, Food

"Great show," "Good entertainment," "Good music," was the general opinion expressed by those who attended the barbecue and musical benefit sponsored by the Emergency Medical Service Saturday night, October 8.

Gary Hale, local recording artist, was emcee for the evening. He also served as auctioneer for the cake sale and surprised and pleased the crowd when he used auctioneer "lingo" to sell the goods.

Also performing for the crowd were Glenda Boyd and the Texas Tradition Band from Vernon. Don Welch and the River Bend Band provided music, comic commercials and weather forecasts during their segment of the program.

Tommy Guy Waldrip and the Swords and Shields from Knox City entertained with contemporary religious song, and Gary Hale joined Glenda Boyd and her band with original songs including I Wanna Give You a Memory and Hello Daddy, plus a lot of old time favorites.

The EMS crew provided a break in the musical portion of the show with a skit making light comedy of things that can happen during an ambulance call, which had the crowd rolling in the aisles.

Johnny Slate and Danny Morris of Nashville, Tennessee, formerly with Warner Brothers Recording and now owners of Owens Canary Recording, were in the audience. They made the trip to hear Gary Hale sing and reports were that they were very impressed with his abilities.

A lot of hard work went into the preparation of the barbecue meal and show production and the EMS expresses their appreciation to all those who helped through donations of time, money and food.

W.G.'s Meet On Saturday

Mrs. Elaine Gulley entertained the W.G.'s in her home Saturday evening. They enjoyed a barbecue meal prepared by the EMT personnel and volunteers and served in Elaine's home.

Gift exchange and games were enjoyed by Aita Bowden, who was the birthday person of the month, Frankie Ponder, Pauline Morrow, Juanita Massey, Allene Beaty, Ruth Griffith, Viola Cude, Dorothy Putnam and Elaine Gulley, hostess.

Lions Club News

The Munday Lions Club met Tuesday, October 11, at noon. The program was led by Dennis L. Duke of Truscott, project manager for the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers. Duke showed a film to the club, explaining the history and accomplishments of the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers.

The next meeting will be October 18 at 12 noon. Anyone interested in attending or joining the Lions Club, contact a member.

Cross-Country Girls Win Third At Meet

The Munday High School boys and girls cross-country teams traveled to Lubbock on Saturday, October 8, for a meet sponsored by the Lubbock Independent School District. Competition was held at Mae Simmons Park, the same site to be used for the Region I Cross Country meet on November 5. The Munday teams competed against 32 schools from Class AAA, AA and A.

Munday girls brought home third place with a total score of 112 points. Canyon took first place with 55 points and second place went to Nazareth with 78 points.

Running in a field of 187 entries, Mindy Myers, Kacy Longan and Robin Reneau ran their best times of the season, coming in second, 12th and 18th, respectively.

Times and places for Munday girls were: Mindy, 2nd, 12:34; Kacy, 12th, 13:30; Bridgette Beaty, 13th, 13:40; Robin, 18th, 13:47; Denise Kuehler, 67th, 14:46.9; Alicia Cook, 68th, 14:47; Missy Reneau, 95th, 15:18 and Jae-Jae Reneau, 127th, 16:14.

This was an important meet for Munday, as Munday and Nazareth are ranked first and second in the state. It was the first and only meeting with Nazareth prior to the Region Meet. According to Coach Sloan, the girls will have to improve if they are to dethrone the five-time state champion Nazareth team, but with a month remaining before the meet, he feels they can improve enough to win.

Kathy Welch ran in the JV division of the meet which include schools from 5A to 1A. She ran her best time and finished 97th in a field of 211 runners with a time of 16:37.

The boys did not finish in the top three, but they did turn in some fine times and put forth a lot of effort. In a field of 110 entries, Mik Yzaguirre came in 52nd with a time of 18:47. Other times and place were Massey Campos, 60th, 19:18; Isais Campos, 80th, 19:55; Kenny Forehand, 82nd, 19:58; and Jerry Valencia, 108th, 22:42. "This was the first meet for both Kenny and Jerry and they and the rest of the team handled themselves very well on the difficult course," commented Coach Sloan.

The next meet for the Munday teams will be a dual meet with Burkburnett at 5 p.m. October 19 at Lake Creek Golf Course.

School Makes Plans For Special Week

The week of October 16-23 has been designated as National Interscholastic Activities Week. Governor Bill Clements has also designated that week as Texas Activities Week.

Interscholastic activities play an important role in the total educational development of our students. Through interscholastic activities, students learn the value of team work, self-discipline, determination and hard work.

Over 90% of the students at Munday High School participate in one or more interscholastic activity. These students have been very successful in interscholastic academic, athletic and band activities during the past several years. That success has carried over into their classroom work as well.

Several interscholastic activities are planned for the week. On Wednesday afternoon, October 19, there will be a dual cross country meet with Burkburnett at the Lake Creek Golf Course beginning at 5:00. Junior high and JV football teams will travel to Paducah on Thursday, October 20, followed by the varsity contest with Paducah here on Friday night. The week will culminate with the district band marching contest in Wichita Falls on Saturday.

School officials encourage everyone to come out and support the Munday students in these interscholastic activities.

October 9-15 Proclaimed Fire Prevention Week

Citing the tragic loss of lives and property from fire each year in Texas, Governor William P. Clements, Jr. proclaimed the week of October 9 - 15, 1988, as Fire Prevention Week.

"Fire continues to be a major threat to all our citizens, particularly the young and the old," Governor Clements said.

Fires in Texas killed 322 people, injured more than 2,000 and destroyed in excess of $300 million in property during 1987, the governor noted.

"Much of this tragic loss could have been prevented," the governor said. "We have the knowledge and technology today to prevent much of the needless loss of lives and property in this state and we urge every Texas citizen to practice fire prevention every day in an effort to conserve our valuable Texas resources."

This year marks the 66th anniversary of National Fire Prevention Week. The week-long observance was first established in 1922 by President Warren Harding in memory of the so-called "Great Chicago Fire" of October 9, 1871.

That conflagration killed 250 people and destroyed 17,430 buildings at a cost of $168 million. People began thinking in terms of fire prevention in addition to fire fighting as a result of this fire.

In an effort to educate school age children about the dangers of fire, the local volunteer fire department is sponsoring a poster contest this week for students in grades 1 - 8. Winners will be announced in the next issue of the Courier.

Guidelines For Practicing Fire Prevention In The Home

Every day, fire strikes more than 1,500 homes in the United States. Most such fires can be prevented if you avoid carelessness and follow sensible do's and don'ts. The State Board of Insurance and the State Fire Marshal's office offer the following guidelines for practicing fire prevention in the home:

- *Make sure that heating and cooking appliances are properly installed and used according to instructions.

- *Do not use gasoline or flammable liquids for cleaning in the home.

- *Provide proper ventilation for portable gas and oil heaters or fire places.

- *Do not smoke in bed.

- *Before going to bed, check upholstered furniture to ensure that smoking materials are not lodged in the furniture.

- *Dispose of smoking materials safely. Store them out-of-doors in a metal container and immerse them with water to make sure that they are completely out.

- *Keep matches and lighters away from small children.

- *Make sure that all electrical cords are safe.

- *Use only the correct size fuses in fuse boxes.

- *Keep basement, closets, attic and garage cleared of combustibles such as papers, cartons, old furniture, clothes or oil-soaked rags.

- *Store gasoline and other flammable liquids in closed containers away from heat, sparks and children, preferably away from the house. Never store flammable liquids in glass jugs, old bleach bottles or makeshift containers.

- *Keep paint stored in closed metal containers and discard paint-laden brushes.

- *Furnaces, stoves and stove pipes should be kept well away from combustible walls and ceilings.

- *Heating equipment should be checked yearly by qualified service personnel.

- *Do not overload electrical circuits with too many appliances.

- *When adding electrical wiring or appliances, have a qualified electrician do the installation.

- *Only special circuits should be used for heavy-duty appliances such as air conditioners.

- *Use only appliances that carry the seal of a nationally recognized testing laboratory.

- *Plan ahead. Purchase a smoke detector with a nationally recognized testing laboratory label and install one or more at least outside the sleeping areas of your home. Check your detectors every week to make sure that they work properly. Clean the detectors according to manufacturers instructions. If detectors are battery powered, put in new batteries at least yearly.

- Determine at least two means of escape from each bedroom. One will be the normal exit from the house or apartment. The other can be a window or a second door between bedrooms. Consider installing an escape ladder from windows.

- Draw a floor plan to indicate the location of doors, windows, stairs and roof tops that can be used for escape. Always keep escape routes free from obstructions.

- Agree on a warning device to be used when a fire is discovered. Set a meeting place outdoors for a head count of occupants.

Practice escape procedures.

The committee represents a broad cross section of Knox County."

Department Of Agriculture Accepting Matching Grants

Senator Steve Carriker (D-Roby) has announced that the Texas Department of Agriculture is accepting applications for matching grants to promote diversification in Texas agriculture. Authorized by the Legislature last year, the purpose of the program is to get projects off the ground that demonstrate new and practical solutions for emerging agricultural enterprises.

"It is vitally important that

by Rev. Wayne Varnell,
First Baptist Church, Goree

Living the wrong kind of life does have an effect on a person. I heard a humorous story that makes that point clear. The government wanted to locate the oldest living American. They sent some government agents to the hills of Tennessee just in case someone up in those hills had been overlooked in their census.

One agent pulled into a gas station and asked where the oldest man in the area lived. The attendant told him that a real old man had just moved in north of town. The agent drove up to the house and found a very frail man sitting on the porch. He was covered over, his skin was very wrinkled and discolored, and his hair and beard were very long.

The agent walked up to the elderly looking gentleman and explained why he was making this visit. "It seems to me that you're about the oldest looking person I've found." He then asked the man to tell him about his lifestyle so others could benefit from the knowledge.

The elderly looking man looked up and said, "I drink one pint of whiskey every morning. I finish off two six packs of beer every afternoon. I smoke three packs of cigarettes every day. I use drugs and I don't exercise or eat right." The agent was dumbfounded. He told the man, "You've broken every rule in the book. How old are you?" The man looked up and said, "29".

Living the wrong kind of life can have effects on us here and in eternity. Jesus said, "I have come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly." (John 10:10 The Lord Jesus Christ can enable you to live a quality of life unattainable by human means. He Is Alive!

Sheriff Issues Warning Against Poisoning Animals

Henry Dancer, Knox County Sheriff, has reported that two dogs in the Rhineland area have been poisoned. Residents are reminded that this is against the law and anyone caught poisoning animals will be prosecuted.

"Our biggest concern is that a small child might come in contact with the poison," stated Dancer. "That would be tragic."

Persons having problems with stray dogs should call the authorities before taking any action.

people across the 30th District are aware that potential exists in this program to help stimulate economic development through value added industries utilizing Texas grown products," Carriker said. "Our people have new ideas that can help put the agricultural economy back on track."

Named the Texas Agricultural Diversification Board, the program was created to award grants to applicants who will demonstrate the feasibility of alternative crop production, processing agricultural products or direct marketing. According to program administrator Alice Reynolds, "the program will fund applied research and innovation projects, business training and support services programs, and small business incubators designed to diversify the Texas agricultural economy."

Proposals for funding will be accepted from any non-profit regional or community organization, such as a university, community college, or council of government, or any other non-profit organization affiliated with small business. The funds will be allocated in two rounds of competitive bids, with deadlines in late October and mid-January. Inquiries about the program can be directed to Alice Reynolds, 512-463-7577, in the Texas Department of Agriculture or to Senator Carriker's Capitol office, 512-463-0130.

Senior Citizens' Game Nights Set October 13, 20

Munday Senior Citizens met for their regular monthly meeting Thursday, October 6, with Grach Hutchinson, president, presiding.

Opening prayer was given by Virginia Cary, followed by the pledge of allegiance recited in unison. A new member, Alva James, was welcomed along with all members present. Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The treasurer's report was given and accepted. Motion was made by Ruby Roden and seconded by Ella Gresham that game nights be held at 6 p.m. Motion passed. Grace Hutchinson reminded the group of the EMS barbecue supper and urged their support. A nominating committee consisting of Clyde Yost, chairman; Maggie Gaines, Louise Amerson, Ella Gresham, Leona Blankenship was appointed.

The group enjoyed singing with Maggie Gaines, Clyde Yost and Ella Gresham leading, accompanied by Eunice Raynes at the piano. Games of bingo were played until lunchtime.

Renvie Patterson offered thanks for the covered dish meal, after which a period of fellowship was enjoyed by all.

Game nights will be October 13 and 20 at 6 p.m. and singing night will be Thursday, October 27, at 7. The next regular meeting will be at 10:30 a.m. on November 3. Any senior citizen is welcome to attend.

Legend has it that a young goat herd in the land of Arabia discovered coffee. Upon losing his goats, the young goatherd, Kaldi, went searching. Kaldi found his goats dancing in abandoned glee near a shiny, dark-leaved shrub with red berries. Kaldi soon determined the red berries were affecting his goats behavior and it wasn't long before he too was dancing.

CHAD and BRENT JONES

Goree Couple's Grandsons Pose Double Grid Threat

Chad and Brent Jones, twin grandsons of Harold and Clea Jones of Goree, pose a double threat when they line up against their opponents for the Irving Tigers.

Chad and Brent have played football together since seventh grade, but never side-by-side. Chad helps anchor the offensive line as guard, and Brent at defensive end, but both play a critical part in the Tigers' success.

The Irving High School coaching staff credits the Jones boys with being not only the most coachable players on the team, but the most popular among their teammates, as well as the key players in the Tigers' quest for a playoff spot.

"Realistically, they should just be average players," said head coach Jim Bennett. "They're not big or exceptionally strong or even fast, but they play better than they should because of their work habits and their attitude."

Their willingness to please goes so far as to cause problems sometimes. More than once, Tiger coaches have chewed out either Chad or Brent for what they thought was a mistake, only to review the game films and find out they were doing exactly what they were supposed to do. Neither of them will argue when the coaches berate them, they just nod and say "Yes, sir," as if they had made a mistake.

"I think this kind of attitude is a direct result of their parents' training," Bennett said. "They have been taught to respect authority and that they have to work to achieve things. As a result, they almost over-achieve."

At 5' 10" and weighting 170 pounds, Chad and Brent may lack the physical requirements needed to land major college scholarships, but according to Bennett, they just may be the ideal high school players.

"They have heart and intelligence," said Bennett, "and when coaching them, we'd better tell them to do it right the first time, because that's exactly the way they're going to do it."

Chad and Brent are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Jan Jones of Irving and are high school seniors. Other grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Benson of Irving.
