Teresa Birkenfeld, salutatory.
Angeline Decker, class will.
Lucille Petrus, class prophecy.

Freshman Report

The boys favorite songs are:
Albert—"There are more pretty girls than one."
T.J.: "I am proud that I look like my dad."

Mark—"Yankee Doodle."
Braxton—"You can't marry ten pretty girls."

Joe J.—"Texas Plains."
Philip—"I've got that old fashioned love in my heart."

... We wonder why J. B. has no favorite song.

With only one week left until the final soft ball game, we will have to do some more practicing. Since we beat Munday we are trying to get first place on May 6.

Texas Press Industrial Train To Leave May 14 For North And East

Three hundred Texas business men, newspaper publishers and writers will climb aboard the Texas Press Industrial Train the night of May 14, determined to familiarize the industrial leaders of the North and East of the advantages Texas has to offer to capital and brains. The train will tour leading industrial centers and wind up for a two-day visit at the New York World's Fair.

Riding at the head of the delegation will be Governor W. Lee O'Daniel with the world's famous Cowboy Band of Hardin-Simmons College of Abilene. To add color, six white horses with riders carrying the six flags of Texas will be on the train to participate in parades at stops to be made along the route and in New York.

Reservations for tickets have already started. To Harry L. Seay, President of the State Fair of Texas, and Mrs. Seay, Dallas, went the first tickets for the eighth-day journey. Before temporary offices were opened at 901 Allen building, Dallas, many reservations were requested. Among reservations listed were Col. J. K. Hughes and party, Mexia; Gene Howe, editor, Amarillo; Mrs. Deskin Wells, wife of the president of the Texas Press Association, Wellington; Wm. A. McIntosh, San Antonio Light, San Antonio, and Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson of Houston.

Sponsoring the train with the Texas Press Association is the Texas New York World's Fair Commission of which Jesse H. Jones, Washington, is chairman, and the advertising clubs of Texas.

"Electric Eye" To Count Autos On Highways

An electric eye for counting traffic on the roads has been developed by the State Highway Department, according to a statement by Julian Montgomery, State Highway Engineer. While this is not the first device for counting traffic to be developed, it has many advantages over earlier models.

The machine is operated by batteries and can be set up at any point on the road within a few minutes time. A passing car breaks a beam of light and causes a dial to register the count. A camera built into the machine automatically takes a picture of the dial every hour. The photographic film supplies a permanent record of the number of cars that passed during each hour the machine is in operation. The machine runs continuously without attention for a week.

The traffic counter was developed by the Highway Planning Survey for making counts of traffic on highways and county roads. This method is reported to be much cheaper than having a man count the vehicles, as was formerly done. The Survey has two of its own machines in use and twenty machines by a private concern before the new device was perfected.

The Planning Survey is conducted by the Highway Department in cooperation with the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads. Director of the Survey is G. G. Edwards, and F. Thayer Stoddard is local Bureau of Public Roads representative.

Highway Departments of other states have shown great interest in the machine developed in Texas, it was stated.

'Magic Caves Of Ice' To Be Shown At World's Fair

Cleopatra's wine bearers, the Roman emperor Caligula's barge, a "well-house" of the pilgrims in Massachusetts, the Aurora Borealis, luminous against frozen Arctic regions, are just a few vivid pages out of the exciting story of refrigeration which will be told from start to finish in "The Magic Caves of Ice," the exhibit being staged at the New York World's Fair, by Servel, Inc., manufacturers of gas-kerosene refrigerators.

In describing the exhibit, one of the most unusual of its kind, A. L. Smith, sales manager of the Rexall Store, which handles Servel Electroflux in this vicinity said: "Those who see the 'Magic Caves of Ice' will gain a new perspective on the relationship of adequate food protection and the development of the means of obtaining it from primitive life to modern day living.

"The exhibit is to be staged in the gas industry's 'Court of Flame' building at the World's Fair. Immediately on entering the exhibit the visitor will find himself surrounded by the strange icicle-like formations of the Ice Age. Long-tapering cylindrical forms known as stalactites hanging from the roof, meet stalagmites, another type of geological formation, rising in weird array from the cavern floor.

Dim lighting, an opening in the cavern walls disclosing a midnight sky brilliant with stars, the Aurora Borealis throwing its mysterious glow over the frigid Arctic, will all add to the realism of the story. A giant Servel Electroflux refrigerator, about 12 feet high, will move constantly on a turntable in the center of the exhibit.

"Outstanding among the sights to be seen in the 'Cave' are ten dioramas which paint a graphic picture of the development of domestic refrigeration from its primitive stages to the present-day silent refrigerator.

"This series of dioramic displays begin with the cave-man and his 'kill,' placed in deep recesses of his cave where cool air kept food from spoiling a short time; then Cleopatra's wine bearers will be shown, where films of ice formed by the desert night winds were used to cool the beverages and other delicacies served by Egypt's glamorous queen, the Roman emperor Caligula's barge, recently dug up by archaeologists from the bottom of an Italian lake, with slaves bringing ice and snow from the far-off Apennines, will be the next scene.

"Further dioramas show a 'well-house' of the Pilgrims in Massachusetts, indicating the partial protection of food in those days; the harvesting of ice in winter, illustrating 19th century refrigeration; and a dramatization of a famous Gibson drawing entitled 'The Gibson Girl and the Ice Man.' This will picture the girl's distaste of the 'messiness' of the old-fashioned ice box.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Cooper visited friends in Eldorado, Texas, over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Harris, John Harris and Mrs. Paul Brogden attended the funeral of Mr. G. W. May at Rule last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Harrell visited relatives in Anson last Sunday afternoon.

New Dick Tracy Film Proves Fact That Crime Doesn't Pay

Crime doesn't pay—and if you have any doubts, just step up to the box office of the Roxy Theatre next Friday to see the opening chapter of "Dick Tracy Returns," exciting Republic serial starring Ralph Byrd in the role of the ace G-Man, and then don't miss a single episode during the next 15 weeks.

The arch-criminal family, composed of Pa Stark and his five notorious sons, Trigger, Slasher, Dude, Champ and the Kid, gets by with everything from murder on down until the men from the F.B.I. get on their trail. Then things begin to happen.

Tracy and a promising G-Man recruit, Ron Merton, are assigned to run down the Starks. Merton is murdered by the gang, and Tracy calls in every resource at his command in order to bring them to justice.

The chase leads from Washington, D.C., to the west coast, in and out of one precarious escapade after another. The Starks activities are unlimited, and include everything from attempted theft of a government army tank to extortion. Tracy thwarts them at every turn, but at risk of his own life many times. One by one the gang is killed off, and finally Pa Stark himself is cornered—only to escape and lead himself to destruction.

Ralph Byrd is again seen in the leading role, and surpasses anything he has done so far on the screen. Michael Kent, playing his first screen role in the part of Tracy's partner, Sieve, shows plenty of promise. Lynn Roberts is excellent as Gwen, and Charles Middleton is as villainous as anyone could be in the role of Pa Stark.

In minor roles, Monte Montague, Edward Foster, David Sharpe, and Alan Gray perform well.

"Dick Tracy Returns" was co-directed by William Whitney and Jack English from a screen play by Barry Shipman, Ronald Davidson, Franklyn Adreon, Rex Taylor, and Sol Shor.

Robert Beche was the associate producer under Executive Producer Charles E. Ford.

Mrs. J. R. Burnison made an interesting talk in "The Forward Stretch."

Mrs. W. R. Cabaness, delegate to the Parent-Teacher Conference at Electra, presented her report in a very charming manner.

The home economics girls modeled some beautiful dresses. These girls and their instructor, Mrs. Dillon, are to be congratulated upon these lovely productions.

Home Economics Ass'n To Meet In San Antonio

San Antonio will be host, June 20-23, to the American Home Economics Association, Miss Mildred Horton, vice-director and state agent of the Texas A. & M. College Extension Service, and general chairman of local arrangements for the meeting, has announced.

The organization has more than 12,000 members affiliated through 51 home economics associations in the United States, Puerto Rico, and Canada, as well as through 1,700 home economics students' clubs in colleges and high schools.

Although the association was organized in 1908, and is holding its 32nd annual meeting, the occasion will mark the first gathering in any of the southwestern states, Miss Horton said.

Also scheduled in connection with the meeting is a pre-convention session in Corpus Christi, June 16-19, for home economic workers of the various state extension services as well as post-convention tours of Mexico.

There are 760 members of the association in Texas.

It takes less time to avoid an accident than to fill out an accident report.

Twenty-Four Panhandle Counties May Join "Army Of Angles" This Year

Austin, April 27.—Restrictions prohibiting the catching of black bass and crappie and the use of artificial bait will be lifted Monday, May 1, opening day of the general fishing season.

Thanks to recent action by the current Legislature, 24 counties in the Panhandle that formerly had an April and May closed season and hence were forced to wait until June 1 to go fishin', will this year be able to join the general army of anglers on May 1. The local law providing the April and May closed season was repealed, and henceforth March and April closed seasons as called for by general law will prevail in the 24 counties, which include Dallam, Sherman, Hartley, Moore, Hutchinson, Roberts, Hemphill, Oldham, Potter, Carson, Gray, Armstrong, Wheeler, Deaf Smith, Randall, Donley, Farmer, Castro, Swisher, Briscoe and Hall.

Certain general laws defining license requirements, bag limits, methods of taking fish, size limits, and other points will be in effect during the open season, but in scores of cases fishermen also must be careful to obey special county fish laws, the Game Department warned.

The special county laws must be adhered to even though they appear to be in conflict with the general laws, it was pointed out. There are over 200 special applications of county laws on fresh water fishing. Fish and Game regulations are passed by the Legislature.

Digests of the fish laws may be obtained by fishermen from game wardens or at most sporting goods stores.

All resident Texans fishing with artificial lures must have an artificial lure license that costs $1.10. There are no exceptions to this rule.

Non-residents or aliens must purchase a Non-Resident Fishing License that costs $5, or may purchase a $1.10 Five-Day License, when fishing with any kind of bait.

Sportmen may fish in their counties of residence without a county resident fishing license, except in 22 counties in which the universal hunting and fishing license law is in effect. The 22 counties having this law are Mason, Monard, Kerr, Schleicher, Crockett, Sutton, Kimble, Real, Edwards, Blanco, Llano, Kendall, Gillespie,

NO CHOICE
 BERLIN, (IPS).—A factory worker in Germany can't quit his work without permission from government authorities. If he deliberately tries to get himself fired by loafing on the job, he is fined or sent to jail instead of being discharged.

That is what a skilled worker found recently. He was fined 300 marks ($120) when he admitted that he had shirked in order to be fired from a job he didn't like. The worker explained he wanted a change of work and could think of no other way to get out of his present job.

The court ruled in its decision that loafing is "injurious to the national honor" and endangers the success of the four-year plan.

Munday Takes 15 to 5 Drubbing At Rhineland

The Rhineland softballers, behind the eight-hit hurling of George "Lefty" Decker, soundly trounced the Munday team 15-5 in a game played before some 350 cheering fans last Sunday afternoon at Rhineland.

Decker was aided by some very brilliant support afield by his teammates, only two errors being charged up to them. Spectacular catches by the outfield save "Lefty" several tallies.

After Red Denham had held the Rhineland heavy artillery somewhat in check with his hopping fast ball, Rhineland batsmen greeted relief pitcher Strickland with a barrage of base hits, which included three home runs, Lennie, Louis and Dutch Kuehler each belted the ball far over the outfielders for the round-trippers. Lennie Kuehler's homer coming with two runners aboard.

Bob Couch, Donnell Ratliff, and Spec Denham each pounded out circuit clouts for Munday.

Rhineland plays manager Pete Reid's strong Weinert team next Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at Rhineland.

Strength in the Dark
 Two Irishmen were shown around a colliery for the first time. When they saw the coal coming up from the shaft from the pit, Mike remarked to his companion: "Sure, and I'd like to see the men who put those great lumps of coal in the skips. They must be terrible strong."
 "Don't be absurd," said Pat, "it's so dark down there they can't see what they are lifting."

To The Point
 Pat had received notice to move, from his landlord. Now, Pat was very fond of his house and most unwilling to leave it. So he took legal advice and was assured that according to his lease the landlord was not entitled to give him notice to leave.

Pat was very much pleased with his news, and went home to write a letter to his landlord. This is what he wrote:
 Dear Sir:—I remain
 Your truly,
 Pat

 Editor's Note: The following article on "Beauty Spots in Munday" was handed us by a high school student:
 As I look over the town of Munday I see that several improvements have been made since the beginning of the "Home Beautification and Improvement Contest."
 If you have passed Miss Shelley Lee's house lately, you have probably noticed a sweet odor. From the best I can find out this must be her honeysuckle in the back yard. It might be a good idea for you to investigate. While there notice the beautiful pansy bed.

I have also noticed that Mrs. Kirby Fitzgerald has an attractive little fishpond. Her flower beds are worth noticing, also.

Misses Maudé and Fannie Isbell have a beautiful flower bed in front of their house, on the north side of the porch. You should see their lovely tulip bed.

Mrs. Lyle Stodghill's garden is growing very fast. She has some good strawberries in it.

The whitewash on the trees and the new fence at the Pitzer Baker home has done a great deal toward improving the yard.

The pansy bed in front of Mrs. Fred Broach's home has a perfect setting against the green shrubs. The entire yard is a beautiful and inspiring sight.

NOTICE TO FARMERS AND GENERAL PUBLIC . . .

I have secured the services of Mr. Jack Boone, whom most of you became acquainted with while he was connected with our good friends, Fred Broach Implement Co., and the Guinn Hardware Co.

Most of you who know Jack, like myself, can vouch for him as being a hard worker, and he always gets the job done in a very satisfactory and high class manner.

Jack cordially invites all of his old friends and customers in a visit with him at any time.

The Freshmen have begun the study of Julius Caesar in English. Miss Darnell has made the play more interesting by letting the students read the different parts. In ancient history we have finished the book and have begun a review.

They say that all they're good for is to pucker up and bowl.

Every senior boy swears that he is a woman hater and stays it to all our affairs. They say if they should marry later they hope to have their heads examined.

They claim they're through with women. The good and the bad. Why they even shun every girl that they ever had!

They can say all the nonsense that they want to about girls having them in whirled. But did they ever say where our class would be without Senior Girls?

We, in speaking for the school, wish to commend our distinguished shorthand student, La Verne Darter, for her fine work even at the regional meet. Although La Verne won only fifth place with a 97.87 per cent accuracy average, we feel that LaVerne has really accomplished an honorary place. La Verne was very unfortunate in her being some distance from the director, and we are very proud of her doing this fine work.

Home Economics Report

At this time we wish to announce that on May 2 Sue Stodghill, Jo Nell Tidwell, and Lenore Longino, representing second year, first year, and third year classes, respectively, will leave for six glorious days in Galveston.

These girls were awarded this trip after two terms of diligent work. Their grand total of points towers above the other girls.

As yet a club representative has not been selected. A club representative is important to the club, and we are all hoping that some way this fourth girl can enjoy the trip. However, unless a large car goes, there will not be enough room. The present plans are that Mrs. Dillon will take her car. This will be something to be remembered by each girl who goes, and not one girl who has ever been to a State Rally will deny it.

6B News

We enjoyed the TB assembly program last Friday about the Ragatag Man.

We are still in need of some good little boys and girls, some that will go to Sunday School once in a while. Every room in the building is getting the flower but us. Let's do something about it.

In English we had very nice poems. We have finished our speller and are taking literature. We find it quite interesting.

Our report cards were fairly good but we could all do better. We have started unit 3 in history now.

We are sorry that Jack has been absent so much.

P.T.A. was held for the last time Tuesday and I fear that 6B won the dollar several months ago for the last time. Anyway, we are going to have our picnic.

We met on April 18 and 20, last week. We are working on our puppets now.

Abe had shot a man, and was sentenced to be electrocuted. On the morning of the execution the warden told him how sorry he was, and how it was going to cost the state $500 to electrocute him.

CHILD HEALTH DAY

May First has been proclaimed May Day-Child Health Day nationally by President Franklin D. Roosevelt, and State-wide by Governor W. Lee O'Daniel. The State Department of Health has been designated as the official agency to head the activities in Texas.

Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, has stated that May Day is in reality an entire week's activity centered on the health and welfare of children. Every group in Texas interested in children will hold special meetings, clinics, and other projects to promote public consciousness of the development needs of childhood, so that everyone will realize that "In the Health of its Children lies the Future of Texas."

Activities will vary in each community according to the existing problems and facilities. Many towns will make this their chief activity of the year and schools, churches, luncheon clubs and women's clubs will have special programs. Merchants will use special displays of children's clothes, toys, and health aids, and carry special newspaper advertising.

This is a splendid time for parents to have their babies and children immunized against diphtheria, small pox and typhoid fever. A thorough physical check-up is in order and should be followed by having corrections made of any physical defects. May Day gives you an opportunity to see that your child has a proper start along life's path and that proper safeguards are furnished him.

"Headquarters Areas" Providing Shelter For Quail Near Abilene

An experiment to determine if the quail population in the vicinity of Abilene can be increased by building "headquarters areas," or fenced shelters that provide the birds with sufficient food and shelter, already has progressed to the point where eventual success is indicated, and may turn out to be the key to better quail production in many other localities in West Texas.

Twenty such headquarters areas were constructed on a tract of 2,500 acres of pasture, cultivated and bottom lands, located south of Abilene and owned by an Abilene business concern, whose cooperation made the project possible. The business concern contributed the money necessary to build the shelters—about $200—and is cooperating in other respects.

The shelters ranging in size up to one-half acre each, were fenced to exclude cattle, planted to vegetation that would provide quail food, brushy wheat, and stocked with nest piles that afforded immediate "homes" for quail, as well as refuges in which they could hide from their natural enemies. The shelters, properly spaced in the tract, provided suitable habitats in an area that had not, up to that time, been attractive to many wildlife species because of severe food and cover deficiencies.

After the shelters had been constructed, the test came. Twenty-four bobwhite quail were placed in the demonstration area by the Game Commission. It remained to be seen whether the quail would make use of the shelters.

A few weeks passed and Charles E. Friley, Jr., game manager for that region who instigated and supervised the project, made an inspection tour of the headquarters areas, with Phil D. Goodrum, the Department's Director of Education and Research.

The wheat that had been planted was up. But more important, the bobwhites were making use of several of the shelters. They were eating the young wheat that had come up. It is possible that quail other than those released by the Commission will soon become aware of the sheltered areas and make them their home.

Because the quail population in the vicinity of Abilene is low, very little hunting will be allowed on the demonstration area next season. The Abilene business firm which is cooperating in the project has agreed to restrict the total take of quail on the demonstration area to 40 per cent of the total population next season. A census of the population will be taken by Game Manager Friley not more than four weeks before the hunting season opens to determine the population of the area. With this system of controlled hunting in effect, plenty of birds will be left for brood stock after the hunting season. During the hunting season all hunters will report their bags to an official of the cooperating business concern, and when the stated 40 per cent of the population has been removed, hunting will cease.

The quail that were released on the area were banded in order to permit Manager Friley to study the survival of the birds, their movement from one location to another, and other activities. Meanwhile a close check will be kept on each shelter to note the presence of wildlife species in general, and with a view of making changes in the vegetational setup if such seems necessary. It should be added that the farmers living on the demonstration area, who lease their property from the Abilene concern, are wholeheartedly in favor of the project, and have agreed to cooperate. They will widen fencerows along cultivated fields to provide additional food and cover where this practice will not seriously interfere with normal farming operations, and in other ways contribute to the project.

The project is being watched with great interest, because it is a splendid example of what can be done to increase wildlife species when city sportsmen and business men lend a helping hand.—Monthly Bulletin of the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission.

Angelo Takes Munday 6 to 5 In Boxing Bout

Bagwell Lost Bout To Give San Angelo The Edge Over Locals

Bagwell, from Rochester, lost but won last Friday night in the boxing bouts staged in San Angelo. He lost his bout, the final for the evening, to Truett Fulcher, Colorado boxing instructor, but won for himself a new name! "Two-Ton" Bagwell is the title placed on him by San Angelo's sports writer.

The count on squad decisions was 5 to 3 when Bagwell and Fulcher rounded out the evening with Bagwell dropping the decision.

Bobby Gibbs, San Angelo tissue-paper-weight, tagged a technical kayo on the 79-pound Herbert Stodghill.

Paperweight Milton Thompson of Munday won the verdict over Charles Bengé of San Angelo.

Munday Buck Meinzer mauled his way to a decision over Jimmy Gibbs.

Raymond Carden, 90-pounder, outscored Red Worley of San Angelo to continue up to par on his bouts.

Arlie Royce, 110, of San Angelo, received the judges' nod over Pete Gauntt, 104.

Hollis Brown of Munday won the decision over Harold Landers of San Angelo.

A whirlwind walloping brought a decision for Frank Thompson over Frank Dougherty. George Young of Angelo eked out a verdict over Troy Denham of Munday.

Troy Caldwell of Munday won a close decision over Juan Zamarripa, San Angelo Mexican.

Red Stevens of Munday lost a close one to Owen Smith of San Angelo.

Fourteen boys were taken to San Angelo, were treated royally, spent the night at the Naylor Hotel, and enjoyed their visit to the "wool capital" very much.

Firemen May See Bull Fights At Convention

Bull-fighters of Old Mexico will ask firefighters of Texas to judge which is the more dangerous of the two professions, if plans for the State convention of Firemen and Fire Marshals' materialize, according to information received this week by Chief H. C. Hawes of the local fire department.

The annual convention of the State Firemen's and Fire Marshals' Association of Texas will be held in the Lower Rio Grande Valley of Texas, with headquarters at Harlingen on June 13th, 14th and 15th.

"In view of the fact that Harlingen is but 25 miles distant from Old Mexico, the Valley Fire Chiefs, in charge of plans for entertainment and visitors expected for the annual convention, have started negotiations with officials in Matamoros, Tamaulipas, Mexico, just across the Rio Grande from Brownsville, Texas, to endeavor to arrange for one of Mexico's famous bull-fights to be staged in the Mexican city during the Texas firemen's convention," Sidney Kring, general chairman of the convention has announced.

"Regardless of whether we are able to arrange a bull-fight or not, we expect every delegate and visiting fireman in the Lower Rio Grande Valley will take advantage of the proximity to Old Mexico to cross the Rio Grande River several times during the convention in quest of curios and to view the quaint customs of the old city of Matamoros," Kring said.

Mexican officials and business men have assured Valley fire chiefs they will join with enthusiasm in the entertainment of visitors to the annual Texas Firemen's convention.

Registration Of Cars For March Shows Increase

Aggregate sales of both automobiles and trucks for the first three months of 1939 are far above those of last year, the data filed with the Bureau from thirteen representative counties revealed. Passenger car registrations gained 27.2 per cent over the first quarter of last year. Truck sales gained 21.6 per cent.

C. B. Goodwin and D. M. Wadlington were visitors in Lubbock last week-end.
