A canvass of merchants was made.

k-k
Sheets explaining in detail the operations of the Munday Chamber of Commerce were mailed out. On these, too, was the estimated budget necessary for the employing of a Chamber of Commerce manager and carrying on regular and expanded activities.

k-k
Members were asked to return the sheets, signifying their approval or disapproval of a manager and giving the amount they would pledge toward the budget.

k-k
As in our own case, many of the sheets were laid aside and forgotten for the time. In fact, ours were forgotten until a member came around gathering them up.

k-k
The result of the poll was that a majority of Chamber of Commerce members favored the manager system. This was to have been on a year's trial basis. They favored the manager system, as we said, but—

k-k
Pledges given in the poll fell short of the needed budget by quite some figure.

k-k
Then as publicity chairman Tom Bullington put it Tuesday, "Therefore, henceforth, et cetera," and some more of those legal terms, "there will be no Chamber of Commerce manager for the time being."

k-k
Some thought the manager system was the only way to operate the Chamber of Commerce. In this way, a manager could get more things done, and take a lot of work off the president and directors.

k-k
And these are the boys who put in lots of free gratis work, time and thought. We kinda know a little about their problems and stuff, you see. We served a period of several years on the board when it was the C. D. A. and before members voted to return to the name of Chamber of Commerce—and that was one change we favored very highly.

k-k
Directors of the body believe that with good crops, a good fall and a period of levelling off might result in trying for a manager again sometime in the future, but as for now there will be no Chamber of Commerce manager.

k-k
You just can't pay for those things on an insufficient budget.

k-k
It just don't happen very often, but the following letter shows it happened to H. A. Pendleton this week:

Dear Sir,
Several years ago I was farming in Knox County, and I ginned the most of my cotton with you. I sold some cotton in the seed one time, I weighed in on the cotton, but I didn't weigh out. It amounted to $6. I am sorry that I did it and I am asking you to forgive me for doing it. Inclosed you will find $12. So thank you very much. I am sorry that it happened.

No Business On July 4th Here

Munday is expected to be a vacated town next Monday.

With a long holiday week end, people are expected to trek to favorite fishing places, go see relatives, or just plain take it easy.

Anyway, won't be any business (hardly) transacted in town on Monday, July 4th.

It's one of the dates selected by Munday merchants in an earlier poll to be observed as a holiday. And they're expected to observe it by closing their places of business.

Bathing Beauty Contest Will Be Held On Monday

An added feature of the Fourth of July holiday will be a bathing beauty contest at the local swimming pool, Coach Troy Stewart, manager, has announced. A number of local girls are expected to compete in the contest, with a loving cup trophy going to the winner.

The contest will be followed by a diving exhibition at the pool, after which the pool will be opened to the public.

The public is invited to attend these events.

HSU Student Is Winner In Golf Tourney Here

Frank Freer of Lamesa, student in Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, fired a one under par round here Sunday afternoon to defeat Travis Horton of Stamford, 5-4, for the championship of Munday's second annual invitation golf tourney.

Many golfers played the tricky little 9-hole course here during the three days of the tourney, with matched play opening Friday. Prizes for the winners and consolation were contributed by Munday merchants.

The victory, the first of the summer trail for the HSU senior, came on a three-under-par second nine after Freer made the turn two-over-par with a 2-up advantage.

The two halved the first hole of the finals with buzzards, and halved the second with par fives as Horton chipped in from off the green.

Freer took the third with a birdie four on a gimme putt to go 1-up, and the two halved the fourth with pars. Freer sank a four-foot par effort on the fifth to go 2-up and won the seventh with a par four for a 3-up margin.

On the eighth hole, however, Horton narrowed the gap with a par four and the two halved No. 9 with bogie fours.

Freer, 2-up at the turn, won the 10th with a par three and both halved No. 11 with birdie fours. On the 12th Freer had a gimme four for a birdie to go 4-up and then had another gimme for a birdie on the 13th for a 5-up advantage.

The two then halved the 14th, giving Freer the match, 5-4.

Bobby Calhoun of Stamford took the championship consolation title with a 1-up decision over defending tournament champion Jeff Graham of Knox City.

Fort Worth's Bob Hafele downed 17-year-old Joe Wash of Stamford, 2-up, for the first flight crown with a two-over-par round.

George Morey of Stamford won the first flight consolation prize over Buck Everett of Stamford, 2-1.

Charley Reese of Knox City captured the second flight title over John Dyer of Stamford by default with Chad Wilson slipping past Bruce Edwards, 2-1, for the consolation prize.

Farmer West of Anson defeated 12-year-old Burt Pardue of Stamford, 1-up, for the third flight championship with the consolation crown going to Sonny Hughes over M. L. Wiggins of Munday, 4-2.

The announcement has been made by the Faculty Committee on Scholarships, following a review of applications and examinations given to more than 500 Texas high school boys on May 7 and May 14.

The scholarships are worth from $800 to $1200, recipients receiving from $200 to $300 each year plus part-time employment. Winners are chosen after the annual spring competitive examinations and after a review of candidates' scholastic records, character and financial situation.

The Munday youth is a 1955 graduate of Munday High School, where he lettered three years in football and track, and was a top-quarter student.

He has worked at Atkeison's Food Store as a butcher's helper, and as janitor for the Church of Christ.

His scholarship becomes effective with the opening of the fall term of school at Texas A. and M. College.

Opportunity Award scholarships at the college are financed by alumni groups, business firms, clubs, foundations and private individuals. More than 600 such scholarships have been awarded outstanding Texas high school boys since the program was begun in 1946.

SAVE OUR PASTURES

Once burned, twice shy, the saying goes. And it seems to work out pretty much that way with people who have had actual day to day experience with government regulation and control of their lives. Such people appreciate to the fullest traditional American freedoms which many of us take for granted.

An editor of a Finnish language newspaper in a western town, who has much personal knowledge of Scandinavian countries as well as above average information concerning many other European countries, recently remarked that socialism may work out all right in Sweden, but that a similar system in this country would wreck us in two years. He can't understand why any American would want to promote policies which could change the free economic system which now allows any individual to work in whatever activity he wishes and to reap rewards from his own abilities and enterprise. He also pointed to the agricultural difficulties in Soviet Russia which simply illustrate the fact that everybody's pasture is nobody's pasture.

It's time we took a good look at how the growth of government is affecting the title to our own pastures whether they be a farming operation, a business, or a job in a private industry. The bill for an all-powerful state is paid for in the precious coin of freedom—not just money.

PLENTY OF ROOM

Leaders in retailing point out that this enterprise offers great opportunities to young people choosing careers. There's every reason why that is true. A retailer operates on the certain premise that things just don't stand still. The business is in a constant state of evolution—due both to new products and to new ideas. Being intensely competitive, management must be ever on its toes trying to do a better job, for the consumer is always looking for a lower price, more attractive displays, better service, and other inducements—and he takes his trade where he can get them.

A retail store must have its rules and regulations and routines, like any other organized activity. But the big thing is found in the human factor—in people with ideas and imagination and vitality and the urge to outdo the other fellow.

Today's executives in the big chain and other leading retail outlets came up from the ranks. They started as salespeople, warehousemen, and so on. In retailing there's plenty of room at the top.

THE FARM EQUIPMENT DOLLAR

Modern farm equipment is an absolute necessity today. The time when human and animal power could do the basic work of agriculture has gone, never to return. The tractor and the other machines make possible maximum production at minimum cost in both money and effort.

The selling price of these machines is an important matter to the farmer. And, no doubt, many a farmer has sometimes wondered if the price tag contained an excessive amount of profit.

An answer to that is found in a survey made of hundreds of farm equipment dealers scattered throughout the country, and covering the 1947-54 period. It shows that profits have gone down steadily and sharply. In 1947 those profits, before taxes amounted to 9.35 per cent of the gross business. In 1950 they came to 4.95 per cent. In 1953 the figure was 2.5 per cent. And last year it was only fractionally higher—2.62 per cent.

The reasons why farm machinery costs more now than it used to are simple enough. In the first place, the expenses that must be borne by the manufacturers and dealers have soared, just as in the case of any other business. They must pay the high going price for labor and everything else. Secondly, the farmer has demanded and received more complicated and more versatile machines that do a better production job. But he can be certain that he is getting top value for his equipment dollar.

BIG VOLUME — SMALL PROFITS

The National Retail Dry Goods Association has released a report covering the 1954 operating experience of almost 500 department and variety stores.

The first quarter was comparatively poor. Then improvement set in and was maintained during the final three quarters. The total 1954 sales volume was very high.

However, this doesn't mean that profits also were high. These retailers earned a net profit, after income taxes, of only 2.1 per cent of sales. In other words, they could keep only a fraction more than two cents out of each dollar the customers spent with them. All the rest went to buy stocks pay wages and taxes, and to meet other inescapable costs.

There's nothing like open competition to hold prices at a minimum and keep standards of service up—as American retailing demonstrates.

WHAT DOES THE BIBLE SAY?

The following is a true story, which happened over one hundred years ago. Copied from the life of Elder John Smith.

"One day a mother brought her infant into the congregation, that it might receive baptism at the hand of her preacher. Water was applied according to the custom of his church, no regard being paid to the cries and struggles of the child, that with all its strength resisted the ordinance.

"On the next day, Smith, in the presence of all the people, who crowded the banks of the beautiful stream hard by, led forth ten persons, one by one, into the water, and immersed them for the remission of sins. Seeing the preacher in the crowd, he walked up from the stream, and pressed through to the place where he stood. The song went on: for the people supposed that another candidate was about to be buried in baptism. Seizing the preacher by the arm, he pulled him gently but firmly along toward the water. Resistance would have been in vain, for the Dipper, as the people now began to call him, was a man of powerful muscle."

"What are you going to do, Mr. Smith," said the man, uncertain what the strange procedure meant.

"What am I going to do?" said Smith, affecting surprise at the question; "I am going to baptize you, sir!"

"But I do not wish to be baptized," said the man, trying to smile at what he deemed to be rather an untimely jest, if, indeed, it was a jest at all.

"Do you believe?" said Smith. "Certainly I do," said the preacher.

"Then come along, sir," said the Dipper, pulling him still nearer to the water, "believers must be baptized."

"But," said the man, now uneasy at the thought that possibly it might not be a joke at all. "I'm not willing to go. It certainly would do me no good to be baptized against my will." Smith now raised his voice so the multitude could hear, for the song had ceased, and every ear was open to catch his words. "Did you not," said he, "but yesterday, baptize a helpless babe against its will, though it shrunk from your touch, and kicked against your baptism? Did you get its consent first, sir? Come along with me, for you must be baptized."

"You think, sir, that it is all right to baptize others by violence, when you have the physical power to do it; but when you yourself are made the unwilling subject, you say it is wrong, and will do no good."

News From The U. S. Congress

Congressman Frank Ikard

The announcement by Secretary of Defense Wilson that R. B. Anderson would resign as Deputy Secretary of Defense within the next few weeks was generally received with a feeling of deep regret by everyone here in Washington. Anderson did an outstanding job as Secretary of the Navy and more recently as the number two man in the Defense Department has come to be recognized as one of the finest administrators in the country. There is no one in the present Administration more generally respected for his ability, integrity and intelligence than Anderson. His leaving public service will be a great loss to the country.

If the Congress is to adjourn by August 1, July must necessarily be a very busy month for there are many important pieces of legislation that have to be acted on before adjournment. The following list will give you some idea of the work yet to be done by this session of Congress:

The adoption of the Federal Highway Program must yet be considered, but a bill has not been reported by the House Committee. The Committee on Ways and Means is at this time considering possible changes in Social Security. The hearings have not concluded on this measure.

The Secretary of the Treasury has asked that the increased national debt limit be extended for one more year. Of course, this will require congressional action.

The President has insisted that we revive the Armed Services Reserve Bill which was killed in the House and sent back to committee several weeks ago.

The Education and Labor Committee is presently holding hearings on the possibility of increasing the minimum wage and has not reported a bill as yet.

The amendments to the Natural Gas Act, which are of utmost importance to all of us from Texas, will have to be acted on by both the House and the Senate.

Because the first two or three months of any session of Congress are spent with the committees holding hearings on proposed legislation, nearly always measures to be acted upon stack up at the end of a session to where it is usually a safe bet that Congress actually will adjourn about two or three weeks after the first date that is announced. It seems, therefore, that the safest speculation on adjournment would be nearer August 15 than August 1.

Visitors from home this week were Dr. Paul P. Young of Denton, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sawyer and son of Iowa Park, Mr. W. B. Woodruff, Jr. of Decatur, Miss Margie Sellers of Gainesville, and Miss Sibbie Metcalf of Wichita Falls.

Mrs. J. B. Bowden returned home last Saturday after a two weeks visit with Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Joyce and Joe in Albany. She was accompanied home by her grandson, Ronnie Bowden of McCamey.

Knox Prairie Philosopher Satisfied To Learn There Is No Dirt Farmer Serving In The United States Senate

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek has an odd bit of information this week, his letter reveals.

Dear editor:

I was out here on my farm the other afternoon resting under a tree watching the clouds seeing if I could figure out what the weather was gonna do, people have become so used to depending on the U. S. Weather Bureau to tell em what to expect a lot of em have gotten out of the habit of ever looking at the sky, but I always believed in going to the source for my information and while I may not be able to tell you very far in advance what the weather will do, I imagine there are more people who still cut hay by the looks of the clouds than the weather report in the paper or over the radio, and they get more bright hay that way, or at any rate you don't find many weather forecasters who are also in the hay business.

Any way, it took me all afternoon to make up my mind what I figured the weather was gonna do, and by that time it was too late to do any work anyway, and I pulled a newspaper out of my pocket which I'd been saving to put on the tractor seat in case I did any work and had to go to the house for a drink of water while the sun was shining, and the first thing I ran into an article that reported there isn't a single dirt farmer in the United States Senate.

The writer of the article was astonished at this, but it doesn't affect me that way. The people are always figuring out ways to do something for the farmer, by which they generally mean getting him to work harder and produce more so he can spend more, but here is a clear-cut case of the people's actually doing something for him; they've never sent one to the U. S. Senate.

They may have sent some to the poor house, to an early grave, or up one row and down another.

Cowboys For Over 50 Years To Be At Stamford Reunion

STAMFORD—Typical of the pioneers of the range who attend the annual Texas Cowboy Reunion is Henry Record of Monument, New Mexico, president of the Texas Cowboy Reunion Association. He is 83 years old and has ranched continuously in Lea County, N. M., for 65 years.

Another pioneer from Monument, Bert Weir, at 71, competed last year in the old-time cowboy's calf-roping at the Reunion. He began roping more than a half century ago; won the world's champion steer-roping title in 1910. For almost 50 years, he has served as mayor of Monument which was named for his ranch.

Both Record and Weir are native Texans, the former having been born near Grand Prairie, the latter in Brady.

Hundreds of old-time cowboys attend the Reunion where they are guests of honor at chuckwagon feeds, enjoy square dancing and an old fiddlers' contest, attend formal programs and engage in story-swapping sessions.

The Texas Cowboy Reunion, observing the Silver Anniversary this year, will be held on Friday, Saturday and Monday, July 1, 2 and 4.

other, but the fact they haven't sent one to the Senate in recent years shows evidence of something.

And it works the other way, too. One of the greatest joys a Senator now has is standing up and telling his colleagues what the farm problem is, but if there was a dirt farmer in their midst, it would take all the fun out of it.

Judging from the grass in my crops, you might think I had been off serving in the Senate, but that's not where I've been off to.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

One of the most delightful desserts was brought by Mrs. John Peysen and the club passes the recipe on to you. It is as follows:

Texas Cream Pie

Combine and cook until thick 1/2 cup sugar, 1 egg, 1 cup milk. When cooked add 1/2 teaspoon of vanilla; chill. Chill cooked pie crust. Whip 1 pint of cream, add vanilla and sugar to taste. Take out enough to top your pie. Mix rest whip cream with above filling. Grate a layer of chocolate in bottom of crust. Put in filling. Add another layer of grated chocolate and top with the whipped cream. Grate a light layer of chocolate over top and keep chilled until served.

The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Fred Lain on July 13th, with footstools as the project.

OBVIOUS RISKS ASSUMED BY SPECTATORS

The outlook wasn't very bright for the home team with the score tied, two opposing players on base and only one out. "Spec" Tator, a rabid fan, leaned forward on his seat in the left field bleachers. The pitcher got his signal, the ball sped toward the plate.

Then came two sharp cracks. The first was the bat on the ball. The second was the ball on Spec's head. Spec was seriously injured.

To recover damages for his injuries and medical bills, Spec filed suit against the baseball club. He charged it with negligence in failing to put a wire screen in front of the bleachers where he sat and in failing to warn him that batted balls might come into those bleachers and injure him.

But the court said, "No" to Spec. He had chosen to sit in the unscreened bleachers in preference to sitting behind a screen where the tickets cost more. Therefore, he had "assumed the risk" of being hit by a batted or thrown ball during the playing of the game. No recovery was allowed.

In such cases, the courts say that the spectator is an invitee to whom the invitor (the ball club) owes the duty to exercise ordinary care to render the premises reasonably safe for him.

"But," say the courts, "the invitor is not an insurer of the safety of the invitee; neither is the invitee protected against all hazard, nor relieved of all duty to himself for his own safety. And to the extent that the duty of self-protection rests upon the invitee, the duty of the invitor to protect is reduced."

The same rules as to "assumption of risk" are applied to most places of amusement and amusement devices. A swimmer must anticipate that a diving board will be wet and slippery. A person who rides on an amusement device and sees flying sparks takes the chance that a flying spark may strike his eye.

And one who goes upon a revolving floor device for the purpose of being thrown from it, accepts the dangers inherent in the sport so far as they are obvious.

On the other hand, if the danger is not apparent or obvious, the operator of the device has a duty to warn the rider or spectator. It is the ordinary risk that is assumed, not the unusual. Where, for example, a device was operated on a particular occasion at an especially fast speed so

Visitors To California Invited To Attend La Fiesta De San Gabriel

The Fiesta attracts thousands of visitors from all over America, who this year will join in celebrating the 184th Anniversary of one of the oldest missions in California.

Tours through the gardens, the mission quadrangle and the museum with its fine old paintings faithfully reproducing the Fourteen Stations of the Cross will be enjoyed by the Fiesta time visitors, and all visitors throughout the year. Daily tours are conducted.

The original church altar bearing six magnificent wooden polychromed statues dedicated in 1805 and the hand hammered copper baptismal shell in use since 1771, are but a few of the countless interesting features of Old San Gabriel Mission.

Fire At Atkeison's Does Little Damage

Fire which broke out in the rear of Atkeison's Food Store about 4:30 p. m. Wednesday brought Munday's fire fighting equipment to the scene in a hurry, and the flames were quickly extinguished.

Only minor damage was reported. The fire destroyed some egg crates, lettuce crates and burned the rear screen door to some extent. One small plate glass was broken by the heat.

Saturday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Dean, Sr. were Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Dean, Jr. and three children of Keller.

PAMPERED POULTRY

Poultry raisers are finding it pays to pamper their birds on hot days. It helps keep feed conversion high, eggs rolling and profits up.

Open up the house to provide maximum ventilation, Ben R. Wormeli, extension poultry husbandman, suggests.

Many producers install sprinklers on the roof of their houses for use on the hottest days. Water on a roof helps reflect the sun and cools the hot surface through evaporation. Water dripping off the house also serves as an evaporative cooler, lowering temperatures inside.

Add several more drinking troughs so water is handy to the birds at all times, Wormeli adds.

If a chicken must walk more than 10 feet to water, it may go thirsty rather than make the trip.

Change the water several times daily to keep it cool. Cool water means a cool chicken and paves the way to increased water and feed consumption and higher feed conversion.

Other poultrymen encourage a high rate of feed intake with early morning or all-night lights. This way, birds eat while it's cool, before the sun starts beating down.

Mrs. J. B. Scott and Jerry left Wednesday morning for a few days visit with Mr. and Mrs. Durwood Scott and daughter at Fort Hood.

GEORGE W. HUNT, Pres.
Attest: Elkin B. Warren, Secretary.

A couple of years ago, I was in San Angelo and Blondy Cross, the veteran sports writer of the Standard-Times, was moved to reminiscence and wrote about a little experience which had befallen me when I was a brother sports writer, long ago. So I feel moved to retaliate by relating an incident about Cross.

It was in the summer of 1936 and the incomparable Fort Worth Casa Manana was being held. Your columnist was the one-man publicity department with an office which was the world's first air-conditioned log cabin. Looking out the window, which of course was kept down, I saw Blondy approaching, so I raised the window that he could speak but raised it in such a way that the lower frame concealed my face. In a disguised voice (for we knew each other very well), I said to Blondy, who was perspiring in the intense heat, "What can I do for you?"

He said, "I'm Cross."
"Yes, you do look rather cross."
"I mean I'm Blondy Cross," he said.
"Let me express my sympathy for so great a misfortune," I said. Blondy in those days had a rather easily ignited temper but, to my surprise, there was no explosion. In a very mild tone, he said "I want to get a couple of press tickets."
"Do you have any proof of identity?" I asked.
He produced letters, oil company credit cards, social security card and a press card. I looked them over and said, "Mr. Cross, I am sorry but these are not sufficient, Mr. Cross, to prove that you are Mr. Cross."
And still no eruption. He put the cards back in his pocket and without a word, turned to leave. I raised the window a way up and said, "Blondy, how are you doing?" He wheeled around, grinned and yelled, "You old hoss thief! I ought-a known it was a rib."

A gold-digger said, "I like a Texan of the gushy type—an oil man."
Mrs. Billy J. Lain and Tracy Lynn and Mrs. Joe F. Bowley and Gwynna Ann of Midland visited relatives here last Thursday. Mrs. T. H. Armstrong, James, Doris Kay, Sue and Debbie returned home with them for a week's visit.
Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Morgan and her niece, Nancy Murphy, of Fort Worth were week end visitors of Mrs. Veda Tankersley and all visited with Mr. and Mrs. Jody Morrow in Benjamin on Sunday.
Miss Freddie Nell Dane of Lubbock is visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Hill this week.

LET'S TALK LIVESTOCK

Beautiful, Beautiful Texas!

We made a short jaunt into Northeast Texas the other day covering parts of Denton, Collin, Hunt, Wood, Van Zandt and Dallas Counties. The corn, cotton and grain sorghums looked simply wonderful.

We have some friends in the Corn Belt who are always sending us pictures of their Tall Corn, etc., so we have just snapped some pictures to send right back to 'em.

If you haven't been over in that part of Texas lately, load up and drive over there. You'll see some really beautiful, beautiful Texas right now!

Air-Cooled Tractors?

Speaking of farming reminds us that we got a news release the other day quoting one Harold E. Carefoot, an official of the Cockshutt Farm Equipment company of Bellevue, Ohio. He averred that in looking ahead it was not unlikely that air-conditioned tractors were not too far in the future.

The story was accompanied by a picture of a smiling fellow cruising along on a tractor with a big plastic globe covering the man and the controls. Looked like an out-sized "space helmet" like the kids were wearing before they discovered Davy Crockett.

Tell you one thing—if they air-condition tractors it's going to be a lot easier to keep 'em down on the farm. Yes sir, Mr. Carefoot has got something there!

Fed Steers Strong;

Grass Cattle, Calves Weak

Sales of fed steers and yearlings were steady to strong at Fort Worth Monday. Cows were about steady, with some early sales of canners and cutters stronger. Bulls sold 50 cents lower. A few choice stockers and a good and choice fat calves were steady, but others were weak to lower again. Inquiry on stocker cows was a little more active.

Prices included Good and choice fed steers and yearlings $18 to $22.50, and common and medium sorts $10 to $18. Fat cows $10 to $12.50, some young heiferish cows $13.50 to $14 on specialty shipping orders, not in line with the averages. Canners and cutters $6 to $10. Bulls $10 to $14.50. Good and choice fat calves $16 to $19, a few $19.50 and $20 sparingly. Medium and low grades $9 to $15. Stocker steer calves mostly $15 to $20, few fancy feeder calves $21 to $25.50, load at $22.50 weighing 483 pounds. Feeder yearlings $19.50 down; older steers $18.50 down; stocker cows $7-$12.

Flesh Fading Fast On Lambs, Prices Sag

The bloom that reveals high grade slaughter quality was very hard to find in the sheep and lamb offerings Monday at Fort Worth, and many small lambs were included that were attractive to neither feeders or packers. Prices were unevenly lower on all kinds.

Spring lambs topped at $18 to $20; feeder Spring lambs sold at $14.50 down. Cull, common and medium Spring lambs $10-$16. Slaughter yearling lambs $8 to $14.50; feeder yearling wethers $12.10 down; yearlings ewes $14-$14.50. Old wethers $7 to $10, slaughter ewes $4-$4.50; old bucks around $3.

Hogs Open 25 Cents Higher; Sows Steady

Butcher hogs topped at $20-$20.50 at Fort Worth, around 25 cents above the previous week's close. Sows drew $11-$16.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Henry A. Holle, M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

AUSTIN — There were 397 drownings in Texas last year according to figures released by the Texas State Department of Health. Over half of these deaths were among those under 25 years of age. Drownings dropped sharply after age 45, but occurred in each age bracket up to 90 years.

Dr. Henry A. Holle, Commissioner of Health, stated that most of these deaths could have been prevented if sensible precautions had been taken. This is the season of the year when many of us like to take to the water for a cool swim, for week-end boating or fishing trips. These are all healthful forms of recreation, if you follow common sense rules, don't get cocky about your ability in the water and don't take chances.

The safest place to swim is the municipal pool where a life guard is on duty. The water is treated to kill disease germs and is kept fresh by a continuous change of water. Also there is no danger of wading into unexpected deep holes such as there is in ponds, lakes and rivers.

If you go boating and do not know how to swim always take along a life preserver. See that each child is so equipped. Be careful not to overload the boat. Changing seats or standing up in a small boat is dangerous business. If you should capsize, stay with the boat.

Watch children carefully while they play around small pools or even buckets of water. Small children often drown in stock tanks, fish pools, ditches and drainage canals. They even drown in bath tubs, because thoughtless mothers leave them there to play without supervision.

Consciously practice safety precautions and soon avoiding accident hazards will become second nature to you. Swimming, boating and fishing are healthful exercise if you do them safely.

Secretary Glen Tole reports interest high and entries already far in excess of last Fall's show. Among early entries are Rufus Peoples, Tehuacana; Ray McCulloch, Tarrant County; and Geo. Sewell, Jacksboro.

Mrs. F. Gordon and son Raymond of Watonga, Okla., visited Mr. and Mrs. V. M. Gordon the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Hobert returned home last week from a weeks vacation in Oklahoma, Kansas and Colorado.

Don L. Ratliff of Dallas visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Ratliff, and friends here the first of this week.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

If You Can't Lick 'em—Join 'em

Just back from visiting with my daughter's family—and playing Grandpop to two of the cutest kids you ever saw. While there I picked up a couple of new ideas on child raising:

If your child's learning to use a pen, provide an old fountain pen—filled with bluing. Looks and writes like ink, but won't stain clothes or furniture.

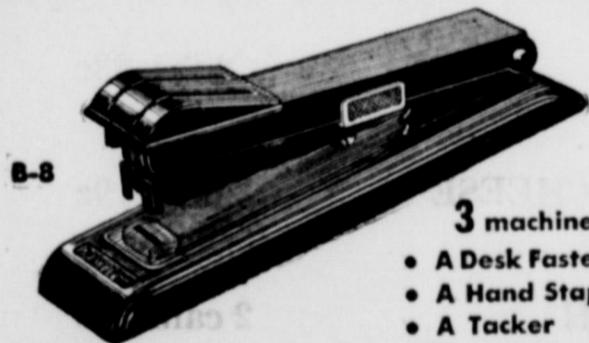

Maybe you have a boy, like my grandson, who thinks he's too old for a bib—but isn't. A big cowboy bandana works just as well, and looks he-man to boot.

From where I sit, getting along with children is like getting along with grownups—it requires an effort to see things from the other person's point of view. At any age, there's no accounting for tastes. Take my neighbor who keeps a parakeet and drinks hot coffee in the summertime. That seems strange to me . . . a man who's partial to hound dogs and a cooling glass of beer. But I'd be "childish" to say it was wrong.
