Over the Top by New Year's Is the Plea of Secretary Morgenthau

November 15, 1942

As of today twenty-one million American workers are investing eight per cent of their salary—every pay day—in United States War Savings Bonds. This is a very remarkable tribute to our armed forces who are fighting this war. But this job is only two-thirds accomplished.

There are nine million additional American workers who are not investing in War Bonds every pay day.

This appeal is directed to two groups of Americans:

First—the twenty-one million people who are investing eight per cent of their wages. We ask them to increase their investment to ten per cent or more.

Second—the other nine million whom we ask to join the Payroll Savings Plan and to invest ten per cent or more of their earnings.

It is our earnest hope here at the Treasury Department that by New Year's Day thirty million Americans will be investing ten per cent or more of their wages in War Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan.

Henry Morgenthau Jr.
SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY

Your Sugar Rationing Book Has Double Value Now; It's Also Needed To Get Your Coffee Allowance

As housewives go to market during this week they will not be able to buy any coffee, but starting Sunday, November 29, coffee purchases may begin by surrendering one stamp from War Ration Book No. 1—the book they have been using for sugar purchasing this year.

Retail coffee sales will be frozen during that one week for the purpose of enabling storekeepers to stock their shelves for the beginning of ration sales.

In order to prepare for coffee rationing, those who do not have War Ration Book No. 1 or who have lost it should apply immediately to the local War Price and Rationing Board.

"When Coffee rationing begins on November 29, War Ration Book No. 1, which most people probably call the 'sugar book,' will then be used for buying coffee. The stamp in the book No. 28 and down to 20 will be the coffee stamps. The first coffee rationing stamp is No. 27, then in order follow 28, 25, 26, 23, 24, 21, 22 and 20." This apparently disconnected sequence of the stamp numbers is to be used because of the arrangement of the stamps in the ration book.

Another important point to bear in mind, is that only those whose ration books show them to be over 15 years old may purchase a pound of coffee for each of these coffee stamps. Persons who have attained the age of 15 years since the ration book was issued are not eligible to purchase coffee. The reason for this age limitation is to allow larger coffee rations for grownups.

The first ration period will be for five weeks from November 29 through January 3, 1943. Consumers who have stocked up of coffee will have to count all above one pound they have on hand November 28 as a part of their ration. When the consumer applies for War Ration Book No. 2 some time around the first of the year he will be required to declare the amount of coffee he had on hand at the start of rationing and stamps will be removed from his book to cover any excess supply. This means that the consumer will be unable to continue coffee purchases until he has used up his stock on hand at the rationed rate.

Coffee stamps in the ration books of children under 15 years of age must be left in their books and will be surrendered when War Ration Book No. 2 is issued.

For the benefit of those who live in remote localities or where transportation facilities make the buying of supplies in small quantities a hardship, a consumer may apply to his Ration Board for a certificate to buy as much as five pounds of coffee at a time, but in such instances, of course, a sufficient number of stamps will be removed by the Board to cover such advanced rations.

In spite of the shortage of coffee, the price of coffee is controlled by the OPA regulations and no one should pay more than a particular merchant's ceiling price.

Coffee buyers are warned not to rush to a store on November 29 with all of a family's ration books and try to buy all of the coffee the stamps in those books might allow.

There will be enough coffee for everyone. That is the very reason why rationing is being started. Coffee loses its freshness and flavor if it is kept too long and it will be far wiser to buy a pound at a time as it is needed. Stamp No. 27 will be valid for five weeks and most grocers will have coffee all during that period any time it is wanted.

DEFENSE GUARD TO OBSERVE HOLIDAY

Thanksgiving (Thursday) will also be a holiday for members of Company C of Texas Defense Guard, it was announced Tuesday.

Gene Harrell, acting commanding officer of the company stated that the regular drill period would not be held on Thursday night of this week because of the holiday, thus giving the members an opportunity to visit relatives and friends during the day without having to cut their visits short to be back home for the guard meeting.

Send Christmas Greeting Cards By First Class

Large numbers of Christmas greetings, mailed in unsealed envelopes at the third class rate of postage, are disposed of as waste each year because they are undeliverable as addressed, due to removal of the addressee or other causes. Such greetings are not entitled to the free forwarding privilege accorded those mailed in sealed envelopes at the first class rate and, consequently, the senders in many cases never know that the greetings were not received.

This would not occur, postal employees point out, if the greetings were mailed at the first class rate. Greetings sent first class may also contain written messages not otherwise permitted, thus having a personal appeal which is more highly appreciated. Such greetings are dispatched and delivered first, given directory service, and if necessary forwarded without additional charge; also, if undeliverable, they are returned without charge provided the sender's return card is shown on the envelope.

Greetings mailed at the third class rate which cannot be delivered must often be destroyed as waste, thus causing disappointment.

Sign-Up Dates Set For Youths

18 and 19-Year Olds Given Three Dates To Register

Following passage of the 18 and 19-year-old draft bill by Congress, President Roosevelt ordered the young men who became 18 years old in the last six months of this year to register for military service. Roosevelt provided three registration dates, as follows:

Those who became 18 in July and August are to register during the week of December 11. Those whose birthdays were in September and October are to register during the week of December 18. And those becoming 18 in November and December are to register between December 26 and 31, inclusive.

After January 1, men becoming 18 will register on their birthdays. Selective Service headquarters have issued regulations under which the youths will be called up for induction in the order of their birthdays, with the oldest called first.

Rules have also been made covering deferments to be granted high school students. By applying to their draft boards in writing, such youths may obtain deferments to the end of the school year.

This provision, it was said, applies only to institutions "giving the usual study in the 9th, 10th, 11th or 12 grades of education and applies only to those grades in such schools."

RED CROSS WORKERS TO HAVE TWO MEETINGS

Local Red Cross workers will meet on Monday, November 30, and again on Thursday, December 3, at the Munday Study Club's club house, at 2 o'clock each afternoon, it was announced Wednesday.

The purpose of these meetings is to complete the kit bags for our men in the service. All who desire to help in this work are requested to be present.

Gas Rationing Board Is Named

Speeders To Forfeit Ration Coupons, Board Says

The Knox county gas rationing board has been advised by higher authorities that strict enforcement of the 35-mile speed limit will be made when gas rationing goes into effect. Speeding will carry an additional penalty of forfeiture of the gas rationing coupons.

"The purpose of gas rationing," authorities said, "is to conserve rubber, and this is the reason the 35-mile speed limit was imposed. So if you want to receive your allotment of gasoline, drive within the 35-mile speed limit."

Members of the Knox county gas rationing board, No. 138, have been announced as follows:

Walter Snody, Benjamin, chairman; John Black, Truscott; E. L. Park, Knox City; W. M. Ford, Vera; and Clay F. Grove, Munday.

Board members announced that applications for tractor gasoline must be made out in duplicate. Failure to do this will necessitate forms being returned to you.

All applications for additional gas, other than the A-basic coupons, should be filled out and mailed to the board at Benjamin, it was stated.

Citizens are requested to call at the ration office for forms to be used in making application for non-highway rations. This applies to farm tractors, gas irons, stoves, stationary engines, motors, etc.

Farmers Asked To Hunt Scrap

The Times received the following wire from Donald M. Nelson, chairman of the national salvage committee, which is self explanatory:

"The government is asking the American farmer to dedicate the remaining weeks of 1942 to an intensified scrap hunt. Steel mills need more heavy scrap and the farms are one of the best sources of this type of metal.

"We need your further help in this farm drive and in aiding our salvage committees to continue this effort throughout the next few weeks.

"All salvage committees are being instructed to continue to make available to the farmer all their transportation facilities and manpower and to cooperate in every possible way.

"The nation is looking to the American farmer. I am sure with your help he will come through."

Field Worker To Be Here December 2nd

The field worker of Knox County will be in the city hall at Munday on Wednesday, December 2, for the purpose of interviewing all persons interested in old age assistance, aid to dependent children, or aid to needy blind.

This day has been set aside for interviewing due to the fact that Thursday, December 24, the regular intake day, is Christmas eve, it was stated.

Goree Youth Has Completed Course

Sheppard Field, Texas — Pvt. James V. Reeves, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor R. Reeves of Route 1, Goree, Texas, has graduated from an intensive course in aviation mechanics and now is prepared to blast the Axis.

Sheppard Field, near Wichita Falls, Texas, is one of the many schools in the Army Air Forces Technical Training Command which trains the specialist technicians who maintain our bombers and fighter planes in perfect combat condition. He now is eligible to become crew chief on a bomber and to win a rating as corporal or sergeant.

Before entering the school, he was trained at one of the basic training centers of the Air Forces Technical Training Command and learned to fight the Axis with other things besides the tools of his trade. Men trained by the Command are versed in the art of protection and offense as well as repair.

BRITISH LABOR CAN TAKE IT

The report of Daniel J. Tobin, Vice President of the American Federation of Labor and President of the Brotherhood of Teamsters, on how England is handling three labor problems—strikes, absenteeism, and working hours—is of wide interest because of the present labor situation in this country. In the opinion of the National Association of Manufacturers, Mr. Tobin has rendered a public service in telling our British ally is handling these situations as they have arisen of the vital production program.

"There are very few stoppages of work," Mr. Tobin said in a recent radio address which was printed in the American Federationist, the official AFL magazine. "Here and there unions will kick over the traces and, in violation of the rules governing their procedure, cease work."

"In such instances," says Mr. Tobin, "the officers of the union denounce the strike, force public opinion against the action, backed by the Minister of Labor, and usually the strike lasts but a few days. Where unlawful strikes occur in violation of the rules and against the advice of the officers, the agitators within the union, who, in some instances, can influence large numbers, are sought out, and there are methods by which such disturbers are either sent to other employments, reshuffled for the draft or military service, or if necessary placed out of reach of an opportunity to create trouble."

"Absenteeism," says Mr. Tobin, "is another matter that is seriously dealt with. During my stay in England there were instances of this before courts and in each case the individual was what we might call willfully lazy or negligent and could give no sound reason for absence. In some instances the individual was fined and imprisoned."

Believing that labor would not appreciate this statement on working hours and overtime wages, Mr. Tobin stated that "the average of working hours for all classes of workers in defense employment is about fifty-three hours per week. Overtime," he said, "is paid after forty-eight hours."

It is obvious to those responsible for the conduct of the war and for the production of war materials that peacetime "extras" that labor has been enjoying, have no place in wartime. As in England these "extras" must be eliminated entirely or controlled to such an extent that they cannot sabotage our production efforts. Whether or not labor appreciates what Mr. Tobin has said about strike control, absenteeism punishment, and the no-overtime forty-eight-hour work week, American labor must face the facts and make like adjustments if it is to prove that it is as patriotic and as determined to win this war as British labor.

A VITAL RIGHT

Natural resources are a basic cause of war. Nations which don't have them strive to gain them; nations which have them try to keep them; war itself cannot be waged to a successful termination without their products. From this, the conclusion could easily be drawn that natural resources are a curse. They most decidedly are when they are exploited by a few crazed maniacs with hypnotic power over millions of people.

But the use to which our natural resources here in America have been put during the last century and a half, show that oil, coal and metal mines, timber, water power, etc., can be the greatest of blessings. Never has the world seen such comfort and security for the common man as has been attained by their use in this country. All of the creative genius of free men centered on securing a rising plane of existence for the individual. A form of government and a "way of doing business" made it possible to satisfy this urge. The opportunity for every man to make his living independently and free of government domination, is our basic law. This protects our system of free enterprise. As long as it is preserved, officialism cannot control votes to destroy it.

Our industries were developed to their present gigantic productivity by countless men—unknown men—free men. Until war came, every ounce of the collective energy of these men went toward making a better life for the common citizen. This is as it should have been, and will be again, providing our people, while making every sacrifice necessary to win the war, cling to one vital right from which stems all other rights—the right of every American citizen in peace time to be the master of his own destiny, not the servant of a socialized state as in Germany.

You're likely to get shocked when you step on anybody who is a live wire.

SPARE YOUR DOCTOR

War's drain on the nation's doctors continues to grow rapidly. In time, it is likely that all physically fit young doctors, and many old doctors, will be called to military service. And so, the burden of work on the doctors who remain at home will be doubled and redoubled.

Many authorities are now advising the public as to how it may help these doctors perform their job with maximum efficiency under difficult conditions. First, don't ask your doctor to make a house call if you are able to go to his office. Second, don't call him at inconvenient times unless there is an emergency. Third, when you do see him, don't waste his time in gossip and idle talk. It may be all right to "visit" with the doctor in normal times—it is definitely a bad practice now.

The standards of American medical care are the highest in the world. During the war, with millions of people working at arduous labor, every possible means of guarding and maintaining these standards must be used. And you can be certain that the doctors will do their part. They will willingly work longer and harder. They won't spare themselves. They know better than anyone else that the preservation of civilian health is absolutely vital to the war effort.

The patient who wastes a doctor's time may, unwittingly, be depriving a person who desperately needs it, of medical attention. Spare your doctor!

WHEN FIRE STRIKES

"Few cities have sufficient men in the fire department to permit full capacity to be obtained from their pumping engines," says a bulletin issued by the National Board of Fire Underwriters. "A minimum of an engineer and three men is needed for the effective use of one hose line and if two lines are used the manning must be increased accordingly. Many fire departments are operating with less than this, which may be satisfactory for the multiplicity of small fires, but for the infrequent serious fires this undermanning is serious. The need of keeping the apparatus in good condition is vital at all times, but more so under the conditions now present, as replacement of apparatus may be greatly delayed.

"Training of fire departments has never been so important as now, and if an auxiliary fire force is organized, it must also receive a thorough series of drills."

Adequate fire protection is as important to the small community as to the great city. Important defense plants are operating in villages, and as sub-contracting of war work progresses, more and more of the production will take place away from metropolitan areas. The saboteur will strike where fire defense is least efficient.

At least one person in every home should have civil defense training in fire control. Volunteer fire organizations should be organized and trained in every community. The purchase of adequate equipment for these forces is the best investment that any town can make. When fire comes—from the skies, from the incendiary of the saboteur, or in any other way—we must be ready to meet it. The war against fire is an essential part of the war against the Axis.

For every passenger automobile available to carry war workers to their jobs in 1917, there are six vehicles available today.

Even after the football season is over, students will hang around the colleges until warm weather sets in.

NO QUOTAS, NO LOANS

College Station — No government loan can be offered on cotton in 1943 if marketing quotas are rejected in the nation-wide referendum Saturday, December 12, Frank Seale, state AAA committeeman, reminded cotton growers this week.

Seale, himself a Robertson county cotton farmer, pointed out that the law prohibits the Commodity Credit Corporation from making loans on cotton in any year in which quotas are rejected.

The government loan has served as a floor under cotton prices ever since 1938, the first year quotas were in effect, the AAA committeeman declared. Currently, the basic loan rate of 16.97 cents a pound, 90 per cent of parity, is supporting the price of cotton.

"With our huge supply of cotton and with world prices equal to about half what we're getting for cotton, there is no telling what would happen to American cotton prices if the loan were removed," Seale declared.

Cotton growers will vote for the sixth time on marketing quotas December 12. Each year for the past five years they have voted overwhelmingly to use quotas as a means of assuring each producer his fair share of the available cotton market.

METHODIST'S CALL FOR OFFENSIVE

In the military language of the hour the Methodists of Northwest Texas have decided to adopt offensive tactics in the traditional American fashion. They have taken two challenging objectives for the coming year. Every local church is to think not simply of maintaining its local church life while the world around rings with the battle for extermination. They have decided to take the field. The strategy is to advance along these lines: To add 20 per cent to their membership and secure 40 per cent of their membership to tithe for the duration by February 1, 1943.

Bishop Ivan Lee Holt and his district superintendents and five major boards joined in stating the objectives of the year. "In view of the appalling events of our time, and consequent opportunities offered the church for pointing the way for life and salvation through Christ, we, therefore, make the following recommendations:

I. That our total church life for the year center around two points of emphasis in an all-out effort on the part of all existing organizations, officials, and leaders, in our conference, districts and local churches.

A. Personal commitment of life to Christ, seeking to lead our present members to unreserved dedication and to increase our membership by 20 per cent, 10 per cent on profession of faith and 10 per cent otherwise.

B. Christian giving and a sound financial system in every church with a minimum goal of 40 per cent of our members pledged and

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

Do Your Duty Buy War Bonds!

Here's a patriotic duty everyone of us can participate in — buy U. S. War Bonds and Stamps. War costs run into millions — $220,000 for a big bomber; $70,000 for a fast fighter; $20,000 for a light tank. And it takes millions of dollars more to keep on producing these tanks and ships and guns for Victory. But we can and we will, if you lend your support.

Remember! In ten years, Uncle Sam repays you $25.00 for the $18.75 you lend him today.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS by BOYCE HOUSE

In World War I, a sergeant ordered a negro soldier to enter a dugout and clean out any of the enemy who happened to be there, says the Eagle Lake Headlight. The darkey paled a little, swallowed his Adam's apple and then said huskily, "If you sees three or fo' men come a-running out dat hole, don't shoot de fust one, please."

A long-time friend has presented me with a hat. Maybe he thought that, since I talk and write Texas so much, I should wear a hat that suggests Texas. Anyhow, he gave me a Stetson—a "5X" at that. Did you know they rate Stetsons by the "X's"—different degrees, like the gravity of oil or the richness of the butter-fat in milk? And a "5X" is purty near the top. Don't know what it cost—wouldn't be polite to ask questions. But you've heard of a "fifty-dollar saddle on a twenty-dollar horse"? Well, I know how the horse feels.

An editor of a weekly paper, commenting on the fact that sometimes errors creep into his news columns, says that he made several in the last issue and a good subscriber told him about them. The editor goes on to relate, then, that about the same day there was a letter in his postoffice box that didn't belong to him; he called for No. 98 on the phone and got No. 198; he asked for a spool of No. 40 thread and was given No. 60; he received his milk bill and there was a mistake of 10 cents in his favor; he felt sick and the doctor told him he was eating too much meat when he hadn't tasted meat in nearly two weeks; the preacher turned in the church news items with the name of the president of the ladies' aid society spelled wrong; the garage man said his jitney was missing because it needed a new timer but the editor just cleaned a spark plug and the flivver has been running all right ever since.

Yes, indeed, editors do make mistakes—and so, every thousand years or so, do other people. —(Quoted from the Sanderson Times.)

Canadian Paratroops Graduate at Fort Benning, Ga.

LATEST example of United States-Canadian co-operation in the all-out war against the Axis was the training at the great U. S. Army paratroop school at Fort Benning of a number of selected Canadian soldiers.

These men, upon their return to Canada, were sent to the big training station at Camp Shilo, Manitoba, where they are forming the nucleus of a Canadian parachute unit. While at Fort Benning the Canadians trained side by side with men of the U. S. Army. The "northerners" were captivated by the charm and hospitality of the Georgia people who turned out on the evening of their graduation to give them a farewell party.

Tragedy marred the stay of the Canadians at Fort Benning when their leader, Major H. D. Proctor, of Ottawa, was killed during a practice jump. Although the number of serious mishaps at the training school have been extremely low, Major Proctor lost his life in what was described as a freak accident.

It was a matter of considerable pride to the Canadians that they were presented the same paratrooper insignia as that of the United States army men who had finished their training. Later, they will be supplied with their own Canadian Army paratroop badge.

In the upper photo, General George P. Howell, head of the paratroop school at Fort Benning, is shown pinning the wings on the tunic of Captain H. A. Fauquier, of Ottawa. The Captain is a brother of the famed RCAF fighter ace Johnny Fauquier, D.F.C.

In the lower photo, the Canadian paratroopers are shown marching out to the graduation ceremonies, under the wings of a giant U. S. troop transport.

St. Paul where you can stand on the north bank of the Mississippi and look across at the mysterious caves in which mushrooms are grown; folks moving briskly in the cold, wearing ear-muffs, bearskin coats, "winter wonderland" costumes.

Tony, who operated a little stand, was much annoyed by persons making a practice of handling and pinching the fruit, thereby leaving it softened and easier to spoil. So he put up a sign, "If you gusta pincha de fruit—pincha de cocoanut!"

EAT MORE NUTS

Pecans, walnuts, almonds, filberts and other domestic tree nuts will hold the Victory Food Special spotlight until next Saturday.

Domestic tree nuts were designated a Victory Food Special by the Agricultural Marketing Administration since this year's supply of nuts has reached a near record level and foreign shipment of United States nuts has been practically stopped by the war.

Local merchants are featuring tree nuts to focus consumer attention on their food value and use in wartime meal planning. The increased consumption of nuts will relieve pressure on less abundant foods.

Senior Report

The second week of school finds the seniors all present. Some were absent the first week to finish the job for which they had remained at home to do.

The seniors enjoyed helping register for mileage rationing. Don't know exactly whether it was to get out of classes or to be helpful.

We have been having some tough English lately, but we finally "caught on." Do you know what a pronomial adjective is? Just ask one of the seniors. They can tell you anything you want to know!

Junior Report

The juniors are sad to say that one of their classmates is still absent. We hope to see him as soon as he can, as we miss him because there are so few of us.

Here are some of our favorites: Everett—maroon.
Alvin—gold.
Anna—blue.
Everett—Milky Way Candy.
Alvin—Denver Sandwich.
Anna—Stemwinder.

Sophomore Report

Since boll pulling is over we have resumed school. The first day of school found three students absent. All students were present at the beginning of the second week.

All students are looking forward to Thanksgiving. During Algebra class, Mr. Hoffman said we were not going to have a holiday Thanksgiving, but we think he is joking.

Freshman News

Most of us were satisfied with our report cards. We were glad when we started playing volleyball, especially the girls, since they had nothing else to do.

We Wonder Why —

We didn't have religion class Tuesday morning. In case you didn't know we have a half-hour of religion each morning before the opening of school.

Veronica got home so late Monday evening.
Fidelis had a peculiar odor last week.

We took our same desks again when school took up.

Everyone thinks they are going to have a good time at the Thanksgiving picnic.

LaVerne brought so many pencils to school Tuesday. We just couldn't guess.

Report On Room III

The eighth grade pupils were all glad to start back to school again. Everyone declared they pulled their part of cotton. We have been having interesting discussions in our history class, all about colonial times.

Our contribution to the Christmas program will be a play called "Wildcat Willie's Lucky Number."

ber." We hope the public will enjoy it.

Report On Room IV

Well, here we are back in school. We hope everybody had a nice vacation. I think everyone had to pull cotton except Eugene Kuhler, who had to sow wheat for his daddy.

Miss Claus brought two gold fish to school.

We are making posters for Thanksgiving to form a border around the blackboards. We are planning to have a good time Thursday at the hall. We have lots to be thankful for; the crops, food, homes, and many other things.

RUBBER BOATS FOR FIGHTING YANKEES

Two of the many types of boats that are being turned out by the rubber industry for use of the military forces are shown above. Products of The General Tire & Rubber Company, the small boat in the foreground is a parachute boat, used by pilots shot down over the water. The boat is attached to the pilot's chute and is inflated after he has dropped into the water. The other is a landing boat used by the Navy. In similar boats the Marines invaded the Solomon Islands.

WTU Has 136 Men In Armed Forces As War Contribution

Uncle Sam, observing the first wartime Thanksgiving Day since 1917, still has many things for which to be thankful, among them four substantial contributions to the war effort being made by the West Texas Utilities.

The company, which begins its 32nd year of service to West Texas next month, is credited with supplying ample power for production in this area, highly skilled men for the armed forces, many tons of scrap metal, and with contributing $1,200,000 in 1942 taxes. Light and power from WTU's three major generating stations at San Angelo, Quanah and Abilene now is serving war plants over a 45,000-square-mile territory with military training camps at San Angelo, Abilene, Ballinger, Stamford, Cisco, Vernon, Childress, Dumas and Dalhart. The need for electricity at all points has been met in full and without delay.

The company now has a total of 136 men in military service, with more being called almost daily. Twenty-four of the 138, many of whom trained technicians, already are commissioned officers. One is a lieutenant-colonel, six are majors, four are captains, twelve are lieutenants, and one is a Navy ensign.

Each local office has contributed quantities of scrap metal in community drives, much of which was highly prized copper and aluminum.

Statisticians have figured that the $1,200,000 in 1942 taxes paid by the company, up 39 per cent from last year, is "enough to blast the Japanese with 57 million bullets from the new Gerand rifle" based on the Army's specified price of 25 cents a dozen.

In addition to these four major contributions to the war effort, nearly a thousand employees in nine districts are competing for bond-buying honors. Early this year over 96 per cent of all regular employees pledged themselves to a voluntary war bond and stamp buying program.

The various districts, with headquarters in Abilene, Cisco, Stamford, Dalhart, Quanah, Ballinger, McCamey, Childress and San Angelo, now are trying for the highest percentage-of-payroll purchases.

With news coming in that things are going in favor of the Allies we must not forget that this war is not over yet. With all the prophecies being made as to the brevity of this conflict we must keep in mind that the finish line has not yet been crossed. Grave dangers lie ahead, much suffering is yet to be experienced and much sacrifice is yet to be made. Let us prepare for what ever the future may hold in store for us by continually living close to the Lord.

With the impending rationing of gasoline for private use, a serious obligation rests upon every driver, insisting that he use his precious gallons for the most constructive and necessary purposes. With full awareness of commercial and social needs, we propose to suggest that at least a reasonable share of gasoline be used in behalf of religious and cultural activities. Jesus' word that "man cannot live by bread alone," certainly applies to this emergency; the morale of the nation cannot be maintained on groceries, wages, and business transportation alone. Then let us consider the stewardship of four gallons of gasoline and allot a share of it to the business of church going.

Won't you meet us at the church Sunday morning at ten o'clock for the Church School lesson? We invite you to be with us, at eleven o'clock for the worship service. And do not forget that you are invited to attend the evening services as well. God's way of life should be our way of life. Let us make it so.

LOCAL GROUP RETURNS FROM DEER HUNT

J. C. Harpham, Gene and Johnnie Michels, Charlie Harpham of Houston, Fred Broach, Jr., Art Jungman and sons, Ed and Wallace, returned home last Friday from a 5-day deer hunt in the hill country near Mason.

The group reported a very enjoyable trip and returned with three large bucks as proof of their hunting ability. And the usual humorous hunting stories on various members of the party are going the rounds.

Bobbie Haymes was a visitor in Abilene over the week end.

Remembering that the Bible records the statement: "Righteousness exalteth a nation; but sin is a reproach to any people." Prov. 14:34.

At this time this year we have much to be thankful for. We should be thankful that we live in a nation, which has enough righteousness to be exalted as our nation is today, which believes in the God of Heaven, which has rulers who call upon us to pray, and who believe in doing good to others. We should be thankful that we live in a nation which sets aside one day for thanksgiving and prayer to God, and that we are free to worship the God of heaven as we choose. Surely we should all attend the services and worship God every Lord's Day, the Day that

Now Come the "WOWS"—The Girls Behind The Men Behind The Guns

Chicago, Ill. (IPS)—With the WAACS, the WAVES, and the WAFPS, now comes the WOWS, a new organization, the full name of which is Women Ordnance Workers Inc., or as their subtitle would have it, "the girls behind the men behind the guns."

The new corps is almost 500 strong already with membership expected to zoom as the idea spreads to the hundreds of thousands of women doing war-production work.

It was started six weeks ago by five young employees who received instantaneous approval of their proposal from the president of a war plant.

As the originators envision it, the corps will serve as a means of maintaining health, promoting friendship, cooperation, and fun, and as an expression of patriotism.

Their activities include sports, theatre parties, and tours — all aimed at making women forget their loneliness. The girls write letters to men in the armed forces here and overseas and have succeeded in collecting $200 to pack and ship Christmas boxes to service men.

The WOW uniform consists of a two-piece khaki suit with a gored skirt and a gold-buttoned jacket. A white shirt is worn under the jacket with collar showing. The cap is overseas style with WOW on it. A medallion worn on the jacket has a shield superimposed upon crossed cannon and bears the letters WOW topped by wings of the eagle and the monogram USA.

Pvt. Paul D. Meinzer, Pvt. Herby Struck, and Corp. Edwin Johnson, all of Camp Barkeley, Texas, visited friends and relatives in Benjamin and Munday over the week end.

On The Home Front

O.E.M. Division of Information

Home Front morale in the Southwest has been put to the test increasingly in the last week. But gasoline mileage rationing, coffee rationing, milk and meat shortages, and serious prospects of shortages in butter and other commodities are not as bad as some of the discomforts and restrictions we may have to undergo to win the war.

Discomforts, restrictions and even severe dislocation of business are necessary to the realization of our war aim—the destruction of those forces that threaten the very foundations of civilization, our homes and our schools.

Gasoline rationing in the heart of the oil country to preserve our precious rubber supply is one of the minor inconveniences of war. Southwesterners should be thankful—and sympathetic—because we do have our huge oil supplies. In the East, where there is an additional factor of transportation, gasoline rations have been cut to three gallons a week, instead of the four gallons to be allowed in the favor Southwest. On top of that, while Southwestern homes remain comfortably heated with natural gas, Eastern homes will be cold and uncomfortable this winter because of the transportation shortage.

Complaints and protests over some of the restrictions—especially gasoline and coffee rationing—have been loud and frequent, but they don't mean that morale is threatened. When a person fights a fire, he's liable to get scorched and blistered, when he's hurt he may yell. But he goes right on fighting until the fire is extinguished.

America and the United Nations have been fighting a pretty bad one, and now that our armies and navies are getting closer to the center of the trouble, the civilian population will have to do its share by doing without while the military forces are being supplied.

Doing without coffee while the ships that formerly brought it to us carry supplies to North Africa and the Solomons is the easiest thing civilians can do. Our soldiers in Tunisia may not have coffee, either, but those coffee ships are carrying ammunition and other supplies to them. Cutting down our use of rubber by mileage rationing at home is better than cutting down the manufacture of rubber boats to save our Rickenbackers.

The week's developments, which included a "freeze" order on 50 per cent of the butter stocks in 35 major dairy markets (including Dallas and Fort Worth) and an additional cut in allocations of meat for sale to civilians, probably won't be full felt until after the first of the year. Present plans call for card rationing of meat to replace the voluntary system now in effect, but the Office of Price Administration said no butter rationing program is in immediate prospect.

In connection with the gasoline rationing program, the OPA said that dealers will not be permitted to accept coupons from the new ration books unless each coupon has the required identification on the back. For most passenger car, truck and motorcycle operators, this identification will consist of the vehicle's license number and While new regulations were bringing restrictions, there were compensations for farmers who have been hard pressed to keep their labor in the face of draft demands and competition of industry.

Instructions were issued to local selective service boards to defer farm workers between the ages of 18 and 45 who are necessary to and regularly engaged in agriculture. Local boards may seek advice of Department of Agriculture officials and county war boards as to what farms are essential to the war and what jobs on them are necessary.

Workers leaving farm jobs in industry or on non-essential farms or elsewhere must first obtain permission from their local draft boards, or the boards will re-classify those who leave, including both married and single men.

The squeeze on critical materials still continued, with the most notable of the recent orders applying to kitchen equipment. Metal gadgets, cooking utensils and housewares of all kinds now are going off the market, except for eight items—wire strainers, can openers, egg beaters, food mills, food choppers and grinders, and commercial-type cake turners and basting spoons. Non-essential wire products also are banned with what is left to be available for protection of farm property. There'll be fewer umbrellas made next year, and they'll be generally of uniform size, and weight.

It was announced that there will be an ample supply of arsenical insecticides next year for cotton growers. —R P H—

Dormant Scrap Moves From Southwest

Shipments of dormant industrial scrap iron and steel from Southwestern plants in November will approximate those of October, when 68,000 tons moved from this area to the nation's steel mills, Sam W. Papert, regional chief of WPB's industrial salvage section, predicted. Mr. Papert credited the success of the dormant scrap drive in large measure to generous newspaper publicity and to efforts of volunteer iron and steel salesmen taking part in the drive.

National Hosiery Salvage Starts

Used silk and nylon hosiery started on their way to war, with the opening of WPB's collection campaign on November 16. Collection boxes have been placed at women's hosiery counters of retail stores. The stockings turned in will be processed and reclaimed into valuable war materials, destined for action on the front lines.

13 Rent Control Offices To Open Dec. 1

Opening of 13 additional rent control offices in the Southwest OPA region on December 1 was announced by Regional Administrator Max McCullough. Offices to be opened include Fort Smith, Ark.; Stuttgart, Ark.; Liberal, Kansas; Salina, Kansas; Sedalia, Mo.; Chickasha, Okla.; Childress, Tex.; Enid, Okla.; Austin, Tex.; Big Spring, Tex.; Victoria, Tex.; Boingerfield, Tex.; and Bonham, Tex. On December 1, rents in these areas are to be cut back to levels of March 1, 1942.

Farmers May Install Used Gas Tanks, Pumps

Authorization to install used gasoline dispensing pumps and storage tanks on farms of 10 or more acres has been issued by WPB, on recommendation of the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War, Pumps and storage tanks to be installed must be used exclusively for dispensing petroleum products to machinery and vehicles employed directly in farm operations on the individual farm. No restrictions can be made whereby use of the equipment is limited to dispensing the products of any supplier or group of suppliers.

all America gives Thanks for a bountiful harvest in WEST TEXAS

You: Yes, West Texas is contributing much to the war effort. Food, cotton and wool for clothing men in the fighting forces. The whole world can be thankful for a bountiful harvest in West Texas. But, what do you mean, Reddy, "on KP duty"?

Reddy: This is the first wartime Thanksgiving Day. Many people will observe it over the country by working, turning out the weapons of war. Our power plants will be on the job as usual, providing electric service for your home and business, and for Uncle Sam's Army camps and for war industries—

You: I see! On KP duty, too!

Reddy: Yes. Electric service is doing Kitchen Police duty EVERY day. And since the factories that used to make appliances now are doing war work, everybody should take good care of what they've got. Keep them repaired and in good working condition—

You: But suppose they break down... repairmen are hard to find and new parts are scarce.

Reddy: In that case, call the West Texas Utilities. Our service department has arranged to help out in emergencies.

You: Thank you, Reddy. I guess we can be thankful for you, too!

Reddy: Well, we can ALL be thankful for the American system of FREE enterprise under which any man or woman is free to create a business that fills a particular need in this or any other community, just so long as they give the best possible service at the lowest possible cost to the most people, pay taxes in support of the government, and contribute to the growth and development of the community.

You: Right! That's the West Texas way... the American way... of doing business!

Senior Report

Ho-hum. The carnival is over, and we seniors are casting languidly about for something else to divert our minds from our studies. Of course, that shouldn't be so hard to do, come to think of it. It's an outstanding senior tradition, I have heard.

The carnival was quite a success, everything taken into consideration. Our Turkey Raffle made $34.60, shooting basketball goals, $10.49, Franko's Hamburger Joint, $13.90, our general auction, $47.24, and we collected $7.44 for our queen. That's the seniors for you. The total amount taken in by the whole school was $258.35.

We wish to thank: The students in the school who sold so many turkey chances and the people in the community and out who bought them.

The merchants of Munday and Knox City who so generously contributed to our auction.

Virginia Tankersley and Rosemary Hertel who sat on the turkey-chance desk and obstructed the view. Probably they won us several customers.

Winona Cheek, who is something of a super-salesman. That goes for J. B. Walling, too.

Mrs. Kimbrough, who used up time, energy, and tries helping us collect auction items and run the hamburger joint.

Mr. Frost, who took a load of scrap metal to town for our queen.

Mr. McElroy, who assumed the position of auctioneer.

Junior Reddell, who escorted our queen.

Mr. Kimbrough, the originator of the contest idea for the turkey raffle, thus boosting sales considerably.

Any and everyone who took part in Friday night's carnival!

It seems that Bob, Charles, and Rufus are gadding gad-a-bouts. They saw that the Wichita Falls-Vernon tilt which they saw last Friday night came out—20-7 in Wichita's favor. The game, of course, was swell.

We wonder what happened to the juniors famous "strip-tease." We saw nothing of it. Did you get cold feet, Billy Bob?

All right, so the juniors won the queen's race. We expected it and weren't disappointed. We can't even say we fought a good fight, but we can say we were so busy with other things we didn't have time for it.

Junior Report

We are very proud to inform everyone that last Friday night our queen candidate, Nelda Matthews, was crowned queen of Sunset High School. We wish to thank the junior boys, especially, for their grand help and their faithful work that made the crowning of our queen possible.

We also sponsored the queen's race and had our stage beautifully decorated with a black and white arch (our school colors, you know) and a white throne. The womanless style show was a side-splitting sight which took place directly after the coronation. If you missed it, you missed the best laugh in months.

The juniors sold 57 turkey chances, the second highest in high school.

We wish to thank all those who had a part in making the carnival a great success.

Sophomore News

Except for one thing, the carnival was an unqualified success. We lost the queen's race. And we worked hard, too! Took in $1.42! Oh, well, one can't have everything.

We have all missed Wendell very much during his long absence, and will be glad when he is back with us.

We Wonder — Why Evelyn and Dena were so quiet the last period Thursday afternoon.

What Lois and Joyce were so excited about Friday night.

Why Mildred was so sleepy last Friday morning.

Where Dean was Saturday night.

Freshman News

We have finally caught up on our sleep from last Friday night, when an enjoyable time was had by all of our class. We want to thank everyone for helping us in our carnival activities.

We have a new pupil in our room. Jimmy Minchew, we are very glad to have you with us.

Our algebra class had a quiz last Friday—just 19 problems. Most of us made pretty good on it, we hope.

Our queen didn't win the contest, but we had a good representative, anyway.

We Wonder —

Why Betty Nell wanted to go to the show Saturday. (Someone else go, Betty?)

Why Earleen and Barga Jane enjoyed the show Saturday.

How Margie got the pie Friday night. (Who was it that paid your way?)

Eighth Grade News

Well, with the carnival over maybe we can do a little studying. Although our queen wasn't crowned we were proud of her.

We are sorry that Frances Moore moved Friday. She was a good student and we hated to lose her. Peggy and Viola Hodges are back in school after a long period of absence, we are glad to have them back with us.

We Wonder — If a certain eighth grade girl was "broke" after pitching pennies Friday night.

Why Jo Ann has been going to the front of the study hall so much?

If the third time is a charm—

The bulk of Christmas mail must be in the post offices by December 1 this year if deliveries on time are to be assured, according to Smith W. Purdum, Second Assistant Postmaster General. Mr. Purdum is responsible to Postmaster General Frank C. Walker for smooth and efficient air and railway mail service.

Unprecedented wartime demands on the postal and transportation systems, plus a prospective record volume of Christmas mailings, were cited by Mr. Purdum as necessitating earlier mailings than ever before. "It is physically impossible for the railroads and air lines, burdened with vitally important war materials, to handle Christmas mailings as rapidly as in normal times," Mr. Purdum said. "If the bulk of parcels and greeting cards are held back until the usual time—the period of about December 15 to 23—they simply cannot be distributed in time, and thousands of gifts will reach their destinations after Christmas."

In 1941, about 21,950 mail cars were required between December 12 and 24 to deliver Christmas mails—enough cars to make a train 270 miles long. This year, the extra cars needed to move holiday mails are largely being used by the armed services, and a severe shortage is in prospect.

The postal service usually borrows about 2,500 trucks from the Army and other government agencies, and rents about 10,900 from private owners, to handle the Christmas mails. This year, it will be extremely difficult to obtain enough of these vehicles to meet even a substantial part of the need. The army needs its own trucks and private owners are reluctant to let someone else use their tires.

Railroads are cooperating by converting some hundreds of steel box cars and similar equipment for mail transportation, and Joseph B. Eastman, Director of Defense Transportation, has ordered that unnecessary travel be curtailed to the limit during the holiday season. But these measures cannot assure deliveries of gifts on time unless the public cooperates by mailing early and thus spreading the transportation load over a longer period than usual.

Mr. Purdum called attention to the task of the Post Office Department in moving millions of pieces of mail every day to and from soldiers, sailors and marines throughout the world. This extraordinary job must be kept current, even while the holiday rush of mailings is handled. Also, he pointed out, the postal establishment is operating with many thousands of inexperienced personnel, employed to take the place of men called to the armed services. The new employees naturally cannot handle the holiday mail jam with the smoothness and speed of the postal veterans whom they replace.

In view of all these handicaps to the service, Mr. Purdum added, postal patrons should mail their gifts by December 1 if they wish to insure that their friends will not be disappointed at Christmas.

Miss Laverne McCannies of Austin visited with Mr. and Mrs. Grady Roberts last Saturday. She was returning to Austin after several days visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McCannies of Benjamin.

Miss Jeanelle Partridge, who is attending Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Partridge of the Sunset community.

The Munday Times

Munday School News

First Grade
We are happy to report that each child in the first grade is a member of the Junior Red Cross. Much interest is being taken in buying of defense stamps. We have an enrollment of 28 pupils. We would be happy to have our mothers visit us at any time.

Third Grade News
Hurrah! Two days holiday, and we are happy over the ideal! Glenn Henson joined the third grade Monday, and Joyce Garrison is leaving for Oklahoma. Bobby John Jones brought red carnations to school Monday, and Kenneth Hendricks brought a sweet potato plant. Both are very pretty. We are sorry Jimmy Lyle Bell has influenza this week.

We bought $4.70 in war savings stamps Tuesday morning.

M. D. McGaughey, county supt., of Benjamin, stopped in to visit us a few minutes Tuesday morning.

Fourth Year News
Thanksgiving is here again! We are glad that we live in a land where we can go to school and be happy and free. We hope that before another Thanksgiving comes, children all over the world will feel as we do.

We are happy that Mary Aline Cade is back with us. We hope she won't have to be absent any more.

Patricia Melton was a visitor in our room Tuesday. She may move back to Munday, and we hope she does.

Our choral club is composed of fourth and fifth year students. We enjoy singing very much. After Thanksgiving, we will make preparations for our Christmas program.

Sixth Grade News
The sixth grade is happy to have our new teacher, Mrs. Turner, although we are sorry to lose Mrs. Dowell. We are having our six weeks exams this week.

We had visitors last Friday, Bobby Jean Nance and Charles Wamble.

Seventh Grade News
At last Thanksgiving has come again, and we hope you all have a very good holiday.

The seventh graders made a big hit in our assembly program with "Wildcat Willie," a one-act play. Delbert Montgomery as Wildcat and LaRue Johnson as his sister were very good.

The seventh grade is learning to knit. Miss Bossie Sue Munday is our teacher.

We also have a choral club and are learning many patriotic songs. Mrs. Kennamer is our teacher, and we show much interest in our singing.

8-A News
Our room is very proud of our new science books. We are all interested in science, and we will be glad when we start experimenting.

We are taking tests this week, since we plan to turn out for Thanksgiving on Thursday and Friday.

We are very glad to start the War Savings Stamp drive again. We hope our room can help Uncle Sam to a speedy victory by buying our share of stamps.

8-B News
The pupils of 8-B are glad to start buying stamps through the school. Each Friday they will send someone to town to buy the stamps.

As an average, the pupils made fairly well on their six weeks exams. The exams seemed very easy.

Students of 8-B have been studying about the new metal, magnesium. This metal is formed from sea water and is lighter than aluminum and stronger than steel. They find this study very interesting.

The class is very glad to have a new pupil, Wanda Henson. They want her to feel at home here in the Munday schools.

Sophomore Report
Six weeks exams again! English will furnish a double test over "A

Here's Mine, Where's Yours?

Tale of Two Cities" and "The Piper." Both are long and a little hard to grasp. It's been harder trying to keep up with them than anything we've had before.

We're glad to have Mr. Turner and Mrs. Dowell with us.

Miss Traylor may get to come back after the Thanksgiving holidays. We all hope so, and if she does we're going to try to have a grand social. Since we haven't had one this semester we're all eagerly looking forward to it.

Freshman News
The freshmen are looking forward to Thanksgiving. What will their attitude be toward visiting friends and relatives away from home? Will they be patriotic and spend the holidays at home, or will they visit for perhaps the last time for the duration?

The freshman class welcomes the new principal, Mr. Turner. We hope he will like our school and we feel that he will easily fill Mr. Bogard's place.

The exams for the freshman class were comparably easy, which was probably due to the fact that they studied harder.

The picnic Friday night was wonderful. The class wishes to thank their room mothers and sponsor, Mrs. Bowden, also those who supplied the transportation.

Senior News
Well, as the old saying goes, the best comes last. How true that is this week. The first part of the week we had our second six weeks exams and then two wonderful days for Thanksgiving. And believe me if we passed our exams we'll sure have something to be thankful about.

The Seniors want to welcome Mr. T. J. Turner to our school. In the short time that he has been here he has made a very good impression on both students and faculty.

Oh, yes, the Seniors would give a rubber tire and a gallon of gasoline to find out who has been sending Miss DeLoach those flowers and perfume. But they say curiosity killed the cat. He got satisfied didn't he?

Senior On Review
Maggie Searcey was born three miles Southeast of Munday, February 29, 1925. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Searcey. She has lived in or near Munday all of her life.

Maggie joined our class in the sixth grade, and has been with it ever since. She was the class reporter of the Junior Class last year and a member of the Pep Squad. She was elected Junior candidate for Queen and crowned

Leaflet Gives Finance Plan For Farmers

Washington, D. C.—More than 6,000,000 farmers, recipients of Agricultural Adjustment Agency checks, are receiving a leaflet from the Treasury Department urging them to convert a part or all of the payment into War Savings Bonds. Mailing of the leaflets began late in October and is to continue until late winter.

State and county AAA workers and state representatives of the War Savings Staff are also to receive copies of the leaflet.

The leaflet, in addition to pointing out the benefits to purchasers of War Bonds, contains an order form on its back to facilitate the conversion of AAA checks into War Bonds. It especially emphasizes that farmers will get $4 for every $3 invested if they hold their Bonds until they mature.

"Lay 'Em On the Fighting Line," is the title of the folder, which outlines a three-fold financial plan for farmers. It recommends that farmers "Produce all you can on your farm," "Get your debts in shape," and "Invest to the full limit of your ability in War Savings Bonds both to help your country and safeguard your own future."

Four reasons are given to illustrate that it is both patriotic and profitable for farmers to convert a portion of their income into War Bonds. They are: "You will be helping to buy the fighting equipment needed by your sons," "You will be making the safest investment in the world," "You will be getting a profitable return on your money," and "You will be doing your part to stave off inflation."

"After the war," the leaflet emphasizes, "your savings will enable you to buy the necessities and luxuries you perhaps need now but can't get until then."

"Your savings will provide you with funds for adjustments on your farm, education, travel, recreation and retirement."

It further stresses that "War Bonds are the best form of financial reserve ever offered to United States farmers," and urges those producers to "Make Every Market Day Bond Day."

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Silman and son, Jimmie, Jr., left Wednesday night for Lubbock to spend Thanksgiving with Misses Lorene and Polly Silman, who are students in Texas Tech.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Strickland and children of Fort Worth and Miss Loma Dae Clarke of Dallas spent the week end here, visiting in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Clarke and Mr. and Mrs. Grady Phillips.

D. B. Daugherty of Seymour was here Tuesday, visiting with friends and attending to business matters.

Holliday Runs Wild To Swamp Moguls 32 to 0

In a game which had been postponed from earlier in the season, the Holliday eagles ran wild on their home field last Thursday to swamp the Munday Moguls 32 to 0 in a conference battle.

Looming big in the Holliday line-up were C. Wenton, Holmes and Whatley, who were responsible for the biggest part of the scoring and dealt the locals trouble throughout all four quarters. It was Holmes who carried the pigskin over for the first score early in the first quarter, after running 40 yards down the field after receiving a pass from Wenton. Conversion failed.

In the second period, Whatley scored, running from the 50, all the way to the scoring mark, leaving the score 13-0 when a pass for conversion was completed.

In the third period, Wenton carried the ball for another 35 yards and a touchdown, and later Holmes charged over from the Moguls' 5-yard line to make the fourth tally.

A pass from Whatley to Wenton made the first and last marker in the fourth period. The point was good, leaving the score at 32 to 0.

This Trip Was Important To

Our Customers

We have just returned from Denver, Colo., where we secured 2,200 pounds of "Camelback" and tire recapping material for our shop.

This trip was not made for pleasure, but for the purpose of supplying our customers with tire recapping service when they need it.

We also brought back necessary repairs for our equipment so in case of a breakdown it can be repaired in 30 minutes.

We have been assured by our Denver office that we will always have a supply of repair and recapping material on hand at all times.

We appreciate your patience when we were working under handicaps and assure you that we are ready to give better service in the future.
