

Moguls Battle Seymour To Tie Friday Night

Fourth Period Pass Brings Local Boys From Behind

In a game that was battle for all four quarters, the Munday Moguls and the Seymour Panthers exchanged wits for a 6 to 6 tie Friday night at Panther stadium in Seymour.

All of the first quarter was played in Panther territory, with neither team being able to make extensive gains. The Panthers began gaining on end runs in the last of the second period, and Bryan Hatter, Panther quarterback plunged through from the two yard line at the close of the period. The touchdown journey started from Munday's 38-yard line. Sandy Parks went into the game for a drop-kick at conversion, but he was smothered by the Moguls before he could kick.

In the fourth quarter, Munday got possession of the ball on the 40-yard line. Numerous passing tries failed earlier in the game, due to a wet ball, but this time Billy Bouldin, Mogul quarterback, heaved a 14-yard pass into the arms of Joe Spann, left end, who raced the remaining distance to cross the marker standing up. John Spann's kick for extra point was wide.

Seymour made a desperate attempt to untie the score, but they were stopped some 20 yards short of the goal by the timekeeper's whistle that ended the game.

Amendment For Good Roads Getting Support In Texas

Appearing on the ballot in November 5th General Election is Amendment No. 3, which is known as the good roads constitutional amendment, which is receiving much support from advocates of better roads in Texas. The amendment guarantees the availability of motor vehicle registration fees and gasoline taxes exclusively for road purposes, with the exception of one-fourth of the gas tax which will continue to be allocated to the available free school fund.

Charles E. Simmos, executive vice president of the Texas Good Roads Association, pointed out that the Texas Safety Association, Texas Farm Bureau, State Board of Education and 30 other state organizations have adopted resolutions strongly endorsing the amendment.

Chief purpose of this proposal, it was emphasized, is to assure the ultimate construction of rural mail and school bus routes, and all-weather farm-to-market roads. It will also insure government, maintenance and policing of all roads and urban trafficways.

RETAILERS AND THE BLACK MARKET

The head of a large retail trade association recently wrote Paul Porter, the present OPA administrator, pledging unqualified cooperation in controlling prices. One sentence in the letter said: "Now that the Congress has spoken, the job of all of us is to join in carrying out the law."

That has been the attitude of the vast majority of established retailers, chain and independent, since price control began. A great many of these retailers differs with provisions of the law and policies laid down by OPA. But, once the law goes on the books, they do everything possible to make it work.

All the talk about black markets has tended to cast an unjustified shadow over the retail industry. It is true that an enormous volume of goods moved through black market channels—and will continue to do so until supply catches up with demand. It is also true that a very small percentage of established retail stores were ever involved in the black market tie-up. The majority of these stores sold what goods they had at legal prices—and when they couldn't get new supplies they found substitutes or left their shelves bare.

The fine record made by retailers, now and in the past, must not be obscured by the unsavory activities of the few racketeers. Your typical store isn't out to exploit the consumer.

A farmer, after imbibing a prodigious quantity of moonshine whisky, attempted to blow out a candle, whereupon his alcohol-saturated breath burst into flame. Shaken by the experience, the man begged his wife to bring him the family Bible, muttering, "I gotta swear off." Placing his hand upon it, the farmer intoned: "Before heaven, I swear that never again will I blow on a lighted candle."

FIRE THREATENS YOU

As part of its intensified fire prevention efforts in 1946—an intensification made necessary by the fact that fire loss is now at record levels—the National Board of Fire Underwriters is distributing an enormous number of pamphlets and posters pointing to the menace of fire, and showing ways in which fire can be prevented.

These publications go to fire insurance agents, adjusters, fire chiefs, fire prevention organizations, parent-teachers clubs and similar groups and are displayed and redistributed through them. Every American, unless he is a hermit in the hills, will have a chance to read them. And every American, if he is to do his part to control a destroyer which takes 10,000 lives a year, should give them his strict attention.

This year, Fire Prevention Week, which has been an annual event since it was first initiated by President Wilson, is to be observed from October 6 to 12. During the week everything humanly possible will be done to dramatize the vital cause of fire prevention. But a week of such work isn't enough—it's only a starting point. The experts can show you the dangers and the means of ridding your home and business of them. Then it's up to you. Make Fire Prevention Week your own. Make it your week fire prevention week so far as your property is concerned.

Farm Prices Drop In August

College Station—Prices received by Texas farmers and ranchers for a number of products dropped during the month ending August 15.

According to a report from the Bureau of Agriculture Economics in Austin, received by the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service, this decline in prices offset to some extent the general farm price advances recorded in July. The report showed slight to sharp drops in prices received for grains, peanuts, milk cows, chickens and all meat animals except hogs. The most significant declines were in prices of corn, grain sorghum, beef cattle, calves, sheep and lambs.

Sharp advances continue on cotton, cotton seed and hogs. Cotton at 33.6 cents per pound was the highest since July 1920, but was still 2.6 cents per pound below the peak of 36.2 cents reached in March, 1920. During the month, hog prices were at a record high of $20.30 per hundred pounds. The previous record was $18.60 in August 1919.

Only slightly higher prices were received by farmers during the month for turkeys, dairy products and alfalfa hay. Other farm prices did not change significantly during the period.

AA FARM NEWS

(This is the fifteenth of twenty-two articles that will appear in this newspaper on the need for soil conservation, the amount of soil conservation being carried out, crop insurance, commodity loans, marketing quotas, and other programs of interest to farmers.)

Production Payments
Production payments, made with Commodity Credit Corporation funds and handled in the field by county AA commodities, made a substantial contribution to dairy and meat production. Payments were especially helpful in boosting dairy production to an all-time high. It is to be early to appraise the effects of beef, sheep, and lamb payments, which did not begin until midsummer.

The payments were designed to increase production by helping producers to meet higher operating costs without raising the consumer price of their products.

Dairy Payments
After setting a record of 119.2

billion pounds in 1942, milk production fell off in 1943 largely because of rising production costs. In October 1943, war food administration authorized dairy production payments to eligible producers. Since then milk production has soared. For July 1945, production was 7 per cent over that of a year earlier and 19 per cent above average.

As of August 1, 1945, county AAA offices had written about 18 million payment drafts to some 2 million dairy farmers since the program started. The drafts covered sales of 106 billion pounds of milk and 1,225 million pounds of butterfat.

Beef production payments were authorized in May, 1945. Payments did not begin until July because time was required to set up the program and get instructions and application forms to county AAA offices. As of September 1, payments had been made to producers on over a million head of beef cattle.

While cattle slaughter set a record during the first half of 1945, more beef was needed to offset a sharp drop in hog slaughter.

Sheep and Lamb Payments
Payments on sheep and lambs sold for slaughter after August 4 were begun in September. Record sheep and lamb slaughter during the war seriously reduced sheep and lamb numbers. Raising the lamb and mutton supply by feeding lambs to heavier weights is one of the aims of the program.

RESULTS WITH 2,4-D

After a series of experiments with the weed-killer 2,4-D, Cass County Agricultural Agent E. M. Trew, Jr., reports that the chemical has totally killed common thistle and bull nettle, roots and all.

Several other shrub species also seem to be dead and decaying after a treatment of 2,4-D, Trew says, but permission and pin oak are re-sprouting. The county agent believes that the treatment date, July 17 was too late for best results.

Take a Closer Look at SEED

Here is the germ of a red clover seed sending out a soil-anchoring rootlet which in a short time will have the power to fix nitrogen from the air. Simultaneously, it will improve soil fertility, grow a high-protein crop for livestock and pass on to humans the healthful carotene and vitamins of milk, butter, eggs and meat.

The world needs more of such crops. The price per bushel is excellent for almost every kind of legume and grass seed, soybeans and vegetable seeds. It will pay you well to set aside several acres this fall and arrange for a nearby All-Crop Harvester to save every possible bushel.

The All-Crop Harvester is recognized for its ability to cut close and glean low-hanging pods. Its wide, rubber-cushioned bar cylinder protects the delicate germ and minimizes crackage.

The All-Crop Harvester makes it possible to harvest over 100 seeds which can end human suffering from malnutrition and bring new prosperity to farms everywhere.

SET YOUR SIGHTS

It takes planning to achieve a goal

Some young men know what they want and plan for it. Others are still looking for their niche. The new Regular Army can help both.

Perhaps you want to go to college but can't afford it. If you enlist in the Army, you'll get your chance. Honorably discharged after a three-year enlistment, you are eligible for 48 months of education at any college, trade, or business school for which you can qualify. The Government will pay your tuition, laboratory fees, etc., up to $500 per ordinary school year, plus $65 a month living allowance—$90 a month if you have dependents.

If you haven't found your spot, an Army enlistment offers you training in any of 200 trades and skills. You leave the service eligible for further training at the best civilian schools.

You can assure yourself of the benefits of the GI Bill of Rights if you enter the Army on or before October 5, 1946. See your nearest Army Recruiting Station for details.

HIGHLIGHTS OF REGULAR ARMY ENLISTMENT

1. Enlistments for 1½, 2 or 3 years. (1-year enlistments permitted for men now in the Army with 6 or more months of service.)
2. Enlistment age from 18 to 34 years inclusive (17 with parents' consent) except for men now in Army, who may reenlist at any age, and former service men depending on length of service.
3. A reenlistment bonus of $50 for each year of active service since such bonus was last paid, or since last entry into service, provided reenlistment is within 3 months after last honorable discharge.
4. A furlough for men who reenlist within 20 days. Full details of other furlough privileges can be obtained from Recruiting Officers.
5. Mustering-out pay (based upon length of service) to all men who are discharged to enlist or reenlist.
6. Option to retire at half pay for the rest of your life after 20 years' service—increasing to three-quarters pay after 30 years' service. All previous active federal military service counts toward retirement.
7. Choice of branch of service and overseas theater (of those still open) on 3-year enlistments.

Stronger Body Helps This New Tire OUTWEAR PREWAR TIRES

See Us for this Extra-Safe, Extra-Trouble-Free, Extra-Mileage Tire

No sensible driver would deliberately run his tires over a rock like the one in the picture. But sometimes it can't be helped . . . and that's when you will be glad if you have new B.F. Goodrich passenger car tires. Built with more and stronger cords, the tire body is better engineered and 35% stronger than in wartime tires. This extra strength was needed to carry the wider, flatter tread. But in building this stronger body to hold the more durable tread, B.F. Goodrich engineers built into it greater resistance to "road shock."

Of course, supplies of tires are still limited. In spite of greatly increased production, demand is even greater. This is especially true of the B.F. Goodrich tire that OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES. Please check your needs well in advance. Talk to us. We'll do our best to keep your car rolling until we can get new tires for you.

Your Electric Meter

Only difference between an automobile speedometer and an electric METER is the unit of the measuring scale—miles or kilowatts.

Suppose you leave on an extended vacation this year. Naturally you put down your speedometer reading and when you return, by subtracting original reading from present, you have total distance traveled. Wouldn't be much fun to make extensive car trip and not know how far you had been.

Same way with electric speedometer—as above reading shows, Reddy has traveled 5,876 kilowatts, and if at the end of next month, meter reads 5,996, Reddy will have traveled 120 kilowatts. Simple, isn't it?

It's fun to keep record of Reddy's monthly trips, and realize that regardless of how constant and how fast he has traveled, and his great distance covered, his cost is amazingly small.

Number 13 Lucky For Tires, Explains Goodrich Dealer

The much-abused "13" is the luckiest number in the book for the automobile tire, according to N. A. Chastain, manager of the Munday Truck and Tractor Co., local Goodrich dealers.

"Thirteen per cent is the ideal percentage of deflection in a tire," Mr. Chastain explained. "That is," he added, "there is that much 'give' in a tire when it is properly inflated."

Chastain pointed out that while it is hardly convenient for a motorist to measure the deflection of his tires, he can easily gauge a tire's air pressure and keep it at the point recommended by the tire manufacturer. Keeping tires at the recommended pressure, he said, "not only insures riding comfort, but is by far the greatest single aid to getting maximum service life out of them."

Describing under-inflation and over-inflation as "the two deadliest enemies of tire life," Chastain asserted that "these twin evils cost the American driver public hundreds of thousands of dollars annually, and this is particularly serious at a time when the present record-breaking tire production is overshadowed by the demand and there still are enough tires to go around."

"Right now," he said, "there is an 'epidemic' of over-inflation. Tire servicemen all over the country have noticed it. It seems to be a holdover from the war years when it was possible to replace tires and some drivers, mistakenly, thought they were being a little kinder to their tires by giving them a little extra pressure. It is to be hoped that this 'epidemic' will be over before we are fully embarked upon the new era of higher speed that will come with improved postwar autos."

Keeping tires at recommended pressure involves knowing what pressure the manufacturers recommend for your tires and checking tires frequently and regularly to be sure they have the right amount of air, Chastain said, adding that at B. F. Goodrich store attendant will look up the pressure recommended for drivers on request.

Hubam Clover Good Cash Crop; Soil Building

At least one Milam County farmer is sold on the idea that hubam clover is the best cash and soil building crop that can be grown in the blackland areas of Texas.

He is Carl Black of Cameron, and he's also Sheriff of Milam County. In the Jones Prairies community, Black owns what is reported to be "an old, eroded farm" On a 50-acre field that had not been cultivated for two years he seeded Hubam clover last October at the rate of 20 pounds an acre. What he really had in mind was strictly a grazing program and during most of the year, 83 sheep and goats and 15 head of horses and mules grazed the clover. In addition, 20 head of cattle and 50 goats grazed the field at frequent periods.

Although most of the clover was naturally kept down by this continual grazing, in the spring about ten acres of the crop "grew so rapidly that it made seed." It did make seed—7700 pounds of it—an average of over 700 pounds an acre, a yield that was made on the "very poorest type of eroded land—land that would not bring $20 per acre on the market."

Milam County Agricultural Agent J. W. Stoffelbeme reports

Veterans' News

Contracts with the Louisiana and Texas state medical societies to provide home-town medical care for veterans with service-connected disabilities are in the final stages of negotiation, the Veterans Administration revealed this week.

At the same time, VA, through its Central Office in Washington, D. C., is seeking contracts with state hospital associations in the Southwest on a standard schedule utilizing more private hospitals for veterans with service-connected ailments.

Signing of these contracts will enable eligible veterans to get good medical care in their own communities and in many instances will eliminate the necessity of making long trips to VA hospitals for treatment.

More than $7,000 worth of movie equipment especially designed for bed-ridden patients, has been donated to Veterans Administration hospitals in Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi by the Texas Variety Club.

The organization, made up of Texans in the entertainment industry, raised the funds and purchased the equipment so that veterans confined to their beds by war injuries or sickness would be assured of entertainment at all times.

The Variety Club's gift included 22 light and portable projectors with prismatic lenses to throw movies on the ceiling or an overhead screen. Each projector is equipped with the headphone sets which enable selected patients to listen to the movie dialogue without disturbing others in the ward.

Institutions of higher education in Texas, Louisiana, and Mississippi are expecting a record enrollment of about 133,000 students this fall, according to preliminary reports reaching VA. Former service men and women are enrolling in tremendous numbers, these reports indicated.

Question and Answers

Q. How can I arrange to have my National Service Life Insurance premiums deducted from the disability compensation checks I receive from Veterans Administration?

A. You can do this if you will go to any Veterans Administration office and fill out a form authorizing VA to make the deductions from your compensation payments.

Q. I have been turned down by a lending institution for a G. I. guaranteed loan to buy a business. Does this mean that I can't get a G. I. guaranteed loan to go into business?

A. No. If one lender turns you down several farmers in that area have had similar results with this clover, bearing out the opinion of specialists of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service that hubam clover is the best cash and soil building legume for the blacklands of Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Hertel and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Followwell were business visitors in Wichita Falls last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Showkier and son of Washington, D. C., Mrs. George Salem and Mrs. Sied Waheed visited in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Ameen and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Silman in Lubbock over the week end.

Wendell Partridge, a student in N.T.A.C. at Arlington, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Partridge.

down, try another one. The fact that one lender is not interested does not indicate that your proposition is not sound.

Q. Before the G. I. Bill was amended, I used up my whole guarantee of $2,000 to buy a farm. Now that the maximum guarantee has been increased to $4,000, would I be entitled to an additional $2,000 loan-guarantee if I wish to purchase more and?

A. Yes. If you used part of all of your loan guarantee before the Servicemen's Readjustment Act (G. I. Bill) was amended last winter, the amount of loan-guarantee credit used is deducted from the amount for which you are eligible under the amended bill, and the remainder is the amount of guaranteed credit which you may use in obtaining future loans.

Q. Can I change the beneficiary or beneficiaries of my National Service Life Insurance without letting the beneficiaries know anything about it?

A. Yes. A veteran may change the beneficiary or beneficiaries of his National Service Life Insurance at any time without their knowledge or consent by notifying Veterans Administration. For further information, the veteran should consult the nearest VA office.

More Funds Made Available For Conservation Practices In County

Farmers that wish to carry out additional conservation practices in 1946 will be interested to know that additional funds for payments of practices have been received by the Knox County ACA, according to a statement made by Mr. Doyle J. Thomas, Secretary.

The amount of money received is $10,000.00 and it is believed that this amount will just about keep the terracing, tanking, mesquite elimination, and deep plowing practices going until 1947.

"Farmers that intend to carry out one of the above practices are reminded that an approval must be issued from the ACA office before the practice is started if payment is made," Mr. Thomas stated.

Texas Farmers Need To Step Up Terracing Program

In most sections of Texas, terracing is the most needed soil conservation practice in preventing soil and conserving moisture. In a report recently released by the State Office of the Production and Marketing Administration at College Station, Texas, it was revealed that at the rate terraces are being constructed at the present time, it will take over 50 years to meet the terracing needs on Texas farms. By that time much of the top soil will have been completely washed away and the land will not be suitable for further production purposes.

During the 1945 crop year, 5,427 Texas farmers constructed more than 18 million feet of terraces for which assistance was furnished through the ACP program. These figures indicate that approximately 400,000 acres of land was protected by terraces constructed during this year. Although this appears to be a considerable amount of acreage to be protected during one crop year, when we consider that we have in Texas 20 million acres that needs protection with terraces, it is evident that the terracing program must be materially stepped up. Top soil once lost cannot be replaced except over a long period of time and at great expense. We must protect it while we have it.

Congress has recognized this very serious problem and has made funds available to assist farmers in the nation-wide program. This assistance will pay approximately 80 per cent of the cost of constructing terraces. Every encouragement should be given farmers to accept this assistance and protect their top soil at the earliest possible time. Every citizen depends on our soil for food and if we continue to let the top soils go into the rivers, in the course of a few years food may become a very serious problem.

"Records in the ACA office at Benjamin show that approximately 1,434,017 feet of terraces have been constructed so far this year. Since additional money has been received for payments on terraces, it is believed that many more miles will be constructed before the end of the year," Mr. Emmett Partridge, chairman of the Knox County ACA committee said.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Dr. Geo. W. Cox
M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

Austin.—Contrary to the popular belief that pyorrhea is incurable, this is only true in the most advanced cases. Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, advises those persons who even suspect the presence of pyorrhea to take time by the forelock and seek an early diagnosis from their dentist so that proper treatment can be instituted while the disease is still curable.

"Early detection and proper treatment of pyorrhea represent the formula for a successful cure. This means that the dentist must have an opportunity to discover the presence of the disease at the earliest possible moment since the symptoms are often so vague that the patient is unaware of its existence," Dr. Cox said. "Regular visits to the family dentist are therefore extremely important."

The treatment of pyorrhea is not an involved procedure. In the average case one of the main therapeutic features is the proper hygienic care of teeth and gums as outlined by any reputable dentist. Carelessness regarding mouth hygiene is usually the basic cause for the condition.

The family dentist can usually remove the cause of the trouble, Dr. Cox said, and when this has been done, intelligent routine home-care of the mouth by the patient will effect a cure in the majority of early cases.

Concern regarding pyorrhea should not be based upon the misguided notion of its incurability, according to the State Health Officer, but rather that it be discovered by the dentist when still in a curable stage.

Russell Brown Speaker For Gas Victory Meeting

Houston. —Russell B. Brown, the Independent Petroleum Association of America, will be a featured speaker at the Victory Meeting of the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association Oct. 17 and 18 in Houston, President Fred W. Shield of the Texas Mid-Continent announced today.

Mr. Brown will address the opening convention session Thursday morning, Oct. 17, on "A National Oil Policy," discussing the important place of the petroleum industry in re-establishment of national peacetime activities.

RUSSELL R. BROWN

"Mr. Brown is one of the best-informed leaders in our industry Mr. Shield said. "His long representation in Washington of the Independent Petroleum Association and his familiarity with all phases of the industry's operations make him particularly fitted to discuss this subject."

The 1946 meeting of the Texas Mid-Continent, to be held at the Rice Hotel, will be the first general gathering of the state's oil and gas operators since 1943.

Cotton Picker Camps Compete October 3rd

The 1946 world's champion cotton picker will be selected October 3 at Blytheville, Ark., where 200 persons are expected to enter the seventh annual National Cotton Picking Contest.

Prizes totaling $2500 are being offered going to the picker who turns out, in two hours, the "most cleanest" cotton. The Blytheville Junior Chamber of Commerce, sponsoring the contest, is emphasizing quality picking more than ever this year, to impress on farmers the necessity for improving the grade of cotton taken to the gin.

'ANYBODY, ANYWHERE'

The open contest welcomes the entry of "anybody, from anywhere" to compete for the thousand-dollar grand prize. In addition a competition for women may also enter the open contest. A "Clothing Maid" contest, featuring the conversion of cotton bags into wearables, will be a sidelight of the picking contest.

The contest will begin at 10 a. m. and will be held on the farm of Ross D. Hughes, prominent planter of Mississippi County, the greatest cotton-producing county in the nation.

Each contestant must pay a $10 entry fee. The awards, in addition to the first prize, will be distributed as follows: Open Contest, second prize, $250; third prize, $100, five $50 prizes, sixteen $25 prizes. Women's Contest, first prize, $250; second prize, $100; third prize, $50; four $25 prizes.

Seven thousand spectators are expected. President Truman and a long list of other prominent people will be invited.

Silica Coating Makes Stronger Cotton Yarn

Two Scientists Investigate Application of 'Syton' To Improve Yarns

Cotton scientists in their search for ways to make cotton stronger, have discovered that the commonest element on earth may be the very one they are looking for.

The National Cotton Council has released the results of a survey made by two researchers on the application of silica, commonest component of the earth's crust to the tiny fibers of cotton, to give it greater strength when made into yarn.

Friction Increased

Cotton fibers in themselves are wonderfully strong. Like all fibers though, they slip along each other somewhat in yarn or thread. Ultimately they lose their grip on each other, and the yarn or the thread pulls into.

Science has discovered that coating the cotton fibers with microscopic particles of silica, suspended in a liquid, gives them greater strength to hold together. The silica suspension is called "syton," a product known to scientists as a "high polymer." The "syton" is applied to the fibers in an intermediate step prior to spinning the yarn.

The two scientists, Simon Williams and Edward A. Murray, who conducted the exhaustive test at Council laboratories in Texas, reported to the WPH that not only did the syton make cotton of a given grade stronger, but that it made cotton fibers of a given grade stronger than untreated cotton of the next higher grade!

Makes Better Fabric

Fabrics stronger than those made from comparable untreated cotton results from the weaving of the "sytonized" yarn, although the increased yarn strength is not completely translated into fabric strength, the investigators said the syton treatment diminishes to a certain degree with laundering, but "sytonized" fabric maintains, even so, a higher strength after laundering than does an untreated fabric, they asserted.

In the making of cotton bags from "sytonized" material the researchers discovered that the new process made tiny cotton fibers grip each other so tightly that raw edged seams could be made in the sacks without fear of having them pull loose.

If world production prospects continue favorable, an increased total output this year should more than make up for the reduction in food reserves.

HAS OPERATION

Mrs. Jo Mae Davis was taken to the Knox County hospital where she submitted to an appendectomy last Saturday morning. Latest reports from the hospital are to the effect that she is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Lansford, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. King, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. King and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Graham were in Wichita Falls on Wednesday to hear Johnnie Lee Wills and his Playboys in a musical program. Mr. Wills is a nephew of Mrs. Lansford, and her son, Caz Lansford, plays with the Playboys.

Going Fishing? Here's How!

To hear Willie Wells and Basil Strube arguing about trout fishing, you'd think it was more important than the atom bomb.

Willie favors dry flies, Basil pool-pooches anything but wet flies. Willie swears by a Royal Coachman; Basil won't hear of anything but a Silver Doctor. And by the time it comes to steel rods versus bamboo rods... #!X&*!?!!

But on Saturday, each got back from Seward's creek with a catch that couldn't have differed by more than several ounces!

Each had used his favorite kind of fly, his favorite rod and his favorite place to cast. So over a friendly glass of beer, they allowed as how maybe they were both right... which is how so many arguments should end.

From where I sit, if we all respected one another's different opinions—whether about trout flies, or drinking beer, or voting, life would be a whole lot pleasanter.
