Peter Loran of Rhineland, who has served as president of the organization for several years, presided at the meeting. He was presented with a beautiful gold watch at the close of his tenure of office.

State Organizer Frank Overturf of Vernon gave a report of his work. Other officers of the state union include John Rice, Munday, vice president; Frank Overturf, Vernon, secretary-treasurer; Locke Lawrence, Iowa Park, chaplain.

C. R. Elliott, president of the Munday Chamber of Commerce, made a short address, welcoming the delegates to Munday.

Bonner Baker In Officers Training

On July 1st, 500 enlisted men of the United States Army reported at Fort Monmouth to attend the first officers' candidate school since the first World War. Among them was Bonner Z. Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Baker of Munday.

The course, which will last three months, will embrace such subjects as communications, map reading, drill, chemical warfare and other courses pertinent to the signal corps. Those men who successfully complete the course, will, on October 1st, be commissioned as second lieutenants in the signal corps reserve and will be available for duty in all arms of service.

The students for this course, who are mostly non-experienced officers, were chosen on their records for efficiency and ability in leading men.

WEED GROWS THROUGH IRISH POTATO

Something unusual in gardening was exhibited here on Thursday morning by Jack Frazier, who farms in the Vera community.

Mr. Frazier brought to town an Irish potato through which had grown the roots of a fly weed. His children found this unusual "plant" while gathering potatoes Thursday morning. Indications are that the potato did not grow around the weed's roots, but the roots grew through the potato.

The exhibit looks very much like fly weeds had begun producing potatoes in the Vera community.

Gains Votes

The new U.S. Senator, W. Lee O'Daniel, gained votes instead of losing them in the official tabulation last Monday by the state election board. Official returns showed that O'Daniel had nosed out Congressman Lyndon Johnson by 1,311 votes out of more than 500,000 cast for a score of candidates in the race.

The pastor has been preaching to larger crowds this week, and interest in the revival continues to grow. Record crowds are expected for Sunday's services which will mark the close of this meeting.

The public is cordially invited to attend all the remaining services of the revival.

Funeral For Mrs. R. B. Davy Is Held Sunday

Long months of suffering ended for Mrs. R. B. Davy, beloved resident of Munday, last Saturday afternoon at about five o'clock when the death angel called her to her eternal reward.

Mrs. Davy had been in poor health for several years, and her strength gradually failed until she was confined to her home during recent months.

Miss Annie Arabelle Duckworth was born December 11, 1882, in Sardin, Tenn. She was married to R. B. Davy on February 9, 1898, and to this union three children were born, two of whom, Mrs. Lillie Mae Owens and Jennings Wilson Davy, preceded her in death. Mrs. Davy was 58 years, 7 months and 1 day of age when death came.

She was converted and united with the Methodist church at the age of eleven years, and was faithful to this Christian faith until her death. Her health did not permit her to attend church during recent years, but she loved to talk of the church and learn of the work her church was doing. Mrs. Davy was known and loved by hundreds of Knox county people.

City Water Is Now Ready For Consumption

Announcement was made Tuesday by Riley B. Harrell, city secretary, that Munday's water supply is now safe for use for domestic purposes.

The water supply was chlorinated Monday, and the water was declared "fit" for drinking purposes again. The regular chlorinator has not been repaired, and this work was done by hand last Monday. A thorough job was done, however, and Munday residents are assured the water may be used without boiling.

Munday citizens will welcome this news, as all drinking water has been boiled or secured at other places for the past several weeks.

Ayers To Begin Work Here Next Week

A. Y. Ayers, Vocational Agriculture teacher in the Hale Center Public Schools, was elected Vocational Agriculture for the Munday Public Schools at a meeting of the board of education here Friday evening.

Mr. Ayers has been teacher of vocational work in the Hale Center schools the past four years. He will move here Friday of this week to begin duties in the newly-founded department. Mr. Ayers is married and has a three-year-old daughter.

The new department will be fully equipped in the near future, according to Supt. Colley, with tables, reference books, magazines, and other materials required by the Vocational Education Department.

All boys in high school are eligible the first year in the vocational work; at least 36 are needed to establish a full time department. Perhaps no other subject is used more on the outside with patrons of the community and section taking part than will the new subject. Part of the program includes a Future Farmers of America chapter here.

The department is being established by the schools here with no additional expense other than equipping the department. Part of the teacher's salary is paid by the Federal Government, and the teacher is made available here largely through state aid which the school gained aid through the Equalization Fund the past year.

Boys interested in beginning the Vocational Agriculture work this summer for projects they will use the coming year on a twelve month basis should contact Mr. Ayers early next week.

Attorney General Gerald Mann, who ran third in the election, was not present.

A total of 575,879 votes were cast in the special election and was shared by the candidates as follows:

What He Does For His Community Lives On and On"—

A BASIC RIGHT IS RE-AFFIRMED

We've heard a lot about the "right to strike" in this country during the past few years. It has been set up as an absolute privilege, and along with it has gone the implication that anyone who wanted to work if others were on the picket line was opposing the "right to strike."

Little or nothing was heard during this same period concerning the "right to work." And so the individual with no grievance against his employer and with a desire to go on peacefully earning his living frequently fell victim to the "right to strike" doctrine. He might be barred by force from his machine, he might be forced into "joining up" against his will, and in any case his basic right to work where and when he chose was ignored.

Defense has pointed up this issue as perhaps never before in our history. For surely there is no right that should be more sacrosanct than that of an American to work for the national security. And in certain strikes in defense plants, there are indications that many of the men concerned were confused as to whether the right to work was really theirs.

In a much-needed statement, the Board of Directors of the National Association of Manufacturers recently affirmed once again the lately-neglected principle of the right to work. After calling attention to the "spectacle of American workers in defense industries being coerced . . . into joining labor organizations not of their own choice as the price of a job," the statement went on to say:

"Denial by government, by employers, by other employees or by anyone of the worker's right to work is un-American and a long step towards dictatorship."

With the needs of national defense calling the country to maximum production, and with every last bit of skilled labor desperately in demand, any plan or effort to prevent workmen from contributing to defense because of non-membership in a given organization is hardly in the best interests of the nation as a whole. It is this important truth that is the core of the matter, and which makes the N.A.M. statement both timely and worth heeding.

BACK IN HARNESS

It all started with a small but unusual newspaper advertisement:

"WANTED—Machinists, lathe and shaper hands, 55 years of age or over."

Back of that classified ad lies another dramatic story of national defense—a tale of special skills and abilities recaptured and put to work serving the national welfare in an hour when all our available strength and cunning is needed for the tasks that lie ahead.

The story begins with the problems of a man named Clayton Hough, who as manager of a large rivet-manufacturing company was faced with the problem of handling heavy army, navy and marine corps contracts. But the supply of available skilled laborers was running short. So Hough went looking for men who had served industry well in the past, and who were now in retirement. And they have responded to his call.

At the present time, Hough's company turns out more than two million rivets and 500,000 metal stamping daily. Helping with this work for national defense are 20 per cent of all his employees who are in the latter part of middle age. One of the men is 72 years of age and was a machinist during the Spanish-American War. A number of others did similar work in the World War.

The company gives the men a "brushing-up period" while they do simple jobs to get the feel of the work again. Then they pitch in with the real work. Hough places great dependence upon all of them. "I think these old fellows will stay with me longer than young men," he says. "Young men are restless, want new experiences. These fellows look permanent."

The picture of older workmen, pensioners, peeling off their "smoking jackets" and putting on their pair of overalls because the country needs their services is another inspiring example of how a free country goes about doing a big job. As long as the American fibre proves as tough and adaptable as this, we can have little fear that the nation's defenses will not remain secure.

Buenos Aires police dispersed a group who were serenading a 22-year-old bridegroom and his 70-year-old bride, explaining that they might make the old lady nervous.

To obtain money for an operation, Joe Dale, editor of the Lawrence County, Miss., News, published a front page request urging all delinquents to pay up their subscriptions.

The total output of alloy steels last year exceeded by nearly 60 per cent the 1939 production of 3,212,000 tons, and was 12 per cent above the previous peak of 4,432,000 tons produced in 1929.

Production of alloy steels in the United States during 1940 rose to a new peak of 4,966,000 net tons, according to the American Steel and Iron Institute.

GAMBLING WITH DEATH

The Grim Reaper, Death, took as its toll the lives of over six hundred people over the nation during the Fourth of July celebration. Of the amount, a big per cent of the deaths were due to automobile accidents.

It appears that, regardless of all the laws enacted and placed on the statute books to safeguard the lives of those who ride in the auto, the accidental death rate keeps climbing from year to year. Even though the highways have their patrolmen and their roadside warnings of danger ahead, there apparently is a desire on the part of lots of car drivers to gamble with death.

We are sometimes made to wonder if the many roadside warnings of danger would not be more effective if they were made to read, "speed her up and break your neck." By nature we are all, more or less, overgrown children, and lots of us resent the idea of being told or warned not to do a thing. It is still a question as to whether or not Adam and Eve, back in the garden, would have partaken of the forbidden fruit if they had not been told death would be the penalty. They gambled and lost.

CLEVELAND'S FOUNDER

Because an editor's type didn't fit the intended heading of his newspaper, the spelling of the name of Cleveland, Ohio, was permanently changed according to a recent writer. The town was originally Cleaveland, named after Moses Cleaveland, who was its founder and who was born in 1754 and died in 1806.

When the Advertiser was established in 1830, the editor found the line of type he desired to use as a heading was too long for the page, so he omitted the silent "a" from Cleaveland's name. The new spelling was soon adopted generally and has been used ever since.

Moses Cleaveland was graduated from Yale in 1777 and served in the Continental Army, later practicing law in his native town of Canterbury, Conn. In 1796 he led a surveying expedition for a land company in which he was a shareholder, and also negotiated with the Indians along the Great Lakes in the Western Reserve country.

On July 22, 1796, he selected the present location of the city as a site for a permanent settlement and his party named it in his honor. Cleveland is now the sixth city of the United States in size, with a population of about 900,000.

Because defective teeth constitute the principal cause of draft rejections, the findings of the Murry and Leonie Guggenheim Dental Clinic as to the care of teeth are of especial importance at this time.

The Clinic, which has been operating for nearly 12 years in New York City, gives free dental treatment to children whose parents are unable to pay for dental work. Last year 10,610 child patients were treated at the Clinic, with a total of 82,343 visits. "A disquieting feature," the report says, "is the finding that the average number of cavities per recalled patient has been increasing for several years," and Dr. John Oppie McCall, director, points out that the Clinic has reached the following conclusions:

(1) Dental treatment should begin at not later than two years of age.

Contrary to popular notion the condition of the first teeth of a child is of great importance, both for general health and for the condition of the permanent teeth.

(2) No completely successful program of preventive dentistry has been developed.

The expectation that early cleaning and repair work would prevent future caries (dental decay) was inaccurate. The cleaning and repairing work, nevertheless, is very effective in preventing malocclusions (irregularity of teeth), gum infections and actual loss of teeth.

Perhaps the most important factor in preventing dental decay is diet—more fruits and greens and less white, sugar, white flour, and sweets generally.

SHELTERBELTS AS AIR-CONDITIONERS

College Station—On hot sunny days following rainy spells, the interior of a green shelterbelt may vary as much as 20 degrees from a thermometer reading in the sun several hundred yards away, says W. E. Webb, state director of the Prairie States Forestry Project, whose headquarters are in northwestern Texas.

"When the thermometer reads 90 degrees in the sun, the green canopy often cools the temperature to 70 degrees under the trees," he explains. Many of the belts planted in 1936, 1937, and 1938 make ideal picnic spots. Cottonwoods and some Chinese elms are now 15 to 30 feet high and provide excellent shade while the green protective walls of shrubs and field rows keep the hot wind out.

DONT DUMP CULL TOMATOES

College Station—Tomatoes classed as culls during the green wrap deal have a monetary value, says J. F. Roosborough, A. and M. College Extension Service horticulturist.

Instead of "dumping" them, as frequently has been done, Roosborough suggests that if growers will take them home and spread them under a canopy, the tomatoes will turn bright red in three to five days and can be used for home canning or sold to commercial canneries. The canopy can be made from a cold frame sheet, muslin cloth, old sacks or brush and should be placed five to six feet above the ground. Other methods of shading while the tomatoes are coloring may be easily figured out. Cool shade is the main requirement.

At this time in the nation's history, when respect and allegiance to the flag are more important than ever before, it would be a splendid idea for the average citizen too brush upon the Oath of Allegiance to the flag and renew his memory to the correct flag etiquette. I GIVE YOU TEXAS

By Boyce House

A noted Texas criminal lawyer was defending a man accused of stealing an automobile.

"This boy," the perspiring advocate said in conclusion, "is as innocent as a new-born babe; he is as pure as the dewdrop that sparkles at morn on the petal of a rose."

While the jury was deliberating the attorney went over to his hotel room to put on a fresh shirt and when he felt for his watch, he remembered that he had put it on the table in court so he would not speak beyond his allotted time. Hurrying back to the courtroom, he found only two or three spectators and the only man inside the rail was his client—and the watch was not there.

The lawyer said, "Bill, you thieving blankety-blank, give me my watch!"

(As a matter of fact the attorney's partner had taken charge of the time-piece.

All the testimony had been submitted in a murder trial out in West Texas. The judge told the lawyers for both sides:

"There will be no time limit for argument; each lawyer can take as long as he wishes."

One attorney, noted for his booming voice and his liking for speech-making, said:

"From here on, it's a battle of wits."

"You're half right," murmured this columnist, at the press table.

About people you know:

Tom King, who recently completed, is leaving Austin and returning to Dallas, his former home, to re-engage in his profession of public accounting.

E. F. Woodward, retired Houston oil man, owns one of the largest thoroughbred breeding establishments in the United States, at Hondo. Thirty colts and 23 fillies were foaled this spring. Woodward is one of the best marksmen in Texas, recently hitting 199 out of 200 targets in the state trapshoot.

Rep. Mack Allison of Stephenville has made a remarkable record for a first-termer, being author of an orchard and nursery bill, which assures the public stock free from disease, author of a bill for two new dormitories at John Tarleton College and of three bills affecting Hood and Erath counties.

He supported the omnibus tax bill, truck load limit bill, anti-strike bill and the bill helping the farmers by clarifying the carriers' act. This columnist used to know Rep. Allison as a rural school teacher in Eastland County, and a mighty enterprising one.

A reader sends in the following, asserting that is actually a copy of a Texas Dutchman's will probated.

HOW'S YOUR COOKY JAR FARING?

In speaking of changing conditions in the world today, a woman remarked the other day that "a full cooky jar" is one American institution she hopes will endure.

Certainly there is something wonderfully homey and reassuring about a cooky jar that's always ready to yield a handful of delicious cakelets for any and every occasion. Cookies to serve with lemonade on the porch. Cookies for an impromptu picnic. Cookies to enjoy with a glass of cold milk when one comes into the house worn out from a day's shopping or from working in the garden. Cookies to help solve the dessert problem by being there to offer with fresh fruit.

Warm Weather Cookies

So I hope that none of us will lapse just because the days are warm and let our cooky jars go empty. Really, when you think of it, this is the season when there are all sorts of delicious cookies we can make with the odds and ends of sour milk or cream that accumulate in our refrigerators.

Can Use Sour Milk If You Have It

For instance, here's a recipe for delicious old-fashioned chewy cookies flavored with brown sugar and coconut. We used to call them Washboards when I was young. Do you remember them . . . with the ridges that looked like a washboard on them?

Not only do they "go well" with lemonade . . . but because you can make them with hot water . . . or sour milk or buttermilk for liquid . . . the recipe is a handy one to have right now.

|---|--|
| 1 cup shortening (half butter for flavor) | or buttermilk                                      |
| 2 cups brown sugar (packed in cup)        | 1 cup chopped or finely cut moist shredded coconut |
| 2 eggs                                    | 1 tsp. vanilla                                     |
| 1 tsp. soda                               | 4 1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour                |
| 1/4 cup hot water or sour milk            | 1/2 tsp. salt                                      |
|   | 1 1/2 tsp. baking powder                           |

Cream the shortening, add the sugar gradually, and cream thoroughly. Blend in well beaten eggs. Add soda to liquid and blend into creamed mixture. Blend in coconut and vanilla. Mix well. Sift the flour, salt and baking powder together and blend into coconut mixture. Mix well. Chill thoroughly to make dough easier to handle.

Form Into Balls

Form into balls the size of a walnut. Flatten each ball with fingers into oblong shape on an ungreased baking sheet . . . leaving a space of 1 inch between cookies. The dough should be almost 1/4 inch thick to make thick cookies. Then press each cooky lengthwise with tines of a fork to resemble a washboard. Or for more perfect shapes, press dough through cooky press or pastry bag.

Bake about 8 to 10 minutes in a moderate hot oven, 400° F. When cool, store in an air-tight container if you want the cookies to be "chewy" the next day. This recipe makes about 7 dozen cookies, 2 by 3 inches in diameter.

Betty Crocker KITCHEN CLINIC

Prepared for Your Newspaper by Betty Crocker Home Service Department

NO LAST MINUTE PANIC IN THIS MENU

"I'm having my husband's family for dinner" a bride told me the other day. "So, of course, I want everything awfully good... and not too complicated for me to handle."

Then she explained that her biggest problem in getting a dinner was the way everything seemed to get done at the same time and need immediate attention. She said it threw her into "a complete panic."

So we decided that a baked casserole main dish would relieve her of considerable "dishing up" at the last minute. Therefore we chose ham and potatoes baked in milk... and built this menu around it:

Ham and Potatoes Baked in Milk
Buttered Green Beans
Lemon flavored Gelatin Salad with Grated Raw Carrots and Crushed Pineapple
Graham Gems

Apple Pie
The salad could be made the day before... and the pie earlier on the day of the party. While the meat and potato dish would be baking serenely in the oven she could get her beans ready and cooking on top of the stove. The ham and potatoes could be kept hot on the back of the stove while the gems were baking in the hot (400° F.) oven.

HAM AND POTATOES BAKED IN MILK

1 two-lb. slice of ham (about 1 1/2 inch thick) 1/2 tsp. mustard
6 potatoes 1 cup milk
2 cups milk

Parboil the ham by covering it with cold water, bringing it to a boil, and pouring off the water. Place the parboiled ham in a large heavy skillet or shallow baking dish. Surround with the potatoes, peeled and cut in two. Sprinkle mustard over the ham and paprika over the potatoes. Cover with the milk and bake about 1 1/4 hours in a slow moderate oven, 325° F.

This dish yields 6 servings.

GRAHAM GEMS

1 cup sifted all-purpose flour 1 cup whole wheat flour
2 tsp. baking powder 1 egg
1/2 tsp. salt 1 cup milk
1/4 cup sugar 1/2 cup melted shortening

Sift together the white flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Blend in the whole wheat flour.

Beat the egg well, blend in the milk, and stir into the dry ingredients. Blend in the melted shortening. Now pour the mixture into 12 medium-sized well-greased muffin cups, filling each cup 3/4 full.

Bake in a moderately hot oven, 400° F. for 25 minutes.

Yes Sir! It's Cotton

At the lakeshore or by the seaside, this new cotton seersucker bathing suit with bare midriff is ideal for 1941 vacations. Large tropical flowers lend to the attractiveness of the outfit.

Vera Club Meets With Mrs. Patterson Wednesday, July 19th

The Vera home demonstration club met on Wednesday, July 9, with Mrs. Henry Patterson. The motto was: "The lady we call well dressed always wears a dress that is pressed."

Members and visitors had a round table discussion on improvements to be made in their clothes storage. The ladies who had adequate storage described how their proper storage for clothing had been provided.

Ice cream and cake were served to twelve members and a number of visitors.

Mrs. Ralph Beddell will entertain the club with a tea on July 23 at three p.m. The membership and attendance contest will be finished and the time decided for the picnic. Every member is urged to bring a report of her sewing and canning. A report of what each member had entered in the hobby show must also be in at this time.

Announce Plans For Consumption of Fresh Peaches

Plans for a public-spirited co-operative effort to increase the consumption of fresh peaches during the period of July 24th through July 30th, were announced today by David G. Guthrie, area representative of the Surplus Marketing Administration, U.S. Department of Agriculture.

He stated that the Georgia Association of Peach Growers, the South Carolina Peach Growers Association and the North Carolina Mutual Peach Growers Society, who have combined marketing efforts through the Georgia-Carolina Peach Marketing Board, are among the co-operative growers' organizations. The Food Trades Industry are also cooperating with the United States Department of Agriculture in this effort to increase the home-consumption of fresh peaches and make the best possible use of our abundant peach crop.

"Fresh peaches in season are one of the most popular fruits on the American market," he said. "This year's crop is believed to be the finest and largest in many years. Fresh peaches are one of the important protective foods listed as a 'Blue Stamp Item' by the Secretary of Agriculture. It is the aim of the Surplus Marketing Administration to aid the growers, consumers and industry of America by encouraging increased consumption of these needed commodities."

He added that this cooperative educational campaign will augment the Food Stamp Plan under which fresh peaches and other basic health-protecting foods are available to needy families by means of Food Stamps, at this time.

One of the aims of the campaign will be to encourage home canning and preserving. This is in accord with the objectives of the National Defense Conservation and Nutrition program, which urges adequate food supplies.

Miss Rozelle Jones of Weinert, accompanied by her cousin, Miss Jeanete Milam of Eliasville, went to Abilene last Monday to join an aunt, Mrs. Wm. Steadman of Fort Worth, for a trip to California and the west coast.

District Game Warden Fletcher Cole of Paducah was in the city on official business Wednesday.

Farmers Can Dispose of Cotton To Comply With Cotton Stamp Program

It is permissible for Knox county cotton producers to dispose of cotton to comply with the supplementary cotton program to bring their acreage reduction in line with the reduction indicated on their intention sheets, August Schumacher, chairman of the Knox County AAA committee, has announced.

This is made possible, Mr. Schumacher explained, by the recent amendment to the 1941 agricultural conservation program, which provides that acreage will not be considered as planted to cotton if the cotton is disposed of before reaching the bolling stage or within 10 days after notice of the seeded acreage is given, whichever is later.

"Under no circumstances, however, may a cotton producer receive cotton stamps for reducing more acreage than he signed on his original intention sheet on the cotton stamp program," Mr. Schumacher pointed out.

"To make this ruling clearer," Mr. Schumacher said, "assume just for illustration to bring out my point, that a cotton producer has a 1941 cotton allotment of fifty acres, planted 50 acres in 1940, and, to receive cotton stamps, indicated a reduction of 2 acres. This would permit 48 acres to be planted to cotton for this year. However, when the cotton acreage was measured, he showed 49 acres to be planted. He would be allowed to dispose of one acre to come within his intended 48 acres but he would not receive cotton stamps on more than 2 acres, since this was the amount signed on his original intention sheet."

Under the original definition of cotton, the acreage of cotton disposed of below the acreage allotment would still be classified as acreage planted to cotton.

The amendment also provides that if cotton is seeded but does not reach maturity, the smaller of (1) the acreage seeded to cotton, (2) 3 acres, or (3) 3 per cent of the 1941 cotton allotment will be considered as having been planted to cotton. The provision was made, the AAA official pointed out, so that farms will not show zero acres of cotton when cotton was actually seeded.

The new amendment also permits producers to dispose of cotton acreage to come within total-soil-depleting acreages. By this method, deductions for over planting total soil-depleting allotments will be avoided.

"It might be advisable," August Schumacher, chairman of the Knox County AAA committee, has announced, "that in cases where the Knox county cotton producers will suffer total or partial loss of their 1941 cotton crops because of excessive rains, insects or abandonment, to dispose of the acreage on which cotton will not be harvested."

In explaining this point, Mr. Schumacher said that a high acreage of cotton with a low lint yield per acre because of factors such as these will, in all probability, affect yields on individual farms under the 1942 agricultural conservation program and probably will have a direct effect on cotton insurance since an extremely low yield might affect premium rates.

Producers should remember, however, the AAA official continued, that acreage will be considered as planted to cotton this year if the cotton is not disposed of before it reaches the bolling stage or within 10 days after notice of the seeded acreage is given, whichever is later.

This would not change the basis for cotton stamps to be issued on a farm since cotton stamps cannot be obtained on more acres than was shown on the original intention sheet.

The fruit variety orchard at the Nacogdoches Experiment Station contains 301 peach varieties. Hundreds of farm people inspected these varieties, 230 of which were then bearing, during a recent fruit day program held at the station.

Soil erosion has cut the useful life of more than 20 per cent of the water supply reservoirs of the United States to less than 50 years, says H. H. Bennett, chief of the soil conservation service. Another 25 per cent will be lost in 50 to 150 years.

Records made in cotton-insect laboratories of the U. S. Department of Agriculture indicate that more boll weevils emerged from hibernation last spring than during any recent year.

A new process for making cotton and other fabrics mildew-resistant has been developed in the Bureau of Home Economics a public service patent issued to the research worker who developed the treatment will make the process available to anyone without royalty payment.

Mrs. Doyle Bowen returned home Wednesday after several days visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Pointer of Rochester.

Marine Corps Has Volunteers

With registration of the second group of young men who have reached the age of 21 since the first registration, many of them have already volunteered for service in the U.S. Marine Corps. These young men may enlist in the Marines for either the four year period or in the Reserve for the duration of the national emergency, after which they will be immediately discharged.

The Headquarters Recruiting District of Dallas announced today they would open a temporary office in the Post Office for five days, from July 21st to 25th, in each of the following named places, to accept applications for enlistment in the Marines: Vernon and Wichita Falls, Texas.

While in the above named places, the recruiting officer will accept an unlimited number of applications for enlistment, and men who pass examinations given in these places, will be furnished transportation to Dallas, where final examinations are given and enlistment is accomplished. From Dallas men enlisted will be transferred to the Marine Corps Base at San Diego, California where after about eight weeks of training, they will be further transferred to all branches of the Marine Corps. Many choices are available to men who enlist now, including aviation, tank units, parachute troops, infantry, artillery, sea duty aboard battleships and cruisers, foreign duty, and many schools for actual shop training.

Parents of young men are invited to visit the recruiting officer, so the advantages of the Marine Corps may be explained to them also.

OPTICAL TECHNIQUE

A gentleman in the optical business was instructing his son in the finer art of chiseling a fair and honest price out of a customer. He said: "Son, after you have fitted the glasses to a customer, and the customer asks what the charge is, you say:

"The charge is ten dollars."

"Then pause and watch for the flinch."

If the customer does NOT flinch you say: "That's for the frames, the lenses will be another ten dollars."

"Then you pause again—but this time just slightly—and again you watch for the flinch."

"If the customer does not flinch you say, 'each'."

SUDAN CATTLE FOR SALE

We have 115 head of cattle for sale which we consider entirely suitable for grazing on sudan grass. They are thin steer yearlings we imported from the Republic of Mexico.

We have proved to our entire satisfaction that this type of cattle do well in this section and that THEY MAKE MONEY. They come here thin in flesh, but they are healthy... they go through the most rigid inspection when they cross our border. We find they are excellent grazers, and do well on almost any kind of grazing. Being thin, they put on weight very rapidly.

They are not cheap, but compared to other cattle, they are moderate in price. We have two classes of these little steers... plain cattle at $34 per head, and the very best bred Herefords, comparing favorably with native Herefords, at $46 per head.

These cattle can be seen at our ranch, which is located 22 miles west of Benjamin, Texas, and 13 miles east of Guthrie, Texas. They are gentle, handle easily, and can be seen from a car.

Not less than one truck load will be sold at the time. We will reserve the right absolutely, and without any change whatever, to sort the cattle to you if you buy less than all of them. If you buy one or more truck loads, we will use every effort we can to see that you get an average of the cattle.

Weekly Health

Issued by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, M.D., State Health Officer of Texas

Austin, Texas—If your work is such that it causes excessive perspiration, add a pinch of ordinary table salt to each drink of water you take to help prevent the heat cramps. This is advised by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer to prevent a possible increase in the number of heat victims as the Texas thermometer hits 95 degrees and above.

Laborers, farmers, mechanics and white-collar workers whose work causes them to sweat profusely, are in danger of having their body salt content become deficient with resulting body cramps or heat lag. Salt is a prominent constituent of sweat; the body may lose as high as 40 to 50 grams of salt during hot days.

In industry, a method of preventing heat cramps is to take a tablet of pure salt or a mixture of salt and dextrose with each drink of water. Workmen whose duties require extra muscular exertion should be especially careful to add more than the usual amount of salt to what they eat and drink.

Salt deficiency may be prevented in various ways. Where prepared tablets are not available, table salt may be added to each drink of water. Milk is a source of salt and will help to make up for the deficiency caused by sweating. Alcoholic drinks should be avoided.

Heat cramp is characterized by pains, cramps, in the abdominal region, headaches, and in severe cases nausea and vomiting. The body's temperature remains about normal, likewise the pulse rate; body salt losses occur without the knowledge of the individual until there is a deficiency; then the abdominal muscles begin to cramp.

Drive to Secure Old Aluminum For National Defense to Start July 21st

Austin, Texas — Supplementing a previous letter to the 254 county judges of Texas, asking for their leadership in various phases of the civilian defense program in Texas, Governor W. Lee O'Daniel, as the chairman of the National Defense Committee for Texas, today sent further details of the aluminum collection campaign plans to these officials.

The governor was named by Mayor F. H. LaGuardia, Director of Civilian Defense, as chairman for the campaign in Texas. He immediately designated the county judges as leaders for their respective areas and requested the judges to ask mayors of incorporated towns and cities to serve as chairmen for their localities.

In cooperation with the Governor's office, H. H. Williamson, Director, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, requested the county agents to offer their services to the county judges in connection with the collection plans for rural areas.

The purpose of the campaign, as communicated to the Governor by Mayor LaGuardia, is to help remedy a temporary shortage of aluminum in national defense production by conducting a nation wide campaign for donations of used aluminumware. Scrap aluminum in large volume is required to prevent a slow down in the defense program.

No aluminum collected in this campaign can be used for non-defense purposes, by virtue of a priorities order effective June 10. An attempt will be made to canvass every house in the nation to ask housewives to donate the used aluminumware which can be spared without replacement.

The house-to-house canvass and collection will take place July 21 to 29 inclusive. Aluminum so collected will be deposited in central bins, such as fire stations, or other designated places; then taken to the yards of waste dealers for sorting, classifying and baling; then shipped to smelters.

The waste dealers have been asked as a patriotic service to contribute their supervision and facilities without profit, the Governor was advised.

The metal will be sold to the smelters at a special uniform price fixed by the Government. Smelters will pay directly by check to "National Scrap Aluminum Fund," care of the nearest Federal Bank. The entire net proceeds will be available to the Office of Civilian Defense, and any expenditures required for the proper defense of the civilian population.

Those wishing to participate in the collection of the aluminum may communicate with the mayors of their towns or with the county judges.

The following have been selected by County Judge J. C. Patterson to serve Knox County in their respective communities.

Benjamin, J. B. Moorhouse and H. T. Melton; Truscott, Orzie Turner and Jack Whitaker; Gilliland, H. M. Baird and E. Paul Horne; Vera, J. G. Thompson and W. F. Roberson; Goree, F. G. Daniels and Tom Cowsar; Munday, J. M. Terry and Riley B. Harrell; Knox City, C. C. Hoge and Roy Baker; Rhineland, John J. Hoffman and August Schumacher.

Texas Trails In USO Quotas

Dallas.—Texas, one of the most favored states of all in the receipt of defense contracts and training camps, is trailing in the raising of its USO quota of $400,000, according to reports in the office of E. B. Germany, regional chairman, in Dallas. Germany is campaign chairman over four states, Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana and Arkansas have gone over the top.

Due to a political campaign and other insurmountable obstacles, the closing date of the fund-raising campaign has been extended until July 15, at which time Chairman Germany hopes to announce Texas has oversubscribed its quota. Congressional districts 2, 3, 4, 13, 14 and 15 are one hundred per cent organized and reporting their quotas practically finished.

A German purge of a year ago brought out a USO worker in a Panhandle county that went well over its quota. This worker made a patriotic speech before the student body of one of his county high schools. Later his mother was reported a victim of the German Gestapo. He had come to America several years ago. He has prospered and he was thankful to the land of his adoption for the freedom and liberty it had granted him—an adopted son. His aged mother remained in Germany.

TEXAS OUT-DOORS

Austin, Texas—Replying to numerous inquiries concerning dates for the opening of the dove season, and for dove hunting regulations, the executive secretary of the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission has announced that definite information cannot be furnished immediately, due to the fact that federal regulations on mourning and white-wing doves have not yet gotten released. The state law was set during the recent session of the legislature. It is hoped that federal seasons and regulations will conform.

The seasons and regulations as established by state law must not be confused with federal regulations, which probably will be announced within a month. State regulations are somewhat different than they were last year. The shooting in the northern zone will start Sept. 1 and end October 31. The remainder of the state, with the exception of a section in Southwest Texas, will shoot from Sept. 15 to Nov. 15. In the southwest area of Webb, Zabata, Starr, Hidalgo, Wilacy and Cameron Counties the season will be shorter. It opens Sept. 15 and closes a month later, on Oct. 15, and the hunting will be allowed only on Sundays, Tuesdays and Thursdays. The shorter season and staggered shooting of only three days each week was deemed necessary to help the white-wing doves, which are more scarce than the mourning doves. A small area near the border has been made a sanctuary and no hunting will be allowed there.

In the six-county area of south west Texas, hunting will be allowed only from noon to sunset. In the remainder of the state hunting will be legal from 7 a. m. until sunset.

The daily bag limit is twelve white-wings or mourning doves or an aggregate of 12 of both. The possession limit is the same as the daily bag limit. Shotguns larger than 10 gauge are prohibited and all shotguns used in dove hunting must be plugged to a three-shell capacity. However, the Game Department is reminding hunters that these are state regulations and the federal regulations to be announced may differ.

Fish Didn't Have a Chance
A six-pound yellow cat which lived in the Llano River proved too piggy for his own good, and, as a result, honors of catching him go to two youngsters. The fish took both their hooks at about the same time.

The boys, Vernon Gavitt, 11, and Jim Merkel, 12, were fishing in the river in the city of Llano. They were using pole and line. Suddenly each felt a jerk on his line and he started hauling it in. They soon found the same catfish had hooks from each line firmly embedded into its mouth. The boys, according to the Austin, American Statesman, nearly lost the fish when one line broke when the cat was near the bank. Young Merkel grabbed the prize with his hand and received several bad cuts from the fish's fins.

Ticks Killing Deer
Ticks are so thick in the piney woods of east Texas that they are killing deer this summer, a biologist of the Game Department has reported to the executive secretary.

Keepers of several hunting club resorts along the Neches River are finding fawns killed by ticks. It is not unusual to find deer so decimated by ticks that these deer can easily be run down by dog or man. In other instances, ticks create open sores, particularly around the ears and eyelids. These sores are easily infected with screw worms and eventually result in the death of the deer.

Gulf Has Sailfish Sport
How plentiful are sailfish in the Gulf of Mexico off Texas? That question is being pondered by experts on the coast. Several have reached the conclusion that there are many more of the sporty sail fish than it has been thought. They declare there has not been enough fishing for them to establish Texas Gulf Waters as a sailfish center. Royal Ferris' performance recently renewed talk of sailfish. The famous sportsman came in with a pair of huge sails recently. One measured seven feet, six inches and the other seven feet.

Pass Helps Fishing
The cutting of the pass through Padre Island at Murdock's Landing by the Game Department has produced another ideal spot for fishermen. Catches of trout, red and pike are rather constant at the pass, according to reports from the coast. The pass was cut by the Game Department's dredge, AE, to keep the lower Laguna Madre from becoming too saline for fish.

Thompson Voices Need for American War Preparedness

Sulphur Springs, Tex.—The loud warning that the fall of Russia will leave the United States but 100 miles away from Nazi airfields was voiced by Col. Ernest O. Thompson of the 11th Quartermaster Corps in an address to the Hopkins County Chamber of Commerce.

Modern military airfields are located in Russian territory within the distance from Alaska that Sulphur Springs lies from Dallas, he said, attempting to bring home to his audience the possibility of war touching the shores of this continent.

Moreover, he added, Hitler moves armies in 100 divisions at a time, while today America has only 37 divisions, scattered from New England to the Philippines.

"Suppose Hitler should attack Alaska through Russia, capture that country and come on down through Canada. Our frontier would be the Canadian border which for 100 years has had no fortifications.

"That peaceful border might become our battleground, unless we take prompt action which will be effective in preventing that assault ever to materialize. We can make this supreme effort now by every man, woman and child devoting his every waking thought to one supreme thing—adequate preparation to defend our country.

The defense program will "start going places" he asserted, when "we make up our minds that Hitler must be stopped and that the commander-in-chief and the heads of our war department are the ones to decide when and where to fight. The trouble is that everybody has been talking about business as usual, and trying to see how they could make some money out of this war effort.

He scolded "high-sounding talking of post-war economics." "There will not be any post-war business if we do not get busy. We must get ready to fight and we have really got to work to do it." He deplored the fact that Camp Bowie trainees were forced to simulate guns with firecrackers. "Can you imagine a great country like ours without ammunition?"

Turning out fighting men, he added, "is more than a matter of building strong muscles and strong bodies." Men have to be mentally prepared and when soldiers come out of training camps to find their civilian friends giving little or no thought to the war "he starts to wonder and he becomes confused.

"To be ready, America has to do more than put a musket on some other man's shoulder. We have got to get behind our boys in uniform and let them know we are behind them, 100 per cent. Give us more than your silent good wishes.

Thompson said, "No one can foretell the future, but we are more advanced for preparedness than we were in 1917, when Woodrow Wilson was in his campaign for effective National preparedness. Our President Roosevelt has guided the nation along the path of safety. We are on the pathway to the security of our ideals of democracy and liberty and freedom. Let's hope and now resolve to make our unity one hundred per cent.

"Start today doing our full part for national defense and security.

Lovers of West To Hold Reunion

Cowboys, Old Settlers Gather at Seymour On July 24-25

Seymour.—Cowboys, old settlers and all lovers of the West will flock to Seymour next week in record numbers for the 1941 edition of the Seymour Reunion and Rodeo, July 24-25.

Beginning with the old settlers' reunion Thursday morning, July 24, at 9:00 o'clock, the program will continue with daily street parades at 1:00 p. m., afternoon and night rodeo performances, sponsor contests and dances until a late hour Friday night, July 25.

I. O. Newton, president of the Baylor County Old Settlers Assn. has announced that Hon. Dayton Moses of Fort Worth, a former Archer County cowboy who was for many years general attorney for the Texas Cattle Raisers Assn., has been secured as chief speaker for the old settlers reunion. This will be at Seymour Municipal Park where everything is being arranged for the comfort and pleasure of the visiting pioneers.

The rodeo performances at 2:00 and 8:00 p. m. each day will be on the turf arena at Fair Park and will include saddle and bare-back bronc riding, steer riding, calf roping and bell roping. Rodeo committees have as their aim keeping the contests going at a rapid rate with no delays between appearances of contestants.

The feature special event will be the Spivey trained horse troupe from Graham, who will be on the program at each performance. Those who have seen this act are enthusiastic in their praise of it. The famous Throckmorton horse-back square dance, which has enjoyed universal acclaim the past two years, will be staged at both the night shows.

Two dances are to be held each night. Billy's Melody Five, KWFT radio artists, will play at the Lodge Hall just outside of town, and Janie Holman's Hotfooters will play at a big platform near the rodeo grounds.

The biggest prize list ever offered here, coupled with admission prices of 50c and 25c, with reserved seats of 25c, should draw a record number of both entrants and spectators.

"Here's What I Expect An Advertisement To Tell Me"

"Where Can I Buy It? Naturally, one of the first things I want to know about something I see in an ad is—where can I buy it? It isn't simply a matter of convenience and of saving time in planning my shopping, either! No, the name of the merchant, itself, often decides whether I buy or not. Invariably, you see, I give preference to stores whose ads I see regularly and often—I know these stores must have good value or they couldn't go on advertising year after year!

"What Will It Do For Me? I find it so much easier to make up my mind when the ad tells me facts about the merchandise! What is it? What will it do? How will it help me? Why do I need it? I want to know about color, weight, texture, material, style—I enjoy reading those things and I usually buy from the merchant who tells them to me.

"How Much Is The Price? Of course nearly every ad mentions the price, but if an item has been marked down I want to know from how much. So many sale ads say 'Was Higher' . . . how much higher? I want to know how much I am saving and I want the chance of deciding for myself if the item is a real value or not. I have more confidence in the store that is consistently truthful and buy from such a store regularly—and my husband says an old customer is worth three new ones because new ones cost money to get!"

Texans Helping In U.S. Defense

Austin, Texas.—While the eyes of America are focused on the tense situation in Europe, Texas is bending every effort to aid in National Defense. Daily this state becomes of greater importance to the whole National Defense Program.

Bombers, of the type most needed by England, are being built at Dallas and Fort Worth. Ammunition will soon be turned out in large volume by the plant now under construction at Texarkana; other articles of vital importance are being turned out daily by Texas industries. Large numbers of ships will soon be constructed in the new yards at Orange and Houston. American soldiers are being trained in modern warfare at Brownwood, Abilene, Mineral Wells, Palacios, San Antonio, El Paso and other cities. American Air Corps pilots are being taught flying, bombing, and aerial warfare at Randolph Field, the huge Naval Air Base at Corpus Christi, Victoria, Cuero, Brady, Corsicana and Stamford. Soon air schools will be completed at Lubbock, Midland, Coleman, Grayson County, and several other points in our state. Mechanics to service American planes will be trained in large numbers at Wichita Falls within the very near future.

Citizens of Texas are thinking in terms of Defense Bonds and Savings Stamps. They are anxious to help. They know that the Canadian people were asked recently to subscribe $600,000,000 to put over Canada's Victory Loan and that these friends on our North went over the top by buying $710,958,950 of these securities.

The Secretary of the Treasury, Henry Morgenthau, Jr., said: "Defense Savings Bonds and Stamps give us all a way to take a direct part in building the defense of our Country—an American way to find the billions needed for National Defense.

"The United States is today, as it has always been, the best investment in the world. This is an opportunity for each citizen to buy a share in America."

Munday Beats Vera Sunday By Score of 15-2

Munday's softball club took the Vera team to a cleaning last Sunday in a one-sided affair that resulted in a score of 15 to 2. The Munday lads "got to" the Vera pitcher for 15 hits to give them another win and keep them tied for second half of Knox County's softball schedule.

Munday's ace pitcher, Don L. Ratliff, marked up a not-hit game against Vera. He also got two home runs for two of Munday's 15 hits. Carver was the ace hitter Sunday with three hits and three runs. Everyone on the club was hitting good.

Munday plays next Sunday at Benjamin. The boys had a lot of ball fans over at Vera to help them win, and they're urging a good representation at Benjamin next Sunday. The boys say they won't fail you if you'll just come out and do your part.

Vitamin Value Of Peaches Stressed In Recent Campaign

Tasty, appetizing peaches... so good to eat and so good for you, will be the central attraction on most tables during the period of July 24th thru July 30.

During this period the Georgia-Carolina Peach Marketing Board and other organizations of the peach-producing industry, and the Food Trades Industry of the South are cooperating with the U. S. Department of Agriculture in a public-spirited campaign to increase consumption of fresh peaches by everyone.

It was pointed out that while food was rationed in war-torn Europe, we in America are faced with a different but serious problem.

"We are not eating enough of the basic health-protecting foods of which there is an abundance in this country," leaders said. "More than 40 per cent of our people are suffering from malnutrition in this land of plenty. And today, more than ever before, America needs strong, red-blooded men, women and children. "We have always relished peaches, and this delicious fruit now takes a new rank as a healthful food.

"Recent vitamin research has revealed that peaches are rich in Vitamins A, B, C, and G, (b2), all necessary for good health.

In urging all homemakers to eat more peaches at this time, David G. Guthrie, Area Supervisor of the Surplus Marketing Administration, pointed out that the National Defense Conservation and Nutrition program calls for more home canning and preserving. Home-canned peaches provide a splendid supply of basic health-protecting foods, and a very thrifty home food supply, too.
