Revival To Open Sunday At First Baptist Church

Good Evangelist And Singer Secured For Revival

Rev. W. H. Albertson, pastor of the First Baptist church, announced Tuesday that the annual summer revival will open at the Munday church next Sunday morning, continuing for two weeks.

Rev. E. T. Miller of the Lamar Avenue Baptist church of Wichita Falls will do the preaching for this revival. Rev. Miller is recognized as one of the leading evangelists of this denomination. Since graduation from Simmons University, Abilene, he has held pastorates in a number of Texas towns and cities. He served as pastor at Memphis, Texas, for eight years and one year was voted the town's most useful citizen by the Chamber of Commerce. He recently came to Wichita Falls after ten years as pastor at Corsicana. Rev. Miller will have interesting messages for all who attend the revival.

The choir director and young people's leader is Peter W. Fast, choir director of the First Baptist church at Eau Claire, Wisconsin. Mr. Fast comes highly recommended as a singer, choir leader and leader among young people, and word comes that he is a highly consecrated young man.

Revival services will be held at 10 o'clock each morning and at 8:30 each evening. Evening services will be held in the open.

"We urge all the people of this community to attend the revival meeting," Rev. Albertson said. "We ask your full cooperation in this evangelistic campaign. We want all church members and Christians to be much in prayer for each and every service and to work and pray to the end that this revival will result in a great winning of souls for God's kingdom. We will be looking for you at the services."

$33,000.00 is Saved In Two-Year Period

The general object of this feeding trial was to obtain visual results and information in regard to the utilization of farm-grown feeds in farm pork production. The points of consideration in this feeding trial were: 1st. Should pigs be fed a protein supplement in connection with grain? 2nd. Is yellow corn more economical in producing pork than milo grain?

"What a Man Does For Himself Dies With Him—
What He Does For His Community Lives On and On"—

INVINCIBLE PRODUCTION MACHINE

Americans may well be proud of their industrial war machine and confident that it will enable the Allied Nations to triumph in the end. As one newspaper correspondent returning from a "Production for Victory" tour, sponsored by the National Association of Manufacturers, puts it, "American industry is so huge and so powerful, both actually and potentially," that nothing can "prevent it from swamping the Axis."

"Throughout the land, a mighty revolution is in progress," says this correspondent. "American industry is beating the ploughshares of peacetime—the autos, the electric refrigerators, the toasters and the washing machines—into the swords of total war: planes, tanks and high explosive bombs."

While industry did not want this total conversion to war production any more than the public wanted to exchange their cars for tanks, the colossus is now at work and results in the gigantic war effort are discernible in every manufacturing center in the country.

On an all-out war production basis, American industry has not only met and passed the "fantastic" production schedules laid down by the government, but is beating the combined Axis production in terms of planes, guns, tanks and other essential fighting equipment.

Despite tremendous obstacles, which industry already is surmounting, and despite the shortage of certain vital materials, which ingenuity on the part of industry and sacrifice on the part of the population can overcome, American industry is doing its share in the job and as this correspondent points out, "The picture of the Arsenal of Democracy at work is one from which ever lover of freedom may draw courage and strength."

HAVE YOUR BUCKET READY

The United States has been shelled by enemy warships. It is completely possible that, before long, the United States may be attacked from the skies. And if those attacks come, fire bombs or one kind or another will be one of the principal weapons used. Unless this country is ready to deal with fire on an unprecedented scale, disastrous damage to our homes, our factories and our farms will be inevitable.

In connection with this, James M. Landis, director of the Office of Civilian Defense, recently said: "Obviously the first thing that is apparent is that the fire-fighting forces of every city have to be enormously expanded . . . recruiting, training of auxiliary firemen, and the re-training of existing forces, are thus a mandatory obligation of every community in the vast target areas of this country. And this program cannot wait. It must not only be begun, but be completed now . . . we dare not wait sourly and delayingly for new equipment to roll off the production line and blame delays which we can avoid upon delays that are beyond our power to control."

In many localities, volunteer auxiliary fire-fighting organizations were started with enthusiasm long ago. Then that enthusiasm was slowly lost, and at the present time the effort has bogged down. And that is precisely what our enemies want. They are not going to tell us when they will attack, or where. They will depend upon surprise—and an ill-prepared nation will be an easy victim.

Every house should be a fire house. That simply means that all the people should be ready to combat fire whenever and wherever it strikes. We must prepare thoroughly. Every day brings the time of possible attack closer.

A LUMP OF COAL

Take a lump of coal in your hand. It certainly isn't pretty. It doesn't even look useful. But coal is one of those extraordinary products which will revolutionize the world of the future.

Out of coal comes one kind of synthetic rubber—and America's highly developed coal industry will be an important factor in eventually solving the grave rubber problem.

Out of coal come many plastics—and we're just on the verge of the "plastic age" today. All-plastic cars, all-plastic airplanes, all-plastic furniture—these are but a few of the amazing developments.

American industry and American inventive genius are opening up vast new horizons. Miracles are in the making.

A new type of opaque glass that floats like cork and can be used as the buoyant element in the construction of lifeboats, life rafts, life preservers, and pontoon bridge supports has been developed by one company.

IS YOUR HOME SAFE?

Is your home relatively safe from fires? Or is it alive with hazards?

Think twice before answering those questions. For most homes contain definite and critical fire dangers which their owners never think about. A survey made in Milwaukee testifies to that. A large number of home-owners were asked if their homes were safe and the great bulk of them said, Yes. Then the homes were inspected by experts, and in the great majority, serious, obvious and easily-eliminated hazards were unearthed.

Basements, attics, and closets are prolific with fire hazards. Old clothing, furniture, piles of discarded newspapers and magazines and similar rubbish are responsible for fire damage running into the tens of millions each year. Go through every storage place, clean it out, and call the junkman or your favorite charity.

Garages and workshops constitute still another great potential danger. Paint, varnish, solvents, cleaning fluids and other inflammable liquids should be stored in tightly-closed containers—and kept away from furnaces and heaters. A neat, clean garage is always safer than a dirty, littered garage. Look around yours today.

Many a serious fire has been started from shorts caused by frayed lamp cords—or by electric equipment which has been damaged and improperly repaired by amateurs. Check your exposed wiring—and when anything goes wrong with your gadgets, take them to a qualified repairman. It won't cost you much—and it may save a home and a life.

If all Americans would go through their homes from roof to cellar looking for fire hazards, we'd substantially reduce this country's disgraceful fire loss.

THESE LEAKS IN OUR CEILINGS

Since last year this time the cost of most things we consumers buy has risen ten per cent or more. Food bought for a dollar today would have cost only 84 cents a year ago. And so it goes with other products and services we need.

Food is an isolated example, but it indicates a trend that is dangerous to the security of every one of us. For these price rises are the straws in the wind of inflation, and that wind is steadily growing stronger. In almost every field prices have crept upward and upward—a few cents here, a dime there. In spite of the efforts of the Office of Price Administration to control that trend, we consumers have been constantly giving ground in our battle to keep the cost of living down.

It's going to be a tough battle to win, but win we can if we're willing to do what must be done. That much is certain. At the beginning of the war the Canadians were faced with problems of inflation that were pretty much like ours, and they won. By placing an over-all ceiling on all wages, salaries, services, rents, and virtually everything that has to do with the life of the nation, they found the solution that has halted the price rise in their country. The prices and wages that now prevail in Canada were established by sellers and buyers themselves, and by employers and employees. They have not gone up in several months.

At the present time we here in this country have price ceilings, but the trouble with ours is that there are a great many leaks in them. We are trying to keep prices down by preventing a relatively few commodities from going above a certain figure. Wages, farm prices and the costs of most products, however, are not controlled. These keep edging higher, and, as they rise, they pull the cost of living up with them. Since the Canadians have found the answer to that situation, it might be well for Congress to study the plan with the idea of applying it in this country.

THE NECESSARY KEystone

SOME 4-H BOYS' ACTIVITIES

College Station.—Texas 4-H club boys, 33,000 strong, have mobilized on the home front to do their part in winning the war just as their older brothers are doing in the armed forces.

According to L. L. Johnson, state boys' club agent, of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service, beef cattle, hogs, sheep and poultry the boys now have on feed substantially outnumber the livestock and poultry projects of last year, and field crops and Victory gardens show corresponding, or even greater, increases. Through May, 6,089 Victory gardens were being grown, compared with 1,471 in 1941.

Texas 4-H Club boys have carried forward their rifle training work, and many are taking first air training, Johnson says. Some counties have organized labor patrols, which are helping with farm work in their communities and home counties.

The boys have taken an active part in all salvage campaigns including collection of scrap rubber, but totals for rubber are not yet available. Other achievements in connection with the war program, based upon reports from 129 counties, follow: Scrap iron collected, 3,478,554 pounds; waste paper collected, 190,804 pounds; and sold for $832; aluminum collected, 57,826 pounds, and sold for $750; and bonds and stamps bought, $39,456.02.

Demonstrations being conducted in the 129 counties are: beef calves on feed, 4,178; swine on feed, 10,552; sheep on feed, 4,477; hens, 73,230; baby chicks, 689,589; in-crescer flocks, $2,332.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Haney and children of Wichita Falls visited with Mr. Haney's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Haney, and with other relatives and friends here last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Stevens of Weimert were business visitors here last Saturday.

W. A. Barnett of Goree was a business visitor in the city Tuesday morning.

Blue stamp foods listed for August and announced today by David G. Guthrie, Jr., area supervisor, Agricultural Marketing Administration, include a number of fresh fruits and all fresh vegetables, thus offering participants a healthful and varied hot weather diet. Fresh pears have been added to the August list of Stamp Program foods which are those obtainable nationally by participants in areas where the program is in operation. By placing fresh pears on the list at this time Mr. Guthrie pointed out, producers will have a broader outlet and greater assurance of a fair return during the period in which pears will be in heaviest abundance on the nation's markets. Also the pears will be a palatable addition to the variety of foods made available to public-aid families through the Stamp Program. With this addition, the complete list of Blue Stamp foods issued by the Agricultural Marketing Administration for August 1 through August 31 in all stamp areas is as follows: fresh pears, peaches, apples, plums, and oranges, all fresh vegetables including Irish and sweet potatoes, shell eggs, butter, corn meal, hominy (corn) grits, dry edible beans, wheat flour, enriched wheat flour, self-rising flour, enriched self-rising flour, and whole wheat (Graham) flour.

GRUDGE AGAINST HITLER

Denton, Texas.—North Texas State Teachers College seniors have still another grudge against Hitler.

Because he invaded Czechoslovakia, they must have class rings of solid gold this year, without the bright green stone which has been traditional with graduates of NT STC.

The stones for the rings came from Czechoslovakia, and the supply has been exhausted this year, with no possibility of replacement in sight.

As a result, seniors have chosen a new ring carrying a solid gold crest, with two yucca plants, a star, and an eagle predominating in the design.

Prospective graduates like the new design, but they warn—Hitler may hear from them yet!

Auto Racing Banned

ODT order No. 44, banning automobile and motorcycle racing for the duration of the war, will become effective July 31. Due to the imperative necessity for conserving tires and equipment, ODT officials said further postponement of the order would be detrimental to the war effort.

Appeal to Livestock Industry

An appeal for cooperation by all factors in the livestock and meat industry to help alleviate the current seasonal meat shortage, particularly evident in the Eastern seaboard area, has been made by Price Administrator Henderson. He asked suppliers to distribute meats to all parts of the country in the usual proportions of the available supply, rather than in favor of cities with higher ceiling prices. The large demand from the armed forces and lend-lease has accentuated the usual summer seasonal period of meat shortage. The heavy fall run of hogs and cattle are not expected to start to market for another four to six weeks. Henderson asked livestock raisers not to withhold their animals from market longer than necessary in order to fatten them.

Tire Quotas Increased

Due to increasing applications from essential vehicle operators, OPA has announced a larger tire and tube quota for August than was allowed for July. Effective July 15, a restricted classification of war workers became eligible for Grade II casings.

Rent Control in More Areas

Federal rent control will be invoked August 1 for four additional defense-rental areas of the Southwest OPA region. The maximum rent date is March 1, 1942, for each. The areas are Corpus Christi and Waco, Texas, and Little Rock and Pine Bluff, Arkansas. Rent regulations in the areas will provide that beginning August 1 no tenant shall pay and no landlord shall accept more rent than was charged on the maximum rent date. Federal rent control already is in effect in 15-defense rental areas of the OPA's six-state region.

Stenographers Wanted

Renewed appeals have been issued by the U. S. Civil Service Commission for stenographers to staff war agencies in Washington, D.C. The demand for clerical help in the nation's capital still is at a peak, and Civil Service officials are extending their efforts to recruit women for the jobs. Starting pay is $1440 per year. Information may be obtained at most post-offices or by writing to the Civil Service office at New Orleans, which serves the states of Texas and Louisiana, or at St. Louis, which serves Oklahoma.

Price Adjustments Allowed

Relief under the General Maximum Price Regulation for retailers, wholesalers and manufacturers who had abnormally low prices throughout March has been granted by OPA through Amendment 14 to GMPR. A number of manufacturers and wholesalers, particularly in the food and drug trades, had special discounts and merchandising deals in effect throughout March, the base pricing period, and in certain cases retailers' prices reflected these special deals. Sellers in the Southwest OPA region, which consists of Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Arkansas, Kansas and Missouri, must submit full information to the region OPA office at Dallas if they desire to adjust their ceiling prices under the amendment. If sales of the particular article are made in more than one region, information concerning the adjustment must be sent to OPA in Washington.

Laundries Warned

Following reports that some laundries had dropped their less expensive services, such as "wet wash," "family finish," "rough dry" and "thrift service," and were requiring customers to buy higher-priced services, the OPA warned that laundries must continue to offer the same low-priced services they sold last March. Selling of only the higher-priced services would constitute a violation of OPA's consumer service price regulation.

Re-Construction Allowed

Liberalization of WPB's conservation order putting non-essential construction under strict control will permit an owner to begin reconstruction of certain types of non-residential construction damaged or destroyed after July 23, provided immediate restoration is "necessary for the prosecution of the war or to protect public health or safety." The amendment to L-41 provides for subsequent application for authority to complete the job. Construction covered in the amendment includes commercial, industrial, recreational, institutional, highway and utilities.

Tire Dealers Licensed

OPA has announced that retail and wholesale sellers of new rubber tires and tubes are licensed under the General Maximum Price Regulation, and may have their licenses revoked for violations of the ceiling price schedules on new tires and tubes.

Kraft Paper Prices Cut

Current manufacturer's and distributors' prices for Kraft wrapping papers and certain Kraft bag papers have been reduced approximately 25 cents per hundredweight by a new OPA price regulation, No.

Back of the amazing display of American flags on the covers of every magazine published in the country during the month of July is Paul MacNamara, youthful New York promotion man. For his idea, which was designed to aid the sale of war bonds, the Treasury Department gave him a citation. Secretary Morgenthau wrote a congratulatory letter. MacNamara is General Promotion Manager of Hearst Magazines Inc.

182. Prices under the new regulation are rolled back to levels existing October 1 to 15, 1941.

Electric Motors Restricted

Moving to relieve the threatened shortage of electric motors, WPB has announced that henceforth new motors will be released only for the most important war plants and other civilian requirements. Other applicants must adapt used motors to their needs. Estimates place the number of available used motors above one horsepower at more than a million. WPB is asking owners of available used motors to communicate with the Conservation Division, Used Equipment Section, in Washington, D.C., giving all relevant information. The index to be compiled from this information will simplify the task of locating the right kind of equipment.

Fire is Constant Menace to Safety

Austin.—Destructive fire is a constant menace to our personal safety, as well as the safety of our property, it is claimed by Marvin Hall, State Fire Insurance Commissioner.

Calling attention to the destructiveness of fire, whether it be an act of sabotage, or caused by carelessness, Hall added:

"However dangerous and destructive a fire may be when set by an enemy agent, a fire caused by careless neglect can do just as much damage."

The Commissioner said carelessness with regard to fire hazards is one of the country's greatest dangers as wartime production is speeded.

"Disregard of simple rules of precaution against the outbreak of fires," he continued, "can cause destruction of an entire factory in an hour or so. This means serious material loss in the plant itself, to say nothing of the lost production of materials needed for warfare."

"More property was destroyed by fire in the United States during 1939 and 1940 than was destroyed by German bombing raids on England during the same period."

Quoting figures of a leading British financial paper, Hall said the estimated British property loss from bombing was placed at $480,000,000 during 1939 and 1940. Fire proposing an amendment to Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas by adding a new section thereto to be known as Section 49a, requiring all bills passed by the Legislature on and after January 1, 1945, appropriating money for any purpose, to be sent to the Comptroller of Public Accounts for his approval, and fixing the duties of the Comptroller with reference thereto; authorizing the Legislature to provide for the issuance, sale and retirement of serial bonds, equal in principal to the total outstanding, valid, and approved obligations owing by the General Revenue Fund on September 1, 1943; providing for the submission of this amendment to the voters of this State; prescribing the form of ballot; providing for the proclamation and publication thereof; and providing for the necessary appropriation to defray necessary expenses for the submission of this amendment.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

SECTION 1. That Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding thereto, immediately after Section 49, a section to be known as Section 49a, to read as follows:

"Section 49a. It shall be the duty of the Comptroller of Public Accounts in advance of each regular session of the Legislature to prepare and submit to the Governor and to the Legislature upon its convening a statement under oath showing fully the financial condition of the State Treasury at the close of the last fiscal period and an estimate of the probable receipts and disbursements for the then current fiscal year. There shall also be contained in said statement an itemized estimate of the anticipated revenue based on the laws then in effect that will be received by and for the State from all sources showing the fund accounts to be credited during the succeeding biennium and said statement shall contain such other information as may be required by law. Supplemental statements shall be submitted at any Special Session of the Legislature and at such other times as may be necessary to show probable changes."

"From and after January 1, 1945, save in the case of emergency and imperative public necessity and with a four-fifths vote of the total membership of each House, no appropriation in excess of the cash and anticipated revenue of the funds from which such appropriation is to be made shall be valid. From and after January 1, 1945, no bill containing an appropriation shall be considered as passed or be sent to the Governor for consideration until and unless the Comptroller of Public Accounts endorses his certificate thereon showing that the amount appropriated is within the amount estimated to be available in the affected funds. When the Comptroller finds an appropriation bill exceeds the estimated revenue he shall endorse such findings thereon and return to the House in which same originated. Such information shall be immediately made known to both the House of Representatives and the Senate and the necessary steps shall be taken to bring such appropriation to within the revenue, either by providing additional revenue or reducing the appropriation."

"For the purpose of financing the outstanding obligations of the General Revenue Fund of the State and placing its current accounts on a cash basis the Legislature of the State of Texas is hereby authorized to provide for the issuance, sale, and retirement of serial bonds, equal in principal to the total out-

TO THE VOTERS IN PRECINCT NO. 1

I wish to thank all the voters in this precinct who supported me in my recent race for County Commissioner and to assure you that I feel deeply grateful for your consideration and that your friendship will always be treasured by me.

There is no resentment or ill-feeling on my part toward any party and I sincerely trust that I still retain the friendship of each of my opponents.

I shall not in any manner undertake to dictate to those who supported me in the recent primary election as to whom they shall cast their vote for in the coming runoff campaign and hope that the Commissioner selected will prove worthy of the office and be of benefit to the whole people of the precinct.

Again thanking you for your loyalty, I am,
Yours truly,

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Gas masks which came into use in warfare for the first time when the Germans used poison and mustard gas in World War I, are much improved today over those used then. The Chemical Warfare Branch of the War Department issues these gas masks to every man in the service. We are taking no chances.

The type pictured here is the "can" and "elephant nose" mask and costs about $9.25 each. The headgear is transparent, made of material resembling cellophane and does not cloud with the breath. You can buy two of these gas masks with the purchase of an $18.75 War Bond. We need thousands of them. Don't fail to give at least ten percent of your income every pay day for War Bonds. Buy them at your bank or postoffice, regularly.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Tractors and motors will never wholly replace the Army Mule as a factor in the mobile units of our army. The Army Mule is a tradition and the "mule skinner" is a breed unto himself. Army Mules are used by the Field Artillery and the Cavalry in areas where the terrain is rough and tractors cannot operate.

Pack trains in mountainous sectors are often necessary and here the mule, slow but sure-footed, plays an important role. Our Army buys thousands of mules paying from $175 to $190 for each. The mule eats less, carries more, and some declare is smarter than the horse. Your purchase of War Bonds and Stamps helps pay for these Army Mules. Invest at least ten percent of your income in War Bonds every pay day.

At The Churches

AT THE METHODIST CHURCH Luther Kirk

The revival meeting was a great success, not only were a number of unsaved converted, but a number of church members found their way to the altar and to a deeper consecration. Let's keep the revival going by keeping alive the zeal and enthusiasm demonstrated during the two weeks campaign.

To the unconcerned and indifferent Methodist we want to say that we are still praying that God in His own way will arouse you from your slumber. Did it ever occur to you that you may be considered a partner of the Axis Powers. The are against the church and had rather see it die than live. Apparently you are not so strong for it yourself. Patriotism is more than the buying of bonds, etc. True American patriotism is a patriotism founded on Christianity and there is no other true American patriotism.

We will have our regular services Sunday morning, Sunday School at 10 a.m. Worship at 11 a.m. Young people's service 6:45 p.m. Evening service will be dismissed and all are urged to attend the revival services at the Baptist church.

I will fill the pulpit at the eleven o'clock hour and hope to see you present.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NOTICE

The Sunday School hour at the Presbyterian church will be 9:30 until further notice. This has been the time for the morning church service for the past few months, and now the Sunday School hour has been set for this time.

A Canadian shoe factory is now turning out a product with a much more violent kick in it—guns. Vickers machine guns and two-pounder anti-aircraft pom-poms are being assembled here in the same plant where the gun mountings are manufactured. Browning, Vickers and Sten machine guns are coming off Canadian production lines in increasing volume as part of the mammoth war production program totalling more than $3,447,000,000 since July, 1939. The Canadian government has provided about $660,000,000 worth of capital assistance for the construction of new plants, extension of old and the installation of machines and equipment. Production of guns, mountings and barrels includes 22 different types ranging from field guns to safety fuse pistols. Output of Bren guns, for instance, is nearing 4,500 monthly. More than 100 types of ammunition, mines, bombs and pyrotechnics, 12 types of chemicals and eight types of explosives are included in the program, and other weapons will be in production soon. Canada's armament industry is in high gear.

COLLEGE ENROLLMENT NEXT FALL EXPECTED TO SHOW BIG DECLINE

Women's Institutions Will Suffer Least, Survey Reveals

THE above chart shows how 368 educational, 88 women's and 45 men's colleges, technical schools and universities regard enrollment prospects next autumn as compared with last autumn, according to Investors' Syndicate, of Minneapolis, which is studying the war time role and problems of such institutions. A total of 251 colleges anticipate an average percentage decline of 22.2 percent in men. Twenty-seven schools expect an average percentage gain of 18.5 percent in men. One hundred and thirty-two faculties look for an average percentage decline of 15.2 percent in women matriculants. Eighty-six schools forecast an average percentage gain of 24.7 percent in women registrants next autumn compared with a year ago.

Changes in selective service, progress of the war, summer sessions, late (fall) entrance examinations, transportation difficulties, higher board and room charges to offset rising living costs, aggregate enrollment uncertainties, improved family financial conditions, especially of agricultural and mechanical workers, numerous part-time jobs and accelerated educational programs are tending to stabilize enrollments, especially of women.

Col. C. A. Studer of Canadian in his radio association publication, "Found-up," has this modern fable:

Once upon a time there was a mama cow, a papa cow and a little boy cow, and they were a happy trio—until one day the little boy cow wandered away. The papa cow and the mama cow started searching for the little fellow, looking carefully in ever crevice and behind all of the hills. They searched all day and walked many miles, but found no trace of their wandering boy.

Finally, just as the sun was setting in the west, they came to a huge bluff. The mama cow looked out across the vast expanse and many, many miles away she saw their little boy grazing contentedly in the valley below.

Amazed, they stood a few seconds and looked at him. Then the mama cow turned to the papa cow and said, "That goes to show just how far a little bull will go."

Navy Calls For Enlistments In August, Sept.

Enough men to equal the crew of a destroyer will be enlisted from the Wichita Falls Navy recruiting district each month during August and September, Chief J. C. Hamrick recruiter in charge of this district, announced today. The district includes Archer, Baylor, Clay, Childress, Cottle, Foard, Hardeman, Jack, King, Knox, Montague, Throckmorton, Wilbarger, Wichita and Young.

Sponsoring the campaign to enlist at least 250 men from this district each month will be American Legion Posts and civic organizations in each county. Committees have been organized and supplied with Navy recruiting literature. Individual member will be designated "Volunteer Navy Recruiter."

A monthly quota of volunteer enlistments for naval service has been assigned each county, based on population. Exact figures are complements of naval vessels are secret, Chief Hamrick said, but certain figures may be used for recruiting purposes. In the Houston Navy recruiting district, comprising the Southern half of Texas, a recent slogan was "Wanted, 1,000 Volunteers for Replacement of the Cruiser Houston."

Knox county with a population of 10,090 is asked to furnish nine volunteers each of the two months. The recruiting slogan for this county is "Knox County Navy Enlistments Shall Equal a Gun Crew."

Wichita county with a population of 73,064 and a quota of 88 men will have for a recruiting slogan "Wichita County Navy Enlistments Shall Equal the Gunner Crew of a Destroyer."

Other counties will have appropriate recruiting slogans based on their monthly quota.

Navy enlistment ages are from 17 to 50 years. Unskilled men have opportunity to attend Navy trade schools. Qualified skilled men may be enlisted as petty officers with monthly pay ranging from $78 to $126.00. It is necessary that application for enlistment be made before induction into the Army.

MUNDAY, TEXAS

TEXAS OUT-O-DOORS

Austin.—Regulations governing hunting of white-winged doves, mourning doves, waterfowl, geese and coot in Texas were clarified today by the Executive Secretary of the Game Department upon receipt of official copies of the Federal regulations, which often conflict with State laws pertaining to hunting some of these species.

The Legislature as long ago as 1933 gave the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission authority to make State laws concerning ducks, geese and coot conform to Federal regulations. The Commission at its regular quarterly meeting July 17 assented to the recently issued Federal waterfowl regulations and there will be no conflict in laws regarding these species this year, it was pointed out.

But conflicts exist in the dove laws, the Executive Secretary said, principally because the Game Commission has no legislative authority to reconcile them.

The white-winged dove open season this year, according to Federal regulations, will be September 16 to 25 (inclusive), thus on the surface giving hunters 10 days of white-winged shooting. It is a fact, however, the Executive Secretary said, that virtually all white-winged doves in Texas concentrate each season in Webb, Starr, Zapata, Hidalgo, Cameron and Willacy counties, and a special State law applicable to those counties forbids shooting of white-winged and mourning doves except on Sundays, Tuesday and Thursdays during the open season, and then only from 12 noon until sunset.

White-winged hunters in this concentration are will thus be allowed their favorite sport this year only on September 17, 20, 22 and 24, between the hours of 12 noon and sunset, according to Federal regulations and State law.

Another white-wing country State law makes it unlawful to shoot white-wings or chachalacas between the Rio Grande River and U.S. Highway 83 from the Zapata-Starr county line to the west boundary of the city limits of Brownsville.

Culberson and Hudspeth counties, in far West Texas, will have no dove season under the provisions of another special law.

Where no special shooting hours are prescribed, white-winged and mourning doves may be taken from 7 a. m. to sunset only, the Executive Secretary said.

Complete dove and waterfowl regulations for Texas this year, after all conflicts have been ironed out, were announced by the Game Department as follows:

Mourning Doves and White-Winged Doves

Daily Bag Limit—10 a day of either or both species in the aggregate. Not more than one day's kill in possession.

Open season for mourning doves—North Zone: September 1 to October 12, inclusive. (North Zone is composed of Yoakum, Terry, Lynn, Garza, Kent, Stonewall, Haskell, Throckmorton, Young, Palo Pinto, Parker, Johnson, Ellis, Kaufman, Van Zandt, Rains, Hopkins, Franklin and Red River counties, and all counties north of the counties named).

South Zone: September 16 to October 27, inclusive. (South zone includes remainder of the state with the exception of Hudspeth and Culberson counties, which have no open season on doves.

Open season for white-winged doves—September 16 to 25th, inclusive. The state law provides, however, that in the counties of

Webb, Starr, Zapata, Hidalgo, Cameron and Willacy, it shall be unlawful to hunt, take or kill mourning doves or white-winged doves only on each Sunday, Tuesday and Thursday during specified hours; therefore, in said counties in obedience to State law and U.S. regulations, hunters may take white-winged doves only on September 17th, 20, 22 and 24, between the hours of 12 noon and sunset. State law provides that in other sections of the State mourning or white-winged doves may be taken from 7 a. m. until sunset only.

Means of Taking—Mourning doves and white-winged doves may be taken only with a shotgun. No repeating or auto-loading shotgun that is capable of holding more than three shells in the chamber and magazine may be used. No shotgun larger than 10 gauge may be used.

Protected Area—Unlawful to shoot white-winged doves or chachalacas between Rio Grande River and U.S. Highway 83 from the Zapata-Starr county line to the west boundary of the city limits of Brownsville.

Ducks, Geese and Coot

Open Season—November 2 to January 10, both days inclusive.

Shooting Hours—Sunrise to sunset.

Bag Limit

Ducks—10 a day. Possession limited to 20, included not more than six singly or in the aggregate or redheads and buffheads, nor more than one wood duck.

Coot—25 a day or in possession. Geese—Two a day but in addition to other geese four blue geese may be taken. If only blue geese are taken, six may be taken in one day. Possess is limited to two days legal kill.

Warning—Not more than one day's limit of ducks and/or geese may be possessed on opening day.

Ducks, geese and coot may be possessed for only 30 days after the close of the season.

No person over the age of 16 may hunt ducks, geese or coot without a Federal duck stamp (procureable at post office) and a hunting license wherever required.

Means of Taking—No baiting or live decoys permitted, or the taking of waterfowl by means, aid or use of cattle, horses or mules.

May not use shotgun larger than 10 gauge. May not use auto-loading or repeating shotgun capable of holding more than three shells, including those in the magazine and chamber.

May not take waterfowl from any power-driven boat or boat under sail.

May not take ducks or geese on any State or Federal refuge or preserve, or take them from any enclosed private property without the consent of the owner or agent of said property.

Infant Mortality At Lowest Level In State History

Austin, Texas.—Figures released by the Bureau of Census reveal that infant mortality has reached the lowest level in the history of the State, said Dr. George W. Cox, State Health Officer. The reduction of infant deaths during the past year was phenomenal. For the past three years only two other states had infant mortality rates exceeding Texas. The figures now available show ten states, Alabama, Arizona, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, New Mexico, North Carolina, South Carolina, Virginia and West Virginia have rates in excess of those reported in Texas.

Infant mortality is expressed in terms of the number of deaths per 1000 live births. The infant mortality for 1940 was 68 per 1000 live births whereas the rate for 1941 is 56.7 per 1000. In 1933 when Texas entered the registration area of the United States the infant mortality was 77 per 1000 live births. The present reduction in terms of mortality for 1933 and 1941 when applied to the 135,000 live births recorded in Texas in 1941 represents a saving of the lives of 2700 infants annually.

The evidence now available seems to indicate that the greatest reduction occurred in the southern part of the state where the State Health Department has been waging an intensive drive to protect the health of babies. It seems evident that the reductions in infant mortality achieved in El Paso, San Antonio, Corpus Christi, Austin, and in Hidalgo county are most significant in the state for the year. These same areas of the state lead in the number of well children. The mortality among the Latin American group which has been disproportionately high has apparently responded well to the educational efforts of physicians, public health nurses, and nutrition workers.

Maternal and child health is but one phase of the work being done by the State Health Department in their campaign to reduce illness and death. Other activities are carried out to the full extent allowed by the limited resources provided for saving lives in Texas.

Mrs. Alice Wray left last Tuesday for Menard, where she will teach in the schools. She will visit friends in Abilene and San Angelo before going on to Menard.

Bill Billingsley left last Sunday for Camp Blanding, Florida, after a visit of ten days here with Mrs. Billingsley and with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Billingsley. Bill is awaiting call for training in the Air Corps.

Misses Maxie Dingus, Matilda Mason and Majorie Barrow of Fort Worth spent last Sunday here with Maxie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Dingus.

"I Learned about LIGHT in a BLACKOUT!"

That's what a man wrote in a very human letter.

- "We had our first practice blackout here recently," he added. "For twenty minutes, my family and I sat in total darkness. The seriousness of war hit us all harder than ever before.
- "Then, when the all-clear sounded and we turned the lights back on, warmth and reassurance came into the room. That made me realize that whatever I spend for electricity, it's still about the cheapest thing I buy."

- Here in West Texas, where blackouts have been few and far between and the war seems far away, a lot of folks take electricity for granted until something reminds them how dependable and cheap it really is. If yours is an average family, you're getting about twice or three times as much electricity for your money as ten to fifteen years ago.
- The reasons why this service is so cheap and so dependable go back to the way America works—a way we're all fighting for now. A way of life in which free men have an opportunity to create and produce and succeed in proportion to their individual contribution.
- Your Electric Servant grew up that way—steadily making more jobs, serving more homes and people and lowering rates—under efficient business management. Because it has done its part of the job well, West Texas has the electric power to attract military training camps, flying schools and war plants. West Texas today is helping produce the men and material that promises a permanent blackout for the Axis dictators!

Although our Army is largely mechanized the cavalry horse is still a highly essential factor in this mounted division and in the Field Artillery. The Army also maintains remount farms where many cavalry horses are bred and raised.

These select horses cost from $100 to $165 and our crack cavalrymen are expert riders and carry on the traditions which have followed the cavalry from the earliest days of the Army. ## Canadian Men, Women Work Side by Side

SIDE by side in overalls and in uniform, Canada's men and women are contributing jointly to the industrial and military programs of the United Nations war effort. More than 80,000 women are now operating machines or training for war work in the Canadian munitions program, comprising approximately 10 per cent of 821,000 war workers in a country of fewer than 13,000,000. Since the beginning of the year the number of women in war industries in the Dominion has practically doubled. The girl in this photograph is piloting an electric donkey on the production line of a huge tank factory in eastern Canada. Hundreds of these cruiser tanks have been shipped to Russia and, according to Military authorities, are performing efficiently in the field.

During the past few months he has filled the pulpit of the Munday church, in the absence of a regular pastor.

The best wishes of not only the members of his congregations in Haskell and Munday, but hundreds of friends throughout the communities will follow Rev. and Mrs. Williams in their new field of work.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Duke and little daughter, Joan, of Haskell visited with relatives and friends here the first of this week.

INTERESTING FACTS

Ships are being built at an unheard-of rate by auto-assembly-line methods. Throughout the country new and converted factories are manufacturing the "bits and pieces" which one shipyard alone, for instance, will soon assemble at the rate of 24 ships a month.

The U.S. steel industry has a producing capacity nearly 65 per cent greater than the combined capacity of Germany and all of Axis Europe.

Engines for bomber planes are now coming from a new plant by the trainload—at a rate originally scheduled for next December.

Every U.S. medium tank is made up of 25,000 pieces, 5,000 of them different.

Pride of Male Driver Deflated by Statistics

Men make a lot of fun of women drivers. They ridicule their hand signals, which sometimes mean quite the opposite of what was intended. They cringe exaggeratedly when they hear a woman shift gears. They rage and rant about her hesitancy in traffic, her often helpless confusion when the motor stalls, or when she tries to park in a small space.

But when the annual accident figures are analyzed, as they have been in "The Wreckord," a booklet of 1941 street and highway accident data just published by The Travelers Insurance Company, the tables are turned. Most male drivers will be humbled by it, while women, if inclined, will be justified in pointing with pride to the record in "The Wreckord." It indicates that men at the wheel were responsible for 92.9 per cent of all fatalities and 90.1 per cent of all non-fatal automobile accidents during the past year.

A grain of comfort for the disgruntled male motorist, who obviously isn't nearly as good as he thinks he is, may be found in the booklet's acknowledgement that the figures "do not necessarily prove that women are better drivers, for they do not take into account the relative exposure to accidents of the sexes."

Meeting of War Board Held On Last Saturday

Eleven members of the Knox county war board and the farm labor advisory committee were in session at Benjamin Saturday for the purpose of discussing the farm labor situation. The enthusiasm in the meeting proved that there is a great interest in the farm labor problem, as it affects Knox county.

Mr. S. H. Southhall of Vernon, representing the United States Employment Service was present and advised with the local board as to the proper procedure in securing farm laborers. Mr. Southhall also explained that one or two representatives of the Employment service would be stationed in Knox county to help secure labor during the peak of the cotton-picking season.

Agencies and individuals attending the war board meeting were: August Schumacher, chairman of

A New Art for Pedestrians

The Walker family (not to be confused with the J. Walkers) are back on their feet again, thanks to the rubber shortage. No longer are the children driven back and forth to school by a doting mother; they're learning to use Shanks' mares. Mother herself is walking to her bridge club, thus saving the car for essential Saturday shopping tours, and even Pop, who hadn't walked a city mile since the self-starter was invented, is liking it from his suburban home to the train morning and evening.

Now Pop, who had done most of his walking in the days of Old Dobbin and wooden sidewalks, was completely flabbergasted by the perils of modern-day traffic; so it was natural for him, after having his overcoat buttons snipped off by a speeding taxi the first morning and his coattails scorched by a careening truck the second, to evolve a Plan.

He "Spots" The Hazards

He listed all the dangerous situations he could think of which lay on his route from home to the station and called them "Danger Spots." Then, beside this list he wrote down all the protected areas between his home and the station (including that pedestrian overpass he'd howled so much about when the tax bill came) and called them "Safety Spots." With these lists in hand, he tried a different route each morning and evening, carefully checking those areas where he could walk in comparative safety against those where every step seemed to be his last. After a few days he discovered the fastest possible route that he could follow with comparative safety.

Fond father that he is, Pop has insisted that his wife and children work out similar routes for themselves and has helped them by working up several diagrams for them to follow. Above are pictured easily recognized "Danger Spots" and "Safety Spots," the former identified by numerals and the latter by letters. Some of these will be found in almost every neighborhood. At the right you will see Pop's old, danger-fraught route, and beside it you see his new, improved route. Note that by taking one extra minute he avoids walking along a narrow road, traversing an area of heavy traffic, and passing a loading area. True, he sacrifices one "safety spot" but on this alternate route automobile traffic is so light that no police control is necessary. At the lower right are diagrams in blank for his wife and youngsters to use—

Or for you to use, if you want to derive some pleasure and profit from your newly enforced daily walks to school or work.
