Odd Bits Salvaged at Random

"I've seen the Southwest Conference games, I've been to the Cotton Bowl game, said a Mogul fan last Saturday morning, "but that time last night was one of the best I've ever seen."

And that goes for lots of fans. A good football game thrills the fans, whether their favorite team is winning or losing, but the Munday-Holiday game was doubly exciting for Mogul fans.

They saw the Moguls in possibly top form. Even the most skeptical can well believe that those injuries—received in the main in practice periods—kept the Moguls from getting the championship this year.

The Eagles were already determined champions, since their final game is hoped to be an easy one, and they fought hard to keep their record 100 per cent. But the Moguls upset the champions, and did it in a commanding way. The game was hard-fought during all four quarters, and it's amazing that two teams can play so hard and make so few infractions of the rules. Only two penalties were assessed during the game—one against the Moguls for backfield in motion, and one against the Eagles for holding.

This is unconfirmed, but we heard the Eagle coach saw the Mogul coach after the game and said: "No use making alibies, you just plain beat us. You have the best team in the district." And loyal Mogul fans think so, too, although we're out of the district running.

All people like flowery words, and an editor is no exception. We succumb to this weakness this week and reprint the following letter which came last week from an old friend and former Munday resident, Tom Busby:

"Thanks for sending the Munday Times. We just couldn't do without it. We have taken it since 1914. It is just like an old friend coming home, and is read over and over, every word. Thanks again, and I'm enclosing a check for the Munday Times, an old friend for 42 years."

Mistakes are embarrassing, whether they're printed in a newspaper, or just happen. We imagine someone's face should be red over a mistake in Knox County's vote in the general election. It appeared in two or more daily papers as "complete unofficial returns" made by the Texas Election Bureau.

It gave Knox County's vote as 1,088 for Stevenson and 4,170 for Eisenhower—a total of 8,258 votes.

Only about 3,500 ballots were printed—and these according to law, 1 1/2 times the number of poll tax receipts. Actually, the vote in Knox County was 1,262 for Stevenson and 835 for Eisenhower.

Excitement ran high and a neighborhood football game was broken up last Sunday afternoon when the "singing" of a deadly rattlesnake was heard in a flower bed of the Weldon Smith home. Players who heard the sound and located the reptile are Kenneth Smith, Jimmie Lee, Tommie Horton, Bob and Bill Baker and Paula Pendleton. They quickly called in their Daddies to make the kill. The snakes had five rattlers and the usual button. No one knows where it came from, but all are hoping that's the last one in the neighborhood.

"MA" SHUGART TO OPEN STUDIO HERE

"Ma" Shugart, whose name is synonymous with the picture taking business in most of West Texas and who has been serving this area for many years, is returning to Munday for a brief time with her cameras.

According to "Ma"—and she prefers this title to Mrs.—she has photographed most of the folks who have lived around this part of the country for any length of time. Her studio will be located across the street from Munday Paint and Body Works.

Democrats Carry Knox County Vote

As stated last week, Knox County stayed in the Democratic column, despite the Eisenhower surge among Texas voters.

Only three boxes in the county—Gilliland, Truscott and Rhineland, gave Eisenhower a majority. The complete but unofficial vote on the presidential race by boxes was as follows:

Benjamin, Stevenson 91, Eisenhower 73; Truscott, Stevenson 48, Eisenhower 64; Gilliland, Stevenson 38, Eisenhower 33; Vera, Stevenson 110, Eisenhower 18; Goree, Stevenson 145, Eisenhower 76; South Munday, Stevenson 157, Eisenhower 116; North Munday, Stevenson 202, Eisenhower 86; Rhineland, Stevenson 38, Eisenhower 55; Jas. Partridge, Stevenson 41, Eisenhower 30; South Knox City, Stevenson 221, Eisenhower 154; North Knox City, Stevenson 125, Eisenhower 67; Brock, Stevenson 11, Eisenhower 2.

Absentee ballots gave Stevenson 35, Eisenhower 31.

County totals were Stevenson 1262 and Eisenhower 835. In 1952 the vote was Stevenson 1556, Eisenhower 1033.

Last Game

Tommy Powell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Speke, Munday, will make his last home appearance as a member of the West Texas State football team next Saturday when the Buffs play Texas Western in the annual Homecoming attraction.

In his fourth year as a West Texas griddler, Powell plays center for the Buffaloes. His college major is physical education and he plans to teach after graduation. The 6-1, 190-pounder played high school ball at Munday.

Moguls To Play Crowell Friday

The Munday Moguls will be playing their last game of the season on Friday night of this week when they entertain the Crowell Wildcats on the home field. This will also close the uneventful season for the Wildcats.

According to records of the two teams, the Moguls should take the victory rather easily, but records don't always become accurate predictions.

The Wildcats have won only two conference games this season, just last week defeating Paducah 13 to 7, a team which the Moguls earlier defeated 41 to 6.

This last game of the season will begin at 7:30 p. m. Coach Troy Stewart announced Tuesday, since the days are shorter than earlier in the season.

A number of the Moguls will be playing their last high school game, and will be trying to make a good showing, so the game will hold interest for all fans.

I FOUND EXCITEMENT IN THE CARVER HOME

I've never seen such excitement since I've made my appearance in the Carver home. Since their first peep, the folks have thought I have filled their order to the last detail.

I decided to be born at the Knox County Hospital at 10:30 a. m. Sunday, November 11. My parents, Mr. and Mrs. James of Goree, decided to call me Gary Dean. My weight at birth was eight pounds and six ounces. Although I have no brothers or sisters, I bet I get lots of attention, don't you?

E. B. Clark Drilling Co. has a 2,600 foot venture three miles northeast of Knox City, the No. 1 J. C. Saunders.

Noel Pautsky has contracted to 1,990 feet the No. 1 C. E. W. Hunt Estate, 3 1/2 miles southeast of Goree.

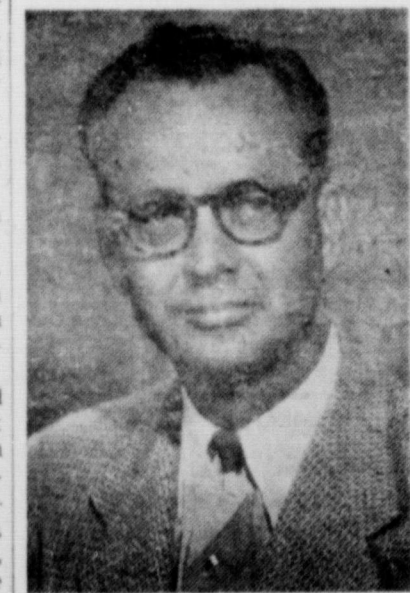

Three tests were staked by Ted A. Norwood et al of Wichita Falls: The No. 1 J. H. Hackfield, three miles north of Knox City, to 2,450 feet; No. 1 P. O. Large et al, five miles northwest of Knox City, to 2,600 feet; No. 1 John Michels, 4 1/2 miles north of Knox City, to 2,450 feet.

Far-West Trading Co., Wichita Falls, staked four of the tests, all to go to 2,200 feet: No. 1 Pruitt, one mile south of Munday; No. 1 V. Nelson, two miles southwest of Munday; No. 1 Bowden, half mile southwest of Munday, and No. 1 A. Bowden, one fourth mile southwest of Munday.

The Frierson Company has spooled No. 1 J. W. Gaither, 1 1/2 miles southwest of Munday at a 2100 footer.

Nutritionist

Appointment of Dr. Herbert T. Peeler, above, as director of nutrition and research was announced early this week by George Wolff, III, president of Universal Mills of Fort Worth.

Dr. Peeler a native Texan, is national known in this field and is considered one of the most outstanding livestock and poultry nutritionists in the entire South and Southwest.

Proving that injuries had hampered their brand of football during the two weeks in which the Moguls lost one and tied one important district game, the Munday Moguls easily showed their superiority over the leading Holliday Eagles last Friday night by giving them a 20-12 defeat on the local field.

Glen Amerson gathered his quarterbacking wits about him after a scoreless first half and directed the Moguls to this thrilling victory. The local boys dominated the game from beginning to end.

The Moguls started several threatening drives in the first half, but a fumble wrecked one, and Amerson's attempted pass with his injured thumb stopped the other two.

Under Amerson's direction, two little boys, Freddy Caram and Phillip McAfee, made some fine yardage through the Eagle line. These boys stood out more than in any other game.

Holliday, which suffered its first setback in district action, roared to a 6-0 lead shortly after the third period started. After passing only twice in the first half, tailback Kenneth Knowles cut loose with an aerial barrage that netted a touchdown after 19 plays, with Knowles plunging over from a yard out for the tally.

The Mogul line held so staunch that the Eagles could only make progress through the air. Amerson forgot his passing aspersions and began to lead the Mogul in a ground-eating running game that evened the score in seven plays as Amerson went over from two yards out, then kicked the extra point that gave Munday a 7-6 edge. Munday was in the lead all the way from then on.

Holliday took the ensuing kickoff and on the strength of Knowles' passing, which gained 140 yards in the second half, moved to the Mogul five, but there they were stalled by the brilliant defense spearheaded by the Mogul Line, Amerson, Bunny Norvill and Fullback Boyd Meers.

Munday took over there and started a drive which went into the final quarter and wound up with Amerson thundering over from 10 yards out and kicking the point to give the Moguls an almost untouchable 14-6 lead with 7:20 left in the game.

The wounded Eagles took the kickoff and scored in five plays, with a pass from Knowles to Dan Hubbard that covered 27 yards putting over the marker. Knowles' kick was wide and Munday held the precarious 14-12 lead with 4 1/2 minutes left.

Amerson then directed the Moguls in a time-eating drive with most of the running done by Meers and Don Elliott. End Lee Bruce scored the touchdown on an end-around with 29 seconds left in the game. Amerson's kick was blocked, but it made no difference.

Area Vegetable Story Appears In Progressive Farmer

Vegetable growing and marketing in Knox County is described in the December issue of The Progressive Farmer magazine. The article, "Marketing 'Ain't Easy'", tells how farmers in the area have turned from cotton to vegetables.

Don Combs, local farmer, has sparkplugged the Munday vegetable growing deal from its beginning. First you have to prove you can grow high-quality stuff, says Combs. Then you have to establish a market for your goods.

Farmers in the area contracted with a packer to grow 315 acres of potatoes. They netted $260 an acre on the crop.

Growing cantaloupes the past year has been their biggest vegetable project. Many weeks of extremely hot, dry weather burned many of the cantaloupes lowering both yield and quality. Growers received about $75 per acre gross and cost of growing was about $25 an acre. Growers expect to get around $200 an acre in a normal year.

Watermelons around Munday did better than cantaloupes this year. These two crops may be marketed well together.

They're building a vegetable market at Munday. And growers are striving to build up a reputation for quality.

THOSE VICIOUS AUTOMOBILES

Judging by news reports of automobile accidents, modern cars with their multi-hundred horsepower engines and super-sonic speeds react in strange ways to the temperaments of their drivers. Almost daily one reads "car left highway on curve, crashed into tree and killed driver." Or "car pulled out of traffic line without warning, struck oncoming car head on—occupants of both cars dead." Or "car went out of control and rolled over bank into river—bodies not yet found."

What ails the modern automobile? Why has it taken on these homicidal tendencies? Are automobiles irritated because their drivers hold them back on curves? Do they become impatient when a timid driver tries to keep them from going 80 or 90 miles an hour to pass another car and keep ahead of everything on the road? Do they imagine when coming to a curve that they can spread their fenders like wings to cross a canyon like an airplane and connect with the road on the other side? What are their motives?

Owners must be protected from the irresponsible actions of cars or it will soon be suicide to drive one of them.

One way to show your car you are boss when it shows signs of taking the "bit in its teeth" is to cut its feed supply and spur it with well-adjusted brakes—that might teach it a lesson, if you live through the experiment.

DOLLARS AREN'T LIKE MINUTES

This country's gross national product—the money value of all goods and service produced—has passed the $400 billion a year mark, almost double the 1945 figure.

However, as the Portland Oregonian points out, reaching this "magic" level "is not as sensational as the announcement some months back that man finally had broken the four-minute mile." The reason is that a minute is a constant measure—it doesn't stretch or shrink from time to time. The dollar is something else again.

Today's dollar will buy a little less than 70 per cent of what the 1945 dollar would buy. Therefore, a $400 billion gross national product, adjusted to 1945 prices comes to only about $300 billion. That is what inflation has done.

—SAY YOU SAW IT IN THE TIMES—

FOR $210 A YEAR

How much does a medical care cost the average American family? That question, asked at random, would provoke a wide gamut of answers. A good many people, who haven't had an opportunity to get the facts, obviously believe that this cost is very heavy.

The Health Information Foundation of New York City has looked into the matter. It found that the average family medical bill runs to about $210 a year. Only 16 per cent of families spend more than $400.

The average family, as we all know, spends substantially larger sums for luxuries and entertainment and in other ways that are fun but not essential. And today's medical care dollar, due to medical progress, brings back a tremendous return. New drugs and techniques produce cures where cures were rare or impossible in past times. They have greatly reduced the time that people must spend recuperating from illness. It's a real saving when a man can return to his work in a matter of days, instead of weeks or months.

Complaints about medical care costs are easy enough to understand—they are inevitable, human nature being what it is. No one likes to go to the doctor—we go only when we must. We'd much rather spend the money on all manner of other things. That attitude is universal. But it should not be allowed to warp the truth—and to blow up the medical care financial problem out of all semblance to reality.

EXPLOITATION ! ! !

A basic Marxian dogma is that, under capitalism, the owners of enterprise get tremendous rewards while the workers half-strive on the crumbs that are tossed to them.

It's interesting to put that idea beside a set of facts concerning what the 100 largest U. S. industrial companies spent their incomes for last year.

Wages salaries, and other labor benefits consumed 26.7 per cent of total revenues from sales and all other sources. Taxes took 9.7 per cent. The owners, by contrast, received 3.5 per cent in preferred and common stock dividends.

In other words, workers got about eight times as much as the owners—and government got almost three times as much. That's what happens under capitalist exploitation!

WHAT DOES THE BIBLE SAY?

6. We stand for the name of Christ as above all others, and as the only religious name that men should wear. The "disciples were called Christians," by the Lord in Acts 11:26. The gospel that Paul preached made men want to "be a Christian," Acts 26:28. Peter, one of the apostles, demanded that we wear this name when he said, "Neither is there salvation in any other; for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved" (Acts 4:12). Again in 1 Peter 3:16 he said "Yet if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God on this behalf."

We stand therefore, against the wearing of human names. Paul condemned this in 1 Cor. 1:12-13. Peter warned against other names in Acts 4:12. We repeat this divine warning, and urge all men everywhere to heed this part of the Bible.

7. We stand for the worship of the church, as it was delivered from heaven in the days of the New Testament. Worship was to be "in spirit and truth," Jn. 4:24. This worship consisted of teaching (Acts 2:42, giving of money 1 Cor. 16:2), prayer (Acts 2:42, singing (Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16), observing the Lord's supper on the first day of the week (Acts 20:7).

We stand therefore, against all human inventions and additions to the things taught in the New Testament. We are warned not to worship in ways that God has not commanded (Col. 2:18-19). We are even told that such worship is vain Matt. 15:9. Paul clearly declared that the judgment of God is against any item of worship for which there is not divine authority in Col. 2:20-23.

QUIZ PROGRAM PRIZES ARE TAXABLE

Your chance of winning any kind of tax free or award are pretty slim under the new laws recently passed by Congress. For example, you must pay a tax on such gains as:

Prizes or awards in cash or property from any kind of radio or TV contest, or any giveaway program.

Any door prize
Any treasure trove you find
Awards such as for winning an essay contest

Incentive awards, prizes or bonuses from employers.

The impact of taxes is pointedly illustrated by the current television program, The $64,000 Question. Suppose a single person with no other income wins the $64,000 question. Uncle Sam is the real winner, since he will keep $36,200, leaving only $27,800 for the contestant.

The result is simple and unpleasant. Your entire winnings in anything that even remotely resembles a contest are taxable. As with other income, the more you win, the greater the share that goes for taxes. Before you spend your prize or award, you should set aside enough for the taxes.

You should remember that all such winnings must be reported as taxable income. (The tax collector usually knows who the winners are!) Winnings or prizes are taxable even if all you did to win was as simple as answering the telephone and finding yourself given money.

Congress tightened up the law to specify that all such financial or property gains are taxable, except as they meet three rules:

(a) The award was given for achievements in the fields of religion, science, education, art, literature, charitable services, or

Safety Driving Theme Of Munday Study Club Meet

Miss Eudora Hawkins of West Texas Utilities Co., Abilene spoke to members of the Munday Study Club on defensive driving tactics on Friday afternoon, November 9, at the club house.

Miss Hawkins, stage safety division chairman, said one of the principal projects of the federation this year is to support a bill to place driver education in the public schools and urged each member to prepare herself to be a better driver by studying driver's procedure.

Mrs. W. O. Ratliff, president, urged members to write their representative, asking him to support the bill.

The film shown by Miss Hawkins, "A Day in Court," depicted the seven deadly sins of driving: "The Grabber," who shows no consideration for anyone on the highway; "Nervous Nellie," who never puts her hand out at the right time; "Two Beer Bennie," who had too many; "Supermouse," who wants to be the most important man on the road; "Desert Island Daisy," the conversationalist; "Show Off," a student hot rod; and "Mr. Average Man," who makes more mistakes and commits more sins than any other. She pointed out that the most important thing was knowing and wanting to be a good driver.

Miss Hawkins closed her remarks with the thought, "Safe driving pays, courtesy pays, and the Golden Rule driver pays."

Mrs. Gene Thompson introduced the speaker, and Mrs. O. H. Spann was hostess for the day. Mrs. Earl Hughes of Abilene was guest for the program.

In the business meeting, Mrs. Ratliff announced that the Civil Defense mobile unit of the Wichita Falls area will be in Munday all day November 23, and all citizens are urged to visit it.

Woman's Club Of Goree Meets With Mrs. W. M. Taylor

Mrs. Orb Coffman and Mrs. V. M. Reeves presented the program when the Woman's Study Club of Goree met in the home of Mrs. W. M. Taylor. A social interlude preceded the lively program when Mrs. Taylor served refreshments.

Mrs. Coffman gave a summary of raw materials and industries in Texas, then followed with an interesting discussion of cotton; its history, varieties and uses. Her talk was illustrated with samples of cotton fabric and unique mantle decorations made with cotton interspersed with colorful figures of cottonpickers, cotton corsages and small bales of cotton.

Mrs. Reeves gave highlights from the oil industry. Her talk centered around the oil derrick which she illustrated with a striking photograph of an oil derrick and an allusion to the sound of drilling which was accompanying the program. She traced the growth of the industry from its beginning and mentioned some of the many products derived from crude oil and emphasized the intensive research in progress at the present time.

Wesleyan Service Guild Meets At Church Monday

The Wesleyan Service Guild of the First Methodist Church met Monday night, November 12, in the church parlor with Mrs. Lee Haymes as hostess.

A continuation of the study of southeast Asia was the program with Mrs. Oscar Spann as Mayla and Mrs. E. R. Ponder as Burma taking part.

There were 19 members present. The guild plans another "Bake Sale" on the 28th of November.

Miss Betty McNeill, Muri W. Feemster Marry November 8th

Miss Betty McNeill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl McNeill, became the bride of Muri W. Feemster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Feemster of Vera, in a double ring ceremony at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McNeill of Munday, on Thursday, November 8, 1956 at 7:30 p. m. The Rev. Mart Hardin of O'Brien officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street length dress of white brocade satin with black accessories. She carried a bouquet of white carnations atop a white Bible.

Miss Linda McGraw, her roommate at Midwestern University in Wichita Falls, was bridesmaid. She was dressed in a powder blue tulle street length dress with black accessories and her bouquet

"Thank God For America—Our New Home!"

This thankful Hungarian family of fourteen offered a prayer of thanksgiving as they sat down together recently for their first dinner in their new home in Chicago. One of the largest family groups to immigrate to the United States under provisions of the Refugee Relief Act of 1953, the father's visa represented the 30,000th person to come to this country under auspices of Catholic Relief Services-National Catholic Welfare Conference. It brought the overall total of homeless refugees resettled by the agency in free countries throughout the world since 1943 to 200,000, marking the greatest effort of any voluntary agency.

They are Mr. and Mrs. Bela Roman with twelve of their fifteen children ranging in age from 3 years to 26. Three daughters remained in France—two of them nuns and one married. With the assistance of the Hungarian Catholic League a home and job assurance have been provided for the family.

Roman, who is 58, and his 48-year-old wife, Elisabeth, fled with their eleven children to Germany from their native Hungary in 1944, when Russian troops entered the country. Their flight was prompted by the father's fear of communist reprisals. As a young man, in the Hungarian Royal Army in which he served 28 years, he had taken an active part in the 1919 uprising against the communist regime of Bela Kun. Their nomadic existence finally took them to Vosges, France, from which place they immigrated.

Here they will begin a new life eagerly awaiting the day they can become American citizens. Mrs. Roman stated, "It was only the grace of God that let us rear our family through these years."

Goree Couple, Mr. and Mrs. Ben B. Hunt, Honored on 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Ben B. Hunt, beloved residents of the Goree area for the past 36 years, were honored at their home on October 27, 1956, in observance of their golden wedding anniversary.

The couple moved to Knox County from Olney, where Mr. Hunt was a farmer and rural mail carrier, on January 18, 1921, moving to their ranch three miles southeast of Goree, where they still reside.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunt (she is the former Ina Woods) were married in the First Baptist Church of Olney on October 24, 1906. This was the first church wedding performed in Olney.

Mr. Hunt was born in Harrison County on June 22, 1885, and moved to Young County with his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hunt, in 1890.

Mrs. Hunt is a native of Young County. She is the eldest child of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Woods. She lived with her family at Old Fort Belknap until she was 16 years of age, at which time the family moved to Olney.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunt are members of the First Baptist Church. Mr. Hunt served as superintendent of Sunday school for a number of years, and Mrs. Hunt was active in church work until her health forced her to give up a major part of her duties. Mr. Hunt was a member of the Goree School Board for 18 years and was chairman of the board most of that time.

The home was always open to friends and relatives. The people who visited their ranch would speak of it as their "summer resort."

The Hunts have reared two sons and two daughters, Mrs. Deryl C. McElreath of Richardson, Mrs. James R. McKnight of Garland, George W. Hunt of Goree, and Ben B. Hunt, Jr., who was killed in action during World War II. They have 10 grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

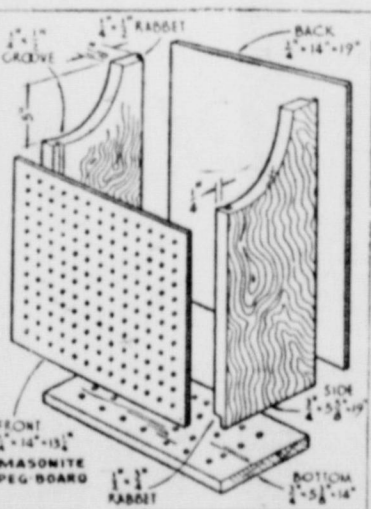

Misses Sharon and Judy Hunt, Lesa Lynn McElreath and Mrs. Marcus Anderson, granddaughters, served, and Mrs. George Hunt registered the guests.

During the day around 150 guests registered, including many from this immediate area and from Amarillo, Midland, Denton, Dallas, Floydada, Olney and Abilene.

James David Gaither and Miss Judy Long of Lubbock were guests of Mr. Gaither's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Gaither, last Friday night and attended the Mogul-Holiday football game.

Door Bin for Potatoes
THE LOGICAL location for storing potatoes is under the kitchen sink. As described in The Home Craftsman, the potato bin may be fastened to the back of a cupboard door under the sink. Perforations in the sides (not shown), front and bottom of the bin permit air to circulate around the vegetables; such circulation is essential for longer storage. The front panel is a Masonite "Peg-Board" panel. Sides and bottom are lumber, and the back is 1/2" Tempered Plywood. All the essential dimensions are shown on the accompanying drawing. The wooden sides should be drilled in a pattern in order to provide maximum air circulation. Some 30 holes 3/16" in diameter should be bored in the bottom. Sides, back and bottom should be assembled with glue and finishing nails. The front slides out for easy cleaning. Prime and paint the bin to match the sink, but give the "Peg-Board" panel front a contrasting color.

The Texas Department of Agriculture
By John C. White, Commissioner

Emergency Hay Benefits Absorbed By Higher Prices

Disatisfaction with the new drought relief hay and feed concentrate program of the federal government is becoming evident from letters received by the Texas Department of Agriculture. Farmers are complaining that the monetary aid received was immediately devoured by a corresponding increase in hay prices. A price study by the Department seems to bear out this criticism. After four months of negotiations, the Texas Emergency Drought Committee succeeded in attempts to get the federal government to re-instate a drought aid program in the state. The plan went into effect in October. It called for $7.50 per ton grants-in-aid for drought area farmers on hay or roughage purchases. In addition, a price reduction of $1.50 for each hundred pounds of feed concentrate in government storage was granted needy stock farmers. The state committee, composed of farmers, and leading agriculturalists, strongly recommended that the government also inaugurate some temporary form of price controls on roughage and feeds. This phase of the program was neglected when the plan went into operation. Here are the results of price studies since that time: In June, when a new relief plan was suggested, grass hay was selling mostly at $33.70 per ton. In July, when the federal government gave notice that it probably would start a program, grass hay went to $38.20, and in September—when the program was a certainty—prices stood at $42.90. This $9.20 increase not only takes all of the $7.50 aid allotted farmers, but makes it more expensive than when no program was in effect. The same was true to legume hay. June prices went from $34.80 to $39.60 in July and then to $48.10 per ton in September—an astounding increase of $13.30 per ton. Hulls jumped from $15.80 to $24.20 and mixed hulls and meal from $35.80 to $42.80 in the same period. Temporary controls would have gone a long way towards applying the relief money where it was intended.

steer calves ranged from $19.00 down; stocker steer yearlings $17.50 down.

Market Holiday Observance Set For November 22nd.

The traditional Thanksgiving holiday will be observed at the Fort Worth stockyards on November 22. This date coincides with the national observance and was selected to fit in with holidays of allied industries including the major packers. Livestock received over the holiday will be yarded as usual and shown for sale the following day.

Hogs Open Steady: Top $15.25 At Fort Worth Monday.

Choice hogs topped at $15.25 at Fort Worth Monday, steady with close late the previous week. Less desirable kinds sold mostly from $13 to $14.75, with some pigs in the $11 to $12 slot. Sows sold mostly from $14 to $14.50.

Lambs Weaker, Top $19.50; Older Sheep Steady.

Most bids were weak to lower on lambs at Fort Worth as trade got underway this week. Slaughter interests pointed out that lambs, as a rather exotic or speciality meat, was always harder hit by the turkey season than most red meats and so packers were braced for a week dressed trade on lamb and mutton. By the time the slow trade had effected a clearance Monday prices were steady to 50 cents lower. Older sheep held steady. Good and Choice slaughter lambs cashed at $16.50-19.50, the top figure paid for some strictly choice shorn lambs with No. 1 pelts. Cull, common and medium slaughter lambs sold from $10.00-16.00. Stocker and feeder lambs were quoted from $12.00-17.00 and slaughter ewes cashed at $5 to $3.75. Old bucks sold around $5. Old wethers drew $8 to $12. Yearlings cashed at $9 to $16.

Extension Dairy Husbandmen Dick Burleson and Arch Meekma say to give dry dairy cows adequate feed and care for a period of 6 to 8 weeks before calving, if a 20 to 30 percent drop in milk production is to be prevented. Now, they say, is a good time to clean the calf barn and lots. Sanitation is important in raising strong, healthy calves.

Cattle Trade Slow, Weak As Holiday Approach.

FORT WORTH—Movement of all classes of livestock rebounded back to normal seasonal numbers at Fort Worth and around the major marketing circle Monday. Most slaughter classes of livestock found a slow, weak trade as packers eyed the calendar and noted the approach of the Thanksgiving period in which poultry always upsets the red meat trade. This year the trade will get a double dose, as the two "Thanksgivings", November 22 to some and November 29 to others, will extend this holiday turkey feasting period to twice the normal span. At Fort Worth Monday the bright spot in the trade was on good or choice quality stockers and feeders in the cattle division. These classes sold in an active and strong trade, however the plainer replacements were again slow and weak. Slaughter classes of cattle and calves were very slow and mostly unevenly lower, with some interests biddings sharply lower, especially on fat calves and fed cattle. Comparative prices included: Good to choice steers and yearlings $16.50-23.50; common and medium $10.00-16.00; fat cows $9.50-12.50; canners and cutters $6.00-9.50; bulls $8.00-13.00; good and choice slaughter calves $14.00-18.00; baby beef heavies when choice and scaling over 350 pounds sold up to $19. Cull, common and medium kinds $8.00-14.00. Stocker

MODERN HOMEMAKING

RECIPES... HOUSEHOLD HELPS

By Julia Hunter

HOME ECONOMICS DIRECTOR, LONE STAR GAS COMPANY

Modern Homemaking... The modern homemaker who is looking for a food that will be economical on her budget, offer high nutrition value and variety in the daily diet may turn to rice for the answer.

Pound for pound, rice is a food that offers much for the dollar. There are numerous ways it can be served and the preparation of most rice dishes is simple and quick. And there is no waste. Every ounce is edible.

When using quick-cooking rice for a tender, fluffy product, just follow directions on the package. If using the longer cooking variety, the 1-2-1 fluff method makes cooking quick, simple and fool-proof. This method is easy to remember. The combination 1-2-1 stands for one cup of rice, two cups of water and one teaspoon of salt.

Place the 1-2-1 mixture in a three-quart saucepan that has a tight-fitting lid. Bring to a boil, stirring once or twice as water comes to a boil. Lower heat to simmer. Cover pan and cook 14 minutes without removing lid or stirring. Remove from heat.

For variation and extra flavor, try adding a bouillon cube to the water the rice is cooked in or use beef or chicken broth in place of water.

Cooked rice keeps well and reheats easily. You may cook enough for a whole week, store it in a covered refrigerator dish and have it ready for instant use in a dozen delicious ways.

To reheat rice, place it in a closed vessel with a few tablespoons of water over low heat. In a few minutes it will be as hot and fluffy as if freshly cooked. If you have a hard time with cooking the right amount of rice, it would be good to remember these measurements as a guide. One cup of uncooked rice makes about three when cooked. One-half cup of cooked rice is an average serving.

As an idea of its many uses, rice goes well in soups and gumbo, salads, dressing, a supplement to a meat dish, casseroles, puddings, Mexican foods, sea foods, Chinese foods, desserts, breakfast foods, breads and others.

For further information on rice send a post card to Home Economics Department, Room 601, Lone Star Gas Company, 301 S. Harwood Street, Dallas Texas.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Quick Rice Pudding: Add to two cups hot cooked rice, one egg yolk, and 1 1/2 cups milk. Add, mixing well, 1/3 cup sugar, 1/8 teaspoon cinnamon, 1/8 teaspoon nutmeg, one tablespoon butter or margarine and 1/3 cup raisins. Bring to a boil over a full gas flame, stirring constantly. Remove from flame cover and let stand until cooled to room temperature. Serves six.

Corrugated Fasteners
POPULAR MECHANICS has some excellent suggestions for the proper use of corrugated fasteners, a convenient means of holding mitered joints. The common but incorrect method is shown in the top detail—crossing the wood grain at 45 degrees.

This weakens the wood and gives the joint little strength. Instead, the magazine suggests bending the fasteners at right angles as shown in the center detail. Then they will be in line with the wood grain.

Another good tip: Use corrugated fasteners having widths less than half the thickness of the stock to be joined. It's wise also to drive them from opposite sides, situating them so they are not opposite each other. To make a split turning—finishing two pieces of wood, join the pieces with the corrugated fasteners driven into the stock beyond the limits of the turning.

045 deaths were recorded. This compares with a total of 624,408 births. Four births for each death coupled with the influx of newcomers making their homes in Texas has shot the Texas population well over the 8½ million mark.

The Division of Vital Statistics is just one of 22 divisions, under the State Department of Health, charged with the severe responsibility of watching over the health and sanitary level of the citizens and locales of Texas. The report shows that watching over the health of Texas is not enough. The health department incorporates inspection, research, active aid, and education in its program of bettering the health standards of Texas and Texans.

Inspection and research walk hand in hand to evaluate the effects of local outbreaks of disease throughout the state. Aid is then rendered if at all possible.

Following closely in the footsteps of research, education of the public in the many advances and improvements in public health comes as a matter of course. Sometimes, education is concerned not so much with advances, as with commonplace health procedures, which Texans occasionally seem to neglect.

Every drink of water, every bite of food, and even each breath of air comes under the careful scrutiny of one or more divisions. At night, before counting that last sheep, you might even consider that the mattress on which you sleep—if manufactured or sold in Texas—has been O. K'd by the Bedding Division.

The complexity of the Bedding Division's duties alone during the past biennium can be shown by a total of 40,412 separate violations to the State bedding law and regulations, most for the omission of revenue stamps.

The Health Department, through the Communicable Disease Division, distributes the Salk Vaccine in Texas completely and equitably. Results have been most gratifying.

Of 811 investigated cases of paralytic polio only 25 were vaccinated children under age 20. None who had received all three shots of the vaccine was stricken. This is just one of the many and varied strides made by the Texas State Department of Health during the biennium.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

There'll Always Be An "Expert"

Drove out to see how they're getting along with the new super-highway that's going to pass through town.

While I was there a fussy little guy—a spectator, like me—came up to the foreman on the job and started making all sorts of suggestions. "Shouldn't it go a little farther left there? ... Why don't you bank the curves more? ... Those ditches are awful close" ... and so, on and on.

The foreman took it as long as he could, then asked politely, "How does she look for length?"

From where I sit, free advice is called "free" because it's usually not worth much. That little fellow was typical of the kind of "expert" who can't resist getting in digs—about how you work, what you wear, why you happen to prefer a glass of beer with your supper. People like that don't mean to be troublemakers ... but the road to real intolerance is paved with their good intentions.

Knox Prairie Philosopher Wants Europe To Substitute Football For A Crisis About Every Six Months

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek is taking a long-range view of the world situation, his letter this week reveals.

Dear editor:
I went into town yesterday to see what was going on, although generally speaking I haven't found that town people know any more about what's going on than country people, they just talk about it more, and from what I gathered from doing a lot of listening everybody is worried about the Middle Eastern situation.

I am sorry to say that while I am concerned with it, I'm not as worried as I used to be, and I guess it's because I've got a better memory than some people. To refresh your memory, though, if you'll recall, for the past ten years or more, the world hasn't gone longer than six to eight months without a new crisis breaking out. We can look along for a few months without much on our minds, when all of a sudden trouble breaks out in some part of the world, South America, Greece, China, Formosa, somewhere else in the Pacific, Suez, etc., and as each one breaks out, the world tightens its nerves and the newspapers bring out their bigger headlines. After a few weeks, or maybe a month or two, the story begins to fade, and the world falls back on hold-ups, murders, and Hollywood news. Then a few months later another crisis breaks out, and we start all over again.

Understand, every new crisis has to be paid attention to, and you never know when a little one will develop into a big one, but my position is that if a man hasn't learned to live with a fresh crisis around the corner, he might as well learn to.

A crisis in Europe or Asia plays about the same part that football does in this country, only it's more dangerous. On the whole more people get hurt in a crisis than they do in a football game, especially the spectators.

If Europe had something on the order of football, with one country playing another each week like towns and colleges do over here, and if they could throw Russia out of the conference for unethical recruiting, things might be more peaceful, but I don't look for it to happen. After the present Middle Eastern crisis is over, somebody will spring another one. Probably working on it right now. It's something we have to live with. If you stop and think about it, every tire on your car sooner or later is going to have a flat.
Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Most young men back in the horse-and-buggy age couldn't afford to hire a horse and buggy to go for a stroll along the railroad on a Sunday afternoon in the summer time.

The Piggott, Ark. Banner once carried an item. "Several young people must be planning on buying the Cotton Belt Railroad as they were observed last Sunday inspecting the property."

There were two rival towns in my native county—Piggott and Rector.

A Piggott man aspired to be sheriff and a Rector man entertained the same ambition. The voting strength of the two towns was about the same and a nip-and-tuck battle loomed. Then the Piggott man had an inspiration or maybe he remembered, from his high school history, the Roman motto, "Divide and conquer." If another Rector man entered the race, that town's vote would be split and the Piggott man would win, he figured—because high man was the victor; there was no runoff.

So, through trusted emissaries, he put his plan into effect. These aides went to Rector, called on a citizen and told him there was a demand that he make the race. Now it takes very little encouragement—as anyone who knows anything about politics knows—to persuade a man that the people are clamoring for him to become a candidate. So the third man announced.

Neither of his opponents took him seriously but concentrated their fire on each other.

The third entry did a lot of handshaking, tossed no mud and split the vote of Rector, all right; in fact, he led in that town; in fact, he did more than that—he got elected!

"The best-laid plans of mice and men gang aft aglee."

Saw a sign the other day in front of a place of business. The owner was named Siler and that reminded me of the only other person I had ever heard of with that name—a man who refereed Batling Nelson's main fights when he was lightweight champion of the world. Irritating, isn't it?—to be able to remember a name you read 45 years ago and whose owner you never met—yet have trouble recalling the name of a man you were introduced to yesterday?

Nothing complements a cotton dress in the summertime like a pair of sparkling white gloves. White cotton gloves will stay cleaner for a longer period of time if dipped in a thin solution of starch before they are hung up to dry.
