

DOYLE LOWRANCE, Superintendent at Munday High School, is standing in the science room located in the new addition added on to the high school. A staff room, storage room and four additional classrooms are also located in the new east wing, and will soon be put to use by students and faculty.

New Addition Nears Completion At MHS

Munday High School is just about ready to use the new facilities that recently have been added to the present building. According to superintendent Doyle Lowrance only touch-ups on the inside and out are needed.

"We hope to be in the rooms Monday, if not then as soon as possible," said Doyle Lowrance. "We have to have a substantial approval from the school board as well as the okay from the building inspector." The building inspector has been checking on progress once a week since construction began to make sure things are done as planned.

When the addition was first planned, the school had hoped to have moved in by September of 1992. Construction started the first week of June of last year and at that time Lowrance thought they would be in use by the 1st of January.

The addition is approximately 5,000 square feet consisting of seven rooms: a new staff room, science room, four additional classrooms, and a storage room.

The staff room will be a big relief for all the staff members. The current staff room is around 100 square feet and the new one is at least four times as large. This is a big asset for class preparation. Before teachers were reluctant to even use the staff room due to such little space.

The science room is greatly needed for 7th and 8th grade classes. These classes are presently held in the old ag classroom and students go to the science lab in the high school building due to lack of a sink and tables to work on, but only if the lab room is vacant. At this time there is a math class being taught in the lab. With the new addition this math class will now have a room of its own.

Math classes and computer classes are being taught in the same room, not at the same time of course. This made it impossible for certain classes to go on during the same period. Now because of the new classes students will be able to use the computer lab much more regularly for catch-up work, additional work, or even to type a research paper. The new classrooms will enable the school to improve the computer lab to have more and better equipment.

Classes are also being taught in the lunchroom for five periods a day. In 1985 the lunchroom was first used as a classroom but was only used for maybe one class period. Because of curriculum which has changed over the years, the lunchroom has turned into a regular classroom. The new classrooms will move these classes to a "normal" environment.

These new classrooms will hopefully be in use this Monday. Furniture for the rooms is in storage and will not take long to bring in. Students and staff anxiously await when they can put the rooms to use.

Collectors And Elvis Fans Line Up To Buy Stamps

The 29-cent commemorative stamp bearing Elvis Presley's youthful image went on sale at 12 noon on Friday, January 8. The United States Postal Service printed 500 million of these stamps, the largest amount ever for a commemorative issue.

The stamp's release was set on Presley's 58th birthday. He was born near Tupelo, Mississippi, on January 8, 1935, and died at Graceland August 16, 1977.

Local Postmaster, Dolores Lambeth, said she sold all she had in less than thirty minutes after the stamps went on sale. There were several waiting outside in their vehicles until noon for the stamps to be released. Philip Homer was the first in line to make this special purchase. His wife, Helen, thought it would be a good idea to buy the stamps and save them for their children and grandchildren. Philip and Helen are really Elvis fans. They like some of his music, but not the rock-'n-roll.

Jeri Bradley was first in line and made sure everyone else stayed behind her at the Knox City Post Office. She is a real big fan of Elvis, having grown up listening to his music and watching his shows on TV. She has been collecting stamps for her grandson, who lives in California, for 7 years, but he won't be getting these stamps anytime soon. "These stamps are mine, until I croak!" she stated.

The Gore residents had to wait an hour later to purchase The King's stamps since the office closes for lunch. Joy Hord was there when Postmaster Pat Peek opened back up at 1:00. She bought them for her daughter-in-law, Christy Hord, who has always been a big Elvis fan. The remainder of the stamps were sold soon after.

Ruth Ressel purchased the first commemorative stamps at Benjamin. She is a stamp collector, but not a big fan of Elvis Presley. "I don't much like his music. I like country and western better. His religious and Christmas songs are good, but not the rock-'n-roll," she stated.

If you weren't able to buy Presley's stamps this time around, don't fret. There is another shipment due to arrive January 18.

Thomas Martinez Awarded Medal From U.S. Air Force

United States Air Force Commander Walter S. Hogle, Jr., awarded Sergeant Thomas Martinez a commendation medal and certificate for meritorious service while at Altus Air Force Base in Oklahoma.

The citation accompanying the medal read as follows:

Sergeant Thomas Martinez distinguished himself by meritorious service while assigned to the 97th Security Police Squadron, 97th Support Group, 97th Air Mobility Wing, Altus Air Force Base, Oklahoma from March 12, 1990, to October 9, 1990.

Sergeant Martinez' superior job knowledge, professionalism, and dedication to duty enhanced the security police mission. He set the example for younger airmen to emulate and earned the security police organization the highest respect of the community. His patrol tactics and knowledge of driving behavior aided in the apprehension of several intoxicated motor vehicle operators, ensuring the safe passage of other motorists.

His professionalism was again evident when he was selected as a correctional custody monitor. His efforts as part of the corrections team contributed to the restoration of military bearing of personnel who had strayed from acceptable behavior, and aided them in re-establishing themselves as productive military members.

In August, 1990, his professional response to a major vehicle accident aided in the safe and expedient evacuation of injured personnel from the scene insuring a thorough investigation could be conducted. His ability to work with local law enforcement personnel contributed to the apprehension of two military members responsible for $10,000 in damages from vandalism.

The distinctive accomplishments of Sergeant Martinez while serving his country reflect credit upon himself and the United States

Air Force. Having completed six years of service as of October, 1992, Martinez is on the waiting list to enter the Border Patrol academy. He is residing in Munday with his wife, Jolanda, and two children, Andy and Kristen.

Martinez is a 1986 graduate of Goree High School and the son of Bart and Margaret Martinez of Stamford.

reminding them that no matter how much they're earning now, they should get in touch with Social Security if they want to begin collecting benefits.

"Too often people who continue to work don't realize they can collect their Social Security benefits," says Mrs. Brandt. "We need to be sure they know that they're entitled to monthly benefits even if they are still working. That's why we're sending them letters urging them to come into the office and check with us about their eligibility. We want to make sure that all workers who paid into Social Security get the benefits they've earned."

THE TEMPLE EMANUEL ASSEMBLY OF GOD has just completed the renovation of their sanctuary. Renovation started June 27, 1992, with the pastor, Rigoberto Contreras, and the congregation doing all the work. Central heat and air was installed last Saturday, and the new pews, pulpit and communion table completed the final stages. They would like to thank everyone who contributed in any way to this special project.

Benjamin News

By Mrs Gladene Green

On this cold wintery night, news is pretty scarce in the Benjamin area. Guess everyone is still "getting over" the Christmas and New Years holidays. Our weekend "cold spell" kept most of us in, but the play-off games made that "being housed in" more bearable. We only lack a couple of games before we see who goes to the Super Bowl and regardless of who it is, we have had a pretty good season, "pro-foeball wise" - and I'm pulling for the Cowboys to go all the way.

REGARDING OUR ILL

Mary Bohannon spent a couple of days in the Seymour hospital returning home Saturday. Tho still not back to her old self, she's doing lots better.

Dennis Duke underwent surgery on his arm Thursday in a Wichita Falls hospital. He returned home later the same day and doing well.

No more reports of any other illness other than the 24 hour virus and lots of coughs and colds. Maybe when the weather warms up a little, folks will begin to feel better.

Sympathy goes to Daniel Rains this week. Daniel mother passed away last Sunday in a Wichita Falls hospital. Funeral was Tuesday in Wichita Falls. In addition to Daniel, those attending from Benjamin were Bobby Hudson and Johnny Williams.

Also funeral services are pending tonight for Archie Struck of Goree. Archie was the brother-in-law of Benjamin resident Earlene Meinzer. Our sympathy also to Archie's family.

SOROSIS CLUB MEETS

The Benjamin Sorosis Club met Thursday in the home of Jessie Roberts. In keeping with the program theme, Texas Heritage, roll call was answered with the "Reason I like to live in Texas." Jessie Roberts showed slides on "Living the Legend" - slides about Texas.

Hostess were Eunice Friday and Pearl Ryder. Others attending were Lucille Moorhouse, Bea Parks and Ruth Ressel.

FOUND SHOE

Bea Parks has a "stray" white tennis shoe at her house. She found it nearby and said it's a goog one and she wonders if someone may be missing one. So if you know someone who may have lost it, give Bea a call and I'll bet she will let you have it.

HERE 'N THERE

There's still a little bit of un-reported Christmas News.

Barbara and Sammy Pierce had their kids, Jeff of Breckenridge, Keith, Namie and Matt of Wichita Falls, also Mary Lou McLauray of Abilene for the holidays.

Pancho and Amelia Acenedo and children spent Christmas with their folks in Mexico.

Tres Pierce of West Texas State College in Canyon was home for the holidays.

Bill Pierce recently moved into the care home in Seymour, where he will now reside. Bill fell recently and failed to recover as fast as he should.

At Your Service

by Dr. Larry Fitzgerald
Minister, Munday Church of Christ

Q: Who were the preachers Paul speaks of in Philippians 1:15? Do we have them today?

A: You refer to those who spent their time preaching "Christ out of envy and rivalry" (Philippians 1:15) and who "preach Christ out of selfish ambition, not sincerely, supposing that they can stir up trouble for (Paul) while (Paul) was in chains" (Phil. 1:17).

Several writers have supposed that these "preachers" were Judaizers. Judaizers tried to compel non-Jews to accept Old Testament practice as a part of their Christianity. Like many Christians today, Judaizers did not understand that Christ's death fulfilled the Old Testament (Colossians 2:13-17; Hebrews ch. 8; 9:15-10:18, etc.). However, it does not appear that Paul was concerned about false teachers in this passage. These were probably teachers of truth who proclaimed the gospel from less than pure motives. Satan, himself, can quote scripture, accurately (Matthew 4:6) and the Devil can appear as an angel of light when it suits his motives (2 Corinthians 11:14). Therefore, it shouldn't surprise us to find that some preachers did preach from impure motives. These were jealous of Paul's influence and success.

There are some preachers, today, who do preach from motives other than love of God and Christ. However, I personally believe that most ministers are motivated by love of God and His Word. This doesn't mean that any preacher is perfect. All sin including God's spokesmen (Romans 3:23). Perhaps this serves to remind us more of God's love and grace.

by Ronnie Cude

"The informational profiles I am submitting in no way reflect a promotion or endorsement by me or the Munday Courier, nor is it an attempt to interview the most prominent or interesting persons in our area, but rather to depict the common people, their values and interests. Hope you enjoy them."

Name: I Lee Moore (Nature)
Age: 74

Place of Birth: Bell County near Temple, Texas, in 1918
Occupation: Retired, after working at Anderson-Clayton Cotton Oil Mill and for the railroad, loading bales of cotton.

What were the most rewarding aspects of your job: Mostly learning about hard working people.

What was your "dream" occupation? Why?

I was the "straw boss" at the Oil Mill, over the other hands, and that was a dream come true.

What activities are you involved in today?

I spend a lot of time talking to Ira Shields about "world problems" and visiting with people in the community.

What one thing would you do in your community to make it a better place to live?

I wouldn't change anything.

Munday, Texas is the best place to live for poor people. In a small town, people care about other people.

What is the best advice you've ever received and who gave it to you?

To work hard and not expect somebody to give it to you. To pull your own weight. (This advice was given me by my mother.)

Who is the most famous person you've ever met? How did you met him or her?

Mr. Barton Carl at the Baker-McCarty Dry Goods Store, and Mr. Weldon Smith at the bank.

If you won the grand prize in the Texas Lottery, what would you do with the money?

Grants And Subsidized Loans Available For Home Repairs

Most homeowners are unaware that regardless of their income there are Federal, state, and local programs that will help them repair and remodel their homes.

Government at all levels recognizes that neighborhoods are the basis of life in our country. As homes become shabby looking and in need of maintenance, the residents lose their desire to keep up the neighborhood.

In order to keep and maintain the nation's housing and neighborhoods, government at all levels have programs to give homeowners money for repairs or to lend them money at below market levels or at no interest.

These programs are not restricted to low-income people, slum areas or urban neighborhoods. Owners of single or multi-family dwellings are eligible for some programs regardless of income. Most of the loans offer long term and low payments.

Some of the other home improvements covered under these programs are: attic and wall insulation, new windows, outerwall siding, security doors and locks, window guards, sidewalks and masonry work, bathrooms and kitchens, electrical and plumbing work, new roofs, gutters or downspouts.

The Consumer Information Agency, a national consumer publishing group has released its CONSUMERS GUIDE TO HOMEREPAIR GRANTS AND SUBSIDIZED LOANS, a 240-page book which lists over 7,000 sources of loan and grant programs offered by all levels of government in addition to utility companies and others, typical programs offered and eligibility requirements. Form letters for inquiries to these loan and grant sources are included as well as detailed instructions on determining your debt-to-income ratio for eligibility. The book can be obtained for $15.95 plus $2.00 shipping and handling from C.I.A./Grants, 60 Evergreen Place, East Orange, NJ 07016 or by calling (1-800) PUB-LIST toll free for credit card orders.

Monroe Spiegel of C.I.A./Grants tells us, "Some of these programs have no income ceiling and others allow income of as much as $100,000 per year. There are even programs for which tenants are eligible and many allow loans or give grants to poor credit risks. In many areas, people with disabilities can receive grants to pay for needed repairs such as access ramps and widening of doorways."

Steve Barrett, pastor

My theology professor at seminary taught his students to be quietly present with the suffering. In the presence of great suffering it is hard for a pastor to be present and non-anxious. God seems far away. Does one dare pray with quiet confidence in the face of the deafening "NO" of suffering? Dr. Hendricks taught us that the sufferer needs compassion, a fellow-sufferer, rather than answers.

A few days before Christmas I visited with a member who suffers greatly. We celebrated the Lord's Supper together. While I had no divine answers, the bread and the cup spoke gracefully of the divine presence in our human suffering. And the Methodist ritual reads: Grant us to partake of this . . . (this broken bread and cup of suffering) . . . that we may walk in newness of life.

My suffering friend quoted to me from an ancient Christian preacher named St. John Chrysostom. Chrysostom preached on Christmas morning, "Nor yet by any loss of divinity became He man, nor through increase became He God from man." I admired her for thinking theological thoughts in the midst of suffering. Her mind is very alert, like an eagle surveying the brown earth while swirling in the blue heavens, though her body is grounded by pain. She and Chrysostom survey the mystery of Christmas with lofty thoughts! I left, grateful for blessed Communion and new inspiration to ponder the divine mysteries.

MONEY TALK

Kay Bailey Hutchison
Texas State Treasurer

Editor's Note: Texas State Treasurer Kay Bailey Hutchison addresses various issues related to personal finance and state government. However, these views are not intended to replace the advice of reputable financial advisers or other professional counselors.

Q. I am thinking about investing in U.S. savings bonds but I don't have a lot of extra money to put away - not more than $50 a month. Is this a good way for me to start a savings plan?

A. It is never too early to start saving for the future. U.S. savings bonds represent a good, safe and solid investment which is backed by the full faith and credit of the U.S. government.

Savings bonds are generally purchased at less than their face value. When the bonds mature the holder is paid the face value of the bond. The series EE bonds may be an appropriate investment for you. The bonds are sold in denominations of $100 to $10,000, with each bond costing one-half of its face value. Therefore, each month your $50 investment will enable you to purchase a $100 series EE bond. When the bond matures in 12 years it will be worth $100.00. Federal taxes must be paid at this time.

The interest rate for Series EE bonds is set by the government twice a year; November and April. The current rate is 5.04%. This rate compares favorably with the interest rate now being offered for certificate of deposit accounts, which range from 3.55% to 4.60%.

For additional information contact your local bank or savings institution.

Prune Landscape Now
Since most plants in the landscape are now dormant, January through February is the time for pruning.

Homeowners with fruit and nut trees should remove diseased, dead limbs and limbs that are too close to the ground during the dormant stage.

In addition, fruit trees may be pruned heavily if pruning has been neglected for years.

In pruning trees, limb should be cut flush to the limb or trunk. This type of cut is much more appealing as the tree will not have "hat racks" or protruding stubs. Often times these stubs will produce water suckers which also are unsightly and have to be removed later.

Pruning should be done with a saw if limbs are greater than 1 1/2

2 inches in diameter. Limbs smaller than 1 1/2 inches may be cut of with lopping shears or hand pruning shears.

If large limbs are being removed, it is wise to make a cut 1/3 of the way through the branch on the underside of the limb. This will prevent the bark from being stripped from the trunk of the tree.

Then cut the limb 12 to 24 inches away from the trunk. After removing most of the weight from the limb, cut the rest of the limb off even with the trunk of the tree.

It is not necessary to treat cuts of trees as the trees will heal themselves if given adequate care.

Root sprouts should also be removed at the base of the tree.

To add length to short stemmed flowers, slip stems into drinking straws before placing in vase.

Pathways

First Baptist Church

Has there ever been anyone who has never experienced a day of pain? Certainly not. Pain, hurting, suffering are a part of living.

We grieve when we lose someone we love. We feel the pain of disappointment at a dream which we now realize we will never be able to accomplish. We know the hurt of broken relationships.

Hurting is a part of living. Yet if we allow the hurting to become the controlling factor in our lives, we really do experience painful lives.

Attitude makes a difference on days when we hurt. The Lord taught us to have the attitude "WHEN I HURT, IT WON'T LAST FOREVER." This attitude helps us gain perspective on our pain. It helps us to know that there is comfort, there are better times, this too shall pass.

That is hard to see in the middle of hurting times. It's a tough attitude to put on. But when we can have that attitude, we seek for, and find, the comfort we so desperately need.

The scripture says "Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted."

"Lord, I give my hurting to You today. I look to You and seek comfort. Give me patience, endurance, and hope as I come to You. Amen."

Arthritis Update:
ARTHRITIS FOUNDATION
Diagnosis Of Arthritis Can Be Difficult

Getting a correct diagnosis of arthritis can be a long and sometimes difficult process, reports the Arthritis Foundation. This difficulty in diagnosis can result from many factors including: the large number of arthritis diseases; overlapping symptoms common to many forms of arthritis; misleading laboratory tests; and the possibility of a person having multiple types of arthritis.

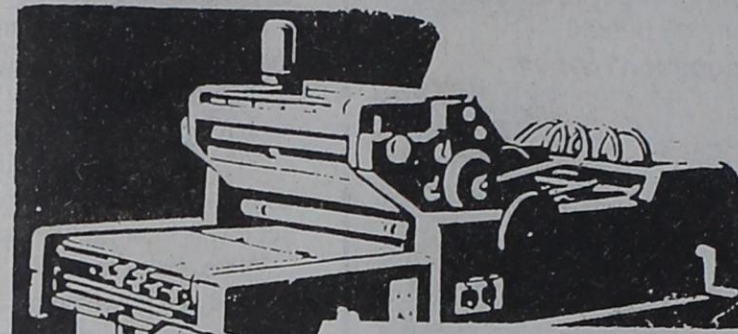

The Arthritis Foundation recommends seeing a physician if you experience the following symptoms for more than two weeks: pain; swelling; stiffness; or problems moving one or more joints. Giving your physician complete information can help you get an accurate diagnosis. This information, along with a physical exam and laboratory tests, will help your doctors determine what is wrong. The questions your doctor will ask may include:

- What joints hurt?
- Have you noticed swelling or hotness in your joints?
- How long have you had the pain? When is the pain at its worst?
- Is there anything that makes your joints feel better or worse?
- Do you have fever, fatigue, weight loss or other physical symptoms?
- Does anyone in your family have arthritis?

For a free brochure giving basic facts about arthritis, check the phone directory for your local Arthritis Foundation chapter or call toll-free the Arthritis Foundation Information Line at 1-800-283-7800 (Monday - Friday, 9 a.m. - 7 p.m. Eastern Time).

The Arthritis Foundation is the source of help and hope for an estimated 37 million Americans who have arthritis. The foundation supports research to find ways to cure and prevent arthritis and seeks to improve the quality of life for those affected by arthritis.

Beta Chi Chapter Enjoys Christmas Carols At Meeting

The Beta Chi Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma Society International met Monday, December 7, at the First United Methodist Church in Aspermont. Hostesses were members from Aspermont, Sagerton, and Old Glory.

After refreshments were served by the hostesses, members moved to the sanctuary where they enjoyed a program of special Christmas music. Friday afternoon Nancy met with a group of the residents and played Mind Stretchers. When we finished with Mind Stretchers we went into the living room where Diana Colman played the piano for us.

Virginia Cary and Elliot who played the piano had a very nice and enjoyable singing and Bible study Saturday afternoon. We sang about twelve songs and then had the Bible study and Virginia read four poems. Speaking to a Preacher, Crying with a Friend, The Preacher We Need, and By Your Love to God.

Irene Earl is with Mrs. Stodghill for the time being. Mrs. Stodghill is improving daily.

Janet Mitchell from Wichita Falls, Texas visiting my mother Mable Jacobs.

Faith Baptist Church held the afternoon services at Munday Nursing Center. Mark Tibbets lead the music and brought the message. Linda Smith played the piano.
