Little Dribblers' basketball games are soon ending and Little League baseball will begin. These little sporting events are held each year to teach kids from six to twelve the fundamentals of the sports as well as coordination and sportsman-like conduct. These are excellent ways to teach a kid a sense of fair play... and an excellent way to wreck a parent's nervous system and bring out the beast in him/her.

For a while, Little League sports were not important to me. My kids had outgrown the days of two-a-week practice sessions and two-a-week games - thank goodness! I had forgotten that particular tension that tends to build up when all the bases are loaded with two "men" out and our little one starts to don the safety helmet for his turn at bat. He looks so little as he walks uncertainly toward the plate and swings at the first pitch in his direction.

"Strike one!" the umpire shouts and we tighten up a little more.

He has an idea. He'll play it safe and won't strike at it and maybe the pitcher will walk him. The ball comes flying toward him, waist high and dead center over home plate while he stands with the bat glued to his shoulder.

"Strike two!" Half the crowd cheers wildly while the other half shouts encouragement and our stomachs tighten up a little more.

Now, the little fellow has no choice. He's got to strike. He can't take a chance on letting another one get by him. He pounds home plate with his bat and takes a practice swing. Then, he clenches the bat and watches the pitcher with a snarl that would have made Casey of Casey at the Bat fame envious.

We clench our hands together and wonder if it would be blasphemous to ask God to let him hit the ball - just one little single base hit. As the ball come hurtling through the air, we shut our eyes and wait for the crack of the bat or the umpire's call.

"Strike three!"

His little eyes seek our face. "Are you embarrassed? Do you still love me?" they seem to ask. And all we can do is smile and nod and maybe give him the O.K. sign with index finger and thumb. What we really want to do is gather him into our arms and take him home for milk and cookies - maybe after we've knocked his coach in the head with a baseball bat.

Once, when my Joe was little and I was driving him to Munday for a game, he was very quiet. He hadn't been playing very well in the preceding games and I knew he was nervous.

"Mom," he said as he started to get out of the car. "Why don't you just let me out and then come back and get me after the game. I haven't been doing too good and I don't want you to be embarrassed."

I was tempted to start the car and bring him home. He was too little to be feeling that kind of pressure. He was my baby.

"Jody," I told him past the lump in my throat. "I won't be embarrassed. I would be proud of you if you sat right down on second base and started to play marbles."

Joe's 28 now, but he still remembers that day.
Now, Tommy and I have new interest in kids' sports as our little ones have become sports gladiators. If possible, it's even more exciting to watch grandchildren than it was to watch our own and we don't have to be responsible for getting them to practice. Parents haven't changed much since our own played. Neither have coaches.

The quite coaches are still around

SHERITA JONES receives a smile of approval from Coach Dan Sloan following her performance at the District 9A track meet held in Aspermont last Thursday. Sherita qualified for regional competition in the 200 meter dash with a time of 26.43. The region meet will be held April 27 and 28 in Abilene.

Council Members Discuss Tax Proposals, Hear Landfill Update

The City Council of the City of Munday met in regular session at 7 p.m. Tuesday, April 10 in City Hall.

Councilmen Richard Albus, Jessie Andrade, Jessie Tucker and David Booe were present. Gene Brown was absent.

Mayor Pro-tem Albus called the meeting to order. Minutes of the March 13 regular meeting and the April 2, 1990 special meeting were read. Andrade moved minutes be approved as read. Seconded by Booe; all in favor.

The first order of business was discussion of the 1/2% sales tax proposals. After a report by the assistant City Administrator on the feasibility of pursuing these proposals, the Council decided that, at this time, it is not feasible.

Minutes of the board meeting of the Munday Housing Authority were reviewed as the next order of business. The City Council would like to commend Ms. Carden. She has been nominated as president-elect of the Texas Housing Association. Out of 460 housing associations, Munday Housing Authority is the smallest housing authority to ever have a nominee.

The Council next authorized the City Administrator to write the specifications and to obtain bids on a police car.

Additional telephones for the ambulance service were discussed as the next order of business. The Council agreed that one more phone could be installed if the expense of installation could be paid for out of the volunteer ambulance fund and the possibility of relocation of the one phone currently installed but not used to its full potential. A motion was made by Booe to install another line into the City Hall telephone system. Andrade seconded the motion; all in favor.

Discussion of the Labor Department Records Requirements was next on the agenda. The City is in full compliance with the Federal Labor of economic possibility.

(2) The City of Munday requests the Environmental Protection Agency to consider revisions to proposed Subtitle D regulations which would authorize State regulatory agencies sufficient flexibility to grant variances in national standards in areas of extremely low population density, upon a showing that the municipal landfill facility does not pose a significant threat to the environment or groundwater quality.

Knox County voters went with the majority of the state and supported Ann Richards in the Democratic runoff for Governor. Richards received 353 of the county vote and Jim Mattox, 290.

Tom Bowden was the choice by Knox County voters for State Treasurer, receiving 288 votes over Nikki Van Hightower's 273. Hightower, however, won the nomination with 66% of the vote statewide. Monthly Tax Rebates Show Slight Decrease

Knox County received over $8,000 in sales tax rebates during the month of April, and although the figure indicates a decrease over the 1989 amount, the year-to-date receipts for the county reflect an increase over the same time period last year.

Munday's April check for $2,653.79 represented a 6.46% decrease from 1989's payment of $2,836.93. Knox City received a $5,008.66 check with also reflected a slight decrease, only 1.27%, from last year's April receipts. Goree's check for $534.64 was down 19.42% from last year.

Year-to-date totals, however, show increases for all three cities. Munday's receipts for 1990 thus far total $17,122.52, a 10.69% increase over 1989 figures. Knox City has received 8.33% more funds in 1990 than 1989 and Goree's year-to-date total reflects a .86% increase over the same time last year.

This month's checks include taxes collected on February sales and reported in March by businesses filing monthly tax returns.

who put a kid on the back even though he's shot at the hoop and missed 29 times. The loud mouthed ones are still around, too, unfortunately - those who run up and down the sideline, screaming at the kids, screaming at the referee, screaming at the time keeper. Their faces are beet red and their eyes are bulged out and you're certain they'd drop over with a coronary if they coached the Dallas Cowboys instead of a few little ten year old kids.

You can almost tell which mother or father belongs to each player from the expressions on various faces and the comments made by each one. They are the ones who are cheering louder than anybody else when a kid makes a shot, sitting with their hands over their eyes during free throws, or moaning under their breath. "Oh, please don't put Becky in right now," when a cute little girl gives the time-keeper the "going in" sign.

We sat in front of one poor little mother a few weeks ago that I'm afraid may not be able to hold out for the rest of the season. We had gone to see our grandson play, but the girls' game was still in progress and the score was tied at 24. The little mother was up and down, bumping Tommy in the back and apologizing each time. "Foul!" she screamed as soon as we had sat down. "She's run over everybody out there! Foul!"

I looked, but failed to see a single kid big enough to run over everybody else. In a few minutes, the referee blew his whistle and a little girl with dark curls pulled into two 'dog-ears' raised her hand.

"Finally!" the young woman behind us shouted, and I suspected this was the 40-pound amazon who had pushed everybody around. "Now get her out of there! That's five fouls! What? She's still in the game? She's got five fouls! Janice! Janice! Go down there and check the books! I know that's five fouls on Amanda!"

The buzzer sounded and the game went into overtime.

"Stop her! Stop her!" the young mother screamed hysterically as "Amanda" made a break for the basket and I only hoped there wasn't a rifle concealed under the young mother's sweater.

The shot was good and there was a cry of intense physical pain from behind us.

In a few minutes, the other team made a shot and the game was again tied.

"I can't stand this, Ya'll!" the little mother said to her friends. "I think I'm going to be sick."

Tommy gave me a startled look as we sat packed in the crowded stands.

The referee blew his whistle with only seconds left to play and "Amanda" raised her hand and then began to walk to the side with big tears rolling down her cheeks as the buzzer signaled five fouls.

"At last!" the young mother shouted. "She didn't have but fifteen fouls!"

A little blonde girl took her place at the free throw line.

"Oh, my Lord! I can't look!" the mother whimpered behind us and I knew the little girl must have been hers. "Tell me when it's over!"

"Bless her heart," Amy whispered beside me. "I hope she makes it."

The little blonde gave the basketball one more bounce for good measure and then shot. It dropped easily into the basket and the woman behind us went into convulsions of ecstatic glory.

The next shot rolled around on the rim for a second and then fell short of the basket, but it didn't matter because in another two seconds the game was over. The young mother was screaming as she jumped up and down and then suddenly, she was gathering up diapers and bottles for the baby she held whose milk had probably turned to butter in its stomach.

"Well," she said, calmly. "I have to go home and start supper."

Our Kurt is in junior high now and into track, but our Matthew and our Tanya are still into Little League sports. I have to admit, sometimes it's still tempting to jump straight up and yell "Foul!" - but the other grandmothers are sitting with serene smiles so I must control myself. I can tell by their expressions, they think their grandchildren are the best players. It's only blind pride on their part that prevent them from seeing that not only are mine the best players, they're also the cutest ones out there!

So, Little League sports continue and each year, a brand new crop of little would-be Joe Dimaggios and Magic Johnsons begin competition for the very first time. It's an excellent way to teach sportsmanship, but we all know it's not whether you win or lose that counts - but how you play the game.

And how you watch the game.

Qualifiers Meet Planned Friday

A regional qualifier's track meet will be held at McAfee track in Munday after school Friday. The meet features no preliminaries, no entry fees, no medals or ribbons. A large number of athletes are expected to practice their events against other quality competition.

Both boys and girls will compete in all track events. Field events are scheduled to begin at 4 p.m. followed by running events at 6.

There will be no separate classifications for participants from larger schools, all will compete together.

The meet should offer a good opportunity for Munday fans to see some of the area's best athletes in action, and everyone is urged to be on hand as these young people prepare for the regional meets the following weekend. A concession stand will be available.

Help someone in need and donate unused furniture, appliances, toys and clothing to local charities, rather than putting them out on the curb.

At Your Service Dr. Larry Fitzgerald Minister, Church of Christ

Q: What do preachers mean when they say there is only one church? I thought that there are many churches.

A: The Bible describes the church in many ways. One favorite description is "the body of Christ." This term is found in 1 Corinthians: "...you are the body of Christ and individually members of it" (1 Cor. 12:24-27). "God gave Christ to be the head over all things to the church, which is his body" (Ephesians 1:22-23). The Bible makes it clear that there is only one body (Ephesians 1:22-23).

The word "church" is the English term we use to translate the original Greek word ekklesia. The original term means a "called out group of people." You may sometimes see the translation "assembly" instead of "church".

The body of Christ or "called out group of people" may assemble in any town or community. In that sense we are "churches" as in Romans 16:16, "the churches of Christ greet you." Yet they are all part of the one body...the one assembly (Ephesians 4:4). That is why Jesus told Peter that upon the apostle's confession, Jesus would build His (singular) church" (Matthew 16:18).

In the Bible, the Greek word ekklesia and its Hebrew equivalent is never used to mean either a building or a denomination. In fact, divisions in Christianity are sinful (1 Corinthians 1:10-17). Membership in the church should never be decided by vote or letter but by whether or not one is a Christian. It is God, not man, who adds members to Christ's church (Acts 2:47, KJV).

Scriptural names for the church include: "Church of Christ" (Romans 16:16); "Church of God" (1 Corinthians 1:1-2); "Church of the Firstborn" (Hebrews 12:23) or simply "The Church" (Acts 15:22).

If you have a question for Dr. Fitzgerald, write him in care of Box 211, Munday, Texas 76371. He answers all questions in order and receives a large number of inquiries, so if you have written lately please be patient.

AT ANNUAL STOCKHOLDERS MEETING

Tidwell Named Chairman PCA Board Of Directors

Garon Tidwell of Munday was elected chairman of the board of directors following the 56th annual stockholders meeting of the Rolling Plains Production Credit Association held Friday and Saturday in Childress and Stamford.

Lloyd M. Blackwell of Stamford and Dean Turner of Matador were elected to three-year terms as directors of the board. Other board members are Dan Henard Jr. of Wellington and Lance D. Morris of Crosbyton.

Joe A. Hanson, treasurer, was presented a plaque by John S. Rike III, president, on behalf of the membership and staff in appreciation of his 38 years of service to the Association. Hanson began his Farm Credit System employment in 1952 as an accountant in Stamford and is planning retirement in the fall of this year.

Retiring director W.J. Boykin of Childress was also recognized and presented a commemorative plaque by director Garon Tidwell. Boykin was first elected to the Board of Directors in 1974 and has served as board chairman for the past eight years.

Director Henard gave the board report to the gathering. With a capital-to-total assets ratio of 29.49%, Rolling Plains PCA is one of the strongest capitalized of all Texas lending institutions. A 1989 net profit of $162,000 after federal income taxes of $360,000 enabled the Association to further strengthen its financial base. The surplus and allowance for loan losses accounts are now some 21% greater than they were nine years ago.

management, earnings and liquidity, Rolling Plains BCA has again been designated a Tier I association by the Farm Credit Bank of Texas.

The nominating committee report was presented by chairman Mark Lundgren of Avoca. Elected to serve on the 1991 nominating committee were Ross Greene of Quanah for the Childress office; William C. Luckett, Matador office; Darrell Richards of Avoca for the Stamford area; Herbert Bellinghausen of Knox City for the Munday area; and Victor Arrington, Spur office.

President John S. Rike III acknowledged the strength of Rolling Plains PCA and said that its fiscal soundness "has been truly impressive." He noted that the Association recently loaned some $1,850,000 at 9.5% with the Fixed Rate Equipment Loan program and that PCA has various types of lending programs to meet any need.

Highlight of the evening sessions was entertainment by Bob Lewis as "Tumbleweed Smith". A barbecue dinner was served prior to the meeting.

Winners in the cash prize drawing included Ray Don Caldwell of Tell, Carl Seal of Cee Vee, Walter Taylor of Vernon, S.C. Ferguson of Hamlin, J.C. Moorhouse of Benjamin and Mark Lundgren of Avoca.

The Association maintains offices in Abilene, Childress, Matador, Munday, Spur, and Stamford.

Joseph Decker Honored For 75 Years Service To Knights

Joseph Decker, the oldest member of the Knights of Columbus Council #1766 at Rhineland, was honored Wednesday, April 4 for 75 years service to the council. Larry Welch, grand knight, presented 97-year-old Decker a 75-year pin in commemoration of the event.

Following the meeting a social hour was enjoyed as well as some of the many stories Decker had to tell of his "long ago" past.

He moved to Knox County in 1915 just south of the Brazos River and married "Aunt Clothilda" some years later.

Decker remembers well the year 1931 when things weren't coming along as well for them with two babies; "the Red Bluff Farm" as it was affectionately called and their big truck farming in which he was a perfectionist, raising sweet corn, watermelons, honey dew melons, cantaloupes, butterbeans, blackeyes peas and a big garden full of many different kinds of vegetables including swiss chard, kale and millet, and greens for the chickens.

Proof of his truck farming and gardening abilities can be seen in the hundreds of blue and red ribbons received at county and neighboring fairs with jars of canned goods, baked goods, field seeds, chickens, and turkeys.

His pride and joy, Decker says, were his cross bred chickens. He advertised his "Blue Andalusians" in many farm papers and sent them to all parts of Texas as well as other states. He kept the eggs from these chickens and incubated them in his three incubators.

Leo Fetsch recalls that he learned a lot about chickens from his uncle Joseph including culling and banding for records and medication, which later led to egg production for commercial hatcheries in later life.

"He also taught me how to swim," Fetsch said. "One beautiful, sunny, Sunday afternoon he took me to the Kinnibrough farm swimming pool just east of his farm, showing me then how it is done, including swimming on his back and even under the water. I was afraid of that deep water and there wasn't any shallow where I was, so he came out and up the cliff and gave me a gentle push. 'Swim or drown', I heard him say as down in the water I went, coming up with a nose full of water and scrambling for dear life."

"He was a good teacher, taught me many good things, never raised his voice and always had something good to say about everyone," Fetsch continued.

Decker attributes his long life to healthy eating, his little nap after dinner to ease the stress, the absence of all tobacco, alcohol and drugs, together with a clean family life.

He is looking forward to celebrating his 100th birthday on December 17, 1992.

are hereby requested to assist the City or County in obtaining modifications of the proposed EPA Subtitle D regulations which would allow for an economical and environmentally prudent waste disposal alternatives in low population density areas.

(4) The Clerk is directed to transmit copies of this Resolution to the Texas Department of Health, Senator Lloyd Bentsen, Senator Phil Gramm and Congressman Bill Sarpalius.

Adopted this 10 day of April, 1990.

Motion by Booe to approve bills as follows: airport funds, $31.96; ambulance funds, $108.53; operating funds, $14,757.59 and municipal court school, $178.50. Seconded by Andrade; all for.

Meeting adjourned on motion by Andrade with second by Booe.

The City Council of the City of Munday met in special session at 7 p.m., Monday, April 16, 1990, in City Hall.

Members present were Mayor pro-tem Richard Albus and Aldermen Jessie Tucker and David Booe. Gene Brown and Jessie Andrade were not present.

Mayor pro-tem Albus called the meeting to order.

The purpose of this meeting was to conduct Public Hearing #2 regarding Laws at this time. No action was needed on this issue.

The City Administrator updated the Council on the current status of the landfill and pending new regulations. No action was taken.

The Council next reviewed a resolution pertaining to EPA Subtitle D Regulations on Landfills. The resolution would ask assistance from Senators Bentsen and Gramm and Congressman Sarpalius in obtaining modifications to the ending regulations. Motion by Booe to adopt this resolution, seconded by Tucker. Motion carried.

The resolution is as follows:
RESOLUTION 234

Whereas, the United States Environmental Protection Agency has proposed new regulations pursuant to Subtitle D of the Resource Conservation and Recover Act (53 Fed. Reg. 33314, 8/30/88) which could establish nationwide minimum standards for municipal solid waste landfills; and

Whereas, those regulations are designed to eliminate small existing municipal landfills and encourage large regional state-of-the-art landfills; and,

Whereas, extremely low population densities in West Central Texas and any of the other areas of the western United States make compliance with the proposed Subtitle D regulations a financial impossibility; and,

Whereas, in the arid portions of West Central Texas the extremely small amount of normal precipitation combined with existing soil conditions make the possibility of groundwater contamination from a landfill remote;

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the City Council of Munday, Texas that:

(1) The City of Munday is committed to environmentally safe and prudent disposal of municipal wastes, but believes that waste disposal requirements must be within the realm of the annexation proposal of Ralph Cypert and Frances J. Cypert to wit: Being .0337 acres of land situated in Section 35, Blk 2, D&W RR Co. Survey, Knox County, Texas. Mayor pro-tem Albus declared that Public Hearing #2 was in progress. Anyone wishing to comment, if appearing, will be heard at anytime until the meeting ends.

After 45 minutes had passed, Mayor pro-tem Albus called for any final comments regarding Public Hearing #2. Notice of this public hearing has been published in the Munday Courier and posted at City Hall on both the bulletin board and the front outside window. Citizen input was requested, however, no one came to this meeting to make a request.

Tucker moved the meeting adjourn. Booe seconded. Meeting adjourned.

WEINERT NEWS

By Mrs. Myrtle Phemister

We received another nice rain, an inch and two-tenths, and the blessing also came with no storm. We are careful to give thanks for being spared the hail and high winds that would damage the beautiful grain crops we have.

Easter Sunday was a beautiful, sunny, spring day, and the many relatives and friends visiting in our town made a grand weekend population boost.

Each church reported out-of-town visitors, and we pray everyone remembered that the day was in celebration of the greatest thing that ever happened for mankind, the resurrection of our Saviour from the grave. Do the children hear the story of the risen Lord, or do they think the only miracle is the "rabbit" who lays the candy eggs they enjoy hunting for? Sarah and H.L. Guess hosted the annual egg hunt for the Weinert folks, and 64 guests registered for the 20th annual egg hunt that Sarah has hosted. (She is threatening retirement from the event.)

To help Peter Rabbit with the task of hiding the huge basket of eggs were Hal Guess, Joe Yates, Bill Little of Olney, and Christy Herricks of Graham.

The home of Pud and Suzie Brockett was the scene of four days of visiting, and guests included Burgess and May Forehand of Haskell, Joe and Don Coffman of Goree, Mark and Darla Coffman, Drew and Jordan of Bridgeport, Pete and Imo Brockett and Monica of Munday, Kim Muth, Renae, Justin and Jimmy of Munday.

Enjoying fellowship, fun and a country musical at the home of Chet and Jeanie Forehand were neighbors and relatives.

Jean's mother, Grace, and Dick Skipworth of Robert Lee, her brother, Kenneth Conner of Abilene, her sister, Sybil Blackwood of Big Spring, and the Forehand's daughter, Kim and Mark Stewart, and Payden of Munday, were among those visiting.

Johnny and Marilyn Earp entertained their children and grandchildren and attended worship services on Sunday. Their children are Kelly and Wayne Hutchinson of San Angelo, Johnny Boy Earp of Spur, and Karen and Ricky Harlan, Lysie and Jeremy.

Visiting in the home of Kathi and Lester Hutchinson were Dieter and Lisa Hutchinson and Lauren, Wayne and Sherri Hutchinson, and Jamie and Debbie Newbury of Junction.

The young people enjoyed an evening of roping near Throckmorton on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Herricks returned on Saturday from their honeymoon spent in scenic Arkansas, and are "at home" to friends and relatives.

J.A. and Laverne Mayfield had their children home, and Dewayne and Alexia Rimmer, Adrienne and Elyse, and Evelyn Ricketts of Dallas joined the group at the Guess' egg hunt. Laverne is nursing a sprained ankle she received last week.

The Harber family entertained Donnie's younger sister, Margie and Mark Baker and Eric, of Yoakum, who was happy to hear big brother preach at the First Baptist Church.

The Baptist Church has invited Hollis Hoffman, pastor of First Baptist in Fredericksburg, to preach for their spring revival which will begin April 22, and continue thru Friday, April 27.

Keith Johnson will be in charge of the singing. The members will be involved in cottage prayer meetings on Thursday and Friday nights.

Guests are always welcome at all services.

Douglas and Kristy Boling of Valley View and Shadella Foster, Ashley and Savanaha of Stamford spent Easter weekend with their parents, Fred and Daisy Horan, Pennie and Kristy.

The children and grandchildren of Harvey Griffis gathered at his home for Sunday dinner and egg hunt, and spent the day visiting him and other relatives on Sunday. About 20 attended.

His children are Merle and Herschel Alexander, Bennie and Junior Horan, Donald and Gracie Griffis, and Ruth and R.C. Lankford of Rule.

Mildred and Alton Sanders were involved with a vacation bible school clinic for Baptist Churches on Monday of last week. They entertained her mother, Jewel Havran of Munday, and an aunt, Aline Cross of Seymour, on Tuesday. On Friday, good friends Jessie and Lana Edwards, and Traci of Graham, came for two days of visiting.

On Sunday, a family get-together with Jerry and Joyce Sanders, Jeremy and Amanda of Merkel, Terry and Beth Sanders, and David and Kerri of Hamlin, concluded their week of entertaining.

Pearlie Alexander, J.T. and Florence Alexander enjoyed a visit from a cousin, Jim and Florence Robison of Abilene, whom they had not heard from in quite a while. Their fathers were brothers, and lived in our area a long while ago.

Ruby LaRoque of Odessa and her daughter, Debra of Phoenix, Arizona, and Mrs. Bily Allen of Phoenix, were in Weinert on Friday to visit Francis and Linda Mahan.

Janice and Randy Boatright of Brady spent Sunday in the home of her parents, R.S. and Betty Sanders.

Jenell and Emmutt McCoy of Wichita Falls spent the weekend with relatives, Helen Boykin, the Phemisters, Edith and Richard Davis of Haskell, and Coy and Retiith Keahey of Rule, and they all gathered at the Dairy Queen in Haskell on Sunday night.

David and Peggy Phemister, and Marcus also were in Weinert for a visit and attended worship services at the Church of Christ on Sunday.

Jackie Frantz of Dallas, Bill and Dorothy Jetton and family of Brownwood spent Easter in Weinert with the J.E. Jettons and the Bob Raynes family. Each home had a mini-family reunion, with dinner, egg hunts and visiting.

Johnny and Derinda Larned of New Braunfels, and Randy and Donna Waggoner of Lubbock were here for a visit with their parents, Gracie and Donald Griffis and Darla.

Johnny has recently accepted a position as instructor at the Gary-Job Corp institute in San Marcos, a vocational training school for young people, and at present is teaching a course in interior finishing of walls.

Kent Sanders of Texas A & M University was home for the weekend and while doing that "mountain" of college laundry that students always bring home, he enjoyed a visit with his parents, Brenda and Kenneth Sanders and Kole.

Bob and Crystella Raynes had 42 of their family home for Easter dinner and egg hunt for the children in the afternoon.

Bennie and Junior Horan are both in ill health, and are consulting doctors in Abilene.

Junior has resigned his truck driving position, and hopes to enjoy retirement. Good luck!

R.S. Sanders entered Hendricks Medical Center on Monday, and underwent hip replacement surgery on Tuesday. Our prayers are for a quick and complete recovery for him.

Helen Boykin spent the weekend in the home of a son, Raymon and Janie Boykin, and grandchildren, Shelly, Randy and Mark and his wife, in Vernon.

Eddie and Myrnie Sanders spent last week in Canton visiting her brother, Oswald Johnson and his wife, who are residing in a rest home there. They came by Dallas for a visit with her sister, Letha Holloway, and her family, and her brother, Warren and Jewel Johnson and family in Fort Worth.

The 1990 census is being wrapped up in Weinert this week, and we anxiously await the total count Brenda Sanders has made.

Our birthday folks this week include Trisha Ann Horan, Susie Brockett, Erma Liles, Thelma Edwards and Doris Walker. Happy Birthday!

Congratulations to Robin and Renita Raynes who will celebrate an anniversary on the 24th!

Gracie and Donald Griffis attended a ginners convention at Lubbock last week. The meeting was held in the Lubbock Convention Center, and was hosted by the Paymaster Company.

They were accompanied by Betty and Bobby Raynes and Freida and Edwin Fly of Rochester.

Weinert students will be out of school Friday, April 27. They are involved in UIL competition after an enjoyable Easter holiday of parties, egg hunts and feasting.

Have a nice day!

Home-Based Business Seminar Scheduled Saturday In Abilene

A Home-Based Business Seminar will be held Saturday, April 21 at Abilene Christian University.

Registration begins at 9 a.m. in the Mabec Business Building on the ACU campus and the opening session is scheduled for 9:30.

Home-Based Business is the term used for one of the newest and fastest growing segments of small business economy. Many successful small businesses have started and grown from the home-based design. The seminar will provide information required to assist in making a decision to turn that hobby into income or to implement that ever present "good idea."

Sessions will include ideas on getting started in business, marketing, developing a business plan, advertising, customer relations, finance, legal issues, time management, and record keeping and taxes.

The seminar is sponsored by the Caruth Small Business Development Center, Abilene Christian University, Southwestern Bell Foundation and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

New Office Hours Set For Munday Clinic

The Knox City Clinic office hours will be 9 a.m. to 12 noon Monday through Friday, instead of the afternoons.

This change is being made to help the patients of Dr. Neufeld, who is retiring.

WINNER OF THE WAL MART

Easter Jelly Bean/Bubble Gum contest: Melissa Stovall of Munday guessed how many bubble gum were in the container and won a Minnie Mouse watch from the Stamford Wal Mart store. She guessed 210, and there were 211. Congratulations, Melissa.

Hutchinson - Newbury Vows Said In March 17 Ceremony

Deborah Ann Hutchinson and Jamey Clinton Newbury were united in marriage Saturday, March 17 in Ivy Chapel in Junction. Sam Coffey officiated in the double-ring ceremony. A white lattice arch entwined with greenery and blue satin ribbons and bows formed the nuptial setting. Small potted cactus and red bandanas accented the chapel window sills.

The bride is the daughter of Lester and Kathi Hutchinson of Weinert. The groom's parents are Mack and Dequinta Newbury of Junction.

Jean Wright, pianist, provided musical selections, including I'll Still Be Loving You and You're My Inspiration, prior to the ceremony.

The bride wore a white western style dress and white Roper boots. The western-cut yoke was embellished with silver lace, and accented with white fringe. Her accessories included a silver locket which belonged to her paternal grandmother and silver earrings. She carried a cascade bouquet of white silk roses and silver lace.

Following tradition of something old, new, borrowed and blue, the bride wore the locket as something old, the earrings were borrowed, her dress was new, and she wore a blue garter and had a lucky penny in her boot.

Cherie Hutchinson, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Leisa Hutchinson, also the bride's sister-in-law, Nicole Newbury, the groom's sister; and Josefa Martinez.

Attendants were dressed in denim western dresses accented with blue and red braided belts and necklaces made by the bride. White flowers entwined with red ribbon were worn in their hair and they carried two red roses accented with tiny white flowers and white lace. Red Roper boots completed the ensemble.

Flower girls were Lauren Hutchinson, niece of the bride and Elysse

Martinez. They carried wicker baskets of red rose and white flower petals.

Best man was Bryan Colvin. Groomsmen were Tate Bannowsky, Wayne Hutchinson, and Dieter Hutchinson, the bride's brothers. Jay Cashman, the groom's cousin and Ricky Randle, the groom's uncle, were ushers.

The male attendants wore blue denim jeans and white western shirts with red bandanas ties.

A reception followed the ceremony in the Coke R. Stevenson Memorial Center. Lisa Cashman, cousin of the bride, registered guests. The serving table was covered with a denim cloth accented with red bandanas and held a white horse-shoe cake and punch. Sandwiches, dips and chips were served to guests. Reception tables were accented with red bandanas and small potted cactus. A brown lattice panel in the western motif, hay bales and a saddle completed the western setting. Music was provided by The Dillo Band of Junction.

Members of the houseparty included Helen Schmidt, Sarah and Larry Harrison, Mary Haschke, Kathy Fleming, Edith Allen and Joyce Alexander.

The groom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner at Isaacks the evening before the wedding. The western theme was carried out in decorations. Carolyn Trimble, Bonny Newbury and Kay Trimble were hosts for a bridal luncheon.

Following a wedding trip to San Angelo, the couple will make their home in Junction.

THE CHRISTIAN'S HOLY HABITS

Ralph S. Cushman was a great preacher, pastor, poet and bishop. In his Pocket Prayer Book he writes the following:

"I believe in habits: I believe habits make or break us. Therefore, I believe in Holy habits.

Indeed, so such am I that a happy Christian life depends upon some four or five habits that if some person should come to me and say, "prescribe what I must do to have glad fellowship with Jesus Christ, here and hereafter," I would say:

First: Form the habit of keeping holy some portion of each day for Bible reading and prayer. Make this your first business.

Second: Form the habit of giving every week a definite proportion of your time in special service to your fellow, in the name of Christ and of His Church.

Third: Make attendance at public worship the fixed habit of your life. Allow no excuse for non-attendance that you would not give to your associates in business.

Fourth: Form the habit of setting apart a definite proportion of your money for the work of the Kingdom. Make it the first draft upon your income; set it aside with prayer; use carefully as unto God. Have faith to begin with 'at least a tenth'. This habit will be for you a trusty thermometer making the temper of your life.

These, my friends, are the holy habits I recommend. Others will follow. Behind them all, of course, must be the hunger after God; but with these habits formed you have the certain helps that God has sent to bless your days; and more than this to make you a faithful steward of the Church of Jesus Christ."

Write on both sides of paper, instead of automatically pulling out a new sheet. Use the back sides of junk mail for your grocery list or children's drawing paper.

The Lord's Corner

by Dr. Pete Bradfield, pastor
First Baptist Church

Remember the fairy tale about the goose that laid the golden egg? (If your childhood memories are fuzzy, the story goes this way: A farmer, upon discovering a most remarkable golden-egg-laying goose, got impatient about having to wait for the daily quota of eggs. He chopped off the goose's head to find the source of the eggs...and in a fit of impatience destroyed the very source of his prosperity.)

"I want it all - and I want it now!" is the cry of the day, even among many Christians. But God is not limited by our impatient timetables. God's methods often take time.

Where are you hoping for instant results in your Christian life: victory over a habit...knowledge of God's Word...spiritual maturity? God's way is not rush, rush, rush, but little by little. Look for a small but significant step of growth you can take today: a verse to memorize, a command to obey, a promise to treasure.

See you next week, and remember: most of modern man's troubles stem from too much time on his hands and not enough on his knees.

THANK YOU VOTERS OF PRECINCT 4

BENJAMIN NEWS

By Mrs. Gladene Green

This Easter weekend has been such a nice one. The weather has cooperated - no rain for a change. Just a little wind but not a thing we couldn't live with.

The sunrise service at the Moorhouse Ranch was very nice and well-attended. After a delicious breakfast cooked on the camp fire, Jim Pratt, pastor of the Benjamin Church of Christ, opened the service. Byron Putnam, pastor of the Methodist Churches in Benjamin and Knox City, conducted the song service and a very inspirational message was then brought by Jack Maddox, former pastor of Knox City and Benjamin First Christian Churches.

Services were concluded about 7:45 a.m. That gave everyone time to get home and make it to regular Sunday morning worship service at the church of their choice.

Following church and lunch, lots of kiddoes from Benjamin and the surrounding area met at the Fire Hall here to ride the fire truck to the city park for the annual egg hunt sponsored by the BVFD. Seems every youngster there had a good number of eggs in their basket. Some of the "smaller fry" were assisted by their parents or big brother or sister in the hunt. No one wanted to be left out.

Concluding the hunt, the winner of a new lawn mower was announced. The firemen had been selling chances several weeks on the lawn mower as a fund raiser. The name drawn from the big box of chances was Barbara Pierce. So now she doesn't have any excuse not to have her lawn looking nice all the time. (That is, if she can get Sammy to operate it.)

A very nice day indeed and now we are all ready for another work week. HERE AND THERE

Judy and Jim Bob Conner returned home Friday night after a week's visit with her aunt and uncle in Franklin.

Easter weekend guests of Nell Hudson were Belle Zoch and Tasha of Killeen and Salina Detweiler and family of Paducah.

Bob and Marie Meinzer of Albuquerque, N.M. spent several days here last week visiting relatives and friends and doing some repair work and cleaning up around their Benjamin home.

Clodell Duke's three daughters who live away, Sue McCarty of Iowa Park, Mary Sawyers of Hamlin and Gaye Roberts of Hereford, left their husbands at home and came to Benjamin Friday for a day of visiting with their Mom and sister here, Jan Pollock. Joining them for the "girl get-together" was Sue's daughter, Marci. Clodell said it was a very enjoyable day. They all had to return to their homes Saturday as they had Easter Sunday obligations to meet.

I had lunch with daughter, Diane Herring, and her family on Sunday. We enjoyed having Rick's youngest son, Justin, there also. Justin lives in Abilene.

Spending the Easter weekend with their mom and brother Gertrude Brannan and Bobby, were Mary Whitsett and family of Carrollton and Ann Roddy and family of Denton.

Craig Hertel of Gainesville and Kent Hertel of Altus spent the weekend with home folks. Craig is teaching at Lindsey and is directing the one-act play there. He's still advancing and they will compete for regional at Kilgore this Saturday, April 21. He's proud of his cast and we're proud of him. Another Benjamin grad proving what he can do with a group of kids. Must have gotten good training here.

Mr. and Mrs. Danny Speck and Shawn of Aledo spent Easter with his mom, Bertha Driver. Shawn enjoyed the egg hunt at the park and I understand found a prize egg.

Betty, Roger and Sabra Parker of Aspermont were Sunday visitors of her parents, Leroy and Gloria West. Edith Brown of Wichita Falls visited J.D. and Annie Brown on Sunday.

James and Carol Duke of Throckmorton, Tom and Sherry Morrison, Elizabeth, Andrew and Marilyn, the Dennis Dukes and Phill Boone of Tarleton University in Stephenville spent Easter Sunday with Nora Duke. Nora said James brought his model airplane and they all went out north of town and enjoyed seeing him fly it.

Shirley, Stanton and Shari Brown spent the weekend with their son and brother, Doug, who resides in Teague. James and Jimmie Klutts spent Easter weekend with his dad and family at Canton and her mom and family at Leonard.

Jan and Homer Ralston enjoyed a three-day fishing trip to Lake Hubbard near Breckenridge. Jennifer missed the outing (probably willingly) as she spent her Easter vacation with her sister, Lorrie, in San Angelo.

Visiting Pat and Joe Barton during the weekend were Pat's sister, Frankie Sue Laney and her son, Carl Frazier of Abilene. On Sunday they visited relatives in Altus, Oklahoma.

Bo Milson spent Friday with her daughter and family, the Kermit Woolleys, in Spur. She was met there by her son David and his wife of Cedar Hill. On Friday night they all watched the Woolley's son, Daniel, play little dribbler basketball and Bo says it looks like she has another star in the family.

Weekend guests of Lois Golden and Randy and Dorthy Hibdon and family were Connie Harvey and family of Haskell, James Golden and family of Lubbock, Sara Golden and family of Olney and Marie Jackson of Oklahoma City.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Trainham of El Paso spent the Easter weekend with his brother Bobby and his sister and family, Charles and Joy Jones, and with other relatives and friends.

Ozelle Kilgore received word of the death of a niece, Marquitta Fitzgerald Ward of Piedmont, South Carolina. Marquitta was a former Munday resident and I was well acquainted with her and the rest of her family. I send my sympathy to all the Fitzgeralds.

Ernie Eaton of Dallas spent the weekend here with his wife and daughters, Penny, Heddie and Kendra. Penny and the girls have lived here several months since their move from Mobile, Alabama. They will join Ernie when school is out.

Michelle Bufkin, accompanied by her sister Debbie of Ft. Worth, enjoyed several days' skiing trip to Taos, N.M. last week.

Odessa Cox has been sort of on the ailing list but she told me today that she's finally feeling some better. She's had company - her daughter Reba Morrill of Houston and her sisters Irma Pepsworth and Ruby Breeland of Bryson, who have been here to kind of help take care of her. It's good to hear that she's making progress back toward better health.

 We should all be concerned about the future because we will have to spend the rest of our lives there.
