Caughran Elected To Head Chamber Of Commerce

Get-together on Last Monday Night Is Well Attended

J. A. Caughran, local manager of Wm. Cameron and Co., was elevated from vice president to president of the Munday Chamber of Commerce here last Monday night at the annual get-together of the membership. Mr. Caughran succeeds C. R. Elliott to this position.

E. W. Harrell, manager of the Munday Hardware and Furniture Co., was elected vice president.

Directors who were elected for the new year are: C. R. Elliott, Travis Jones, W. R. Moore, T. G. Bengue, C. P. Baker, W. E. Braly, P. V. Williams, R. D. Atkinson, J. C. Campbell, Lee Haymes, A. H. Mitchell, W. V. Tiner, Leland Hannah and Wallace Reid.

The party, which was an informal get-together, took the place of the annual banquet. Members voted to dispense with banquet plans this year due to the expense involved in this undertaking. Approximately 50 people, including Chamber of Commerce members and their wives, attended the meeting.

The program was interrupted for a brief period while the group listened to a radio program in celebration of the ninth anniversary of the farm program. President Roosevelt, Vice President Henry Wallace and other national leaders addressed the nation in this broadcast.

Opening the program was the high school sextet under the direction of Miss DeLoach, which sang three poplar numbers. The sextet is composed of Mary Lois Beate, Jane Campbell, Mildred Smith, Flora Alice Haymes, Florene Pippin and Bobby Floyd.

A male quartet, accompanied by Mrs. Louise Ingram, sang three numbers. Members of the quartet were Aaron Edgar, L. M. Palmer, Don Ferris and Jim Reeves.

And old-time spelling bee was enjoyed, with the match being called a draw when only Mrs. W. E. Braly and L. M. Palmer remained standing on opposing sides.

Refreshments of cake, coffee and hot cocoa were served just prior to the business session in which the new officers and directors were elected.

Moguls Start Spring Training Next Monday

Only Four Regulars Will Remain On 1942 Squad

Faced with the problem of building a football team around the four regulars of last season, Coach Jack Perryman announced Tuesday that spring training will be started in the Mogul camp next Monday. Perryman had a rather gloomy tone in his voice as he announced this only four of last year's regulars would be on the team next fall.

Regulars who will see action again next season are Joe McGraw, Delmar Cadwell, Edwin Lowrance and Lowell Cure.

Perryman stated he expects 25 or 30 men to report for spring practice, which will be continued for a period of four weeks. The workouts will deal principally with fundamentals of the game, signal practice and blocking. The coach said that scrimmages would probably be held three or four times a week during the four weeks of practice.

BLOOD BANK TO BE STARTED HERE

Knox county is starting a "blood bank" in cooperation with the state and federal government, according to information released Monday by Dr. D. C. Eiland, county health officer.

Arrangements have been made with the Baylor Hospital in Dallas, which is subsidized by the federal government, to prepare the blood plasma for Texas, to also prepare the plasma for Knox county. The blood will be sent to the hospital, then returned as blood plasma which can be kept for a period of five years.

The blood banks are of inestimable value in case of air raids, etc., where immediate transfusions are needed. Plans are under way to start collecting blood here in the immediate future, and it was stated that at least 50 pints was requested from Munday citizens.

Defense Guard Is Asking For More Members

Company Clerk Gets Letter Praising His Work

T. W. Harber, commanding officer of Company C of the Texas Defense Guard, announced this week that the organization is in need of additional recruits to bring the company up to its full strength.

Membership in the organization occasionally falls below its full strength through the resignation of members, while others move away or are called into military service. The company now has 68 men and 3 officers, and an additional 8 men are needed, it was stated.

The commanding officer pointed out that the Defense Guard offers excellent training to its members through the drills on Thursday night of each week. Those wishing to enlist are asked to get in touch with Riley B. Harrell, company clerk, or some officer of Company C.

In a letter from Major Elmer L. Hughes of Wadsworth, commander of the 17th Battalion, Mr. Harrell was this week highly complimented for his work as company clerk. The letter reads as follows: "Dear Corp. Harrell: 'I want to personally commend you for the splendid work you are doing as Company Clerk. The office work in the Defense Guard is more than we all anticipated at the beginning. However, we must do the job regardless of cost. I have more work to do than I think I can do but I always can do a little more.'

"I am quite sure that the records and other matters will be handled to the satisfaction of all concerned by your position of company clerk. If at any time I can assist you call on me, and I will give you the best I have."

BRAZOS RIVER IS NOT A DUMP GROUND

Attention of members of the Texas Highway Department has been called to the fact that Knox county citizens are engaging in dumping trash at the north end of the Brazos river bridge, north of Rhineland.

Douglas Doshier, maintenance engineer for this district, warns all citizens that such practice is in violation of the law. A considerable accumulation of trash at the bridge has resulted in this practice, warning is issued that such practice cannot be allowed to continue.

This friendly warning is issued in the hope that those engaged in the practice will stop it without further steps being taken.

Odie Brown Home Destroyed by Fire

The farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Odie Brown, who reside three miles northwest of the Sunset school, was destroyed by fire last Tuesday evening at about dark. The home and practically all the furnishings were completely destroyed.

According to reports, Mr. and Mrs. Brown had returned home from Munday and Mrs. Brown lit the kitchen stove to prepare the evening meal and went to the barn to help with the chores. When they discovered the fire, practically all the roof was ablaze. It is believed the stove exploded, causing the fire.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown were able to save only one bed, friends reported Wednesday.

Work on City's Drainage Being Conducted Here

Work is now under way which local citizens hope, when completed, will do much toward solving the water drainage problem for Munday.

After surveys were completed some time ago, work of opening drainage ditches and cleaning out culverts was started. A ditch has been opened from the sewer plant to the oil mill which will carry much of the water away. Practically all work of opening ditches is completed, with the exception of cleaning culverts, and this must be done by hand.

Cleaning the ditches was done with the aid of city machinery and county road machinery.

The highway department is also assisting in this work by installing a number of drains across the highway. Four of these are being put in east of town to drain the water away, and others are being installed south of town to afford better drainage.

Miss Dorothy Boone of Abilene spent last week end in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Boone of Weinert.

YOUR INCOME TAX RETURN

Next Monday, March 16, is the deadline for filing your income tax return to the Federal government, and all citizens have been urged to file their returns as early as possible.

This year more than six million American citizens are filing their first returns, and a similar number will actually make their initial contributions to the government through the medium of federal taxation. Reports are that all people have cheerfully assumed the additional tax burden which is one of the inevitable consequences of total war.

The prompt filing of your return is an indication of your prompt assumption of your obligations in this war. Have your return in before the deadline, March 16th.

YOUR ATTITUDE TOWARD RATIONING— IS IT TRULY AMERICAN?

Most truly Americans, now as in the trials and difficulties which confronted the nation in past history, show a willingness to sacrifice even necessities of life when the future of our United States of America is at stake. We believe this is just as true today as it was yesterday and yesterday—the trouble with most of us is that we haven't come to realize the seriousness of the conflict in which we are engaged.

For some Americans have not yet shown a willingness to sacrifice. They want us to win this war, but win it without making an inconvenience to their daily lives.

Take the government rationing program, for instance. When the tire rationing program became effective, many Americans, instead of planning how they could get along without tires, began figuring how they could become eligible to get as many tires as they need. Some seem to have assumed the attitude: "Conserve rubber, of course, but conserve it by making the other fellow cut down—don't inconvenience me."

When talk of sugar rationing was started, there was a rush of buying and the sugar supplies of our retailers were soon exhausted. "Ration sugar? Yes, siree! But it won't bother me none, I've bought enough to last through the duration!" It is that way of helping to win the war? Is that the true American way of sacrificing to help supply the nation's needs?

Ever since the eventful surprise raid on Pearl Harbor, our nation has been fighting a defensive war and has suffered one setback after another. It has been truly said that wars are not won defensively—and America and her allies cannot take the offense until the have gained superiority in the air, on the land and on the sea.

America will never gain the offensive by the hoarding of sugar by Americans, nor by figuring out a way to evade the law and get a new tire.

We in America could give up our sugar and use substitutes, we could give up our tires and other materials or rubber and wait for ten years after the duration and still be a lot better off than if we hoard and continue to hoard and lose the war to the Axis powers.

Think it over, Americans.

SYNTHETIC RUBBER

The effect of Axis victories in the Far East is the loss of our rubber supply. In 1940 this country imported 650,000 tons, and almost every pound of it came from countries now blocked off by the Japs. For 25 years chemists have been developing a rubber substitute. But production of the product was not pushed as long as there was an abundance of cheaper natural rubber. Now the cost question has gone out the window. The United States must have rubber to win the war. Hence the present pressure on industry to produce a substantial quantity of a rubber substitute. Prior to December 7 plans were under way for producing 10,000 tons per annum of a synthetic rubber out of petroleum. Subsequently the government raised its sights to 40,000 tons, a goal expected to be realized some time in 1943. Now the program is being further enlarged to 400,000 tons.

It is said that it will take a year and a half to get plans erected and in full operation. In the meantime the government has enough reserve rubber stocks to cover war needs and a little more. Owners of automobiles must take unusual care to make their present supply of tires last to the ultimate mile.

By spreading large quantities of calcium chloride through fog, a mile-long path 100 feet wide and 100 feet high can be cleared for airplane landings. cost of keeping such a path clear, however, is about $5 a minute.

HARD TRUTH DRIVEN HOME

Wars are not won with brave words and stirring bands. Wars are won with deeds. Wars are won with production. Wars are won through the full, uncompromising cooperation of government, of labor, of industry and of all the people.

Our war will be won or lost on the home front. Victory depends on whether we can make and deliver the endless quantities of planes and ships and guns and ammunition that our troops and our Allies so sorely need.

Disgraceful labor disputes have cost our military forces untold quantities of weapons—and the lives of many men. Petty officialism has played politics while war rages throughout the world, and slowed production still more. Bogus reformers have hampered and reviled industry at a time when our greatest need was machines and tools, not ideologies.

The people of this nation are now demanding in no uncertain voice that government, industry and labor cooperate so that productive enterprises of this nation—the plane and tank factories, the motor plants, the oil and metal and coal industries, the power plants which motivate the machines of industry—can turn the blueprints of war needs into reality.

The disasters of the Pacific show what we can expect in the future unless we change the piddling policies of the past.

KEEP IT CLEAN!

We've got to fight more than the Axis today. We must even fight a part of ourselves—the part that believes rumors, for example, and passes them on to others. For unfounded stories can sometimes be as destructive as fifth columns.

Recently we've heard a lot about shortages. Aluminum, rubber, sugar—the list is growing, and some of us see shortages all around us. Like the traditional old maid, we even look under the bed at night to see what isn't there. We must remember that we still have more than enough of many products. And we must stop believing and spreading rumors about imagined scarcities. Here's a case in point.

A short time ago many women began to believe that American soap companies wouldn't be able to supply us with enough soap. Some who live in rural areas began hunting up the old iron soap buckets their mothers had used years ago. They started to make their own soap. In doing so they began to hamper America's war effort, and the War Production Board is now asking them to stop, because valuable glycerine is lost when soap is made at home.

Glycerine, it seems, is a by-product of commercial soap manufacturing and today is badly needed to make explosives. Like other industries doing war work, the soap companies are stepping up their production. They're working so hard to make glycerine that the tables are turned and soap is almost a by-product of their efforts now. The cart's before the horse this time, and it's even helping to pull!

Winning the war is going to be a huge job, and we must all do our part. As this story shows, we can sometimes do that in simple way—just by not making soap, for example, and by saying "no soap" to rumors.

When it comes to trickery, deceit, lying, treachery, and duplicity, Hitler and Japan are perfect affinites. If there was ever two better mated deceivers and liars we have never heard of them.

It takes 30,000 pounds of rag content bond to make enough blueprint paper to draw the plans for one battleship.

HOME ACCIDENTS DEPLORED

College Station.—Recent increases in home accident deaths prompt Mrs. Bernice Claytor, Extension Service specialist in home improvement, to urge more accident prevention work in wartime. At a time when every citizen must contribute his maximum to the nation's victory effort, home accidents slow down production, rob the nation of essential manpower, and are costly in money and morale, she says. Remedies for home accidents are more difficult to effect than remedies for industrial accidents, since there is no direct control over family life. Mrs. Claytor says that means the responsibility for accident prevention lies with every family. She says homemakers can make their homes safer by doing these things:

Use care in waxing floors and placing rugs.

Install handrails or other simple safety devices over bathtub.

Light stairways.

Keep matches and poison out of the reach of children.

Dispose of can-openers which are dull or broken.

Keep knives and other pointed instruments in the proper place and teach children to avoid them or to use them carefully.

See that clothing and curtains are hung where they cannot be ignited by an open flame.

Keep a short stepladder handy, and avoid standing on chairs.

Promptly wipe up grease or water spilled on floor.

Don't allow kettles to boil over, for water will extinguish a gas burner. If you notice a gas leak, extinguish all flames, ventilate the room, and call your gas company.

"The biggest help is to take your time," the specialist says. "Hurrying results in many accidents."

The United States has a total labor force of 53,300,000 men and women to draw upon. Of these, nearly 41,000,000 are in non-agricultural employment. According to present estimates, between 5,000,000 and 6,000,000 people not normally employed will eventually be drawn into the labor market to supplement the available force of workers.

Shelterbelts And Trees

Munday, Texas.—A tree that is becoming popular and has great possibilities throughout the Great Plains area is the Eastern Red Cedar.

This tree is not a true cedar but is rather a Juniper and belongs to the same genera as the Juniper we have on our "cedar breaks" here in West Texas. The Eastern Red Cedar is a much faster growing tree and will attain a greater height, around 30 feet, and is not as bushy of form as the native "break cedar." Neither should this tree be confused with "salt cedar" or tamarix, as it has no relationship.

While the name "Eastern" would indicate that this tree is confined to the eastern part of the United States, the tree is found over a wide area and has the faculty of adapting itself to a variety of conditions.

Although it is somewhat hard to transplant, once it is established it is less exacting in its moisture and soil requirements than many of our broad leaved trees and is, therefore, one of the best species of trees that can be planted in shelterbelts and windbreaks.

Not only is the Eastern Red cedar a hardy tree but it offers dense year-around protection and adds much to the beauty of the landscape by staying green the entire year. With proper care, this tree should attain a height of 8 or 10 feet within five years.

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes.

Creomulsion blends beechwood creosote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics.

No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. (Adv.)

Fifth Graders Entertain With A Patriotic Program

Friday the fifth year classes sponsored by Miss Beene and Miss Holcomb presented a patriotic program for the school and visitors.

The class led the audience in several patriotic songs, such as "America" and "The Eyes of Texas."

A duet composed of Hettie Ann Phillips and Bettie Hendrix sang "God Bless America." Hettie Ann gave two piano selections, "Home Sweet Home" and "Silver Waltz."

Yvonne Morris gave her version of "What is Democracy?" and Sue Carolyn Edwards gave a reading, "Our Flag."

Gwena Lee Smith led the class and audience in the Pledge to the Flag and "The Star Spangled Banner" to close the program.

Typing Students Improve

Since we reported last week, three more students have met the minimum requirements to pass first year typing. These students are: Doyle Jones (37 net words, with 5 errors), Florence Pippin (32.2 net words, with 5 errors), and Benton Snelson (30.8 net words, with 2 errors).

Those that have completed this work previous to this week, are: Ben Bowden, Helen Williams, and Patsy Ruth Kirk.

Many others are near minimum requirements and should complete this requirement soon. No student has completed the full number of exercises due for the year. Only speed and accuracy are considered in report of students given above.

Senior Report

The Seniors are working hard on the annual and Tuesday three-fourths of the annual was sent off to be fixed, so you had better buy your annual before you have waited until they are all bought. So make it a point to bring Willard Reeves, business manager, one and one-half dollars next week.

The Seniors are very happy that they have finally got a teacher for the Business Law class that has consented to remain here until school is out. His name is Mr. Millburn, and we all hope that he will enjoy teaching and being with us as much as we enjoy having him with us.

Let Your Answer to Bombs Be BONDS!

We are fighting enemies who will stop at nothing. With our homes, our very lives at stake, shall we stop short of giving our dimes and dollars for Defense? Buy Defense Bonds and Stamps every day, every week. Buy as if your very life depended upon it. It does!

Seniors on Review

Doyle Jones was born five miles northwest of Munday on January 21, 1925. He is another faithful and loyal member of the class who has remained here all of his school days.

Doyle is a charter member of the band and plays a clarinet.

He plans to enter the field of aviation when he finishes school this spring. The class wishes him much success in this field as he is really interested in it.

All of Class Present For First Times This Year

The 7B students hope that the teachers find them to be "A" students. The first took achievement tests, and then came their six weeks exams. They say they are all expecting all A's on their cards if for no other reason than just because of so much effort on their part.

For two days in succession all were present. Something unusual, in fact the records show this to be the first time this year for this to happen. Of course, that could not last long, for Rodney Heath, Billie Fern Thompson and Mart Booe found it their time to take the mumps. Here's wishing for them a speedy recovery for we like for all of our members to be present.

Eighth Year Class

The pupils of the eighth year class are very proud of themselves. They bought $40.60 in defense stamps. Charles Roden has another bond. This makes him four $25 bonds. We would like to remind you to buy your stamps for today. It seems that this class is doing it!

The class is proud of something else. They have all lived through the tests. Don't you know that that was a hard thing to do. This class doesn't think so—just ask them.

We Are Wondering Why—Normaline is so lonesome. Jimmy always knows the answers.

Everyone was so alarmed in the studyhall, Thursday.

Oleta keeps a current event in front of her fact lots.

A certain girl wanted so much to go to Sunset.

Rex is so shy.

Mavoureen likes her location.

John B. likes to refer to the dictionary (for pastime or pleasure?)

Joseph is never heard of any more.

We'll see you next Thursday if we live through getting our report cards Wednesday!

First Grade News

Most all of us were back in school Monday, and were happy to get back. Several of our number are still ill of mumps, but we hope they will be back soon.

We started the fifth sixth weeks off with an interesting study of little Dutch boys and girls. We expect to spend about three weeks on this project. During that time we plan to make a Dutch garden in one corner of our room which will be very colorful and pretty.

Most of us are doing fine in our reading, which we think is the most important part of our work.

Anna Ruth Stodghill won the defense stamp again, for getting the most stars on her good work chart the last six weeks.

TA Buys More Defense Stamps and Bonds

Last week this room bought $23.05 worth of stamps, and Kenneth Baker completed a bond he had been working to get. We are very proud of this because it is the highest amount we have ever purchased.

We are very sorry that Wayne Rogers has the mumps, and we hope that he will be back with us soon.

In English we are studying quotations. In arithmetic we are changing fractions to decimals. We are very proud of Arledge Suggs and Eloise Gray, who are very good in decimals, and made a hundred in changing fractions to decimals from memory.

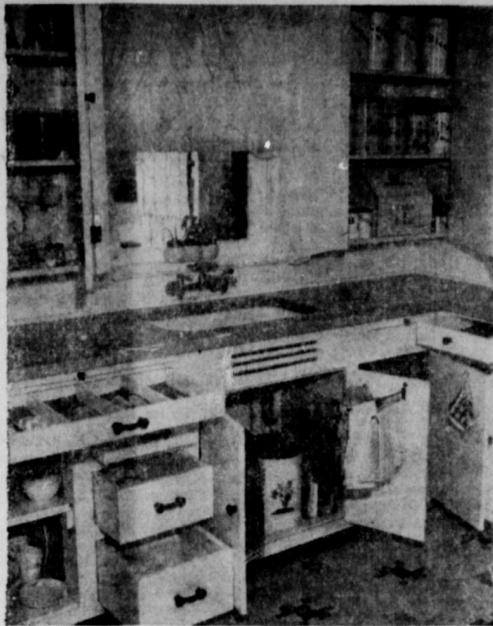

Volleyball News

Last Friday afternoon the girls' volleyball team played a boys' team consisting of Raymond Carden, Lowell Cure, Joe McGraw, Ralph Tidwell, Bobbie Reese and Delmar Cadwell. The boys won the first game by a score of 16 to 14, and the girls walked off with the second game 15 to 7.

We girls are still looking forward to playing off the tie.

Junior News

Last Friday afternoon the Juniors gave a sigh of relief when Home demonstration and girls' 4-H Club members in extension district 3 spent more than $60,000 on house repairs, including improvement of kitchens and other rooms in 1941. This picture is a typical example of kitchen improvement with special attention to storage space. Notable are the labeled food containers in the cabinet at the right which were made of oatmeal containers and painted. Shown, too, are the silver drawer with compartments, a cabinet for dishes used frequently, tea towel rack and a drawer for aprons and spare towels. It is an L-shaped kitchen with more storage space at the right.

they realized that exams were over for the time being at least. They really were not so bad.

At last our play books are here. The cast has been selected and we hope to start practicing soon. If nothing happens to change our plans we will present "Lena Rivers" in the school auditorium on the night of April 10, 1942.

Thursday night, March 12, the homemaking girls are having a Sadie Hawkins Day party to which each who attends will come in costume.

We'd Like to Know Why—Joe carries a certain little handkerchief in his pocket.

Bonnie wasn't in school Monday. (Didn't she have a way back?) Helen dreads play night.

Sophomore News

Quite a few of the Sophomores have been ill. Everyone of the class hopes they will get well in a hurry because they are being missed.

Don't forget, class, about the Sadie Hawkins party. There will be plenty of fun. This is the first time the Munday homemaking club plans to do anything of this sort. There are few requirements that will make it all the merrier. You must be in costume and you must have a date. Of course there will be plenty to eat. So when some of you boys are asked don't refuse the girls. Everything is to be done in reverse, the girls make the dates, provide transportation and everything. This promises to be a great party.

Home Ec Club News

The Home Ec Club had a meeting March 4th to discuss a delayed party. They decided on a Sadie Hawkins party. It was hard to decide whether or not to come in costume, but after voting a third time they agreed to come in costume and bring a date. Punishment will be for those who do not come in costume or bring a date.

The party will be held Thursday, March 12, 1942, at 8:30 o'clock in the Home Ec cottage. Everyone is looking forward to that night of fun.

About Our Schools

By Supt. S. V. Colley

Shopwork in a mild form will be introduced in the Vocational Agriculture Department this six weeks period with some of the tools procured through aid of the Federal Government. This equipment is part of the materials received of about $800.00 worth of equipment for the National Defense Shop. Next year, there is a strong likelihood that these courses in wood-working, welding, auto mechanics may be included in the curriculum for high school students and outside students alike. This would be the type of work really needed in the school today.

Already some 50 out-of-school youths have received the training offered. Now the tractor and truck course is progressing well, and is being taught by Joe Massey at the Isbell Motor Co.

In the lunchroom, installed last year, we still feed an average of 250 students daily at the nominal sum of nine cents. Seventy-five undernourished children daily are being fed free of charge. Right now we need to have a ten-acre garden space. We will be glad to

At the meeting of the district Texas State Teachers Association held at Sweetwater last Friday and Saturday composed of 13 counties of West Texas, teachers and administrators alike were professionally inspired. We heard strong patriotic talks, discussed progressive methods in education, and saw school exhibits. Health, physical education, spiritual development, character education and stress on giving of the real values of life instead of upon things were amply given by able speakers; who pointedly brought out these were the means toward winning the war.

Education means growth. Growth of a child mentally, morally, spiritually, socially and physically. This means an allround education with emphasis on the first six or eight grades in the fundamentals, then branches out to the vocational aptitudes and needs and finishes, or should finish into a practical training to meet the life situation as a graduate.

Chas. Moorhouse of Benjamin was visiting with friends here last Tuesday morning.

What Should You Save To Help?

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The following table issued by the Treasury Department is intended as a savings yardstick for the average income-earner. It suggests how everyone of the 48,000,000 employed persons in the United States may participate in the war effort through the systematic purchase of Defense Savings Bonds.

"The job ahead of us is far bigger than most of us realize," Secretary Morgenthau declared in making the table public. "I know that the American people are ready to do their part to win the war. One of the ways we can do much more is by intensifying our effort in the purchase of Defense Bonds."

While persons without dependents may be able to set aside more than the suggested figures, persons with several dependents, or with other heavy family obligations, may be unable to save at the suggested rate, the Treasury Department pointed out.

Several members of the Munday Chapter of Future Farmers of America are planning to attend the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show this week end. Saturday is F.F.A. Day at the show. Some 17 members will attend the show from Munday.

Most of our activities for the year are about over. All members of the chapter are concentrating their efforts on "Victory Gardens." Each boy in the chapter is to have a garden if it is at all possible. The garden plot will be worked out in detail on paper as to amount needed for certain sizes of families and what kinds of vegetables to plant for this climate. After the plans have been worked out on paper we hope to put them as accurately as possible on our garden plots. Some of the boys who do not have facilities for a garden at home are planning to work someone else's garden on the shares. As Secretary of Agriculture Wickard has urged that these gardens be planted, we feel that we are doing some part for national defense.

Our judging contests of the district and area are not being held this year as is the custom. The reason for this is the tire shortage. As this has happened we are entering another judging contest which does not call for any driving. This is the contest sponsored by the "Hoard's Dairymen Magazine." The pictures of the animals to be judged are shown in the magazine and from these pictures we place one over the other. Although we do not expect to win anything, we do intend to get some experience from it. This contest has been completed and our placings sent in.

Jo Boys Are Tops

Every day I see a little character, who is very much the athletic type, chasing around the school building, bumping into people, and running around the corner to prevent being caught. This mischievous character got the first glimpse of this world in Munday Texas October 6, 1925. The little town was certainly brightened by its appearance. It made its first public showing when it entered the first grade, at Sunset, as a student. From the first grade up until the present time this little character has developed a personality that's hard to beat.

It is the happiest little creature on earth in one place a good old Jo Boy in its hand but just try putting it off with a plate of turnip greens and red beans, there is a change of looks.

After having entered high school this wonderful character developed a volleyball playing ability, having played four years and lettering three, it was even president of its junior class in '41 and is president of the student self-government.

This brown-haired, green-eyed, and active character is no other than Jane Burton. Some of her favorites are:

Hobby: Scrapbooks.
Colors: Green.
Sport: Swimming.
She leaves this thought for the next seniors: Do justice to a school that should be honored.

Third Grade

Doris Walling has a new bird dog puppy at her house.

Ida Grace Leigh got a nice picture and a letter from her mother who is at Sanatorium, Texas. She thinks her mother will be home soon.

Fannie Sue Beason is back in school after being ill for two weeks. It is nice to have her back.

We are learning some things about foreign children and their countries especially the Dutch children in Holland. We should like to see some real wooden shoes.

Fourth Grade News

Martha Jane Gentry's cousin from Paducah visited in her home over the week end.

Betty Matthews, Patricia and Royce Reddell were elected the best citizens of the previous week.

Friday, our English class had a club meeting, and the program was written and put on by Betty Matthews. A play was given on safety first and was acted out by different members of the class. Royce, the president, was in charge of the program, June Lowrey, the secretary, read the minutes of the previous meeting.

Eighth Grade News

We are very glad exams are over. All of us made fairly good grades, and are going to make better ones next six weeks.

Glyna Dean's aunt visited her this past week end.
Jack is back in school after a siege of illness.

Ninth Grade News

The exams are over and we passed with flying grades (colors, too). There are only twelve more weeks of school. We have a lovely spring romance in our class but it may blow over. Two of our teachers were ill Saturday but they are back now. We missed them very much.

Sport News

The Sunset volleyball girls are going to give a tournament March 20-21. The following teams are entering: Weinert, Vera, Rochester, Knox City, Gilliland, and Benjamin. Both A and B teams are being entered. Pennants are being given for first and second place. The volleyball teams and their coach, Mrs. Manera Savage, extend to everyone a cordial invitation to attend.

Junior News

The Juniors are presenting their play April 3, 1942. The name of our play is "The Family Disturbance."

The characters are as follows:

Harry Harrison, a henpecked husband.....Garland Screws
Mrs. Dorothea Harrison, who does the pecking.....Glyndolin Frost
June Harrison, their charming daughter.....Edna Hardin
Nellie Harrison, Mrs. Harrison's old maid cousin.....Coy Dickens

Joshua Judson, Harry's uncle from the country.....Charles Wright
Nora McBride, Harrison's Irish cook.....Frances Walling
Pat O'Donnelly, in love with the cook.....Charles Smith
Elmer Simroy, June's sweetheart.....Victor Thomas

Count Valencia, an imported product from Turkey.....Verbon Voss
Rev. Brown.....Bobby Matthews

At The Churches

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

We urge you to come to the services next Sunday. There is a place for all. We should be as anxious to put ourselves into the life of the church as our government is to see that we have enough of our boys in the strategic battle lines to defend them. Everything that we in this county have that is better than they have in Germany and Japan has come to us by the efforts of the Church and church people. Our right to worship, to have a part in the government that protects us, "Life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness"—all came because our forefathers believed the Bible and were willing to defend that belief with their lives. Forsake our churches and we are not any better off than the nations that seek to destroy us. Stop for a minute and think of what your church means to you and to your community and to your country. Can we afford not to support it? At least, we should attend its worship on the Sabbath day. The most challenging music America has ever heard has been the ringing of the church bells on the Sabbath day; and one of her chief means of defense is her attitude toward, and her worship of God.

Read again 2 Chron. 7:14, "If my people which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and heal their land." Malachi 3:6, "For I am the Lord, I change not." Rom. 11:29, "For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance."

Services at 10:00 and 11:00 a.m., and 7:30 and 8:30 p.m.

Let us use it as a day of worship and service unto Him. Come to the services Sunday and bring a friend.

... Wonder what we're worth on the hoof?"

Just in case Joe doesn't know, it cost his country $211 to equip him. Multiply that by an army, and you have a tidy sum of money.

We ought to know. Over 2,400,000 Joes could be completely outfitted with the $510,000,000 which America's electric power companies paid in taxes last year.

That's considerably more than a million dollars a day!

We're glad our stake in Democracy is so large. The freedom America's fighting for is worth whatever it costs.

Even though our taxes have been going up, our rates have been going down. Today, the average household electric user gets about twice as much electricity for his money as he did 15 years ago.

This record is directly due to the careful planning of the business men who manage the nation's electric companies.

They were prepared when the war emergency came. Prepared to power shipyards, arsenals and plane plants.

And they'll stay right on the job of making America powerful until a couple of million Joes go back to civilian clothes again!

Junior Report

The Juniors are studying hard for the first six weeks exams which are coming next Friday. We have just a little while to go yet before the final exams. We hope to make good grades on these exams.

We are studying hard in geometry so that when exams come we will be ready for them. We have been studying tangents and secants of a circle and find them to be difficult but we have learned them anyway.

We enjoyed our little program in history last Thursday and received compliments on it from our visitors.

We Wonder Why—Urban and Weldon were absent Monday.

The girls have a big collection of present-day authors. Calvin likes history so well.

Sophomore Report

We have work ahead, for this week we have exams over the last six weeks of work. We will study hard and try to pass all of them.

In economic geography we are still receiving material on different things which we ordered during the last six weeks. We are receiving it now.

In biology we are collecting all the bird pictures we can find and will keep them until we come to the chapter on birds in our text. In this way we will not have to stop to look for pictures when we need them.

Freshman Report

This week will be review week for the Freshmen, as we are having tests next Friday. In our English we are reading the poem, "The Lady of the Lake." The story is interesting, but the class doesn't like it very much, because it is written in poetry.

The class has voted the following law for Room III: Everyone in our room must pay a penny for every bottle of ink he spills. At the end of school, we plan to add this money to other funds and have a picnic. Miss McGraw has already collected 6¢.

Our class is still buying defense stamps and hopes to continue to do so. The class has now purchased $30.80 worth of stamps.

Canada's Fighters Learn Trades

Passed by Censor

IN Hamilton, Ontario, the Canadian Active Army maintains a technical trade school where 2000 bright, young soldiers at a time are given their final grooming in the trades at which they must be experts in this age of mechanical warfare. They run the gamut of instruction from carpentry to electrical engineering and when they have passed their examinations at the end of the gruelling course they are sent overseas almost immediately to join the 110,000 Canadians now on active service abroad. The photograph shows two members of the Tank Corps, wearing their distinguishing berets, working on a special cutaway model of a tank engine at the school in Hamilton.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

by
BOYCE HOUSE

A busier-than-usual day:

To the Fort Worth airport where your columnist boarded a plane at 9 a.m. and two hours and a half later alighted in Amarillo, a mere 350 miles; greeted by plump, ruddy, genial Mason King of the Amarillo News-Globe and whisked by auto to the hotel where 150 Kiwanians and friends kindly guffawed at a Texan's tales of Hollywood; thence for a view of Editor John McCarty's collection of 2,000 books on Panhandle history—he has eight typewritten volumes on the vanished town of Tascosa alone, and will have seven more before completing his chronicle of the one-time "Cowboy Capital").

From there with Floyd Studer, famed paleontologist, and the architect, Guy Carlander, for my first trip to the Palo Duro Canyon; then an all-to-brief visit in the West Texas museum at Canyon; and back to Amarillo for a supper with the Will Rogers Range Riders, including Bob Dow, former Attorney General of New Mexico, who looks like Will. Then to the Amarillo airport to get aboard a ship at 8 p.m. and two hours and five minutes later, stepping on the ground in Fort Worth.

A man, meeting a friend in a battered condition, asked, "Who beat you up?" The bandaged one explained, "I took my girl to a restaurant and she found a fly in her soup. She called the waiter and said, 'Take this insect out of here.' So he threw me down a flight of stairs."

Says the Weatherford Democrat, editorially: "With a full-fledged war in progress, Texas, along with the entire United States, has plenty to do. Our state government can be of immense help not only to our own people but to the entire nation. It would seem wise to keep Governor Stevenson in the position that he is filling so well. A vast majority of Texas folks are proud of his leadership and are glad to work with him in solving the difficult problems that confront us."

Speaking of graphic utterances: Ed Delehanty, the Babe Ruth of his day, was asked the secret of his success at bat and his answer was: "Hit 'em where they ain't."

And General Nathan Bedford Forrest, the Wizard of the Saddle when asked the secret of winning a battle, replied, "Git 'tar fustest with the mostest men."

A collection of pipes, hundreds of 'em, is owned by Fred Jackson, Cameron, cafe proprietor. He has been collecting for 16 years and values them at $5,000. One, over 300 years old, belong to Sir Walter Raleigh, who introduced the fragrant weed to Europe. Another, with a long, curving stem, has a porcelain bowl with the picture of the original owner. Some are Turkish pipes, with a flexible setm nad water bowl; others are corn-cobs.

When I met Jackson, he was smoking—a cigar!

With the high-brows: Some books are to be tasted, others to be swallowed, and some few to be chewed and digested.

A foolish consistency is the hobgoblin of little minds.

The colored exhorter said, "Is thar anyone is do congregation dat likes sin? Ef so, stand up. What's dis, Sistah Jones, does you like sin?" She replied, "Excuse me, parson, I thought you said gin."

"If wisdom's ways you wiselyseek, Five things observe with care: Of whom you speak, to whom you speak, And how and when and where."

"Ah want's a ticket for Virginia, please suh," said the colored woman to the ticket agent. "For what part of Virginia?" he asked. "For all ob Virginia," was the reply; "dat's Virginia settin' on dat suitcase."

Miss Merle Dingus spent the week end in Fort Worth, visiting with her sister, Miss Maxie Dingus, who is employed there.

Grady Roberts visited in Quanah and Chillicothe over the week end. He was accompanied home Sunday by Mrs. Roberts, who visited relatives and friends in that section last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Stodghill and daughter, Sue, and Mrs. J. D. Marlow of Seymour left last Monday for a business trip to Phoenix, Ariz., and other points. Mrs. Stodghill and Sue will visit friends in San Diego, Calif. They expect to return home in about ten days.

Lieut. Walter Rice Writes Interesting Letter Telling of Camp Blanding Trip

The Munday Times is in receipt of an interesting letter from Lieut. Walter Rice, former county agent here, who was transferred from San Antonio to Camp Blanding, Florida, in December. Because Mr. Rice is known to practically every resident in Knox county, his letter is being printed in part, as follows:

As perhaps you know, I was transferred to Camp Blanding, Fla., on December 18. I was in Benjamin at the time and was recalled, leave cancelled, and sent out. I did get a short leave and left San Antonio December 25, and visited in Houston for a couple of days and drive on here, arriving December 31.

On our way here we passed through some very scenic sections, as well as some very dismal and poor sections. The most beautiful section stated at about Pass Christian, Miss., and extended a long ways around the coast—beautiful liveoak trees on one side of the highway and the gulf on the other side. I think I would have enjoyed stopping there in April or May, but it looked a little cool in December. I believe we drove due east for three days, starting in at Houston, then to New Orleans, Mobile, Ala., Pensacola and Tallahassee and on here.

Camp Blanding is about 35 miles west of Jacksonville, about 60 north of St. Augustine, and about 35 miles northwest of Gainesville. I am learning my geography lessons all over again, with a little history mixed in with it. Jacksonville is on the Atlantic ocean, so is St. Augustine. Seems that Ponce de Leon landed in St. Augustine in about 1513 in search of the fountain of youth—and found a fountain, but it seems that the Indians then had a good Chamber of Commerce and they over-sold Ponce de Leon on the idea of the fountain of youth. He did not get any younger, and neither, and neither did I when I drank out of it. St. Augustine boasts of the first home built in America, the first school and a few other historical places. Most of the places are privately owned and cost about 50 cents per to visit them.

The head of my family—Mrs. Rice—after visiting several so-called gardens here in Florida, has about decided to open a cactus garden in the "breaks or narrows" after the war for suckers to visit. There are more gardens and flower shows in Florida than any place that I have ever visited. However, it seems that Florida was derived from a Spanish word, florita, meaning flower, and someone, perhaps an early sailor, misspelled the word and now we have Florida. I am not sure about this—ask some history teacher.

I have learned that it takes "folding money" to do much visiting in Florida, as they cater to the luxury class—along the beaches, etc.

Camp Blanding is located on the beach of Kingsley Lake—a circular lake about a mile in diameter. The water is very clear now, and I understand that fishing is good. I guess if I should cast a hook in it one of the game wardens from Texas would come all the way here to check my fishing license, etc. If I get to stay here after the weather gets warmer I plan to ease the game wardens, anyway, but not the fish.

You have heard about Sunny Florida. Well, just don't believe that yarn, either. It's colder here than in Amarillo, I am sure! The thermometer shows about 38 degrees, but the damp atmosphere from the lake seems twice as disagreeable as it ever was in Knox county.

I am not sure what the people do for a living. Most of the pine trees have been cut, and I believe they are topping the smaller pine now for turpentine. They have a new breed of cattle, I believe. They waste out in water about belly deep and eat water grass. Of course these cattle don't look like club calves, but they are called cattle. They have cowboys, too, but a different brand from those in Knox county. And I haven't seen any farms in here—passed through a tobacco section between here and Tallahassee. Don't believe I will try to hire out as a county agent just here.

We had to move our clocks fast one hour—that caused us to get up at 5 a.m. instead of 6; then this war time came along and moved it up another hour, but it has all been settled now, thank goodness!

Some survivors from a torpedoed oil tanker were brought into port at Jacksonville about two weeks ago. It seems that it should have made a lot of people realize that war is not very far away from here. About 40 lost their lives. Suppose you read about it in the papers—no military secrets.

Every time I turn on the radio, someone on the air is asking the Georgia and Florida farmers to help win the war by growing peanuts. I read where someone was going to grow peanuts in Knox county. I am wondering if I've been having dizzy spells lately, or just behind the times.

Please give our regards to Knox county folks and friends.

Sincerely,
Lieut. Walter Rice,
172nd F.A.,

Senior Report

The Senior class has been busy "doing nothing" the last few days. We are turning our thoughts to studies and watching the Juniors go to play practice instead of having to go ourselves.

Spring seems to be in the air (in between snows); therefore there are rumors of a party in the air. We have been working hard so now we'll play a while. Maybe soon we can tell you what a good time we had.

By the way, only nine more weeks of school and we are thinking of commencement exercises. Also the senior trip wanders thru our minds now and then. We likely will not be able to make a long trip as has been the custom, but we won't mind as long as we're helping Uncle Sam.

Thanks again for the help everyone gave the Senior play. We should like to announce once more that J. R. White of Knox City drew our quilt.

Some of the Seniors, have written, we think, some very timely poems. They are:

Democracy Will Win

Spring is drawing near again,
 Many soldiers are being slain,
 Japan's luck is good so far,
 But wait 'til we're prepared for war.

McArthur is fighting bravely on,
 He fights at dusk and he fights at dawn;
 Many say he can never win,
 But just wait 'til we begin.

Captain Kelly is a brave man,
 He sunk a ship for Japan,
 In America he won his fame,
 In Japan he brought much shame.

Uncle Sam teaches us
 To win our battles and not to cuss,
 So buy your bonds every day,
 And slap a Jap across the bay.
 —Walter Mat Hertel

Beef Cattle Becoming Big Crop in Texas

College Station.—The trend of wartime economy was manifested in Extension District 3 during 1941 by twice as many farmers putting beef cattle on feed as were similarly engaged in 1940. According to J. A. Scofield, district agent, 898 farmers were feeding beef animals at the end of the year, compared with 450 at the corresponding period of 1940. Further manifestations were the filling of 685 trench silos with stock feed and demonstrations with 1,720 dairy and food animals by 4-H Club boys.

More farmers whose major crop formerly was cotton realized the benefit of producing more food on acreage retired from cotton growing and that this feed can best be marketed through livestock, Scofield says. "It is safe to say," he adds, "that the increase in the number of farmers and stockmen who are feeding cattle was caused largely by the 4-H Club livestock program carried on in district 3 for the past few years."

Of the 1,839 boys enrolled in the 128 organized clubs in the district, 1,581 completed their 4-H Club records. This is equivalent to 85.97 per cent, against a percentage of 83.6 in 1940. A summary of the records from all 200 counties shows that 208 boys had 250 dairy cattle in demonstrations; 475 had 403 beef calves; 524 had 941 hogs and 39 had 126 sheep.

Besides exhibiting at county shows, boys showed top calves from most of the counties at the district 4-H club show and auction at Wichita Falls. The auction averaged $14.50 a hundredweight, which was the highest for 4-H Club calves in the state, Scofield says.

After the county show season the majority of the club calves, pigs and lambs from one half of the counties were taken to Fort Worth and sold on the open market.

"This method of selling was an excellent project since it taught the boys how cattle are classified in the yards and how livestock is sold in competitive bidding on the open market," he added.

It is the opinion of the district agent that "our 4-H Club livestock program has had a profound influence on the improved quality of bulls used on the ranges the past few years." This has been brought about largely by the boys feeding out calves and showing them in counties where the calves and feed were produced. "The ranchman unquestionably gets the ideal animal in his mind by observing the top calves... and selects the type of bull which most nearly conforms to the 4-H Club calf which heads the class."

Abnormal rainfall produced more than a normal forage crop in 1941, but a considerable portion could not be harvested. (Notwithstanding, 685 trench silos were filled in the district during 1941. It was the first year that a real feed surplus was produced since the advent of the trench silo, Scofield says, and on that account "it is safe to say that very few of the trenches will be opened during the winter months of 1941-42." As a result of educational work by county agricultural agents in cooperation with land use planning committees in wheat growing counties of the district, wheat varieties which had produced flour of inferior baking quality were virtually eliminated and varieties having the desired baking qualities adopted. "This program not only increased the quality of wheat in the majority of the heavier producing counties but also improved the yields," the district agent observes.

The trend toward enlarged livestock growing in extension district 3 was shown by a 100 percent increase in the number of farmers feeding beef animals in 1941. A total of 898 had beef cattle on feed compared to 450 in 1940. This picture is typical of the herds of beef animals bred and fed in the district.

T. W. Harber's shelterbelts are being planted this week, Marvin G. Angle of the U.S. Forest Service announced this week. This is among the first of the new belts to be planted in the county this season. Replanting of other shelterbelts has been in progress for the past two weeks.

Mr. Harber is having two shelterbelts planted on his farm northwest of Sunset. Each belt is a half mile in length.

Canadian Army Sergeant Speaks To Legion Post

Sergeant Hughes, who is serving in the Canadian army, spoke briefly at Tuesday night's meeting of the American Legion, giving an interesting account of his experiences in Canada. Sergeant Hughes, who wore his Canadian army uniform, was here to visit Glenn Higginbotham, a buddy of World War I.

Hughes stated he tried to enlist in the U.S. Marines, but was rejected on account of his teeth. He then enlisted in the Canadian army. He said about three million Canadian soldiers had been sent across the ocean since the present war started. He answered a number of questions for Legion member after his talk.

Rationing Of All Appliances Is Foreseen

Factories that once hummed busy as a bee turning out electric appliances today are roaring like a lion following conversion to the manufacture of war materials. Hence, the West Texas Utilities foresees a time when rationing will be applied to all appliances, in addition to refrigerators—a day when floorsweepers, irons and similar items will become as hard to get as a new tire or a hundred pounds of sugar.

The Munday Livestock Commission reports a big run of cattle and hogs for Tuesday's sale. Good cattle sold fully steady with a little lower than last week. Top hogs sold from $13.15 to $13.25; sows, $11.50 to $12.25.

Beef bulls, $8.50 to $9; butcher bulls, $6.75 to $8; beef cows, $8 to $9; butcher cows, $6.75 to $7.75; canners and cutters, $4.50 to $6.50.

Fat yearlings, $10.50 to $12.50; beef yearlings, $8 to $9.25; fat calves, $10 to $12; butcher calves, $8 to $9.75; rannies, $7 to $8.

News From Goree

Mrs. Gene Heard and her father, both of Houston, were visitors in the home of Gene's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Heard, the first of this week. Mrs. Heard accompanied them home where she will visit another son, Dr. Pat Heard and family. They stopped for a short visit in Dallas with Hugh Heard and family.

Special care was urged for all appliance parts and cords for lamps in which rubber or copper is used.
