Funeral For D. B. Weaver Is Held Wednesday

Heart Attack Claims Life of Well Known Knox Farmer

D. B. Weaver, well known Knox county farmer, passed away at his home, one mile north of Munday, last Sunday night, succumbing to a heart attack. Mr. Weaver had been in poor health for some time, had been under treatment for a heart ailment, but continued to carry on his duties about his farm until his death.

Daniel Boone Weaver was born near Manchester, Clay county, Kentucky, on June 11, 1873, and died at the age of 69 years, 5 months and 20 days. At the age of eight years, he moved to Benton county, Arkansas, and lived there until he was 18 years old, at which time he came to Comanche, Texas.

There he met and married Miss Ella Hartman. To this union eight children were born, two of whom, Mrs. Cora Edwards and Cody Weaver, preceded him in death.

Mr. Weaver had resided in Knox county for a number of years and was one of the county's successful farmers. He was converted at the age of 23 years and united with the Baptist church. He was a good husband and father and a friend to all who knew him.

Surviving him are his wife, Mrs. Ella Weaver; six children, Claude Weaver of Robstown, Bert Weaver of Munday, Mrs. Maude Warren of Amarillo, Grady Weaver of Munday, D. B. Weaver of Miami, Fla., and Mrs. Lois Biffle of Shallowater; nine brothers and sisters, who are: W. P. Weaver of Goldthwaite, Henry Weaver of California, Mrs. Mary Russell of Quail, Mrs. Syrus Johnson of Boston, Ark., Mrs. Den O'Brian of Quail, Mrs. Tom Nicholson of California, Bert Weaver of Quail, Mrs. Daisy Stovell of Sterling City and C. M. Weaver of Big Spring. He is also survived by 14 grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held from the First Baptist church in Knox City at four o'clock Wednesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. W. H. Albertson of Munday and Rev. J. S. Tierce of Knox City. Interment was in the Knox City cemetery.

Active pallbearers were Earl Pruitt, John McMahon, Kirby Fitzgerald, Bruce Rogers, Tuck Carter and Dorce Campbell. Honorary pallbearers were C. A. Farmmon, R. B. Davy, Frank Nance, Mr. Bragg of Comanche, Jess Elliott, Salem Hutchenson, G. W. Russell, Dr. T. S. Edwards, Lonnie Offutt and Don Phillips.

Flower bearers were Mrs. John R. Rayburn, Mrs. Robert Guffey, Mrs. John Jones, Mrs. Mann McCarty, Miss Irene Hartman, Mrs. Don Phillips, Mrs. Prudence Sessions and Miss Thelma Burnison.

Jane Campbell Is Crowned Queen Of Munday School

Miss Jane Campbell, senior candidate for queen of Munday high school, won this race and was crowned high school queen at the Halloween carnival last Thursday night.

Many booths offered entertainment for the carnival crowd, and chief interest was in the auction sale when C. R. Elliott auctioned various articles which were donated by merchants and citizens. Reports are that about $275 was cleared from the carnival activities.

School authorities and P.T.A. members extend sincere thanks to all who cooperated in making this school event a success.

JEFFERS FINDS OUT

To find out for himself just how the nation's supply of rubber is being used, William M. Jeffers, rubber director, spent two days in Akron at the tire factories. Not only did he watch the building of a tire from mill to shipping room but he also looked over the various war jobs being done in the rubber plants. He is shown above with William O'Neil, president of The General Tire & Rubber company, looking over one of the thousands of life belts being produced in the General factory for the army. The girl, one of thousands doing Akron war work, is Eva deLuca.

Air Corps Men Leave For Miami Beach Training

Lubbock Army Flying School, Lubbock—Sgt. J. R. (Pat) Wyatt, son of Mrs. Lula Wyatt of Rochester and husband of the former Miss Geraldine Cure, of Gilliland, left this week with eleven other enlisted men from this post for the Army Air Forces school for administrative officer candidates in Miami Beach, Fla.

Upon the successful completion of his work at Miami Beach he will be commissioned a second lieutenant in the Air Corps of the U. S. Army.

Mrs. Wyatt is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Cure of Gilliland.

Sgt. Wyatt is a graduate of Abilene Christian College, Abilene, Texas, and was a teacher in Benjamin public schools when he enlisted in the Air Forces. At this post he was chief clerk in the ground school.

November 15th Is Deadline For Truck Licenses

November 15 is the deadline for securing the Certificates of War Necessity required of all trucks and commercial vehicles, it was announced by Richard E. Wood of Lubbock, district ODT motor transport manager. An office for securing blanks has been opened at 623 Lubbock National Bank Building, Mr. Wood stated.

The application blanks are for the use of commercial motor vehicle operators who did not receive their application blanks by mail from the ODT central mailing office in Detroit.

Any operator of a truck, bus, taxicab or other commercial motor vehicle who has not yet received an application for a Certificate of War Necessity should report this fact at once, Mr. Wood said. Lubbock operators were asked to come by in person for their applications. Operators in this section of the state will be served by mail.

Because there is so little time left—all carriers must have the actual certificates of war necessity in their hands by November 15, or they cannot lawfully operate—carriers should be certain that all applicable questions on their applications are answered fully and correctly and that the applications are returned in the shortest possible time, Mr. Wood said.

Ben Bowden, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Bowden, and Miss Dorothy Murphree of Spur, both students in Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, spent the week end here with Ben's parents.

First Conference Tilt For Locals Will Be On Home Field

Coach Mack Bogard's Munday Moguls will open their conference schedule on Friday night of this week when they meet the strong Crowell Wildcats. The game is called for eight o'clock and will be played on the Mogul field.

Due to open dates and bad weather, the Moguls have been inactive for the past three weeks with the exception of practice games with the all-stars.

Crowell has been picked to win the district championship. The district is composed of teams from Crowell, Munday, Archer City, Seymour and Holliday.

The Moguls are working hard this week in preparation for their first conference tussle, and if all the Mogul injured are able to enter the play, the locals will give the strong Wildcats a busy evening. The game promises interest to all who attend.

Everyone is encouraged to be out to back the Moguls in this first conference battle.

The probable starting lineups will be as follows:

Cotton Ginnings

The October 30th report from Hoyle A. Sullins, of Vera, special agent for the Department of Commerce, bureau of the census, shows that Knox county had ginned 22,065 bales of cotton up to October 18, 1942.

This amount far exceeds the ginnings for the same period in 1941, the report shows that only 13,970 bales had been ginned in the same period last year.

A report from the local gins at 11 o'clock Thursday revealed that 10,360 bales had been ginned at Munday. Gins have practically caught up, due to the wet weather this week which halted cotton gathering.

HERE FROM BOERNE

Dr. Joe Davis of Boerne, former Munday physician, came in Wednesday for a visit with friends and to transact business matters. He will be here the remainder of this week. Dr. Davis has been practicing medicine in Boerne for the past two years.

A BANNER MONTH

November has nearly always been a banner month for subscription to the Munday Times, as most of our readers have had their subscriptions to expire at this time and the harvest season has been under way for several weeks. We're also expecting this to be our 1942 banner month on subscriptions.

Our readers realize the critical times we're experiencing, and many of them have already come in and gladly paid the regular rate of $1.50 a year for their Times this year. Subscriptions going out of the county or outside the 50-mile limit take the $2.00 rate this year.

If the date on your paper reads 11-5-42, your subscription expired on Thursday of this week. If your time is out won't you help us to make this our banner month?

Voters Frown On Three State Amendments

Even the five amendments to the constitution of Texas were not enough to interest Knox county voters to a great extent last Tuesday, as the general election drew what is believed to be one of the lightest votes in the history of the county. Complete vote for the county was not available; however, it is believed that scarcely more than one-fourth of the eligible voters cast their ballots.

Incomplete returns over Texas indicate that three of the five constitutional amendments were defeated at the polls. Wednesday's returns of the Texas Election Bureau gave the amendment vote as follows:

John Tarleton appropriation, 32,976 for and 29,956 against.
Military instructors, 27,144 for and 35,112 against.
Anti deficit bill, 35,241 for and 27,561 against.
Probate courts, 35,356 for and 35,579 against.
State office building, 30,458 for and 32,978 against.

Coach Mack Bogard Enters into Service

Mack Bogard, coach of the Munday Moguls since the opening of school in September, left Wednesday for induction in the armed services. Bogard, who was registered in Haskell county, left with a group of Haskell inductees at five o'clock Wednesday for the induction center at Abilene.

Coach expects to receive his 7 days leave before final induction and will return to Munday for Friday night's game between the Moguls and the Crowell Wildcats.

PLENTY MORE IN THE BARREL

Coffee rationing starts on November 29, but the bugaboo which has frightened many persons into hoarding and overbuying has been over-emphasized, according to government officials.

One pound of coffee every five weeks will be allowed for every person who was 15 years of age or over when sugar rationing started last May, it was announced. This works out slightly more than one cup a day.

It will be possible to get a cup of coffee in a restaurant regardless of how much is used at home. Details of the rationing for restaurants are still to be announced, but it probably will follow that of sugar, restricting commercial users to a certain per centage of their former consumption.

And those who care to substitute tea, cocoa or other beverages for coffee at certain meals can drink all they wish at the present time. No rationing of these drinks is being imposed at present.

Retail sales of coffee will be stopped at midnight November 21 in preparation for the rationing starting at midnight November 28. In that interval grocers can stock their shelves for rationing.

The sugar ration book will be used for coffee, and no new registration will be necessary. The last 10 stamps in the book will be used for coffee. Because of the position of these stamps, No. 27 will be good for the first coffee ration, No. 28 for the second, No. 25 for the third, No. 26 for the fourth and so on, working backward to No. 19. The plan will involve no curtailment of sugar rations, and new books will be available when the sugar and coffee stamps are exhausted, it was stated.

The sugar ration books were issued for everyone from babies to grownups, but only books where the age of the user appears as 15 or older can be used to get coffee.

Campaign For Control of Rats Very Effective

R. O. Dunkle and Neva Van Zandt, extension agents for Knox county, report that 806 farmers took the offensive in the war on rats campaign on October 28, when 1075 pounds of rat poison was distributed by the agricultural victory council in ten different communities consisting of 37 neighborhoods.

The rat poisoning campaign had been planned for several weeks prior to the distribution of poison. Meetings were held with different civic organizations of the county, such as the Chamber of Commerce, P-T.A., and Lions Club.

On the evening of October 21, 74 of a possible 84 victory council leaders attended a county-wide educational meeting at Benjamin. Dr. D. C. Elland, county health officer, gave a very interesting discussion on the many diseases borne by rats and the importance of everyone taking part in the poisoning program. He also discussed the method by which typhus fever spread from the rat to the human being and pointed out that other dangerous diseases could be spread by rats. He then stressed the importance of disposing of dead rats.

The victory chain of communication proved very effective in the rat campaign with only two exceptions where the neighborhood leaders failed to inform farmers in their particular neighborhood, Mr. Dunkle said.

EDITORIAL PAGE

"What a Man Does For Himself Dies With Him—
What He Does For His Community Lives On and On"—

THE WRITING ON THE WALL

The writing on the wall is everywhere now, for anyone to see—regimentation. Regimentation of jobs, of income, of living conditions, of time, thought, and action.

This is one of the demands of total war in seeking the greatest efficiency and production from available man and woman-power. How to so gear output that our standards of living at home will remain "American" and our armed forces will be supplied on time with all the unprecedented needs of global warfare, is the problem.

In theory, it is protection through equalization, "temporary" control of individual activity for the country's good in time of emergency.

While our people willingly accept "temporary" restrictions as a necessity of war, the thing to remember is that word "temporary." We must not drift into a mental attitude that will pave the way for permanent regimentation. That isn't the kind of people we are.

What we have, what we are fighting for, is our roots, growing deep into the soil of free enterprise and free thinking, and the privilege of running our own business. That privilege is what we must go back to, after the war, of freedom as we have known it is to survive in America.

HEADACHE FOR THE MERCHANT

Price fixing may sound simple to the man in the street. But it is an monumental headache to thousands of retail merchants.

Never before have the people and the industries of America faced the necessity of donning a regulatory straitjacket such as is embodied in the deluge of pamphlets now reaching storekeepers from Maine to California. Everything from gum to tractors is being "fixed" or "frozen." The price of each item on a retailer's shelves must be carefully set according to formula.

The policies and methods used in enforcing these new laws will make or break the entire price fixing effort. Long before the establishment of the price laws, retail merchants bent every effort toward holding down inflationary rises in the cost of living. They did an effective job for which they received praise from high government officials.

And now these same merchants, many hundreds of thousands of them, are striving valiantly to comply with the complicated ceiling decrees issued from Washington. A great many of them have unknowingly become lawbreakers because they have found it impossible to quickly understand the technical rules. Their cases deserve far different consideration than those of the very few who maliciously seek to evade the law. In this instance the old saying that ignorance is no excuse should not be applied. Ignorance, if you wish to call it that, is a very definite excuse.

And if the administering officials are wise they will not begin our new authoritarian era by fining or throwing any erring storekeeper in jail until they have determined his intent. After all, our main job is to win the war, not persecute good American citizens.

JUSTLY PROUD

Banking, the one industry above all others which of necessity was the sober-sided partner in American progress, has rolled up its sleeves to fight this war all-out.

The President recently recognized the unstinted war effort of the banks in a letter to the American Bankers Association. "For over a year they (the banks) have met unprecedented demands from industry for the expansion and conversion necessary to win the battle of production," he wrote. "They have been in the forefront of the fight against inflation not only through the sale of savings bonds—but by putting into effect restrictions on consumer credit and combating unnecessary expenditures of all kinds. They have been indispensable in the freeing of foreign funds to prevent their use directly or indirectly by the enemy. I mention all this in the past tense not because the job is done, but because even now it represents a record of accomplishment of which you all may be justly proud."

The battle has just begun. Tradition shattering events are taking place every day. The most that can be hoped for is the preservation of a framework upon which a better future for freedom and private enterprise can be built. The banker knows the American people are depending on him to help save that framework—and he will do his utmost to save it. But he can't do it all. The people must help by keeping ever in mind the principles upon which this country's way of life has been built.

UNION DOMINATION

An example of what union domination can do to the American way of life is brought out in a recent order of James C. Petrillo, President of the American Federation of Musicians, to ban musical recordings and electrical transcriptions.

A pamphlet entitled "The C is for Caesar," recently published by the National Association of Broadcasters and based on a survey of 130 cities and 875 radio stations, includes the following statements concerning the Petrillo order:

"If you own a phonograph, its usefulness is frozen, because new recordings by your favorite artists, whether you are a lover of symphonic music or a dance band devotee, can no longer be made. If Irving Berlin tomorrow gets the inspiration for a great new patriotic tune, it cannot be popularized and made known, or become available to you, by means of records.

"The small broadcasting station which is dependent chiefly upon recorded music will ultimately be forced out of business, and its value lost to the community. The educator who has been teaching people to love music by means of the phonograph record finds his supply abruptly cut off.

"The people who are dependent upon the coin-operated phonograph (popularly known as the 'juke box') for musical entertainment can no longer hear either new tunes or new renditions of the old tunes they love.

"You are deprived of the innumerable popular radio programs which are broadcast by means of electrical transcriptions, in connection with which you are accustomed to hear the announcement that they are 'transcribed.'"

Earnings of musicians in radio, according to the pamphlet, exceed $15,000,000 a year and the union musicians who perform for electrical transcriptions receive a minimum of $18 an hour for a fifteen-minute program, which is the same as, or even more than, the amount they would get for a fifteen minute national network program.

Regardless of the technicalities of the bans that have been put by James C. Petrillo on student broadcasts, government drives for war bond sales, and other patriotic musical demonstrations, the fact remains that when the present type of labor dictator gets into the saddle and is in a position to load a "bargain" in his own favor, the other fellow, or the public, has to "pay through the nose"—even in wartime.

FUEL FOR WAR

Many and American industry is doing a job which doesn't make the headlines and which is understood by few people—but which plays a mighty role in our economy and our war effort.

Coal is one of those industries. That industry has long been bedeviled by tax and labor problems. For years it suffered heavy operating deficits. But it has risen superbly to the needs of time.

Coal is the foundation of the all-important steel industry. More than half of the country's electric power is produced from coal. Coal is the principal fuel used by the country's railroads. Over 140,000,000 tons of coal are used annually for heating, and that load is increasing. And in addition the war effort has required vast amounts of coal for other purposes. This, as "Coal Age" recently said, "speaks volumes for the time and money spent over recent years in improving producing and preparation methods, promoting safety, conducting research and otherwise better preparing the industry to serve the needs of the country."

The coal industry, in short, is one of the many examples of private enterprise at work. It speaks volumes for the soundness of the free enterprise system.

1943 COTTON BAGGING PROGRAM ANNOUNCED

College Station—About 88,000 bales of cotton will go into cotton-bagging-for-cotton-bales in 1943.

Under the new program, 8,000,000 bale covers will be manufactured for use in 1943 as compared to 4,000,000 patterns in 1942.

Purpose of the cotton-bagging-for-cotton-bales program is to stimulate development of new uses and new markets for domestic cotton.

Texas cotton farmers received a 7-pound per bale allowance for cotton wrapped in cotton patterns this year and doubtless will get the same consideration in 1943, according to Fred Rennels, assistant administrative officer of the AAA in Texas.

The 7-pound allowance is the difference in weight of cotton patterns and jute wrappers, he said in pointing out that cotton patterns and ties on a 500-pound bale weigh about 14 pounds while the jute wrapper and ties weigh from 21 to 22 pounds.

We have no idea whether or not this war will be followed by another depression, but we think it's a good idea to plan your affairs that way.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, M.D., State Health Officer of Texas

Austin—As the hunting season approaches, the Texas State Health Department urges caution in handling fire arms. More than 200 Texans were killed in 1941 as a result of carelessness in handling guns, and at this time when human lives are being snuffed out in the war that is enveloping the entire world, it is more than ever important that we should conserve human lives on the home front.

With the inauguration of meat rationing and the reduced supply of this particular food, there is a possibility of more hunters going into the field than has been the custom for many years.

"It is not enough to deplore the waste of human lives caused by the careless handling of fire arms," asserts Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, "we should learn from the deaths of these victims the lessons of safety which will prevent this needless and shocking waste."

The State Department of Health suggests the following safety suggestions in handling guns:

While hunting be sure that the loaded gun is on safety until ready to fire. Never shoot without seeing your target clearly. Never crawl through a fence carrying a loaded gun. If hunting with a companion stay close to him. Do not strike the ground or wounded game with the butt of a loaded gun. Never scuffle while holding a loaded gun or point it at a person "for

CONSERVE BAILING WIRE

College Station—If this year's baling wire is not conserved and put into re-use, many Texas farmers will not be able to buy baled hay in 1943, B. F. Vance, chairman, Texas USDA War Board, said this week.

According to present indications, only a fraction of a normal year's wire supply will be produced for next year, he said.

"This year our baling wire production was nearly 50 per cent greater than in normal times but even at that shortage existed in many areas," Vance said in pointing to the necessity of conserving wire.

To conserve wire, farmers should cut as close to the tie as possible and later the wire should be straightened and placed where it will not rust.

Citing hay deficient areas, stockyards and Army remount stations as the three largest consumers of baled hay, Vance pointed to the necessity of their taking particular pains in salvaging baling wire for re-use.

Munday School News

Senior News
The seniors are doubly happy this week. We won the queen's race with $51.00 for the P-T-A, and after much anxious waiting we finally received our rings. So if you see a senior going around with his fist stuck out don't get offended, just say something about his ring and everything will be alright.

In civics this week we are studying about state courts. By the end of the week Joe should know how to deal with that chicken thief. Better watch out, Billie Frank.

We were sorry to hear that our sponsor, Mack Bogard, will be leaving us soon. But Uncle Sam drew his number, and he is reacting like a magnet.

In English we are turning the pages of the past back to the eighteenth century and concentrating on the lives of such great literary men as Pope, Addison, Steele and Boswell.

Last week we reported on the poem "Lost Paradise" by John Milton. For some of the seniors paradise was really lost when Miss DeLoach insisted that we have a test on it.

Senior On Review
Jane Campbell was born May 27, 1925, in Munday. She has been in the 1941-42 senior class since its beginning in the first grade except for one year which was spent in Floydada.

Jane is a very likeable student and is well liked by all her classmates. She played the part of Mrs. Graham in our junior play, was a majorette during her freshman year and secretary for the home making club during her junior year. But the most important event in Jane's school life, and this comes from Jane herself, was when she was crowned queen of Munday high school. All of the senior class was "powerful" happy that day.

Jane's classmates want to wish her success and happiness in everything she undertakes to do.

The sophomores had a grand time working for our carnival candidate, Berniece Douglas. Berniece is an average-sized young lady with brown hair and big brown eyes that would melt an iceberg. Born on May 24, 1928, she has reached the age of fourteen. An average student in her books and a popular young lady around the campus is she. She plays the bells for us in the band and does a good job of it.

Berniece was second in the long run and was sophomore princess. Her escort was handsome Wayne Payne.

Algebra is becoming steeper all the time. Taking braces and brackets away and adding and subtracting minus and plus signs is quite a different job.

After the first indistinguishable chapter of "A Tale of Two Cities," the class is becoming more and more interested in helping excavate a dead man from the grave. We certainly miss our sponsor, Mrs. Hood, but Mrs. Douglas is filling in quite well. The students all enjoy having her with them.

Three weeks exams are here again, and now Mr. Bogard has added a spelling test and current event quiz to our headaches.

Home Economics Club
The Freshman Home Economics Club met Friday, October 23, and a play entitled "While Mother Is Away" was given.

The president appointed Martha Ann Reynolds, Betty Jane Spann and Emmogene Lovell for the next program.

The girls are completing their blue aprons. Next week we are ready to start cooking.

First Grade
The children are enjoying their first book in reading. Much interest is being taken in their drill work and in their phonetic games. We want to thank our room mothers for the splendid work they did at the Hallowe'en carnival.

The 1-B grade is very sorry to have lost Mrs. Dean; however, they wish for her success in her new work.

We welcome a new pupil, Marie

JOAN FONTAINE

MEET "JANE EYRE" OF HOLLYWOOD

THEY dubbed her wooden-face, but that was away back in 1939. A couple of years later she surprised everyone by running off with the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences Award for the finest performance by any actress during 1941 for her role in "Suspicion."

On their very first meeting, she called her husband-to-be a stick-in-the-mud. He promptly telegraphed her masses of gardenias. Three weeks later she married the guy! She read "Jane Eyre" fourteen times as a child. Today, she's starring in the screen version of this favorite Bronte classic.

The gal we're talking about is Joan Fontaine—one of the finest actresses on celluloid today. In Cosmopolitan for November, Lupton A. Wilkinson, who knows his movie stars almost as well as they know themselves, reveals many hitherto unknown facts about Olivia de Havilland's little sister, Joan. No story could be written about one of these famous actresses without including the other.

For years, Hollywood has been trying to build up stories of feuds that supposedly exist between these famous sisters and for years, the girls have been denying them, or at least proving in one way or another that they are really the best of friends.

last Friday. They are knitting a blanket for the Red Cross. Miss Bessie Sue Munday is teaching the class. The blanket is going to be a very pretty one.

The class gave Mr. Kennamer, the home room teacher, a fruit shower the other day. At the Hallowe'en carnival the seventh grade collected $8.23. They had a box supper and also sold candy.

Eighth Grade News
The eighth grade was divided into two sections this week. Everyone seems to like it because they have a better chance to study more and get more attention. The students will still have their entertainments together.

These three weeks, the eighth grade students are making notebooks of geometrical figures. This is a very interesting study. They are to write a page on every figure they can think of, such as square, rectangle, triangle, rectangular prism, etc.

The students wish to thank their room mothers for helping them with the carnival. The eighth grade won second place in the amount of money each room collected.

W. M. Mayo of Goree was here Wednesday, visiting with friends and attending to business matters.

Adolf: Dot humming—vot iss it?
Reddy: That, Adolf, is the hum of power by which you will meet your doom. Power in the air . . . power afoot, on tap to build more planes, more tanks, more guns, more ships. It's the hum of American men and machines at work—twenty-four hours a day!
Adolf: Ah, but I haff power, too!
Reddy: Listen, Adolf! America has more power than you and all your stooges and conquered countries put together. Free men and women are using that power, turning out weapons of war in thundering quantities, because they want to stay free.
Adolf: Yes, but I haff men and women working for me, too.

Reddy: Slaves, Adolf. They toil with bayonets at their back. They have no spirit for the work. They are slowed down by hunger. The machines they work are worn by years of war. Manpower can never do the work of electric power!

Adolf: Sure, but I got the jump on you! I command everything—

Reddy: That's where we differ, Adolf. Your system is based on state slavery and political control and operation of all natural resources, industry, religion and education. In West Texas . . . and in all America . . . we respect the rights of the individual and the institutions he has created. Over here, we believe in free enterprise under government regulation . . . a system under which men and women know they'll be rewarded for initiative, ambition and production.

It's a powerful incentive, Adolf, and it's helped make America power-full. Consider electricity, for example. It's helped give West Texas homes about twice or three times as much electric service for their money as they used to get ten or fifteen years ago.

American business management is behind that hum you hear, Adolf, and its success depends on giving more for less cost. It's a hum that will beat upon you until freedom is restored to the earth. It's the hum of fate, Adolf!

All my life I've been hearing about Joe Miller. Wondering if his jokes were really as bad as reputation said, your columnist visited the University of Texas library and perused a copy of Joe Miller's Jests or the Wits' Vade-Mecum. And Joe isn't as bad as reputation says—he worse.

Here's Jest No. 72: A gentleman eating some mutton that was very tough, said it put him in mind of an old English poet. Being asked who that was; "Chau—cer," replied he.

No. 78 is better: Being once in great danger at sea, everybody was observed to be upon their knees but one man, who being called upon to come with the rest to prayers said to the captain, "Not I; it is your business to take care of the ship; I am a passenger."

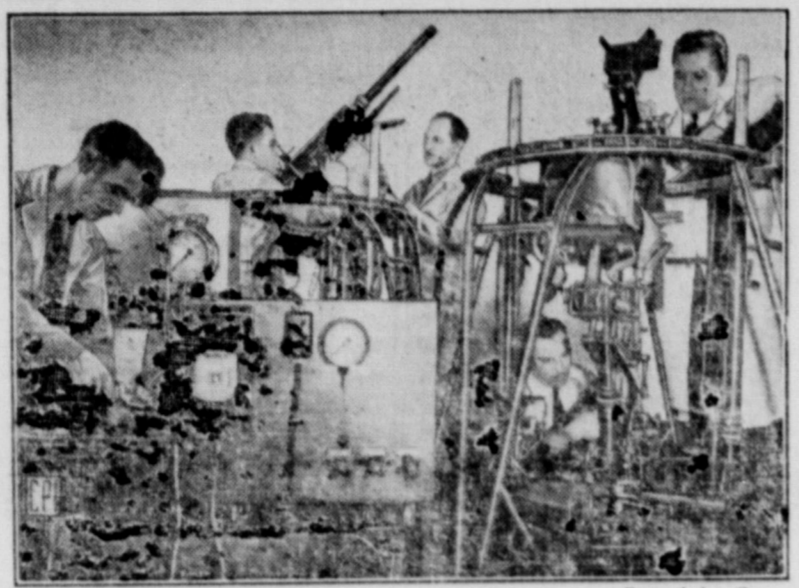

No. 118 was plucked from the same tree: A melting sermon being preached in a country church, all fell a-weeping but one man, who being asked why he did not weep with the rest, said "Oh, I belong to another parish."

These are among the best. If you don't believe that, the book contains the one about the dog rushing at the man who then ran a pitchfork through the creature. The owner remonstrated, "Why didn't you hit him with the other end of the pitchfork?" and the man replied, "Why didn't he come at me with the other end?"

Still another is about two rural visitors in the city who went to the theater for the first time. The orchestra played several selections and then the curtain rose and two actors came out on the stage and started talking. One of the visitors got up to leave, saying to his friend, "We'd better go; they may be talking private business."

Most unusual feature of Mr. Miller's book, which was published in 1739, was the dedication: "Most humbly inscribed to those choice spirits of the age, Capt. Bodens, Mr. Alexander Pope, Mr. Professor Lacy, Mr. Orator Hen-

SUDDEN DEATH FOR AXIS RAIDERS

FROM the turrets of Canada's Bunting bombers these Browning machine guns promise sudden death to the enemy who crosses their sights. This gun is capable of firing 1,100 rounds of .303-inch ammunition per minute. Turret assembly (right) shows pivoting seat-and-gun unit which gives gunner unlimited range. The turret, a highly complex piece of equipment, is motor driven and is made to revolve 360 degrees as easily as a roulette wheel. These gun turrets are installed in the mid-aft section of the Bunting bomber fuselage, and this type of aircraft is now used principally as a bombing and gunnery trainer.

The electrician, left foreground, is wiring a testing panel to a turret to check performance, while other workmen are busy putting a finishing touch to completed equipment. Canada is now contributing a large share of the aircraft for the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan, of which the Bunting bombers are only one type. The ley and Job Baker, the kettle-drummer."

If Ed Kilman of the Houston Post, Paul Bolton of the International News Service in Austin and some of the other "choice spirits" of the press don't watch out, I'll collect my jokes and inscribe the book to them.

More recollections of a sojourn in Los Angeles: You stand on a metal plate and push a button when you want to get off the street car; and there is a warning sign, "Don't leave arms in door after alighting"—apparently there are absent-minded contortionists in California. . . . Travel signs in the offices of the steamship lines (this was back in the days of peace): Rio and Buenos Aires—the South American Way and "To the South Seas and Tahiti"—take your five best tires. Take your idle tries to the nearest railway express agency. Make out the form which the express agent will give you. He will give you a receipt for all tires received.

Uncle Sam Wants Your Idle Tires

"Keep your five best tires; sell all others to Uncle Sam." This slogan highlights the idle tire purchase campaign begun October 15 under OPA. Uncle Sam wants all tires over 5 per car, new or used, to be collected in a national stockpile. He will buy them at a fair price; or he will accept them as gifts. This program becomes effective November 22. Each car owner before he receives a gas ration book, must certify he has no more than 5 tires per car. The idle tire purchase campaign is part and parcel of the government's battle to keep our cars and trucks rolling.

Why The Purchase Campaign
This nation rolls on wheels. Eighty-two per cent of American workers go to work in cars. Besides farmers, there are now 14 million persons engaged in war production. Within a year this number will rise to 20 million. Already war workers are unable to get the tires they need to carry them to work.

Problem Acute for Farmers
The million-odd immigrant workers in the U. S. depend mainly on automobiles—many of them de-lapidated—to move from area to area. Those cars must have tires, otherwise our food for freedom program is in danger of collapse. Besides the migrants, however, nearly all farmers need tires for trucks, tractors, and other vehicles.

What You Can Do:
You can help as follows: Select your five best tires. Take your idle tries to the nearest railway express agency. Make out the form which the express agent will give you. He will give you a receipt for all tires received.

Your tires will be delivered to one of 500 specified government warehouses, where the value of each tire will be determined by government appraisers. You will be paid by check—or if you prefer, in War Stamps or Bonds—from the nearest federal reserve bank. All idle tires thus collected will be sold at ceiling prices through regular channels to purchasers who have rationing certificates permitting them to obtain tires. —From U. S. D. A. War Board, College Station.

NATIONAL HOG PRODUCTION GOALS RELEASED

College Station—The 1943 Food for Freedom program got underway last week when the nation's hog farmers were asked to increase spring farrowings by at least 10 per cent over this year's record crop.

Although state production goals have not been received by the Texas USDA War Board, B. F. Vance, chairman, said that Texas hog farmers would be asked to fall in line with the national increase.

He explained also that hog farmers were requested to market their hogs 10 pounds heavier than they are this year.

The national increase will result in an estimated 1943 slaughter of pork amounting to 13.4 billion pounds dressed weight, compared with slightly more than 11 billion pounds of slaughter this year.

Ever-increasing demands for meat products to the fighting forces, Lend-Lease purchases and civilian needs were cited as reasons for the increased production. Hog producers were urged to plan their 1943 farrowings so that their marketings would avoid the normal marketing peaks, thereby relieving transportation and processing congestion. Particular emphasis was placed upon their earlier-than-usual farrowings, which might result in heavier marketings during the normal late-summer bare spots.

Answering the nation's call for more pigs early in 1942, Vance pointed out that Texas hog farmers saved 1,620,000 head of pigs from spring farrowing, the largest crop on record.

Other Food for Freedom goals probably will be announced in December, the War Board chairman said.

All America Knows Budweiser... but Few Know This

THEY'VE PASSED THEIR 'PHYSICAL'-TOO

America's feathered and four-legged armies are very much on their toes these days. Yeast vitamins used in fortifying animal feeds have done wonders in recent years to better the quality and propagation of livestock and poultry. Did you know that the Home of Budweiser is America's biggest single source of these vitamins?

Year after year, we have striven with research and resources to better the methods and facilities for brewing Budweiser. To do this, a laboratory specializing in fermentation and nutrition was necessary. Discoveries made in the laboratory and in the plant have led to the development of products contributing to human necessity and progress. Some of these products would appear to have only a remote relationship to brewing, yet, they are the result of scientific research into many allied fields.

Endless research in making the world's leading beer has led to other products

- VITAMINS, B COMPLEX—for manufacturers of pharmaceutical and food products. Our plant is one of the world's largest sources.
- VITAMIN D—Anheuser-Busch produces enough of the basic material for Vitamin D to supply the entire American market.
- BAKER'S YEAST—We are one of America's biggest suppliers of standard and enriched yeasts and malt syrup used to make bread.
- CORN SYRUP—many millions of pounds annually for America's candy industry.
- SYRUPS—for food, table and confectionery uses and special syrups for medicinal purposes.
- STARCH—for food, textile, paper and other industries—millions of pounds annually.
- REFRIGERATING EQUIPMENT—for retailers of frozen foods and ice cream the country over. This division is now working all-out on glider wing and fuselage assemblies for our Armed Forces.
- DIESEL ENGINES—Adolphus Busch, founder of Anheuser-Busch, acquired the first rights to manufacture this revolutionary engine in America and thus started our great Diesel industry on its way.

On The Home Front

O.E.M. Division of Information

The Government's rationing plans have taken precedence over all other news on the Home Front the past two weeks, and, as the winter weeks roll by, the consumer will feel more and more the pinch on civilian production.

Uppermost in the people's minds in the Southwest, naturally, is mileage rationing registration which gets into full swing next week. Application blanks are being made readily available in every county and parish this week in preparation for registration which will be held on Nov. 12, 13, and 14 in Texas and Louisiana and on Nov. 9, 10, and 11 in Oklahoma. Schoolhouses will serve as registration sites. Motorists who have not disposed of passenger-type tires in excess of five are urged to sell them to Uncle Sam now in order to be eligible for the basic "A" book. The Railway Express Agency is the authorized collection agency for excess tires.

Gasoline rationing was not alone in the spotlight—there was coffee too. OPA officials, in order to sound an early death knell to foolish rumors, announced last week that coffee rationing would begin on November 29. Officials were quick to add that the early announcement should not be any reason for hoarding and they put a hasty okay on plans by stores to puncture cans of coffee to prevent hoarding.

The individual coffee ration will be one pound for five weeks, which is at the rate of 10.4 pounds per year. Adding the amount of coffee consumed by the public through restaurants and other institutions, the average American coffee drinker under rationing, will use at the rate of about 13 pounds a year, which is about 38 per cent less than the amount he averaged over the five-year period from 1937 to 1941. The coffee ration, of course, may be changed from time to time to meet the varying conditions of supply.

The first quota of coffee will be released in exchange for coupons from the sugar rationing book; so all consumers who did not get their sugar book are urged to apply to their local boards immediately. The regulations permit late registration, and local boards will give consumers information on how to dispose of excess sugar. Local board members have been advised to check late registrants carefully, however, to see that no one person gets two books.

OPA spokesmen, meanwhile, pointed out several ways in which consumers can get greater "mileage" out of their coffee. Here are some of the suggestions: (1) Use fresh coffee, buy less each time, and more frequently. (2) Keep your coffee in a tightly covered container. (3) Keep it in the refrigerator or some other cool place. It deteriorates less rapidly when cool. (4) Keep your coffee pot immaculately clean. (5) Have your coffee ground as fine as possible for the pot you intend to use. (6) Use accurate measurements instead of "heaping tablespoons." (7) Don't boil coffee. (8) Serve the coffee as soon as it is made. (9) Make only the exact amount you want to use.

The nation's "New Year's gift" from Uncle Sam may be America's first all-purpose ration book. OPA officials announced that the printing of 134,000,000 such books is underway. The book contains 192 coupons, equally divided into two color blocks, red and blue, which can be used for either the point system of rationing or straight coupon rationing. It could provide rationing control for two major lines of commodities for a minimum of six months.

After reports reached him from several sources that migratory farm workers in the Southwest were leaving their jobs for fear of being caught away from home without gasoline, Regional OPA Administrator Max McCollough urged such workers to remain on their jobs, because mileage rationing regulations will take care of them. He pointed out that they could register at any local board—not just their own—and apply for supplemental rations just as anyone else. He said that the regulations permit them to apply at local boards for "special" rations, and the boards would allow them enough gasoline to return their automobiles to the place where they are normally garaged. He said that it was very important that such workers harvest the crops, and ignore rumors and they would be taken care of. Gasoline is being rationed, he said, on the basis of essential mileage and is aimed solely at saving the nation's rubber supply.

The Miracle of Lourdes

In the grotto of Massabielle, near Lourdes, there comes a vision to little 12-year-old BERNADETTE SORBONOUS. It takes destined to shake old France. A vision of a beautiful Lady of whom common a miraculous healing spring gushes forth from the rocks....

The spring is given its highest test by Louis Napoleon and the Empress Eugenie when their ailing child drinks the water and becomes well again.

An ecclesiastical commission undertakes a four-year investigation of BERNADETTE and her vision, and determines that the appearance of the Lady and the spring constitutes an authentic miracle...

Given under the protection of the Church, BERNADETTE enters a convent and dedicates the rest of her life to prayer and the healing of the sick.

Working with the WLB, the Dallas regional office of the Wage and Hour Division, Department of Labor, has announced that it will answer questions concerning wage stabilization problems. By November 10, district Wage and Hour offices in Oklahoma City, San Antonio and Houston will be qualified to answer questions. No date has been set for opening the WLB office in Dallas.

Tire Service Prices Controlled
Services such as mounting and demounting, pick-up and delivery, in connection with sales of new, used or re-capped tires and tubes, are priced under the separate OPA regulations covering those commodities, and not under the general service price regulation, No. 165. OPA officials announced maximum prices for services in connection with new tires, under revised price schedule No. 63, are at levels in effect on November 25, 1941; in connection with used tires and tubes, under MPR No. 107, at March 7 levels, and in connection with recaps, under revised price schedule No. 66 as amended.

Big Inch Extended To East Coast
The "Big Inch" oil pipeline, now under construction from Longview, Tex., to Illinois, will be extended to the East Coast, OPC Coordinator Harold L. Ikes announced, following allocation of the necessary steel by WPB. The extension will insure a daily pipeline delivery of 300,000 barrels of crude oil or products direct from the East Texas fields to terminals in the New York-Philadelphia refinery district. Completion of the line to Illinois is expected in December, when work will begin on the extension to the East Coast.

College Station—An extra two dollars per ton is in store for growers of oil peanuts who deliver their peanuts in sacks instead of in bulk.

No extra payment will be made for bagged quota peanuts, according to B. F. Vance, chairman, Texas USDA war board.

He explained that peanuts which are grown under marketing quotas and channeled into edible trade are grown largely on acreages normally devoted to peanuts and where sales methods, handling and storage practices already are established.

The extra two dollars should pay for the costs of sacks and will make the peanuts more easily handled when delivered to cooperating agencies participating in the program, Vance said.

Under the 1942 purchase program, producers who deliver oil peanuts to cooperative agencies will receive the market value for crushing for oil on the day of delivery, less handling costs, or the support price, announced earlier in the year, whichever is higher.

Harvey Gaines Sends Greetings From Hawaii

The following letter from Cpl. Harvey Gaines, who is stationed in the Hawaiian Islands, was received Thursday morning and marked "Passed by Army Censors." Because many friends in Knox county enjoy hearing from our boys in the service, we are printing this letter in detail:

Hawaii,
Oct. 27, 1942

To Whom It May Concern:

Dear reader, hello to all my friends back in good old Munday, Texas. I have been wanting to write a letter to the good old home town for some time, but never did get around to it have been rather busy, so I will use that for an excuse.

I can't say that I am too crazy about this wonderful place of Hawaii, I personally don't think it is what it is cracked up to be, you can drive all over the place in a day (providing you have a car, and can get gasoline for it) and you don't have to drive fast, either.

The main attraction here, is the famous Waikiki Beach, which is located at Honolulu, the principal city of the island of OAHU.

The principal crops are sugar cane, and pineapples, they have some cotton, but not enough to speak of, but maybe I have just failed to find it.

I guess everyone there made a good crop, I hope so anyway.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish you each and everyone a very merry XMAS and A HAPPY NEW YEAR, so keep things going, and I hope to see you all soon.

A friend,

Cpl. Harvey L. Gaines,
(38069479) Co. A, 325th Q. M. BN. A. P. O. No. 25, % Postmaster, San Francisco, Calif.

Mrs. Ferdinand Fetsch and son, Felix, and daughter, Marie, visited a few days last week with Mrs. Fetsch's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Albus, and with friends in Littlefield.

Miss Zell Spann was a visitor in Wichita Falls on Wednesday of this week.

Mrs. J. W. Fowler of Goree was a business visitor in town Tuesday afternoon.

October Banner Month For Navy Enlistments

Spiking all rumors to the effect that voluntary enlistments in the Navy soon will be halted, Lieut. L. H. Ridout, Jr., officer in charge of the North Texas Naval recruiting district, today announced that November is expected to be another banner month for enlistments, and called on every citizen in this area to co-operate in recruiting additional men and boys for our vast awo-ocean Navy.

The Dallas district enjoyed its third biggest month in history, with enlistments totaling 2,763 during October, Lieut. Ridout said. "The Navy still needs men, and needs them urgently," Lieut. Ridout pointed out. "We can still take men as volunteers up to the time of their actual induction into any other branch of the service. Applicants for the Navy can still join if they are 3-A or 1-A."

The Navy's overseas construction have been thrown wide open for battalions, known as the Seabees, enlistments, and ratings now are available to almost every man between the ages of 17 and 50 with experience in a construction trade. Interviews to Seabees applicants were to be granted at the Dallas station only seven days this month, on Nov. 2, 3, and 4, and on Nov. 17, 18, 19 and 20, Lieut. Ridout warned. Applicants must first report for a physical exam, bringing with them two letters from responsible persons, listing their experience in their respective trades.

For the month of October, the total Navy enlistment figure in Wichita Falls recruiting district was 150 as compared with its quota of 246.

Mrs. W. H. Stephens and son, W. C., returned Monday from Stephenville and Hico, where they visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Davis, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Dowell of Quail, Texas, were business visitors in the city last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Melton and little son of Goree were business visitors to the city Wednesday.

Munday's Exes Down Moguls In Game Friday

Several ex-students of Munday high school went around with pronounced limps last Friday, following a rough and tumble football game with this year's issue of the Munday Moguls.

A light crowd attended the game, and an admission charge of 10 cents was made. The exes, scoring in the first few minutes of play and again on the last play of the game, trimmed the Moguls to the tune of 12 to 6. With such former stars as Jack Pippin, Forest Yancy, Hollis Barnicoat, Raymond Carden, Bobby Davy and others again donning the uniforms, they were hard for the lighter Moguls to stop.

Joe McGraw led the Mogul attack, but the exes had him bottled up most of the time. He did get by for several nice gains but was unable to lead his team across the goal marker. Clifford Brock was referee, and Grady Weaver served as headlinesman.

AAA Committee To Be Elected On November 15

College Station—Farmer-committeemen who will lead Texas farmers in 1943 agricultural wartime production will be elected in all Texas counties, Friday, November 13.

Always a vital part of the AAA organization, next year's committeemen also will help chart the course of farmers in the Food for Freedom program. Fred Rennels, assistant administrative officer of the AAA in Texas, said this week. One of the first responsibilities of AAA committees elected at the November meeting will be to lead in the production sign-up which gets underway in December after national Food for Freedom goals are announced.

Other responsible wartime jobs appear definitely headed in their direction, the AAA official pointed out.

Although county AAA committeemen have been doing wartime jobs throughout 1942, more responsibility will be placed on community committeemen during 1943. For that reason, the most capable and dependable men of Texas communities are needed as AAA committeemen, Rennels said.

Community places at which committeemen will be elected are being scheduled by county AAA offices and will be announced later, he said.

You can't blame kids for wondering why they have to go to bed when they're not sleepy and have to get up when they are.

New Machinery Quotas Are Cut

College Station—Don't count too much on getting new farm machinery because new stuff will be scarce in 1943.

That's the word the Texas USDA war board is getting out to Texas farmers this week.

Basis for the announcement is incorporation of WPB's concentration program and limitation order which transfers manufacture of farm machinery from larger companies to small and intermediate producers, and cuts production by approximately 50 per cent over the previous limitation order.

In explaining the new program, the war board said that quotas for new machinery would be held to 20 per cent of 1940 production while repair parts would be allowed at 130 per cent of that year's production.

Although total manufacture of new machinery during 1943 will reflect 20 per cent of the 1940 production, only 75 per cent of the present time.

The balance of 25 per cent will be distributed later on the basis of efficient use of existing inventories, available labor, and to correct inequities between producers of approximately the same size and type which might otherwise develop.

A TRIBUTE TO KATE CARTWRIGHT

How shocking, how distressing, was the news item announcing the death of Artie Cartwright. It is hard to realize that the Heavenly Father has called one so valuable in life at this time away, yet death is inevitable, and no respector of professions.

A sweeter character never blessed humanity. In youth, in womanhood wherever you met Katie the same sweet smile adorned her face. She was cheerful to all, kind and considerate, always with a helping hand to aid and cheer.

In womanhood she dedicated her life to aid distressed humanity. What a noble life she lived, none could do more. What is said of Katie can be said of all the Cartwright girls; noble, pure and self sacrificing. All dedicating their lives to relieve and uplift humanity. Such a great and noble family. Sweet is the memory of early association, blessed is the privilege of knowing them, their lives. How hard is it to realize that one so sweet shall live only in memory.

A. C. Chamberlain.

Cotton Acreage Allotment Given

College Station—Approximately 90 per cent of all Texas cotton farm will receive the same cotton allotment in 1943 as they did in 1942.

According to B. F. Vance, administrative officer of the AAA in Texas, allotments will be available to individual growers by November 20.

Under the present law allotments can be changed from last year's allotments under only two circumstances, the AAA official explained.

Citing the reasons for changes, Vance said that some individual allotments would be increased or decreased if the 1942 measured cropland increased or decreased over the 1942 measured cropland, or if the 1942 planted acreage was materially increased over the acreage planted to cotton during the three year period, 1939-41.

He said that the majority of individual cotton allotments could not be changed unless the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938 also was changed.

Producers who do not receive regular 1943 cotton allotments may request a 1943 new grower allotment by contacting their county AAA committees by Feb. 1, 1943. Farm on which cotton is planted in 1943 for the first time since January 1, 1940, are eligible for new grower allotments.

To date, approximately 31,000 cotton from allotments under next year's AAA program have been calculated for 26 counties. Texas' cotton allotment under the 1942 AAA program was approximately 9,947,819 acres and the same acreage is expected under the 1943 program.

DEALERS MAKE FARM MACHINERY INVENTORY

College Station—Inventories of more than 100 types of machinery and equipment will get under way in Texas next week.

Working with Texas' 254 county farm machinery rationing committees, dealers, distributors and manufacturers are being asked to take stock of their supplies and make final report by November 10.

Purpose of the inventory is to determine equipment and farm machinery available to Texas farmers for the 1943 crop year and lay ground work for permanent rationing, according to B. F. Vance, chairman, Texas USDA war board. He explained that dealers who do business in six or more Texas counties should file their reports with the state USDA war board instead of local rationing committees, and with the Washington office if business is conducted in more than one state.

Included in the inventories are various types of planting, seeding and fertilizing equipment, plows and listers, harrows and pulverizers, cultivators and weeder, grain, and rice binders, combines, mowers, rakes, power feed cutters and corn shellers, and hay presses or balers. Other types of machinery and equipment to be included in the over-all inventory are tractors, power engines, farm wagons and trucks, dairy machinery and equipment, spraying outfits and domestic water systems.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. West of Princeton came in the first of this week for a visit with Rev. and Mrs. Luther Kirk and family. Mr. and Mrs. West are Mrs. Kirk's parents.
