The Godfather, accompanied by his attorney, walks into a room to meet with his accountant. The Godfather asks the accountant. "Where's the three million bucks you embezzled from me?" The accountant doesn't answer. The Godfather asks again, "Where's the three million bucks you embezzled from me?"

The attorney interrupts, "Sir, the man is a deaf-mute and cannot understand you, but I can interpret for you."

The Godfather says, "Well, ask him where the money is." The attorney, using sign language, asks the accountant. The accountant signs back,

Harber, James Franklin Sr.

Dr. James Franklin Harber Sr. was born March 5, 1918, in Knox County, Texas, and raised in Munday, Texas. He entered the Kingdom of God on Wednesday, January 26, 2000.

Harber was a graduate of Sunset Rural High School. He received his undergraduate degree from the University of Texas and his D.D.S. from Baylor Dental College.

He practiced dentistry in Pecos and Odessa until his retirement in last Monday. He is an "old timer" 1976. He then moved to Brackettville, Texas where he came out of retirement, donated his dental equipment to and was instrumental in establishing a state-funded children's dental clinic in Kinney County. He retired again in 1984.

Dr. Harber served in the Army during World War II and continued to serve in the Army Reserve thereafter, attaining the rank of lieutenant colonel. He also served as director of civil defense for the West Texas sector. He contributed many hours to civic and community endeavors and was a recipient of numerous awards and honors.

He was very active in the local Masonic Lodge in which he held the office of treasurer during 1999.

Dr. Harber was preceded in death by his parents, Jim and Maude Lambeth, Felton Maurice Harber, a pioneer family of Knox County and the Thorp community; sisters Agnes Myers and Stella Harber and brothers Wilson and Morrisson Harber.

He is survived by his loving children, James Harber Jr., Tom White and Lori Harmon; his daughter-in-law, Jodie Harber; son-in-law, Danny Harmon; his precious granddaughter, Halani Harber; one sister, Bessie Claburn of Odessa, Texas.

Jones-McCall and Ray have added another chapter to their love story and are working on the "happy ending." The two were married on January 17, 2000 while on a cruise to Freeport, Grand Bahamas. The ceremonies took place on the beach at Port Fortuna with the Reverend Charles White performing the double ring ceremony. Friends of the couple, Dan and Helen Driscol from Illinois, were on hand to serve as Matron of Honor and Best Man. The vows were repeated under the palm trees with the Atlantic Ocean as a back drop.

After honeymooning in the Grand Bahamas and Florida the couple will make their home at 1518 Park Street in Pecos, Texas.

A reception will be held in their home on February 19th at the West of Pecos Museum in Pecos, Texas.
