Local Business Firms Damaged By Wind

On two occasions during the past week, high winds that have accompanied clouds and rain in Munday have caused considerable damage to Munday business firms and residences.

Last Friday, the storm hit shortly after 5 o'clock with the wind damaging the local compress and the elevator property operated by M. H. Reeves, breaking off trees and causing other minor damages. A light rain accompanied the storm. Several outbuildings on nearby farms were also damaged.

Early Monday morning another storm hit that reached almost cyclonic proportions. This caused damage to a number of other buildings in the city.

Hardest hit by the storm were the J. L. Stodghill building which houses the Ford Tractor Agency, and the Partridge building occupied by Holder's Grocery. The entire roof was ripped off the Stodghill building, causing damage estimated at around $3,000. The roof of the Partridge building was also damaged, causing considerable water damage to the grocery stock carried by Mr. Holder.

Again the compress suffered damage, as did one of the buildings of the West Texas Cotton Oil Co. a portion of the roof of the Munday Lumber Co. was blown off, but no damage was done to the stock.

Other business firms suffered minor damage, when awnings and signs were torn loose, and some signs crashing through windows.

Damage was again reported to farm buildings in the area.

A welcomed rain accompanied Monday's storm, with an estimated .75 of an inch falling in Munday. The rain was spotted, however, being heavier in spots and very little moisture reported west of town.

It is reported that the Benjamin, Gilliland and Vera areas also received rain, this coming Monday afternoon.

John C. Spann, owner of Spann's Tailor Shop, announced Tuesday that the shop will reopen next Monday, after being closed for two weeks for repairs and remodeling.

The shop presents a very neat and roomy appearance. In the place of unused fixtures in the front of the building, the space is now utilized by rack space for hanging clothes. New racks have been installed, making it convenient to find clothes for the customers.

All machinery has been repaired, placing it in good shape for another year's run. Everything has been so thoroughly gone over and changed that you likely won't recognize anything except old John standing back there, stomping the press and Mrs. Spann at her duties.

The interior has received a new paint job, which makes it look clean and attractive. The Spanns are proud of the shop, now, and they believe you'll be, too.

A new and larger air-conditioning unit is being installed that is calculated to keep the place much cooler, so you won't feel like you're stepping into an oven when you enter.

"We are in better position to take care of your clothes than ever before," John said, "and we solicit your continued patronage. We want you to come in and look the place over—and bring us some dirty clothes when you do!"

Machinery To Be Available Soon To Kill Mesquite

One of the most needed practices for Knox County is the Elimination of Mesquite. It is believed that machinery will be available before too long to carry out this practice.

Assistance was furnished the farmers in carrying out the above listed practices during 1944 through the Triple-A program. Likewise, assistance will be furnished again in 1945 for those that desire to protect their soils. There is doubtless a farm in Knox County that would not be improved by some of these and the many other practices for which Triple-A furnishes assistance.

New Varieties Of Wheat Grown In Knox County

Two new wheat varieties are being tried out in Knox County this year, according to R. O. Dunkle, County Agent, which show some promise of becoming very popular with the wheat growers in this section, because of their increased yield per acre which ranges from two to three bushels more per acre than some of the other common varieties grown in Knox County.

These new varieties of wheat are known as Comanche and Early Wichita. The Comanche variety of wheat has been grown by W. R. Moore, of Munday; W. T. Ward, Charlie Hamilton and Jack Idol of Benjamin. Comparative yields in 1944 and 1945 with standard Black-hull variety has some indications of being more resistant to smut and leaf rust than does the more common varieties such as new standard Black-hull and turkey red or tenmarq.

The other new variety, which is known as Early Wichita has not been grown previous to 1945 in Knox County and has only been released by Texas Experiment Station for the past two years, and not enough field tests in different counties have been made in order to determine its adaptability to this particular section, but the comparative yields this year indicates that this Early Wichita variety of wheat has a place among the more desirable varieties in Knox County.

Farmers growing this Early Wichita wheat for the first time are C. R. Elliott of Munday, W. T. Ward and Jack Idol of Benjamin.

Auction Sale Has Light Run

The Munday Livestock Commission Co. reports a light run of cattle for last Tuesday's Sale. All classes of cattle sold fully steady with last week's market.

Canner and cutter cows sold from $5.50 to $8; fat cows, $10.50 to $11.75; butcher cows, $8.50 to $10; butcher bulls, $7.50 to $9; fat bulls, $9.50 to $11.50; butcher yearlings, $10 to $12; fat yearlings, $12.50 to $14.50; rannier calves, $7 to $8.50; butcher calves, $9 to $12; fat calves, $12.50 to $14.50.

Keep Chickens Up!

Some complaints have been made recently about neighbors allowing their chickens to run loose and disturb gardens and flower beds of their neighbors.

Attention of Munday citizens is called to the fact that the city's ordinance requiring chickens to be penned up is still in effect.

Be a good neighbor—keep your chickens up!

American Legion Seeks Lasting Peace

Edward N. Scheiberling, national commander of the American Legion (right) advises Secretary of State Stettinius (left) of the Legion's determination to see that a strong and lasting peace follows World War II. The Legion commander says: "Now that the cannons roar no longer in Europe there will emerge from present obscurity many organizations and individuals who seek a soft peace, who would have America retire again into the false shell of isolationism. It is our duty, for the sake of future generations, to warn against this false and dangerous doctrine. The forces of the axis powers must be kept in restraint. This is not a doctrine of hate, but the same common sense that prevents the criminally insane from attacking innocent victims."

Benjamin, Gilliland and Truscott Lead In Conservation Practices

Community A comprised of Benjamin, Gilliland, and Truscott communities stepped far ahead of the other communities in 1944 in carrying out conservation practices.

Mr. Partridge, chairman of the Knox County A. C. A. stated. This community earned 69 per cent of the money that was allotted to them for doing conservation work. They were allotted $55,886.67 and earned $38,632.56.

The Vera community was next with 55 per cent of the allowance earned. Other communities and the percentage are: Knox City, 54 per cent; Rhineland, 51 per cent; Goree, 47 per cent; Munday, 41 per cent; and Sunset, 37 per cent. The percent earned for the county was 55 per cent.

Mr. Partridge urges all farmers to contact their community committees and discuss with them the practices that would do their farms good. Each community has three committees that are capable of discussing these practices with the farmers. It is these men's job to get the information out to each farmer in their community. The community committees for Community A in 1944 were O. A. Hlseng, Gilliland, J. G. Adock, Truscott, and W. T. Ward, Benjamin.

NATIONAL FARM SAFETY WEEK

National farm safety week has been proclaimed by President Truman, and will be observed throughout the nation from July 22 to 28.

The two-fold aim of the week, inaugurated last year by the National Safety Council as part of the nation-wide accident prevention campaign, is (1) to educate farm dwellers to act safely 52 weeks of the year, and (2) to teach them to recognize, guard against and eliminate as many hazards as possible.

The need for such a week is underlined by the fact that on the average between 40 and 50 farm dwellers are killed by accidents each day, making an annual death toll of 15,000 to 17,000.

In view of the fact that more than 300 organizations and 50,000 individuals in 46 states took part in the observance of the first National Farm Safety Week, it is reasonable to assume that the activities of the week contributed to the reduction in the general accident toll in 1944.

Thus, wider observance this year is certainly to be recommended. But it should never be forgotten that accident prevention, in the final analysis, is the individual responsibility of each farm resident. Engaged in one of the nation's most important industries, the farmer must be his own safety engineer.

Ever will his safety cease with the signing of the peace—universal safety can be achieved only by unremitting effort on the part of farm organizations, manufacturers of farm equipment and farm residents themselves.

DON'T LEARN THE HARD WAY

If the war has taught the owner of a home anything about domestic problems, it is that an adequate and economical heating plant is about the most important thing in his house, next to the roof. The necessity for saving fuel has forced home-owners to recognize this fact and in so doing they found out a few elemental truths, one of which is that when a house is built it should have a chimney big enough to take care of all types of fuel. It costs a little more to build such a chimney when a house is under construction, but it is a costly and often an impossible job to enlarge a chimney later.

The bituminous coal industry, because of shortages in other fuels, has had to heat thousands of homes that never before used coal, and which had chimneys not suitable for coal. It has been pointing out the necessity for proper chimney construction for safety, economy, and freedom from dependency on any one type of fuel. And this is something for home-builders to remember in the days ahead when a record-breaking era of small home construction is predicted.

IT PENETRATES THE JUNGLES

In the dripping heat of the South Pacific jungles, generous portions of delicious, cold ice cream are going to make life more tolerable for the fighting U. I. Joes in the future. That is the promise of the office of the Quartermaster General. A forty gallon freezing unit has been developed which can be transported by truck or plane into hitherto inaccessible spots.

A powdered mix has been developed by the Quartermaster's office which contains all of the ingredients of arctic ice cream dry form. Only water need be added. The mix is furnished in vanilla only, but eight other flavors are added to provide variety. Two and-a-half gallons are frozen at a time, and the unit has a forty gallon storage capacity.

America's fighters have indicated their desire for ample quantities of ice cream throughout the war, according to the National Dairy Council. Both its morale building qualities and its value as a food for fighters have been appreciated by the Quartermaster Corps. This latest invention is one more step forward in providing America's fighters with the foods they need most.

DO WE DESERVE FREEDOM?

"...nothing is more fatal than the present fashion among intellectual leaders of extolling security at the expense of freedom. It is essential that we should re-learn frankly to face the fact that freedom can be had only at a price and that as individuals we must be prepared to make severe material sacrifices to preserve our liberty. If we want to retain this, we must regain the conviction on which the rule of liberty in the Anglo-Saxon countries has been based and which Benjamin Franklin expressed in a phrase applicable to us in our lives as individuals no less than as nations: 'Those who would give up essential liberty to purchase a little temporary safety deserve neither liberty nor safety.'—"The Road to Serfdom," by Friedrich A. Hayek.

In Memoriam

The following was written in memory of Pfc. J. B. Pollock, U. S. M. C., who died on Okinawa on May 15, 1945:

MY BROTHER

I'm sure it's needless, but I want to say
How much we miss him since he passed away.
How much we loved him when he was here,
How much we wish he was still near.
How much we prayed that he might live
To see the peace that he fought to give.
How hard it is to understand
Why he had to die in that far-off land,
With no one who loved him at his side,
No one to comfort him before he died.
Why death has come and taken away
The most precious thing that has come our way.
Why it had to be, we do not know,
But for some good reason he had to go.
But only his body had to die,
His soul lives on, with God on high.

DECEPTIVE FARM PROFITS

Declaring that the nation's wartime food policy is at a crossroads, Fred H. Sexauer, president of the Dairymen's League Cooperative Association, says the course adopted in the next few weeks will determine how much food people will have in 1946 and possibly 1947.

"The production of war materials has been attained by incentive to workers, but the same incentive is denied farmers. Fair prices to farmers, and adoption of recommendations made by farm organizations at the present and prospective food shortages, the beginning of the war would have avoided much of the OPA's trouble."

"To avoid severe food shortages in the months ahead OPA should immediately revise its whole approach to the food problem."

A sound, free economy in this nation can rest only upon a prosperous agriculture and active manufacturing. This requires a fair price level for farm products."

NO JOKE

In certain respects price control has become a grim joke—a joke that may boomerang with deadly effect. Many present shortages are the result of prices fixed too low. In other words, prices have been over-controlled at the expense of production. The OPA has had the satisfaction of keeping price tags down—without nothing to hang them on. But before you laugh, stop to think what this means.

The entire retail distribution system operates on a very thin turnover profit margin—around one and one-half per cent for larger chain stores. Retailing lives by volume. When production falls off under the impact of artificially low prices, volume falls off. An authority in the food chain business states that public officials "realize that sharply decreased supply of meats, poultry, dairy products, some processed foods, cigarettes and other short items inevitably means falling volume which in turn means possible operating losses which could conceivably weaken or even paralyze the food distribution system." Admittedly, all shortages are not caused by impractical price ceilings. However, plenty are caused by this fault and more are appearing every day.

It is no public service for the OPA or any other government agency to blind itself to the danger of interfering with maximum production and distribution by price juggling. The greatest single stabilizing force outside of the government, is the modern American retail distribution system. If the efficiency of this system is undermined, the OPA will be helpless to make any sort of control effective.

If the merchant cannot operate successfully, inflation cannot be controlled.

Washington News Letter

By Congressman Ed Gossett

Washington, D. C.—The House this week passed by the overwhelming vote of 345 to 18 the Bretton Woods proposal. Briefly, Bretton Woods is an agreement drawn up by 44 nations to do two things; set up an "International Bank for Reconstruction and Development" and an "International Monetary Stabilization Fund." The bank will have a capital of 9 billion 100 million dollars. The stabilization fund will total 8 billion 800 million in gold and currency, contributed by the respective nations. Our contributions will be 28 per cent of the total, which gives us a strong voting power of 28 per cent.

The object of this plan are to prevent economic warfare, to stabilize international currencies, and to provide loans for reconstruction, etc. During and after the last war we loaned foreign countries some 11 billion dollars, only a fractional part of which has been or ever will be repaid. Under Bretton Woods these foreign loans will now be handled largely through the international bank and on a guaranteed basis. Bretton Woods, while experimental and imperfect, is a long step in peaceful world collaboration and our wholehearted support of it is a hopeful sign.

The honor guest at the Texas delegation luncheon this week was Navy Lieutenant George K. Petritz of Illinois, just back from a Japanese prison camp. He described for us life aboard a Japanese prison ship in which hundreds of men were crowded into airless dung-holes large enough for only ten men, and where strong men died from suffocation. Any sympathy one may have for Japanese women and civilians is extinguished by his reports of how Japanese women and children gazed smilingly into the holes where the Americans were dying.

I was this week selected secretary to a group of Congressmen who are determined to defeat present proposals to make permanent the so-called Fair Employment Practices Committee. To make this meddlesome wartime agency a permanent bureau of this government would be the most radical departure from American traditions of democracy ever conceived by socialistic designers.

Many of us have been greatly shocked by reports that returning veterans in many places have been denied their old jobs. Under a law passed by Congress, returning veterans are entitled to their old jobs regardless of unions, seniority, or any contracts which industries or employers may have made in the meantime.

It was my privilege this week, along with four Senators and three other Representatives, to talk with a brilliant and well-informed Frenchman who had just returned from the United States Conference at San Francisco. This gentleman was one of the leaders of the French underground movement and appeared entirely conversant with the political and economic problems of all countries. Incidentally, his opinion, and that of most Congressmen, is the United Nations Conference in San Francisco is to be far more successful than one gathers from the newspaper accounts. To my question, will France go communistic, this Frenchman replied no. He says the Communists have now reached their peak in France, and control only 23 per cent of the votes of the country.

He feels democracy is safe in all countries where free elections are permitted. He states emphatically that the Russians have not interfered with democratic governments in any country where democratic government existed prior to the war. Not more than 1200 Russians soldiers now remain in Prague, the capital of Czechoslovakia. This most stable of central European countries has, and according to reports will continue to have, a democratic regime.

I am just in receipt of a letter from D. C. Greer, State Highway Engineer of Texas, outlining the farm-to-market road program for Texas under the Federal Aid Highway Act passed by congress. Under this program the State, in addition to other programs, will improve and maintain 7,205 miles of secondary or feeder roads divided into some 841 projects throughout the State. This is a three-year program to begin immediately after the war. Due to the good work of Knox County Commissioners and other officials, projects designated in Knox county are: from Knox City west to the Brazos River; from Highway 82 west to Gilliland; from Goree north 3 miles toward Hefner.

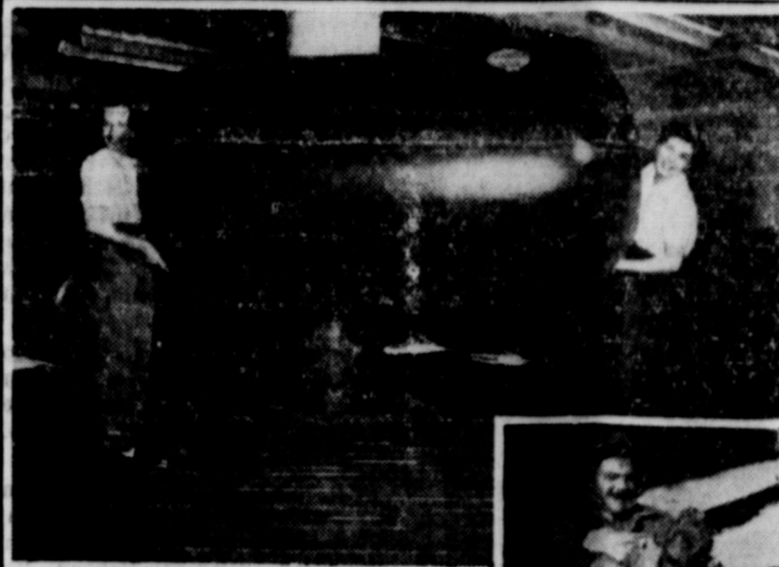

DON'T CONCENTRATE CHRISTMAS MAIL LOAD

DALLAS.—The Navy Department encourages the mailing of overseas gift packages throughout the year. Although the War Department advises that the mailing period for Christmas parcels to Army personnel will be the same as last year—September 15 to October 15—there is no restricted mailing period for the personnel of the Navy, Marine, and Coast Guard. All Christmas parcels should, however, be mailed not later than October 15 to afford some degree of probability of delivery prior to Christmas Day. Due to the distances—more than five million square miles have been won from the enemy since 1941—and the size and frequency of combat operations in the Far Pacific, no guarantee of delivery can be made.

Supt. and Mrs. W. C. Cunningham and son, Walter, left last Thursday for points in Oklahoma, where they are visiting relatives for several days.

Old Cowboys To Hold Reunion At Stamford Rodeo

STAMFORD.—Minds of the old-timers are turning these warm days to the approaching Reunion of their buddies during the Texas Cowboy Reunion which will hold its fifteenth annual showing on the 2, 3, and 4th of July. On those dates the veteran cowhands of the old Southwest will gather to swap yarns of happenings on the range in their younger days. Bowed legs will waggle and creaky knees will be slapped as the wizened faces break into a happy smile as tales are told reminiscent of days long past.

Each year the old-time cow-punchers assemble here during the Reunion, elect officers for their association, renew acquaintances, dance the old square dances which were in vogue in those days and even yet are considered the folk music of the old West. Membership is limited to men who were actively engaged and employed in ranch work on ranches at least thirty five years ago. The roster now includes almost two thousand men from 16 states of the Southwest. Members who have paid their dues are entitled to chuck wagon dinner each day and free admission to each performance of the rodeo. All wear badges showing their membership in the Texas Cowboy Reunion Association.

Membership in the Association include the following from Munday: Walter Bevers, Alex Jones and C. L. Mayes.

Officers of the Association are: Chas. H. Featherston, Wichita Falls, President, M. S. Doss, Seminole, First Vice President, H. G. Bedford, Midland, Second Vice President, Chas. E. Coombes, Stamford, Secretary-Treasurer, J. E. Swenson, Spur, Range Boss, Luther Edwards.

TINY TUBES DOES BIG JOB

An electronic tube so sensitive that it makes possible accurate measurement of the electricity in the light of a star more than five quintillion miles away has been developed by the Westinghouse Lamp Division. Smaller than a 25-watt incandescent light bulb, this tube is simplifying the detection of impurities in high explosive compounds and is speeding electrochemical analyses of steel.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Pfc. Harry C. Booe, who is with the 45th Infantry Division, writes his wife of his experiences from the time he left the states. His letter follows:

My Dearest Wife, I will tell you about my trip over here. I didn't leave from New York as you thought. I went from Ft. Meade to Boston, Mass., and got on the old ship there and left out the same day, which was the 3rd of April.

I arrived at Liverpool, England, on the twelfth of April. We had a little trouble with the subs coming over. One night the old ship stayed stacked all night. They threw out several depth charges that night. I didn't sleep very good. We didn't come over in a convoy, we came alone.

I got off the ship on Friday 13. Got a train and went to South Hamilton, England, and then got an English ship and went to LeHarve, France. Stayed there until Monday night, and then took a train. I rode until Thursday afternoon. The railroads in France and Germany are torn up so bad we couldn't make any time. Most every bridge had been blown up. The English had just got them fixed where we could cross. That was the most miserable train of all. Had hard bottom seats. Was a German train.

My next stop was Wien Germany. Arrived there the 18th of April, which was Thursday. Stayed there until the following Tuesday.

That's where we were first bothered with "Bed Cheek Charlie," as we called him. Was a plane come over every night and turned machine guns loose on us. But no damage was done while I was there.

I went from there to Mageburg, Germany. That was in the black forest, and Old Charlie came over again. It rained most of the time I was there, and snowed some, too, but I dug a hole and stayed pretty warm. It leaked some on me, although I made it ok.

I think I stayed there twelve days, and I was really proud to leave there. My next move was to Kahlfurt, Germany. That was the first building I had to live in since I left the states. I wasn't there long. I went on to Munchen, Germany, and am still here.

When we want to move in a different building, we just give these Germans so long to get out and we move in. They treat us as guests over here. I get plenty to eat, so please don't worry about that. I also get one change of clothes a week, even if they do look like the dogs have slept on them. They also let us take one shower a week. We go eight miles for that.

I don't want to discourage you, darling, but it looks like Japan soon. So brace up and take care of yourself, and keep praying. I never go to sleep at night without praying. By the help of God the war will be over soon.

Your Loving Husband, Cecil

S. H. Vaughter, superintendent of the Rochester schools, was a business visitor here last Monday. He reported the Rochester area received about a half-inch of rain early Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Baker and son, Kenneth, visited with relatives in Floydada over the week end.

Mrs. Carl Mahan of Abilene was a visitor here the latter part of last week. She was accompanied home Saturday by her daughters, Mary Charles and Linda, who spent last week here with their grandmother, Mrs. E. M. Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Tom of Haskell spent last Sunday here with Mrs. Tom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Lee.

M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

Austin, Texas.—In addition to the general instructions for community sanitation which may be important in preventing poliomyelitis, Dr. George W. Cox, State Health Officer, today issued an urgent warning to every individual in Texas to practice strict personal hygiene to protect his own health and that of those about him.

"Of course, cleanliness and personal hygiene are ordinarily taken for granted," Dr. Cox said, "but at this time with poliomyelitis reaching into every section of our state and with more than 120 cases already reported I would like to re-emphasize some personal sanitary measures which may help in preventing the spread of this crippling and often fatal disease."

The State Health Officer stressed the importance of scrupulous cleanliness of the person. Frequent bathing and immaculately clean clothing are vitally necessary. Oral hygiene with thorough brushing of the teeth and the use of a mild antiseptic are recommended. The nasal passage should be kept clean and dental defects corrected immediately.

Sanitation and thorough cleanliness in the home is instinctive with the average housewife, but at this time their importance to health must be re-emphasized. Home sanitation includes those taken-for-granted measures such as washing the dishes in hot soapy water and rinsing them in hot clear water; keeping sinks, bathtub and fixtures scoured clean and rinsed with a mild antiseptic solution; sunning and airing bed clothes, riding the home of flies, rats, and roaches which, since poliomyelitis is believed to be a filth-borne disease are suspected as being responsible for transmission.

"If good personal hygiene is combined with good community sanitation and hygiene it is hard for any disease to get a foothold," Dr. Cox said, "With such a dread disease as poliomyelitis prevalent in every section of the state, no precaution should be overlooked and no bars should be left down for its entrance."

Stevenson Names Friday, June 15th As Infantry Day

Gov. Coke Stevenson has proclaimed Friday, June 15, as infantry day in Texas, and calls upon all citizens of the state to honor members of the Infantry on this day. His proclamation follows:

To All To Whom These Presents Shall Come:

General Joseph W. Stilwell, Commanding General, Army Ground Forces, has authorized to his command the observance of June 15, 1945, as INFANTRY DAY.

The United States Infantry Association, through its President, Major General John H. Hildring, has called upon the Governor of the various States to recognize the day in the same way.

Statements have been received by the United States Infantry Association from Generals Eisenhower, MacArthur, Vandegrift, Clark, Krueger, and other high commanders overseas in recognition of this day.

Every day is Infantry Day in modern combat. The American Infantrymen has been fighting in all climates, and in weather that often called for the last measure of individual endurance and courage. He is the man who seizes the ground in hand-to-hand combat from the enemy and holds the ground. Every high commander overseas has stated that no battle is won until the Infantry has obtained its objective.

The designation of Infantry Day is in furtherance of the desire to continue recognition of the dignity and importance of the vital role

Waiting for a train is one of the chief occupations in Arkansas—or was when I lived there. And the railroads provided nothing at most of the junctions except an inter-section.

One of these places, offering only a choice view of three billboards and a dismal swamp with croaking bull-frogs, had just a shed and not even a ticket agent. A traveler, getting off of one train, had to wait 10 hours for the next one. Late in the afternoon, a man came walking down the track, leveled a pistol on the traveler, took his money and then was about to leave, when the victim said:

"Hold on there! Before you came I figured I was liable to be held up in this lonely spot, so I hid my gold watch. If I have to stay here for two more hours all by myself, I'll go crazy. If you'll keep me company until the train gets here, I'll give you the watch."

The robber agreed and the traveler kept his word. In fact, he always said afterwards that he considered it the best trade he ever made. Fair Oaks used to be the most famous of all places where the railroads were engaged in crossing. There was nothing fair about Fair Oaks except the name, which probably was bestowed by someone who never saw the place.

However, a few natives used to loaf around the depot and engage in two favorite sports: drinking chill tonic and whittling.

The most popular brand of chill tonic had a picture of dragon on the bottle. One day, a fellow went into the store and said, "I want some of that chill tonic that looks like the devil on the outside and tastes like h--- on the inside." The storekeeper had no trouble figuring out the brand.

Yes, sir, those swamps angels would sit around with their Arkansas tooth-picks—an Arkansas tooth-pick is a pocket knife with a blade 11 inches long—and whittle. And when they had used up the pieces of wood they were whittling on, they would just reach up and cut another slab off the depot. Why, the railroad company had to rebuild the depot three times a year!

Makes Good Use Of Soil Conservation

Paul Russell, Wichita Brazos Soil Conservation District Cooperator is making a good start on establishment of a complete Conservation Program on his sandy land livestock farm in the West Rochester Conservation Group.

On his pasture land, Mr. Russell has made very good progress in dividing his pasture according to water and grass pasture types. He has planted a variety of grasses and intends to plant more when seed becomes available.

On his cultivated land, Mr. Russell planted rye as a winter cover crop and reports good results.

Mr. Russell made a trial planting of approximately 4 acres of Hairy Vetch, mixed with Rye, on an old abandoned field. He drilled the mixture in without any land preparation. The area planted was on very poor soil that has been subject to blowing for years, and now there are mounds of sand 6 to 8 feet high with little or no top soil left in the low places. The purpose in planting the vetch was to improve the soil previous to over seeding with native grasses.

The vetch made excellent growth on the places where some soil was left. In some places reaching a height of 3 feet. In the low places where the soil had been blown out, both vetch and rye made very little growth.

Hairy Vetch is an excellent soil improving pasture, or hay crop, when planted early in the fall. Vetch should be planted in September or October.

Soil Conservation Service Technicians assisting the Wichita Brazos Soil Conservation District, helped Mr. Russell and other farmers in organized Conservation Groups to develop and establish soil and water Conservation plans.

How to Paint a Door

WHERE do you begin when you're painting a door? For a good, professional job, there is a definite order of sequence which should be followed if streaks, runs and over-lapping are to be avoided in the finishing job. The same is true of painting window framing. Here is the proper order, according to Practical Builder, which knows all about such things:

As indicated, the door panels should be coated in first, next the horizontal members, and finally, the vertical parts. When painting windows, the top sash should be pulled down and the inside face of the check rail carefully painted. The edges and undersides of both doors and sash should be carefully covered, for there is where dry rot starts.

Now that the war is over in Europe, many Texans are wondering what will happen to the many services given our men abroad through their donations to the National War Fund. The answer is that they will not only be continued, but expanded.

Hundreds of thousands of our troops must remain in Europe to enforce the peace. Freed of the excitement of war, they will need, more than ever, the morale-building services of USO and USO-Camp shows. For that reason, this war fund agency now plans to enlarge its activity both in Europe and in the Pacific, where our forces are growing daily.

At home, USO is setting up centers at all hospitals, to serve our constantly-increasing list of wounded heroes. The USO Hospital Circuit, which sends entertainers into hospital wards to play before battle veterans, also is being expanded.

War Prisoners Aid is now working to alleviate suffering of our men in Japanese prisoner-of-war camps. Other war fund agencies are serving our own fighting men and our allies throughout the Pacific area.

The National War Fund also is meeting the great demands for aid to children, aged persons and other war victims in liberated areas;

China Relief is doing a great job among the brave people of China, who have fought the Japs for so many bitter years; Philippine Relief is doing much to make life a little better for the people of those friendly isles, and many other agencies are bringing American aid to millions throughout the world.

And to keep that aid going forward until the end of the war, another fund-raising campaign is now being planned for this fall. Once more, as in previous years, the people of the Lone Star state will be asked to "Give a Texan's Share" for our own, our allies and suffering humanity. It is a call that cannot be ignored.

RATIONS FOR ELECTRONS

Fluorescent lamps last longer if you let them burn constantly. The reason, explains the Westinghouse Lamp Division, is that each time one of these tubes is turned on, electrons "nibble" at the tips of the electrodes until the light-producing arc is struck. Frequency of starts, on the other hand, does not affect an incandescent lamp's longevity since it fails because the tungsten filament evaporates at incandescence until it finally melts.

NEW CARTON SAVES PAPER

By developing a carton which permits the insertion of fluorescent tubes vertically instead of horizontally, the Westinghouse Lamp Division is saving more than 2,500,000 feet of paper sealing tape a year.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Lee of Fort Worth spent the week end with Sidney's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Lee, and with other relatives and friends.

Friends and Enemies in the VICTORY GARDEN

In cool and moist places the gardener's friend, the toad, goes looking for his food. He eats only living, moving things. His diet includes flies, mosquitoes, June bugs, spiders, grasshoppers, worms, caterpillars (hairy or smooth), and he even licks the little green aphids off the stems of plants. Nothing is too crunchy or spiny for the toad.

A toad can throw his tongue out at least two inches. It is covered with a sticky substance that holds the insects. Toads blink their eyes when they swallow a big mouthful because the eyes extend down into the roof of the mouth and help force the food down.

Without help from nature in the destruction of insects, the victory garden would soon be overrun. Even so, pests such as aphids must be kept down with a contact spray like black leaf 40; while worms, beetles and the like need treatment with lead arsenate or similar sprays.

Safety Checkup Of Farms Slated For Farm Safety Week

A farm safety check-up by every farm family in the nation is the goal of National Farm Safety Week, as proclaimed by President Truman for July 22-28.

Calling attention to the fact that the skill and labor of America's farmers is a vital factor in winning the war, President Truman said: "I request all persons and organizations concerned with agricultural and farm life to do everything in their power to educate farm people in the proper precautions by which they may eliminate farm hazards. . . and I further urge that farm people everywhere observe National Farm Safety Week by making checks in their homes and on their farms."

Following President Truman's proclamation, agricultural leaders throughout the nation endorsed the second observance of National Farm Safety Week, which was inaugurated in 1944 by the National Safety Council.

Secretary of Agriculture Wickard said: "The success attained by the nation-wide observance of Farm Safety week last year. . . has been very gratifying. Agencies of the Department will again lend all possible assistance."

War Food Administrator Marvin Jones said: "It is imperative that both manpower and property losses due to farm accidents be materially reduced. The results obtained through observance of National Farm Safety Week in 1944 clearly demonstrate that this is an effective means of minimizing such losses."

Among farm leaders who have pledged their cooperation in the work of National Farm Safety Week are Edward S. O'Neil, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation; James G. Patton, president of National Farmer's Union and A. S. Goss, master of the National Grange.

"President Truman's suggestion that farm people make a safety check in their homes and on their farms, if followed, will be the greatest single step that can be taken toward reducing accidents on farms," Maynard H. Coe, director of the Farm Division of the National Safety Council said.

Mr. Coe suggested that individuals and organizations center their attacks on falls, which occur in the farm home more frequently than any other type of accidents; on burns which usually rank about second in importance; on educating farm workers in the proper handling of farm machinery, animals and firearms.

Mr. Coe said that the importance of safe driving should be emphasized because figures show that highway accidents annually kill thousands of farm residents.

"There are many other types of accidents which contribute to farm losses in time, material, and manpower," Mr. Coe said, "but a safety check-up during National Safety Week will pave the way for the elimination of hazards that in themselves are the greatest drain on farm manpower."

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Smith and children and Mrs. Nora Smith of Tucuman, New Mexico, spent several days last week with relatives and friends here. Mrs. Nora Smith remained for a longer visit with relatives.

Mrs. Eula Stubbs has returned to her home at Thomas, Okla., after a six weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. E. J. Brazell.

Gene Floyd, who is serving in the navy and stationed in New York, came in last week to spend a 10-day furlough with his wife and other relatives.

Mrs. Mary Milford spent the week end in Wichita Falls, visiting her daughters, Loyce and Joyce. The girls have accepted positions at Sheppard Field.

Zack Walton has returned home after a few days visit with his children on the plains: Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Barnett of O'Donnell, Mr. and Mrs. Brad Walton of Loop, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Norwood of Lamesa. He reports it to be very dry in those sections.

Dr. J. L. Mechem, University of Texas professor of government, will teach foreign policies of the United States toward Latin American this summer in the field school of the Institute of Latin American Studies, to be held at the National University of Mexico. He will also teach Problems in Latin-American Government.

Moffett Sponsors Legislation For Veterans Of War

Austin, Texas, June.—In securing legislative approval of a constitutional amendment permitting members of the armed forces to vote without the prerequisite of a poll tax receipt, Sen George Moffett, of Chillicothe, kept his record intact through eight sessions of having sponsored more constitutional amendments than any other present member.

In every session except the first, the veteran North Central Texas solon has successfully sponsored amendments to the Constitution. His latest amendment will be voted on by the people on August 25, and has been hailed as one of the most far-reaching pieces of veterans legislation to emerge from the 49th session.

Moffett was also author of a bill prescribing the duties of the Veterans County Service Officer which has received the wholehearted support of ex-service men of both wars.

The Chillicothe Senator was also sponsor of another legislative innovation in his bills reaching back into the smaller communities of the State and permitting the organization and incorporation of hospitals in towns of 2,500 population or less.

Another Moffett measure which cleared all legislative hurdles permits school students between the ages of 14 and 16 to become automatically eligible to take a drivers license test if they have successfully completed an approved safety education course and received a certificate from their school. The new plan would eliminate the old catch-as-catch-can method of learning to drive.

Cotton research during the next two years received a big stimulus under Moffett's urging when the Legislature was persuaded to authorize a $210,000 appropriation for this purpose.

—the boys came home in 1918? And now we're looking for them home again —to stay this time, for now they are doing a permanent job over there. So let's back the attack with bonds to help make the job permanent and to bring our boys home again, soon.

MAHAN FUNERAL HOME

They raised the Flag again on Corregidor . . .

Let's raise the money in the MIGHTY SEVENTH

OUR FLAG flies once again over Corregidor. The cost was great in blood and pain, but our fighting men did not turn back. And on Iwo Jima, four thousand men—more and more—died to take the long step forward to Victory. Twenty thousand others suffered wounds. Yes, we're on the way to Tokyo!

At home, your contribution to Victory is measured in dollars. The Seventh War Loan is the biggest in America's history because seven billion dollars must be raised from individuals alone. That means you must buy more and bigger War Bonds.

This is really two great loans in one; for this time last year you had been called upon twice to subscribe in War Loans. As our fighting men raise Old Glory all over the world—let's raise the money back home!

Civilians At Work

The government needs and asks its citizens in the 184th week of the war against Japan to:

1. Be sure your overseas letters are correctly addressed and packages secured. Because of incorrect addressing, fifteen percent of all overseas mail never reaches servicemen.

2. Replant your victory garden at once if bad weather has made it necessary, or start one if you have not. There is still time to ensure your own store of vegetables.

3. Keep on salvaging urgently needed cans. Japan still controls all sources of our pre-war tin supply.

More Gasoline For 3,000,000

"B" Ration Users About 3,000,000 "B" ration users, out of the 8,553,200 regular "B" coupon holders, will be eligible for increased gasoline rations from June 11, when ceilings are raised to 650 miles per month throughout the country; OPA said in explaining how to obtain the increase. "Only those "B" ration holders whose essential occupational driving needs exceed present "B" ceilings for their regions—325 miles a month in the east, 475 miles in the midwest and 400 miles in the far west—will be eligible for an increase," Max McCullough, Deputy Administrator for Rationing, explained. "The amount of the increase for eligible B-card holders will vary with their actual occupational driving needs, but in no case may their total rations exceed the new ceiling. Other "B" ration holders—such as home-to-work drivers who are getting what they need under present ceilings—should not apply for any increases since their applications will have to be rejected and will only add to the work of the Local War Price and Rationing Boards." "B" users who are eligible for an increase should fill out the regular renewal application form, OPA said. Application forms may be obtained from local boards.

Farmers Get Improved Priorities

To assist farmers in getting necessary farm operating supplies for the current crop season, an AA-2 extendable preference rating for obtaining such supplies was given to farmers by the Office of Civilian Requirements through the issuance by WPB of amended priorities

Regulation 19. This action places farmers on the same level of preference in buying as other war-supporting industries. Before this amendment, farmers had an AA-2 or AA-3 priority, extendable only to the wholesale level. Other changes made by the amendment are: 1. Revision of the list of items to which the AA-2 rating can now be applied, and addition of other essential items. 2. Change in certificate used by farmers, eliminating necessity for approval of county farm rationing committees of purchases in excess of $50.00. 3. Elimination of the "Basketing" provision for permitting a dealer to apply all farmers applications toward the purchase of any selection of items he might choose.

Livestock Slaughterers Must File Report with OPA

All class 2 slaughterers will be required to file reports with their OPA district office within 30 days after the close of each slaughter-quota period, showing the live weight in pounds for each species of livestock they slaughtered or had custom slaughtered during the quota period, OPA announced. Included in the classification of Class 2 slaughterers are non-federally inspected commercial slaughterers and retail slaughterers, as well as any persons, other than farm slaughterers, who have livestock custom slaughtered for them—regardless of whether it is done by a federally inspected or a non-federally inspected establishment. The information that will be furnished on the reports is needed in order to enforce the provisions of Central Order 1, which limits the amount of slaughter that may be done by the non-federally inspected plants, OPA said. The reports are to be filed in duplicate on OPA Form MC-6, and must be filed with the OPA district office with which the slaughtering establishment is registered.

SWPC To Help Set Up

tion, thereby affording veterans the highest priority possible. Under the terms of the act, SWPC, which has a federal agency top priority to buy surplus property, can purchase such property for resale to small business organizations.

Veterans eager to obtain surplus items for any commercial, industrial, manufacturing, financial, service, medical, dental or legal enterprise, with an invested capital not exceeding $50,000, should apply to the SWPC office nearest to the locality where the business will be established. SWPC will act as a buying agent or clearing house on all purchases. It has the responsibility of determining whether the veteran has a good chance of success in his venture. If it decides that he has not, SWPC must explain that decision to WPB. The War Food Administration, however, will advise SWPC concerning applications for purchasing items useful in farming, forestry, grazing, fruit growing, and the like. As soon as SWPC approves the application, it will buy from the disposal agencies the items required by the veterans, up to $2,500. According to the regulation, the veteran must maintain the business as sole proprietor, or, if non-veterans are associated with him in the business, they cannot have more than one-half interest.

Program For Sales Of Surplus Trucks In Farm Area

Areas where trucks are urgently needed to prevent impairment of farm production will be allocated reasonable quantities of available surplus trucks under a sales procedure announced by the Office of Surplus Property, Department of Commerce, and the War Food Administration. Developed jointly by the agencies, the program provides for sales of allocated trucks to dealers who agree to resell the trucks to farmers and farmers cooperative associations with the designated area who hold AAA certificates. The method whereby the special agricultural priorities authorized under Surplus Property Board Regulation 3 will be applied to surplus trucks is as follows: 1. The Office of Surplus Property will keep liaison representatives of the Agricultural Adjustment Agency, WFA, informed at all times as to the availability of surplus trucks, by types and sizes. 2. The War Food Administrator will be informed (through reports from AAA) as to specific area needs for trucks to prevent impairment or threatened impairment of farm production and will certify such needs to the Surplus Property Board. 3. The board will direct the Office of Surplus Property to allocate a specified number surplus trucks of the required types and sizes to the designated areas. 4. Sales of trucks under Regulation 3 will be advertised to dealers by the Office of Surplus Property in the usual manner. In addition, information may be obtained on these sales through AAA county committees. 5. The Office of Surplus Property will sell the allocated trucks in accordance with the usual "Spot Sale" procedures, and any conditions under which the trucks will be sold will be specified in the advertising. 6. When so instructed by the State AAA Committee, the County AAA Committee in the designated areas will issue certificates to farmers and farmers cooperatives for the purchase of the allocated trucks from dealers.

No State and Regional Fairs This Year Says ODT

The country has enough transportation for you to enjoy the local and county fair this year, says the Office of Defense Transportation, but that trip to the big show at the state capital is off until after the war, when trains, tires and gasoline can once more be used generously. Though regional and state fairs must be cancelled, local and county fairs that do not involve use of inter-city transportation may be conducted on the same basis as trade shows.

Ceiling Prices For Passenger Cars Reduced

Ceiling prices for used passenger cars—sold by either dealers or private owners—will be reduced four percent on July 1 in accordance with the "Rollback" provisions of the used car price regulation, Price Administrator Chester Bowles announced. Also to be reduced four percent on July 1, are charges allowed for extra equipment on used cars such as heaters, radios and other inbuilt items having additions to base ceiling prices.

Consumers To Get Ceiling Price List On Meats

Housewives and other shoppers will share directly in the government's meat control program when 3,000,000 bulletins listing the top ceiling prices of all cuts and grades of meat are distributed throughout the country within the next few days, Price Administrator Chester Bowles announced. These lists—powerful weapons to help smash the black markets in meat—may be obtained by consumers by ceiling at rationing board headquarters.

THE MASSEY-HARRIS SELF-PROPELLED HARVEST BRIGADE

SEE HOW

YOU CAN DO 2 1/2 MEN'S WORK...

Self-Propelled

• Yes, last year the Massey-Harris Harvest Brigade set a new, all-time record for acres harvested per man, per hour, per dollar. It's here again because another record crop is being harvested and there's still a shortage of men and machines.

In harvesting over a million acres last year, 14-foot Self-Propelled Combines averaged over 4 acres per hour. According to an official survey, 14-foot tractor-drawn combines average 2 1/2 acres per hour. This means that one man with a "Self-Propelled" harvests as much grain as 2 1/2 to 3 men operating conventional combines and tractors.

What the "Harvest Brigade" has done on a national scale, you can do for yourself with a Self-Propelled—harvest your grain with one machine, one operator; saving tractor and tractor operator, saving fuel, and saving grain normally tramped down by tractor on opening cuts.

The Harvest Brigade is a war emergency measure, designed to make critical materials do the greatest possible amount of work. We, as Massey-Harris dealers, would like to supply a Self-Propelled Combine to every farmer who needs one... and will as soon as materials are available.

See them now. Ask us where and when they will be operating... and talk with us about keeping your present equipment in good repair, and about your implement needs for tomorrow—Self-Propelled Combines, Clipper Combines, Forage Harvesters, Power-Plus Tractors, High-Speed Plows and other Massey-Harris cost-cutting implements that will help you meet the world-wide demand for food in the best way.

WHEN YOU THINK OF "SELF-PROPELLED" THINK OF MASSEY-HARRIS... THE PIONEER BUILDERS

YOU know that sagging, sawdust feeling. It's a wartime symptom of the high cost of living. You often get it when you go to market or pay a bill.

But not when you pay your electric bill. For the price of electric service hasn't followed other prices UP. It's still at low pre-war levels—or even a little lower. In fact, if yours is an average family, you're getting just about twice as much electricity for your money today as you did 15 years ago.

We're glad we've been able to keep your electric service cheap and friendly and dependable—in spite of wartime conditions. That makes our hard work and careful business management seem worth while. And we are glad that it helps give you some relief from "rag doll knees"!

Sweatt Gives Account Of His Trip To Mexico

Joe Edd Sweatt 4-H club member of Sunset Community, who is one of 24 4-H Club boys of Texas, who made the first organized "Good Will Trip" into Old Mexico gives a very interesting account of his ten day trip into this Latin-American Nation.

The first impression gained by Joe Edd was that all civilian and agricultural activity is very backward and that there is no comparison between Mexico and the United States as to its mode of life and freedom that we so much appreciate and enjoy here in the United States. It makes one feel that our way of life and its privilege are well worth fighting for.

Joe Edd mentioned the Pan-American Highway which now serves motorists of Mexico and the United States, and which is rapidly being extended through Old Mexico. This highway, Joe Edd thinks, will open to commerce an artery that will bring about a more neighborly friendship and trade between the people of the United States and Mexico. Much of this highway is through a virgin territory with the northern sector being more rapidly developed. Our trip over this road enabled the boys of Texas to get a real insight to the farm life of Mexico. We visited tropical regions where all the land is tilled by Indians. We also saw the most primitive manner of farming with wooden plows, sticks, and oxen to the most modern American made power farming equipment.

The mountainous scenery is beautiful and even at elevations of nine thousand feet, corn fields dot the highest mountains. We also visited Pachuca City that has produced nearly one half of all the silver mined in the entire history of the world. Thence to the great Pyramids of Teotihuacan and the Temple of Quetzalcoatl. These Temples were erected hundreds of years ago by the Toltec and Aztec Indians.

Throughout the whole trip we were entertained at the most high class hotels and were served meals all of which were Mexican style and flavor.

The one feature of the trip which will perhaps be remembered best was the Mexican Bull-Fight at Xochimilco, where six madadors and six angry bulls were turned into the arena at one time. There were some very exciting moments and at times it seemed that we might be looking for a place to get out of the bleachers, if the El Toro might charge the crowd.

Mr. Fred A. Haskett, of the Pioneer Travel Service Institution in Dallas, and several Mexican Agricultural Officials of Old Mexico who could speak English, accompanied us throughout the whole trip and explained the interesting historical features and customs of the Mexican people.

This trip was financed by the Sears Roebuck and Company, and who to our surprise, besides paying all our expenses presented us with a crisp new $20.00 bill before leaving Monterrey. This money was

THE EQUIVALENT OF NEARLY 30000 MILES OF QUART BOTTLES OF MILK HAS BEEN ALLOCATED BY THE U. S. GOVERNMENT IN 1945 TO MAKE ICE CREAM FOR UNCLE SAM'S FIGHTERS ABROAD.

Every day 340,000 gallons of milk from America's dairy farms go into the preparation of the favorite dairy food for the GI Joes on foreign soil. That represents the total production from about 135,000 cows.

If all of the milk used each year making ice cream for America's fighters abroad were put in quart bottles it would make a row of bottles nearly 30,000 miles long. This, states the National Dairy Council, is a part of the contribution of America's dairy industry to the health, stamina and morale of her fighters.

Club Meetings For June Are Postponed

The 4-H Club meetings scheduled for June in Knox county will be postponed until July, because of recent rains and shortage of farm labor to plant the 100,000 acres of row crops, which need to be in the ground this month.

The program demonstrations for June and July will be given at the annual 4-H Club Camp at Seymour on or about July 20-21.

Detailed Reports Show State Rangers Doing Their Jobs

ANSTIN, June.—Col. Homer Garrison, director of the Department of Public Safety and chief of the Texas Rangers, is taking the edge off one of his favorite stories.

The yarn involves an effort before the turn of the century to get the traditionally laconic Rangers to write reports on their activities. A simple form was drawn up, calling for some names of injured person and defendant, nature of offense, date of commission, and disposition. One of the first such reports to be submitted was on a murder case, and it said: "Disposition: Mean as the devil; had to shoot him."

In January Colonel Garrison decided that the scope of Ranger activities should be more completely recorded, and so he had the Headquarters Detachment, under Capt. Fred Olsen, start using a somewhat involved statistical report form. The result surprised even Olsen and his men, for this is what the captain and seven Rangers did in four months:

Made 581 investigations, completing 178 cases; made 137 arrests and obtained 48 convictions; assisted other officers on 569 occasions; apprehended 44 fugitives; confiscated $5,966 in property; recovered $9,086 in stolen property, and recorded $2,960 in fines, in addition to a host of miscellaneous duties.

So Garrison called in all the Ranger captains and instructed them to begin using the new form. When one veteran drily remarked that "one of my men is going to get killed behind a typewriter yet," Garrison emphasized that "it isn't enough for us to do our job well, we've got to show the Legislature and the people where and how we're spending the taxpayers' money."

Physical Therapy Is Opportunity For Postwar Career

How young men and women of Knox County may prepare for postwar careers in an overcrowded profession through free scholarships in physical therapy at leading universities and medical schools was described today by Mrs. Leroy Melton, chairman of the Knox County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Some of the funds contributed by the people of Knox County in the annual March of Dimes are being used for the $1,267,600 nationwide physical therapy training program.

"While students who accept these free scholarships are under no obligation to specialize on infantile paralysis cases after graduation," said Mrs. Melton, "the National Foundation feels that if it can overcome the acute shortage of trained physical therapists all over the country, this will be of great importance if there should be an epidemic of infantile paralysis here or in some other section."

The scholarship, of nine and twelve months duration, cover transportation to the medical school, tuition, books and laboratory fees and living expense, as needed.

Cool Candy Stripes

THIS 1945 adaptation of the shirt-waist dress stars stripes, dolman sleeves, and an oversized pocket. A semi-classic style like this is smart for a number of seasons—and so is the smooth-surfaced rayon fabric it's made of. The cloth has been given laboratory tests proving its wearing and cleaning qualities, and is tagged with this information as a guide for the purchaser.

Applicants must have at least two years' college training, with emphasis on biology and other sciences, or be graduates of accredited schools of nursing or physical education. Inquiries should be addressed directly to The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, 120 Broadway, New York 5, N. Y.

Mrs. Melton pointed out that there are today only 2,500 qualified physical therapists in the United States, more than half of them in the armed forces. There is immediate need for at least 5,000 more, with additional numbers to be required in the postwar application of physical therapy to a constantly expanding field of civilian practice and in treatment of war casualties.

CHECKING EQUIPMENT INCREASES

COLLEGE STATION, — Increased interest in making canning equipment safe and accurate is reported by Erma Wines, Jim Wells County home demonstration agent. In comparison, 43 cookers, and 14 sealers were checked during the same period last year.

"Dry" Suds Used To Clean Furniture

Upholstered furniture should come in for its share of refreshing when housecleaning time comes, and for this job try dry suds, which work like magic, says Lucile King, County Home Demonstration Agent. The method is simple and effective, and the results satisfactory.

To make the suds, dissolve 1-2 cup of neutral soap flakes, beads, chips, or bar soap shaved in small pieces in one quart of hot water. To test the soap to see if it is neutral, put a bit of it on your tongue, and if neutral it will not bite or sting.

When the soap solution has cooled to a jelly-like consistency, beat it with a rotary egg beater until it looks like cake icing. When suds die down, rebeat them.

Remove the dust from the upholstered furniture with a vacuum cleaner or whisk broom. Before shampooing the fabric with dry suds, test in an inconspicuous place to see if it is washable. If so, then apply the dry suds to a small area with a brush, sponge or cloth. Use a light circular motion. Scrape off the soiled suds with a spatula. Rinse with a sponge or cloth wrung from clear lukewarm water using a circular motion. Rinse several times. Be sure no soap remains in the material. Use as little water as possible so that the foundation will not become wet. Work quickly and wash a small area at a time and let each new overlap the last one a little. Place furniture in an airy place to dry, but not in the sun.

If fabric has a nap, brush it after it thoroughly dry so that the threads will be in the right direction. Leather covered furniture can be washed with suds in much the same way.
