Knox County PAC Members In Meeting Here

The Knox county Production Credit advisory committee held its first meeting of 1947 in the Munday PAC office on Saturday, January 11. Clyde Nelson, chairman, presided.

C. R. Elliott, local PAC representative, praised the advisory committee members for their work during the past year, and plans for 1947 were discussed.

J. L. Hill, Jr., secretary-treasurer of the Stamford PAC, gave an interesting report of the financial condition and of the gain in members and volume of loans for 1946. Mr. Hill also made mention of the fact that the Munday office had made agricultural and livestock loans to 34 returning World War II veterans during 1946.

Plans and policies of the association in making loans for 1947 were discussed, and all agreed that much caution should be observed, due to the present high prices of livestock and agricultural commodities.

C. C. Browning of Truscott, a charter member and past director of the association, made an interesting talk, telling of the events at the time the association was organized in 1934. Mr. Browning is proud of the association and the growth it has shown, starting in 1934 with just a few members and now having a membership of more than 1,600 and a cash reserve at this time of more than $105,000.

Several businessmen of Munday attended the meeting, and some of them made brief but interesting talks.

Refreshments of doughnuts and coffee were served to members and visitors, after which the meeting adjourned to meet again early in March.

Rev. Vernon Henderson, Methodist pastor; B. B. Campbell, R. M. Almanrode and Claude Reid, county director, were among the group. Rev. Henderson made a very interesting talk regarding the drive.

Farm To Market Road Program In Texas Advanced

The Texas Highway Department is further advanced on its farm-to-market road program than any other highway department in the United States according to Tom K. Eplon, president of the Texas Good Roads Association. This statement is based upon a report just released by Thomas H. McDonald of the Public Roads Administration in which Texas is listed in the top three highway departments in number of contracts awarded and the total number of miles involved in these contracts.

On total miles under contract Texas led all other states according to Mr. Eplon. Pennsylvania ranked first with 1,117 highway projects under contract between Jan. 1 and Dec. 28, 1946. These projects comprised 1,715 miles of road construction costing $57,700,000. California awarded contracts for 344 projects on 1,025 miles of highway at a cost of $53,700,000. Texas let contracts for 685 projects costing $52,500,000 on 4,650 miles of roadway.

"A large portion of the mileage placed under contract in Texas," Commissioner MacDonald said, "was for improvements on secondary or farm-to-market roads."

The three-year program on federal aid secondary road system in Texas contemplates the expenditure of $60,000,000 for these much needed roads. The total sum of the contracts executed last year in addition to state highways provided for the construction of 2,073 miles of farm-to-market roads under this federal aid program.

President Eplon expressed himself as being gratified over the fine record that had been achieved in the adoption of this program.

Paul A. Jones Heads Separation Center; Turns Out 90 Civies Daily

Field-Suisun—On Oct. 14 a separation center was activated at Fairfield-Suisun Army Air Base which consisted of two officers and a total of 15 enlisted men. Headed by Lt. Col. Paul A. Jones, this inexperienced few soon set a record for being a completely efficient crew.

At a tally on Sunday, Nov. 24 it was recorded that the separation center with its new enlarged staff numbering 10 officers and 55 enlisted men had turned out a total of 607 officers and 607 enlisted men since its activation.

Processing for a potential discharge consists of a series of interviews to aid him in finding employment, a complete medical examination, clothing inspection, and the payment of mustering and travel pay in addition to the actual paper work.

An all-time high was reached on Nov. 15 when a grand total of 109 men were made ready to become civilians on that day. To date they are averaging 90 men daily, processed for discharge in comparison to the normal 60, set as the minimum number to be turned out. One emergency case was even processed in two hours. Normal processing takes approximately four days.

Late last week, the thousandth man was processed through the ever growing separation point. He was S-Sgt. Robert E. Nemecek, of Berwyn, Ill., a draftee with 23 months service to his credit, 16 of which was spent on Leyte in the Philippines. Sgt. Nemecek stated before he headed for home that he was processed with "a minimum of inconvenience."

Mrs. Elmer Dickerson underwent a major operation at the Knox county hospital last Saturday. Latest reports from the hospital are to the effect that she is getting along nicely.

NOTICES SENT TO SUBSCRIBERS IN ARREARS

Cards were mailed the first of this week to most subscribers in Knox county who have allowed their subscription to the Munday Times to become delinquent. It is the hope of the publisher that all will answer promptly and have their expiration date set up another year.

Our mailing list will be revised soon, and all whose subscription has expired will be taken from the list. The shortage of newsprint remains critical—the Times must get by this year on 10 per cent less than last year—and this action is imperative upon our part. However, we do not want to cut anyone off who wants the Times to continue coming to them.

If you submit your renewal by mail, please remember to send more money than heretofore. The Times was forced to advance subscription rates on January 1, 1947, to $2.00 in Knox county and $2.50 beyond the 50-mile limit.

Your promptness in renewing your subscription will be greatly appreciated.

The statement by the campaign director said:

"The March of Dimes is our living memorial to a great American humanitarian, Franklin D. Roosevelt. Stricken by infantile paralysis in the prime of life his indomitable courage in overcoming his late Mr. Roosevelt would have preferred the American people to commemorate him in a living institution like the March of Dimes, dedicated to alleviation of human suffering, rather than in monuments of stone or bronze.

"So that his own inspiration affictions made him a symbol to thousands similarly affected.

"Through his own sufferings his great spirit flamed with a love for all humanity. His personal fight to surmount his physical handicap caused by this cruel disease encouraged and gave hope not only to those like himself but to the people of the entire nation.

"To Americans who believe in could be kept alive and handed on to polio sufferers in the nation Franklin D. Roosevelt founded the National Foundation for infantile Paralysis to carry on to victory the fight against the disease.

"During his life he infused this crusade with his own unconquerable resolution and handed on the torch of his magnificent faith to the people of the nation. More than anything else he wished to see the elimination of this disease which has left a legacy of human wreckage in its trail down through the ages.

"To Americans who believe in things of the spirit more than purely material things, he bequeathed this great living memorial to carry on what was dearest to his own great heart. It would be his desire that we commemorate him not in monuments of stone and bronze but rather enshrine in a living institution dedicated to the alleviation of human suffering.

"In giving to the March of Dimes we are carrying out a duty we owe to a great man, a great humanitarian and a great American."

All-Star Cagers In Winning Streak; Take Four Games

Munday's recently organized all-star basket ball team has been in the winning column for every game thus far. The team is showing good progress under the coaching of Don L. Ratliff and Clyde Latham.

Some of the boys are developing into outstanding players, and prospects are that they "take everyone" as they come. All games scheduled thus far have been played, and "sidewalk" advertising will tell local fans of future games. The team is receiving fairly good support.

The all-stars downed Knox City last Thursday night at Munday, 38-36. On Friday night they defeated Rule, Monday night, Knox City again came to Munday and took a beating to the tune of 38-23. Tuesday night the locals journeyed to Haskell and won another game, 20-9.

"What a Man Does For Himself Dies With Him—
What He Does For His Community Lives On and On."

A SHAMEFUL FIRE RECORD

The year which has ended was the worst in our history in the matter of loss of life and property by fire. When the final figures are tabulated, the total waste will probably touch $600,000,000—and the destruction of life will approach 11,000.

There can be no alibi for this. It is too late for excuses. What we can do is to affirm that 1947 will tell a different story when the year closes.

Our first realization, as individuals, must be that almost all fires are the result of the human element. A man is careless, a man is ignorant when destructive fire strikes. The fire which could not be prevented is extremely rare.

We must understand, secondly, that the prevention of most fires is the simplest of tasks. A new lamp cord, a clean attic, a minor repair to a heating plant, a fire extinguisher or fire escape—such attentions as these would have prevented a very large part of last year's terrible loss of life and materials. This comes straight home to the individual, and no one can escape his share of the responsibility.

Third, there is obvious need for education of the individual in what to do if he is in a building attacked by fire. Ignorance in this field was the cause of many of the deaths in the recent hotel disasters. In Atlanta, men and women jumped to destruction from window ledges—in the face of pleas by firemen who were preparing nets and ladders. In both Chicago and Atlanta, people threw open doors and windows thus creating drafts that simply fanned the flames.

All of us should feel shame at 1946's terrible fire record. And all of us should resolve that it will be improved in 1947.

MANDATE TO CONGRESS

In the days following the abrupt termination of the coal strike, practically every newspaper and columnist in the country had something to say about that struggle. There was unprecedented unanimity of opinion that the coal miner's arrogant, public-be-damned leadership had been roundly defeated, and that Congress must take immediate action to curb labor excesses.

This point of view was shared by papers of all political and economic views, published in every section of the nation. The Chicago Tribune said, "The people expect their new Congress to write new laws." The Kansas City Times said, "This nation cannot trust its security to domineering individuals." The New Orleans Times-Picayune said, "Public necessity requires there must be no recurrence of strikes against the Nation's safety." The New York Herald Tribune said, "Revision of the Wagner Act is indicated, also legislation to make unions amenable within reason to the antitrust laws and subject to suit as legal entities for breach of contract." The extreme left-wing New York Daily Worker urged miners to "take hold of their union and reinstitute a democratic control in it."

So it went, throughout the land. This was the voice of the American press, speaking on behalf of an angry and outraged people. It was not, for the most part, a punitive voice, paramount to all other interests. It did state that no man, no group of men, is above the law. Those are the truths that must be reflected in coming labor legislation.

THE HELPING HAND OF AMERICA

The responsibilities that came to the United States are results of victory in the war are not fully known to the American people. The history-making events that are taking place in Europe and the Far East naturally reach the headlines—but many another important job is being accomplished in obscurity.

An example of this is found in the Pacific islands. The Marshall group, which is typical, belonged to Germany until 1914. Then Japan, as our allies in World War I, seized the islands, and her authority was legalized by a League of Nations mandate in 1922. Japan held the islands, using many of them as naval and air bases, until we freed them near the close of World War II.

Thus, purely as a consequence of war, the problems of thousands of natives living on scores of islands became our problems. And it is pleasant to report that the United States Navy, which is the administrative agency, is taking these problems very seriously.

The Navy is training officers in the arts of military government. It is making aggressive efforts to reestablish a system of adequate education. It is paying particular attention to health and sanitation. It is attempting to revitalize what little industry and commerce the islands are capable of maintaining. Its purpose, in sum, is to assist the inhabitants to stand on their own feet.

This is no simple task. An immense amount of work is being done by the Navy. Thus, the hand of America reaches out to tiny islands whose very names unknown to all but a few persons.

HOW LONG WILL THE EGGS LAST?

One of the immediate questions of the time is just how far labor can go in its program of more money for less work and still can boost wages by around solvent industry to provide the jobs.

The CIO claims that industry can boost wages by around $6,000,000,000 a year without raising prices, a statement which recent wage-price trends completely contradict. On top of such demands for increased wages, it is estimated that labor may now sue industry for as much as $6,000,000,000 in back pay for time spent in getting to work. This "portal-to-portal" pay is an indirect means of raising wages with no increase whatever in worker productivity—paying men for inactive hours. In other words labor costs are again skyrocketing.

Industry and the consumer look like a plump goose—but labor may wake up one morning and find the goose is no longer able to provide the golden eggs that mean employment.

Washington News Letter

By Congressman Ed Gossett

Washington, D. C.—The main events in Washington this week have been the President's messages to the Congress; first his State of the Union on Monday and then his budget message on Wednesday. The President's speech on the State of the Union was generally well received by both Democrats and Republicans. No persons, of course, could agree fully with any thirty minute discourse covering the major problems of the country. The President's call for legislation to solve serious labor-management problems will likely be acted on shortly. However, his request for a commission to study this problem will probably not be followed. Most members felt that a commission for the study of the industry-labor controversy would simply delay badly needed action. A half dozen committees of Congress have given serious study to this question during the last several years and most members understand the issues. In other words, the time for study has passed and the time for action has come. On January 14 the Supreme Court will hear the case of John L. Lewis and the UMW. Unless the Court or the Congress does something to discourage him, John L. Lewis will call another coal strike on March 31.

Another feature of the President's message with which most members of Congress disagree is his demand that we admit more refugees to our country. I for one have been active in trying to tighten immigration barriers and will certainly oppose lowering them. Under our immigration quota 154,000 aliens per year can enter this country. Since the war we not only have been admitting thousands of aliens but we have spent or obligated ourselves to spend almost $20 Billion in foreign rehabilitation and relief. South America is seeking seven million immigrants within the next ten years; France is now seeking three million immigrants. There are many places for immigrants and displaced persons to go aside from coming to America. Of course our country was founded by immigrants. In 1920 every third person in America was of foreign birth or had one parent born abroad. In the old days we needed immigrants. That need no longer exists. For the first time in history we have a grave national emergency in housing. Until we have housing and jobs for all returning veterans we certainly do not need immigrants. In 1940, 1047 newspapers in this country were published in 38 foreign languages and read by more than ten million persons. A first generation America cannot be as devoted to American ideals and institutions as a third generation America. America has a larger percentage of aliens within her borders than any other nation on earth. Before we admit additional large groups of refugees we should be sure that the melting pot has melted.

The President's appointment of General Marshall to become Secretary of State was met generally with loud acclaim in Washington. Perhaps no other individual could have been named whom the Senate would have confirmed unanimously within an hour's time. General Marshall is one of the most able and conscientious men ever to serve our country. He did a great job as Chief of Staff during the war and on the whole was the most popular public official in Wash-

Looking Ahead

PLAIN LOGIC and clear-thinking are two delegates who should always register at all management and labor conventions. They should be ever present in all councils of patriotic groups. Neither our business nor our labor leaders must be responsible for a lock-out of truth and of the dignity belonging to facts and figures. Inasmuch as plain Americans can reason, just so will they see any inadequacies of thought demonstrated by any leaders.

Most of American labor was pleased, I believe, when the CIO adopted a resolution recently condemning Communist influence in its ranks. I suspect the rank and file back home gave this action a round of genuine applause. And aside from the intra-union politics which prompted the resolution, regardless of the doubtful political tinge of the men who drafted it, my belief is that the CIO unions are taking a step in the right direction.

AT ANY RATE, these unions have put down on the record their resentment and rejection of efforts of the Communists and "other political parties" to interfere with their affairs. Communists, they seem to imply, are just another political party, but let us not forget what ideology is followed by the Communist line, whether in a party by that name or in other parties. There's nothing American about their ideology nor their long-range aims.

It would seem the time has come for our two major political parties to do more than merely disown the Communists who have infiltrated their own ranks and the ranks of labor. Moreover, it might be a good time for the two major parties and for our leaders of labor to say that political action groups have no business interfering with the affairs of political parties.

A PROMINENT labor personality recently set down the profits of industry for 1946 as $15,000,000,000, after taxes, and added that this represents a greater threat to the nation than does Communism. Whatever industry's earnings will be for 1946, the figures will not be high enough. The poor showing in the first nine months of the year, as seen in the stalled output of the automobile industry and in the failure of many industries to make any profit at all, will not make large sums available for higher wages.

Poor industrial earnings will not permit management to set aside funds for expansion and for badly needed working capital. Neither will lagging production bring a prosperity level that will help pay our tremendous war debt. No production brings no profits and no wages.

Americans dislike to see any groups discredit the profit motive. We like each man's prerogative to make a profit, whether he belongs on the side of management and ownership, or whether he is a wage earner. It is elementary economics that wage earners do not experience increased wages under conditions where there is no production. Surely the rank and file of Americans know this. We cannot believe that any loyal Americans would like for industry to be constantly in the red. But we know that the Communists would.

Brandt Named Sales Supervisor For Gas Company

Appointment of Charles G. Brandt as Sales Supervisor for Lone Star Gas Company in this territory has been announced by M. L. Bird, superintendent of the company's West Texas division of distribution. Mr. Brandt succeeds Guy Custer who retired from active service with Lone Star on January 1.

With headquarters in the Mims Building in Abilene, Mr. Brandt will have supervision of company merchandising and new business activities in more than 70 towns. His principal activity will be to coordinate efforts of gas company employees to assist customers in obtaining maximum benefits from use of modern, improved gas equipment.

A native of Marion, Ohio, Mr. Brandt joined Lone Star in 1935 shortly after receiving his A. B. degree from the University of Michigan. He held various assignments with the company at Corsicana, Ennis, Marlin, Brownwood and Temple until 1940 when he was named manager at Sulphur, Oklahoma. He entered the Army in 1942 as first lieutenant, helped activate the 90th Infantry Division at Camp Berkeley, and served with it as staff officer throughout the European campaign. He was discharged with the rank of Major in April and returned to the company in Abilene as assistant to Mr. Custer.

Mr. Custer joined Lone Star in 1930, serving as assistant to the new business manager in Dallas until his appointment as West Texas division sales supervisor in 1939. He leaves active duty under the company's pension-retirement plan.

Mrs. R. L. Ratliff and daughter, Jean, and Mrs. Leland Hannah and daughter, Carolyn, were business visitors in Wichita Falls last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Amerson and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gaines were business visitors in Wichita Falls last Monday.

Frank Cerveny spent several days last week in Temple, where he attended a quarterly meeting of an insurance firm with which he is serving as a director for this area.

FIXING UP the HOME By Diane Greeter

How to Store Dry Foods

COFFEE or jam jars with screw tops and pint or quart mason jars make handy receptacles in which to store rice, cereals, spaghetti and other dry foods in cupboard and pantry space which could not otherwise be used.

Fasten the jar tops, with nails or screws, to a permanent position on the bottom of a wooden shelf. Then, when the jar has been filled, it can be screwed into place, hanging from the bottom of the shelf. Large jars can be placed at the back and a row of small jars for spices and condiments can make up a front row. You will find the foods stored in this way handy to get at and easy to keep in order.

The space under the jars can be used for dishes or for other packaged foods. This arrangement stretches the space in cupboards and pantries and puts everything in place so that it is unnecessary to lift one package from another when removing items from the shelves. If you have trouble identifying some of the items, such as salt and sugar, flour and baking powder, scissor off a part of the package label and put it along the glass at the bottom of the jar before filling.

This same arrangement can be employed under a shelf over your gas range for spices and condiments that are used often. The jars can be decorated if you wish with decalcomanias or stripes of colorful paint to match your kitchen decoration scheme.

DON'T SCRATCH!
Durham's Paracide Ointment is guaranteed to relieve itching accompanying Eczema, Rash, Piles, Ordinary Itch and other minor skin irritations—or purchase price refunded. Large 2-ounce jar only 50¢.

Veterans' News

The Veterans Administration is training many doctors in Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi in psychiatrists. Dr. Oscar E. Hubbard, chief of VA's Neuropsychiatric Division in the Dallas Branch Area, said.

About 4000 veterans are now in VA hospitals in the three states for treatment of neuropsychiatric troubles. It is anticipated that many thousands more will require treatment on an out-patient basis in the mental hygiene clinics VA is establishing in the Southwest.

William Bendix, the stage and screen star, is coming to the Southwest to visit patients in Veterans Administration hospitals. Roy E. Eury, VA's Special Services Director at Dallas, reports.

The actor is booked for visits to hospitals at Dallas, Amarillo, New Orleans, and Jackson, Mississippi. He will be in the Dallas Branch Area from January 19 through January 28.

Women veterans, who are entitled to the same medical care as male veterans, in addition may receive treatment for non-service-connected disabilities from private physicians and in civil hospitals, VA reports.

VA estimates the potential load of women war veterans in the United States at 350,000. As of November 30, VA had only 1,339 women patients.

Whipped By A Ghost?
NEW YORK — A widow reports to her doctor that her husband, from beyond the grave, has returned to beat her. Actual welts are shown, as posed by model above, on her back to support her claim. Science Illustrated, however, explains this is called ecchymosis, a discoloration of the skin caused by the blood being driven out of the veins or arteries into tissues. It is caused by hysteria — a mental disorder — but seems proof enough for many victims.

vice they receive from the Veterans Administration by taking extra care to identify themselves in their correspondence with that agency. Jefferson E. Kidd, Director of Contact and Administrative Services in the VA's branch office at Dallas, reports.

Kidd advised all veterans to give their full name and the identifying VA file number when writing to the VA about their insurance, pension claims or other GI benefits.

"If the veteran does not have his file number, he will get a more prompt reply from us if he gives his date of birth, his service serial number, his date of enlistment or discharge from the service or some information to help us identify his file," the VA official said. "There are more than 1,000 John Smiths in the VA files of this area, so you can see how important it is that we have a man's middle name and as much other information as possible to help us identify him."

Questions and Answers
Q. Can I pay my National Service Life Insurance premiums at the Veterans Administration contact office?
A. No. Contact offices are not authorized to accept remittances for insurance premiums. Payments must be made to the branch office.

Q. Is a veteran of World War II entitled to emergency ambulance service to a VA hospital or other government hospital in which VA has been allocated, if the occasion arises?
A. Yes. When a veteran or his representative contacts a field station requesting emergency ambulance service, the chief medical officer or his designee will get all information possible about the case and will grant authority, if warranted.

Q. I was captured by the enemy during World War II and was in a prisoner of war camp for 15 months but my claim for disability has been denied by Veterans Administration. What can I do that the disability is now getting worse?
A. Veterans Administration will give special consideration to disability claims filed by veterans interned in enemy prison camps. You should get in touch with your nearest VA office and have your case reopened.

Q. I am going to school under the G. I. Bill. My eyes didn't bother me while I was in service, but they bother me now when I do very much studying. Will VA pay for a reader to read some of my textbook assignments to me?

A. No. Veterans with visual impairment are eligible for reader service only if they are enrolled under the Vocational Rehabilitation Act (Public Law 16).

Polio Drive To Continue To January 30th

Texans have again been asked to do their share in the unending fight against infantile paralysis in the annual March of Dimes which opened in this state Jan. 15. The appeal will continue through Jan. 30, the birthday of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

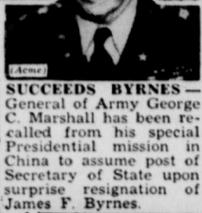

A proclamation setting the latter half of January aside for the annual appeal was signed by Governor Coke Stevenson in the presence of Governor-elect Beauford Jester and George D. Wilson of Houston, Texas Chairman of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Although Texans are not assigned a specific quota, they are expected to give liberally under the grim reminder of the epidemic of poliomyelitis which raged in this state last year. The national goal, set by Basil O'Connor, foundation president, at $24,000,000, must be raised through the March of Dimes. The money will continue the care and treatment of polio victims of whom there were 25,000 last year, and prepare against new outbreaks of the disease in 1947.

Both Stevenson and Jester pledged their personal efforts to the Texas drive and asked Texans to support it whole-heartily.

Many Wage Earners Near 40 Quarters In Social Security

You may be one of the thousands of wage-earners who gained permanently insured status under old age and survivors insurance during the last quarter of 1946. But if so, don't expect that one percent deduction from your pay-check to be discontinued. Gordon James, manager of the Wichita Falls social security field office, pointed out today that workers and their employers must continue to pay the social security tax as long as the wage-earner serves to increase steadily the value of the wage-earner's insurance account, against his retirement after reaching age 65 or for the benefit of his survivors in case of his death at any age.

The social Security Act provides that when a wage-earner has attained forty calendar quarters of coverage he is permanently insured. Attainment of "forty quarters" first became possible in the last quarter of 1946, for the Act went into operation on January 1, 1937. Thus, if you earned as much as $50 in each calendar quarter of these ten years, you gained that life-time pension protection. Or at any future time when you do finally attain forty quarters the same will apply, of course, forty quarters are not required for eligibility to benefit now. A man can be eligible with less.

But James reminds you that if, before reaching age 65, you should stop work in employment covered by the Act, the value of your insurance account would commence to decline, and might drop to the minimum value of $10 per month in benefits.

Thus the life-time protection given by "permanently insured status" simply means that, if you should be forced by some misfortune such as disability or unemployment, or should choose voluntarily, to leave work on jobs covered by the social security system, you or eligible members of your family will be assured—when you reach age 65 or in the event of your death—of receiving at least $10 a month under old age and survivors insurance.

stated H. Bailey Carroll, Editor of the Junior Historian, the magazine of the Association which is written almost exclusively by young Texans.

April 1, 1947, is announced as the closing date of the contest. All interested are invited to write for further information to the Junior Historian, Box 2131, University Station, Austin 12, Texas.

ged their personal efforts to the Texas drive and asked Texans to support it whole-heartily.

Wilson pointed out that the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis is totally dependent on the American people; it has no endowment or other means of financing its work. During the nine years of its existence, millions have been spent to equip hospitals, care for victims and carry on research into the cause and possible cure of polio.

The foundation was inspired by the late President Roosevelt, the most famous sufferer of polio, and his birthday has become the occasion for memorial gifts to the organization he loved.

The Texas Public Schools

Editor's Note: This is one of a series of articles pertaining to the Texas Public Schools which have been prepared by the Texas State Teachers Association.

Since 1941, 40 per cent of the teachers of Texas have resigned their jobs. In the United States, 350,000 teachers have done the same thing. The main reason is poor pay. As a result, a grave educational problem and one out of six of our teachers is sub-standard. During the school year 1945-46, 4,700 teachers in Texas drew less than $1200 per year. Even though the withholding tax on this salary was very small, most all of these teachers are members of the Teachers Retirement System of Texas and contributed 5 per cent of their salaries because of this membership. Hence, they had a take-home pay of less than what would be considered necessary to provide a bare subsistence.

Is this as it should be? Most everyone will tell you that it is not and something must be done to remedy the situation.

A brief, yet careful study of the public schools in Texas will convince any citizen of the gravity of our educational problems. Such is the purpose of the series of articles to follow.

A study of the Constitution of Texas will show that it was the intention of the framers of our organic law that the state of Texas should provide for a system of public education in keeping with the needs of the citizenship. Article VII, Section I, reads: "A general diffusion of knowledge being essential to the preservation of the liberties and rights of the people, it shall be the duty of the Legislature of the State to establish and make suitable provisions for the support and maintenance of an efficient system of public free schools."

In order to lay the foundation for carrying out this section of the state constitution, there was created a permanent free school fund by using the vast public domain of the state for this purpose. The Permanent Fund now aggregates more than $100,000,000. The interest from the investment of this fund is allocated to the Available School Fund, and amounted to $2,109,658.19 for the school year 1945-46.

The Constitution also provides for the creation of County Permanent School Funds by assigning to each county some 17,000 acres of land from the public domain. The principal of the 238 county Permanent Funds is approximately $11,600,000 and provided an income of $500,000 last year.

The Constitution also created Available School Funds and provided that not less than one-fourth of the revenue derived from state occupations taxes... One dollar of the poll tax and an ad valorem tax not to exceed thirty-five cents on the $100 of property valuation should be allocated to the Available Fund to be distributed annually for the support of the schools.

The available fund is distributed annually on a per capita basis to approximately 1,500,000 children between the ages of 6 and 18.

Significant is the fact that no express limitation is placed in the Constitution on the powers of the legislature to levy taxes or make additional appropriations for the support of the public schools or for the establishment and maintenance of institutions of higher learning.

Has the state of Texas and local school districts made suitable provisions for the education of the 1,500,000 children of school age in Texas? This will be the subject of succeeding articles in this series.

World shortages of fertilizer means the farmer should order his 1947 supply of fertilizer early.

Ask For Final Reports In Kenny Polio Campaign

Austin—County Chairmen in the 1946 Sister Elizabeth Kenny Infantile Paralysis Foundation have been asked to rush in final reports, it was announced here today by George C. Francisco, Jr., of Houston, Chairman of the Texas Executive Committee.

Mr. Francisco said that extensions had been granted committees in a number of counties an account of lateness in getting organized.

The Texas Executive Committee recently made a final appeal for donations to the campaign and said that donations would be received until final reports were in at the State Headquarters, in the Driskill Hotel at Austin.

Funds raised in the Texas 1946 campaign will be used to award scholarships to graduate nurses to take a two-year training course at the Kenny Institute in Minneapolis in the Kenny method of treating infantile paralysis. These nurses upon completion of the two-year course will then be able to train other graduate nurses in the Kenny method of treatment.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Dr. Geo. W. Cox
M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

Austin—Pellagra, although not a communicable disease, is one of great concern to public health officials in Texas for many people die of pellagra in this state every year. The disease is caused by the lack of certain essential foods, and as it comes on slowly may not be recognized until the victim begins to have the more serious symptoms such as sore mouth, stomach trouble, and reddening and scaling of the skin.

"When these symptoms appear, the disease has been present for some time," states Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. "The longer an individual has pellagra the harder it is to cure. It is advisable, therefore, to watch for the early symptoms such as nervous-

Insect Poison Used To Control Cotton Insects

College Station—Texas farmers applied a record amount of 20,000,000 pounds of poison to cotton fields during 1946 to control insects.

This record figure was compiled by Entomologist Charles A. King, Jr., of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service, from reports of county agricultural agents approximately 160 counties in Texas reported the amounts of ten different insecticides used in cotton insect control. Those counties not covered by the figure are either classed as non-cotton counties or a report was not received from the agent.

The last accurate check was taken in 1944, says King, when 14,000,000 pounds of poison was put out.

An excellent job of controlling the boll weevil and flea hopper was done in 1946, King says but in spite of the fact that more cotton insect poison was used than ever before, the boll worm did much damage in many sections of the state. The weather was a limiting factor in killing boll worms, the entomologist points out. Rains at unfortunate times prevented effective boll worm control. Failure of farmers to apply poison at the right times, and failure to use enough poison and apply it often enough are two more reasons that the boll worm was not controlled successfully.

Outlook on cotton insect poison for 1947 appears to be favorable at present, says King. Reports show only about 3,000,000 pounds of poison available on farms and in warehouses in Texas. Unless more arsenicals become available supplies of cotton insecticides are likely to be hard to get this year.

Army Recruiters To Visit Munday For New Personnel

Capt. Wayne Hall, U. S. Army Recruiting Service, Abilene, main station commander, announced today that an Army Air Force recruiting van will visit Munday from January 28 to February 3. The van will be staffed by two recruiting sergeants, Master Sgt. Carl S. Hargrove and Staff Sgt. Hal B. Page.

Sgt. Hargrove is a native of West Texas, having been born and reared in Snyder. Of his 7 years service, he spent six months in Fort Sill, Okla., then transferred to an overseas station where he remained for five years. Hargrove was taken prisoner at the fall of Corregidor and spent 42 months as a prisoner of war of the Japanese on the island of Hovshu, Japan. While overseas he was assigned to Gen. Jonathan M. Wainwright's staff as record clerk.

Sgt. Page is aviator of the U. S. Air Forces. He served in the African campaign as a gunner on a B-24 bomber. Page flew 12 combat missions over Africa. He is also a native of West Texas his

VACTION CANNING FOR SCHOOL LUNCHEES

College Station—Texas sponsors of the School Lunch Program are being urged by the Production and Marketing Administration to start making plans for putting up foods that ripen during the summer when school is out.

Many of the fresh fruits and vegetable that are tops in nutrition for school children ripen in the summer when they cannot be used in school lunches. Looking ahead, PMA officials say local sponsors should start making arrangements to can these foods so that children will have the benefit of them when school is in session. The establishment of the school lunch program on a permanent basis that will continue to enjoy Federal financial support, now makes it practical to make such plans well in advance, the PMA officials say.

A concerted effort should be made to link all school outlets with some type of food preservation center, the officials advise. In many cases the school lunch programs have benefited greatly by volunteer work at community canning centers where fresh vegetables have been contributed and processed for winter lunches. Arrangements might be made to have food processed at an institutional food preservation center or a commercial cannery at a reasonable charge to the school lunch sponsor. Several states have already developed plans along this line that are working out very favorably.

Mr. and Mrs. Chalmer Horbert and children spent several days this week visiting in the home of Capt. and Mds. C. C. Jeffords at Grand Prairie.
