

Benjamin Gets First Load of '42 Wheat

C. C. Hutchinson, who farms in the Sunset community brought in the first load of 1942 wheat to Benjamin on Friday, May 29, it was reported, this evidencing the fact that wheat harvest is getting under way in the county.

The wheat tested 63 per cent, with a moisture content of 12.90. The wheat will be put in the government loan, it was stated.

Mr. Hutchinson thinks his wheat will make around 20 bushels to the acre.

Other wheat farmers are starting their harvest, and everything is expected to get into full swing within the next few days.

Major Spencer Inspects Texas Defense Guard

Major George Dewey Spencer, of the adjutant general's office at Austin, was here Thursday night of last week, at which time he inspected the local unit of the Texas Defense Guard. He highly complimented Company C for their activities and efficiency.

Only six or seven of the enlisted force, numbering about 70, were absent. All company officers were present, and each demonstrated his ability to drill the unit, as did Major Spencer. Friday night of last week Major Spencer was present at the regular drill of the Knox City unit, newly organized and as yet unattached.

In speaking to the Munday unit Major Spencer pronounced them one of the best trained and disciplined companies in Texas, and paid high compliments to the appearance of the personnel and the efficiency of the commanding officers.

FARMERS . . . Make every market-day BOND DAY!

For our fighting men, for our country's future and for freedom we must meet and beat our county War Bond quota and keep on doing it.

Pick up your War Bonds and Stamps on your second stop in town . . . right after you've sold your eggs, milk, poultry, stock or grain. No investment is too small and no investment is too large . . . the important thing is to buy every time you sell!

Stevenson Will Have Opposition

Gov. Coke Stevenson, the popular incumbent, faced unexpected opposition last Monday when Hal H. Collins of Mineral Wells formally filed with the state Democratic executive committee his candidacy for governor in the July 25 primary.

Midnight Monday was the deadline for filing for place on the ballot.

Collins entered the special senate race last summer, but withdrew when his political friend, W. Lee O'Daniel, announced.

Alex M. Ferguson, seed breeder in Howe, Grayson county, and brother of former Governor Jim Ferguson, sent in his application for governor by mail, and Hope Wheeler, publisher at Arlington, presented a petition making him a candidate. Another who entered his application is Gene S. Porter, Belton insurance man.

Other filings for state office during Monday included: For state treasurer: Harry McKee, Austin; W. Gregory Hatcher, Dallas; and Larry Mills, Dallas.

Commissioner of agriculture: Bailey B. Ragsdale of Crockett. Lieutenant Governor: Boyce House, Texas newspaperman.

New Quotas For Red Cross Given

We appreciate your efforts, and know that you will be glad to hear we are planning on a large production of sewed garments during the next 12 months, and early June quotas will be issued to chapters. A number of new garments have been added to the standard list and over 15,000,000 yards of material have been purchased. These will become available during the summer and fall months, provided delivery is not delayed by Army and Navy orders. May I add that the material is excellent. Having seen the samples I know they will make the kind of garments you would like to see worn by your own family.

A chapter located near an Army post has sent us a constructive suggestion which may be helpful to production workers. In addition to darning and mending for the men at the post, the women offer to sew the necessary insignia on uniforms. Any of these things can be done for the men in the service relieves them of a tedious and irritating task.

The above information was received by Mrs. Oates Golden, the chairman of the local Red Cross sewing, through The Volunteer, a pamphlet issued monthly.

Two Local Students Are Named In Who's Who in Texas High Schools

Two Munday high school graduates, Joe Morrow, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Morrow, and Ben Bowden, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Bowden, were recently selected to represent Munday in the 1941-42 issue of "Who's Who Among High School Students in Texas," which is published through the cooperation of the Texas high schools.

The members selected are on the basis of the combined qualities of scholarship, leadership, character, sportsmanship, and extra-curricular activities by the high school authorities. This is the only book of its kind which gives recognition to outstanding high school students.

The purpose of Who's Who is to serve as an incentive to high school students and to introduce these worthy students to the colleges and universities of Texas. This last purpose is accomplished by each college and university of the state receiving a free copy of the publication.

Listed in Who's Who will be the following information regarding the Munday students: Joe Morrow: Manager of the football team this year and in previous years he made a good record as a player on the Mogul football and basketball teams; is an active member of the F.F.A. and treasurer of that organization; is active in public speaking and is a natural born speaker; expects to attend Texas Christian University this fall where he has been offered a scholarship on his ability to play football.

Ben Bowden: Is president of the senior class; secretary of the Munday F.F.A.; is printer of the annual; represented Munday in public speaking on the subject "My Home Town"; is very active in junior basketball; expects to attend Hardin-Simmons University this fall.

New Benches Contributed To City Hall Lawn

People who visit Munday and become tired and worn out from shopping may now find a place to rest in the shade of trees on the city hall lawn.

Several long benches, and then some shorter ones, have been built at the expense of local merchants and placed on the lawn for use of the public. Most of the time some of the longer ones are available, but most of the time the short ones are occupied by those who enjoy dominoes and forty-two as a city lawn pastime.

Merchants who contributed the benches are Musser Lumber Co., Eland's Drug Store, Munday Hardware and Furniture Co., Atkinson's Super Food Store, Piggly Wiggly, Bronch Implement Co., Baker M-Carty, Coates Cafe, Palace Market and Ben Guinn.

Mrs. Simpkins made her home here during the time Rev. Longino served as pastor of the First Methodist church. She was known and loved by many Munday citizens. She was almost 86 years of age.

Funeral services were held from the Methodist church in Crowell at one o'clock last Saturday afternoon. The body was shipped to Kansas for burial, where services were held at four o'clock last Sunday afternoon.

American Legion Gets Many Flowers For Memorial Day

Members of Lowry Post No. 44 of American Legion this week expressed their sincere thanks to everyone who donated flowers to be used in decorating the graves of war veterans on Memorial Day.

The committee stated that many nice flowers were received—about four or five times as many as were received for this purpose last year.

Committee members decorated the graves of all Civil War, Spanish-American War and World War I veterans during Memorial Day activities. Wreaths of flowers and tiny American flags were placed on each grave.

City Water Tower Gets Working Over

The city's water storage tower has been given a thorough "going over" during recent weeks to assure the citizens of plenty of clean, pure water.

The tank has been cleaned and treated on the inside and given a new coat of paint on the outside. It looks much nicer, is bound to be cleaner on the inside, and it just seems the water tastes better. At any rate, folks can be assured it's free of contamination.

GERALDINE THOMPSON RECEIVES DEGREE

Mrs. Geraldine Thompson of Munday was a candidate for the Bachelor of Science degree in elementary education in the graduation exercises held at North Texas State Teachers College on Monday, June 1.

Retailers to Comply With New Ruling On Credit

Retail firms of Munday announce this week that they must comply with the new federal ruling on credit purchases, and they urge citizens to familiarize themselves with the new rules.

Because they effect every user of credit, whether in the form of "charge" accounts or installment purchases, the Federal Reserve Board's new regulations on credit control should be carefully studied by everyone.

To acquaint the public with the salient features of the regulations, which went into effect May 6, Munday merchants representing practically all lines of business, have underwritten a page advertisement in The Munday Times. This ad appears in this week's issue, and all readers are urged to familiarize themselves with its contents.

The ruling will have no effect upon regular 30-day charge accounts, it was stated, and those who pay their accounts regularly on the 10th of each month may carry on business relationships as in the past. Merchants explain in this page that accounts are due on the 10th of each month following date of purchase, but under federal regulations, persons will not be allowed to "ride" their accounts and still receive credit. Penalties for violation of the new ruling are very severe, merchants said.

Senior Class At Rhineland To Present Play

Although the Rhineland Seniors graduated on May 22, their activities in connection with the school are still at a very high gait. Due to sickness of some of the players and other unavoidable circumstances, they had to postpone the Senior play, "Look Me in the Eye," a three-act farce-comedy, until Sunday night, June 7.

Because so much work had been done on the play at the close of school and the play is such a good one, they were reluctant to drop it. All players are doing their very best to give full credit to this side-splitting, laughter-provoking play, and they cordially invite everybody to come and see it. It will be presented Sunday night at 9 o'clock.

Vacation Bible School Slated At Church of Christ

We have a very fine group of instructors and excellent qualified teachers for all departments. Children will not be asked to study at home but some very pleasant and valuable instruction will be given during the hours of the school. Nothing will be taught except the Bible.

Send your sons and daughters. They all need more Bible knowledge. Enroll Saturday morning at 9:30.

Mr. and Mrs. Dyke received B.A. degrees. During her college career, Mrs. Dyke majored in business administration. Mr. Dyke's major was English and history.

Mrs. Dyke's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Tiner, were in Abilene for the exercises.

BONDS FIGHT THE AXIS

The American people will decide whether or not the nation will be forced to adopt and accept compulsory purchasing of War Bonds. According to Secretary Morgenthau, it will be necessary for us to buy one billion dollars of these bonds each month. If we do that voluntarily there will be no need for compulsion. If we don't, compulsion will be inevitable.

Some may wonder why the government can't pay for the war simply by selling more bonds to banks. Secretary Morgenthau recently pointed out that excessively heavy bank purchases are inflationary, "because when commercial banks buy Government Bonds they do not pay for them with actual cash taken from their vaults, but by placing on their books newly created deposits to the credit of the government. When the government draws upon these deposits to pay for the goods and service it buys, the purchasing power of those to whom these payments are made is increased without any decrease in the purchasing power of those from whom the money is borrowed."

Increased purchasing power combined with a decreased supply of goods is the certain road to disastrous inflation. The government wants you to buy bonds with every nickel you can spare—and it wants you to deny yourselves luxuries so you can buy more. No man can make a better purchase than the securities which buy weapons to fight the Axis.

BATTLE FOR SURVIVORS AT HOME

American retailing, small and large, today faces an extremely difficult battle for survival. That battle is the inevitable result of the general price-freezing order.

"Time" covered the situation accurately when it wrote: "The retailer . . . bears the brunt of the whole price-control program. With few exceptions, U.S. retailers were having the horrors . . . Worst blow was that OPA had denied their plea for a 'roll-back' of ceiling dates that would recognize the lag between rising wholesale and retail prices. . . . Retailers maintained that their price level was still some 10 per cent behind their suppliers."

"The National Association of Retail Grocers called this squeeze 'disastrous,' predicted wholesale bankruptcies unless OPA could iron out their problems in a hurry. Other retailers put a finger on the saddest inequity of all . . . the failure to provide a whole-sale roll-back is hardest on the patriotic merchant who tried to keep the lid on his prices (by averaging his costs), while the one who jumped his prices as fast as his costs rose is rewarded."

It is obvious that this "squeeze" will be hardest on small merchants who lack capital reserves which would permit them to operate at a loss for some time. There are literally tens of thousands of stores in this country which are in imminent danger of ruin.

Retailing, long ago, cut its cost of operation to rock-bottom, and it will be unable to further reduce overhead. The typical retailer doesn't go in for expensive frills which can be abandoned now. Unless some provision is made for the "roll-back," he will have no way to meet the problem.

This is a desperately urgent situation. The whole future of retail business is involved. Unless the OPA, Congress or some other responsible agency acts swiftly, widespread retail failures and store closures are certain.

THE FARMER AND HIS CAR

"A passenger car is not a necessity for a family living within a few blocks of a bus line or the shopping district," says the Dairyman's League News of New York, "but it is vital to the farmer living many miles from a community."

"These facts should be considered by the government and special consideration should be given to farmers' need for gasoline."

In many small farming operations, a passenger car provides the entire transportation, and is the only means the producer has of reaching his market. Even in larger operations, use of trucks is often wasteful and uneconomic and absorbs unnecessary quantities of gasoline and rubber. The passenger car in short, provides a farm service that nothing else can sufficiently replace.

Gas priorities for trucks alone will not solve the farmer's transportation problem. His passenger car is often essential to his operation—and essential to the delivery of the food the nation must have.

In addition to washing, soap can be used for almost endless number of useful purposes, one of which is to locate leaks in gas-pipe joints. The suspected joint is plastered with suds and if gas bubbles through, there's your leak.

What we have in us of the image of God is the love of truth and justice.—Demosthenes.

AFTER THE WAR, WHAT?

Everybody is going all-out to win the war and nothing will interfere with that effort—the man on the street, the factory worker, the housewife, the farmer, and the business man are showing grim determination to bring this war to a successful termination. But we shouldn't be human if we didn't sometimes speculate on what will follow.

We face a huge task in winning this war and just as huge a task in winning the peace. To win the peace, we must prepare now—even while we are concentrating on winning the war. No one wants to go back to days of depression, of idle plants, idle men and idle money.

American industry, built and maintained by foresight, isn't ignoring this problem. It is tackling it right now, along with the dozens of other problems created by war production itself. It's laying plans for a speedy changeover to increased civilian manufacturing when this emergency is ended.

Industrialists assure us that wonderful new products are in store for the post-war markets. A glass company is prepared to offer prefabricated homes costing about $3,000 that can be assembled quickly to make cheap housing available; the airplane industry promises new luxury liners, thousands of new air fields for smaller planes, and employment to millions.

Such inventions and changes, forced by the war far sooner than they would have developed naturally, are the mainstay of the widely accepted opinion that a post-war depression of monumental proportions can be averted.

As Walter B. Weisenburger, executive vice-president of the National Association of Manufacturers has said, "the development during the war production period of superior manufacturing methods applicable to peacetime production embodies the promise that we may attain in the post-war period a scale of living higher than ever before."

ISOLATED JUDAS

Again, in the last war, we hear charges that industrialists are using this war as a vehicle for gouging the taxpayer by insisting on huge profits. What the public often doesn't realize is that although a company may make large profits on some of its contracts it may make little or no profit on other contracts.

Mr. J. A. Hartley, a director of the National Association of Manufacturers, pointed out in a recent speech that "the N.A.M. has with all its vigor denounced since the fall of 1939 any attempt to use war emergencies as a basis for profiteering. And the record shows that industry has not profited. The combined income accounts of 100 large manufacturing corporations show that in 1940 their net income, after taxes, was 8.6 per cent of sales, as compared with 7 per cent in 1941."

"Indeed, the true profit situation in the last decades has never been properly impressed on the public mind. 'There is no headline today on the fact that through the heyday of prosperity from 1921 to 1930 the average annual profit was only 4.4 per cent. The headline audience has never been told that during the past decade profits average only 1.5 per cent."

"Industry is tying no strings to victory. There are a misguided few—as the Revolution has its Benedict Arnolds—who may be more concerned with profits than with honor. I hold that these men are the termites of the house that is America. But one cannot blame a whole people for the acts of the lonely, individual traitor; one cannot blame a whole producing industry for its isolated Judas."

Industrial research men are studying the tough ends of spargus stalks in the hope of processing them into a good fiber insulating board.

TEXAS FARMERS CLEAR LAST HURDLE

College Station.—Tokyo is in for a lot of blasting from Texas farmers if all the peanuts they raise this year are converted into oils for explosives.

Texas USDA War Board announced this week that Texas farmers already have planted 96,000 acres more than the 1,056,000 acres Uncle Sam asked them to raise in 1942. State totals indicate that approximately 95,000 producers in 198 counties have seeded 1,152,154 acres to peanuts. Producers in 149 counties exceeded goals originally set for them.

Counties planting 45,000 acres or more are Atascosa with 60,000 acres; Comanche with 55,000 acres; Eastland with 50,000 acres; Frio with 50,000 acres; and Erath and Wilson with 45,000 acres each.

Primary objectives of increased production are to offset the loss of imports of fats and oils from the Pacific area, and to provide cooking fats, oleomargarine and other products needed by allied fighting forces and civilian workers. Peanut oil can also be substituted for other oils in manufacture of explosives, antifreeze and medicine.

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Forman last week were the following: Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Moore and son, W. G. Patrick and Billy and Dot of Whiteface, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Forman of Albany and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Stratton of Knox City.

Miss Jean Williams, who has been attending T.S.C.W., at Denton, came in last week to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. V. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mahan and daughters, Mary Charles and Linda, of Abilene, visited relatives and friends here over the week end.

Coffee-Tea Quotas Increased
"Relief quotas" of coffee and tea, in addition to the quotas allowed by WPB tea and coffee conservation orders, have been granted to 13 defense areas in the Southwest, where population has increased 10 per cent or more during the last year. The additional coffee of tea obtained by dealers under this WPB grant must be sold for consumption within the specified defense area.

Use of Zippers Allowed
Continued use of zippers fabricated prior to April 1 is permitted in a recent amendment to WPB's zipper limitation order, affecting various garments and articles, such as swim suits, corsets, luggage, pocketbooks, sports jackets, over-shoes and furniture slip covers. Supplies of copper, steel and zinc for manufacture of slide fasteners to be used in these articles was cut off by the WPB on April 1.

Price Control Explained
A meeting at the Settles Hotel in Big Spring, Texas, on Friday will wind up the series of Texas conferences held this week by Thomas J. Murray, OPA region price specialist, with workers in the Department of Agriculture and other persons in direct contact with framers and ranchers, discussing the effects of price control on farm people.

Price Warning Issued
A warning that ignorance of the price control law will not be accepted as an excuse for violations, addressed specifically to the meat industry in the Southwest, also is applicable to others who must operate under price control, Max L. McCullough, region OPA administrator, said.

Fixture Manufacture Stopped
An order virtually halting the manufacture after June 20 of sinks, drinking fountains, water closet bowls and tanks, and other plumbing fixtures, has been issued by the War Production Board. The order prohibits use of metals other than joining hardware, coating or reinforcing mesh in production of these fixtures. At least 250,000 of the more essential of these plumbing fixtures are believed to be on hand now, enough to meet requirements for a considerable period of time.

Farm Cooperation Asked
With the double aim of conserving vital transportation equipment and assuring a continuous flow of farm products to market, Office of Defense Transportation and Department of Agriculture officials are joining in an appeal of farmers to cut use of farm trucks and cars down to the minimum and to form transportation pools among themselves.

WPB Director Named
Appointment of Ros Eugene Riser, of Bonham, Texas, as regional director of the War Production Board in Texas, Oklahoma and Louisiana, with headquarters at Dallas, has been announced by WPB chairman Donald M. Nelson. Mr. Riser is president and general manager of the Southwest Pump Co., of Bonham, which he founded in 1916. He is a native of Calvert, Texas.

Feather Restrictions Lifted
Certain classifications of goose feathers which were found unsuitable for military specifications have been released to make civilian pillows and upholstery stuffing, in an amendment to order M-102, which originally set aside all supplies of such feathers for use by the armed services.

Warning on Rug Sales
A warning to distributors of wool floor coverings that refusal to accept orders for size 9 by 12-foot rugs and offer of a slightly different size instead is an evasion of the price regulation governing resale of floor coverings has been issued by OPA.

Refrigerators Controlled
Distributors and manufacturers may sell, ship or deliver domestic mechanical refrigerators only to

Victory Razor Latest
Razor manufacturers now are making a "Victory Razor," composed of a zinc cap, a zinc or plastic guard and a plastic handle. Copper use in razors is now completely banned by WPB order. Sales of safety razors by manufacturers and jobbers, except to the armed forces, also are prohibited by WPB order.

Auctions, Funerals Covered
Interpretations by the OPA that such diverse transactions as auction sales and funeral service charges must conform to the price ceilings established in the General Maximum Price Regulation. Another ruling is that some processed grain products, when not sold in packages of three pounds or less, are excepted from the provisions of the price regulation. These products include farina, hominy, grits, pearled barley, cereal oats and ground buckwheat.

IGIVE YOU TEXAS by BOYCE HOUSE
We can and will win this war, but—
We won't win this war grumbling about sugar. In the days of the Texas Republic, people ate an average of 10 pounds of sugar a year; we have been eating 90 pound a year.
Nor will we win this war by complaining about daylight saving time. Our good old daddies and mothers worked from sunup to sundown.
And we won't win this war by whimpering about automobiles and tires. Old Sam Houston never even owned a Model T—and he got along all right.
We won't win this war by repeating rumors and saying harsh things about our Allies.
And we won't win this war by continually finding fault with our leaders. Under our Constitution, Franklin D. Roosevelt is and will be our President for the next two and a half year and we will fall or rise with Roosevelt. Of course, we have a right to criticize things we consider wrong—but let's be sure that our criticism is constructive and not mere grumbling or nagging.
We will win this war by everybody—farmers, industry, business and workers—pulling together.

Firearms Released
Some new firearms, including odd-calibre rifles and small shot-guns, now may be sold to the general public by dealers and wholesalers, under an amendment to the WPB order which "froze" all new firearms on February 27. Various types of rifles, pistols and shot-guns, suitable for protection of essential civilian facilities and war plants, are restricted by the amendment to sale for state, local or federal government use, on orders rated A-1-J or higher, to the Defense Supplies Corporation, lend-lease, or on specific order by the Director of Industry Operations.

Ice Price Rule Issued
Relief for the ice industry from provisions of the general maximum price regulation was supplied by Price Administrator in a separate price regulation (154), which permits ice merchandisers to charge the same maximum prices from April to October this year as they charged for the same period last year. Using March prices as a base, as required under the general regulation, would have work-

And did you hear the story of the elderly lady who said to the misbehaving little boy, "Don't you know that if you are naughty you will never get to be President?" and he replied, "That's all right, I'm a Republican, anyhow."

This beautiful little poem, by an unknown writer, appeared recently in the Cumbly News. It's entitled "Where Were You?"
"I came to your church last Sunday, I walked up and down the aisle, I noticed your seat was vacant."
Said the Master, with a kindly smile.
"Yes, I was at home," I answered. "Some folks from up Salem way Drove down for a week-end visit, So we stayed in the house all day."

"I had a roast in the pan,"

JUST THE SUNDAY DINNER YOU'RE LOOKING FOR!

If you were presented with a list of Sunday dinner menus and told to choose one to prepare next Sunday for your family—what two dishes would you look for first? I know you'd try to choose one with things your family especially enjoys. But wouldn't you also be watching for a dinner with a less expensive cut of meat—and with a sugarless, or almost sugarless, dessert? I'm sure you would. And here is just such a Sunday dinner.

- Tomato Juice Cocktail if Desired
- Beef Tongue A La Jardiniere
- Twice Baked Potatoes
- Head Lettuce with Thousand Island Dressing
- Fresh from the Garden Radishes
- White Bread
- Dark Bread
- Jelly
- Pickles
- Pecan Pie
- Coffee

One of the nice things about buying a thrifter cut of meat is that it contains all those essential proteins, vitamins and minerals that we get in the more costly cuts. It's just that some cuts are better known and more in demand. Therefore there are fewer of them to go around—so the price is higher. The less known and less frequently purchased cuts cost less because there are more of them to go around. Yet they can be made just as tasty and appetizing as the more expensive meats. So we'll start this dinner off with a beef tongue cooked with vegetables. We call it—Beef Tongue A La Jardiniere—and here is the recipe—

1 beef tongue (about 3 lbs.)
2 cups diced carrots
2 cups diced celery
1 cup diced white onion
4 cups meat stock
1/4 cup all purpose flour
4 tbsp. butter

Put tongue in cold water, bring to boiling point and boil gently for 2 1/2 hours. Remove tongue from water, skin and trim, removing bone and gristle from end. Put in roaster and pile vegetables around it. Pour the 4 cups of meat stock in which the tongue was cooked over the tongue and vegetables. Cover and bake two hours in a slow moderate oven, 325° F. Remove tongue and vegetables to platter and keep hot. Brown flour, add butter and blend well. Thicken liquid in roaster with flour-butter mixture for gravy. This makes 6 to 8 servings.

A Sugarless Pie

Our dessert is really elegant—the specialty of a popular tea room. What's important right now is that it's made without one bit of sugar—that is, honey is used entirely to sweeten this delicious Pecan Pie. Here is the recipe—

PECAN PIE

Pastry for 9-inch pie shell
3 eggs
1 cup light-colored honey
1 tsp. vanilla
4 tbsp. butter, melted and slightly cooled
1/4 tsp. salt
1 cup pecans, coarsely chopped

Line a deep pie pan with plain pastry, and chill while preparing the filling. Beat eggs well with rotary egg beater. Beat in honey, vanilla, melted butter and salt. Sprinkle pecans over the pastry in the pie pan. Pour the egg mixture over the pecans. Bake 35 to 40 minutes in a hot oven, 450° F., for the first 15 minutes, reducing the heat to 325° F. slow moderate oven, to finish baking.

No 1942 State Fair at Dallas

Dallas.—There will be no 1942 State Fair of Texas. Decision to forego the annual exposition, known as "the world's largest and most beautiful State Fair," was reached by the Board of directors after Harry L. Seay, president of the institution, made a report on his survey of conditions brought about by the national emergency. Lack of transportation for both exhibits and patrons decided the issue. Tire shortage, possible gasoline rationing and a scarcity of shipping facilities influenced the decision. Many of the leading fairs of both the United States and Canada have been called off for the duration. Grounds and buildings of the $15,000,000 plant of the State Fair of Texas have been tendered the United States Government for any use it may see fit to make of them, Mr. Seay announced.

We had the best attendance at the evening service last Sunday evening that we have had in some time. You can come to the services in the evening and get home in time to go to roost with the chickens. If you don't believe it, just try it. Attend church Sunday: Sunday School, 10 a.m. Morning service, 11 a.m. League, 6:30 p.m. Evening service, 7:15 p.m. FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH. Next Monday morning at nine o'clock our vacation bible school begins. The faculty has been organized, program worked out, and everything is in readiness. There will be a place for all children of the Beginner, Primary, Junior and Intermediate ages. There is nothing that the church offers that is worth as much to the young life as the vacation bible school. We will begin at nine and run until twelve each morning for two weeks. Every minute there will be something doing. You will especially want to be in the service next Sunday morning. We will have a few minutes conference in the beginning of the service. W. H. Albertson.

A recent order of the Federal Reserve Board, acting under authority of the President of the United States, requires all stores granting credit to make certain changes in their credit services. The new restrictions will in no way disturb a long and mutually agreeable relationship. You can continue to buy merchandise and have it "charged," or buy certain items on the installment plan, just as you have in the past, with the following stipulations:

1. Accounts are due, as in the past, on the 10th of the month following purchase, but every charge transaction MUST now be paid by the 10th of the second month following the purchase. Accordingly all purchases made during May and any previous unpaid balances must be paid by July 10, OTHERWISE WE SHALL NOT BE PERMITTED TO CHARGE FURTHER PURCHASES. This schedule of payment will continue as long as the order remains in force.

2. The maximum permissible maturity of installment sales has been reduced to 12 months, and the required down payment for all articles covered has been increased to 33 1-3 per cent. Exceptions to this rule include automobiles, for which down payment of one-third and maximum maturity of 15 months has been retained, and furniture, for which the required down payment, formerly 10 per cent, becomes 20 per cent, the maximum maturity being 12 months. Minimum installment payments are set at $1.25 per week, or $5 monthly.

The consumer credit control regulation became effective May 6, 1942, and has been broadened to include all lines of retail business and almost every article of personal and household use.

These Munday business firms ask their customers to bear in mind that the regulations on credit are instituted by the Government and must be conformed with. They are intended to put a brake in rising costs and to encourage the paying off of debts. Please do not ask your merchant to make exceptions.

BOYCE HOUSE

Boyce House For Lieutenant Governor Adds New Interest

The entry of Boyce House this week into the Lieutenant Governor's race has added interest to the campaign for that office.

This is House's first race for any office, but he has a background of wide, varied and unusual achievements. He has written five books on Texas and has long studied the governmental affairs of the State.

In gathering material for his column, "I Give You Texas," he has traveled through the State, is familiar with conditions and problems of every section, and knows thousands of Texans personally.

Over a million people read his human interest column in more than 200 newspapers in the smaller cities and towns throughout Texas.

House, 45 years old, lives in Fort Worth; has edited newspapers in Olney, Brady, Eastland, Ranger and Cisco; and obtained his education in Taylor, Brownwood, Uvalde and Alpine. Political observers agree that Boyce House will be a strong contender for Lieutenant Governor.

HUMAN CHAIN OF COMMUNICATION FOR AGRICULTURE

On May 4 the Home Demonstration Agent, Neva Van Zandt, and County Agent R. O. Dunkle were given instructions to arrange their work in such a way as to make themselves available for an emergency activity which, when complete, will result in there being set up and extending to every neighborhood in Knox county, a human chain of communication. Through this chain information may be transmitted to and from every farm home in the county, regardless of how humble or remote it may be, and used to aid all farm people to contribute their utmost to the war effort.

The two extension agents of Knox county will complete this human chain of communication systems by June 6. The two agents expressed themselves as being highly pleased with the cooperation received by the community and neighborhood leaders. It is believed that when this system of communication is set up that information of important nature to agriculture can be gotten to the most remote farm home in Knox County within 6 hours. The committee cooperating in this communication program are Munday, Vera, Hefner, Rhineland, Goree, Knox City, Sunset, Benjamin, Trustcott and GIELEND.

The war and war emergencies make it imperative that the nation's way of life be revised so it will fit into the war effort in the most effective way. In accordance with this need, all Extension Service programs will be re-aligned to render the speediest and most effective service possible.

Mrs. Ben Guinn has returned from a visit in Fort Worth with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Hughes. Mrs. Guinn attended the graduation exercises of her granddaughter, Mary Lee Hughes. Miss Hughes was valedictorian of her class, and has been on the honor roll every month since she entered school, except one, and that was due to illness.

Cowboy Reunion To Use Profits For War Bonds

Stamford, Texas.—The Texas Cowboy Reunion will go "all out" in the war effort in this year's event, to be held here July 2, 3 and 4, according to recent unanimous action by the board of directors.

All of the net profits tax from the show will be used to purchase United States War Bonds, and this, with addition of the federal admission tax, levied this year for the first time, will contribute a neat sum toward winning the war, if attendance is comparable with Reunions of past years.

Full speed ahead was the decision of the directors and all committee chairmen are completing details for their divisions with the aim of giving a bigger show this year than ever before.

The Reunion, inaugurated in 1930 for the purpose of keeping alive the memories and traditions of the Old West, is a non-profit organization and not a penny has ever been paid in dividends to stockholders during the dozen years of its existence. All the profits have been used for maintenance, improvements and additions to the buildings and grounds. As a consequence the Reunion plant is one of the largest of its kind in the country. The success of the Reunion no doubt is due to the untiring efforts of a large group of West Texans who have given freely of work and time to build this show, which stands as a monument to one of the greatest industries in the West—ranching.

Another factor in the success of the Reunion is that its star performers in the rodeo are actual employees of ranches, who compete against each other in events that are daily duties of their work. Professional performers have no place in the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pruitt made a trip to New Orleans, La., last week to get their daughter, Georgia, who has been in school there. Georgia will visit her parents during the summer months.

Misses Lorene and Polly Silman, who are attending Texas Tech at Lubbock, came in last week for a few days visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Silman. They will return to Lubbock to attend summer school.

Canary Gives Jane Withers "the bird"

HERE'S the irrepressible Jane Withers "getting the bird"—and liking it. In common with other Hollywood stars, Jane has fallen hard for a canary—the new hobby craze that is sweeping the film studios. "My canary just loves attention," Jane says. "Also, he does not believe in that old copy-book rule about being seen and not heard. He feels it is his right to have both privileges. And when there are several persons in the room talking, and he receives no attention, he either tries to break in, or sings so loudly I just have to pay attention to him."

The widespread revival of interest in canaries as pets, many observers believe, is due to the fact that a canary is the only pet that sings. His cheery response to friendly greetings, and his always joyous song provide a bit of extra sunshine for those whose lonely hours need brightening.

Pearl Harbor Avengers To Be Enlisted Sun.

One June 7, 1942, 1:55 (Texas War Time), the exact minute and hour six months after the Pearl Harbor outrage, many times the number slain will be enlisted as "Pearl Harbor Avengers" at mass ceremonies conducted by the U.S. Navy Recruiting Station at Wichita Falls and each of the other 499 Navy recruiting stations in the United States.

Plans announced by Navy officials provide for nation-wide observance of "Avenge Pearl Harbor Day." Mayors in all cities are asked to issue proclamations calling upon citizens to display the flag and aid in recruiting for the U.S. Navy. Preceding the enlistment ceremony a patriotic parade for men in naval service and school children with flags will be held.

At the ceremony a section will be reserved for parents and wives of men to be enlisted as Pearl Harbor Avengers, and of those now in the Navy. A special place of honor will be given those who lost a son or husband at Pearl Harbor or any other naval engagement.

Ministers of Protestant, Catholic, and Jewish faiths have been asked to be present and administering oaths of enlistment to the Pearl Harbor Avengers will be reverent in keeping with the church obligation it entails. The oath will be repeated in unison by the Pearl Harbor Avengers, in whose ranks are expected to be booted cowboys in ten gallon hats, soft-handed clerical workers, horny-handed mechanics and youths of 17 just out of school. Every one of them will be a volunteer and there because of his desire to show the enslaved Axis nations what is in store for them once the people of this free nation are thoroughly aroused.

Age limits for enlistment with the Pearl Harbor Avengers are from 17 to 50 years. Both skilled and unskilled men are wanted. Many may qualify for petty officer ratings. Application should be made at once and in person at the U.S. Navy Recruiting Station at Wichita Falls. Men registered for Selective Service may be enlisted as Pearl Harbor Avengers if they have not received orders for induction into the Army.

Grady Roberts Announces For Representative

GRADY ROBERTS

Grady Roberts, present representative from the 114th district of Texas, recently made his formal announcement for re-election to this office. Mr. Roberts' announcement follows:

For some time I have been undecided about making my announcement for re-election, due to business reasons. Since we are engaged in war and our country is in great peril, naturally I want to again serve by country where I can do the most good. I sincerely believe it is my patriotic duty to the people of my district to offer myself for re-election as representative of the 114th district. I do this realizing the many responsibilities and the ever-increasing importance of the office.

Twenty-five years ago, we were engaged in a great conflict which was called World War No. 1. I served my country as a volunteer in the Navy during that war. Now we are engaged in another conflict, which I believe, is far more serious than any we have ever been engaged in before; therefore, I think it is fitting and proper and very essential at this time that we have men in the Legislature with experience, because many problems stand before us as people of Texas. We must cooperate with our Federal government in every way to win this war. And win we will!

My experience in the Legislature is largely responsible for my being placed on the appropriations committee, which is recognized as the most important one in the Legislature because it allocates and appropriates the State's monies. I am also chairman of the conservation and reclamation committee, which is composed of 21 members, a member of the agricultural committee, as well as two other very important committees. It is essential to have legislative experience before one can get a chairmanship of any committee, or be placed on the appropriations committee.

I sincerely thank the people of my district for the confidence they have placed in me in the past by sending me to Austin to help make the laws in the Legislature of Texas. I also want to thank you for the fine co-operation you have given me since I have been your representative. This cooperation has come from all over the district, and it has been a great help in my feeble efforts to make you a good representative.

Your representative has never missed a record vote or roll call since he has been a member of the Legislature. This is a record which shows I have been on the job trying to solve your problems.

Due to the work attached to this office, the tire shortage and pressing business matters, it will be impossible for me to make an extensive campaign, but your vote and influence will be gratefully accepted as an expression of your continued faith and confidence in me.

King County To Vote on Liquor

Acting on the order of District Judge Lewis Williams, the commissioners court of King county has ordered an election to determine where the sale of all alcoholic beverages shall continue to be legal in King county. The election will be held Friday, June 5.

Judge Williams' order was given April 22 during the spring term of 50th district court on P'aducah when the election held Feb. 28 for the same purpose was declared void by him because notices ordering the election and ballots for it did not conform.

The drays were victorious in the Feb. 28 election.
