

Kracker Krumbs Odd Bits Salvaged at Random

"Cotton really looks good here." Before we get mobbed by a bunch of farmers, we want you to notice that phrase is in quotes.

Returning homeward, he saw patches of cotton that looked like it would burn if a lighted match was dropped into it.

It don't look nearly as good as it did before we were hit with that 107 to 109 degree weather during the first of last week.

Some say we'll make a batch of cotton if it don't rain a drop. We'd rather it would rain, however.

Seems like we're kinda shorted along that score. Last year we had as much as 23.50 inches up to this time, which we agreed then was too much.

That's not counting the shower that came Thursday, which served to give us a sort of steam bath.

In our opinion, though, we have some good looking cotton yet. Then, too, we have some sick looking cotton, and then some terrible looking cotton.

"Farmers are just getting scared," we heard the other day. "August is the month in which we lost a crop and make it over several times."

But when cotton begins to bend over from the droops, turn brown at the bottom, wilt at the top, and in the middle and with one little bloom right on top, like a debutante's Easter bonnet, then we reckon its' about time to begin to get scared.

However, reckon we stand a better chance of making a crop than some of those out near Lubbock whose fine irrigated cotton was hit by the heavy hail Friday night.

We admitted during the above-mentioned crop losing, crop making conversation that we were getting scared too.

"Shucks," remarked a farmer friend, "I don't see where it can make any difference to you."

"Brother," we interrupts, "we want you to know that when you and the other farmers make a failure, we do, too."

He seemed to think such a situation would make our business better. We couldn't see his viewpoint through our bifocals, so we asked him to clarify that statement.

Here's about the way his argument ran:

If we farmers don't make a crop, we don't have one to gather, so we ain't got nothing to do but sit around and read, so you know we're gonna keep on taking the Munday Times. It ought to make business better for you.

Which is a peculiar sort of logic. As if we don't have anything to do but live off our subscription income.

And if the newsprint situation don't ease up, we might make a crop failure before the farmers do.

Truth of the matter is we don't want any of our farmer (Continued on last Page)

The Knox County Mobilization Committee, headed by J. C. McGee of Knox City, met at the veterans agriculture building in Munday at 2 p. m. August 9 for the purpose of discussing what has happened to the family size farms in the area.

Present for the meeting were members of different agriculture agencies, bankers, farmers and others from Knox and Haskell counties. General topics discussed were why have the family sized farms disappeared, and how can this situation be remedied.

It was decided that a series of eight meetings would be held in Knox County communities to get the reactions of all the people as to the disappearance of the family size farms and what could be done toward their improvement.

Attending the meeting were: J. C. McGee, W. H. Ford, F. H. Jones, J. T. Gilpin and Lloyd Feenster, Knox County P. M. A.; Cecil Seitz, Charley Cape, and F. P. Miker, S. C. S.; J. D. Gillespie, Munday P. C. A.; A. E. Ponder, vocational agriculture instructor; Russell Pennick, veterans school; Maleta Henson and Bill Pahlmeyer, Knox County agents; C. H. Keck and Bruce Campbell, Knox City; H. D. Gammill, Rochester; H. H. Partridge and George Smith, Benjamin; V. G. Lambeth, Goree; J. A. Smith, Knox City; Joe S. Harner, Haskell P. M. A.; John Brock, C. G. Burson, R. R. Overton and W. A. Montgomery, Haskell; Weldon Floyd, H. H. Cowan and Clay F. Grove, Munday.

Duties of the group are to publicize the meetings of this type and to help make the survey of farm people in the county. By finding the questions of the people and the way they think, agencies can work to help the farmer and rancher. It is hoped that a more sound agricultural program can be founded.

din-Simmons University. Local people will want to hear this young man who is preparing for life service in the ministry.

Son Of Goree Man Killed In Car Accident

Bobby Joe Peek, 17-year-old son of Deecher Peek of Goree and Mrs. Edna McKinney of Seymour, were killed last Sunday near Cheyenne, Colo., when the car he was driving and a truck crashed head-on. The other occupant of the car, Harold Seal, 19, of Lamesa, was reported to be in a critical condition.

Peek was a Seymour High School athlete, and had also attended school at Davis, Okla. He is survived by his parents and one sister, Mrs. Betty Frances Bohannon of Seymour.

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Tuesday from the First Baptist Church in Seymour, conducted by Rev. John E. Lewis, pastor. Assisting were Rev. J. C. Scruggs, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church in Seymour. Burial was in the River-view Cemetery in Seymour.

Check Forger Nabbed Sunday At Haskell

Ralph (Baby) Humphrey, colored, who allegedly forged checks which were cashed at Munday and Goree stores, won't be forging any more for a while. He is in the Knox County jail awaiting action of the grand jury.

D. E. (Tuck) Whitworth of Munday and Sheriff Bob Cousins of Haskell apprehended Humphrey in Haskell last Sunday. In his statement to officers, he implicated two other men as having a part in passing the forged checks.

Four checks amounting to around $100 were cashed, three of them locally and one by a Goree firm.

Tuck notified Sheriff Cousins to pick up another colored boy who headed for Haskell after having engaged in gun play in Munday. In talking to the officers, the negro said he was to pick up Humphrey in Haskell and then go to Midland. The officers picked up Humphrey instead.

Mayor Invited By Gene Autry To Rodeo At Dublin

Mayor W. R. Moore of Munday has been invited by Everett Colborn and Gene Autry, producers and owners of the Dublin Rodeo, to attend the pre-Madison Square Garden Rodeo at Dublin, Texas, as their guest, according to a Chamber of Commerce release from Dublin this week.

This year the rodeo will be on August 29 through September 1. Top cowboy performers from all over the United States attend the Dublin Rodeo and then board a special train for New York for the Madison Square Garden Rodeo, produced by Mr. Colborn.

Bob Brown New Market Manager At Atkeison's

Dick Atkeison announces that he has employed Robert L. Brown as manager of his market department. Mr. Brown comes from Vernon, where he was reared.

Mrs. Brown and two daughters, Sandra and Linda Kay, will be at home here soon. They are moving next week.

Robert is an experienced market man and a high class gentleman in every respect.

Dick says his store is proud to have this nice family connected with the business, and extends an invitation to all to come in and meet Bob.

Miss Nancy Nichols of Canyon spent the week end in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Spann.

The Munday Public Schools will begin the 1951-52 term on September 3, it was announced this week by W. C. Cox, superintendent. Monday, the third will be used for a general faculty meeting.

Enrollment of grade school students and senior and junior high school students will be held on Tuesday, September 4. Classes will begin on Wednesday.

The local schools will open with a full faculty of 34 teachers. Mr. Cox stated—30 white teachers and four colored teachers.

The Sunset building is being repaired and conditioned for a junior high school. It is the intention of school authorities to maintain a real high school program in this building, including traditional courses, courses in shop, homemaking, band instruction, and a well rounded athletic program. This unit of Munday's school system will be ideal for such a program. Shop and homemaking facilities are already in the building. The band director will organize a junior band and chorus for this part of the system.

"Several have asked about children under six years of age attending," Mr. Cox added, "being under the impression that the law has changed in this respect. Children under six on the first day of September, 1951, will not be allowed to attend the public schools. The law remains the same as in the past. A private school for under-age children is very important."

"It is very important that students enroll at the very first, if possible, so a schedule of classes can be made at once. It is also important that students attend classes regularly for their own welfare as well as that of the school system."

"Teachers are employed under the new state ruling according to average daily attendance. If attendance is poor, it will reflect in crowded conditions next year because of the policy of the state department in allowing the number of teaching units on attendance records."

A list of the teaching staff and their assignments will be given later.

Evangelist

Evangelist M. D. Rexrode, above, of Haskell, and Roy Davidson of Roscoe, song leader, will be in charge of the revival meeting which opens Friday night at Gillespie Baptist Church. Services will be held at 10 a. m. and 8 p. m. daily through August 27.

A vacation Bible School will also be conducted each morning at 8:30 from Monday, August 20, through Friday, August 24.

Sgt. and Mrs. Lloyd L. Dixon and children of Fort Hood were week end visitors with Mrs. Dixon's mother, Mrs. Effie Guley.

Oscar Spann was taken to a Wichita Falls hospital for medical treatment the first of this week.

BAPTIST BROTHERHOOD TO MEET AT GOREE

The men of the Goree Baptist Church will meet Friday night in the regular brotherhood meeting.

Rev. Torrance, pastor of the Bomarton Baptist Church will speak, and officers will be elected for the coming year. This is an important meeting, Rev. S. E. Stevenson, pastor, stated.

PRIVATE ENTERPRISE AND THE JOB

August 26 will mark the beginning of Farm Electrification Week. During the week, one of the greatest advances in the history of agriculture will be celebrated. Power has literally revolutionized life and work on the farm.

Moreover, this week will also be a testimonial to the spirit and progress of the light and power industry, which pioneered rural electrification. In its development across the continent, and still leads. The first experimental rural power line was built only 22 years ago. Today some 90 per cent of all the occupied farms in America have electricity available, and the great bulk of them are using it. And 80 per cent of the farms reserved by the private utilities, either directly over their own lines or through local farm electrical cooperatives.

Electricity is the cheapest and most efficient "servant" the farmer has. Last year, the cost of power amounted to only 1.23 per cent of total farm income. And in the matter of cost, private enterprise, not government enterprise, does the job of serving the farm for the last money. On the average, the government's so-called super-cooperative generating plants charge local co-ops 1.48 cents per kilowatt hour. Municipal systems charge 1.22 cents. And business-managed power companies charge but .93 cents—despite the fact that these companies pay heavy taxes and the government systems do not.

The job of making power available to rural America is especially complete. But agricultural use of power in still in its infancy—in the future, the farm experts say, the average farmer will consume ever-increasing amounts. The average farmer will see that he gets all he wants at the lowest possible cost.

NEW AGE OF FARM ELECTRIFICATION FORECAST

This nation is entering a second phase of farm electrification in which new and broader uses will be made of the "Power Servant" in more diversified ways. This is the view of Professor F. W. Duffee, who operates the University of Wisconsin Electric Research Farm.

Today, he said, the average American farm uses about 2,350 kilowatt-hours of electricity each year. But on the Research Farm, where every possible use is made of labor-saving power, 66,800 kilowatt-hours are used—ten times as much. He does not predict that the average farmer will be using this much in a couple of years. But he says, "I do believe that we can look forward to very substantial increases in the next ten years. . . . I firmly believe the tide is running strong for the second phase of farm electrification."

Professor Duffee pointed out that peak power use pays off. He said that lamps used on a four-age of one pig per litter in cold weather; lighting of the hen house increases egg production; silo unloader and barn cleaner saves the work of one hired man. This is important in this day of labor shortages and record wages.

Now, it's a result of the tremendous expansion program of America's business-managed power and light industry, the job of making electricity available to agriculture is virtually complete—the juice is there if the farmer wants it. Electricity has done much to revolutionize farming already. It's a sure bet that it will do a great deal more in the future—in the economic advantage of rural America.

LABOR & FAMILIES

There is a limit now for any family can go in absorbing increased living costs—as millions of us have learned this hard way in late years. When that point is reached, we must start making money or reduce our living standards.

The railroads, which are now requesting the Interstate Commerce Commission for a moderate increase in freight rates, are in much that position today.

Railroad freight rates, when compared to prices generally, are actually lower than they were before the start of the last world war. In the past 22 years, the percentage of increase in the prices the lines must pay for the materials and services used to produce transportation has been more than five times as great as the increase in the average revenue they get for hauling a ton of freight one mile, which is the standard measure of the railroad's rate base. It will cost the industry over $1,000,000,000 more to provide this year's transportation service than it would have cost at the wage and price levels of two years ago.

In short, revenues aren't sufficient to make both ends meet, and still more increased operating expenses are in prospect for the railroads. So the only solution is an increase in their rates. It might be said that the railroads should stretch. But they have already made every possible cut in overhead costs, and they are at peak operating efficiency. And if they should be forced to cut back their great expansion and betterment program—which will cost $1,250,000,000 for this year alone—the strength and security of the entire nation would be undermined.

Yes, an industry is like a family. It can cut so far and then it must get more to live.

"The prospective rise in prices indicates that the country is confronted with the problem of keeping the inequalities of inflation to a minimum," Sumner H. Slichter, Professor of economics, Harvard University.

Listen carefully. The life you save may be your own!

BOYCE HOUSE

President Truman's visit in 1948 was by no means the first time Texans had entertained a President. Theodore Roosevelt visited our State and of course Franklin Roosevelt was here several times. President William Howard Taft visited Texas and he visited Mexico, too—at least his right hand did. He and the president of Mexico met and shook hands in the middle of the bridge over the Rio Grande at El Paso. Afterward, El Paso gave Mr. Taft a dinner and they still have the chair that he occupied—it's in the Chamber of Commerce office and I have seen it. It's a big chair. Mr. Taft was a big man. He weighed over 300 pounds.

Somewhere I have heard that President Harrison once crossed Texas on a trail. At every stop, he was being called to the rear platform and he was just about worn out. There happened to be, on the train, a traveling salesman who looked very much like President Harrison. So the President's aide had this traveling man put on a dark suit, such as a statesman would wear, and at each stop through East Texas, this man came out on the rear platform, reached over and shook hands, smiled and said a few words. Everybody was happy—the crowds, because they had seen the President, or thought they had; the Texas traveling salesman, because he had been President for a few hours; and the real President because he got some needed rest. So everybody was happy.

Then there was the time that a President visited Wills Point. He hadn't intended to, but he did. It was back in 1909 and Mr. Taft was president. His special

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Dr. Geo. W. Cox
M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

AUSTIN—Texas farmers and ranchers in the Red River Valley region and in Southwest and Central Texas have been warned to begin killing skunks—lots of them — before cold weather brings an increase in rabies cases.

The grim warning is contained in an animal morbidity report compiled by the State Department of Health. The idea is to pin point rabies infested areas as warning to people in adjacent areas.

State Health Officer George W. Cox said Texas had areas "bigger than most states" which are completely free of rabies.

"From now on we're going to call our shots by county of occurrence. It isn't going to be 'Texas rabies' any more," the health official said.

"Livestock owners . . . should have active skunk killing programs, especially in the Red River Valley area, when winter approaches and skunks hole up with livestock in dilapidated barns," the report cautioned.

Current focal points of skunk rabies are the report indicated. In Harris, Matagorda, Fort Bend and Lavaca counties. Another focus exists in the region of Comal and Hays counties, and in Central Texas in Travis, Bell, Coryell, Lampasas and McLennan counties.

"The trend is eastward in central Texas," the report said.

Titus and Hopkins, an area hit hard last year, continues to have a serious problem, causing health officials to caution livestockmen in the eastern part of Red River Valley to be especially vigilant against skunk invasions of barns and outhouses.

The rabies morbidity report is something new in disease control. Modeled after the method used to keep tabs on cases of human communicable diseases, it is part of the general protection the state health agency is providing.

For July the report shows: 77 dogs, 6 foxes, 6 cats, 4 skunks, 4 calves, 3 pigs, 2 civet cats, and 1 cow were diagnosed as rabid at the state Bureau of Laboratories.

Bexar and Harris counties were hardest hit during July. Each one reported one case of dog rabies each day of the month.

Last Rites For J. M. Floyd Are Held In Dallas

Funeral services were held in Fort Worth Monday for James M. Floyd of Dallas, advertising director of the Lone Star Gas Company, widely known attorney and leader in community affairs dedicated to human welfare. Mr. Floyd was 50 years of age April 29.

Mr. Floyd died Friday afternoon at his Dallas home, 4629 Watauga Road, after being stricken suddenly on Thursday night while dining with friends.

Big, jovial and friendly, Mr. Floyd was a familiar figure at conventions and other gatherings of the advertising and newspaper profession in the Southwest. He was in constant demand as a speaker and during his more than fourteen years with Lone Star had made many appearances at civic and church meetings through the gas company system in Texas and Oklahoma.

"In the death of James M. Floyd we have lost a man thoroughly capable of meeting all responsibilities that came his way," said Lone Star President D. A. Huley. "Jim Floyd's aim was to be of service to his fellow man and he projected this attribute in his business, his church, his social and community affairs. He entered into all activities with eagerness and enthusiasm and was the exemplification of a Christian gentleman, never too busy to help a friend. He was a credit to the industry which he served and he shall be sorely missed by his many friends and associates."

The funeral services will be held at the First Methodist Church in Fort Worth where for many years Mr. Floyd had been

Let's Talk LIVESTOCK

(By Ted Gouldy)

Fort Worth, Aug. 10—Stock and feeder buyers in the mid-west and other sections of the country have come down of the fence and began buying steers, yearlings and calves to fill their fields, rations and feedlots in the past ten days.

Efforts to buy replacement stock on the part of these buyers during the early summer were rather feeble as they kept one eye on the Washington battle over beef controls and the other eye on stocker cattle price which they hoped would head for lower levels.

In the cornbelt fields and pastures stands of grass, clover and other good grazing in super-abundance. The prospects of big gains in weight at small costs has finally tipped the scales in favor of buying.

Evidence that the dammed up buying had burst loose was visible on all sides.

One order buying firm on the Fort Worth market was handling over 2,000 stockers and feeders daily.

Another firm on the market reported that they had bought over 15,000 calves and yearlings in the past ten days.

Other order buyers operating on a smaller scale reported orders for good quality stocker calves and yearlings pouring in and that numbers could not be obtained to take care of them.

Thus, despite the extreme dry condition of most of Texas except the High Plains and Panhandle sections, the cattle market rolled right along at record high prices for this time of year and at levels roughly $3 to $5 per hundred above a year ago.

Old timers scratched their heads in wonderment. Said they had never seen anything quiet like it before, and certainly the heavy runs of cattle and calves had always broken the market prices to more or less several degrees in the years past at this time of year.

1951 looks like a different year though, and the prospect of a severe break in prices appears more remote right along as the Fall season approaches.

One order buyer told this writer this week "It begins to look like stocker cattle and calf prices will hold up right along into the Fall and winter. Most of the cattle we are buying are going clear out of this country to far distant points. When the August and September rains come to the Southwest, demand for stockers and feeders will develop in the areas nearer to us. This coupled with the Cornbelt and Western demand will provide a powerful prop to the market for many weeks to come."

Packers are unable to buy as many cattle and calves as they would like to get.

A survey of the packing plants in the Fort Worth and Dallas area this week revealed they are operating at about two-thirds or three-fourths of their capacity in most cases. They would like to be operating at full capacity so they can hold all of their skilled labor.

Fort Worth packers tell me that skilled workers who are laid off nowadays are gone forever. They get jobs in other industries, plane building plants, oil company jobs, etc., and they stay with their new jobs.

Competition between stocker and feeder buyers and packers for virtually all types of cattle and calves is noted. This week W. N. White of Brady had a load of grass steers, fat, weighing 1,300 pounds which sold at $32.50 for feeders. C. H. Penner of Mill Creek, Okla., had a load of 1,150 pound Angus steers, fat, sold to feeders at $32.50. Tom Cherryhomes, Jack County, had 127 steers of 1,309 pounds at $33.

going to the feeders.

Four doubles of yearling wethers with a packer value around $25, from the Fort Davis section, this week sold at $25.50 to feeders.

Most bunches of cows were sorted two ways, since stockers buyers were paying a good deal more, even for most aged cows, than the ceiling price permitted the packers to go.

Choice fat calves with lots of quality sell $2 to $4 higher to stocker and feeder buyers than slaughter interests can go.

Numerous loads of ewes arriving in the sheep yards at Fort Worth are all closely sorted. Solid or broken mouthed ewes usually sell to go back to the country at $1 to $3 above the packer price.

There has never been an August market quite like this 1951 affair before and the good prices the cattle and calves are getting goes a long way toward making the prospect of heavy feed bills in the dry areas more bearable to the farmer and rancher.

Thinking Out Loud

By Lynn Landrum

JOE JACKSON

Eight men are running for Congress to succeed Ed Gossett in the Thirteenth Congressional District (Wichita County, Denton County, Cooke, Wilbarger, Montague, Hardeman, etc.). So far as the column knows all eight of them are respectable citizens with clean records.

But it will not be overlooked that the Thirteenth District has in this election a very real opportunity to do a signal service to the state of Texas. The Democratic administration at Washington has taken from the school children of Texas the tideland. It deserves a rebuke of the only kind which the present administration can understand. It deserves to be told that Texas is utterly angry and utterly disgusted with the treatment it has received. The Thirteenth District has the opportunity to send that word to Washington.

ALL-TEXAN

The Thirteenth District is all Texan and all-American. And it has an honorable record in defense of the tideland title of Texas. Ed Gossett put up a magnificent fight, recently climaxed with a magnificent victory on the floor of the House at Washington.

Now, there should be no unfairness to the candidates of this election. It is understood that all eight of them are in favor of the return of the tideland to Texas.

But if the Thirteenth District really wants to make the cold chills run up and down the backs of the Queer Deal politicians in Washington, it will turn out a whacking big vote for Joe Jackson. Nothing else will do so much to make Harry Truman chew the staff of his pen before he signs a veto on the tideland return. Nothing else in this race would have a greater effect upon the forthcoming Democratic National Convention, when it gets ready to decide whether it is going to let Harry Truman renominate himself.

QUITE A MAN

Mr. Jackson is quite a man. He talks the language of the straight-shooter—and he shoots both barrels when he has the target clearly in view:

"If Mr. Truman were running your business, you would be bankrupt right now. If he were your employer, and you were working for him, you would be out of a job at this very moment. . . . The whole platform of the Fair Deal party is against our fundamental principles. We believe in State's rights. We know the tideland belong to the State. We don't believe in socialized medicine. We believe in economy in government spending. We believe in free enterprise. We believe in clean, decent moral government"

"Six years ago the United States was the most powerful nation on the face of the globe. We had the strongest army, the strongest navy, the strongest air force in the world. We had a monopoly on the atom bomb. Six years have passed; six years of conferences, of little wars like the one in Korea, of lack of leadership in Washington."

If the Thirteenth District doesn't like the situation, it has in Joe Jackson a wonderful messenger of its wrath.

Weinert Alumni To Meet Oct. 6

October 6 was chosen by an interested and spirited group of ex-students and teachers to be the date for the First Annual Homecoming of the Ex-Students and Teachers Association. The all-day affair will bring ex-students, teachers and friends of the Weinert School System from all over the state together for the first time in nearly fifty years. It promises to be the largest congregation of people Weinert has ever had. A big barbecue and an exciting football game are only two of the special attractions being scheduled.

The Constitutional Committee has reported their recommendations concerning the government of the organization, and these have been altered to fit the needs and aims of the organization. The purpose of this organization will be to obtain close union between the community and the exes, and the school. All ex-students, and ex-teachers, are to be voting members; and present students, friends and patrons of the school will be non-voting participants. These recommendations will be voted on at the business session October 6. The committee was composed of Mrs. C. T. Jones, Mrs. Mabel Durr, Mrs. J. B. King and the Rev. Max Copeland. They are appreciative to the Knox City organization for helping them with these recommendations.

It being impossible to inform many ex-students by mail, only graduates will receive cards of information concerning the event. These cards will soon be pouring through the mail. Every effort possible will be made to inform other ex-students, students and friends of the school about the event through newspapers and other public services.

Officers serving the Association temporarily are, Mrs. C. T. Jones, sponsor; Eddie Sanders, chairman; Margaret Tolliver, secretary-treasurer; R. S. Sanders, publicity director; and J. L. Tolliver, Jr., asst. publicity director. These officers urge every local ex-student and teacher of the Weinert School System to be present for the final preliminary meeting to be held Thursday night, August 23, at the High School auditorium. The various committees needed to carry on the activities for the event will be selected at that time.

Quannah Wheat Said To Resist Many Diseases

The characteristics of Quannah, new disease-resistant hard red winter wheat of excellent quality, are given in a new Texas Agricultural Experiment Station bulletin.

This new variety, developed by Dr. I. M. Atkins, Denton station agronomist, who is a joint employee of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station and the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Dr. Atkins reports that the average yield of Quannah has equaled or exceeded that of the present commercial wheat varieties at Denton, Greenville, Temple, Comfort, Stephenville, Iowa Park and Chillicothe. Comanche and Westar have given better yields than Quannah in the drier sections of Texas.

Quannah was developed from a complex cross of Comanche x (Honor Forward) x (Mediterranean-Hope x Comanche). It has shown a high degree of resist-

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 3 proposing an amendment to Section 49-b, Article III, Constitution of Texas, so that the total amount of bonds or obligations that may be issued by the Veterans' Land Board is increased to One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000); providing for the issuance of said bonds and certain conditions relating thereto and the use of the Veterans' Land Fund; providing for an election and the issuance of a proclamation therefor.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 49-b, Article III, Constitution of Texas, be amended so that the same will hereafter read as follows: "Section 49-b. There is hereby created a Board to be known as the Veterans' Land Board, which shall be composed of the Governor, the Attorney General, and the Commissioner of the General Land Office. The Veterans' Land Board may issue not to exceed One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000) in bonds or obligations of the State of Texas for the purpose of creating a fund to be known as the Veterans' Land Fund. Such bonds shall be executed by said Board in such form, denominations, and upon the terms as are now prescribed by Article III, Chapter 318 of the Acts of the Fifty-first Legislature (provided, that when the limitation of Twenty Million Dollars ($25,000,000) is used in said Senate Bill No. 29, the amount shall be increased to One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000), or as said Act may be hereafter amended, or by other laws that the Legislature may hereafter enact; provided, however, that said bonds shall bear a rate of interest not to exceed three per cent (3%) per annum, and that the same shall be sold for not less than par value and accrued interest.

"In the sale of any such bonds, a preferential right of purchase shall be given to the administrator of any teachers' retirement funds, the Permanent University Fund, and the Permanent School Fund; such bonds to be issued as needed, in the opinion of the Veterans' Land Board.

"The Veterans' Land Fund shall be used by the Board for the sole purpose of purchasing lands suitable for the purpose hereinafter stated, situated in the State (a) owned by the United States, or any governmental agency thereof; (b) owned by the Texas Private System, or any other governmental agency of the State of Texas; or (c) owned by any person, firm, or corporation.

"All lands thus purchased shall be acquired at the lowest price obtainable, to be paid for in cash, and shall be a part of the Veterans' Land Fund.

"The lands of the Veterans' Land Fund shall be sold by the State to Texas Veterans of the present war or wars, commonly known as World War II, and to Texas Veterans of service in the armed forces of the United States of America subsequent to 1945, as may be included within this program by legislative act, in such quantities, and on such terms, and at such prices and rates of interest, and under such rules and regulations as are now provided by law, or as may hereafter be provided by law.

"All moneys received and which have been received and which have not been used for repurchase of land as provided herein by the Veterans' Land Board, shall be held in trust for the purchase of land and for interest on deferred payments, shall be credited to the Veterans' Land Fund for use in the purchase of land to be sold to Texas Veterans of World War II, and to Texas Veterans of service in the armed forces of the United States of America subsequent to 1945, as may be included within this program by legislative act, in like manner as provided for the sale of lands purchased with the proceeds from the sales of the bonds, provided for herein, for a period ending December 31, 1959; provided, however, that so much of such moneys as may be necessary during the period ending December 31, 1959, to pay principal of and interest on the bonds herebefore issued and on bonds hereafter issued by the Veterans' Land Board shall be set aside for that purpose. After December 31, 1959, all moneys received by the Veterans' Land Board from the sale of the lands and interest on deferred payments, or so much thereof as may be indicated by the Veterans' Land Board for the sale of the lands and to pay interest thereon, and any of such moneys not so needed shall be appropriated to such purposes as may be prescribed by law. All bonds issued hereunder shall, after approval by the Attorney General of Texas, registration by the Comptroller of the State of Texas, and delivery to the purchaser, be incontestable and shall constitute obligations of the State under the Constitution of Texas. Of the total One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000) of bonds herein authorized, the sum of Twenty-five Million Dollars ($25,000,000) has heretofore been issued; said bonds are hereby in all respects validated and declared to be obligations of the State of Texas. The amendment shall become effective upon its adoption.

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held throughout the State of Texas on the second Tuesday in November, 1951, at which election all voters favoring the proposed Amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the following words:

FOR the Amendment to Section 49-b, Constitution of Texas, for increasing Veterans' Land Fund for the purchase of lands in Texas to be sold to Texas Veterans of World War II, and to Texas Veterans of service in the armed forces of the United States of America subsequent to 1945.

Those opposing said proposed Amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the following words:

AGAINST the Amendment to Section 49-b, Constitution of Texas, for increasing Veterans' Land Fund for the purchase of lands in Texas to be sold to Texas Veterans of World War II, and to Texas Veterans of service in the armed forces of the United States of America subsequent to 1945.

If it appears from the returns of said election that a majority of the votes cast were in favor of said Amendment, the same shall become a part of the State Constitution and be effective from the date of the determination of such result and the Governor's proclamation thereof.

Sec. 3. The Governor of the State of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election, and shall have the same published as required by the Constitution and laws of this State.

Knox Prairie Philosopher Offers His Farm To Repel The Invasion Of Foreign And Airborne Crop Insects

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek has another idea to get out of work. If you ask us, his letter this week reveals.

J. A.

Dear editor: It was so hot out here yesterday I was able to read only the front page of my newspaper, takes too much energy to turn a page in weather like this, and down toward the bottom of the page I noticed an article advising farmers to keep an eye on germ warfare.

That is, as I understand it, the next war will have some novel ideas in it, apart from shooting at each other, and among these will be biological warfare, which I understand consists of the enemy spreading disease among livestock, or boll weevils in the cotton, or potato bugs in the potatoes, or corn borers in the corn, etc.

Now you take the ordinary farmer, he's gonna have a hard time discoverin when was has been declared, as he's already afflicted by about all the insects there are. Why I've seen years when my crops was so infested, if I'd known about biological warfare, I'd figured the rest of the world had just declared war on me. Talk about wild rumors, we're gonna have plenty, but the thing has its brighter side.

For example, it's gonna be mighty handy to be able to tell your wife, no use tryin to make a crop this year, them Russians airborne boll weevils will get it before a man has a chance to get started, or them Chinese beetles will sabotage me, sure as anything.

And I've been thinkin, what this country needs is an anti-insect belt, a buffer area, sort of like a radar network, to repel an invasion, to sort of protect the rest of the crops, and if suitable financial payments can be arranged, I will enlist my farm in such a plan. Will let it grow up in weeds and grass, so when foreign insects hit here, they'll on over into the real farmin section. By strategically locatin similar farms throughout the country, we might be able to whip the thing. Washington ought to get to work on this right away. Will be glad to lease my farm for a reasonable amount to the government, and meanwhile will bend every effort to get it in the proper rundown shape and will guarantee to keep it that way. When danger threatens American agriculture, you'll find me willin to do my part.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.
