COUNTY BASKETBALL TITLE TOURNAMENT OPENS HERE FRIDAY

Munday Moguls Big Favorites To Capture Laurels

Nineteen teams have been entered in the county basketball tournament to be played here Friday and Saturday, according to information given by H. H. Riley, city superintendent of schools. Championships will be decided in the senior boys, the senior girls and the junior girls divisions. Drawings to decide the order of play will take place Friday.

The winner of the senior boys division will compete for the championship of the eastern half of the scholastic league district No. 8 in a tournament to be played at Abilene the following week-end. The winner of the Abilene tournament will meet the winner of the champion of the western half of the district for the right to represent the entire district in a tournament at Austin to decide the state championship.

Believe it or not, the Benjamin team emerges as champion of the Independent Basketball league without having won a game.

At a meeting of managers of the league Wednesday night, it was agreed that all other teams had played ineligible men at one time or another. Consequently Benjamin, defeated in all eight games it played but the only team to play eligible men throughout the season, was awarded the championship.

It was agreed that the eligibility violations were unintentional or through misunderstanding, and everybody was happy.

The championship of the western half of the district will be decided by a tournament to be played at Big Spring the same time as the Abilene tournament.

Teams which have been entered in the Knox county tournament are:

Senior boys—Munday, Sunset, Gore, Knox City, Benjamin, Truscott and Vera.

Senior girls—Sunset, Gore, Knox City, Truscott, Cottonwood and Vera.

Junior boys—Munday, Gore, Sunset, Truscott and Gilliland and Lane Star.

The order of play will be as follows:

Friday afternoon—two games in first round of girls tournament.

Friday night—first round of senior boys tournament.

Saturday morning—first round

J. Donnell Dickson Enters Race For District Attorney

J. Donnell Dickson of Seymour, one of the best known of the young attorneys of Northwest Texas, formally announced during the past week that he will be a candidate for district attorney of the 50 judicial district subject to the Democratic primaries in July. Knox, Baylor, King and Cottle counties make up the 50th district.

Mr. Dickson was born and reared in Seymour, and is the son of Judge Joe A. P. Dickson, former district judge, a resident of Northwest Texas for half a century and probably as widely known among the legal fraternity of Texas as any practitioner in Texas.

The younger Mr. Dickson has been engaged actively in the practice of law for the last nine years, and during recent years, has been associated with his father at Seymour in the firm of Dickson and Dickson.

During the period from 1923 through 1925, Mr. Dickson served as county attorney of Baylor county, and in 1928, made the race for district attorney, receiving a very flattering vote. William Combest, the present attorney, has announced that he will not be a candidate for district attorney.

Mr. Dickson asserted that he is offering for the office of district attorney in the belief that he is fully qualified by experience and training to render efficient service. It will be his constant endeavor, in the event of his election, to faithfully and fully discharge the duties of the office.

APPEAL ORDERED AS JUDGE RULES TEXAS ACREAGE LAW VOID

AUSTIN, Feb. 4.—An appeal from Judge W. C. Davis' ruling that the Texas cotton acreage reduction law is unconstitutional probably will be taken to the supreme court.

James V. Alford, Texas attorney general, said whatever decision T. L. Tyson, county attorney of Robertson county, who instituted the test case, made about an appeal would be agreeable to him.

"I have authorized Tyson to represent the state," General Alford said. "He has conferred with me several times about the litigation and it is my understanding he will carry the case up on appeal."

J. E. McDonald, Texas commissioner of agriculture, said there wasn't anything he could do about making the law constitutional if the courts held it invalid.

FRANKLIN, Feb. 4.—Cotton limitation by law, attempted as a relief measure from overproduction in many sections of the south, lost in its first encounter with Texas courts when Judge W. C. Davis, of the 85th district state court, held the Texas law, "unconstitutional and void."

The Mississippi statute already had lapsed, because of a provision automatically making it void unless other cotton growing states passed similar measures; and one of the last official acts of Huey P. Long as governor of Louisiana was to suspend the similar additional law in that state. Arkansas and North Carolina also had passed conditional statutes which became void in the event other states did not adopt similar measures.

As a test of the Texas law passed at a special session of the 42nd Texas legislature, T. L. Tyson, Robertson county attorney, sought an injunction to prevent Fred L. Smith, farmer of Calvert, from planting to cotton this year more than 30 per cent of the total acreage he had in cultivation last year.

In refusing today to grant that injunction, Judge Davis asserted that enforcement of the law would be "the essence of tyranny and destructive of the fundamental principles of free government; would violate sacred guarantees of our constitution and would make the bill of rights a nullity and a farce."

Tyson was expected to take an appeal immediately to the 10th court of civil appeals at Waco.

M. T. Chamberlain Seeks Reelection As County Clerk

M. T. (Marvin) Chamberlain, who is now completing his first term as county clerk of Knox county, formally announced that he will be a candidate for a second term, subject to the Democratic primaries in July.

Mr. Chamberlain is too well known to the citizens of Knox county to require an introduction. It will be his purpose during the campaign, however, to attempt to call upon the voters individually and to make a personal solicitation of a continuation of their support.

It has been his purpose since becoming county clerk, he related, to render prompt service. To that end, he continued, he has kept all records up to date at all times. Of the many hundreds of official documents which have come to his office for filing since taking the office, Mr. Chamberlain declared, all except one has been recorded the same day as filed. The one paper was recorded the day after filing, the delay having been forced because the office was "snowed under" with work.

The great advantage resulting from prompt filing of documents is that such documents are readily made available should they have been needed.

"I have tried to discharge the duties of the office, promptly, courteously, fully and faithfully during my first term," Mr. Chamberlain declared. "If the citizens of the county feel that I have made them an efficient clerk, I ask their consideration for a second term. If they should feel otherwise, it of course will be their duty to deny that support. As county clerk, I have served to the very best of my ability. If reelected, I shall continue to so serve."

SALE OF L. E. LOVELESS DRUG FEATURES BIG ACTIVITY IN REALTY

FARM COURSE SPEAKERS

Two of the speakers to be featured during the short course to be given at community hall here Friday and Saturday, February 19 and 20, are pictured above. L. A. Hawkins (above) is a practical farmer and fruit grower. Miss Grace Marian Smith is nationally known as an authority on problems of the farm home.

W. V. Tiner New Proprietor Here Of Drug Business

Sale of the drug business established here more than nine years ago by L. E. Loveless and since operated as the Loveless Drug company, to W. V. Tiner, practical druggist of more than 23 years experience, was announced here Monday.

Mr. Tiner took over the proprietorship and active management of the business Monday, and henceforth will operate the establishment under the name of the Tiner Drug company.

Removal of Mr. Tiner's family, consisting of Mrs. Tiner, a son, Vinton, aged 14, a daughter, Margaret, aged 11, and Mrs. Tiner's mother, Mrs. S. B. Crump, was completed during the weekend. The children enrolled in the school here, Vinton in the eighth grade and Margaret in the fifth. The family is located in the residence owned by J. Arthur Smith in north Munday.

Plans of Mr. and Mrs. Loveless as to the future remained indefinite, although he expressed the sincere hope that he will adjust his business affairs in such manner as to continue his residence in Munday. They have two children, L. E. Jr., aged 9, and Earl, aged 7.

"Since having seen Munday grow from almost a mudhole to a modern little town of which we all may feel proud, I dislike the thought of leaving here," Mr. Loveless remarked. "Negotiations which led to the disposal of the business came virtually out of a clear sky, and we have had little opportunity to think of the future."

During his residence here, Mr. and Mrs. Loveless have established an undisputed rank among the most useful and popular of Munday citizens. During their nine years as citizens of Munday, Mr. Loveless has been identified actively with almost every enterprise intended for the betterment of the community.

He served two terms, a total of four years, on the city council during a very trying period, he is a member of the Lions club, a director of the Chamber of Commerce and a past commander of Lovry post of the American Legion.

While giving unreservedly of his time to civic enterprise and conducting a successful business, Mr. Loveless has further established himself among his fellow citizens as being an all-round good fellow.

Mr. Tiner is a native of Texas and has spent most of his lifetime in the southwestern section of the state. He spent his boyhood on a farm, held his first employment in a drug store and has been a licensed pharmacist for 16 years, having received his training for that work at Galveston.

During the last five years, he has operated in partnership a drug store at Crystal City, in the southwestern part of the state, and for the 16 years previous, was in business at Uvalde, Texas. Mrs. Tiner has been associated in the active operation of his business in the past and will be so identified with the establishment here.

"I decided a few months ago," he related, "that I desired to have the exclusive operation of a drug store, and began to look around quietly with the determination of"

Yearly Emergence Of Sir Groundhog Leads To Debate

Old Man Groundhog did his stuff on schedule Tuesday but it remained a subject of debate as to whether or not he decreed there will be six weeks more of winter.

Some of the old timers say he saw his shadow, which would mean that the arrival of spring has been postponed for six weeks. Some say he didn't see his shadow, and that he therefore has decided that spring is at hand. The entire question seems to hinge upon the hour selected by Sir Groundhog for his emergence from his hole after his winter's hibernation.

Some of the old-timers contend that the groundhog emerges from his hole at sunrise. If that be true, he didn't see his shadow last Tuesday, because the sky was heavily clouded.

Others contend that high noon is the hour of decision. Should that be the case, the ground hog got the scare of his life, because at that moment, the sun was doing a midsummer job of shining, as it did most of the day.

Plans Made For P.-A. '42 And Domino Tourney

Preparations went forward during the past week for a benefit domino, forty-two and eighty-four tournament to be sponsored in the near future by the Munday Parent-Teachers association, according to information given by Mrs. John Lane, chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements.

Details as to date, the games to be played and the place at which the tournament is to be staged yet are to be arranged. Tentative plans are, however, to continue it through two evenings, one for younger people and the other for the older. A small charge will be made, the entire proceeds to go to the association.

Serving with Mrs. Lane on the arrangements committee are Mrs. J. C. Campbell and Mrs. E. L. Blacklock.

Cotton Ginnings In Knox County Show Large Gain

Cotton ginnings in Knox county totaled 7,947 bales more up to Jan. 16, 1932, than up to the same date last year, according to the report of W. H. Griffin of Gore county statistician for the bureau of census.

Ginnings for the year up to last Jan. 16 were 33,147 bales as compared with 25,100 bales up to the same date a year ago, Mr. Griffin reported.

In Munday, a total of 7,774 bales have been ginned as compared with 6,515 bales last year. Some cotton still is coming in, both the Farmers Union and the Penderleton gins reporting considerable business during the early part of the week.

Chance Given To Work Out Sewage And Water Bills

Those behind with their water and sewage bills may work them out, according to information given by city officials.

The city, it was announced further, will make an allowance of $2 per day for common labor, the only kind of work available, and $3 per day for those with teams. A number of persons already have taken advantage of the offer, it was explained.

Garden Reduces Grocery Costs

MARLIN, Jan. 28.—With a family of five to feed, grocery bills running between $50 and $60 per month, and with only one container of canned food on hand, Mrs. M. E. Eakin of Chilton, Falls county, planted last Spring that responsibility lastly by cutting the grocery bill to $20 per month. She canned 420 containers of food from it and organized a 4-H party that provides workable menus for every day, even wash days. She is one of 422 Falls county home demonstrators who have been demonstrating to club women who had straggled gardens. Of this number, 210 reported full gardens also.

Poll Tax Total For Knox County Hits Low Figure

Poll tax payments in Knox county for the current year fell to about two-thirds the total for average general election years of the past, according to reports from the office of Miss Sarah Wright, county tax collector.

Jan. 31 was the deadline for the payment of poll taxes to entitle the voter to cast his ballot during 1932. In Knox county, according to the preliminary report, a total of 1,770 poll tax receipts were paid, as compared with an average of about 5,000 for the last several election years.

Munday retains by the narrow margin of two first place among communities of the county in the number of qualified voters. The two Munday voting precincts are credited with 349 poll tax payers, as compared with 338 in the Knox City precinct.

Poll tax receipts issued follow, by precincts:

Banks Williams, residing two miles southeast of town, is recovering at his home from an attack of influenza which, for a time, threatened to prove serious.

PHYSICIANS OF MUNDAY ADVISE OF SAFEGUARDS AS INFLUENZA EPIDEMICS BREAK OUT NEARBY

Physicians of Munday advise of safeguards as influenza epidemics break out nearby. Reports that influenza epidemics have broken out in some of the towns and cities adjacent to Munday caused physicians here to join during the week in a warning that safeguards be taken against such an outbreak.

Thus far, physicians agreed there has been very little influenza here this winter. However, it was added, more people seem to be suffering with colds during the last few days than has been the case most of the winter. It is from just such a condition, it was added, that an epidemic might result.

The danger of an outbreak of influenza here, it was declared, can be reduced to a minimum by a few simple and inexpensive precautions. Influenza is highly infectious, and once started, is extremely difficult to control.

Worst of the epidemics reported in this section of the state seems to be at Wichita Falls, where more than 2,000 pupils and more than 30 teachers were reported absent because of influenza.

Perhaps the best of the precautions against influenza, it was declared, is by taking serum, and a considerable number of residents of the Munday territory have resorted to that safeguard. The serum, it was added, however, is of little value if taken after influenza has taken hold. The cost involved likewise will prevent many persons from adopting that precaution.

Perhaps the best simple, inexpensive and effective safeguards against influenza, it was declared, are cleanliness, proper ventilation and by keeping the system in order. Cleanliness keeps the pores open and assists the body in throwing off poisons. Proper ventilation also strengthens bodily resistance. Disinfecting throat sprays also are advised.

Proper ventilation is especially important in winter, physicians advised. It is during that season when people will congregate more closely, when more persons are likely to use the same sleeping room and to occupy the same bed. Keeping the sleeping room windows open is an essential to proper ventilation.

The dangers of influenza and other infectious diseases likewise is increased during the winter by the fact that less care ordinarily is exercised in making certain of a balanced diet that during other seasons of the year when an abundance of green vegetables are available. A balanced diet, it was added, is more important during the winter when it is more difficult to procure, than during any other season. The dangers growing out of an improper diet are further increased during this particular winter by the fact that many people are without the means of supplying a proper variety of food.

Another means of lessening the dangers of influenza is by avoiding congested places. Particularly should persons with colds avoid such places, because of the dangers of infection from them.

Shade Stevenson Returns Here For Brief Vacation

Rev. Shade E. Stevenson, a "local boy who has made good", is spending a few days with relatives and renewing old friendships here while taking a brief vacation from his work as a Baptist evangelist in Arizona. His headquarters are in Phoenix.

Mr. Stevenson's trip to the old home town was enlivened by an automobile accident near Tucson, in which an artery in his forearm was severed. The fact that he was near medical aid so that the blood flow could be checked was credited with having prevented his injury from having had a tragic ending.

In Munday, Mr. Stevenson is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Alexander and Mrs. A. A. Smith. He also is visiting the parents of Mrs. Stevenson, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Reeves, Mrs. Stevenson and her brother, M. H. Reeves, son's sister, Mrs. Leland Hannah, Mrs. Stevenson is at the family home in Phoenix.

Mr. Stevenson was Baptist field secretary in Arizona for a time, but more recently has been engaged in evangelical work. Since assuming his new duties, he has organized four new churches of his denomination in that state.

Flames Destroy Residence Here Of J. A. Kennedy

The home owned and occupied by the family of Jesse A. Kennedy was completely wrecked with all its contents by fire which broke out early Saturday night.

While the origin of the fire was not determined with certainty, presumably it started from a gas stove.

Members of the family were absent when the fire broke out and the flames had spread over most of the interior of the dwelling when it was discovered by Jesse George Kennedy. While the walls and roof were left standing, the interior was almost completely gutted.

Important Meet Of City School Board Planned

Definite determination as to the length of the current city school term is scheduled to be made at a special meeting of the city school board to be held either Friday or Saturday, it was disclosed during the latter part of the week.

A detailed financial report is now being completed, and from that, members of the board expect to be in position to complete plans for the current year. There was serious question as to whether the usual nine months term can be carried out for financial reasons. One proposal virtually certain to receive serious consideration is that an eight months term be carried out.

Thus far, the school board has been able to meet payrolls on time on a basis of 50 per cent cash and 50 per cent script. Approximately $4,000 in script, issued since the beginning of school last September, now is outstanding.

Nearly $9,000 in current city school taxes still is outstanding, and it is not regarded as likely that the board can rely on any material revenue from that source, it was declared. Virtually the only assured revenue is that due from the state.

Sunset-Gilliland Schools Receive High Recognition

Notification that the Sunset and Gilliland Consolidated school have been certified by the state department of education as Class A schools has been received by Mrs. Effie Lee P'Pool, county school superintendent. Mrs. P'Pool was a visitor to Munday during the week.

In order to receive such recognition, she explained, a school must meet certain requirements as to teaching an eight-month term, as to having no teachers with less than a four-year elementary certificate and as to making provisions for safeguarding the health of the pupil. To obtain the rating, the school must score at least 800 out of a possible 1,000 points. Both Sunset and Gilliland scored near the maximum.

Four other schools in the county already had Class A. rating. They are the Rhineland, Washburn, Dix-

Sarah Wright To Ask Second Term As Tax Collector

Miss Sarah Wright, made formal announcement during the week that she will be candidate for reelection to a second term as Knox county tax collector, subject to the Democratic primaries in July.

In announcing, Miss Wright expressed the opinion that the experience gained during her present term will make it possible for the office to give even better service should she again be honored with the place.

Although Miss Wright has served as county clerk only a little more than a year, she has several years of experience in various other official capacities in other county offices prior to her election to her present post. Her official contacts added to an already wide circle of friendships makes an introduction of her to the Knox county citizenship unnecessary.

After having given long service in various official posts, Miss Wright was honored in 1930 by being elected the first Knox county collector after that office had been created for this county. As county collector, it has been her responsibility to organize the office and set it to working. The efficiency with which she has discharged that responsibility instantly discloses itself to those who come in contact with her office.

Miss Wright has kept her records up to date, and at all times has attempted to give prompt, efficient and courteous service. We are pleased to commend her to the serious consideration of Democrats at the approaching primaries.

Hardware Store Opened Here By Mansell Company

The purchase of the Ben Guinn hardware stock by the Mansell Brothers Hardware company which has opened a retail store in a location opposite the Terry hotel was announced here early in the week.

The purchase was made from George Isbell and son, who acquired the stock from Mr. Guinn several days before.

The Mansell Brothers company already operate stores at Rochester, O'Donnell and Roby, and has established what is intended to be a permanent business in Munday, it was announced.

E. Hob Smith, who has been connected with the store at Rochester, has been placed in charge of the Munday store temporarily. The personnel of the management of the establishment here had not been decided definitely, however, and it may be that Mr. Smith will return to Rochester after the venture here has been safely launched. Mr. Smith was reared in Knox City and educated in the schools there.

P. A. and T. J. Mansell, brothers, it was said, may be transferred from Roby to Munday to take charge of the store here. Both are married, and Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Mansell have a son, Claude, and a daughter, Ernie Marie.

Garage Sold Here By M. F. Stafford

The purchase by J. D. Casey and E. V. Brazell of the garage business which has been operated here by M. F. Stafford was announced here during the week.

Mr. Stafford, it was announced, will continue as agent for the Pontiac with Messrs. Casey and Brazella as sub-agents.

Mr. Stafford and his family have moved to a farm 2 1/2 miles south of Gore. Walter Price and family, who have been residing on the place, have moved to Gore.

Mr. Casey has been in charge of the garage here for Mr. Stafford for the last six years. Mr. Brazell also has had several years experience as an automobile mechanic.

The best investment of 25 cents I Ever Made.

Mr. Bates placed a classified ad in The Times last week to the effect that he is prepared to do painting and paper hanging, and that he "can save you money on your paints, oils, canvas and wall-paper."

"The Times had hardly appeared," he relates, "before a man with whom I am acquainted, but who do not know the work I am prepared to do, commissioned me to do some work for him. In all probability I wouldn't have obtained that work had it not been for the 25-cent want ad."

A classified ad in The Times can get results for you also and they cost only one cent a word.

MAJORITY ELECTIONS.

The proposal now being considered by the state Democratic executive committee that candidates for congressmen-at-large be divided into three groups and that a majority vote be required before declaring the winner in any group is one which should arouse the interest of every Democrat in Texas.

While undoubtedly many strong arguments can be advanced in favor of the proposal, there is a question as to whether it would be to the advantage of the West Texas and to others of the less populous sections of the state.

If the proposal should be adopted, the candidate would announce for either place No. 1, No. 2 or No. 3 as congressman at large. Unless some candidate should receive a majority vote for each of the places, there would be run-offs between the two high candidates for each place.

Unless the plan is adopted, the three candidates polling the highest numbers of votes would be declared elected. In view of the fact that there will be upwards of 20 candidates, it would be highly improbable for any candidate to receive a majority. The result would be that any candidate polling in the neighborhood of 100,000 votes would stand an excellent chance of election.

The big disadvantage of the majority plan would be that the voters of the more populous centers could concentrate on three candidates from their section and possibly elect all three. The less populous territories, of which West Texas is typical, would be left in the cold.

However, the advantage of the majority plan would be to eliminate those candidates who have strong minority followings. Take the Fergusons as an example. Jim Ferguson has a large vote which will stick to him regardless. His

You pay a tax on every gallon of gasoline you buy. Your state levies this tax to pay for building good roads.

But your state is not getting all the money paid as a gasoline tax. RACKETEERS ARE TAKING AN ALARMING AMOUNT OF IT. They are selling bootlegged gasoline on which they pay the state no tax—but they make motorists pay all or a part of the tax. The racketeer keeps this tax money himself!

You get your tax back in the form of good roads when the state collects the tax. You get nothing when racketeers get your money. And remember—if your state got all the money paid as tax, it could well afford to lower its gasoline tax!

If you want your money to go into road building instead of into the racketeer's pockets, make sure the gasoline you buy is not bootlegged. Buy gasoline made by a reliable, law-abiding company and sold under a dependable, well-known brand name, and be certain that your tax money goes to your state and not to the racketeers. That's the only way to beat the racketeers.

PEACE

When we consider the subject of peace, we have a broad field for serious thought. Peace is a state of quiet; freedom from agitation; contentment; or tranquility. President Hoover has said, "Peace is not a static thing. To maintain peace is as dynamic in its requirements as is the subject of war."

Since the beginning of time the peoples of the earth have been seeking peace. The misery and tragedy of the World War shocked the conscience of the world. We, as a nation, are still struggling to overcome the burdens inflicted upon the human race by that war and the other wars of the past.

Immediately after this great war, Woodrow Wilson turned his thoughts from war to peace. He once said, "The cause of peace and the cause of Truth are of one family. That which has been accomplished in the past is pretty compared to the glory of the promises of the future."

The League of Nations' first session was held at Geneva, November 15, 1920. It was attended by forty-one nations, and admitted seven more to membership. The tenth annual meeting was held at Geneva, with fifty-four nations represented, in September, 1929. It has progressed steadily and, although Wilson was largely instrumental in organizing the League of Nations, the United States has never joined it.

Disarmament, in its proper sense, means the limitation and reduction of armaments by international agreement. This is the most essential and practical move toward world peace. Some progress toward this was made at the Washington conference in 1922. President Hoover has said, "We will reduce our naval power if proposed to that made by any other nation." If the nations would make one-tenth of the sacrifices for peace that are demanded by war, peace would become a reality.

At the present time, the American citizens are vitally interested in peace because of the situation in China. We are sincerely hoping that we will be enabled to retain peace.

ried out successfully. Each student was given a tag with his or her name on it. If anyone heard another make a grammatical error, he could take that person's tag. The Freshmen seemed to have carried away the honors in this game, since Albert Aycock, on the last day, had the most number of tags. Mary Eva Eigsby and Mildred Gray claimed the honor of second place.

Blessed is he who sitteth on a tack,

Student: "Can you tell me the date, sir?"

Absent-Minded Prof. "Sorry, but I forgot to wind up my calculator."

SENIORS

Now that we are over the mid-term examinations, and though some of us cannot sensibly discuss whether safely or not as yet, we feel sure that we will be able to decide that from our report cards, which we are due to receive this week. Maybe now we can take a short relaxing period and refresh our minds so that we can start our second term of eleventh grade work successfully and make it a success in every way.

We don't want to miss any of the good basketball games we are having either and especially do we want to be on hand when the Moguls play in the county tournament.

Don't expect much news of our "doings" this week? We really haven't had the time to create any, but maybe will have more for you next week. At least, we know that it will be something besides just examinations, report cards, and such alone!

JUNIORS

We began the second term of our school Monday morning resolved to study much more in order to raise the grades made the first term. We are certainly glad our examinations are over anyway. We do not have to worry anymore for a while.

Now, that we are through with our examinations we are going to work on our Junior play. Miss Chapple, our sponsor, says that the play will be selected at once and work on it will begin immediately.

LANE'S LOWDOWN

The Munday Moguls put two more victories to their string over the week-end. The teams Munday defeated were Knox City and Gore.

Folks, do not forget Friday, Saturday, and Sunday night. The county tournament starts in full swing Friday at four o'clock. Since the girls' team has disbanded, we are depending on the Moguls and the Junior Moguls for our share of honors. The latter team has played only one game this year. They tangled with Gore, and were defeated. This team started practicing late in the season, so too much could not be expected in their first game, but they should show plenty of opposition in the tournament.

Of course we are expecting the Moguls to win first place, since this season has been an unusually successful one. Their splendid record is marred only by three defeats. We feel sure that our expectations will be fulfilled, but even though they are not, we'll always have the same loyal feeling toward our Moguls.

We like you!
We love you!
We'll stick to you tight!
But oh you Moguls,
Fight! Fight! Fight!

BETTER ENGLISH WEEK

Several weeks ago we told you about our plans for a Better English Week in Munday High School. These plans were initiated and carried from the office of the Banking Commissioner, Austin, Texas, by JAMES SHAW, Banking Commissioner of Texas.

Dated at Austin, Texas, this the 3rd day of December, A. D. 1931.
(Dec. 3-14.)

Be sure to start saving your pennies, because you won't want to miss this play.

We'll be with you again next week! Watch for us!

FRESHMEN

We had a few new pupils to start to school this week. We are hoping they enjoy being with us the remainder of this year.

As we have nothing else to say, we wish to bid you farewell until next week.

SEVENTH GRADE NEWS

The Seventh Grade had two days of real work the last week, because they were occupied by mid-term examinations. Mr. Palmer, the principal of our school, has been seen quite often with his long barrelled pipe, puffing away at leisure hours. No, not in school, because he said that it would not work. Since mid-term exams are here and gone the geography class will begin in a few days the study called Civics. It will be taught by Miss Dessie Kennedy. The seventh grade boys are buying a new baseball for better training because the county meet will be held in a few weeks. We are proud to say they are in the best condition.

Organization Of District Pastors Is Completed Here

An organization of Methodist pastors of the Pampa district was perfected at an all-day meeting held Monday at the First Methodist church. Future meetings of the group will be held here on the first Monday of each month, Munday having been selected as the gathering place because of its central location.

Rev. John H. Crowe, pastor of the Methodist church here, was elected president of the association. Rev. A. W. Gordon of Haskell was chosen vice president, and Rev. Jack Thompson of Weimer, secretary. About 20 pastors were in attendance.

The association has been formed, it was explained, to give the pastors an opportunity to discuss their common problems at regular meetings. Dr. George S. Sliver of Stamford, presiding elder, attended the organization meeting and took an active part in the round table discussions which featured the program.

At Monday's meeting, Mr. Crowe led the discussion on the subject, "A Pastor's Time", and Mr. Gordon led round table talk on, "A Pastor's Reading."

A luncheon arranged by ladies of the church was served during the noon hour.

Watermelons Net Large Revenues

SAN SABA, Feb. 4—When there appeared to be no market for San Saba county watermelons last season, a local marketing association at Richland Springs pooled and sold 30 cars of melons at prices which, though very low, were better than taking total losses, reports N. E. Scudder, county agent.

Records of five farmers who cooperated with the agent in growing the crop showed a net income above planting and tillage expense of $900 on 45 acres. Plans are being formed to carry on the association another year.

Goofy—The footpad held me up for all I had.

Ethel—I don't see how those fellows make a living.

Payment Here Of City And School Tax Near $17,500

A total of approximately $17,500 in city school and city taxes were collected up to Feb. 1, according to tabulations completed at the office of the city clerk.

Penalty and interest upon both taxes went into effect on Feb. 1, which likewise was the last date for the payment of all other delinquent taxes without such penalty and interest.

The tax payments, it was announced, represented in excess of 47 per cent the current taxes outstanding. The collection record this year is slightly better than last year.

The report shows that of $16,915.73 in current city school taxes due, a total of $8,110.97 were collected. In addition, $1,216.17 in delinquent school taxes were collected. The percentage of current tax collections is approximately 48. Of $15,335.01 in current city taxes due, $7,390.56 were paid. While tabulations of collections of delinquent city taxes were not complete, it was estimated that about $800 had been derived from that source.

Starting Feb. 1, a penalty of 10 percent was added to the taxes. In addition, a 6 per cent per annum interest charge will be made until paid.

An Irish policeman was taking an examination for promotion.

Question: What is rabies and what do you do about it.

Answer—Rabies is Jewish priests, and you can't do anything about it.

Big Increase In Irrigated Farms In Texas Show

According to a bulletin recently issued by the Bureau of the Census, showing State and county statistics on irrigation in the State of Texas, the number of farms on which irrigation is practiced increased from 5,974 in 1920 to 10,861 in 1930.

The area irrigated in 1929 was 798,917 acres, an increase of 36.3 per cent from 586,120 acres irrigated in 1919.

The report also shows the acreage irrigated by individuals and partnerships, as well as enterprises of other character, including cooperative, commercial companies, and the Federal Government.

The report shows that it has cost, on the average, $31.95 an acre to prepare land for irrigation in Texas, in addition to the cost of the systems.

Those who failed to attend the services of Sunday night missed a great blessing. It made us realize how little we do for the Saviour, who gave his life for us.

Come next Sunday, and don't forget the weekly prayer service where we have started a most interesting study of Revelations.

continuing my search until I found just exactly the business that I wanted in the community that I wanted.

"My search eventually led to Munday and I know the instant I drove into town that my search had ended. I know enough of farming to feel certain of the future of the Munday country.

The people who make up this community are the ideal type. I realize that a farming community must have its ups and downs, but taken as a whole, I don't see how a country, given as many advantages as are to be found here, can fail to prosper.

"It will be the purpose of Mr. Tiner and myself to continue the business of the same high plane that has characterized it under the direction of Mr. Loveless.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Tiner and two children, Vinton Jr. and Margaret, and Mrs. Tiner's mother, Mrs. S. B. Crump, left Wednesday afternoon for Munday, Texas, where they will make their home.

The Tiner family moved from Uvalde to Crystal City five years ago and since that time Mr. Tiner has been associated with his brother-in-law, Mr. T. H. Thomson, in the Crystal Drug Store.

Mrs. Tiner was very active in the different organizations of the town. She will be missed in the Parent-Teacher's Association, the Woman's Chamber of Commerce, the Order of the Eastern Star and most of all, in the church. She was teacher in the primary department of the Baptist church and loved by the entire class.

Mrs. Crump divides her time with her three children, Mrs. Tiner, Mrs. Myrick, of Corpus Christi and her son, A. B. Crump of Uvalde, since disposing of her property here and at Uvalde. She made her home here for a long while as her pretty farm in the edge of town and has many friends here.

In the moving of this good family it is a loss to Crystal City and a gain for Munday. Their friends wish them much happiness and prosperity in their new home—Zavala County Sentinel, Crystal City, Texas.

and eventually, to the state supreme court, if necessary. Attorney General James V. Allred was quoted at Austin as saying he had authorized Tyson to represent the state in testing the law.

Governor R. S. Sterling, who had advocated this law in preference to the "cotton holiday" plan proposed by Governor Long of Louisiana, recently had been petitioned by many legislators to convene a special session of the legislature to repeal the Texas law, since other cotton-growing states had failed to adopt a common policy.

The governor refused to do this and indicated several days ago he was reasonably certain the courts would hold the law unconstitutional.

Judge Davis, in his decision, wrote: "The right of the citizen to use his property as he chooses, so long as he harms nobody, is an inherent and constitutional right. The police power can not be invoked for the abridgment of a particular use of property rights, unless such use reasonably endangers or threatens the public health, the public safety, the public comfort or welfare."

"The fundamental principles and guarantees of life, liberty and property vouchsafed under the constitutions of the United States and the State of Texas should never be absent during the stress of depression. Precedents, by law or otherwise, destructive of these rights, no matter what be the occasion, eventually will destroy our system of free government. Depression and economic ills are, as a rule, of brief duration but precedents endure.
