

Kracker Krumbs

Odd Bits Salvaged at Random

We have one of the best fire departments in this area in the making.

Not that we haven't had one all along—our fireboys have done good jobs in the past. But they're going to be equipped to do a better job in the future.

We have two good pieces of fire fighting equipment, and another one to be put into service before long. This third one is the rural fire truck toward the purchase of which quite a few of you contributed early last fall.

Since the remodeling of the city hall we have a "stall" for each of the three fire trucks—a place where they may be housed when not in use.

We have a nice fire hall, too, a place where our fireboys meet to carry on their business, to discuss fire hazards of our town, to iron out problems confronting them as a bunch of volunteer, unpaid firemen.

We have a paid fireman, too, but his duty won't be to fight the fires. He takes the fire calls, has the equipment ready to roll so our firemen can get there so quickly.

A nice apartment has been constructed on the second floor of the city hall. Here our paid fireman has his living quarters, easily accessible to the fire trucks, etc.

Hoyt Gray is the paid fireman. He is also employed by the City Council as custodian of the building and grounds, in keeping the fire fighting equipment in condition and ready to go at all times.

This move involved an additional expense to the city, but it was pointed out that having a paid fireman brings a saving to citizens on their fire insurance rate that will be greater than the expense of the deal.

In spite of all these additions and improvements, our fireboys still have their problems. One of their greatest problems is brought about by us citizens—the ones who should cooperate with them in the fullest.

We've printed items about this practice of following fire trucks, people getting in the way and hampering the efficiency of firemen's work, driving over their fire hose, etc., until we've about run out of words.

But the practice goes on. Just recently at a gin fire, three cars were seen driven over the fire hose.

People still dash like mad to the fires, as if they're trying to beat the fire trucks to the scene.

Our fireboys drive fast and maybe recklessly when the fire alarm sounds. It's necessary for them to get there quickly. It would be a shame if the driver brought the fire truck into position to fight a blaze—then had no one to man the hose.

So our fireboys must get there—and the fact that they're rushing like mad, endangering their own lives to save other people's property, is all the more reason why we common citizens should pull to the curb and stay put until all danger is past.

We rarely ever see a car head for the curb when the fire alarm sounds. They sometimes slow down long enough for the occupants to learn which direction the fire truck is heading—then take of in a burst of speed.

We have adult offenders in this respect, we are told, but some of our firemen say that two-thirds of this type of trouble comes from the teenage high school group.

To condition gets no better fast. In fact, our fireboys have become so concerned about the danger of the situation, the possibilities of losing some valuable property to fire just because the onlookers hamper their operations, that they called the City Council to meet with them

Jones Seeks Re-election As Dist. Attorney

Roy A. Jones of Paducah has announced this week that he is a candidate for re-election to the office of District Attorney for the 50th Judicial District composed of Cottle, King, Knox and Baylor counties and he issues the following statement:

"In announcing my candidacy for the office of District Attorney for my second term I want first to thank the voters of the 50th Judicial District for having elected me to this office in the last election. It has been a great pleasure to serve as your District Attorney and I will always be grateful to you for having given me the opportunity to serve you in this capacity.

"I have met most of you and have come to feel that many of you are my friends, but for the benefit of those I have not had the privilege of meeting I will briefly state my qualifications for this important office.

"I am forty-one years of age, am married and the father of four small children. When I was three years of age my family moved from Collin County to Paducah which has been my home ever since. After graduating from Paducah High School in 1928, I attended North Texas Agricultural College at Arlington for two years. From 1932 until 1935 I studied law at night at the Jefferson University of Law in Dallas, Texas, and was granted my LL.B. degree and my license to practice law in Texas in June 1935. From 1935 to 1939 I attended the University of Texas and received my B. A. degree in June 1939.

"In 1940 I was elected County Attorney of Cottle County and was re-elected every two years until 1950 when I was elected as your District Attorney. I served in the Army during World War II but the citizens of my home county elected me their County Attorney while I was serving them as a soldier.

"The duties of my office require so much of my time that I will not get to see all of you personally before the election so please let this announcement express my thanks to you for the support you have given me in the past and my request for your support in the next election."

Relative Of Local People Dies In Crash

Mrs. Rosa Lee Morgan, 71, critically ill Paducah woman was instantly killed in a two-car collision on the slick rain-drenched highway near Harrold last Sunday afternoon. She was a sister of Mrs. Hoyt Gray of Munday and an aunt of J. L. Stodghill, also of Munday.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan were returning to their home in Paducah after visiting two daughters in Wichita Falls. Mr. Morgan was driving west, his wife, who was critically ill with cancer, being bedded down in the rear of the automobile. As he attempted to pass one car his vehicle slid out of control into the path of one driven by Polly Ann Murphy, 17, of Dumas and in which Jean Griggs, 17, of Springer, N. M. was a passenger. The girls and Mr. Morgan were treated for minor bruises and lacerations.

The car in which the two college students were riding overturned into a ditch. The full brunt of the crash was at the rear of Mr. Morgan's car, where his wife lay.

The body of Mrs. Morgan was freed from the wreckage and was carried to Paducah for burial.

Surviving her are her husband, three daughters, a son and eight grandchildren, besides the relatives living in Munday.

Funeral For H. M. Michels Is Held Saturday

H. M. Michels, resident of this county for 45 years and one of the best known farmers of this area, passed away at 4 a. m. last Friday at a Wichita Falls hospital. Although he had been in declining health for some two years, his illness was not thought to be of a serious nature when he entered the hospital several days before his death. Doctors attributed death to arteriosclerotic heart disease.

A native Texan, Mr. Michels was born on December 6, 1877, and was 74 years, 1 month and 15 days of age. On September 20, 1898, he was married to Miss Josephine Friske, and to this union four children were born, all of whom survive. His wife preceded him in death on October 22, 1951.

The couple came to Knox County in 1906 in a covered wagon, and H. M. Michels cast his lot with the fertile soil of Knox Prairie. Through thrift, hard work and faith in the productivity of the soil, Mr. Michels advanced from a meagre beginning to become one of the most extensive land owners of this area.

He was known as a man whose "word was his bond," and when news of his death spread over the community, many remarked that their business dealings with Mr. Michels had always been pleasant.

Funeral services were held from St. Joseph's Catholic Church at Rhineland at ten o'clock Saturday morning, with Rev. Fabian Diersing, O. S. B., pastor, officiating. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery under the direction of Mahan Funeral Home.

Pallbearers were Paul Pandleton, W. A. Jungman, Joe Brown, Ted Hertel, Clarence Herring, H. N. Claus, Aaron Edgar and Albert Loran.

Mr. Michels is survived by four children, Mrs. H. F. Jungman, Henry Michels, Jr., and Mrs. Bill Hertel, all of Munday; and Mrs. Carl Jungman of Vernon; four grandchildren; three sisters, Mrs. Clara Eschberger and Mrs. Henry Mattiza, both of Robstown. Among other survivors are two nephews, Eugene and Johnny Michels, both of Munday.

Funeral For Joseph P. Brun Held Tuesday

Joseph Philo Brun, a resident of this area for 21 years, passed away on Monday night, February 4, at the home of his daughter, Dr. Fidelia Moylette of Munday.

Besides his daughter, Dr. Moylette, he is survived by two grandchildren and two great grandsons.

Funeral services were held from St. Joseph's Catholic Church at Rhineland at eight o'clock Tuesday morning, with Rev. Fabian Diersing, O. S. B., pastor, officiating.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

CHESTER, S. C., REUORTER: "The United States was the first country in the history of civilization founded for the preservation of individual freedom. In establishing the 'New Order of the Ages,' the Continental Congress recorded in the Declaration of Independence a list of grievances against the tyrannical King George III, among which were 'He has erected a multitude of new offices, and sent hither swarms of officers to harass our people, and eat out their substance.' One hundred and seventy-five years later we find a swarming bureaucracy within our borders that threatens individual freedom."

ST. IGNATIUS, MONTANA, POST: "We see the vast importance to our local, state and national economy of having private enterprise. Tax-paying institutions, whether little or big are the very life blood of our society."

ARTESIA, N. M., ADVOCATE: "Americans want our armed forces to have everything they need, but there is too much waste and too much extravagance. Those directing the spending and handling of the goods which the tax dollars buy are going to have to be just as efficient, just as economical and just as wise in using and spending as the Average American is today. We can't afford as a nation to continue to increase our tax bill . . . We must be saving . . . and . . . spend wisely if we expect to continue as a nation."

NORTH CANTON, OHIO, SUN: "The ticklish international problem of peace on earth, good will to men, is still the basic issue of our times. There are those who say it cannot be solved, that it must wait for a new generation. But one generation learns from its predecessor, and we have the solemn duty of training those who follow us to cherish the freedom of thought and inquiry which have been the chief sources of Occidental civilization."

THE STATE OF RETAILING

Recent factual reports on the state of retail business contain some interesting bits of information. One is that retail volume has been good—but still not so great as many had anticipated. Another is that many items are selling below the legal ceilings—for the simple reason that competition has driven them down. A third is that retail profits, especially in the general merchandise field, have tended to decline in a percentage basis, and are at an extremely low level.

What this adds up to is that we still have a free economy in this nation, where competition benefits the consumer and the law of supply and demand dominates the conduct of business. And, of great importance, the price control laws and related measures are nowhere near as big a factor in holding down prices as many people think.

Most merchants would be tickled to death if they could get the full OPS price for everything they sell. But even if every OPS order and pol-cy and ceiling price were promulgated by people with the wisdom of a roomful of Solomons, that couldn't make the housewife buy an article if she decided it cost too much. And it couldn't prevent other producers and distributors from selling at a price she was willing to pay.

It may be that a good case for controls can be made on paper. But, in practice, it is always found that "tough" controls discourage production and eventually result in scarcity. We can all remember what happened under the old OPA, when goods vanished from store shelves and when the black market flourished on an all-the-traffic-would-bear basis. A free economy is the only kind which can properly serve the consumer.

REPEAL IS THE ONLY REMEDY

In its January issue, Farm Journal comes out for outright abolishment of the Defense Production Act and the Office of Price Stabilization—the two instruments which have fastened price and other controls of the country.

Farm Journal says, "The law should be repealed. It should not be amended, patched up, strengthened, weakened or tinkered with in any way whatsoever. It should be killed. . . ."

"The nation would heave a vast collective sigh of relief, as in 1946 when we finally ride ourselves of OPA. And after a short period if confusion, the old reliable free price system—the only system that ever can regulate production justly and efficiently—would be back on the job."

"The Control Act does next to nothing to slow down inflation, and by gumming up and discouraging production makes future inflation greater than it would otherwise be. Meanwhile, it produces confusion, recrimination, and hostility among different classes of citizens. The only remedy is to repeal it, and do it quick."

The controls have disrupted the normal, efficient processes of production in industry and agriculture. They have saddled retailers—big and little, chain and independent—with an endless series of arbitrary rules and regulations which, in many cases, have been confusing, conflicting and basically unworkable. Business of all kinds has had to devote more and more of its energies and labor and money to attempting to comply with the ideas of OPS' planners.

A situation such as this hurts everyone—with the exception of the bureaucrats whom OPS employs. Farm Journal is dead right—outright repeal is the only remedy.

Income taxes may be unpleasant, but we know of no other tax we'd like to be able to pay. Trouble is we're hardly ever able to pay them when called upon.

Some employees are like a certain processed coffee: 90% of the active ingredients have been removed from the bean.

Your Home

I've just heard an exciting and beautiful story I know will interest you. It's about a wonderful man, an ideal, and one of our greatest weapons against disease—streptomycin.

In 1943, Dr. Benjamin M. Duggar, a famous botanist, was forced by state law to retire from teaching at the University of Wisconsin because he had reached the age of 71. But then he was asked to go to Lederle Laboratories, at Pearl River, N. Y., to search for an antibiotic drug more powerful than penicillin. He believed that no man should waste himself in idleness if work was to be done, so he accepted the challenge.

Years of tedious research followed as Dr. Duggar and his associates tested thousands upon thousands of soil samples sent from all over the world.

Then one day a golden-colored mold was found. After extensive tests it was discovered that this mold produced a powerful antibiotic drug. Dr. Duggar named it streptomycin.

Chances are that you have used this wonderful drug to combat infections among your family. To date, it has been proved effective against over 60 human diseases, and many diseases of animals. It is especially effective against "virus" pneumonia, "staph" and "strep" throats. It is the most versatile of the so-called "miracle drugs."

Today, at 79, this wonderful Dr. Duggar is still at work in his laboratory looking for even better antibiotics. Who knows what he will discover next?

I wrote to Dr. Duggar and asked him if he plans to "retire" again. He wrote back: "I feel that so long as I am physically and mentally able, I shall devote myself to scientific research, with the hope that I may play a part, even though small, in other discoveries which will combat disease."

Isn't that wonderful?

Treating Cotton Planting Seed Good Insurance

The 1952 agricultural crop goals call for the highest production on record. They can best be met if every acre of cropland is put to its best use and weather conditions are favorable. Cotton producers have been asked to produce a 16 million acre crop in 1952 and Texas farmers will play a mighty important role in this undertaking.

According to Fred C. Elliott, cotton work specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Every "trick of the trade" will have to be used if the goal is met. Good management, insect control and the full utilization of labor and machinery must be used in the production operations.

Good management begins early and stays late, says Elliott. A mighty important practice, he adds, is treating the planting seed. The scarcity of labor adds to the importance of getting a good stand of cotton on the first planting. Replanting

Munday Truck & Tractor Company

is an expensive job and can often be avoided by the simple process of treating the planting seed. Treating kills seed borne disease, protects the seed and seedlings from diseases which may be in the soil and gives a better stand of cotton, he says.

The two worst cotton seedling killers in Texas are angular leaf spot and soreshin. In the Blacklands of Texas, angular leaf spot ranks next to root rot as the number one hazard in cotton production, says Elliott. It first shows up on the leaves of the young seedling and appears as a small, green water-soaked spot that resembles a bruise. If damp weather sets in after the seedlings come up, the disease spreads over the entire plant and unless the planting seed was chemically treated before planting, many of the plants may be killed. The disease affects the fruiting habits of the cotton plant and carries through to the older plants where it appears as angular spots on the leaves and as bacterial rot on the bolls.

Soreshin shows up as a brown diseased area on the stem of the cotton seedling either above or below the ground line and it causes shriveling of the plant tissues which kills the plant.

At the Temple Agricultural Experiment Substation, Elliott says cottonseed treated with either two or five per cent ceras gave from 25 to 30 per cent better stands than did untreated seed. The plants showed less angular leaf spot and yielded more than 50 pounds of lint cotton per acre than did the plots planted with untreated seed. Seedlings from treated seed usually make more rapid growth during the early growing season, says Elliott.

For cotton producers who are not familiar with the process of treating cotton planting seed, Elliott suggests that they visit their local county agent for information on the chemical to use and methods for treating the job. He points out that producers who have large quantities of seed to treat might find it economical to have the job done by a commercial operator.

Regardless of who does the job he says, be sure that the seeds are covered with the treating agent and that the right material is used. America and her world allies need every bale of cotton that can be produced in 1952 and Elliott urges cotton farmers to use the best known production practices so that maximum yields can be obtained from every acre planted.

Knox Prairie Philosopher Offers Some Advice To Congress On How To Get An Accurate Estimate On Crops

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek is tackling a big problem this week, his letter reveals. Dear editor:

A north wind which was sandwiched in between two south winds turned up a newspaper out here yesterday and the first thing I noticed in it after I pulled out of earshot of my wife and her constant proposals for improvin this place which suits me like it is was an article sayin in the House Agriculture Committee in Washington is wantin some advice on how the Agriculture Department can forecast the annual cotton crop a little more accurately. As I understand it, the Department guessed wrong on cotton production last year, with the farmer, as usual, taking a

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Experienced Hand Wanted

Cappy Miller's back from visitin relatives and tells about a big snow storm that knocked out the electric power for miles around.

Naturally, the local power company was doing everything possible to restore service but folks kept calling in and one woman gave them a new twist.

"I don't mind not having lights," she grumbled, "but I've got 20 cows in my barn and they all have to be milked by machine. Nobody around here knows how to milk a cow by hand any more."

From where I sit, it's only too easy to forget how to do something—even as simple as milking a cow—if we don't keep at it. And that goes for practicing tolerance, too. Like forgetting our neighbor has a right to decide for himself whether or not to enjoy a temperate glass of beer. If we don't keep the other fellow's point of view in mind we're all liable to get "snowed under" by intolerance.

How To "Do Over" A Chair— With Latex Foam Cushioning

The development of latex foam cushioning, now available "by the yard" in retail stores, makes the re-upholstering of chairs an easy job in the home.

A new era of "cushion comfort" has arrived with the development of latex foam since World War II. Latex foam is made from the milk of the rubber tree, whipped into a creamy froth and baked like a cake in molds. You can buy it "by the yard" in varying thicknesses and densities in retail stores.

Scissors, tacking tape and special fabricating cement are the only tools you need to reupholster chairs and sofas using latex foam.

You simply cut a piece of latex foam to the desired shape and cover it. It doesn't sag or get lumpy, and it will practically never wear out.

For complete information about latex foam and instructions on how to re-upholster furniture, write to the Natural Rubber Bureau, Dept. N400, 1631 K St., N.W., Washington 6, D. C. for a free booklet entitled "Convert to Comfort with Latex Foam."

heatin. The Department started out in August estimatin a crop of 17 million bales, then raised it to 18 million in September. In September of course a lot of farmers are sellin cotton, and this forecast of a big crop caused prices to drop. As a matter of fact, they dropped from 40 cents to 34 cents, then in December, after a big portion of the cotton, except that in far West Texas, was sold, the estimate dropped back to 15 million, and as you know the price of cotton then went up to 43 cents or more.

This played havoc with a lot of farmers, as it ain't no easy thing to sell your cotton for 34 cents a pound and a month or two later see somebody else who never touched a cultivator in his life sell it for 43 cents, a gain of nearly $50 a bale. Most farmers I know, includin myself, had just as soon have that 50 themselves.

At any rate, Congress wants some advice on how to make the

GENERAL YARD REMINDERS FOR FEB.

February is the last month for planting shrubs and trees in most of Texas. Remember this. Plant shrubs for screening out-buildings, barns, work areas and windbreaks.

Sadie Hatfield, homestead improvement specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, says that the lawn should be leveled and fertilized. Make the grounds easy to mow by taking up scattered shrubs and flower beds. An unbroken lawn makes a good background against which all the landscape is seen. February also is time to plant grass, continues Miss Hatfield. There are several grasses which may be used on Texas lawns. With the wide variety of soils and climate, no one grass is best adapted to all areas. Selection of the grass desired may be based on personal preference. Consult the local county Extension agents for grasses best suited to particular areas.

Check the dusting and spraying equipment to see whether it is in working condition. If it is not, repair or buy new ones. Learn where and when to use insect and disease controls such as sulphur, chlordane and nicotine sulphate (Black Leaf 40).

Miss Quinta Wiggins of Wichita Falls visited relatives here over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Benton and sons, Mike and Pat, of Fort Worth were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Crockett the first of this week.

Letters From The People

A LETTER FROM KOREA

Editor's Note: The following is a liberal quotation from the letter of Corporal William F. Cox, Headquarters Company, 55th Field Artillery Battalion, as he wrote it from "about 52 miles north of the 38th Parallel."

"We have been a front line outfit since August and never even under the worst of circumstances have we had to go without at least five movies a week. Imagine that, doesn't it stir your blood a little? We are just one battalion, there are thousands of battalions and the same story fits them all.

"When darkness sets in thousands of movies start to roll, in tents, ground dugouts, on a hillside, in hand constructed buildings, in rice paddies and in many other places. I have stood on top of a hill at night and looked down in a valley and have seen nine movies going at once. From every mountain you can see the same scene. From one section you can hear hot jazz music from "The Strip", and from another you can hear Lanza thriller and so on.

"These three hundred thousand men are movie fans. These movies are their touch of home. The movies, I have heard a high-ranking officer say it, are the morale of the troops in Korea. "These men sit at these movies with loaded weapons at all times, at least the frontline outfits. Guards patrol the areas where they are being shown. In my own case, I and my buddies have sat watching the movies with 105 and 155 artillery rounds enemy. In at least two cases, we going over our heads toward the had incoming rounds within 200 yards and there wasn't one guy

Activities Of The Colored People

The Dunbar P. T. A. held its regular meeting Thursday night at the school. The amount of dues paid was $4.00.

There will be a "Womanless Wedding" at the school Thursday night at 7:30. The funds will be used to buy basketball uniforms for the girls team.

Sunday afternoon at 3:30, the nightingales of Anson will bring a program to the school. This activity is sponsored by the P. T. A. After the program chicken dinners will be sold. The public is invited to attend.

Mrs. P. V. Williams spent last Thursday in Abilene, visiting with her sister, Mrs. Ruby Keithley.

That would leave the movie. "Tired, fatigued, and completely exhausted, young soldiers stop to see a movie, and then as if by a miracle they become less tired, less fatigued, and their exhaustion seems to pass by the couple of hours relaxation given to them through a movie.

"It takes hundreds of young projectionists to show these movies and the Army takes great care in training these inexperienced young men for this job. Other hundreds of young men learn to handle the moving of the film prints. Each division has a film print center and they are busy 24 hours a day. Right here in Korea we have a whole movie industry.

"Well, these are the things that I wanted to pass on to you. Just possibly they might be of some use in some way. They can never be exaggerated enough, believe me."

State Draft Call For March For 1,858 Men

AUSTIN—The state draft call for March—1,858 men—was received at state Selective Service headquarters today, Brigadier General Paul L. Wakefield, state draft director, announced.

The March figure compares with February and January induction quotas of 2,027 and 1,471, respectively. These quotas are considerably less than the same months a year ago. Quotas the first three months of 1951 averaged more than 4,000 a month.

Local board quotas for March have not been figured, General Wakefield said. State headquarters expects to have the local quotas in the mail on February 8th.

The March call will be filled with the same age groups that are being used to fill the February call—men 20 years old and above. General Wakefield estimated that half the March call can be filled with men 21 years old and above. "By far the biggest percentage of our examined and acceptable men are 20-year-olds," General Wakefield said. "We are having a large group of men 21 years old and above examined in February. We are doing our best to follow the law, which says the oldest shall go first."

A total of 4,328 men 21 years old and above are scheduled for the armed forces mental and physical tests in February.

There will be no re-examination of 4-Fs in February, in accordance with instructions from Selective Service national headquarters. General Wakefield said. A total of 2,391 4-Fs are being re-examined in January. Texas has a total of 13,211 4-Fs to be re-examined.

In this modern day and age, many housewives throughout the country are skipping rinsing in their washday chores. This has been made possible by a product designed to eliminate rinsing completely—No-Rinse Surf. The result of five years of laboratory work, this product saves five tons of lifting and 11,000 gallons of water each year in the average home, leaving two-and-one-half hours extra each week for Red Cross and other War Defense tasks. It is a cleaner, whiter wash.

Wringer rollers perform better and last longer if certain rules of maintenance are followed. Because the rollers are made of rubber or a substitute, there is a certain amount of elasticity or give to them. To conserve this important characteristic, you should release the pressure on the rollers after your wringing is complete. This will prevent them from becoming flat-sided, and also prevent sticking. A point to be remembered is that washing machine rollers should be flushed with clean water to prevent a residue from building up on them. Many housewives find it helpful to flush, release, and insert a piece of paper or cloth between the rollers when they are not in use.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Dr. Geo. W. Cox
M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

AUSTIN—More than 90 per cent of all school-age children in this country are fugitives from a dentist's chair, an official memorandum from the Governor's office points out.

In an effort to call attention to the fact that children's teeth are decaying six times faster than they are being filled, Governor Allan Shivers has designated February 4, as Children's Dental Health Day in Texas. Texas' observance is part of a national program of children's dental health.

"Dental decay afflicts an estimated 90 per cent of school-age children," the Governor wrote into the memorandum. "Dental health of our children should be a major concern of our community."

This will make the fourth year that state health authorities and private dental practitioners have teamed together to combat widespread dental deterioration of children's teeth. The Texas State Department of Health and the State Dental Society are sponsoring the state observance.

One of the biggest hurdles to be overcome, program sponsors say, is the attitude that baby teeth are insignificant.

"They aren't," Dr. Geo. W. Cox said. "Our dental scientists tell us that first teeth have a vital bearing on the condition of permanent teeth."

The Governor's memorandum read: "The thought, attention, and efforts of those in the dental profession are concerned with preventive measures for children that they may be assured a substantial measure of dental health."

"The establishment of such preventive measures as fluoridation of public water supplies is encouraged by public health leaders as one of the dental profession's most powerful allies in improving the nation's dental health."

He appealed to "agencies, organizations, and individuals to mark the occasion" by calling public attention to the plight of youngsters' teeth.

BOYCE HOUSE

Believe-it-or-nots of American political history (as given in Champ Clark's autobiography): Daniel Webster served in the House of Representatives from New Hampshire and in the Senate from Massachusetts. James Hamilton Lewis was a Congressman from Washington and a Senator from Illinois. "Sunset" Cox served eight years in the House from Ohio, then many years in the House from New York. Clinton was governor of New York 22 years. A former president of the United States served a short time in the Confederate Congress. He was Tyler. Edward Everett served four terms as governor of Massachusetts and was defeated for a fifth term by one vote. This defeat eliminated him as a Presidential contender. He was offered a presidency, however—of the Greek republic. Everett, a scholarly man and accounted a great orator, is mainly remembered because he made a two-hour speech which nobody remembers anything from on the same occasion that Abraham spoke for three minutes and the world will always remember the Gettysburg Address. A father and son once served together in the United States Senate. The elder Dodge represented Wisconsin; the son, Iowa. A misfortune doesn't have to

Lets Loose When It Hits Stone

Damage to plows by stumps and stones is pretty well prevented with a new Break-Away plow developed by engineers of the J. I. Case Co. Because tractor-mounted plows are poorly suited to ordinary release hitches, the Break-Away plow itself separates when it strikes stump or stone, leaving its fore-frame still mounted on Eagle Hitch of the Case Tractor. It is automatically recoupled by backing the tractor. The Break-Away plow can be used with "economy bottoms" that have low-cost disposable shares which are simply replaced when dull—rather than requiring trip to the blacksmith shop.

$40 or more in a year, you must pay 2 1/2% on your earnings up to $3,600.00 a year. The only exceptions are professional people such as doctors, lawyers, and a few others. If you don't know whether your work is now covered, just call or go to your nearest social security office and ask for a booklet called "Do You Work for Yourself?" As Tate points out, you are paying this tax to buy protection under the old-age and survivors insurance program. In order to credit earnings under your name, it is necessary that you have an account number—a social security account number. "You should get a social security account card if you don't already have one. You'll need it before you file your 1951 return early this year," says Tate. A representative of the Wichita Falls social security office will be at Munday at the Post Office on Thursday, February 14, 1952 at 10:00 a. m. Please contact him if you have any questions regarding social security.

February 6-12
Being Observed As
Boy Scout Week

This week Boy Scouts all over America are paying tribute to that memorable date, February 8, 1910, when the first Boy Scout movement was begun. This week, February 6 to 12, is being observed as Boy Scout Week all over America—and the 42nd anniversary of the founding this worthy organization.

The Boy Scouts have grown until it is one of the nation's greatest organizations today, with 2,900,000 members. They enjoy the role they play. There's fun and adventure in their Scouting activities, and their program is that of laying the groundwork that helps American boys to become better citizens of the future.

Scouting has become so woven into the American way of life it is difficult to recall when our nation did not have this character-building, leisure time program for its youth.

Yet Scouting suffers in small communities like Munday. For 13 years, to our knowledge, it has been difficult to keep an active live-wire Scout organization going in Munday. Some of it's lack of interest upon the part of the boys, the lack of adult leadership, Scout adult committees failing to function in carrying out the Scout program, parents not showing interest in the program, etc.

Despite the difficulties locally, the overall Scouting program—that of building men of tomorrow—is a worthy one. The movement is worthy, or it could not have continued to grow during all these 42 years.

Mrs. Eletha Joyce and son, Thomas, of Albany came in Wednesday of last week to visit their mother and grandmother, Mrs. J. B. Bowden. Lane Joyce came after them on Sunday.

and asked for measures to correct the situation.

Following the lengthy discussion Monday night, Mayor Moore issued the following statement—and we quote:

"Owing to the emergency being created by citizens' cars following the fire fighting equipment to the fires, stringent action of some kind will have to be taken.

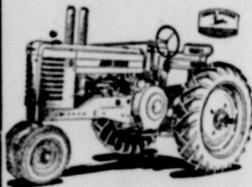

"At the request of the fire-boys, I am deputizing five of their personnel to arrest and file complaints of offenders. I sincerely hope that it will not be necessary for me to fine anyone, but the situation is so serious that drastic corrective measures are imperative.

W. R. MOORE, Mayor."

So if you get the urge to follow the fire truck next time the alarm sounds—don't do it!
