Most of us have people who love us. Some love us with greater depths of devotion than others, but in everybody's life, there is usually a mate, a child, a parent - somebody who loves him. But whoever coined the phrase, "A dog is a man's best friend" certainly knew his dogs. Few people love us with the complete unselfish devotion as our canine companions.

All of us have dog stories of a special dog who shared our childhood wanderings over fields and pastures, who offered a furry shoulder to cry on when things went wrong and jumped for joy when we jumped for joy.

My first "dog memory" is of a non-descriptive sort of mutt who came to our house just as I turned two years old and was named "Tag-Along" by my parents. I have memories of hearing Daddy's command, "Tag-Along, go with Joyce" until she needed no command and followed my early faltering steps down the dusty turnrow to take water to Daddy who waited behind his mule and plow. And she continued to 'tag-along' as I walked, kicking cans, along the dirt road to the mail box several years later.

When I was in second grade, I got off the school bus one day to find Mother waiting to tell me how Tag-Along had lain down in her favorite spot under the Chinaberry tree and gone into her permanent slumber. I insisted, tearfully, that I would never ever love another dog. But, I did. Childhood, in my opinion, is just not complete without a dog.

Tommy has never exactly shared my affection for the furry, four-legged creatures, but I suppose he thought it would have been useless to try to keep me from owning one and over the years, there have been many dogs. We have had Collies and German Shepherds, Dobermans, many underdetermined breeds, and one beautiful St. Bernard that some unfeeling monster poisoned when he was but a pup.

Perhaps, however, the most faithful companion my older kids had was just an ordinary dog who followed Butch home from school when he was in fourth grade. Tommy tried repeatedly to take her off, but she had decided she belonged with Butch and she continued to show up at our back door or on the school ground waiting for Butch to come out until Tommy said she might as well just stay and be our dog.

Butch named her Poncho for no apparent reason and soon even Tommy accepted her as part of our family. She attended all the football games until she began to try to assist Butch on all the defensive plays and we were forced to tie her up on ball game nights. She was a faithful churchgoer, always waiting on the steps when services were over to race us home, cutting across the pasture so when we drove into the yard, she could be sitting with panting breath in front of the door as if to say, "What kept you?"

We had almost decided she was indestructible. As her hearing and eyesight started to fail, Christie somehow managed to back over her with the car - twice. Both times she suffered only minor injuries. Then, she got too close to a stalk cutter when Tommy's dad was plowing, and dragged her injured body into the garage and under the car. In her pain, she bared her teeth at both Tommy and his dad when they attempted to pull her out. She looked at me with eyes that said, "Please help me" as I scooted on my stomach underneath

Farm Safety Week Being Observed

According to an official memorandum released by the office of Texas Governor William P. Clements, Jr., agriculture has been one of the major elements of the Texas success story. During the 1990's, our state's strength and prosperity will largely depend upon a strong agricultural base. The abundance of low-cost, high-quality food and fiber produced by our farmers and ranchers is vital to sustaining the health and well-being of the American people.

Individual farmers and ranchers have achieved this great productivity while faced with a life that is difficult and dangerous. Workers in the agricultural industry are subjected to a variety of risks related to machinery, chemicals, livestock and environmental hazards. Tragically, those Texans continue to bear a high rate of accidental death, injury and illness. The costs in terms of lost productivity are enormous and the personal suffering and loss are immeasurable.

The theme for this year's Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Week is "Cut Farm and Ranch Safety Risks". Advances in sciences and technology have made agricultural tools and chemicals safer, but these advances alone cannot eliminate all the risk of farming. As always, farmers, ranchers, workers and their family members must take responsibility for implementing the steps necessary to establish and maintain a safe and healthy farming or ranching operation.

To encourage renewed emphasis on making farms and ranches a safer place to live and work, the people of the State of Texas join the entire nation in the recognition of the 47th observance of National Farm Safety Week.

Munday Moguls Fly By Holliday Eagles 45-7

Last Friday night, the Munday Moguls flew past the Holliday Eagles with a 45-7 win at Scruggs field.

Holliday, a team of mostly sophomores, battled the Moguls to the end. Munday kicked off to Holliday and the Eagles drove down the field to the Mogul 18-yard line only to miss a field goal try. Unable to move the ball, Munday was forced to punt for the first time this year.

Late in the first quarter, after receiving an Eagle punt on the 44-yard line, Munday moved the ball within scoring distance in the next five plays. Terry Collier scored the first Mogul TD from 21 yards out and Bobby Dockins kicked the extra point giving Munday a 7-0 lead.

The second Mogul touchdown came after Dockins carried the ball 53 yards to the Holliday 20-yard line and Terry Collier scored around the tight end on the next play. Dockins kicked the PAT for a 14-0 lead with 8:27 left in the first half.

The Moguls continued the rush as Terry Collier scored again on a dash of 21 yards with two and a half minutes left in the first half. The PAT was wide giving Munday a 20-0 lead at halftime.

Beginning the second half, the Moguls, aided by a penalty on the opening kickoff, took only two plays and 38 seconds to move downfield 57 yards for Terry Collier's fourth TD of the night.

Munday kicked off to Holliday, but after three running plays the Eagles were forced to punt. In the next three plays, the explosive Moguls were in the end zone on an 18 yard quarterback keeper by Bobby Dockins. PAT was wide.

The Moguls secondary team entered the game and played well. They gave up only three first downs before stopping the Eagles. Holliday punted to the three-yard line. Dockins then lost a keeper. On the next play, with good blocking, Dockins ran around the left end and scored on his second 98-yard scamper of the early season giving Munday a 38-0 lead.

Holliday moved the ball up and down the field all night against the Moguls, but were unable to cross the goal line until the fourth quarter. With 7:18 left in the game, the Eagles scored on a 41-yard run by quarterback Colin O'Brien.

The Moguls final touchdown was on a 30-yard run by Terry Collier. It was Collier's fifth TD of the night. Bobby Dockins kicked the extra point to give Munday a 45-7 victory.

The Moguls head south this week to take on the Stamford Bulldogs. This will be the first meeting of the two powers since the late 1940's and early 50's. The game will start at 7:30.

COACHES COMMENTS

Although Holliday was a very sound team, we had a pretty easy contest last Friday night. We blocked well, our offense executed real well, and our defensive tackles and secondary did an outstanding job.

Our offensive line composed of Jerry Branam, Jason Morgan, David Wilde, Brett Bruce, Tony Hunter, Chris Key and Chris Scott played an excellent game. Brett Bruce and Chris Key did really well blocking.

Defensively, David Wilde played a great game, as did tackle, Dwayne Redder. Also, I was really impressed with the downfield blocking by our split ends, Ronnie Whitfield, Jerry Don Valencia and Jay Kingston.

Offensively, our backs did an outstanding job of running the football. Terry Collier scored five touchdowns and ran tremendously. On two of those TD's, he ran through their line and kept on his feet, doing an excellent job.

Even though we got a little careless at the end of the game, we made a lot of progress. I feel like the boys now have a clearer understanding of what is expected of them.

This coming game with Stamford should be a tough one. They have tremendous physical talent. We'll have our work cut out for us.

September 23 Proclaimed "Marjorie Ann Key Day"

Mayor Richard Albus has proclaimed September 23, 1990, as "Marjorie Ann Key Day" in Munday.

Mrs. Key, a well-known Munday resident, passed away earlier this year. She was born April 27, 1927 in Graham and lived in Munday for over forty years. She was a graduate of Olney High School and attended Stevens College for Women in Columbia, Missouri, and Texas State College for Women in Denton.

She and Dwight Key were married September 9, 1947. They had three sons, Dr. Stan Key of Graham, David Key of Munday, and Bryan Key of Throckmorton.

Mrs. Key was a homemaker and a member of First United Methodist Church, Daughters of American Revolution's Silas Morton Chapter in Graham and United Methodist Womens Organization. She served as organist of the Methodist Church for twenty years.

After her death, many contributions were made to the church in Mrs. Key's honor. A new organ was recently purchased with these funds. In accordance with "Marjorie Ann Key Day," there will be a special dedication of this organ at the First United Methodist Church in Munday at 3:00 p.m., Sunday, September 23. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Area Sales Tax Rebates Announced For August

State Comptroller Bob Bullock said recently that his office sent checks totaling $84 million in monthly local sales tax rebates to cities and counties in Texas. This month's checks reflect taxes collected on July sales and reported in late August by businesses filing monthly tax returns.

"Merchants reported healthy sales statewide so the sales tax money they collected shows a good increase over last year," Bullock said.

Knox City's payment of $8,064.47 showed an increase of 27.44% over last year's $6,328.24, while Munday's $3,051.25 was 23.20% less than the $3,973.01 reported at this time last year. Goree and Benjamin did not receive any rebates for this period.

Overall, Knox County shows an 11.04% increase in payments to date as compared to last year.

the car to gather her into my arms and gently withdraw her blood-soaked body.

Dr. Stewart patched her up and soon she was able to attend church services and follow me to school again, though she was left with a permanent limp.

Butch was married and he and Cheryl were visiting one day after old age had claimed her eyesight and her ability to respond quickly to danger. Joe jumped into his little sports car that sat too close to the ground and forgot to look for Poncho beneath it. Butch and Joe took her to Dr. Stewart but her back was broken and by then, we had estimated her age at about fifteen people years and she just couldn't be patched up again.

Butch had tears in his eyes when he told me how he had walked away from her as she lay on the table in Dr. Stewart's office and she had watched him with eyes that said, "It's all right, I understand."

When Joe left for San Diego and Marine Corps boot camp, Amy was nine years old and missed the brother who had always been her hero. I suggested another dog and for a while, Tommy stood firm.

"No more dogs," he declared. "Something always happens to them and then there's a bunch of bawling out of you and the kids, too."

But when he relented, we found Cheyenne, a beautiful full grown Cocker Spaniel who was awaiting execution in a Wichita Falls pound if he was not adopted. He seemed the perfect pet for a little girl, but Cheyenne had one frightful flaw. He was mentally unbalanced.

The first night we brought him home, we arranged the little dog bed we had picked up at the Green Stamp store in one corner of Amy's room and preceded to "tuck him in". Suddenly, his eyes glazed over and awful growls began deep in his throat as he bared his teeth.

"He's bluffing," Tommy said as Amy and I backed out of the room. "You can't let him know you're afraid of him."

But he was far from bluffing and a vicious fight between man and beast ensued. Later, Tommy was determined to shoot the dog or chase him away forever as he poured alcohol over his wounded hands. But, finally we put a cot up in our room for Amy and kept the door shut to give Cheyenne a chance to get used to the house and to us. In the few following days, we had begun to hope he was getting better as the spells of turning vicious without warning began to become more infrequent.

Then, one day, Christye and her boys came home from Canyon for a few days visit. Nobody was home and she didn't know Cheyenne was in the house as she unlocked the door and brought in her bags. She and the boys had put their things away in their room and started down the hall when Cheyenne appeared in the doorway.

"He looked like an infamous hound from Hell," Christye later described him. "His eyes were glazed over and he had his teeth bared. He definitely meant business."

She and the boys took refuge in the bathroom and were imprisoned there all afternoon. Every time she opened the door, Cheyenne lunged toward her with the most awful snarling sound. That night, we gave him away and knew for the first time that a dog can be mentally deranged.

Amy had just turned ten when we found Toby in a little pet shop in Abilene. He is a toy poodle and Amy and I fell in love with him at first sight as he looked balefully at us from the small wire cage where he was being kept.

He has slept for almost ten years on the foot of Amy's bed and allows nobody but me to enter her room when she is sleeping. He runs to sit beside me on the stool when I play the piano and lifts his head in melodious dog song. He is sensitive to all our moods of loneliness or sadness and responds by cuddling closer to us with eyes that say, "I'm sorry". He seems to know when Amy is leaving for her trips to Vernon each morning and follows her to the door where he places his paws on her leg with the most pitiful crying and he watches her out of sight as she drives away.

"That dog is getting old," Tommy tries to pretend he doesn't care about him. "And one of these days, there's going to be a bunch of bawling out of you and Amy just like I knew there would be when you got him."

But we don't want to think about that now. He's very much a part of our lives as he eats popcorn with us and watches TV. He seems to pick up his ears at the word 'dog' and we've actually caught ourselves spelling it when we talk about him. He'll walk all the way across the kitchen on his hind legs for a bite of cookie and even my mother has been caught slipping little bites of food to him under the table during meals.

I can't imagine not having him. He is loving and faithful and has his very own place in our household. He's our best friend!

(When a columnist has exhausted all the family stories and starts to write about her dog, it's time to consider turning in the typewriter, folks! -JG-)

Clean-Up Day Planned For Weinert Homecoming

Preparations are well underway for Weinert's Western Days and Homecoming which is scheduled for October 6. Since the school's campus is no longer in use as the school is officially closed, it has been anticipated that this year's homecoming will, in all likelihood, attract the largest number of exes ever.

Because the school has been unattended since May, your help, as exes and/or residents of the community, is needed to prepare the premises for homecoming. In that regard, a clean-up day has been planned for Saturday, September 22, at 9:00 a.m. This clean-up is to include school grounds, as well as classrooms.

Please bring cleaning supplies and yard maintenance equipment as these things are no longer available at the school. Supplies needed will include brooms, mops, rags, cleaning solutions, mowers, weed eaters, etc. Tractors with shredders would be wonderful!

This clean-up is vital to the success of homecoming and to the future of a building dear to the heart of Weinert exes. Thanks in advance for your help.

Classes Scheduled For Prospective Adoptive Parents

Modern Approach to Partnership in Parenting (MAPP) classes for foster parents and adoptive parents will begin September 24 at 6:30 p.m. at the First United Methodist Church in Munday.

Child abuse is an age old problem that continues to be with us today. When children are removed from families, for whatever the reason, they need alternate families to give them temporary care. These families are licensed foster and/or adoptive homes through the Texas Department of Human Services.

Before families can be licensed, they must complete a 30-hour course called MAPP. Foster homes and adoptive homes are currently needed especially for adolescents, sibling groups, and handicapped children.

Nell Hudson is in the Bethania Hospital in Wichita Falls. She has undergone a series of tests and hopes to get the results and start feeling better soon.

Audrey Nolan returned to the care home in Knox City Thursday after a couple of weeks in a Lubbock hospital. She's fine and very glad to be back home.

Lona Feemster remains about the same, and Mrs. Jones is doing better. They are both in the Knox City care home and enjoy their friends who visit. Mrs. Jones is the mother of Charles Jones and former Benjamin resident Frances Chilcoat.

We wish all our friends well. BUSINESS GONE!

Imagean Young has sold her beauty shop. After nearly 30 years of cuttin', curlin', colorin', and everything else a beautician does, she's put down her combs and scissors and called it quits! She sold her shop and it's going to be moved. She stated she hated to get out, but is tired, so decided now was as good a time as any to let go. Her first perm after starting her business was given to Audrey Nolan, and the last one was to Nora Hertel.

The Benjamin Volunteer Fire Department will have another dinner this Sunday. Turkey, dressing, ham, brisket and all the trimmings will make up the menu. The Lord's Corner by Dr. Pete Bradfield, pastor

A piece of bread grows stale when left in the wrong environment too long. A room becomes stale when fresh air fails to circulate through it. Even a Christian life can become "stale" without a fresh exposure to God's Word each day.

Do you sense that your walk with God has been growing stale or stagnant? Then just be still for a time and let God do the talking. Find a place free from distractions (phone, children, human voices), and spend an uninterrupted 15 minutes reflecting on God's Word and listening for God's voice. It's not easy, but it's worth it!

See you next week, and remember: a person becomes wise by watching what happens to him when he isn't.

FARM AND RANCH REPORT

By Donnie Peters

Farm Chemicals . . . Not That Bad

This week I received a copy of a bulletin entitled "Economic Impacts Of Reduced Chemical Use". This bulletin has some alarming information for consumers against the use of chemicals on agricultural products. The following are some pertinent facts found in the brochure.

In term of 1989 collars, consumers would spend $228 more per household annually if pesticide use were eliminated. If the chemical ban were extended to include inorganic nitrogen fertilizer, expenditures would increase by $428 each year. For the middle income consumer, this amounts to a 12% increase in the weekly food bill. Low income consumers would be spending 44% of their income on food.

Without the availability of chemicals, the annual rate of increase in food prices during 1995-98 would reach the double digit levels that existed during the world food crisis of the early 1970's when price controls and export embargoes were imposed to stem inflation.

Removing pesticides and inorganic nitrogen fertilizer (no chemicals) would drop the volume of exported grain and cotton by nearly 50%.

Banning chemicals would lead to a 10% increase in cultivated acreage and an associated rise in erosion.

Crop producers would experience gains in income, but livestock producers income would drop by an amount that would nearly offset the gain to crop producers.

Crop production in Southern states would fall more sharply than in Northern states. This would be due to larger reductions in yields as a result of climates more favorable to pests and soils more deficient in nitrogen and other nutrients.

Crop yields would fall sufficiently to result in higher unit costs of production.

Lower Yields, Higher Unit Costs
It is often implied that reduced chemical use would lower costs. On a per acre basis, however, costs generally fell as chemicals were withdrawn, and yields fell even more. As a result, costs per unit rose as follows: U.S. wheat yields were projected to decline by 24% with no pesticides and 38% with no chemicals while unit costs would increase by 33% and 50%, respectively.

Cotton yields were projected to drop by 39% with no pesticides and 62% with no chemicals while total unit costs would rise by 54% and 118%, respectively.

Peanut yields were projected to plummet 78% with no pesticides and no chemicals, while costs per pound would more than triple.

Retired Teachers To Hold Meeting

The Knox County Teachers Association will hold their first meeting next Tuesday, September 25, at 2:30 p.m. in the Knox City Community Center.

All members are encouraged to attend.

Mrs. Gwen Hailey of Amarillo and Mrs. Jimmy Burgin and daughters of Groom, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Hank Matthews. Other visitors were Karen Johnson of San Antonio and Mrs. Faye Johnson and Mrs. Tom Morton.

Mrs. Reeves Honored With Bridal Shower

A bridal shower was held Saturday, September 8, 1990, for Mrs. Lyndle Reeves, the former Jeannette Kuehler.

Standing in the receiving line were Jeannette, her mother, Betty Kuehler, her mother-in-law, LaRue Reeves, and her God Mother, Annette Brown.

Kathy Kuehler, sister of the bride, sat at the registry table, which was covered with a white lace table cloth and held the bride's bouquet, registry book, and a candle.

A lace table cloth covered the serving table, and the bride's colors were carried out in a purple flower arrangement which served as a centerpiece. The crystal punch bowl, mint and nut dishes were bought by the late Mrs. Joe Brown, Jeannette's grandmother, to be used by all of her grandchildren at their showers.

Sisters of the bride, Dee Dee Peters, Ann Marie Decker, Mary Jane Kuehler and Denise Kuehler, served cookies and punch to the guests.

Hostesses for the occasion were Annette Brown, Dena King, Annette Welch, Dot Myers, Beverly Decker, Ruth Brown, Pansy Koenig, Earlene Kuehler, Mary Birkenfeld, Frances Brown, Betty Baker, Mattie Waggoner, Ethel Birkenfeld, Maxine Kuehler, Wynette Moore, Barbara Ratliff, Frances Cypert, Ann Ther-wanger, Dorothy Brown, Delores Lambeth, Anna Decker, Geneva, Judy, Kathy, Carol and Teresa Pen-nartz, Robin Stewart, Rose Marie Brown, Bertha Moore, Chris Meers, Georgeene Meadors, Theresa Claus, Madeline Spear, Millie Smith, Cherie Hutchinson, Dorothy Myers, Geneva Kuehler, Mary Zeissel, Vlasta Orsak, Vivian Steinbach, Gail Whitley, and Maxine Cypert.

Farm Bureau Holds Annual Convention

The Knox County Farm Bureau held their annual convention Tuesday, September 11, at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Rhineland.

Following a delicious brisket dinner, the business session was called to order by John Loftin, local Farm Bureau agent. The minutes of last year's meeting were read and approved and the resolutions for the coming year were then discussed and confirmed. Officers on the Board of Directors were re-elected to serve another one-year term. They are: Spike Bryan, of Munday, president; Charles Escobar, of Knox City, vice-president; and Louis Lee Baty, of Truscott, secretary-treasurer. With business concluded, the meeting was adjourned and members enjoyed a few games of Bingo.

Special guest was Farm Bureau District Field Representative, Steve Cochran, of Aspermont. Approximately 120 Knox County Farm Bureau members attended.

Heart Disease #1 Killer In Knox County

According to a recent bulletin released by the American Heart Association, heart disease is still the number one killer in Knox County, causing over 55.1% of all deaths. In Knox County alone, approximately 38 people died last year from some form of heart disease.

The mission of the American Heart Association is to reduce disability and death from cardiovascular disease and stroke. In the past decade, the death rate for cardiovascular disease has fallen by 20%.

Research is the key to solving the problem. Research in Texas accounted for 37% of the budget of the Texas Affiliate of the American Heart Association. They have provided millions of dollars in research grants to universities in Texas during the last four years.

The American Heart Association in Knox County is fighting back against cardiovascular disease through programs of research, public and professional education and community service.

The knowledge we gain from research is translated into lifesaving skills and knowledge for Knox County citizens.

At Your Service

by Dr. Larry Fitzgerald
Minister, Munday Church of Christ

Q: My husband is very harsh with our children. He says that it's his Christian responsibility to train them and punish them. I don't think he should be so harsh with them, do you?

A: I cannot give you a definite answer because I do not know what you mean by "harsh". I can tell you what the biblical principles are concerning children.

First, children are a heritage and gift from God. Because of this, they are really lent to us by the Heavenly Father. Therefore, we should treat them as God's children (Genesis 33:5; Psalms 127:3, etc.).

Second, parents are to discipline their children. This discipline is twofold. It includes both teaching and punishment (Deut. 31:12-13; 2 Timothy 3:15; Proverbs 22:6, 13:24, 23:13-14, 29:15-17; Hebrews 12:5-9). Some parents think that their only task is to punish but this is a misconception. They are required to lovingly teach their children - especially to teach them the scriptures (see above passages). The father is the "priest" of the family and is especially charged with the religious instruction. Any father that will not accept this responsibility is not much of a dad in the eyes of God. "Fathers... train your children in the discipline and instruction of the Lord" (Ephesians 6:4).

While the father is charged to discipline his children he is also charged to "not provoke or discourage" his offspring (Ephesians 6:4; Colossians 3:21). Such provocation occurs when a father is too harsh in his punishment (or words) or is unfair to the children. After all, children are also supposed to be immature. Isn't that what childhood is all about? (see 1 Corinthians 13:11).

The final and most demanding responsibility God has given fathers is to set their children a good example (2 Timothy 1:5). We know that abusive parents create children who are abusive and bullies. Likewise, in general, parents who demonstrate fairness, love and mercy raise children who exhibit these qualities.

Concerning your husband. If he is truly too harsh with your children, perhaps he should take some parental training or counseling (with you by his side). I have noticed that in our culture, women tend to be a little more tolerant of their children. If I can help, please write or call.

If you have a question for this column, write to Box 211, Munday, TX 76371.

Words cannot express our feelings toward our friends and loved ones for the sympathy and expressions of love shown to us during the illness and loss of our loved one, Bill. Thanks so much for the cards, food, calls, flowers, and most of all the prayers said in our behalf. A special thanks to those who made contributions to charity in his memory.

God bless each one of you.

Weinert News

By Mrs. Myrtle Pheister

Weinert welcomed the moisture we received Sunday night and Monday morning. We measured between eight and nine tenths of an inch of rain. At least the air was cleaned and the farmers slowed their pace of work. The cool weather was a welcome change.

SYMPATHY EXTENDED

Weinert extends sympathy to Betty and R.S. Sanders, whose mother, Mrs. Ross (Katie) Gideon, passed from this life on Friday, September 14. She had suffered many months with cancer and grew too weak to fight any longer. Memorial services were held in Winters on Sunday at 2:30 p.m. and she was interred in the Lakeview Cemetery in Winters.

Those attending the services from Weinert included Donnie Harbers, pastor of the First Baptist Church, and the Sanders family: Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Sanders and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Pheister and Greg.

CONCERNING THE SICK

Buck and Helen Turnbow were in Stanton to welcome Gene and Jeanene Perry home from Houston where Jeanene received a "fair" report from M.D. Anderson Hospital.

Jeanene is planning to be in Weinert for Homecoming on October 6.

Eddie and Myrtle Sanders met Faye Brian in Jacksboro on Monday as she returned from Harris Hospital in Fort Worth with a good report on her tests there. She has spent several days with her brother, Warren and Jewel Johnson.

HERE AND THERE

Thurman and Feba Stout hosted their children and grandchildren to a fish fry on Saturday. The men also enjoyed a few hours of dove hunting.

In attendance were Phil and Grenetta Bledsoe and Tammy of Weatherford, and a friend from Dyess Air Force Base; Michelle Rawlings and Meagan of Abilene; Jeanie and Wayne Stout and Shane of Haskell and Cory Brzozowski, also of Haskell.

Jamie (Jetton) Gough and her husband, Brent, of Stephenville, were in Weinert on Sunday and visited in her grandparents' home, Bob and Crystella Raynes and Ted and Faye Jetton. They also spent some time in Munday with her aunt and uncle, Delores and Ronnie Stewart.

Grandparents Day brought Melissa Anderson of Wylie to Weinert for a day of visiting with her grandmother, Mildred Offutt and later in Haskell with grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Anderson.

Coming from Wichita Falls were Tammy Proffitt and Cindy Offutt to visit grandmother Mildred Offutt and grandparents, Eddie and Myrtle Sanders.

Carlos and Ozell Pheister of Sweetwater were Weinert visitors on Saturday. Later, the family gathered in Munday for lunch together at the Cafe and a visit with Mrs. Roy (Leta) Pheister of Munday. The group included the Marvin Pheisters with Greg and Marcus; Edith Davis and Richard of Haskell; Helen Boykin of Weinert and Retith and Coy Keahey of Rule.

Marcus Pheister, a freshman at Hardin-Simmons University, spent the weekend in Weinert. He is happy at school and has decided to campaign for President of the Freshman Class! Confidence?

The women of Weinert met at the school on Tuesday at 3:00 p.m. for their weekly visitation and a look at what faces the clean-up crew on Saturday. The number attending the weekly meetings continues to grow, and fun and fellowship are always the order of the day.

Deena Hacker and Jordan of Benjamin spent the weekend with her mother, Doris Walker. Jordan remained for a few days visit due to the illness of her "sitter".

Deena is enjoying the school at Benjamin and reports her 16 students are well-behaved and anxious to learn.

Barry and Amy Walker of Abilene were visitors in his parents home and also with her family, the Castellinos.

Joyce and W.R. Hager joined other family members at the West Texas Fair in Abilene on Saturday to observe how their calves placed in the show and were pleased when several ribbons were awarded their grandson, Justin Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Herricks were in Lubbock the past weekend where they attended a meeting of the "Open Heart" Surgery Club and marveled at the new techniques demonstrated. They later traveled to New Mexico for a visit in the home of Roy's sister, Pearl.

Fred and Daisy Horan are the proud grandparents of a new granddaughter, Kandace Kristine, who was born in Denton on August 28. Proud parents are Douglas and Kristy Boling of Pilot Point.

Kandace and her mother spent last week in Weinert and were joined on Saturday by "Daddy Doug". They returned to Pilot Point on Sunday. Congratulations!

They attended worship services together at First Baptist Church, as did Kelly Hutchinson of San Angelo, who came to visit her parents, John and Marilyn Earp, and her sister, Karen and Ricky Harlan.

The Earps welcomed their father and grandfather, Chester Smith, of Goree, home from the hospital.

Rural Health Care Nears Crisis Stage

"Rural areas of this country are often treated like bad step children when it comes to health care." That was a statement made recently by Oklahoma Congressman Mike Synar, Co-chairman of the House Rural Health Care Coalition.

Synar and Texas' 13th District Congressman Bill Sarpalius heard testimony recently from more than 30 medical professionals from the Panhandle and North Plains in a Congressional Health Care Forum.

The forum was held at the Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center in Amarillo.

The Health Care Coalition is holding forums and hearings all across the country to gather information to be used in formulating legislation to deal with the rural health care crisis.

Congress will begin dealing with the nationwide health care crisis almost immediately. The Coalition will look at many different suggestions that are surfacing, such as creating a National Health Insurance Plan and Medicare and Medicaid reforms.

The Fishing Doc

By "Doc" Fitzgerald

Miller's Creek Reservoir
Level: full
Temperature (at surface): 81°F
Condition: clear
Black Bass: Fair to 4 lbs. Best on chartreuse, yellow or black spinners. Some being caught on plastic worms and large bass minnows.
Striper: Fair to 7 1/4 lbs. on small perch and trolling lures. Best near dam area. One 5 pounder took a small crappie jig off dock.
White Bass: Fairly good to 3 lbs. Best at night under lights with jigs of all colors. Also hitting in creeks. Fingerlings are in creeks; take care not to injure the small fish.
Crappie: Fairly good. Few limits reported to 1 1/2 lbs. on jigs and jig-minnow combinations.
Catfish: Excellent to 45 lbs. on trotline and 9 lbs. on pole. Best trotline baits are large grasshoppers, small perch, shad and liver. Best pole bait includes large minnows, grasshoppers and Tan Bait.
Carp & Buffalo: Excellent to 12 lbs. Taking Tan Bait, dough bait and other "soft baits" best. Also hitting grasshoppers, minnows and worms.
Fishing Tip
Q: I like to use grasshoppers (especially now) for bait. But it takes a lot longer to catch them than to fish with them. Do you know of any easy ways to catch and store the insects?
A: Believe it or not, in some places live grasshoppers are sold like live minnows for bait. We're not that lucky. When I was a kid, my boss had me catch him one or two dozen every Friday for his fishing trips. I used a soft toilet bowl cleaning brush on a long handle to swat them and place in a cardboard cage. (The brush had never been used for its intended purpose, by the way.) Some people catch both hoppers and crickets by making a bread trap. Buy an unsliced, cooked loaf and cut in half. Using your knife, hollow out a cavern. Cut out one small tunnel (about 1-2") out one end. Secure the halves with a rubber band. Place the trap in a flower bed for one day. When you open be prepared to have a good amount of hoppers and crickets. Also be warned that other critters might be inside. If you don't want to go to this trouble simply drive through some hoppers on the way to your honey hole and pull them off the bumper.

Goree Loses By 41-18

The Goree Wildcats were defeated by the Lueders-Avoca Raiders 41-18 last Friday night at Goree. The contest was close through the middle of the third quarter before the Raiders began to pull away.

The game was scoreless until Raider Ray Gann broke loose on a 12-yard run with 47 seconds remaining in the period, giving Lueders-Avoca a 6-0 lead.

Goree scored early in the second quarter as Otis Dixon plunged in from one yard out to tie the score. The Raiders blocked the PAT kick and Gann returned the loose ball to put Lueders-Avoca up by one. Gann then scored from three yards out to give the Raiders a 13-6 halftime lead.

Lueders-Avoca pinned Goree deep in their own territory to start the second half. When the Wildcats fumbled and recovered the ball in their own end zone, it gave the Raiders two points on the safety. Joe Woodcox threw to David Sharp for a 30-yard touchdown pass following the kick-off. Gann's kick gave the Raiders a 23-6 lead.

Goree came right back and scored as Scott Castillo hit Jay Hutchens on a six yard scoring pass. Woodcox was not finished though, as he once again teamed up with Sharp, this time for 56 yards. The Raiders lead increased to 29-12. Gann connected with Sharp for a 45-yard scoring strike to close out the third quarter scoring.

With just over seven minutes remaining in the game, Castillo scored from the 5-yard line for Goree's last score. Gann added another TD run for the Raiders to account for the final score of 41-18.
