Odds Bits Salvaged

For 26 consecutive days, the sun shot its rays down on us, and the mercury soared up above the century mark.

On July 3, it was below 100 for the last time during the month until the 30th day of July, when it hit a cool 97. On July 31, we registered 90, then back to 99 on August 1.

After these three days the thermometer climbed back past 100.

We sweated and mopped and perspired. Spent as much time as possible near air conditioners, found extra excuses to drop in at the bank and at Atkinson's to be revitalized by those refrigerated conditioners.

All this time without rain or promise of rain.

So when the shower began falling early Monday morning we welcomed the relief, even purposely stepped into the mud to see how mud looked on our shoes.

Even though we received only .36 of an inch by official report, the shower showed up just what a blessed relief a full-fledged rain would bring.

We still have hopes of ginning cotton this fall, and local gins are getting things in order.

Met Mr. Bill Quattlebaum last week. He has moved his family here from Abilene, and as a mechanical engineer is going to help Hap Pendleton supervise operations of Paymaster Gins in this area.

Who said we weren't going to have a swimming pool?

Heard last Monday that the contract had been all fixed up and the contractor was supposed to start working that day.

Just to confirm things, we drove out by the city's new water supply system, and sure enough, there was a dozer just dozing out a big bunch of earth.

Youngsters may not get in much swimming this year, but think of the fun they'll have when the season opens next year.

It was with some regret that we read in daily paper Sunday that Coach Vernon Leverett has resigned his position with the Munday schools.

As coach of the Moguls, Leverett has done a great job. He didn't have too much success in the football end of athletics, but his cage teams didn't do bad and his track teams showed improvement each year.

Leverett exhibited a good influence among the boys, we think, and the two years he spent with our young men will be remembered for a long time to come. We wish him much success as he enters the school administration field.

One of the most industrious little workers we've seen lately is the little colored boy who operates the lawn mower on the city hall lawn.

He's out there early in the morning, at midday, or just any time he's needed, it seems. We just wish the thrill of operating a lawn mower would stay with us like it does this fellow.

But when the sun gets to bearing down real hard and the breeze stops blowing, we just can't get much kick out of following one of those things back and forth over the lawn.

The heat of summer kinda takes the vim, vigor, vitality and ambition out of us, anyway. That's why we felt such a relief Monday, even though it was short-lived.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Harrell were business visitors in Dallas the first of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chalmers Hobert and children and Mrs. L. W. Hobert visited Mrs. Jo Mae Davis in Abilene several days last week.

Goree School To Begin Term September 6th

J. B. Lawson, superintendent of the Goree Public School, announced Tuesday that the 1954-55 term of school will begin on Monday, September 6, with classes beginning next day.

Quite a bit of improvement has been made to the buildings in getting them ready for the new school year. The gymnasium has been repainted and work of repairing the floors of the high school building is completed.

Two new school buses will be put into service this year, these taking the south and northwest runs. The same drivers will serve on these runs, taking practically the same routes as in past years. Mr. Lawson stated further that patrons will be notified if they will be affected by any change in bus routes.

New Sensation Of Show Business To Star In Electric Fair August 19-20

One of the country's newest additions to big time show business will be in Seymour on August 19-20 as one of the stars of the annual meeting and electric fair of B-K Electric Co-op.

He is 26 year old Bob Johnson, a sensational balancing artist whose breath taking feats take place high in the big top. Balancing himself high above the heads of his audience, Johnson weaves and turns as he skillfully balances himself to the delight of every crowd he has entertained.

Accompanying Johnson with the electric fair will be Harold Stretz, a polished young magician whose acts include illusion, pantomime, ventriloquism, and whip artistry. From out of nowhere he can produce flowers and a fishbowl, or he can bake a cake in the hat of a member of his audience.

Other acts under the "big top" during this year's annual meeting and electric fair will include

Announce New Dodge, Plymouth Dealers Here

Opening of a new Dodge and Plymouth dealership known as Harrel's Motor and Equipment was announced this week.

The new firm has on display the beautiful new Dodge, in both Red Ram V-8 and get-away six models, and the sparkling high style Plymouth, both products of the Chrysler Corporation.

A service department equipped with modern, up-to-date equipment and tools and staffed by mechanics trained in factory methods and using only factory approved parts are other highlights of the new firm.

"We want as many people as possible to try out the new Dodge, the car that holds 196 official AAA records for performance, endurance and stamina," the new dealers said.

It's the car that was chosen to pace the 1954 Indianapolis 500-mile race for its great performance and achievements. Dodge also scored its second consecutive economy success in the Mobilgas economy run by taking first place honors for low-medium price cars in the 1954 running event.

"We're proud to be selling Dodge and Plymouth automobiles, and we want to tell everybody why. We're equally proud of our service department where first-quality work is done efficiently, quickly and economically."

The Benjamin corporal entered the Army in April 1953.

PIONEERS GATHER AT MACKENZIE STATE PARK

The Knox and Haskell county pioneers reunion was held in MacKenzie State Park in Lubbock last Sunday. It was estimated that about 500 attended during the day, however, the crowd was not so large around the tables provided for the noon basket lunch.

It seemed that various groups gathered and spread their lunch on the lawn, getting away from the original idea of the two-county reunion, and it was impossible to have all to register.

We hope in the future the entire group will gather in the designated location.

In the business session A. G. Jungman of Pep was re-elected chairman; E. C. Hawes of Canyon, vice chairman; S. C. Rawlings of Lubbock and Jim Reid of Lubbock, re-elected directors. The next reunion will be held the second Sunday in August, 1955, at the same location.

KEEP THE MERCHANT MARINE ALIVE

Leaders in our merchant marine industry, along with officials of maritime unions, have presented a very strong case for legislation assuring that 50 per cent of all foreign-aid cargoes, which are created with taxpayers' money, be carried in American merchant ships. The 50-50 ratio has been approved by Congress in the past and applied to specific shipments. But it has not been made a permanent policy which applies to all shipments of this character.

A spokesman for the American Merchant Marine Institute told a House Committee: "The very existence of our commercial shipping industry depends entirely on cargoes which in the face of today's increasingly severe foreign competition, are less and less available for American ships. We are all convinced—management and labor alike—that in order to survive, America's merchant marine must carry a fair portion of the cargoes paid for by American taxpayers and controlled by our government."

The biggest factor here is the national interest. In today's chaotic world it would be folly for any great maritime country to depend upon foreign merchant ships in time of peace—and it could prove ruinous if we had to depend on them in time of war. The merchant marine is fighting for its life. The very reasonable 50-50 ratio on government controlled, tax-bought cargoes is one of the measures needed to keep it alive.

FOOD AND GASOLINE

We have read much about Guatemala recently. As usual where Communism is involved, discord and revolution brought misery and loss to the common citizen.

The country's economy was sagging badly after the new anti-Communist government took over. An interesting commentary on the situation appeared in Newsweek which said: "Food and gasoline were short and inflation was depressing the market."

It is rather startling to see gasoline bracketed with food. One does not ordinarily think of it as being so vital a necessity, and yet what would happen in the United States if the gasoline supply were shut off for even a few days? Confusion would be complete in cities and on the farm, and in many cases food would be unobtainable.

The United States can be thankful that it has the greatest systems of food and gasoline distribution in the world. The two can be rightly paired together as necessities.

YOUR KITCHEN—AND FARM MACHINERY

The modern kitchen is a miracle of labor-saving convenience. Electric ranges, refrigerators, washers and all manner of appliances have transformed both the urban and rural home.

That kitchen, strange as the idea may seem, wouldn't be possible if it weren't for farm machinery—tractors and harvesters and all the rest!

Here's the reason. In this nation's early days, it took 85 farm workers to produce enough food for themselves and 15 others—now 15 farmers produce enough for themselves and 85 others. To come down to modern times, in the past 40 years farm output has doubled—while the number of manhours needed to achieve the enormous production has steadily declined. That means that vast armies of people have been able to take jobs in industry. They produce automobiles, stoves, TV sets and all the thousand other things that make for better living. To take one example, a modern combine saves in a single day enough manpower to manufacture a refrigerator. There would be only a comparative handful of people available to man the factories if we were still dependent on human and animal labor to do the jobs of the farm.

Farm output must be much greater still in the future—our soaring population makes that certain. And again machinery will make the task possible and at the same time leave plenty of workers for our other needs.

ROOSTERS AND POLITICIANS

Did you ever notice people in public life who make you think of roosters in the act of flapping their wings and crowing? They both make a lot of noise, but don't say much.

The Atlantic City Press quotes an authority as saying that you have to do to quiet the silence-splintering rooster is to build a ceiling 12 to 18 inches high over the roost where the head of the flock rests at night. When the rooster raises his neck at the crack of dawn to shatter some delicate nervous system, he will give his head a smart rap on the board above his roost. This will so surprise him he will forget to crow.

It is too bad the plan outlined by the Press cannot be applied to many political figures—a ceiling on which they would crack their heads when arising to sound off like the rooster.

"WHAT WE FIND WHEN WE GO BACK TO JERUSALEM"

Suppose one should take you in the name of Jesus New Testament and go to Jerusalem on Pentecost, the place and time of the establishment of the church. What would he find? He would find Peter, freshly baptized in the Holy Spirit, using the "Keys of the kingdom of heaven." (Matt. 16:19.) A short time before this the Lord had said, "Upon this rock I will build my church." (Matt. 16:18.) After his resurrection and before his ascension he had given the world wide commission saying, "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved." (Mk. 16:15-16.) Simon Peter, a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ, now presents infallible proofs to a vast and astonishing multitude that Jesus Christ has indeed risen, and "that God hath made him both Lord and Christ." Thousands believe him and cry out for mercy.

Now when we heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and the rest of the apostles, Brethren what shall we do? And Peter said unto them, repent, and be baptized every one of

The Results of This Sermon

Then they that gladly received his word were baptized; and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls. (Acts 2:41.) "And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved." (Acts 2:47.)

What now do we have? The church of Christ. He had promised to build it and now that promise is fulfilled. What is the church of Christ? It is the body of Christ, (Eph. 1:22-23.) consisting of all the Christians in Jerusalem, all the Christians in the world at that time. Were there any Christians in Jerusalem who did not belong to the church, you can not find a single one. The line is clearly drawn between the church and the world, between those who were the Lord's and those who were not. And the same was true of other congregations as they were established in various places throughout the world.

PAYNE HATTON, Evangelist

Bill Longley was hanged three times—and some folks believe that he survived all three.

Longley lived by virtue of his skill with the sixshooters in the stormy days of Reconstruction and there are various figures as to how many men he killed, but the figures are all large.

The first time he was hanged was when he happened to be riding with a gang of thieves and killers when they were overtaken by a posse. Longley was strung up with his companions. As the posse was riding away, one member turned and fired a volley. A bullet hit the rope from which Longley dangled and, soon after, the weakened strand gave way.

When Longley was sentenced to hang for murder in Texas, the rope broke and he had to be dropped a second time. So he was hanged three times.

There were some who said he had been rigged up with a special contraption of leather and did not die but was hurried away by friends and was resuscitated.

Long-haired Jim Courtright was a renowned wielder of the six-gun.

Courtright, who was marshal of Fort Worth in the 1880's, could shoot equally well with either hand. He was master of the "border shift", a maneuver wherein the gunfighter drew, fired, tossed the pistol in the air, caught it with the other hand and resumed firing.

Courtright and Luke Short shot it out one day at Fort Worth. Short's first bullet struck Courtright's right thumb and he attempted the border shift but while his pistol was in the air, Short's next shot proved fatal.

The greatest amount of loot ever obtained in a robbery in the world was $2,000,000 in the hold-up of a train at Roundout, Illinois. Five took part in the hold-up—and three were from Texas. They were brothers.

EXPANDED SUPPLIES OF CATTLE SELL BETTER!

FORT WORTH—Monday's offerings of cattle and calves was considerably above most of the Monday runs of the past month, but prices were stronger in spite of the bigger numbers.

Giving impetus to the trade was the continued improvement of the stocker and feeder trade. Apparently stocker and feeder buyers are abandoning their earlier position that prices would be lower this season and are taking hold at present levels in much greater volume.

Lending strength to this theory was the improved movement of the plainer kinds of stockers at Fort Worth Monday. Many of the lighter weights of calves also were getting good action, and dealers here commented that many of the calves selling in the $14 to $16.50 bracket Monday were comparable to kinds a year ago that sold at $10 to $12.

Major packers are making their buying power felt as they were more aggressive buyers than usual for a Monday trade and this resulted in more active trade and fully steady to stronger prices on slaughter varieties of cattle and calves. The increased contention of the major packers forced the shipper and independent butcher trade to move faster in order to get their needs.

FAT CATTLE TOPPED AT $22, STOCK CAVES $19

Good and choice fed steers and yearlings at Fort Worth Monday drew $18 to $22. C. F. Mock & Son, Oklahoma, had four loads of 1,046-pound steers at $22 and Clyde McClung, Johnson County, Texas, had two loads of steers at $22 that averaged 1,022 and two loads of heifers at 774 pounds at $20.

Fat cows sold from $9 to $12, a few heiferish kinds higher, a load of horned cows from Furd Halsell & Son, Tarrant County, averaged 1,126 pounds at $12.

Canners and cutters sold from $6 to $9.50. Bulls drew $8 to $12.

50, some individuals up to $13. Fat calves of good and choice kinds cashed at $14.50 to $18.50 and common and medium butcher sorts sold around $11 to $14, with culls from $8 to $10.

Stocker steer calves cashed at $15 to $19 when good and choice and the $19 price representing some choice feeding calves like those from J. B. McCord of Coleman County, the 26 head averaging 485 pounds at $19. Stocker steer yearlings sold from $18.50 down, and numerous loads and smaller lots of the plain to medium stocker kinds sold from $12 to $14.50. Stocker cows drew $7 to $12.

LAMBS ADVANCED 50; DRESSED TRADE HIGHER

Fat lambs were fully 25 to 50 cents higher at Fort Worth Monday as the market found stronger support from smaller supplies and also from a 2c to 3c per pound advance in dressed lamb prices in New York.

Good and choice fat lambs cashed at $17 to $19, the top established by a string of lambs averaging 83 pounds at $19 that came from Zack Taylor, Tatum, New Mexico. There were 526 lambs in this shipment. Common and medium slaughter lambs drew $11 to $15 and culls sold around $8 to $10.

Stocker and feeder lambs cashed at $10 to $14.50. Slaughter yearling wethers sold from $8 to $12, while aged wethers drew $6 to $9. Slaughter ewes drew $3.50 to $4.50, and old bucks sold around $3.

HOGS AT BEST PRICES IN ABOUT A MONTH

Hogs topped at $23.75 to $24 at Fort Worth Monday, the best in some weeks, and that market was 25 to 50 cents above the close of last week. Shippers having $24 hogs included Ed Young, Tarrant County; The Pythian Home, Weatherford; S. G. Goren, Argyle; O. D. Stone, Tarrant County; Perry Clepper, Ev-erman; J. L. Walter, McLennan County; Henry Ballweg, Tarrant County.

How-to: Magazine Rack

ILLUSTRATED here is a simply-made but practical magazine rack for the living room or porch. The only parts needed are two pieces of Masonite Tempered Duolux, a 1/4" hardboard which is smooth on both sides, and some lumber 1" square. Dimensions of the trough may be 30 inches long, with the front panel 4 inches wide and the back panel 14 inches wide.

As shown, the bottoms of the wood legs are angled so they'll stand flat on the floor. Flat-headed screws are used to fasten the hardboard to the legs. The heads should be countersunk and the holes then filled with wood putty. Screws are inserted through drilled holes in the hardboard and driven into the wood.

The legs, where they join, are fastened with screws.

Paint the ensemble in attractive colors, first using a primer.

ROTARY HOEING OF DONE AT 18 MILES AN HOUR IN TESTS

Speed is important in modern farming operations. It means covering large acreages in a hurry and before weeds and grass have taken over a crop. For several years cotton farmers have been rotary hoeing at speeds up to six miles an hour, but this spring, H. E. Rea, a Texas Agricultural Experiment Station agronomist, has literally made a race track out of the cotton patch.

He has perfected a two-row trailer-type rotary hoe which has been successfully operated on the Brazos River Valley Laboratory over one-week old cotton at 18 miles an hour. He says over 95 per cent of the cotton hoed with this machine suffered no damage from the operation.

Heavy rains which hit the area in late April and early May just about stopped normal field operations. Weeds and grass followed and the rains and drying conditions caused a thick soil crust. Speed thus became important and the use of new rotary hoe increased the available working time during the rainy weather 166 percent over that available for sweep cultivation or for the use of rotary hoeing attachments with sweep cultivation. Cotton from one to five weeks of age was successfully hoed with the new machine at rates of 6 to 8 acres an hour.

Here is Rea's summary of what the new machine did this spring. From 65 to 70 percent of the annual weeds and grass seedlings were controlled with one rotary hoeing with the new machine; two or more hoeings increased the control to 85 to 90 percent and 95 to 98 percent control was obtained when the rotary hoeing was preceded by the pre-emergence use of CIPC at 8, 10 and 12 pounds an acre respectively or Karmex L or Kar-mel DL at 1, 1 1/2 and 1 1/2 pounds an acre, respectively, on Miller clay soil. Lower rates of these chemicals must be applied on lighter soils, he says.

It all adds up, says Rea, to lower production costs and that means more profit at the end of the year.

Results of the trials and a description of the new machine are available upon request from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas. Ask for Progress Report 1691.

Margaret Jean Bowman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vester Bowman, became the bride of Bob Lambeth of Midland at 7:00 Saturday evening in the First Methodist Church.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. V. G. Lambeth of Goree.

The Rev. S. E. Stevenson, pastor of the First Baptist Church, performed the double ring ceremony before an arch of greenery entwined with flowers. This was flanked by branched candelabra holding white tapers and by baskets of white gladioli tied with blue satin ribbon.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was the bride's sister, Nancy Bowman, of Midland. Bridesmaids were Marie Inman of Abilene and Linda Joyce Lambeth of Goree, sister of the bridegroom.

Best man was the bridegroom's brother, Pvt. Douglas Lambeth of Fort Bliss. Ushers were Martin Bowman of Goree, cousin of the bride, and Bob Laws of Vera.

Candlelighters were Don Lambeth, brother of the bridegroom, and Don Bowman, cousin of the bride.

Connie Haskins, organist, played traditional wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Bill Wright when she sang "Through the Years," "Because," and "The Lord's Prayer." "Claire De Lune" was played throughout the ceremony by Miss Haskins.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore an original model of white nylon tulle over net and taffeta. It was designed with portrait neckline outlined with applique of lace. The tightly fitted bodice and tiny sleeves were of shirred tulle and were complimented by matching tulle gauntlets. The waistline was accented by a deep point at center front. From this stemmed a voluminous skirt of shirred tulle embroidered with elaborate appliques of

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Henry A. Holle, M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

AUSTIN—There is little doubt that summer is here. If you do not think so, take a quick look at your thermometer or feel your shirt or blouse—chances are that it will be wet and salty with sweat.

Excessive sweating means the loss of body salt, and Dr. Henry A. Holle, State Health Officer, advises the use of salt in drinking water as a means of avoiding heat cramps.

"Salt is a prominent constituent of sweat," says Dr. Holle. "On days when the thermometer goes to 90 degrees or above, as it has recently, the body may lose as much as fifty grams of salt. Laborers, farmers, and even white-collar workers should be especially watchful of heat cramps."

Heat cramps are characterized by pains in the stomach, headaches, and sometimes nausea and vomiting. The danger comes because the loss of the salt may occur without the knowledge of the individual until the deficiency causes cramps or heat fag.

Salt tablets may be purchased commercially. If they are not available, a pinch of table salt will serve the same purpose. "Since milk contains more salt than water, drinking milk is an excellent method of replacing body salt lost through perspiration," Dr. Holle says.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Felty of Celeste were week end guests of their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Jackson and Kenny. Mrs. Jackson and Kenny returned home with them for a week's visit.

Every person subject to none of the foregoing disqualifications who shall have attained the age of twenty-one (21) years and who shall be a citizen of the United States and who shall have resided in this State one (1) year next preceding an election and the last six (6) months within the district or county in which such person offers to vote, shall be deemed a qualified elector; and provided further, that any voter who is subject to pay a poll tax under the laws of the State of Texas shall have paid said tax before offering to vote at any election in this State and hold a receipt showing that said poll tax was paid before the first day of February next preceding such election. Or if said voter shall have lost or mislaid said tax receipt, he or she, as the case may be, shall be entitled to vote upon making affidavit before any officer authorized to administer oaths that such tax receipt has been lost. Such affidavit shall be made in writing and left with the judge of the election. The husband may pay the poll tax of his wife and receive the receipt therefor. In like manner, the wife may pay the poll tax of her husband and receive the receipt therefor. The Legislature may authorize absentee voting. And this provision of the Constitution shall be self-enforcing without the necessity of further legislation. Any member of the Armed Forces of the United States or component branches thereof, or in the military service of the United States, may vote only in the county in which he or she resided at the time of entering such service so long as he or she is a member of the Armed Forces."

"FOR the amendment of Sections 1 and 2 of Article VI of the Constitution of the State of Texas so as to confer the privilege to vote upon members of the regular establishment of the United States Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Air Force, or component branches thereof, who are otherwise qualified electors; and so as to limit voting by persons in the military service of the United States to the county in which the voter resided at the time of entering such service; and for the repeal of Section 2a of Article VI of the Constitution, which now permits qualified electors in military service to vote without payment of a poll tax in time of war."

"AGAINST the amendment of Sections 1 and 2 of Article VI of the Constitution of Texas so as to confer the privilege to vote upon members of the regular establishment of the United States Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Air Force, or component branches thereof, who are otherwise qualified electors; and so as to limit voting by persons in the military service of the United States to the county in which the voter resided at the time of entering such service; and for the repeal of Section 2a of Article VI of the Constitution, which now permits qualified electors in military service to vote without payment of a poll tax in time of war."

Sec. 3. The Governor shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have the same published as required by the Constitution and laws of this State.

AS GENERAL ELECTRIC SEES IT . . .

The atom will produce power for homes in 5 to 10 years

Full-sized plants will generate electricity from atomic energy without government subsidy

Protective plastic suit enables technicians to work safely. 12,000 G-E employees are assigned to atomic projects.

Biggest question in producing electricity with atomic energy has not been: Can it be done?—but: How can it be done economically on a full-scale basis so that many areas and many people can benefit?

America is now very close to a practical answer.

We already know the kinds of plants which will be feasible, how they will operate, and we can estimate what their expenses will be. In five years—certainly within ten—a number of them will be operating at about the same cost as those using coal. They will be privately financed, built without government subsidy.

Developing the right fuel element is still a problem, but the Atomic Energy Commission, General Electric scientists and other experts are all working on a solution. And real progress is being made.

Atomic power plant of type developed by A. E. C.'s Argonne National Laboratory. Fissionable material serves as fuel to produce steam which powers turbine. For more information from General Electric's Atomic Power Study, write Department W, 2-122, Schenectady, New York.

GENERAL ACREAGE COMPLIANCE TO QUALIFY FOR PRICE SUPPORT

To qualify for price support for wheat or any other crop in 1955 a farmer must stay within all acreage allotments established for his farm, explains T. H. Jones, Chairman of the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

Furthermore, he points out, if more than 10 acres are to be diverted from allotment crops, the farmer must comply with a total acreage allotment in addition to any crop allotments assigned to his farm in 1955. In other words he must not exceed any acreage allotment assigned to his farm in 1955 if he expects any of his crop to be eligible for price support. The total acreage allotment will be the crop allotments and he 1953 acreage (or adjusted acreage) of other crops. Hay, cover crops, green manure crops, pasture, and idle cropland and summer fallow are not included in the total acreage allotment.

This provision of the program has not been in effect in 1954, Mr. Jones explains, and therefore should receive careful consideration by farmers before planted crops to be harvested in 1955. Nor is it affected by the outcome of the wheat referendum to be held July 23. Furthermore, he explains, the "Compliance with all acreage allotments" requirement for 1955 price supports will be in effect for farms with a wheat acreage allotment of less than 15 acres.

The purpose of this provision, according to Mr. Jones, is to assure a better balance in production, avoiding shifts which would simply transfer surplus problems from one crop to another.

Nation's 4-H'ers Seek to Cut Death Toll of Farm Folk on Rural Highways

Look out, young feller!

CHICAGO—(Special)—"Make Safety Your Number One Crop," the slogan of several million rural boys and girls throughout the nation since its introduction in 1945, continues to be fostered by more than 615,000 4-H Club members. They are taking part in the 1954 National 4-H Safety Program being conducted in 46 states for the tenth consecutive year. Participants receive training in farm accident and fire prevention, which includes checking and removing hazards of every conceivable nature.

These surveys are credited by safety experts as being a valuable contribution to the nationwide campaign to reduce the tragic annual toll of 15,000 lives and 1,225,000 disabling injuries to farm folk.

In conducting their surveys, the 4-H'ers look for such safety hazards as loose or floppy clothing worn about moving farm machinery, cluttered stairways, oily rags, frayed electric cords, broken ladder rungs and sharp tools.

What is becoming an increasingly serious problem is that accidents to farm people caused by motor vehicles now account for nearly one-fourth of all deaths and injuries that occur on rural highways. Also, 700 of the fatal farm accidents reported last year involved wheel tractors. One-third of the fatal tractor accidents reported involve persons under 20 years of age. One case in ten was a child under 5.

To help correct this problem, the 4-H'ers are giving highway safety demonstrations before farm groups and over local radio stations, as well as putting window displays in town stores and booths at county fairs.

The 1954 National 4-H Safety Program is conducted by the Cooperative Extension Service. As incentives for outstanding records in the program, General Motors provides medals of honor which are presented to four county winners, and an all-expense trip to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago to the state winner. Eight of the latter will be selected as national winners, each receiving a $300.00 college scholarship.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 14 proposing an Amendment to Section 19 of Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas to provide that the qualifications for service on grand and petit juries shall not be denied or abridged by reason of sex; providing for an election and the issuance of a proclamation therefor.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS: Section 1. That Section 19 of Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as hereafter to read as follows:

"Section 19. The Legislature shall prescribe by law the qualifications of grand and petit juries, provided that neither the right nor the duty to serve on grand and petit juries shall be denied or abridged by reason of sex. Whenever in the Constitution the term 'man' is used in reference to grand or petit juries, such term shall include persons of the female as well as the male sex."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1954, at which election all ballots shall have written or printed thereon, or in counties using voting machines, such machines shall provide for the following:

"AGAINST THE Constitutional Amendment to require women to serve on juries." Each voter shall cast his vote for or against such Constitutional Amendment either by marking out one of said clauses on the ballot and leaving the one expressing his vote, or by placing an "X" in an appropriate blank by the side of the clause on the ballot expressing his vote; this latter method to be used in all instances where voting machines are used, and if it shall appear from the returns of said election that a majority of the votes cast are in favor of said Amendment, the same shall become a part of the Constitution of the State of Texas.

A TWO-WEEK DIET

There is something about hot summer weather that sets slightly overweight people to thinking about going on a diet.

Heat usually dulls the appetite and food is less palatable, for one thing.

For another, it's mighty uncomfortable carrying that excess weight around.

Some people don't subscribe to a diet at all. Others go overboard and endanger their health foolishly. A lot of care and common sense should be exercised—not to mention will power—when a diet is underway.

The U. S. poultry industry has come up with a suggested schedule which should help a person drop from 10 to 20 pounds in two weeks. Not only should you abstain from anything not included in the diet, but you should eat exactly what is assigned rather than do without, they say. Naturally, coming from poultrymen, the diet includes of eggs, so you had better like them or you're licked from the start.

Basis of this diet is chemistry and maintenance of normal energy while reducing. A change in body chemistry occurs during the process and only the specific food element should be eaten, they claim.

So paste this over your kitchen stove and test your mettle:

MONDAY: Breakfast, 3 eggs boiled, grapefruit, black coffee; Lunch, 3 eggs boiled, tomatoes, coffee or tea; Dinner, 3 eggs boiled, dry toast, coffee, (no cream or sugar).

TUESDAY: Breakfast stays the same except from now on, eat only 2 eggs; Lunch, 2 eggs, grapefruit, coffee; Dinner, steak, tomatoes, lettuce, celery, olives, salad, coffee.

WEDNESDAY: Lunch, 2 eggs, tomatoes, spinach, coffee; Dinner, 2 lamb chops, celery, salad, tomatoes, coffee.

THURSDAY: Lunch, combination salad, grapefruit, coffee; Dinner, 2 eggs, cottage cheese, spinach, coffee.

FRIDAY: Lunch, 2 eggs, spinach, coffee; Dinner, fish, combination salad, grapefruit, coffee, one piece of dry toast.

SATURDAY: Lunch, fruit salad, fresh, and nothing else; Dinner, plenty of steak, celery, tomatoes, salad, coffee.

SUNDAY: Lunch, cold chick-

News From The U. S. Congress

Congressman Frank Beard

Senator Harry F. Byrd, Democrat of Virginia, Chairman of the Joint Committee on Reduction of Nonessential Federal Expenditures, released the following statement regarding unexpended balances in federal appropriations:

Agencies of the Federal government in the first three quarters of fiscal year 1954 spent $49.9 billion, and entered April with authority to call on the Treasury to meet their bills in the future totaling $113.0 billion. As of March 31, military services exclusive of civil functions in the first three quarters of the year had spent $30.4 billion, and entered April with authority to call on the Treasury to meet their bills in the future totaling $65.2 billion. During the first three quarters of fiscal year 1954 Foreign Operations Administration had spent $3.4 billion, and entered April with authority to call on the Treasury to meet their bills in the future totaling $16.1 billion, and entered the government in the first three quarters of fiscal year 1954 spent $16.1 billion, and entered April with authority to call on the Treasury to meet their bills in the future totaling $36.3 billion. Of the $49.9 billion spent in the first three quarters of the year, $23.6 billion was spent from appropriations enacted in the calendar year 1953, and $26.3 billion was spent out of balances carried over from appropriations and other authorizations enacted in prior years. These figures were revealed in the fourteenth monthly compilation of "Federal Appropriations and Authorizations, Expenditures and Unexpended Balances," by the Joint Committee on Reduction of Nonessential Federal Expenditures. (The term "Unexpended Balances" in appropriations and authorizations does not mean that the cash is in the Treasury. It means the agencies are still authorized to call upon the Treasury to meet their obligations up to the so-called unexpended balances in their appropriations and other spending authority. As the bills come due, the Treasury must provide funds from tax collections, other cash on hand, or from borrowed funds which increase the federal debt.) end quote.

These figures should be of interest to us all, since the Congress is being asked to increase the National Debt limit.

The activities in the Senate have been attracting most of the attention of the public recently; however, the House has been working long hours almost every day in an effort to wind up the business of this session. A few days ago the House passed a resolution fixing the date of adjournment as the last day of July. This was rather a futile gesture and I could not support the resolution as I did not see how anyone could seriously talk of adjournment until we had finally acted upon the agricultural program, Social Security, and other matters that are of the utmost importance.

Ever since the Puerto Ricans sat in the House Gallery early this Spring and emptied their revolvers into the Chamber, we have been discussing the possibility of forming a Capitol Police Force which would be charged with the responsibility of guarding the Capitol and the members of Congress. Generally speaking, I think this is a good idea but it has been hard to get a bill before the House which had a chance to pass. Last week, however, the House did finally act on a bill that would create a Special Capitol Police Force which would be trained and equipped in a manner that would enable them to guard the Nation's Capitol. I hope it will finally become law.

Got A Small Fortune? You Can Spend It To Convert Theatre To Cinerama

Most of the ads placed by the Melba Theatre, Dallas, for "This Is Cinerama" carry this line: "The only theatre in the Southwest that will or can show Cinerama."

There are a number of reasons for that statement. The enormous cost of producing Cinerama attractions and the difficult technical problems involved in their production make it improbable that more than one will be produced annually. This means that a Cinerama theatre will normally have only one change of program per year.

To convert a standard motion picture theatre for Cinerama presentation requires an average outlay of 250 thousand dollars, and once converted the theatre cannot present regular motion pictures, which would be completely distorted on the great, curved Cinerama screen. In addition, the projectors required for Cinerama are so unlike those used for standard motion pictures that no interchange would be possible even were the differences in screen dimensions not a barrier.

A third factor is the high cost of operating a Cinerama theatre. The average movie house has two projectionists on its payroll; a Cinerama theatre requires seven, each of superior competence. The Melba, in Dallas, requires an operating and executive staff of 42, not counting a crew of janitors and cleaners. These three factors, only one Cinerama production per year, operating in a theatre expensively constructed to play Cinerama attractions exclusively, and faced with a weekly overhead expense far greater than most theatres can possibly gross, explains why there will never be more than a few Cinerama theatres in the entire country.

The Melba, Dallas, is intended to serve the entire Southwest, not just Dallas or Texas alone. Only by being in the heart of the Southwest's heaviest population concentration can its costly type of operation be justified.

There are thirteen Cinerama installations in the United States and no more are under way at the present time. Foreign installations are to be made in London, Paris, Rome, Tokyo and Western Germany before the end of the year.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

"Nothing to Sneeze At"

This year our town decided to do something about its hay-fever sufferers. Hap Thomas is his health officer, so he was made rag-wed "inspector."

"Can't see why anybody should be bothered by a few weeds," he sneered. "I say it's all in their minds." But Hap went on out to do his job.

Then, yesterday, I met Hap—looking kind of sheepish. His eyes were red and as he took out a big handkerchief, he sneezed. "Know somebody who isn't allergic, who'd like a job?" asks Hap.

From where I sit, I can sympathize with Hap. It's no joke. But as Hap admitted later, he was dead wrong in scoffing at the idea of hay fever. Making light of other people's ideas and opinions is a familiar trouble with a lot of folks. Whether it's hay fever, football or a choice of, say, buttermilk or beer as a thirst-quencher, I'm just naturally "allergic" to anybody who "knows-it-all!"

Knox Prairie Philosopher Looks Over Survival Kits That Scientists Are Working On If Another War Comes

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek takes a dim view of some atomic scientists' plans, his letter reveals. He's probably an authority on surviving with the least amount of effort or equipment.

J. A.

Dear editor:
I read the other day in a newspaper I picked up on the highway after it fell out of a car which sideswiped another on the way to a traffic safety meeting where a bunch of atomic scientists in New Mexico, out where they make the bombs, have been working, sort of as a pastime I guess to get their minds off their heavier work, on survival kits.

Since they know more about the effects of an atom bomb than the rest of us, naturally their minds have been turned to thoughts of how they're gonna survive after a few of the things have been dropped, in case they are, and I suppose they will be, as up to now I have never seen a dictator with a new weapon who sooner or later didn't get around to tryin it out.

But aside from all that, I was more interested in what these scientists thought a survival kit ought to contain, to enable them to live off the land in case civilization went up in smoke.

The main items on their list were a rifle and ammunition, matches, flashlights, candles, knife, axe, needle and thread, fish hooks and lines, soap, salt, blankets and canned food.

I have read this list over carefully and I do not believe it will do the job. For example, I believe man has now reached the point where it would be impossible for him to survive without a lawnmower. Also, nowhere on the list do I find an electric refrigerator, or a can opener, or any directions for repair a faulty parkin meter. Some races on earth might survive without these necessities, but I don't believe we could swing it in this country.

Also, I notice them scientists have included a rifle and I suppose they figure on living off game, but most of the game in this country is now confined to zoos and most zoos are in the cities, which are generally considered the places where the bombs would fall. Seems to me they'd better leave room in the trunks of their cars, where they are storing their kits, for a walk-in plow and a grubbin hoe, although the more I think about it, the less reason I can find for even countin on keeping their cars, unless they can refine gasoline in a tin can over a camp fire.

In fact, the more you think about this, the more items you pile up and before long you find it'd take a six-wheel trailer-truck to haul the average family's survival kit, and it seems to me it would be a little smarter and a lot easier not to have an atomic war in the first place. There aren't enough trailer-trucks to go around.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

RESULTS OF BUFFEL GRASS TESTS ANNOUNCED

Under conditions of good fertility and moisture, buffel grass at College Station has produced good yields but is not superior in general to other good summer grasses. This conclusion was reached by research workers of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, after two years of tests dealing with yields and the effect of height and frequency of clippings on the grass.

Assistant Professors E. C. Holt and E. C. Bashaw of the department of agronomy of Texas A. and M. College in the spring of 1952 commenced yield tests with 12 introductions of buffel grass which is native to Africa and the Southern Mediterranean area. P. I. 156,546, a tall large stemmed type similar to Blue Buffalo, and the only one in the test having rhizomes, was the best yielding strain in the 1953 test but ranked fifth in 1952. The yield at College Station in 1953 was 6,300 pounds of air-dry forage an acre and in 1952 2,530 pounds an acre.

Tests made at Kirbyville in 1952 showed coastal bermuda far superior to T-4464 buffel, but at Weslaco the same year, the buffel under irrigation produced some 6,000 pounds of air-dry forage an acre more than the bermuda. In 1953 at Winter Haven, the bermuda was superior. The research works say that buffel has good seedling vigor the year of establishment but is slow in starting spring growth in the spring after the first year.

They say results so far show that rotation-type grazing will give the best sustained production from buffel. The forage was deficient in phosphoric acid at times during the tests. This, they say, may have been due to the drought. Several strains gave satisfactory yields but there is evidence that the rhizomatous type may be superior. The results of the complete tests are available in Progress Report 1661 from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station.

Looking over some of the scenic views snapped on her vacation, this attractive young lady makes a pretty picture herself in a cool cotton frock by Nadyon. Her dress of cotton broadcloth is in charcoal, a color that is smart for summer, as well as winter wear. The scooped-out neckline and sleeveless design make this cotton comfortable on days when the temperature soars.
