by Joyce Beecher Greenwood

During the early years when Tommy and I were forced to leave the farm temporarily, he worked with a seismograph rig out of Lamesa. We lived in one side of a little duplex apartment, and on the other side lived a lady named Beatrice and her ten year old son.

Beatrice--or Bea, as she preferred to be called--had gone to have her fortune read by a fortune teller in a "big old rambling house" in Lubbock. The fortune teller had told her she would not live to an old age. In fact, from the way in which Bea had turned up certain cards, it appeared that her death would be sudden and very violent. It was obvious when she told me about it that she was a little worried, even though she tried to pretend she didn't really believe it.

I mentioned that I thought fortune tellers always told people they would meet a handsome stranger.

"That's those carnival fortune tellers," Bea answered. "This lady is from India or somewhere and she seems legitimate."

She told me she would take me, but Tommy didn't want me to go.

"Why would you want to go over there and let some nut tell you something to worry you like Bea's worrying?" he asked.

We came home shortly after that for a visit, and when I told Daddy about Bea and the fortune teller and that she had offered to take me, he told me if I went I should listen carefully to the questions she would ask first.

"And remember," he added. "Nobody knows your destiny but God."

I didn't go to the fortune teller, and we came home shortly after that to start another crop, so I don't know if Bea met a sudden and violent death. If she didn't, she wasted lots of years worrying about it when she could have just been enjoying being alive.

People have always been curious about the future. Most of us think we would like to know what will happen next month or next year so we could alter the course of fate if necessary. But few of us are so insecure about the future that we would seek out people who claim to be able to foretell our destinies by reading tea leaves or cards-crystal balls or the ways in which the lines in our palms intersect. Few of us actually believe that our lives are governed by the stars or the position of the planets.

I wonder if fortune tellers are really around anymore. I never went to one, but I have been told they ask certain questions at the start of the session so a "client" may unwittingly tell everything about himself. Other fortune tellers obviously have a strong insight into human nature. Using the fears and the dreams a person reveals about himself, they can predict up to a point, what will probably happen in that person's life. Most of them tell people they will meet a tall stranger and we don't pass through this life without it. They predict people will "come into some money" and usually there is sometime within a lifetime a tax refund or some unexpected income.

Other fortune tellers, like the one Bea had the misfortune to encounter, are cruel and sadistic. As in Bea's situation, they may rob a person of belief in himself or his own abilities.

I wonder if any of us would really want to know what the future holds. We might know if a business venture would prove to be unsuccessful and avoid it. We might know in advance the people we could depend on and avoid from the start, the people who would hurt us. But many of us would never fall in love if we knew it would end in a broken relationship or the WORKERS AT THE TXS Vegetable Shed Monday are shown grading a load of potatoes harvested from the rain-damaged fields. This year's crop consists of very small potatoes mixed with a large amount of dirt and clods. Heavy rains forced early harvest and the potatoes did not have time to mature.

SONNY MOORE, MANAGER OF FARMERS GRAIN ELEVATOR, and worker, Chris Scott, test moisture content in a load of wheat brought into the elevator on Monday. With eighty percent of area harvest complete, an estimated 800,000 bushels of wheat had been brought in by noon Monday.

Area Wheat Harvest Nears Completion

In spite of flooded fields and hail, area wheat yields are some of the best since 1983, according to Sonny Moore of Farmers Grain Co-op.

During the first five days of harvest, an average of 100,000 bushels per day was brought into the Farmers Co-op. By noon Monday, an estimated 800,000 bushels had been received as combines worked overtime at a harvest previously delayed by the rain-soaked fields. With the harvest about 80 percent complete, Moore has estimated over 1,000,000 bushels will be received this year.

Moore reported that because of the heavy rain on the already ripened wheat, test grades are between 2 and 3. There was also some hail damage this year, with some farmers west and north of Munday reporting 30 to 40 percent hail damage.

Some areas southeast of Munday have different soil types and plant a type of wheat that seems to mature later. Crops from these farms are going to test grade 1.

Moore stated that rail service has been good this year and by Monday noon, 200 rail cars had been loaded and shipped from Farmers Grain Co-op.

An all-time record for most bushels received in a single day had been anticipated, but combines were forced to turn on sections in the fields still too wet to harvest.

Due to commitments in other areas, some of the custom combine crews are leaving the area, but if weather permits, wheat harvest should be almost complete by the end of the week.

FmHA Accepting Emergency Farm Loan Applications

Bobby G. Cude, FmHA County Supervisor, announced recently that emergency farm loans for losses caused by severe storms, flooding and tornadoes, are being accepted at the Farmers Home Administration office located in Knox City.

Knox County is one of ten in Texas recently named by secretary of agriculture, Clayton Yeutter, as eligible for loans to cover part of actual production losses resulting from the storms which began on April 15, 1990, and continuing dates. Cude said farmers may be eligible for loans up to 80 percent of their actual losses or the operating loan needed to continue in business or $500,000, whichever is less. For farmers unable to obtain credit from private commercial lenders, the interest rate is 4.5 percent.

"As a general rule, a farmer must have suffered at least a 30 percent loss of production to be eligible for an FmHA emergency loan," Cude said. "And farmers participating in the PIK or Federal Crop Insurance programs will have to figure in proceeds from those programs in determining their losses."

Cude stated that applications for loans under this emergency designation will be accepted until Jan. 24, 1991, but farmers should apply as soon as possible. Delays in applying could create backlogs in processing and possibly carry over into the new farming season.

The FmHA office in Knox City is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Items Needed For Auction Benefit

Munday citizens are reminded to continue to look for items to donate for the auction to benefit the downtown park. Items can be left at Abell Ag, and can be better advertised if items are left this week.

The auction will be held at 10 a.m. on June 23, during the Knox County Vegetable Festival along with a raffle held by the Munday Volunteer Ambulance Group.

Immediately following the auction, there will be a drawing for the all-expenses paid trip for two to Orlando, Florida.

Goree Baptist Church Has New Pastor Family

For almost a year, the Goree First Baptist Church has been served by incumbent pastors. A few weeks ago, the congregation welcomed a new pastor family into their church and to the community with the arrival of Tony Megee and his young family. The Megees have moved here from Broken Arrow, Oklahoma to serve the people of the church.

A graduate of Baptist Seminary, Reverend Megee received his Bachelor of Science degree from Northeastern State in Tahlequah, Oklahoma.

He and his wife, Misty, are the parents of two daughters, Caitlin, age one year and Lauren, almost three. The young family is looking forward to serving the Goree Church and living in the community.

Reverend Megee is very enthusiastic about some youth outreach programs he has planned for the summer. "Misty and I are looking forward to being a part of the community," Rev. Megee said. "We want to get to know everybody and share the sense of belonging that comes with living in a small rural area."

death of a spouse.

If we knew for sure that our child would die in a tragic accident or from some dread disease, would any of us opt for the pain? And if we didn't, think of all the happiness we'd miss from never having known that child at all. We might could avoid all the pain if we knew the future, but we'd never make any memories.

Some people believe God has each of our destinies all mapped out before we are ever born--even to the years and the hours we will live. Others believe we are allowed the freedom to shape our own destinies, and the individual is responsible--or to blame--for the events and circumstances in life.

Each of us has his own belief, but most of us agree on the most important issue. For each day we wake up to face the morning, we have been given one more day to live. It's up to us to decide if we spend it griping and being bitter or depressed over real or imagined hurts and disappointments--or if we spend it trying to find the good in people or situations.

We don't need a crystal ball to tell us we will be happier if we spend our days being a friend to those who are so desperately reaching out for a friend. We know already that if we hold tightly to God's hand, the good times will be better and the bad times won't consume us.

Nobody really knows what tomorrow will bring or even if there will be a tomorrow. But there is a today.

And today is ours.

Miller Creek Reservoir

Condition: Flooded; Bridge road on creek is flooded and unpassable. Main road to docks and dam is in excellent shape.

Catfish: Excellent. Trotliners doing well in flooded grassy areas and creek channels. One cat was caught at 60 lbs. on Tan Bait™ wrapped in cheese cloth. Also cats are hitting night crawlers, goldfish, golden shiners and small perch.

Black Bass: Improving to good status. Largest reported at 7 3/4 lbs.

Hitting plastic worms in still water on sunny days. Also taking rattle lures and chrome spinning lures. Some taking large live minnows.

White Bass: Very good to 2 lbs. on minnows and small tube jigs. Best at night under lights near dam.

Crappie: Fair. A few limits caught. Most small. Best on chartreuse or white tube jigs. Also taking minnows.

Carp, Buffalo, Drum: Excellent. Best on Tan Bait™ and worms. Drum hitting minnows well.

Gar: Several large gar taken by archery equipment in shallow flooded areas. Remember it's legal to shoot rough fish, only.

Fishing Tip

Q: What is the best way to take hybrid striper when trolling? What tips can I have for you?

A: I do not troll much and so I'm no expert by any means. However, what has worked for me includes: 1. Use a quiet trolling motor; 2. Use a "Texas Trailer" rig. This is a steel leader which allows you to hook a heavy lure on the bottom and a bass jig higher; 3. Fro striper I use a Bomber™ deep water lure (usually chrome color); 4. Use (at least) 25 lb. test line on a heavy duty bait casting reel; 5. Trolling along a dam in at least 20-30 feet of water seems the best location; 6. Once you receive a strike it's important that all other lines be reeled in to prevent hangups.

Stripers are good fighters and a large one will make you sore. Many people release the fish after the play but they make a good supper. When cleaning the bass, remove the dark blood line near the spine. I prefer the meat filleted, battered in egg and flour, and fried in peanut oil. Do not overcook.

The table was centered with a cut-out newspaper doily and a crystal basket of fresh green onions, with newspaper placemats, paper plates and silver forks completing the table setting.

Laughing and eating was the highlight of the party.

Bible Stories, Refreshments & Fun

BENJAMIN NEWS

By Mrs. Gladene Green

With a busy weekend behind us, we start this week with plans to make the 1990 Benjamin Homecoming very successful and make the ones who "come home" feel very welcome. There's going to be something for everyone.

Remember, registration starts at 6 p.m. Friday and there will again be free snacks for everyone. Games, races, a parade, business meeting, barbecue and dance are on the agenda for Saturday, and Sunday morning community church services will conclude the weekend of events. I hope everyone can be there!!

COWBOY CAMP MEETING

The past weekend the annual cowboy camp meeting was held under a tent on the Moorhouse Ranch between Benjamin and Guthrie. David Ray, pastor of the First United Methodist Church at Seymour, brought the message at each meeting. Saturday night, the ranch "fed" those attending - stew, cole slaw, salads, beans, cobbler, coke and tea - and everyone thoroughly enjoyed it. Also breakfast was served on Sunday morning. Nothing tastes better than bacon, eggs and coffee cooked out like that and again those attending were glad they made the effort to go because in addition to receiving an inspiring message and a good meal, everyone had a chance to visit folks they don't see real often.

SHOWER HONORS MRS. MOORHOUSE

Mrs. Tom Moorhouse was honored with a baby shower Sunday afternoon in the home of Pam Duke. In addition to Becky, other special guests were her mom, Ann Elliott of Seymour, her daughter, Jodi Moorhouse, and Tom's mother, Lucille Moorhouse.

The serving table was covered with a lace tablecloth with the centerpiece being a mesquite limb decorated with baby trinkets - rattle, socks, pacifier and other useful little items.

Refreshments of cake, punch, mints and nuts were served by Racheal Duke and Sandy Patterson.

The honoree received many useful gifts including a fancy foldup playpen which was a gift from the hostesses.

Hostesses were Pam Duke, Nancy McGreger, Jessie Roberts, Barbara Pratt, Jan Pollock, Louise Hertel, Bertha Driver, Janice Tolson, Sue Oxford and Karen Patterson.

MOVE FROM BENJAMIN

Sue and David Oxford have recently moved from Benjamin. They have purchased a home west of Knox City and moved a couple of weeks ago. We hated to see Sue and David leave, but wish them well. They haven't gone far, and they invite folks to come over and see them in their new home.

CONCERNING OUR ILL

Mabel Moorhouse is continuing to improve since her recent stay in the hospital. She, of course, is still weak, but gaining strength daily and hopes to be back to her old self before long.

Bud Clower returned home Tuesday night after surgery and several days stay in a Dallas hospital. He too is making good progress, but also is having to take it mighty easy. He hopes to return to work (light duty) in about 6-8 weeks.

Audrey Nolan is planning to return to the care home in Knox City very soon. She is recovering nicely from her recent knee surgery in Lubbock. If all goes well, she should return to Knox City next week.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Kim and Donald Miller are proud to announce the arrival of a baby daughter born Friday, June 8, at the Wilbarger General Hospital. The young lady arrived at 5:45 a.m. and has been named Jacqueline Christine. She weighed 7 pounds, 3 ounces and measured 18 inches long.

She has lots of relatives who already are getting in on their share of caring for and spoiling her. Maternal grandparents are Fred and LaNay Cash of Gilliland and paternal grandparents are Donald and Kay Miller of Guthrie. She has great-grandparents, including Jim and Edith Cash of Crowell and LaMoyné and Christine Patterson of Benjamin. She also has Miller great-grandparents and a Miller great-great-grandmother who are all very proud of her.

Kim, the baby and the father are all doing fine.

TRIP TO COPPER BREAKS

Kenneth and Jessie Roberts and Keith and Pam Conner took a group of kids from the Methodist Church to Copper Breaks for an overnight outing Friday. Just a lot of fun was enjoyed by the group. A hamburger cookout and homemade ice cream was enjoyed by everyone on Friday night. In addition to the Roberts and Conners, kiddoes making the trip were Casey and Stephanie Conner, Zeke and Racheal Duke, Jason Patterson, Jim Bob Conner, Rebel Rainwater and Chrystal Hibdon. Pam Duke and Nora Duke joined them Friday night for supper.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCEMENT: Mr. and Mrs. Allen Johnston of Coolidge announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Karen Denise, to Douglas Stanton Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanton Brown of Benjamin. The wedding will be held in the First United Methodist Church of Teague, Texas on August 4, 1990.

HERE 'N THERE

Pat Barton and Jan Rolston attended the funeral of Pat's cousin's son, Kevin Reasor, in Altus, Oklahoma on Sunday. Kevin was 10 years old and died in a wheat unloading accident Thursday night, being suffocated when a load of wheat was dumped into a truck where he and two friends were playing. The other two boys escaped injury.

Nora Duke, Dennis Duke, Nora Hertel and Don and Louise Hertel attended the funeral of Johnny Baiz in Sagerton last Monday. Johnny was a nephew of the two Noras and Dennis and Don's cousin. He was only 32 years old, and his wife and two small children are among his survivors.

Recent guests of Bill and Pearl Ryder have been Pearl's sister and brother-in-law, Murle and Fred Searcey of Dallas. On Saturday, Bill and Pearl attended the Golden Wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stone in Dickens.

Zell Barton and Danny and Ann Allen of Amarillo visited the Joe Bartons and their Moorhouse relatives during the weekend.

DecAnn and Anthony Lamb returned home Saturday after several days visit in Wichita Falls.

Recent guests of Dutch and Imagean Young were Brenda Galaher and Joy Yancy and granddaughter, Kerri, of Wichita Falls. Joy and Kerri spent the weekend with Jane Gideon but visited her other relatives while here. Joe Nunley of Dickens also visited his family here.

Recent visitors in the home of J. D. and Annie Brown were Annie Lee Benham of Lake Worth and Curtis Brown of Wichita Falls.

Jack and Mary Young of Lubbock accompanied Kathleen Melton to Waco last week for the Retired Texas Rangers Reunion. Also making the trip to Waco were Jim, Debra, Kobi and Jayson Melton of Abilene, Jackie, Jr. and Cindy Young of Arlington and Debbie, Barry, Dusty and Trevor Neil of Holtom City. On Saturday, with the entire Melton family present, a memorial service was given at the Waco meeting in memory of all the Rangers who had passed away since the meeting last year. And Homer T's picture and a short story about him is now in the Texas Rangers Hall of Fame. Quite an honor to a very deserving man, I think. And many, many others feel the same way.

Weekend guests of Dorothy and Randy Hibdon and kids and Lois

Golden were Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Paxton of Lubbock and Connie and Paula Harvey of Haskell.

Randy and CeeJay Engbrock of Wichita Falls were Saturday guests of his parents, Joe and Julia Trepanier. Sandy Tovar, who had been visiting in Burkburnett, returned to Benjamin with them.

The Lord's Corner

by Dr. Pete Bradfield, pastor
First Baptist Church

We once again approach Father's Day. As we do, I want to give the dads reading this column the ABC's of discipline.

A stands for ALWAYS. Always be consistent.

B stands for BUSY. But not too busy. Some of the worst jobs of fatherhood are by men of good reputation who copped out under the guise of "too busy".

C stands for CARING. Men are equal partners in parenthood. It's not woman's work to rear the young. A major peril to children in America is the bad parenthood of good men.

The Bible gives us good instruction of how to be the kind of father we need to be. Follow those instructions, men, and you can't go wrong.

See you next week, and remember: Be a man, men!

Todd Thompson has run on the five fastest indoor 1,600-meter relays in Baylor school history.

Thompson On 1990 NCAA Championship Relay Team

Competing with college teams from across the nation, Texas Baylor University's 1600 meter relay team took national honors at the 1990 NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championship held at Duke University in Durham, North Carolina. The NCAA Championship is the culmination of months of hard work and self-discipline, as track athletes from all across the U.S. vied for the prestigious honor of being the best in the nation.

Munday's Todd Thompson, a senior at Baylor University in Waco and a seven time All-American, is a member of the team which set a record in being the first team in collegiate history to win all 1600 meter relay events all year long in both Indoor and Outdoor Championships.

Winning with a time of 3:01.86 over Auburn's 3:03.72, the Baylor team overcame some problems on a hand off to take the championship. Thompson's individual split was 44.87.

A 1986 graduate of Munday High School, Todd is the son of Larry and Cindy Thompson.

Small Business Administration To Give Economic Injury Assistance

Walter Fronstin, district director of the U.S. Small Business Administration's (SBAs) Lubbock office, announced recently that SBA has expanded its declaration for Economic Injury Disaster Loans (EIDLs) to small businesses that have sustained economic injury losses as a result of severe storms, flooding and tornadoes in Texas occurring April 15 through June 4, 1990.

Fisher, Haskell, Jones, Knox, Nolan, Runnels, Stonewall and Taylor counties are eligible for the EIDL loans in the northwest Texas area served by the Lubbock office.

Fronstin said the EIDL loans are not to cover physical losses. But if a small business was normally able to meet its bills and pay its operating expenses and cannot do so now as a direct result of the disaster, it may be eligible.

Economic injury loans are limited to the financial needs of the applicant based on the actual injury and may be made for up to $500,000. The interest rate on the EIDL loans is 4%. Based on repayment ability, a loan may extend to 30 years.

The loan program is available only to small businesses which are able to meet SBA size standards and which do not have credit available from other sources.

The deadline for filing for economic injury assistance is February 4, 1991. Businesses seeking additional information should call the SBA Disaster Office in Fort Worth, toll free, 1-800-527-7735.

FARM AND RANCH REPORT

Destroy Mosquito Breeding Grounds

With the heavy rains we received last week, one pest has certainly done well and stalks people anytime one goes outside. It seems that mosquitos have multiplied in large numbers from the wet areas.

In order to discourage further reproduction, homeowners should keep lawns and lots mowed or rid of any type of tall growth. In order for mosquitos to reproduce they must have contact with some type of water. As the mosquitos develop, they seek cool, damp places to find shelter until they become adults. Taller stands of grass and weeds provide atmosphere and thus make a higher concentration of mosquitos.

If homeowners have pools for children, they should be treated with a commercial treatment that will deter mosquitos and kill eggs which are laid on water.

With the aid of homeowners in the forementioned areas, cooperation from local city crews to do periodic insect spraying, the mosquitos should be able to be kept under control.

SQUASH WILTING ON PLANT--WHAT TO DO

Every year as squash begin to produce, a problem develops as small squash bloom but wilt and deteriorate on the plant. The problem is lack of pollination. Typically, the male bloom first appears on the plant. This bloom has a stem but no small squash. As female blooms (blooms not small squash) are found, gardeners can remove a male bloom from the plant, remove the petals and rub the pollen on the inner part of the female bloom. By this process, the gardener is assured that pollination has occurred. As insect activity increases in the blooms, this procedure will not have to be done.

Grandson of Munday Couple Tours European Countries

James Maddox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Maddox of Knox City and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. A.C. Tackitt of Munday, returned home June 1 from a two week tour of Switzerland, Austria and West Germany.

A Texas Tech student, majoring in Music Education, Maddox was part of a missionary group led by Rev. Dale Cain, Director of the Foreign Missions European Section of Revival in Austria with the International Baptist Church. Twenty-four members from Calvary Baptist Church in Lubbock witnessed to people in the areas of Munich, Germany and Vienna, Austria in sermon and song. The group stayed in the homes of families in Vienna during a three day revival there.

Maddox stated that one of the highlights of the tour was the appearance of the pastor of the only Baptist Church in Russia at one of their meetings. The missionary group had taken fifty Russian Bibles on their tour, and they presented them to the Russian pastor whose church has forty members.

Maddox, a 1987 graduate of Knox City High School attended school in Munday in 1980. He plans to go into the ministry following his graduation from Tech.

New Driving Regulations Will Affect Texas Drivers

The '90s are bringing changes to the states' transportation system that will ultimately affect the general public of Texas as well. During this year alone, three regulations become effective in Texas that are intended to make the state's highways safer.

In June, Texas drivers who wish to keep commercial license must take a written--and possibly a road--test to obtain the new Commercial Drivers' License. Department of Public Safety officials will begin testing in June. Texas drivers have until April 1992 to obtain a commercial driver's license. However, state officials have predicted that it will take at least two years to accomplish the licensing process for the approximately one million commercial operators in Texas.

By the first of July, all interstate motor carriers operating in excess of 10,000 lbs. GVW, and intrastate motor carriers operating in excess of 26,000 lbs. GVW must have had an annual inspection performed within the previous 12 months on all commercial vehicles.

All intrastate carriers and interstate carriers with less than fifty drivers must have a drug testing program in place by Dec. 21, 1990.

Director of Public Relations for the Texas Motor Transportation Association, stated that few people realize the impact these three regulations will have on the trucking industry and the state. Clearly, the intent of these regulations is to ensure that only safe drivers operate commercial vehicles. An unknown factor, at this point however, is how many drivers will become unqualified to drive in Texas. With the trucking industry already experiencing driver shortages, the regulations will make enlisting new drivers even more difficult.

THE GARON TIDWELL HOME was chosen for Yard of the Week recognition by the Munday Garden Club. The white hanging baskets and the neat hedges, along with the colorfully blooming plants, lend an overall picture of regal beauty.

Senior Citizens Hold Montly Meeting Last Thursday

The Senior citizens of Munday met in the Perry Patton Community Center for their regular monthly meeting on June 7, 1990, with 20 members and two visitors present.

Christine Nelson and Verna Matthews showed slides from a trip to Israel. It was a very interesting program and the group appreciated Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Matthews sharing their slides and experiences.

The next meeting will be July 5, and all senior citizens are encouraged to attend. Visitors, of course, are always welcome to attend.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Friends,
Please renew my paper subscription. I need to know when the Sunset and Munday reunions will be held. I enjoy keeping up with the folks that I grew up with in Goree and Sunset. Sometimes, Joyce Greenwood might wish to interview my aunt Mabel Hampton, who is 92 years old, still drives her car, still lives in Seymour, and takes care of herself. She is a retired postmistress of Goree and was married to Sam Hampton, longtime rural carrier there. She is very interesting to talk to. She lived neighbors to Dr. and Mrs. Taylor. Mrs. Taylor is now 93 and still living in Goree in the same home. It would be good to let them know they are not forgotten. Aunt Mabel holds many lifetime memberships in Texas Federated Study Clubs and numerous honors. She graduated Goree High School in 1917, along with Uncle Sam. Thanks for a good paper!

Since harvest is a little late here due to rains, many combines headed north over the weekend to dryer fields. Some farmers may have trouble getting combines in these latter days of the 1990 harvest.

Grandma's Sunday Dinner had good weather and a nice turnout Sunday. The next dinner will be August 12. There will be no July dinner as too many of the grandmas will be going out of town.

Eighth grade graduates at Crowell Junior High included Tim Cash, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cash of Gilliland, and Angie Palacio, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Palacio of Truscott.

Kay, Joe and Sara Tomanek of Boyd visited the Edmund Tomaneks Sunday.

Jacquelyn Brown returned to Houston last Monday, June 4, and Ruth Mescall and Alex, Meagan and Rachel went back to Baytown on Tuesday. Alex and Meagan got to see their grandmother kill a rattlesnake at the back steps before they left. It put real meaning for them into the often heard admonition to "watch out for snakes".

Jacquelyn called Saturday to say that her car, which was recently stolen, found and subsequently repaired, was on the injured list again. A Mayflower moving van backed into the back of her parked car. She wasn't in it at the time.

Mentally Restored Need Employment

A program known as "People Power Pool" is being administered by the Headstream Memorial Center in Haskell. Ann Kiser, psychosocial rehabilitation technician, is in charge of the program to assign temporary help to local businesses and individuals from a pool of mentally restored applicants.

The Headstream clinic operates as an outreach of the Wichita Falls State Hospital serving Haskell, Knox and Stonewall counties. It provides psychosocial skills training to designated clients. They are then prepared to work in a number of areas. Most are interested only in part time employment as they receive SSI or other benefits and their earnings are restricted.

The psychosocial rehabilitation program is designed to assist clients in obtaining and maintaining skills which will enable them to cope effectively with the demands of their personal and social environment. This way, Mrs. Kiser explained, they are more able to live more normalized lives by participating within the community setting.

Businesses or individuals interested in participating in the program should contact Headstream at 864-3472. Employers are entitled to tax credits for salaries paid to these workers and may receive as much as a 40% credit (up to $2400).

The Texas Rehabilitation Commission will provide services wherein a job coach provides assistance in finding employment for handicapped individuals and works with employers to train individuals during initial stages of employment.

The labor pool is made up of people who have had disabling mental problems, have improved through treatment and have returned to the community. All have received some sort of vocational training as part of their discharge from treatment.

"Experience shows they are equal to other workers and may be better in motivation, attendance and punctuality," said Mrs. Kiser. "Evidence is growing that mentally restored persons, when placed in appropriate job situations, are equal to other workers."

"Unlike most people, the mentally restored face limited employment opportunities. With training and continued support, they can become productive members of the work force."

"Many perceive mentally restored people as different," Mrs. Kiser added. "They tend to become victims of stigma and discrimination. These are some of the greatest problems facing those who have had mental illness. Calling the public's attention to the problems can go a long way in solving them."

HOW FAITHFUL ARE YOU?

In a book, "Faithful to the Lord", the author raises this question. He reminds us that being faithful is not easy, and even Jesus' followers found it hard. He wrote:

"When Jesus Christ preached, he could get 5,000 people to listen to Him as long as he fed them. When Jesus cut the food and simply preached, only 500 showed up.

One day Jesus said, "I'm not going to preach; all I want to do is come together and pray." Only 120 people showed up.

One day Jesus recruited people to go out in pairs and knock on doors. Only 70 people showed up.

One day Jesus put an ad in the newspaper trying to recruit men who would be disciples. Only 12 men responded.

One night Jesus said, "Gentlemen, tonight evangelism is going to get a little touchy. We are going to be witnessing to soldiers who are trying to arrest me and kill me." Only three stayed with him for prayer.

Finally, Jesus said to the three, "This time our evangelism is going down a dead end street, and at the other end is a cross." Only one went with him--John."

Following Jesus has always required more than some are willing to give, but for those who have met the price, they have received great rewards. Let us examine our faithfulness, dedication, and devotion, and let the words of the old hymn resound in our hearts, "I'll go with Him, with Him, all the way."
