Odd Bits Salvaged
By The Editor

It hasn't happened in about 25 years!

k-k
It was in 1935, we believe, that manufacturers of two major brands of cigarettes were making extensive use of weekly newspapers in advertising their products. For some reason, this program was shut off, and never resumed.

k-k
Cigarette manufacturers have been using every conceivable means of advertising their products since then, except the weeklies. You've seen them in daily papers, magazines, college publications, on T. V., billboards and heard them on radio.

k-k
This week, however, the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., manufacturers of Camel Cigarettes, has returned to the weekly newspapers. We are carrying this ad for the first time in 25 years.

k-k
"Camel Cigarettes is placing these two 500-line ads in every weekly newspaper in the United States," stated our New York advertising agency which placed the ad with us. And that's a whole lot of advertising money!

k-k
To us, this seems significant. Advertisers, including the big manufacturers, are realizing the value of advertising in the weeklies—the newspaper that reaches the home town people, many of whom cannot afford the price of a year's subscription to the large dailies. Weekly newspapers are those that are thoroughly read, because they carry the news of home people.

k-k
It is significant, too, that these ads should be placed in weekly newspapers so as to coincide with National Newspaper Week, which we of the newspaper fraternity are observing this week.

k-k
Many farmers of the Munday area had their cotton harvested the quick, but unprofitable way, during the past week. Two hail storms have played havoc with cotton and feed crops for a number of farmers.

k-k
The first came last Thursday which damaged or wiped out some crops to the west and southwest of Munday. One person reported Monday that a hail strip some one-half mile wide and six miles long extended northeast from near Rule.

k-k
Most destructive, however, was the hail that hit Saturday afternoon. Considerable storminess was reported around Benjamin, and it was stated the hail strip was about a mile wide and 12 or more miles long, extending from Benjamin to Rhineland. Almost complete destruction was experienced around Rhineland.

k-k
One insurance agent in Munday, Charles Baker, reported Monday that he had received about 20 claims of damages, and more was expected.

k-k
"Farmers are in real trouble, now," we heard over a farm news-cast Tuesday. Of course the cotton grades will be lowered by this continued wet spell, which will cost the farmers plenty on what portion of the crop yet to be gathered.

k-k
If there is a bright spot in the picture, it lies in the fact that the destructive hail and heavy rains came as late as they did. Quite a number of farmers had most of their cotton gathered, which would not have been the case three weeks ago.

k-k
Yet, there are those who were waiting until it all opened, then were going to use mechanical harvesters. This is a blow to them.

k-k
"That sunshine sure looks good," we heard on the streets Tuesday during our high water period. More of it will be welcomed. Water got higher on local streets than in several years, and threatened to run into some of the business houses.

Plans are complete for the First Performance Test Bull and Female Beef Cattle Sale sponsored by the Pioneer District Performance Association. It will be held on October 25 at the Car Lot Bull Barns on the stock show grounds in Fort Worth. Sixty-six bulls, Hereford, Angus and Shorthorn and 26 females of the same breeds will be sold.

Five Accidents In County Cause $27,000 Damages

The Highway Patrol investigated 5 rural accidents in Knox County during the month of September according to Sergeant F. P. Jirclik, Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These wrecks have accounted one injured, and a property damage of $4,590.00.

This brings the total for the year in this county to 1 person killed, 8 injured, and a property damage of $27,335.00.

"Darkness hides danger," Sergeant Jirclik said. That is the reason traffic accidents increase during October's shorter days and longer nights. At sundown, long shadows and fading light make it increasingly difficult for drivers to spot traffic hazards and stop in time. Make it a habit to turn on your driving lights at the first hint of dusk and always use them properly.

"Trick Or Treat" For C. R. O. P. To Be Staged By Methodist Youth Oct. 26

The M. Y. F. of the First Methodist Church will again engage in "Trick or Treat" this year as a Halloween project for Christian Rural Overseas Relief, usually called C. R. O. P.

Due to the Halloween carnival, however, they will collect the money on Wednesday, October 26, between 6:15 and 7:45 p. m.

CROP is a non-denominational agency which contributes food in all areas of the world, asking Americans to share with the hungry and in that sharing give thanks for our bounty.

In India today, the average consumption of meat per person is only two pounds. In the U. S., each person has at least 100 pounds a year at his disposal. About two-thirds of all people on earth are undernourished. From 25 to 40 million die annually for want of food.

In light of these facts, $1.00 given to CROP will send more than 300 pounds of surplus food overseas. Just 25 cents given to SAND BAGS — Were placed at the entrance of Wardlaw's Mobil Station to keep the high water out of the office Tuesday morning during the high water period. Water was higher on the streets of Munday than in several years, and the drainage ditch had more than it could do to carry off the water.

LOOKING SOUTH—From the corner of Munday Dept. Store, this scene shows flooded Seventh Ave. In the photo are the rear of the bank building, Dr. R. L. Newsom's office, Production Credit Assn., and King's Drive-in Cleaners.

Week Of Rainfall Total 7.72 Inches

Sandbags were employed by numerous business houses in Munday last Tuesday in an effort to keep flooded waters from coursing through their stores, as almost a week of rainfall caused the worst flooding conditions here in almost 20 years. These efforts were of no avail, however, as water seeped through the barriers and went through several business houses.

Rainfall for the week including the 17 received on Tuesday of last week, totaled 7.72 inches, according to the records of H. P. Hill, local U. S. weather observer. Rainfall from Thursday through Tuesday was as follows:

Thursday, .77; Saturday, 1.78; Sunday, .22; Monday, .65; and Tuesday, 4.13. Mr. Hill pointed out that he closed his readings at 7 p. m. daily. Not only was the business section flooded, but many homes were inaccessible during the high water. The John Hines home on North Thirteenth, was flooded, as was the home of W. E. Stovall in the south part of town. Jack's Swap Shop, located on the edge of the drainage ditch was also flooded.

Sandbags and dirt barricades were used along three blocks on Main Street in an effort to keep water out of stores. The local cotton classing office was closed at noon Tuesday, when water entered this building. The basement of the First National Bank was flooded; water lapped at the doors of Production Credit Assn. office and entered King's Cleaners. Stores along two blocks east from the Yarbrough Hotel were sandbagged, as were those for a block east of the signal light.

The water, which was just too much for the drainage ditch, had receded considerably by 9:30 p. m. Tuesday, although a few blocks remained under water Wednesday morning.

A large acreage of Knox County's near-bumper cotton crop was completely destroyed by two hailstorms which visited different portions of the county during the past week.

Coming this late in the year, the destruction was not such a tragedy as it would have been several weeks earlier, as many farmers had gone over their cotton and had a major portion of it gathered. Hit hardest, however, are those who were waiting to harvest their entire crop by mechanical methods.

The first hailstorm struck to the west and southwest of Munday last Thursday afternoon. Farmers in the area reported from slight damage to a complete wipe-out of their crops. This hail strip was reported about a half-mile wide and several miles long.

Among those reported damage to their crops Thursday included Clarence Booe, Rob Myers, Earl

Cover Crops Being Planted In Soil District

Several farmers who are co-operators with the Wichita Brazos Soil Conservation District have already planted winter cover crops this fall. These ever crops serve several purposes and all farmers in the district are encouraged to plant all the cover crops they can work in their own farming operations.

Cover crops serve to protect the land from wind and water erosion, increase soil fertility and add organic matter to the soil.

Cover crops that are best adapted in the district are Austrian winter peas, hairy vetch and small grain. Legume seed should be inoculated with fresh inoculants, and planted as soon as possible for best results.

Ikard Speaks To Lions Club

Congressman Frank Ikard of Wichita Falls and Washington, D. C., was guest speaker at last Tuesday's meeting of the Munday Lions Club. About 35 members and guests were present to hear him.

Mr. Ikard spoke of the threat of communism to this country. He stated the battle against this threat would last "possibly throughout our lifetime, at least for a number of years."

"I wish more people understood more about the infiltration of communism into America," he said, "especially the school children." He gave three major "tools" which we could use effectively toward fighting this threat—loyalty to our religious beliefs, education, and an understanding of our duties in this Democracy.

UNDERGOES SURGERY

Mrs. Bobby Hutchinson underwent surgery at the Haskell hospital last Friday morning. She is reported to be getting along nicely.

Moguls Take 14 To 6 Victory Fri.

The first taste of victory, after such a long dry spell, was very delectable, so the Moguls went after another portion last Friday night.

Playing their first home game of the season, the Moguls pulled an upset victory over the Chilloche Eagles here last Friday night, topping the previously unbeaten Eagles by a score of 14 to 6.

In the district 11-A game, the Mogul quarterback, Douglas McGrady crossed the Chilloche goal twice to score his team's only touchdowns in the second and third quarter.

The first quarter was mostly defensive, and fumbles kept the Eagles hard pressed to stay in the game. First points for the Moguls were scored by McGrady in the second period on a keeper play through the left side of the line. He broke loose after splitting the tackle and end to cover 35 yards for the TD.

McGrady then handed off to Bruce Pruitt, halfback, who dashed around right end for the extra two points. The half ended with McNeill, Don Combs, Doris Dickerson, J. B. Reneau, Earl Claiburn, and others.

Heaviest of the two was the one Saturday afternoon which dumped its fury on the Rhineland community. Cotton was completely stripped of its bolls and foliage, stalks were peeled of bark and stood out like Hallowe'en ghosts.

A heavy storm was reported at Benjamin, and the hail strip, about a mile wide, extended from Benjamin to Rhineland, a distance of some 12 or more miles. Even small grain which was up to a good stand was beaten into the ground.

H. H. Partridge appeared to be in the south edge of the storm and reported slight damage, as most of his cotton had been gathered. Among others in the destructive area included Vernon Moore, north of Rhineland; Shorty Kuehler, Johnny Michels, and Robert Vadney, vine Orsak, James Skiles, who farmed the W. C. Hertel home place, and others. The hail extended to about a mile east of Rhineland.

Between 40 and 50 window panes were knocked out of the Rhineland school, it was reported, and damage was done to other buildings in the area.

Benjamin received an estimated damaged of $30,000 Saturday as the storm lashed out over the area.

Knox County Pioneer Dies At Vernon Friday

Miss Mary Frances (Dottie) Eiland, 79, member of a prominent Knox County pioneer family, passed away last Friday in a Vernon hospital. She had been ill for several years.

Miss Eiland was born on July 24, 1881, at Argyle, Texas, and lived in Munday for a number of years. Her father, the late R. C. M. Eiland, was the first pastor of the New Hope Baptist Church, which was the first Baptist church in the area before Munday was incorporated. She had been residing in Vernon for several years.

Survivors include a sister, Mrs. A. U. Hathaway of Munday; a brother, C. A. Eiland of Lamesa, and a number of nephews and nieces.

Funeral services were held at 3 p. m. Sunday from the First Baptist Church in Munday with the pastor, Rev. Robert Young, officiating, assisted by Rev. Rex Maulding, pastor of the First Methodist Church. Burial was in Johnson Memorial Cemetery under the direction of McCauley Funeral Home.

Pallbearers were Cecil Blanton, Ralph Blanton, George Eiland, Bill Eiland, Varney Moore, and Gene Haynie.

Honorary pallbearers were H. A. Pendleton, John El Jones of Stephenville, B. L. Blacklock, E. H. Nelson, C. P. Baker, Leland Hannah, A. L. Smith, P. C. Phillips, Jim Reeves, Roy Baker of Ruidoso, N. M.; M. H. Reeves, C. L. Mayes, J. O. Bowden, Lee Haymes and M. L. Barnard.

Moguls Take 14 To 6 Victory Fri.

The Moguls came back strong in the third quarter, but bobbed a pitechout which cost them a score. McGrady was tackled just as he attempted a pitechout, and defensive halfback Larry Johnson crashed through to steal the end fumble and travel 45 yards for the Eagles' only score. The extra point try was no good.

Munday came back in the same quarter for their final score, as McGrady again broke through tackle on a keeper and sped through the defensive secondary for the score. Pruitt's try for extra points was halted short.

The local team faces a crucial test on Thursday night when they play the strong Crowell Wildcats on the local field.

INVITATION TO INFLATION

In this election year, as in past years, there is much talk about what amounts to "forced feeding" of the economy.

This kind of feeding involves all-out spending on the part of government, in an effort to artificially increase employment, spending power, industrial production and so on.

John A. Beckett, assistant director of the federal budget bureau, recently had something to say about it. Forced feeding, in his view, is "actually an open invitation on inflation and must be recognized as such by the American electorate."

He added: "As surely as inflation follows forced feeding, price controls follow inflation. And price controls are the forerunners of other government restrictions on the freedom of individual choice."

Some Soviet economists have long believed that this country would ultimately destroy itself from within, through inflation and other economic disasters of our own making. Continued "forced feeding" of the economy will move us further in that direction.

ARE YOU DISFRANCHISED?

Will you disfranchise yourself?

Millions upon millions of Americans do that, in effect, each election year. They do it by failing to vote. They're too lazy, too indifferent, or "too busy" to spend the brief time and effort it takes to go to the polling booth.

The result is that people are elected to office, and often the highest offices, by what amounts to minority vote.

We all pay lip service to the right of free franchise. And that's as it should be—it is the greatest single defense we have against dictatorship and political oppression. But it is meaningless unless the words are matched with deeds.

The future of freedom depends on men and women who will analyze candidates and platforms, choose those they think best capable of guiding the nation's destinies in the stormy days that lie ahead—and vote accordingly.

"Thrift is that habit of character that prompts one to work for what he gets to earn what is paid him; to invest part of his earnings; to spend wisely and well; to save, not hoard."

ADVICE FOR CASTRO

The following editorial is reprinted from the San Francisco Chronicle:

"The Government of Cuba, which has been busily seeking ways to support itself, has found time to make a handsome and helpful gesture to a small neighbor, the constitutional Crown Colony of British Guiana. The Castro government has granted Guiana a $5 million loan, and has agreed to buy Guiana rice at a premium price.

"We have some advice for Fidel Castro:

"Look out!

"We, as a Nation, have learned by rude experience, Senor Castro.

"Beware of befriending your small neighbors. First thing you know, you will be branded an 'imperialist aggressor' and you know what that means."

PREP SCHOOL FOR COMMUNISM

Spruille Braden, former American ambassador to Cuba, has defined socialism as the "prep school for communism."

Modern history has demonstrated how tragically correct that definition is. It is true that some socialist leaders, both here and abroad, are high-minded humanitarians who are dedicated to the cause of human freedom. But these idealists are always in the minority. They are soon shunted aside by the ruthless realists to whom communism is not only a political system but a religion. And individual freedom dies.

That is inevitable when limitless power is concentrated in the state. At the beginning, that concentration may be accomplished with the very best of motives. But the end result is slavery.

KLAMATH FALLS, ORE., HERALD AND NEWS: "The postwar economic recovery of West Germany is not a new story. The new thing today is that country's emergence as the second biggest, economically, in the entire free world In an age when America and some others seem captivated by a mood of ease, comfort, convenience and fun, the lesson of West Germany is clear. There is still no substitute for hard work.

WYTHEVILLE, VA., ENTERPRISE: "There are far more conservatives in the country than many politicians realize, or, will admit. The weakness of the conservatives lies in lack of organization and aggressiveness."

Chips From The Carpenter's Workbench

By JAMES BALLMARK

Following are reasons why I believe and teach that baptism is a condition pre-requisite to man's salvation.

(Mark 16:16) "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned."

Acts 2:38 "Then Peter said unto them, Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost."

(Romans 6:3-5) "Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death? Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection." (Galatians 3:26-27) "For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ."

(1 Peter 3:20-21) ". . . when once the long suffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing, wherein few, that is, eight souls were saved by water. The like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ." (Luke 7:29-30) "And all the people that heard him, and the publicans justified God, being baptized, with the baptism of John. But the Pharisees and lawyers rejected the counsel of God against themselves, being not baptized of him."

Committee Makes It Official

After some two years of investigating farm price support and production adjustment activities, the House Committee on Government Operations has finally come up with a final report on some facts and figures which many Texas farmers could have told them all along.

Confirming the suspicions of some of these farmers about what has been going on for the past several years, the committee has reported the following as part of its findings and conclusions: "Agriculture productivity increased more than three times as rapidly as that of non-agricultural industries during the past decade; however, farm income dropped 23 per cent while non-agricultural income nearly doubled in the same period.

"The cost of living has increased more than 25 per cent from the 1947-49 average, but during the same period the farm price of food actually declined 14 per cent.

"The farmer received only 38 cents of every dollar spent for food in 1959 as compared to 50 cents in the 1947-49 period."

The committee also found, as many Texas farmers have known at first hand for a long time, that much of the criticism aimed at so-called government support and "subsidies" for farmers had no foundation in fact. The House group called particular attention to these points:

"Because of changes in production which are beyond the control in individual farmers, prices of most agricultural products would be subject to drastic fluctuations without the assistance of a government program to co-ordinate production and marketing.

"The farm program is only one of many government programs which are intended primarily for the benefit of a particular segment of the economy; the cost of other programs has far exceeded that of the farm program.

"Less than half the expenditures charged to the U. S. Department of Agriculture are for programs predominantly for the benefit of the farmer."

On this last point, the committee noted that "during fiscal 1960, the USDA states that $2,955 million was spent on multiple benefit programs and $2,474 million on programs predominantly for the benefit of the farmer. Of the expenditures allocated to multiple benefit programs, $593 million disbursed by the REA and FHA is really not an expense; it is an investment in loans for

Amendment 2 Necessary For Vets Program

(By George Moffett)

Four proposed Amendments to the Texas Constitution will be on the bottom of the ballot in the November General Election this year. All of them are important, and Amendment No. 2 is of special importance to Veterans of World War II. The State Constitution sets out what the Legislature and other State Officials can and cannot do. It is the source of power and authority by which Public Officials, including the Legislature carry on their duties. The only way by which the Constitution may be changed, is by placing a proposed Amendment before the people for their approval or disapproval. This is usually done by putting the Amendments on the ballot at the General Election every two years.

Amendment No. 2 this year is necessary to carry out the Veterans' Land Program, which has already been approved three times by a vote of the people of this state. The need for Amendment No. 2 comes about because when the previous votes were taken, the interest rate on Veterans' Bonds was placed at not more than 3 per cent. Interest rates over the Nation have in-

Comment from the Capital —

COMMON SENSE — THE FORGOTTEN VIRTUE

by Vant Neff

American tradition is rich with stories of courage and sacrifice, determination and daring. But one quality that has always stood out as the most American of all is good ordinary common sense.

Unfortunately it isn't a very dramatic virtue; nobody gives medals for common sense. Maybe that's why so many of our modern politicians seem to feel they can do without it entirely. Take the problem of federal spending, for instance. A little common sense will tell you that no one, government or individual, can go on spending and spending recklessly, going further and further into debt, without getting into serious trouble in the long run. Yet the howls that went up when the President announced a small budget surplus were anguished indeed. And they came from leading figures in both parties.

But why? Is there anything wrong with a surplus? Is it sinful in some way? Of course not. Even the most determined of the spenders has enough respect for American common sense not to make such a patently absurd claim. Instead, they come up with all sorts of dire predictions, beginning with the claim that probably the national defense is being sacrificed.

The argument is poppycock. No one argues with the critical need for a strong defense. But reckless spending for defense does not strengthen the country, it has the opposite effect, it weakens. Defense money must be invested wisely so that it yields the greatest safeguards and the furthest advancements.

Moreover, the real culprit in federal spending is not national defense, but the many pet "porkbarrel" projects of those very politicians who are screaming the most self-righteously. It's significant that the first time Congress overrode an Eisenhower veto, the issue was not national defense, but a "Rivers and Harbors" bill packed to the seams with such porkbarrel unnecessary spending.

What we need is not more government spending, but more common sense and fiscal responsibility to root out the waste and the special-interest "plums" out of the spending that is being done. And if nothing else will do it, it might be a good idea to remind our friends on Capitol Hill that we still have one weapon left to keep them in line . . . and the common sense to use it on November 8th!

Program can continue to its final conclusion about four years from now.

Quail Season Is Modified For Several Areas

The quail season in a number of Texas counties under regulatory control has been modified by the Game and Fish Commission, according to W. J. Cutbirth, Jr., assistant executive secretary.

Biologists reported an "abnormal" quail year throughout the state, with a spotted population. Generally, however, the season was liberalized in those counties not under general laws.

In the Possum Kingdom area the new season will be from Nov. 24 through Jan. 20. The daily bag limit will remain at 15 and 45 in possession. Quail numbers in this area are much higher this year, according to the biologists. However, the food supply is short and a carry-over loss can be expected after bad weather sets in.

In the Trinity-Brazos regulatory area the quail season was set at Dec. 1 through Jan. 31. The bag limit here will be 12 per day and 36 in possession.

In the Trans-Pecos area the season will open Nov. 1 and close Dec. 31. Crockett County has been added to the Trans-Pecos area this season.

In the Panhandle area the season will be Dec. 1 through Jan. 16, with the bag limit of 12 and 36 in possession.

No changes were made in either the Northeast Texas or the Southeast Texas areas, where the season will be from Dec. 1 through Jan. 16, with the bag limit of 12 and 36. In South Central Texas the season will open Dec. 1 and Zavala counties where the season will be Nov. 1-Dec. 31 inclusive. All other counties of Texas are under the general laws, to run from Dec. 1 to Jan. 16, except in a few counties where special laws apply.

usually, otherwise, the Veterans' Land Program will come to a halt. This is all that is involved in Amendment No. 2 on the ballot this year. It is proper to state at this time that no Texas taxpayer has ever had to dig up one penny out of his pocket for the Veterans' Land Program, and will not do so in the future. This is true in spite of the Veterans' Land scandals which occurred about 5 years ago. Most of the money was recovered from those who defaulted at that time. The small amount which has not been recovered will be taken care of by a small surplus in the Veterans' Land Fund. This surplus comes about because the Veterans pay a little bit more on the loans which they receive from the State than the interest which the State pays on the bonds which it sells to get the money to lend to Veterans.

This surplus will take care of any defaults past, present or future, and the taxpayer will never be out anything on account of the Veterans' Land Program. Therefore, it is earnestly hoped that the people will approve Amendment No. 2, so that the Veterans' Land

Nelson Chairman Of Democrats For Nixon And Lodge

Clyde Nelson of Munday has accepted appointment as Chairman of Knox County for the Texas Democrats for Nixon-Lodge campaign, it was announced this week.

Nelson's appointment was made by former Governor Allan Shivers, State Chairman of the Nixon-Lodge campaign among Democrats.

Nelson said that the issue in this campaign is "Kennedy versus America."

"As an example," he said, "Kennedy is against America and against the free world when he says that the Chinese Nationalist Islands of Quemoy and Matsu cannot and should not be defended against Red Chinese attack."

"It was just that kind of statement by Dean Acheson — 'Korea is outside the perimeter of our defense' — that brought on President Truman's so-called police action."

"John Kennedy has in effect told the Chinese Reds that they can have Matsu and Quemoy the day he is sworn in as President of the United States.

"This means appeasement, or war, or both — just the same as Acheson's Korean statement."

Nelson said the entire Kennedy outlook on not only world affairs, but on domestic issues and how to solve local affairs was contrary to the thinking of Texans.

"This is proven by the fact that Kennedy has endorsed the National Democratic platform 100 per cent — and has even gone so far as to say it is not liberal enough," he said.

"The Kennedy platform stands for everything Texans are against and is against everything Texans are for."

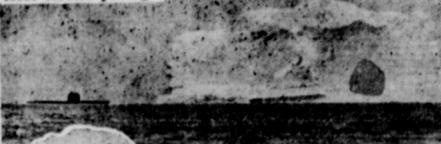

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Phillips visited their son, Gleen Phillips, at Huntsville over the week end; Glenn is a student at Sam Houston State College having been transferred there from A. C. C. in Abilene.

Organization Of Safety Programs Is Urged For Reducing Traffic Fatalities

The tragedy of traffic accidents — and particularly pedestrian deaths — is that those who suffer most are the ones we are most anxious to protect, according to J. O. Musick, General Manager of the Texas Safety Association.

"We are all familiar with the need of looking out for the very young children playing in or near the streets; now we must devote more attention to our senior citizens who have an even more startling high incidence of death and injuries," he said.

Musick points out that 38 per cent of all pedestrian fatalities occur to people over 65 years of age while that particular age group makes up only 9 per cent of our population.

There are a number of factors involved including:

- 1—Hearing and vision are often impaired.
- 2—Coordination and response to danger is extremely poor.
- 3—Older people are more "brittle" and broken bones frequently result from so-called minor accidents.
- 4—Many older people have never driven a car and have no understanding of limitations involved in operating a car (9 out of 10 pedestrians killed are non-drivers).
- 5—Anti-social behavior is also a decided factor. Many older people developed walking habits when there were no traffic problems as they exist today, and feel they have a basic and inherent right to walk where and how they please.

Public concern and education is the answer to the problem, Musick believes.

Many cities have achieved results with programs of pedestrian control and enforcement of traffic laws.

The record high for pedestrian deaths came in 1937 when 15,000 fatalities were reported. In 1959 there were 7,750 pedestrian deaths — despite the increase of motor vehicles being driven.

Prior to 1941 when a pedestrian law enforcement program was launched in Detroit, there were an average of 214 pedestrians killed in that city. During the past three years, pedestrian fatalities dropped to 98 per year.

The saving of some 348 lives came — as it always does — at a cost of community effort and enforcement, Musick pointed out referring to 58,502 traffic tickets issued to pedestrians. Of that total, over 35,000 were issued to people crossing against the light.

"There is no doubt but that deaths can be materially reduced by organized community effort," Musick stated. Strict enforcement of sound ordinances can serve as a stop-gap measure but the real answer comes through special education of particular groups needing attention.

Musick urged safety programs be organized at the local level and presented before clubs whose members are composed of citizens at the later age levels. Help in organizing such programs may be obtained through the Texas Safety Association headquarters in Austin.

Royal Ambassadors To Attend Rally In Abilene On Saturday

The Royal Ambassadors of the First Baptist Church will leave the church at 6:30 a. m. Saturday, October 22, to attend R. A. rally at Abilene. The group will register at the University Baptist Church at 8:30 a. m. and will then go on a guided tour of Hardin-Simmons University campus. They will return to the University church at 10:30 for a very interesting program. A very special part of the program will be the missionary speaker at 11:30.

That afternoon the group will be guests of Hadin-Simmons at the football game between H.S.U. Cowboys and West Texas State. They will arrive back in Munday late that afternoon.

Thirteen boys and their sponsors from the Benjamin Baptist Church also plan to attend.

Band Favorites Are Named Recently

On Friday night, October 14, during the halftime activity of the exciting Munday - Chillicothe game, the band sweetheart and band beau were announced.

Shirley Weaver and Elton Floyd received the honors, having been elected by secret ballot by band members earlier in the week. Band president, Allen El-land presented the lovely bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums to Elton, who in turn presented them to Shirley. Elton and Shirley were then driven around the football stadium in a gold-toned Ford convertible while the Mogul Band played "You, You, You." Shirley is a junior in Munday High and a five year band member. Elton, a senior, has also played for the Mogul Band five years.

Another feature at the halftime show were the majorettes in their new uniforms. Judy Anderson, Sandy Brown, Shirley McCarty, and Lynda Smith, 1960 Mogul majorettes, showed pride in their attire as they highstepped a special routine to the Gillette caption, "To Look Sharp." These uniforms of soft purple wool highlighted by gold sequins and gold satin were purchased by the Band Booster Club and made by Mrs. Billie Montgomery. To these people the Mogul Band backs the majorettes in saying thank you for your help.

Everyone knows the old story about the housewife who fixed the family toaster with a hairpin after it defied the best efforts of a husband and a boxful of expensive tools.

Well, gentlemen, you can avoid such embarrassment and make the daily chores of your wife easier, especially during the busy holiday season. Simply pass on to your wife the 10 simple "wife savers" listed below. These little tricks of the homemaking trade are designed to raise your stock around the house, from Halloween through New Year's Day, and keep your wife's hairpins where they belong, too!

1. How can you prevent ice trays from adhering to the freezing compartment of your refrigerator? Easy. Just rub Vaseline petroleum jelly on the bottoms of the trays.

2. Is your rug curling up on you? To correct it, sew rubber fruit jar rings at the corners of the underside. They will help prevent rugs from slipping and sliding.

3. Notice a rip in your curtains? To mend it quickly and invisibly, apply colorless nail polish, then press the torn edges together with your fingertips. Party guests will never know the curtains were mended.

4. To make sure holiday packages are tied tightly, wet the string first. It will shrink when it dries.

5. Annoying white spots caused by wet party glasses marking your furniture? Make them vanish with a thin layer of Vaseline petroleum jelly.

6. If a picture or mirror obstinately hangs crookedly, paste some coarse sandpaper to the bottom edge of the frame, the rough side facing the wall.

7. You needn't call a plumber when the kitchen sink is stopped up. Probably it's due to grease. Pour a cupful of table salt and one of baking soda down the drain, followed by a pot of boiling water. You'll find the grease will dissolve almost at once.

8. Frozen vegetables can be taken from freezer to fire in record time by pounding them in the carton with a wooden mallet.

9. Fruits and tea stains can be removed from linen by covering the spot with Vaseline petroleum jelly. Allow it to remain for several hours, then wash in warm, soapy water.

10. To remove dog and cat hairs from upholstery your holiday guests will appreciate your gently patting its surface with a damp piece of sandpaper.

Operating And Development Loans Are Broadened By Farmers Home Agency

Farmers who have regular off-farm employment, if otherwise eligible may obtain farm operating and development loans from the Farmers Home Administration, under the recently revised regulations of the agency.

Wilburn A. Satterwhite, Farmers Home Administration county supervisor for Baylor, Knox and Throckmorton Counties, said the new regulation will go into effect October 1. Previously, except in rural development counties, a farmer had to spend most of his time farming in order to qualify for a loan.

Experience gained in rural development counties has shown that many farmers who are regularly employed off the farm can profitably use the Farmers Home Administration's credit facilities to increase the farm portions of their total incomes. The regulation, which has limited credit assistance to farmers who spend most of their time farming, prevented some from obtaining the maximum income from their farms and taking advantage of opportunities for industrial and other off-farm employment.

Other eligibility requirements remain unchanged. Applicants must have sufficient farm experience to carry on sound farm operations, must need credit, and be unable to obtain financial assistance from other sources. As in the past, credit will be extended only to operators of farms that are family-type size or smaller. No loan will be made unless a plan for the coming year's farming operations shows that income from the farm and other sources will be large enough to enable the farm family to have a reasonable standard of living, pay debts, and have an adequate reserve for emergencies.

Loan funds may be used to pay farm operating costs, purchase equipment and livestock, pay farm development costs, and refinance certain debts. The interest rate is five per cent. Repayment schedules depend upon the purposes for which funds are advanced and upon the estimated incomes from the farms. Usually, loans made for real estate purposes will be from funds advanced by private lenders and insured by the agency.

Technical farm and money management assistance is supplied to each borrower to the extent necessary.

The Farmers Home Administration office servicing Baylor, Knox and Throckmorton Counties is located at 115 W. McLain Street, Foyt Building, Seymour, Texas.

Each application must be reviewed by the County Committee in each county, the county committee for Baylor County is Walter C. Mooney, Chester A. Blankenship, and LeRoy D. Boone, Jr. Committee in Knox County is Murval H. Jackson, B. E. Smith and Lloyd Waldrip, and Throckmorton County Committeemen are Otis E. Dunlap, Jake L. Carpenter and William B. Smith.

Last year 850 persons died in the United States in farm fires. Fires also caused an estimated 174 million dollars loss in property. The Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council says a lot of these fires happened in Texas and there will be others today, tomorrow, next week and next year; that is, unless rural Texans do a much better job of fire prevention. The Council believes that most fires can be prevented and that losses can be greatly reduced if all Texans will make it impossible for "Fire to find a place to start."

Cape Canaveral: 10 Years Of Progress From Sand Strip To Space Center

Two missile photos, ten years apart, span history of Cape Canaveral, Fla. On July 24, 1950, G-E managed Bumper 8 fired from relatively crude launching pad (actual photo, left). Ten years later missile nose cone (right) flies record 9,000 miles.

Cape Canaveral, launching site for many of this nation's most spectacular space successes, celebrates its tenth anniversary this year. The G-E managed Bumper 8 was fired from desolate shores by a handful of civilian and military engineers. Today the Cape, which is the missile launching area for the Air Force's Missile Test Center, employs about 8,000 persons and has expanded its launching facilities tremendously.

An example of one of the Cape's many missile triumphs was the recent record-breaking 9,000 mile flight of the General Electric Missile and Space Vehicle Department's Mark 3 nose cone, a flight longer than any other recorded ballistic missile shot in the world. The Mark 3 can be seen atop the Atlas (right) as it starts its historic flight.

Dollars And Sense

Some Answers To Questions About Keeping Spending Records: Even simple records consistently and carefully kept will help to ease the process of financing a family.

People may dislike record keeping because they have not reduced the process to a habit, or they fail to see the records as valuable tools for realizing their desires or the desires of the family and not as an end in themselves.

The basis for choosing the kind of records a family will keep should be the desire to obtain significant facts about how the family's income is being used.

A beginner at keeping spending records is encouraged to start simply; work out a system to suit personal or family needs, stick to your record keeping until a habit is formed, and control the records, do not let them control you.

Keep Cotton Dry, Loose And Clean

The final grade of lint in a bale of cotton is determined by the condition of the seed cotton when it reaches the gin. For this reason, cotton should be produced, harvested and handled so that it reaches the gin as dry, loose and clean as possible, says Fred Elliott, extension cotton work specialist.

Picking early in the morning or late in the afternoon when cotton is very moist should be avoided. Loss of color associated with delay in ginning of high-moisture seed cotton accounts for a large part of grade difference between cotton harvested during high-moisture periods and dry periods. To get the best possible prices for cotton, the farmer should harvest it dry and keep it dry, the specialist points out.

Small capacity transport vehicles have no place in the cotton field, Elliott continues. Four-wheel, large-capacity, wood-slat or wire-sided trailers are recommended.

Another quality reducer, which is closely associated with small transports, is tramping the seed cotton in the trailer. Even the most elaborate and expensive ginning systems cannot remove all of the small "pin and pepper" trash that is ground into the cotton by tramping.

Seed cotton should be harvested as clean as possible to permit the use of less gin machinery in obtaining a good grade. Pickers should be cautioned not to allow green leaves, excessive trash, dirt, colored rags, grass and other foreign objects to be mixed in with seed cotton.

"Remember," Elliott concludes, "You can help maintain quality in cotton by harvesting seed cotton when it is dry and by keeping it loose and clean."

Perseverance indicates a strong will; obstinance a strong won't.

It's the Law in TEXAS

TRADEMARKS

Our government has tried to encourage creative life by rewarding good work. It does this by protecting a good name through our trademark laws.

From the time the clock starts your radio dial right when you switch off the electric light, you surround yourself with things which you buy by their advertised brand names.

A trademark may be a word, emblem, or other device.

Brick makers of old Egypt the lamp makers of Athens, and English helmet makers used them.

In a market, a trademark sets off one maker or seller's goods from those of others.

You may be the first to "think up" the idea of using a given trademark to identify certain goods. But that alone does not give you a property right in the trademark or make you its owner. The maker or seller who first adopts and actually uses a trademark on a line of goods, becomes its owner.

The law protects ownership of trademarks. In doing so, courts will order a late-comer to stop using another's trademark. It will award damages if the owner has suffered.

Why does the law do this? First, to keep the buyer from being deceived and to make sure that we, the public, get what we want. Second, to prevent piracy of the trademark and the good will which its owner has built up in the mark through making selling and advertising such goods.

A trademark may be a firm's most valuable asset. It stands for the firm's goodwill and good name. So choose a trademark with care. It must not be too much like any other trademark.

When you have chosen a word or symbol, you must then use it to properly with the goods for it to become valid. Once in use, guard it. For a trademark may

SOMEONE IN THIS AREA WILL WIN NEXT WINTER'S HEATING FUEL

Just tell us why you prefer to heat with—

GULF GULFTANE LP-GAS BUTANE PROPANE

HURRY! LAST DAYS TO ENTER!

in 25 words or less!

"Dependable, clean, and efficient." This is a brief but accurate description of Gulftane LP-Gas. But you can describe Gulftane fuel even better—and you have up to 25 words to do it! And a chance to win a winter's supply of Gulftane fuel!

No cost to enter—no obligation. Here's how—and good luck!

Tips to help you win

- There just isn't any fuel cleaner, more modern than Gulftane LP-Gas. It's healthful, even heat—no fumes, soot or oily film to cling to walls, woodwork and curtains.
- To heat with Gulftane LP-Gas for a whole winter, simply light your automatic heater, turn one knob, set one dial—and forget it.
- Also, Gulftane gives you oceans of hot water because modern gas water heaters deliver three times as much 160° F. hot water as the larger electric water heaters.
- All these advantages can be yours with Gulftane LP-Gas wherever you live. You have your own fuel supply to keep you snug and happy, even in "lines down" weather.
- It costs only pennies a day to heat with Gulftane fuel. There's no better way to enjoy clean, healthful, automatic heating without fuss or muss.
- If you think Gulftane is LP-Gas, bottled gas, propane or butane, you're almost right. The difference is the guaranteed quality, purity and dependability of Gulftane fuel.
- No other kind of fuel will heat your home, cook your meals, heat your water, dry your clothes, burn your garbage, warm baby chicks, and power your tractor. Why should anyone use anything but Gulftane LP-Gas?

When I was a boy, inflammatory — or crusading, depending on your point of view — weeklies flourished. One was called "The Yellow Jacket" and it lived up to the name. Another was called "The Appeal to Reason." (Foes called it "The Appeal to Treason.") It devoted many columns of space to a dynamiting case and I can recall the rather rhythmic grouping of the names of the three defendants: Haywood, Meyer and Pettibone.

Powell is only a village. You'd never dream that is was once the scene of a big oil rush. It was in January, 1923, that deep production was struck and, in May of that year, front pages of the nation's press told of the J. K. Hughes No. 1 McKie, which blew in for 8,000 barrels a day, caught fire and burned for 11 days. Hundreds of wells were drilled in rapid succession. The peak year saw over 33,000,000 barrels produced. Then the field declined rapidly.

Early one summer morning a year or so ago, I saw — in a city — a chunk of ice on the sidewalk in front of an office door which was locked. There was a time, before electrical refrigeration, when that was a common sight

The poet, Richard LeGalliene, never lamented that he would never be able to write a best-selling novel, such as those written by Hall Caine and Marie Cerelli. He declared, "It's no use you can't fake it — bad writing is a gift."

There was a man who went about a city dressed in old clothes. He was reputed to be rich but lived like a miser. He was jeered by children as he walked along. When he died, it was found that he was indeed rich — and he had left his entire fortune to establish free schools. And so the children gave their pennies to build a statue; and each year, on his birthday, they decorate the statue with flowers.

Tax-Man Sam Sez:

When a young man or young lady grows up nowadays he usually becomes of age not by becoming 21, but through becoming a taxpayer.

Long before the young folks reach the 21 mark nowadays, they are usually (1) paying income tax; (2) paying Social Security tax for their eventual retirement; and (3) if they go into business they are paying employers' taxes.

Before you go to work you must secure a Social Security number. You get a Form SS-4 from your Post Office to file for your Social Security number.

If you are going into business and will become an employer you probably need to read Internal Revenue Service Publication N. 15, Circular E, The Employer's Tax Guide. This tax guide will tell you whether you need an employer's number or not. Young folks nowadays find that it's less taxing to be well informed on taxes.

More and more farmers and ranchmen in Texas are reporting successful experiences with chemicals for controlling mesquite and other pasture brush. Diesel oil or mixtures of diesel oil and 2,4,5-T have generally proven effective, reports G. O. Hoffman, extension range specialist.

Knox Prairie Philosopher Wants The World To Keep Production Costs Up On Bombs, Just As On Trators

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek seems to be worried about deflation in the bomb market, his letter this week indicates.

Dear editor:
When I turn on a hydrant and see running water, I sometimes think science is man's greatest benefactor, but when I pick up a newspaper, I sometimes think it's his worst enemy.

For example, I read in a newspaper last night that science has now discovered a cheap way to produce a nuclear bomb.

Before I go any further, I don't know whether you're in the habit of shifting gears in your mind when you get up on the international level or not, but it's necessary to follow a discussion of this type, and I will appreciate it if you'll stop and do it. That is, take the word "cheap." If you're in low, or ordinary gear, cheap means cheap, like low-priced automobiles before they became high-priced, or a $40 suit marked up to $50 and then marked down to $39.95, but in international, or high-gear thinking, cheap means something else. The first atomic bomb cost, I think, better than a billion dollars, but this new method science has developed can produce one for around 50 million dollars. I'm not trying to be funny, that is comparatively cheap.

At any rate, if a nuclear bomb can now be made for 50 million dollars, the experts figure at least 20 other nations beside the three or four that now have it can soon have the bomb too.

This is the reason I say scientists seem to have as their goal working themselves out of a job, because I can name some of those 20 nations it's going to be highly unhealthy to let have the bomb.

You take Cuba. If all that's standing between Castro and a hydrogen bomb is 50 million dollars, he can make that much just by getting on television one afternoon and taking over a few more American businesses over there. In fact, I guess you'd say Castro is the highest paid television performer in the history of the industry. I understand some American television stars make a million dollars for 52 shows a year, but Castro can make 50 times that much the first 30 minutes he's on the air. Ask any American who's lost a refinery over there. And he sometimes speaks for four or five hours.

The thirteen cities that have passed ordinances including the required provisions are: Amarillo, Pecos, Vernon, Wichita Falls, Whitecourt, Fort Worth, Dallas, Mount Vernon, Palestine, Waco, Luling and Houston.

Included in the program are all types of meat production including beef, mutton, goat, pork, poultry, rabbit and game birds.

Now I don't trust Castro with a B-B gun and a bag of chicken feathers, not to mention Castro with three or four hydrogen bombs and three or four planes and enough gasoline to fly to you know where.

If scientists were smart, they'd make hydrogen bombs more and more expensive to make, like tractors. What's got in to em, anyway?

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by the State Health Department

Since its beginning on March 1, 1960, 13 Texas cities have passed ordinances under Section 12 of the Texas State Meat Inspection Law.

Section 12 pertains to the Municipal - State Cooperative Meat Inspection Program which is gaining popularity in Texas by cities and meat packers alike.

An inspection program must be developed by the municipality as required by the State Department of Health, "Regulations Governing Meat Inspection."

Since the beginning of the cooperative program, Division of Veterinary Public Health meat inspectors have surveyed 100 meat packing plants for approval upon request by the local health officer of the area.

Formal approval or disapproval of the individual plants are then made by the State Health Department.

The effectiveness of the program is enhanced by the cooperation of the meat packing industry in Texas.

In addition to the 13 cities approved, 11 more are in the process of drafting required ordinances.

The advantages of the Municipal - State Cooperative Meat Inspection Program, aside from assuring safe quality meat products, affords greater opportunity for intra-state shipment of meat products.

An approved plant may ship its products anywhere in Texas, however, meat processed by an unapproved plant may not be shipped into a city with the complying ordinance.

Careful Texas shoppers are assured of a safer quality of meat and meat products if they buy meat affixed with the "Texas State Approved" meat label.

Reeves Reports On Convention

John E. Erickson was elected as national Commander of the Veterans of World War I at the close of a dramatic session Wednesday, October 12, 1960, stated Commander J. E. Reeves of the local barracks of the VWWI organization. The National Convention held in Miami, Fla. was attended by some 8,000 delegates, and about 2,800 Auxiliary delegates wired Department Commander Roger Q. Evans who heads the department of Texas. The following officers were lected as a team to work with and for the organization: National commander, John E. Erickson, Minn.; senior vice national commander, John Bashara, Virginia; junior vice national commander, Edward J. Neron, California. Commander Evans is returning to Texas highly pleased with the new staff officers, and urges all officers and members to set up a new membership campaign to urge every available World War I veteran to support the National and Department legislative programs. A series of area meetings are being set up throughout Texas to carry the new program to the people. Fort Worth has been selected as the City for the National Convention for 1961.
