A few hours of sleep, and all were up to cook breakfast over wood burning fires. Committees had charge of all details, and everything moved swiftly and smoothly.

From 9:30 to 12, a sing-song and business meeting was held. At 1:30 p. m., a chuck wagon dinner, prepared by Lee Coffman, J. C. McGee and some of the club members, was served. A number of visitors came for this event.

From 2 to 4:30, another business meeting was held. Reports were given by the delegates who attended the state meeting in Austin on August 1, 2 and 3.

AN IDEA IN A CARPET BAG

This country has always done big things in a big way because the American people as individuals have never known anything but complete freedom. And though it may sound like a blast of hot air from the chamber of commerce, the right to create and build a business or an industry and earn a reward for doing it, is an inherent part of American freedom. If that right is taxed and regulated out of existence, the greatness of America and her freedom will become a myth.

The history of the express business is typical. For more than a century, the word express has stood for speed. In 1939, William F. Harnden, a pioneer railroad conductor, had an idea. He quit his job and devoted himself to the business of putting it to work. He became the world's first express messenger, traveling between Boston and New York by the fastest conveyances of that day, carrying a carpet bag. The carpet bag contained packages of money, documents, jewelry, gold and other valuables and articles entrusted to his care. Gradually Harnden's express business expanded. The carpet bag became inadequate, and in time a railroad car was needed to hold all of the things that people wanted him to carry. That still was but the beginning. Today the Railway Express Agency maintains 23,000 offices scattered throughout the United States. It uses more than 200,000 miles of railway lines, 13,000 miles of steamship lines, 45,000 miles of airlines, and 16,000 miles of motor truck lines in its regular daily operations. As an example of what such a service means to the war effort, it is sufficient to point out that in the single month of May, 1943, 253,360 pints of blood were handled by express for the Red Cross.

In this land of 3,600,000 square miles, new ideas are springing forth in men's minds every second of the day. Some of these ideas are the seeds of new industries which may one day benefit all mankind. No one could conceive of the future in store for the idea that began with a carpet bag. What we can and must do in this country is to save the right of the man with an idea to put his idea to work profitably. In saving that right, we are saving the meaning of freedom in America.

DO BUREAUCRATS NEVER LEARN?

Just as the public begins to feel the OPA is really trying to cooperate in production and distribution problems, a new order comes out like its recent decision to put lamb back on the ration list of meats.

In commenting on the OPA's latest order which blocks the sale of lamb in the Pacific Northwest, United States Senator Guy Cordon says: "Despite the fact that the local OPA officials can see sound reason to permit the free flow of lamb into the market, some wise guys back in Washington, who think they know more than anyone else, think otherwise."

The Portland Oregonian says: "The fact that every informed source in this region condemns as error the restoration of lamb to the ration list ought to convince the national OPA that a point holiday on lamb is necessary in this area to prevent a grave waste of food and grave loss to producers."

If the OPA is as stubborn correcting the lamb situation as it has been about correcting its unexplainable price line limitation orders, and its resistance to suggested improvements in the Price Control Act, and access to district courts, the present lamb supply will be old sheep unfit to eat before any relief is given.

Although they are willing supporters of wartime rationing and price control, the people are getting a good taste of bureaucratic dictation. It is crystallizing their determination to regain their independence and control of their local affairs at the earliest possible date after this war.

REVOLUTION OR RESIGNATION

"Anything which facilitates ambition towards paternalism obstructs democracy, and nothing could contribute more to this end than the impounding of the earnings of the people by a government which pretentiously proposes to support them," says the Hon. V. J. Stricker, Judge of the Chancery Court, Mississippi.

"In democratic ages tyranny always begins with benevolence, and this benevolence, feeding upon itself, is supplied through exactions from the people... whatever the intention, this process gets beyond control, and with compulsive force, defeats itself in direct proportion as the demand for charity comes to exceed the demand for liberty. In their inevitable order, indolence, poverty and vice advance in succession, until revolution defeats the system, or resignation enslaves the people."

A NEW DAY FOR COAL

No industry, including its employes and owners, has been more maligned, and less appreciated, from the standpoint of its importance to every home in the land, than has coal. It is an activity which is so important that it has been virtually taken for granted by a nation which depends on coal as unconsciously as it does on air and water.

In order to remedy this condition, the bituminous coal mine operators a year ago started to make available facts about coal. Through advertising columns, its story has been told to an audience exceeding 350,000,000 readers during the past year. An improvement in industry morale has resulted. It helps any man or any industry to read that he is doing a good job, instead of continually hearing how backward and incompetent he is.

The public is interested in a progressive industry—in improvements in operating methods and advantages to employes. As the public understands an industry and its problems, it will be more able to help solve difficulties fairly, when they arise.

Bituminous coal is doing a fine job in making known the important part coal and the coal miner play in the national economy. This record speaks well for the future of coal and its ability to supply the needs of the nation.

SAVE THE BEST IN ALL

It is but natural that American doctors should oppose Federal socialization of medicine. They have seen such systems curb incentive and progress in the medical field in other nations, and remove the personal relationship between doctor and patient, leaving in its stead an official system as impersonal as medical examinations at Army induction centers. If that's what this nation wants, socialized medicine will fill the bill. But the people should remember that it is not the doctors, but Mr. and Mrs. John Jones who will be the losers.

In seeking a practical method for voluntary prepayment of medical costs to meet prolonged or serious illnesses, the public should not be misled by alluring promises of "free medicine" at the hands of the state. There can, however, be the fullest cooperation between Federal and local governments, industry, the people and the medical profession, to extend voluntary methods of health insurance without the regimentation and compulsion that inevitably follows socialized medicine.

Government can help solve such problems as malnutrition, bad housing, and the inadequacy of Federal, state and municipal health programs. One of the legitimate functions of government is to seek ways and means to correct social and economic conditions which cause disease, and which all the health insurance in the world will not remedy.

Therefore, let us retain the great advantages of private medicine but add to them the benefits that will accrue from the cooperation of government and industry in eliminating causes of illness, as well as providing easy and economical methods of paying for it.

INDEPENDENCE VS. HANDOUTS, DESIRED

Stating that "subsidies are now firmly fixed upon our economic life as a national policy," Fred H. Sexauer, President of the Dairymen's League Co-operative Association, said:

"We as farmers can still oppose them as a national policy and work to change that policy. But in formulating plans to obtain adequate returns, subsidies, now being a national policy, must be considered part of such return. This does not mean that subsidies are a sound national policy. We know the bad effect of subsidies upon the milk industry, but until they are abolished we must use them."

Most farmers believe that goods and services, including farm products, should be paid for at a fair price by consumers, and agricultural subsidies avoided in order to maintain a high national income, amortize the war debt and reduce taxes.

4-H BOYS REPORT ON COTTON INSECTS

College Station—Texas 4-H Club boys are never too busy to do a little more. A selection of club members in the cotton growing areas of the state have been asked to repeat their service of last year in making weekly surveys of insect infestation.

Notwithstanding that the majority of the boys are engaged in full time farm work, about 220 in 45 counties already are taking part in this program, according to Dr. H. G. Johnston, entomologist for the A. and M. College Extension Service. They have been making weekly reports on the insect population in one or more fields on their own or neighboring farms. As was true last year, the reports are accurate and in general compare favorably with similar reports being made by the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, Dr. Johnston says. In the near future club boys in several north Texas counties also will begin making reports from that area.

The cooperation of the club boys plays a prominent part in the control of destructive cotton insects. Dr. Johnston says that the supply of calcium arsenate and other insecticides are rather limited this year as they were in 1943. For this reason it is essential that a close check of the cotton insect population should be made throughout the belt in order to assure the distribution and most advantageous use of the supply of poisons available.

Due to high temperatures and dry weather the cotton insect population is beginning to decline and many of the fields which the club boys have been reporting on are rapidly reaching maturity. For this reason it is expected that the number of reports will decrease toward mid-August.

"The results obtained from this survey and the training and experience for the club boys active in it are excellent," Dr. Johnston says. "It is believed that the continuation of the program will do more toward the solution of our cotton insect control problem in Texas than any other method which has been tried."

First Lady of Rhode Island

COOL COTTON

Looking like a million dollars helps the time go faster while awaiting the stork. This young officer's wife does it by wearing cool cottons, and the dress she models above is a brown and white checked gingham sun back which has a let-out feature at the sides. A brown jacket covers it for town, and is a good streamliner, too.

CARD OF THANKS

We take this means of expressing our sincere thanks for those who were so kind, thoughtful and helpful in the memorial service for our loved one, Carl C. Lane.

We deeply appreciate every kind deed and expression of sympathy, and we pray God's blessings on you all.

AT 18 HE ENLISTED IN U.S. ARMY—SERVED TWO YEARS.

TALES OF EDGAR ALLEN POE A BOOK-OF-THE-MONTH CLUB "BOOK DIVIDEND"

Recently 1,422 Texas farmers and ranchers reported in detail the effect of their Soil Conservation systems on production. These Texans have 888,023 acres on which 70 to 100 percent of all planned soil and water conservation practices have been established for periods of two to six years.

Summaries of these reports show that per acre yields of crops and pastures have been increased 39 percent. In other words, for every 100 acres of crops and pastures, the farmers are getting production equivalent to that of 139 acres under the old method of farming.

This increase as applied to cotton, wheat and grain sorghum shows the following: Cotton showed an increase of 25 percent, grain sorghum 53 percent and wheat 69 percent. Other crops showed an increase, but not in the above proportion.

Some of the practices that are being used in the local district are: Water spreading, better use of stubble for moisture conservation and protection against wind, crop rotation, cover crops. Terracing may or may not apply, and deep breaking under certain conditions.

In connection with the above some new crops are being tried on a small scale. These include weeping love grass, hubam clover, perennial sudan blue panic grass, and yellow and white sweet clover.

For additional information, see your local Supervisors.

Child Is Named "Seabee Paula" By Grateful Father

Dallas—It was a comparatively quiet night. The Seabee battalion was enjoying a well earned respite. For nearly a month now they had been hard at work on the shore of Normandy.

Lieut. Commander Richard Dabney Anderson, a doctor attached to the Seabees, had completed bandaging cuts and sprains suffered by the battalion members in the day's work, and, like the men, was enjoying the quiet.

To Henri Marcel Auguste Fouchard, however, the setting sun brought no such quiet and rest. Henri, proprietor of an 'epicerie' (combined cafe and grocery) had been driven from the village of Auverrie by the shelling. With Marie Bertha, his wife, he had fled to St. Marie du Mont, where the Seabees were entrenched.

Although out of the target area, Monsieur Fouchard still had a problem. Madame Fouchard was an expectant mother and not a civilian doctor was to be found.

Desperately Henri appealed to the Mayor. The Mayor appealed to the American officer in charge of civil affairs and he in turn called upon Lieut. Commander Anderson, who quickly assented to attend Madame Fouchard.

That night, under Lieut. Commander Anderson's care, the Fouchards became the parents of a healthy baby girl.

Quickly the grateful father and mother decided upon a name—"Seabee Paula."

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Dr. Geo. W. Cox
 M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

Austin—Because of the economic losses they cause to industry and commerce and the annoyance they create in homes, rats have been considered a serious menace to mankind since long before their role as vectors of disease was understood. Today at least six diseases which are transmitted to man from the rat are known to medical science, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. These diseases include the dread plague, typhus, trichinosis, a form of jaundice, tapeworm, and food poisoning. The whole history of the role rats play in the transmission of disease remains as yet unknown.

"It is necessary to public health," Dr. Cox said, "that a continuous rat control program be maintained in every urban and rural area throughout Texas. This is of especial importance on farms where rats may flourish by feeding on grain and other farm products."

The doctor pointed out that rats, like other living things, require food and shelter if they are to propagate and increase in number. Destroying their shelter and breeding places includes the employing of ratproof design in buildings, the use of ratproof materials in construction, employing ratproof methods of construction and installation, and providing for periodic inspection of buildings to insure permanent safety. This program will force the rat out into the open where its destruction may be accomplished.

Of equal importance as a control measure is the elimination of all food supplies. This consists of storing all foods in ratproof buildings or in ratproof containers, the proper storage and disposal of garbage, and careful feeding of stock to prevent waste feed from being picked up by the rats.

By observing these control measures, the community will benefit not only in the eradication of a nuisance and economic menace but in improved health conditions and the prevention of rat-borne diseases.

GIRLS FROM MANY LANDS JOIN R.C.A.F.

A Texas sergeant serving in France wrote the following report of the fighting there:

"The Texas army is advancing steadily on Paris and will be in Berlin before long." As an afterthought, he added: "We are taking along with us some units from other states, to show them how."

It isn't exactly like that, perhaps, but there are so many Texans in the battle for France that at times it must seem that a Lone Star army really is there in force.

Sgt. Bob Jackson of San Marcos, fighting in Italy, used an old Texas trick to wipe out a group of embattled Nazis. When he found himself unable to use his grenade thrower because a chicken-wire fence was between him and the Nazis, he jumped into an old building, captured a German sniper, and used him as a shield while advancing on the enemy strong point. Then with grenades and rifle fire, he drove out the Nazis, capturing six more.

Enemy planes aren't as numerous over France these days as they once were, but Capt. Burt Marshall of Greenville managed to find one recently. He quickly shot it down. Other Texas airmen who have been cited or decorated for air victories include Lt. M. M. Tomme, Navy pilot from Troup; Lt. (jg) Roy Bechtel of Lubbock and Ensign Jack Hogue of Graham, each of whom was credited with shooting down one or more Japs. Ensign Hogue failed to return after the fight.

On the home front, Texans are also helping win the war. Few men are doing more than the volunteer division, region and county leaders chosen to spearhead the coming campaign for the National War Fund. Under direction of Woyland D. Towner, general manager of the United War Chest of Texas, they will help put the nation's biggest state-wide drive over the top, and are now working at top speed recruiting workers and perfecting local campaign organizations.

The National War Fund finances USO, War Prisoners Aid and 17 other agencies serving our own fighting men and our allies.

Lucky is Pfc. Jose Lopez, a tough Brownsville scrapper. Fighting in Normandy, the Texan was hit squarely in the body by a bullet. The impact spun him around, but Lopez recovered his balance and with one bullet killed the German who had fired the shot. Then he discovered why he was not wounded—the Nazi bullet had hit an ammunition clip at his belt, and lodged there.

Texas's share in the war was commemorated again last week, when a new giant troopship was named for a famous Texas soldier, Gen. W. P. Richardson, who was born at Hunt. The ship was launched at Newark, N. J.

And here is a partial list of Texans who have been decorated for bravery and outstanding service: Lt. Lloyd Kelly, Coleman, Air Medal cluster; Lt. Col. Ed Harris, El Paso, Sgt. Joe Ellis, Orange, and Sgt. Ban Wyatt Jr., Brownwood, Bronze Stars; Capt. Jim Dooley, Dilley, and Andrew Block, Bonham, Soldiers Medals for heroism in saving lives of comrades, and the following Texans who received Distinguished Flying Crosses for fighting over Europe: Lt. Luther Abel, Gladewater; Lt. Charles Summers, Granbury; Capt. Morris Stanley, Alvin; Sgt. Hershel Moore, Del Rio, and Lt. Wade Knudson, Meridian, Sgt. Jim Daugherty of Imperial won the coveted Air Medal.

Texas fighting men in France are now getting full services of the various National War Fund agencies. United Seamens Service, USO-Camp Shows and War Prisoners Aid all are operating on the continent, as are French Relief and other NWF service units.

Keep War Plants Manned—Byrnes

"We are still critically short of manpower in the neighborhood of plants making heavy guns and ammunition, bombs, radar equipment, trucks, tanks, construction equipment, tires and tentage fabric," James F. Byrnes, director of War Mobilization, declared in connection with a directive providing for the shutting off of materials, fuel, power and services necessary to turn production facilities to the making of these emergency war materials. "We are going to handle the problem in the area where the plants are located," he stated. "We have placed responsibility on the area officials to take all necessary steps to free from civilian and less essential industries, men possessing the skills required to produce war goods." Wherever local committees in charge of the problem have excess manpower "they must accept a quota for recruitment in order to meet the needs of other critical areas," he explained.

Military Has Severe Shortages

"Production has dropped off slightly in the face of increased demands," from overseas, Gen. Brehon B. Somerville, of the Army Service Forces said, in citing some specific shortages suffered in various military theaters of war. Some examples cited were—One General had to call off 100 air missions because of lack of the right type of bombs, another General said he had to abandon 3,500 heavy trucks, which have to be replaced; rate of fire for artillery has more than doubled above estimates, thus increasing demands for new guns, replacement linings and ammunition. Heavy artillery rather than air power broke deadlocks at Anzio, Cassino and in Normandy, General Somerville said.

OPPA Changes Point Values

No more ration points for utility grades of beef and lamb will be required through September 2, and for the same period point-values have been restored on pork loins, pork hams and canned fish, the Office of Price Administration has announced. Cheeses were increased from two to four points per pound and farm or country butter from eight to 12 points a pound.

Laundry Stoves Unrationed

Rationing restrictions have been removed from coal-wood laundry stoves and gas ranges with non-metallic outside back or side panels, OPA reports. The adequate supply of the small, flat-top laundry stoves, usually made of cast iron and used in many homes for laundry and auxiliary heating, made possible removal of rationing restrictions on these stoves.

Your Motor "Pings" For Victory

If your motor car engine "pings" a bit when you go up a hill or accelerate rapidly, just remember that the tetraethyl lead you and other civilians might have had in your gasoline is helping to produce each month an extra 210 million gallons of 100-octane aviation gasoline for military use, according to the Petroleum Administration for War.

Rural Homes Need Better Water

More than five million rural homes need new or improved water supplies, according to the current issue of Public Health Reports. A like number of rural homes need sanitary privies. The Public Health Service says that 846,148 rural homes are entirely without toilet facilities. A total of 1,530,097 rural homes are without a water supply within 50 feet, and the water supplies of an additional 3,763,903 homes have sanitary defects. Public Health Service sanitary engineers estimate that it would cost $265, 000,000 to provide safe water supplies for the rural homes that need them.

Apple Prices Down Slightly

The national average price of 10 1-4 cents a pound is what consumers may have to pay for the 1944 crop of fresh apples for table use, according to OPA action effective August 16. Last year the season's average price was 10 1-2 cents a pound.

OPA Cannot Use U. S. Grades

A rider to the OPA Appropriation Bill which prevents use of U. S. grades established by the Department of Agriculture in connection with price control of any canned fruits and vegetables will make OPA's enforcement job harder, according to Price Administrator Chester Bowles, but, he said, "We propose to use our utmost efforts to secure compliance in this difficult field."

Sees Threat To German Industry

The Polish territories so far conquered by the Russians are chiefly agricultural, Leo T. Crowley, Foreign Economic Administrator, said in a statement explaining the economic importance of the Polish areas still under German domination. German loss of the largest part of the District of Galicia, Central Poland, Polish Silesia and the Northwestern Provinces of Poznan and Pomorze would help the Allies in three ways: 1, it would deprive Germany of coal, iron, oil, timber, zinc, and such important war industries as iron and steel, engineering and oil refining; 2, it would deprive her of a large source of war labor; 3, it would deprive her of an area hitherto comparatively free from Allied bombing in which she had been developing new war industries.

"Bravery Alone Is Not Enough"

"Bravery alone is not enough to win battles," declared General A. A. Vandergrift, Commandant of the Marine Corps in urging youths of pre-military age to return to high school this fall. "To have bravery without knowledge is to be only half prepared. If you have been employed in the factory or on the farm this summer... you should plan to go back to high school this fall. We in the Marine Corps feel you can best serve your nation and your fellow men at school, now, building the sound mind in the sound body."

Work Clothing Prices Revised

While retail prices on war models of simplified and standardized men's dungarees and overall jackets and men's and boys bib overalls are increased at all sales levels, effective August 26, under a revision of the OPA Staple Work Clothing Price Regulation, the average retail price of the sanforized chambray work shirt in independent stores will be reduced about 10 cents a garment. Retail prices of other garments on the average will be no higher than at present and lower than prices at which many of these garments sold in recent months. OPA assures consumers that altogether the price revisions will "hold the line" on the cost of living.

"Christmas Mailing Month"

September 15 to October 15 has been named "Christmas Mailing Month" by the Army and Navy, which this year have 33,000 uniformed men and women in their postal services to handle an estimated 70 million Christmas presents—three times as many as last year, the Office of War Information says. Packages mailed during "Christmas Mailing Month" should reach their destination by Christmas Day. Packages should weigh no more than five pounds and have

Round-Up

OPA announces: Mark-ups ranging from $3.50 to $8 a hundred lbs. for quality cleaned grass and legume seeds when sold by the farmer-producer to a planter. Maximum prices to be established on cabbage sold by growers on the average will cause no increases in retail ceilings. Maternity dresses that will retail for $1.89 and $2 and slips that will retail for $1.05 and $1.15 have been added to the list of garments in the program of low-priced garments that meet WPB specifications. Ceiling prices for flaxseed have been increased five cents a bushel at the basing points of Minneapolis, Duluth and Red Wing, in Minnesota, Wis.; Chicago, Ill.; and Portland, Ore. Express or mailing expenses may be added to selling prices on mail order retail sales of pork cuts and sausage products.

WFA says: When you get a basket containing fruit or vegetables, give the empty basket back to the peddler or grocerman from whom it came so that he can send it on its way to the farmers, who this year will have to send part if not all of their crop to the market in used containers. Almost none of 800 housewives interviewed in one survey started working members of their families off with a well-balanced breakfast, the needed fruit or cereal generally being missing.

WPB says: Only in extreme emergencies such as damage caused to dwellings by fire, flood, tornado, earthquake, storm or similar catastrophe, may home owners get preference ratings from their nearest Federal Housing Administration Field Office to obtain lumber for repair work. In no month have waste paper collections met the goal set by WPB, and the drive is 450,000 tons short of its 1944 objective.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS . . .

"The more I read about it, Judge, the more I realize the tactics and requirements of this war are as different from the one I fought in 25 years ago as night is from day."

"Yes, and I can give you an example of how true that is, Fred. In World War I the chief uses of alcohol produced for war purposes were found in smokeless powder, medical supplies and chemical warfare materials. In this war the need for this product is far more vital because it is also used as a fuel to propel torpedoes, to make shatterproof glass for airplane windshields and instrument covers, to make lacquers used in camouflage equipment and as a base for synthetic rubber needed for tires, gas masks, paratroop equipment and dozens of other things."

"Every time I think of it, Fred, I realize how fortunate we were in having a beverage distilling industry in existence when war broke out . . . ready and eager to convert 100% to the production of this critically needed war product. I'm mighty sure bootleggers wouldn't have been of much help."

Christmas Shopping For Boys In Overseas Service To Begin Soon

"Save strong string and box material and start to plan shopping," Postmaster General Frank C. Walker advises Americans in announcing the rules for mailing of Christmas gifts for army and navy personnel overseas.

This year the Christmas mailing period for both army and navy overseas forces will be September 25 to October 15. After October 15 no gift parcel may be mailed to a soldier without the presentation of a written request from him.

The great demands upon shipping and the need for giving preference to arms, ammunitions, medicine and food is the prime reason for the early mailing date.

"It is not easy to concentrate on Christmas gifts in the midst of warm weather here at home," Mr. Walker said, "but our people recognize the need last year, and because they want the men and women who are absent from their homes to know that they are not forgotten at Christmas, they took pains to assure prompt delivery of Christmas gifts."

Among the more important rules for Christmas mailings to the armed forces overseas are the following:

"The parcel must not exceed five pounds, and must not be more than 15 inches in length or 36 inches in length and girth combined. It should be marked "Christmas parcel" as it may be given special attention to assure its arrival before Christmas.

Not more than one parcel may be mailed in any one week to the same member of the armed forces by or in behalf of the same mailer.

When combination packages are made up of such items as miscellaneous toilet articles, hard candies, soaps, etc., the contents should be tightly packed so they will not be loosened in transit and damage the contents or the cover. Hard candies, nuts, caramels, cookies, fruit cake and chocolate bars individually wrapped in waxed paper should be enclosed in inner boxes of wood, metal, or cardboard.

Perishable goods are prohibited, as well as intoxicants, inflammable materials, poisons and anything that may damage other mail. Gifts enclosed in glass should be substantially packed to avoid breakage. Sharp instruments, such as razors and knives, must have their edges and points protected so they cannot cut through the coverings and injure postal personnel or damage other packages.

CARD OF THANKS

To our many friends, through so many years, we want to express our deep and sincere gratitude for so much kindness in so many ways, that you have showered upon us in our afflictions and adversities.

To so many who have asked, Did Jim get the mattress that he won in the guessing contest sponsored over the radio by the Crazy Crystal and the Taylor Bedding Co. Yes it came. It was free to us. He has been sleeping on it several weeks. It is a really good mattress. Come up to our home to see it, or visit the Munday Hardware and Furniture Co. to see one like it. Aug 20 is Jim's birthday and the correct answer to his question is 72.

I thank you. Mrs. Jim Lewis. (paid adv.)

Rev. J. O. Haymes of Abilene visited relatives and friends here a while Monday. He was enroute to Bomarton, where he is conducting a revival meeting this week.

Pick Cornish Pasties for a Picnic Menu

A WELL-BALANCED but simple menu is the order of the picnic day—for picnics should be fun for mother as well as for other members of the family. Whether eaten out in the wide open spaces or in your own back yard, everyone knows the food is the most important part of a picnic.

For a pinch of variety to spice the menu, Cornish Pasties are different and satisfying. Flaky pastry surrounding meat, potatoes, carrots and onion with just the right dash of seasoning, make a meal-in-one.

A large bowl of fresh tomatoes, fruit, cake, and a beverage complete the pick of the food to eat.

The pasties can be served either hot or cold. But so there will be no last-minute rush, prepare them early in the day. The recipe calls for the new blended shortening—easy to use direct from the refrigerator or cupboard shelf and with high shortening power for a crisp, flaky crust.

Cornish Meat Pasties

(Yield: 6 pasties)
Pastry: 2 cups sifted flour, 1 teaspoon salt

1 cup blended shortening
8-10 tablespoons cold water

Filling: 1 pound ground beef, 1 tablespoon fat, 1 cup cubed potatoes, 1 cup sliced carrots, 1 medium onion, 1/2 teaspoon salt

For the pastry, sift flour and salt. Cut the blended shortening into the flour until it is like coarse cornmeal, leaving some pieces of blended shortening about the size of dried peas.

Add water gradually, using a knife or fork to blend the mixture into a stiff dough. Chill dough while preparing the filling.

Melt the fat in a skillet. Add the meat and brown well. Add the potatoes, carrots, finely sliced onion and salt. Let cook over low heat while rolling pasties.

Roll pastry into six 6-inch circles. Arrange meat and vegetables on one-half of each circle. Moisten edges with water, fold pastry over and seal with a fork.

Place on a baking sheet and bake at 450° F. for 15 minutes, reduce heat and finish baking at 350° F. for about 20 minutes.

J. D. Marlow Is Home From Battle Of French Coast

Straight from the Normandy beach head came J. D. Marlow, a former Knox county boy, who is serving with the 106th Seabees as a petty officer first class. A Seymour businessman, where he was in partnership with J. L. Stodghill in the Ford tractor and implement business, Marlow has served 16 months overseas.

Unlike those who are reluctant to talk of battles, Marlow talks freely of his experiences. He is frank to admit, however, that the happiest moment of his life will be when it's all over and he can come home to stay.

Veteran of four invasions—North Africa, Sicily, Salerno and Normandy—Marlow has had his experiences. He has been wounded, and has seen his buddies killed beside him. Enemy bombs, snipers, enemy shells and numerous booby traps are what Marlow had to contend with as a member of the invasion forces. The chief job of the Ten-O-Six was to get troops, equipment and supplies ashore, but even these boys were not exempt from hand-to-hand combat.

Marlow brought home a number of souvenirs of the battle areas, but said he got rid of many he had been saving. "After a fellow has been over there so long," he said, "he begins to think he'll never get home, so he gets tired of lugging those things around."

While on his 30-day leave, Marlow is visiting in the Stodghill home, and with friends and relatives in this area. He got here in time to attend the reunion and rodeo at Seymour last week.

"There's two things the boys over there look forward to," he said. "One is getting their mail and the other is a chance to come back home. We went a long time without mail, sometimes. Once I received over 60 letters at one time, and it took me over three hours to read them. In Normandy, however, we received mail in from six to seven days—right out in the foxholes."

Miss Evelyn McGraw, employee of the local office of Stamford P. C. A., is on her vacation this week. J. L. Hill Jr., of Stamford, secretary-treasurer of the association, is assisting C. R. Elliott in carrying on operations at the local office during the absence of Miss McGraw.

Ability and Responsibility

WHEN a particularly tough and important job comes along, it usually lands in the lap of someone who is already doing a lot of other jobs well.

People like this—who are used to getting results—aren't too plentiful. They need to have both ability and a sense of responsibility. One alone won't do—for ability can sometimes be misdirected, and a sense of responsibility without ability can lead to troublesome meddling.

It's men with this combination of talents who have been carrying a heavy load on the home front these past few years. On the farm and in industry they've been meeting—and solving—the difficult wartime problems of production.

After the war is won, somebody must shoulder the equally big job of getting this nation back into peacetime production, of laying the groundwork for the better and more prosperous America we all want. This is a challenge, and an opportunity, for the producers of America—for the men and women who have a sense of responsibility and have shown their ability to get things done.
