OIL PROGRESS WEEK

This year Oil Progress Week will be observed during the October 9-15 period. It will give the oilmen another concentrated opportunity to tell the story of their industry. And it's some story.

In this country oil is a free enterprise. It's also one of the most intensely competitive of enterprises—all the way from risky wildcatting operations in search of new oil supplies to the corner service station. We, the American people, enjoy the fruits of that competition. Since 1925, as everyone knows, the cost of living in general has soared. Yet the cost of gasoline, aside from the special taxes the industry can't do anything about, has risen only about seven per cent—and it's far better gasoline, that does far more work.

The average American, believe it or not, uses 739 gallons of oil products a year. The average Russian—in a country where the oil business is an arm of the government and there is no competition—uses a mere 76 gallons. Every American community has excellent service stations providing all manner of services in addition to selling its wares. But in Moscow, one of the world's biggest cities, there are only five service stations. And at these the customer, when he buys inferior rationed gas, does the chores himself. All the attendant does is watch the meter and collect the rubles.

WE MUST HAVE VENTURE CAPITAL

"Free enterprise, in order to flourish, needs venture capital to nurture it," says Manufacturers Record. "If venture capital is confiscated by unfair taxation, free enterprise will wither and eventually die."

Some of the greatest employing industries of today were, at their beginning, widely regarded as crazy experiments, fated to failure. Men took risks and ridicule in the knowledge that if they succeeded they would profit. The profit motive, for all the criticisms made of it, is the most powerful force for material progress that exists.

BLACK BREAD INSTEAD OF CAKE

There was a day when children would while-away leisure hours with a good book, such as "Robinson Crusoe," "Treasure Island," or "Tom Sawyer." But today, as the Mansfield, Pennsylvania, Advertiser expresses it, "Too many children accept the poor substitute of a cheap comic book and 'eat black bread where they might eat cake.'"

SHIPS AND THE LONE STAR STATE

The Committee of American Steamship Lines has been making a series of studies to find out just what benefits various regions of this country derive from foreign trade. The latest deals with Texas—and it certainly proves that the merchant ship is a powerful asset to the Lone Star State.

One million Texans have jobs that benefit directly from foreign trade and merchant shipping, the study states. About two-thirds of the 500,000 Texans on the state's 300,000 farms depend upon trade carried in ocean-going ships, and more than 54 per cent of Texas' factory workers are in industries that rely in part on overseas markets. A farm twice the size of Rhode Island would be needed to grow the 860,000 bales of Texas cotton exported in ocean-going ships in 1953—and that was a poor year, twice that volume having been shipped abroad in 1951. Practically every manufacturing industry in Texas is dependent upon ships to import needed raw materials. During 1954 Texas ports handled about $1,300,000,000 in exports and imports, not counting some $100,000,000 worth of Department of Defense shipments. As the study states, "Ships, American ships, are the global arteries of Texas livelihood. They carry a constant world-wide flow of export-import cargoes to maintain jobs, crop sales and industrial expansion for Texans."

This Texas situation is far from unique. As other studies have proven, the economic welfare of every section of the country—including those farthest from the oceans—depends heavily upon foreign trade and the U. S. merchant marine.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

Northport, N. Y., Observer: "In Italy . . . a state-imposed guaranteed annual wage has caused mass unemployment. Employers hesitate to take on the responsibilities of hiring new workers. The largest power company stretches out a five-year building program to 10 or 15 years to avoid the liability of hiring new crews. The manufacturer of Italy's fast selling new motor scooters prefers to pay overtime wages at double and triple rates—to hiring new workers who would come under the GAW. The same thing could happen here."

Brownwood, Texas, Banner: "If one is consistent and holds to the principle of private ownership of business, he should be opposed to any form of government ownership of the other fellows business, as well as his own."

WHAT DOES THE BIBLE SAY?

ARE YOU BEARING FRUIT?

"I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same beareth much fruit: for apart from me ye can do nothing" (John 15:5).

There is a popular misconception of this statement of Jesus which holds that the 'branches' are different denominations or churches. If you will read the entire chapter you will see that this could not be, for Jesus is speaking directly to his individual disciples. He says: "If ye abide in me, and my words in you, ask whatsoever ye will and it shall be done unto you."

The Bible does not teach that Jesus established a religious corporation with a self-perpetuating board of directors which control the dividends of God's grace. The church which Jesus established on the day of Pentecost was undenominational. It was and is a living organism, not primarily an organization. Jesus was the life-giving vine and each individual disciple was baptized "into Christ" and had to abide in him to bear fruit (Gal. 3:27). To put it another way Jesus is the head of the living body, which is the church (Eph. 5:23).

In New Testament times and today everyone who completely surrenders to Christ in trusting obedience to his commands is saved of all past sins by the blood of Christ and is added by the Lord to the spiritual body of Christ, the church (Acts 2:38-47). If he continues to abide in Christ then Christ abides in him and he bears fruit to God's glory. If he does not abide in Christ, "then he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered." We abide in Christ by keeping his commands. "If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love" (John 15:10).

With your Bible as your guide you can come directly to God through Christ by obeying the gospel of Christ. No man or corporate body of men, religious or otherwise can dispense or withhold God's blessings. It is up to you to be born again by believing on Jesus Christ as God's Son, repenting of your sins, confessing your faith in Christ and being baptized "into Christ" unto the remission of sins (Rom. 6:4).

Then the Lord adds you to the church, his spiritual body, and you become a living branch to bear fruit. You receive your life-giving strength from the living Christ who abides in you through his word. If you do not continue to abide in him you "can do nothing." If you abide in him you will bear much fruit to God's glory. Are you bearing fruit?

AGRICULTURAL RESEARCH FEATURED IN TEXAS STATE FAIR EXHIBITS

The importance of agriculture in daily living will be shown visitors at the State Fair of Texas which opens in Dallas Friday evening, October 7, for 16 days.

The giant agricultural building has been transformed into a mass of gaily designed exhibits with a circus motif to present the "Agricultural Big Top—The Greatest Show From Earth."

With a theme this year of "Your Stake in Agricultural Research" the agricultural show is presented by the Texas A. and M. College System and with The State Fair of Texas.

Featuring the first "ring" will be a huge revolving display of the mass of agricultural products used annually by the average American family of four-and-one-half people. Demonstrations by top ranking 4H Club teams and a home economics exhibit also will feature activity in the center rings.

A 60 foot "Menagerie of New Crop Varieties for Better Foods" will be a highlight of exhibits telling how agricultural research has provided the way for more and better food and fiber for the nation's rapidly expanding population.

Other exhibits will tell the story of improvement through research and education of "Beef Cattle," "Cotton," "Disease Control," "Forestry," "Poultry," "Sheep and Wool," "Grain Sorghum," "Dairying," "Insect Control," "Advances in Mechanization," and "Soil Improvement."

The agricultural building will be open from 9 a. m. to 10 p. m. daily with an information booth

IT'S THE LAW
in Texas

INTERSECTION RIGHT OF WAY RULES EXPLAINED

Misunderstanding of simple driving rules by numerous motorists is one factor which places Texas right at the top in number of traffic deaths. Possibly the most mystifying of all traffic rules to the average driver are those relating to "Right of Way" at an intersection.

In trying to understand the laws regulating intersecting traffic, it is best to start off with the premise that all streets are of equal dignity, legally speaking. Traffic signs and signals may vary this rule somewhat, but when in doubt it is safest to assume that all drivers crossing your path have a claim to the right of way equal to your own.

Obviously, however, in many cases one driver or the other will be legally entitled to the right of way. When it becomes necessary to determine right of way in a particular situation, the driver who reaches the intersection first, or who is going to get there first, is ordinarily favored.

But when two automobiles are an equal distance from the intersection, that one approaching from the other driver's right normally has the right of way.

Some intersections are known as "courtesy corners," having a stop sign or a flashing red signal facing each direction of approach. The first driver reaching the corner and coming to a complete stop will normally have the right of way over other vehicles not already in the intersection. However, don't depend too much on the other fellow's courtesy, and be sure to keep a "proper look-out" and your car under "proper control," as explained in a previous column.

At intersections involving one through street and another street having a stop sign, a driver approaching the stop sign and coming to a full stop is ordinarily said to have the right of way over vehicles approaching on the through street but not already in the intersection.

However, this last rule must be qualified by saying that you should not proceed, cross or turn onto the through street until you can do so without interfering with oncoming traffic. In other words, if an approaching car will arrive within the intersection before you are completely clear, wait just a little longer. The same rules apply to entering a highway from a side road containing a stop sign.

Many drivers violate the rules of right of way covering left-hand turns at intersections. When turning left, you should always be on the inside (or center) lane, displaying the proper hand signal. You must allow all cars coming from the opposite direction, already in the intersection, to pass through before completing your turn. Even when the intersection is cleared, do not proceed unless other oncoming traffic is far enough away to be able to see your signal and slow down to allow you to turn with safety to all concerned.

Stay in the inside lane until your left-hand turn is entirely completed, and only then move gradually over to the right-hand lane if you wish. When turning right, stay in the right-hand lane at all times. Do not swing wide into the center lane, as to do so is unnecessary, unlawful and dangerous.

Many detailed rules and suggestions for safe driving are included in the official "Texas Driving Handbook" which is available to any person requesting same from the Texas Department of Public Safety, Drivers License Division, Austin, Texas.

(This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts, because the facts may change the application of the law.)

Knox Prairie Philosopher Puzzled Over The Politicians' Objections To Making Issues Political Football

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek is talking about politics or football this week, we can't tell which.

Dear editor:

I noticed in a copy of a newspaper which I was using to fan the gnats off of me yesterday afternoon where Secretary of Agriculture Benson, in a speech in Salt Lake City, said the "farm program should not be made into a political football."

Just a while back, another Washington official, I forget his name, said foreign policy should not be made a political football, and over the past few months other topics which officials said shouldn't be made into a political football included social security, income taxes, balancing the budget, national defense spending, airplane contracts, tax cuts, and a good many others I forgot to keep track of.

The question I want answered is: what are they gonna leave us to play football with?

The way it looks to me, a lot

of politicians in this country must be opposed to football, and personally, while I never play the game myself, I never considered it very sinister, in fact it seems to afford a lot of people a lot of pleasure and besides is a good way for a lot of boys to work their way through college, even if it doesn't leave much time for education, although this is no real criticism, as I've noticed you can never go near a football stadium and still get through college without bothering much with an education.

But back to the other type of football, political football, regardless of how much the officials claim we shouldn't use this or that subject as a political football, I'm afraid they won't get anywhere with it. The game is too popular.

If yelling when farm prices go down or promising to do something about it if elected, without mentioning exactly what, is making a football out of the farm program, I'm afraid the game will go on. Farmers aren't much different from football fans, and when the game isn't going to suit them, they start howling.

This is a great American sport and if prices stay low everybody is likely to continue making a football out of the farm program, and if by the end of the season things are still the same, they'll make a political basketball out of it, then a political baseball and finally maybe a track meet. I rule out ping pong, though.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

MERGER OF TELEPHONE COMPANIES APPROVED

SAN ANGELO, Sept. 29—Overwhelming approval of the merger of General Telephone Corporation and the Theodore Gary and Company was voted today by stockholders of the two companies at meetings held in New York and Kansas City, respectively. The merger will become effective October 31, 1955, according to word received here by W. G. Wright, president of General Telephone Company of the Southwest.

Basis of the merger is an exchange of stock in which General Telephone will absorb Gary. Gary stockholders will get 1 1/2 shares of General common for each Gary share, either common or participating common.

General Telephone System, which even before the merger is the largest independent (non-Bell) telephone system with operations in 21 states, now will operate about 2 1/2 million telephones in 30 states, or a third of the country's non-Bell system telephones.

Shades of Tom Sawyer!

Hack Willis had just stopped the tractor so he could cool off at the pump, when a young insurance salesman came up the drive.

Hack was tired of plowing, and needed insurance on his new barn. But he also needed to get that winter rye in fast. The salesman, an eager kid, noticed hesitation. "I come from a farm," he said. "Why don't you look at these booklets—get all the dope—and I'll take that plow a couple of rounds for you."

Young fellow laid off a pretty straight furrow, too. It was almost dark before Hack—sitting in the shade—was able to decide just what kind of policy to get.

From where I sit, to be a good salesman—or a good citizen—it always helps to "put yourself in the other man's place." He may have a different sort of job with different problems... he may prefer to close a deal over, say, a friendly glass of beer while you might prefer something else. But both of you can co-operate if you make it a "policy" to try.

LET'S TALK LIVESTOCK BY TED GOULDY

Cattle Prices Tend Lower; Except High Grade Stockers

FORT WORTH—One of the largest offerings of cattle of the year appeared at the nation's 12 major livestock markets Monday with over 150,000 cattle reported. Prices were tending lower at all points. It was noteworthy that while cattle numbers were large, the offerings of calves around the major markets were around 6,000 under the comparable date a year earlier. This trend toward smaller numbers of calves going to market has been evident all this year and the effect it will have on estimated cattle population, if continued, will be confusing.

At Fort Worth most kinds of cattle and calves were weak to 50 cents lower, except high grade stockers and feeders which were fully steady. Again the order buyers reported that most of the stockers and feeders they bought were destined for Texas or other Southwestern states.

Currently prices of replacement cattle and calves here are equal to or above prices at most of the Cornbelt centers, and it is evident that restocking of the country areas is going forward at a fast pace.

Comparative prices at Fort Worth Monday included:

Good to choice fed steers and yearlings $18-22. Common and medium sorts $12-17. Fed cattle eligible to top $20 appeared. Fat cows $9.50-12; canners and cutters $6.50-9.50. Bulls $10-13.75; good to choice fat calves $16 to 17.50, few baby beef kinds higher; cull, common and medium $8-15. Stocker steer calves $15 to 21, heifer calves $18 down; stocker steer yearlings $18-50 down; replacement cows $8-13.50.

Hogs Near Steady Despite Heavy Runs In North

Top butcher hogs sold mostly from $16.25 to $16.75 at Fort Worth Monday, or just about in line with last week's close. The hog run around the 12 major markets was near the 100,000 mark Monday, and some weakness developed at those markets. Continued heavy runs in the Cornbelt would mean some surplus hogs coming to this part of the country and could effect prices in the Southwest adversely.

Less desirable kinds of hogs sold from $15 to $16. Sows drew $12 to $14.50.

Considerable interest here among all interests as to whether Secretary of Agriculture Benson will inaugurate a pork buying program to support hog prices.

Word is that such a program similar to the one used to buy beef the past two years could be set up for pork in short order. Under those plans certain grades and types are bought under competitive bids from packers.

The meat used in foreign aid, school lunches, institutions, etc., conflicts very little with normal meat trade if at all. Funds for the program are already available.

Latest guess by some Cornbelt observers is that the low time on swine prices will likely be from mid-October to mid-November.

However, if prices sag to such a degree that marketings are slower than anticipated, the low time could well be later in the year or early in 1956.

Overall supply of pork is currently low, because average hog weights are much lighter this year.

Lambs $1 Higher At Fort Worth Monday

Both slaughter and feeder lambs opened strong to $1 higher at Fort Worth Monday. Top fat lambs scored $20, best price in several weeks for the class. Feeder lambs sold at $16.50 down. Yearlings and older sheep were firm.

Good and choice fat lambs $18-20; cull, common and medium $10-17. Feeder lambs $16.50

STATE 4-H DRESS REVUE IS SCHEDULED FOR OCTOBER 15

Climaxing county and district 4-H Dress Revues, in which more than 5,000 club girls participated, the State 4-H Dress Revue on October 15 will feature 46 outstanding girls, representing the 12 Extension districts in Texas.

October 15 is Rural Youth Day at the State Fair and thousands of 4-H'ers, leaders, parents and visitors are expected. The revue will be staged in the State Fair Auditorium at 10:00 a. m., according to Extension clothing specialists. Nena Roberson, Graham Hard, and Madeline Russell, Mrs. Jessie Southworth, fashion coordinator for Sanger Bros., will instruct the models and serve as commentators for the revue.

A highlight of the 4-H clothing program, the State Revue is actually an achievement event. Training in grooming, poise, health, clothing care, repair, and construction are a regular part of 4-H Club work. Girls aged 14 to 21, who have been 4-H members for at least three years, are eligible to participate in district and state revues. Younger members participate in county revues.

Models are scored on the construction of the garment, suitability of fabric and design, becomingness, fit choice of accessories, grooming, posture, poise, and on the record of other achievements in 4-H work. The judges for the revue are Miss Janelle Allison, Oklahoma assistant extension clothing specialist, and Mrs. Lera D. Hancock, head of the Home Economics Department of Arlington State College.

Winner of the State Revue will be awarded an all-expense trip to National 4-H Congress in Chicago to participate in the National Revue. Sewing machines, steam and electric irons and a fifty-dollar certificate are among other awards offered by donors of this 4-H achievement clothing program.

Miss Shirley Yost of Dallas visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Yost, over the week end.

Miss Ann Nelson of Dallas was a week end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Nelson.

SOIL IMPROVEMENT DEMONSTRATION ENDED

The Goree chapter of Future Farmers of America has completed a Phillips 66 soil improvement program.

Under this program, six acres of land is broken into four plots of one and one-half acres each and were planted to 7078 milo on April 25. Each of these plots received the same treatment except for fertilization.

The yield and fertilization of these plots varied as follows: one receiving 40 pounds of anhydrous ammonia yielded 2210 pounds; another receiving 60 pounds yielded 2680 pounds, while a plot receiving 60 pounds of the fertilizer plus 40 pounds of rock phosphate yielded 2640 pounds. The check plot which received no fertilizer yielded 2200 pounds.

The plot receiving 60 pounds of the fertilizer made an increase in production of 21.82 per cent.

The Goree chapter will receive $66.66 for the completion of this demonstration. The fertilizer was purchased by Orb Coffman from Agro Fertilizer Co. of Haskell. Mr. Coffman also furnished the land for this demonstration.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Henry A. Holle, M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

AUSTIN — Pharmacists and physicians are key people in the State Health Department's intricate plan for insuring fair distribution of still-scarce polio vaccine.

The plan moved into high gear this week as Texas' 2,700 pharmacists were sent "vaccine usage" forms to be filled out and returned at weekly intervals to state health officials as a means of keeping tabs on every dose of the vital vaccine that is administered to a child of priority age. "Priority age" is under 10, and pregnant women. It means that only persons in these categories will be eligible for shots. Health Commissioner Henry A. Holle said the priority group was extended from the 5 to 9 bracket because health department records show that the younger age group is most susceptible in Texas.

Best estimates of the number of eligibles set the figure at 2,185,095. Of that number 1,942,645 are children under 10. Both figures are based on a statistical analysis of the state population as a whole.

Here are the mechanics of the plan as established by Dr. Holle on recommendations of the State Polio Advisory Committee:

Vaccine manufacturers, by mutual agreement, will sell only to retail and wholesale pharmacists, rather than directly to physicians. Physicians will requisition from druggists on forms supplied by the State Health Department.

The forms, together with a summary of all vaccine distributed to local purchasers will be forwarded each week to the Communicable Disease Control Division at the State Health Department. Division personnel will use the information to keep a running check on where the vaccine is going, and to do epidemiological studies on polio.

For the present, health department planners have decided to retain 17 percent of vaccine shipments for public use, while 83

Follow These Tips For Easier Painting

"Painting is easier than ever!" That's the good word from the nation's enterprising paintmakers. As proof of the promise, Arthur W. Stuedel, president of the Sherwin-Williams Co., points out that "modern paints can be applied with less effort, modern tools speed application, and modern techniques of painting eliminate many inconveniences formerly associated with the task."

"As a result of continuous research and testing," he explained, "our company has improved the brushing qualities of house paint to the point where you can paint as much surface with the same effort in two hours as you used to do in three."

Tools Simplify Task

Improved tools also help reduce the time and effort required for painting.

"For example," Stuedel said, "you don't have to get down on your hands and knees to paint a floor nowadays. Thanks to a new long-handled paint roller, you can spread the paint while standing—and paint the floor much faster.

PAINT ALTERNATE STEPS to keep stairways usable while they are being painted. Finish the job when the steps painted first are dry.

"This long-handled roller is a great time and effort saver when you are painting ceilings, too."

Tricks Ease Job

New application tricks also make painting less disturbing to everyday family routine.

By way of illustration, Stuedel suggests the following technique when painting stairs.

Paint alternate steps in each flight. Follow up by painting the others when the newly painted ones dry. That way the stairs can always be used, and nobody will be inconvenienced while the paint is drying.

percent will be released into normal commercial channels. These percentages are subject to change as conditions warrant. Dr. Holle has stressed.

Timed amounts of vaccine, part of the 17 percent being held for public use, have already arrived at the State Health Department. Distribution to local health officials will begin after October 1, upon local request.

National authorities anticipate that the necessity for tight controls over the vaccine will end this winter.

"But until it does," Dr. Holle said, "cooperation between physicians, pharmacists, state and local health officials and the general public is imperative if vaccine is to go to those who need it most."

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Dowdle this week are his mother, Mrs. Gertrude Dowdle of Fort Worth, and his brother, Roy Dowdle of Arlington.

Palmer Campsey, who is attending Texas Tech in Lubbock, was a week end guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Campsey.

S/Sgt. and Mrs. Jack Hensley and daughters of Lawton, Okla., were week end visitor of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Layne Womble.

EMERGENCY AID FOR TEXAS

Weather paradoxes of other states are just routine in Texas.

September, 1955, will be recorded on weather annals as the month when drought and flood conditions prevailed in the state just a stone's throw apart. Both circumstances created their own set of problems.

The conditions have existed simultaneously before. This time they struck in the southern portion of Texas and the need for federal and state action is immediate.

Until the rains came in torrential proportions at some spots—17 South Texas counties had applied for federal designation as drought disaster areas eligible for emergency aid. Within a few hours, several of these counties were in dire need for help to repair flood damage to homes and land.

Nueces County, with Corpus Christi as its commercial hub, was the hardest hit by rains. Rich brown fields which were powder dry from months of drought suddenly turned into lakes. Irreplaceable top soil was swept away by turbulent rivers that cut deep gullies across relatively flat farms. The county immediately applied for flood relief aid.

On the massive King Ranch the rattlesnake gave way temporarily to the water moccasin when rains turned pastureland into standing lakes. Seven counties—Bee, Brooks, Kleberg, Duval, Jim Wells, Nueces and San Patricio—suddenly had their weather conditions reversed.

Ten counties on the outside perimeter of the rain-soaked area still suffer drought conditions, however. They are: Atascosa, Frio, Goliad, Jim Hogg, Karnes, LaSalle, Live Oak, McMullen, Webb and Wilson. The federal government has not yet acted on their request for drought relief but, except for scattered showers, the long dry spell is still unbroken.

The moisture that was received in the dry counties did little good. Soil conditions were so poor that the water either ran off the crusted land or added very little to the subsoil.

For four long years, the burning hot sun parched the majority of Texas. Recent rains considerably brightened prospects over most of the state. Yet, the need for help on an emergency basis is still with us—and the job won't be complete until it is obtained.

Billy Ray and Glen D. Henson, both students in Texas Tech in Lubbock, were week end visitors with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Henson.

Kenneth Brockett, who is a student at Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Brockett.

Kenneth Hendrix of Wichita Falls spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hendrix.

Bob Gray of Wichita Falls was a guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Gray, over the week end.

James Amerson of NTSC in Denton spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Amerson.

Munday Moguls Lose First Conference Game By One-point Margin On Friday

Time ran out on the Munday Moguls last Friday night as they hammered at the Throckmorton goal line in a gallant effort to overcome a slight one-point margin which spelled their 6-7 defeat at the hands of the Greyhounds.

It was Quarterback Jack Gober's extra point that spelled the difference, as Skip Cure had missed his extra point try earlier in the game.

After a scoreless first half, the Moguls were leading 6-0 early in the third quarter when the Greyhounds climaxed a 60-yard march to cross the goal to even the score, with Gober kicking the winning point.

Right half Marley Cribbs had scored the victors' touchdown on a 29 yard scamper after a fourth down pitchout from Davis.

Gary Cure, 196-pound Mogul battering ram, went over from the two for the Moguls counter to climax a 72-yard drive that was highlighted by a 52-yard pass completion from Glenn Amerson to Lee Bruce. Cure's kick was wide to the right.

Munday recovered three fumbles to Throckmorton's two. Bruce recovered two for Munday, and Booe, the other, while Tommy Rogers and Cribbs gained the honors for Throckmorton.

After a scoreless first half, Munday took the second half kickoff and went 72 yards in 8 plays. From the Mogul 28 Amerson hit Bruce on the Munday 40 and the fleet end twisted away from one Greyhound and went to the Throckmorton 20 before he was knocked out of bounds by Cribbs and Self.

Amerson made the 15 in two tries, then connected with Bruce on the seven. Cure made the final seven yards in two plays.

Cure missed the vital point. Self returned the kickoff 20 yards for Throckmorton to the Greyhound 40. Cribbs lost one but Davis regained the 41. Dais completed the only Greyhound pass to end E. S. Cook on Munday's 48.

Then came the most beautiful option play we have ever witnessed. In the arms of a Mogul and leaning backwards at a 45-degree angle, Davis pitched out to Gober, who was run out of bounds on the Munday 37. Self, Gober, and then Gober again made it to the 29.

On fourth down, Davis pitched out to Cribbs, who headed wide for the left corner and pay dirt.

Gober's extra point then put the finishing touches on the touch-and-go district encounter.

Throckmorton's 7-6 lead was in mortal peril deep in the fourth quarter when the Moguls drove from their own 45 to the Greyhound one. There, with one yard needed on fourth down, Amerson gambled on a keeper to the right and wound up back on the Greyhound 12.

But the goal line stands were even at one apiece, as Munday halted the Greyhounds in the second quarter after the Throckmorton crew had gained a first down on the Mogul one.

Two tries at the line gained nothing. Gober was thrown to the eight on third down and on fourth down, Gober fumbled and tackle J. R. Booe recovered on the Munday 15 to end the threat.

The line play by both sides was terrific, with Davis, center Butch Timms, tackles W. D. Kelley, Tom Cooke, and Robert Lily leading the Greyhounds, and the ends Gerald Tidwell and Bruce, tackles Booe, and Durwood Thigpen and guard Jerry Lemley pacing the Mogul forwards.

Cribbs was the night's leading ground gainer with 85 yards in 12 carries and Throckmorton leftback Joe Self was next with 72 in 11 trips.

Cure paced the Moguls with 63 yards in 17 carries but the Greyhounds held Wyman Tidwell, Munday's Mr. Outside, to 26 yards in 9 carries.

Amerson completed three of nine passes for 71 yards but had two intercepted, by Gober and Davis.

Change In Social Security Law Gives Greater Benefits

A considerable number of widows, young children, and aged parents of working people who died between June 1940 and September 1950 have failed to claim the monthly benefits payable to them under a 1954 change in the social security law, announced Erton Tate, manager of the Wichita Falls Social Security Office. Those who do not apply for their benefits before October 1, he pointed out, will not be able to receive benefits for all the months back to September 1954, the effective date of the new provision in the law.

Under this provision, it is now possible to pay monthly social security benefits to the qualified survivors of workers who died between June 1940 and September 1950 if the deceased wage earner had credit for as little as a year and a half of work under social security. The families of many of these workers applied for benefits at the time of the family breadwinner's death. Mr. Tate said but were told that they could not receive payments because under the law, as it then stood, the worker had not earned enough social security credit to provide survivors benefits for his family.

"Announcements of the change in the law were made in all newspapers, in pamphlets, and on radio and television," Mr. Tate said, "and numerous persons in the Wichita Falls area applied for these benefits since September 1, 1954."

Where a claim for social security benefits is filed within 12 months of the time a beneficiary is first eligible, his payments can be made to him retroactively for the whole period. Mr. Tate has pointed out. But if a claim is delayed for more than 12 months, benefits for some months will be lost. He therefore urged the survivors of workers who died between June 1940 and September 1950 to get in touch with their nearest social security offices before October 1, 1955. Qualified claimants who apply before that date can be paid benefits back to September 1954.

Monthly benefits under this provision may be paid to the aged widows of such workers who at the time of death had worked on jobs under social security for at least a year and a half—to surviving children under 18 years of age, and to their mothers. Where no widow or children survived the worker, payments can be made to his aged parents if he was providing their support.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Yandell and daughter, Barbara Lynn, of Lubbock visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Yandell, last week end.
