"He should be taken to the woodshed and given a good, old fashioned spanking."

This quote came over the radio Monday, but we didn't get who made the statement. It had reference to that upstart, Fidel Castro, who seems to have a Hitler-like rule over Cuba.

We kinda suspected when Castro was making his widely-heard visit to the U. S. some time ago—even made it down to Houston for much publicity—and was unsuccessful in securing a huge loan from the U. S. that he would be brewing trouble for America.

And there hasn't been much of anything but trouble from old the old gent. Back last summer, there was talk of the Texas Press Association members taking a cruise to Havana after its convention this year in Houston. The cruise was all voted and planned, and members were asked to register early for passage. Then the higher-ups decided to "call the whole thing off" because of Castro's antics. So there'll be no cruise, and we imagine there's not many Texas newspaper people who would like to visit Castro's domain at this time.

We had recent events pretty well figured out here at the office with regards to Fidel. We and our operator, Melvin Jones, were perusing the papers one morning before beginning the day's work and noticed where that munitions ship had exploded in Havana harbor. "We'll get blamed for that," Melvin said with emphasis—and we agreed.

Sure enough, the last bubble hadn't arisen from the sinking ship until Fidel started blaming the U. S. and arrested an American free-lance photographer who was a passenger on the ship. Noticed where the young American was freed on Sunday.

So we're in full accord with that "trip to the woodshed" statement, but wonder who will do the paddling. We hope relations don't become so strained that it will take the entire American armed forces to do the job.

Had a visit recently with Wilson Harber of Dallas, who was superintendent of schools at Sunset when we were introduced to Knox County in 1938. Wilson was up to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Harber, and came in to have the paper sent to his address for another year. It was bitter cold and snow was on the ground when he called on us. "I had to come to town to get a shovel," Wilson said, "so my 30-year-old mother could shovel the snow away—and that ought to be news!"

Churches continue to give their support to the Texas Boys Ranch for this congressional district which appears certain to be established in Clay County. Rev. Robert Young, pastor, was in one day last week and said the First Baptist Church of Munday voted its support some time ago.

"It's one of the prettiest days I've seen in a long time," said a Munday pioneer, Fletcher Wrenn, as he toddled along a walk on the city hall lawn last Tuesday. The sun had broken through the clouds, and the temperature was rising.

It had been a good while since the sun had shone so brightly, and the warming temperatures were welcomed by everyone, especially the potato farmers who had resumed their overdue planting activities. Some had feared the spuds that had been planted just ahead of the severe cold had frozen and ruined; some had examined one or two of their "seedlings" and found them firm and sprouted, and were afraid to look any further. We haven't received an accurate report, but it appears that more 'taters will be planted this year than ever before.

Disabled Farmers May Be Eligible For Disability Benefits

Are you a farmer so disabled you are no longer able to manage or operate your farm? You may be eligible for disability benefits under the social security program if you are between 50 and 65 years of age, or to have your earnings record frozen if you are not yet 50.

Ertan Tate, district manager of the Wichita Falls Social Security Office pointed out that as of October 1959 self-employed farmers who are severely disabled may qualify for disability insurance benefits based on earnings solely from the farm. In addition to being severely disabled a person must have 5 years (20 quarters) of earnings credited to his social security record in the 10-year (40 quarter) period before becoming disabled.

Agricultural self-employment income was first covered by social security in Jan. 1955. Therefore, as of Oct. 1959, a farmer with no earnings other than those from the farm can meet this work requirement if he has had creditable self-employment income for each year beginning with 1955. As there is a 6-month waiting period after a person qualifies for disability benefits, anyone who met the requirements in October would get his first check for the month of April 1960.

BELITTLING PRIVATE ENTERPRISE

"Every time the Soviet Union announces a new production goal in some field of industry or agriculture some group in this country cries 'they are getting ahead of us,'" says the New Era, of Lancaster, Pennsylvania.

It cites a report stressing the Soviet Union's intensive efforts to build dams for power production and irrigation. The implication of this report is that we had better get to work and build more dams. Here the New Era says: "Eut, why? We already have used up most of our best dam sites and Russia hasn't. We have tremendous power production and Russia hasn't. We have too much land under cultivation now and Russia hasn't enough."

"There's a test of whether we should build a new dam: Do we need it and is it economically feasible? If we start a dam building program just because Russia has one, we would be pretty silly."

The most glowing reports of what Russia is doing or plans to do in the field of electric power production come from those who favor socialization of the U. S. utility industry. Russia's achievements, whether real or exaggerated, are thus employed in an effort to destroy taxpaying private enterprise here, and replace it with tax-eating monolithic government power monopolies. The enormous achievements of our own private power industry, which dwarf those of Russia by a huge margin, are belittled or ignored.

WHO DO YOU WORK FOR?

Who do you work for—and why do you work? The obvious answer, of course, is that you work for your employer or for yourself, and that the reason you work is to provide the wherewithal of living.

However, that answer is an oversimplification nowadays. If you are an average citizen, more than a quarter of your 8-hour working day is done on behalf of government. In essence, government is your employer during that period, and takes all of your earnings.

Here are the figures, as issued by the Tax Foundation. Taxes take 2 hours and 16 minutes of your working time each day. By way of contrast, food and tobacco together demand only 1 hour and 28 minutes, household and household operations 1 hour and 24 minutes, and so on down the list.

If you think that taxation and government spending aren't of top importance to you and your family, think again!

SAFETY RULES FOR KITE FLYING TIME

Kite flying time will soon be here again. It's one of the oldest and best of juvenile diversions. But there can be danger in it, as well as fun.

So eight safety rules of kite flying recommended by the Pacific Gas and Electric Company of San Francisco should be emphasized to every child. Here they are: 1. Don't fly a kite with metal in the frame or tail. 2. Don't use tinsel string, wire or twine that has any metal in it. 3. Don't fly a kite near electric power lines. 4. Don't fly a kite over radio or TV aerials. 5. Never pull on a string or climb a power pole to loosen a snagged kite. 6. Don't touch fallen electric wires. 7. Don't run across streets or highways while flying kites. 8. Don't fly a kite in the rain.

WALDEN N. Y., HERALD: "The National Safety Council reveals that 1,265,000 persons have died in this century in motor vehicle accidents in this country."

"By comparison, 694,773 Americans have been killed in battle or died of wounds in all this nation's principal wars, from the Revolutionary War through the Koreans conflict."

"War is a grim thing — but we live with something even grimmer, day after day on our highways and byways."

The Territorial Enterprise, of Virginia City, Nevada, takes a dim view of modern inventions and innovations, existing and pending: "This is an age of horror it may well be worth sticking around to see if only for the day when the moving sidewalks go berserk and chew up all the pedestrians, the customers are wrapped in cellophane and sent home by electronic delivery, the nightmare dream of a coast-to-coast traffic jam with every road solid with cars becomes a reality, and mankind finally and for all times strangles itself to extinction with machinery—on credit of course."

Sylvia Porter, the financial columnist, writes: "You will pay the stiffest price in more than a generation for money you borrow in the months directly ahead. You will find the loans increasingly tough to get this period . . . We are flatly into a major cycle of tight and expensive credit . . ."

Chips From The Carpenter's Workbench

By HAROLD C. PADEN

Can I Be Called Just A Christian?

There is no name so glorious as that of Christian. Is it possible for me to wear this name without descriptive adjectives before it? In the 20th century, is it old fashion to assert that I am not a certain type or brand of "Christian", but just plain Christian?

We should glorify God by wearing this name. To encourage Christians who were being persecuted, Peter wrote these words: "But if a man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God in this name" (1 Pet. 4: 16). The apostles rejoiced to suffer for his name. Luke said of the early disciples in Jerusalem following a period of persecution: "And they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name" (Acts 5: 41).

This name "Christian" was given by the Lord. Several hundred years before Christ was born, God said through an Old Testament prophet: "And the Gentiles shall see thy righteousness, and all things thy glory; and thou shalt be called by a new name, which the mouth of the Lord shall name" (Isaiah 62:2). This new name, which was to be given by the "mouth of the Lord," was to be given when the Gentiles shall have seen the "righteousness" (God's Christ) of God. It was not until about 40 A. D. that the first Gentile was allowed to enter God's kingdom. The account of this is recorded in the tenth chapter of Acts, when Cornelius, non-Jew, was the first Gentile converted to the faith. Immediately following, in Acts 11:26, we read of the new name, recorded by the inspired historian: "and the disciples were called Christians first at Antioch". Every time the name "Christian" is spoken, the name of God's Son is glorified.

When Agrippa said to Paul, "Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian" (Acts 26:28), just what kind of Christian was he talking about? What type of Christian was Paul? or Peter? or any other disciple of Christ in the first century? It is simple: they were just Christians, without party names attached, without denominational distinctions before or after the name. In the 20th century, can I not be called "Christian," to the glory of God and His Son?

Texas' first case of Hansen's disease (leprosy) for 1960 has been reported to the State Health Department. The department says some 14 cases can be expected to develop during the year if the annual median holds.

Communicable disease specialists say Hansen's disease is only mildly communicable from person to person. Its mode of transmission is not definitely known.

Most cases occur in the tropics and sub-tropics. China and India have about half the estimated world total of 3 - 4 million cases.

In addition to Texas, states reporting occasional cases are Louisiana, Florida and California.

Knox 4-H Members Observe 4-H Week

"Learn-Live-Serve through 4-H" is the new theme of the Nation's two and a quarter million 4-H members. In Knox County, more than 380 4-H boys and girls are observing National 4-H Week, which is March 5 to 12, by trying to acquaint more parents and friends with 4-H through posters put up in school and post offices, a radio program and the press.

Also a group of Knox County 4-H Council members met at the courthouse on March 5 and studied the county government as they visited each office.

Members in the county are carrying on varied projects in farming, homemaking and community service and other activities. They raise livestock and field crops, sew, cook, preserve food and improve their homes in rural and non-rural areas of the county. For a well-rounded life they enjoy play and recreation as well as interesting, worthwhile work.

4-H Club work helps to develop confidence and character. Young members start with small jobs in their clubs, and carry on demonstrations at home that they can complete. They are guided and helped by adult leaders and parents. Older members find bigger jobs to do. They meet other outstanding youngsters in county, state and national events.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by the State Health Department

This year is already shaping up as a bad one for measles, but state health officials aren't surprised. A survey of the state's measles pattern for the past 20 years shows the disease usually is up one year and down the next.

This is slated to be the "up" year, since 1959 was comparatively mild with only 37,000 cases reported for the entire 12 months. For the week ending February 20 the State Health Department tallied an average of 1,664 cases, bringing the 1960 total to date to 11,708 compared with less than 5,000 cases for the same period last year.

Mrs. E. B. M. Cook's problem wasn't automation. It was the lack of it.

Mrs. Cook is in charge of biological production at the Texas State Department of Health, which annually distributes some 300,000 sealed vials of smallpox vaccine and 300,000 separately

LEGAL ANSWERS REQUIRE RESEARCH

Perhaps you have been in a courtroom and heard an attorney argue forcefully to the court that such and such a case clearly governs the case at hand. But did you ever wonder about the intricate processes that have been directed toward finding that case which is often referred to as "controlling precedent?"

The lawyer's training received in law school enables him to recognize and analyze problems. In most law schools he will have studied what is known as the "case method." In the standard three-year course usually following his graduation from a four-year general college education, the law student will read hundreds and sometimes thousands of cases especially selected to illustrate the various phases of the law.

The case method of study enables the lawyer to recognize and classify problems created by the relationship of real persons to each other. It also emphasizes that the outcome of each case depends upon the application of principles of law to its own peculiar facts.

When a client seeks legal advice from his lawyer, the lawyer's mind immediately classifies the problem. Sometimes the problem is such that he may be able to give an immediate specific answer. However, more often the problem will have ramifications that will cause resort, as the lawyer says, to "the books." This means that research is in order.

It may take hours, and in many instances, days, of research to unravel a knotty legal problem. The process is involved. Cases must be found, analyzed, compared, and checked to determine whether they have been overruled by later decisions, before counsel can stand before the court and say "Your Honor, we believe that our case is controlled by the case of such and such."

(This column, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

Tax-Man Sam Sez:

A lot of us got a little slip from our bank or someone telling us to pay tax on our dividends and interest this year. The tax folks know it's awful easy to forget a little dividend check or interest on a savings account.

They want you to do a little recollecting on these things come tax filing time. Guess we'll have to pay.

Clothing Needed For Area's Needy

The American Legion wishes to remind all the people of this area that they are still collecting clothes for the needy. Shoes are especially needed at this time. If your child has outgrown their shoes or any member of your family has any that is cluttering up space, you are urged to take them to the City Hall, or if you do not have a way contact Jim Reeves or Mrs. G. E. Rodgers and they will see that they are picked up. All types of clothing is also needed so look through your closet and get out those things you do not wear and help the needy.

CHEMICAL SAFETY ASSURANCES

A soothing reassurance to the bitter reaction which developed from scare headlines prompted by Secretary Arthur W. Flemming of the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare on use of chemical and drugs in agricul-tute has been issued by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

In one of those examples of a Federal department seeking to undo and correct damage which might have been done by another Federal department the USDA asserted that "our food supply in the U. S. is the safest, cleanest, and most wholesome in the world."

Then the USDA went on to say that "a wide variety of chemicals are used today in all phases of food production, processing, and marketing. They include chemical fertilizers, insecticides, and weed killers, antibiotics, antiseptics, and preservatives; feed additives, fumigants, fungicides, and others.

"These chemicals are as essential for efficient production of foods on the farm as are tractors, improved varieties of crops, and better breeds of livestock. They play as great a part in assuring consumers a continuing supply of nutritious and appetizing foods as do our modern methods of food processing and marketing.

"We cannot continue to produce adequate amounts of safe and wholesome foods without chemicals. Abandoning their use on farms and in the food industry would result in immediate decline in the quantity and overall quality of our food supply and cause a rapid rise in food prices paid by consumers.

"On our farms, chemicals enable us to produce the great variety of foods people want in the tremendous quantities needed. They also give indispensable protection to the natural excellence of these foods against the ravages of pests and diseases. In large part because of chemicals, American consumers enjoy fruits, vegetables, cereals, meat, poultry products, and milk of unexcelled quality and the freedom from contamination.

"In our food factories and in trade channels, chemicals help to improve sanitation and maintain quality. They make possible many of our modern convenience foods, and in many other ways they aid in furnishing the bountiful, nutritious supply of good things to eat that we enjoy today."

On the subject of memory: You can know a man — and know him fairly well — and still have difficulty in immediately calling his name.

It may be that you haven't seen him in a good while; or it is on the street in Fort Worth and he lives 200 miles away. If you saw him in his home town, "association" would help you. (We speak of not being able to "place" someone).

Sometimes you might know a man very well and still your memory refuses to come up with the name.

Fred Korth is one man who realizes this and so he supplies his name when he greets you. He is impressive in size and appearance, has an excellent voice, formerly was Assistant Secretary of the Army and recently became president of the Continental National Bank in Fort Worth — all in all, a man who because of achievement and appearance certainly can have every right to expect to be recommended, yet he considerately supplies his name.

Pat Neff was introduced to someone as "ex-governor of Texas." Neff quickly said, "No—former governor! A former governor is one who retired; an ex-governor is one who got beat."

Neff was the finest speaker in Texas in his era. I heard him speak at the State Democratic Convention in Austin (in 1942, if my memory serves me a right). He spoke for half an hour, perhaps a little longer; his language was elevated; his thoughts were stirring. Afterward, newspapermen asked for a copy of his speech. He produced a single piece of paper on which a few notes were written.

When he was president of Baylor University, Governor Neff invited me to address the student body and he introduced me. My scholarly contribution was "How I took Hollywood by Storm," an account of my adventures in connection with "Boom Town." At the close, he asked the audience that filled the big auditorium to rise. "And now, for our friend," he said, "let's sing 'That Good Old Baylor Line.'"

To any individual, that is something to remember; to one who never attended college, it was something to treasure.

Dollars And Sense

By Miss S. C. Kinsey, Knox County H. D. Agent

Use good management practices where your home freezer is concerned.

Choose kinds and varieties of foods which freeze successfully. Foods which cannot be frozen satisfactorily include tomatoes, vegetables to be eaten raw, gelatin dishes, avocados, bananas, mayonnaise, cooked egg whites, boiled icings, stuffings.

Date packages so you know how long food has been in the freezer. Allow as short a period of time as possible to elapse between store and home freezer to avoid thawing.

Keep turnover high in a freezer. The cost of freezer operation per item of food will be the lowest if you constantly keep using from and adding food to the freezer. In this way, cost will be spread over a large number of items.

Watch for "specials" on frozen foods and on fresh foods you buy for freezing. Freeze only top quality foods since freezing does not improve quality.

Many Vehicles Of Texas Still Without New Safety Stickers

Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, said today that more than two-million motor vehicles remain to be inspected before the April 15 deadline. He urged all Texas motorists to obtain their new inspection stickers at an early date.

Garrison reported that more than 4,300,000 will be inspected in Texas this year. To date only about half that number have gone through inspection lines at some 4,400 inspection stations located throughout the state.

The DPS director pointed out that inspection stations cannot inspect vehicles during wet, rainy weather, a condition normally prevailing during late winter and early spring. To make sure every vehicle owner is able to obtain his 1960 inspection sticker in time, Garrison suggested that plans be made now to visit an inspection station, before inspection lines grow long.

Goree Church Ceremony Unites Miss Carol Coffman And Jimmy Stovall

The First Methodist Church in Goree, Texas, was the scene of the recent evening wedding of Miss Carol Coffman and Jimmy Stovall, both of Wichita Falls.

The Rev. H. C. Adair, church pastor, was officiant for the 6 o'clock nuptials.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Buster Coffman of Goree, and Mrs. T. M. Stack of 2005 Polk is mother of the groom. Traditional wedding selections were provided by Mrs. Orb Coffman, aunt of the bride, pianist, and Mrs. Nancy Osmet, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in an original waltz-length dress of white French lace styled with a Sabrina neckline, fitted bodice and tiered bouffant skirt. Her fingertip veil of imported illusion was attached to a crown of seed pearls and Alencon lace. White orchids centering white stock and streamers formed her cascade bridal bouquet.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Jack Coffman of Goree. She wore a dress fashioned of white organza styled similarly to that of the bride. She wore blue accessories and carried a cascade bouquet of white gladioli.

Jerry Stovall of Wichita Falls, brother of the groom, was best man. Harold Denny of Wichita Falls was usher.

A reception was held in the church parlor. The reception table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of pink gladioli. Crystal appointments and blue tapers in candelabra completed the table decor. Mrs. J. B. Lawson served cake. Mrs. Don Coffman, sister-in-law of the bride, served punch and Mrs. Osmet presided at the guest book.

The newlyweds will establish residence in Wichita Falls where he is employed with the Ohio Oil Co.

The bride attended Goree schools and was graduated from Abilene High School. She attended Midwestern University and Abilene Christian College.

A graduate of Wichita Falls High School, the groom attended Texas Technological College at Lubbock and was graduated from MU with B. S. degree in geology.

O. Denham have returned home from Temple, where Tony is now employed. Mrs. Tony Denham will be returning to Temple over the week end.

It's a boy! He was born to Mr. and Mrs. Billy Dolan Moore March 7, 1960 in Kingsport, Tennessee. His name is Timothy Shawn and he weighed 7 pounds and 11 ounces. He has a sister, Monica Dru. His grandparents are Mrs. Ella Harper of Hilton, Virginia and Mr. and Mrs. Billy Moore of Goree.

Miss Brenda Hutchens Joe D. Dickson, Jr. To Marry In June

Program On Texas Day Is Given By Club At Weinert

The Weinert Matron's Club met Thursday, March 3, with Mrs. J. W. Liles with Mrs. H. W. Liles as hostess for Texas Day Program.

Mrs. Ramon Liles, delegate from Weinert Matron's Club, and Mrs. Fred Monke, third vice president of district 1, Texas Federation of Women's Club gave a report of the recent convention held in Fort Worth at Hotel Texas February 29th and March 1st and 2nd.

The Weinert Matron's Club won second place on their Press Book. A third place award was won in the Fine Arts division. They received two first place awards for overall reporting in Americanism and Community Affairs Departments at the Texas Federation of Womens Club convention, district 1.

The Weinert School Art contest sponsored by the Matron's club gave the following prizes: High School division, first place, Jackie Sanders; second place, Raymond Walker, Junior High school division, first place, Linda Adams; second place, Mike Rainey.

"Other states were carved and born, Texas grew from hide and horn" says a Mrs. Nance. The program of the Texas Day given by club members depicted such a state.

Club members answered roll call with a current Texas topic and sang Texas, Our Texas, the state song. Mrs. C. T. Jones gave a most interesting and timely account of ranch lore and cowboy legends. The Jones family having been in the ranching business in this area for seventy-three years and Mr. C. T. Jones as a young man went up the trail to Dodge City, Kans. on cattle drives, afforded the talented speaker with interesting material. The listeners gave Mrs. Jones a standing ovation in appreciation of her discussion. Mrs. P. F. Weinert read the poem "I Am Going Down to Texas."

A refreshment plate of cake squares, coffee and nuts were served to Meses. C. G. Hammer, C. T. Jones, W. A. King, J. W. Liles, R. C. Liles, Fred Monke, Russell Rainey, P. F. Weinert, Frank Omar by the hostess, Mrs. J. W. Liles.

Here's A Good Value

For less than 3¢ the average family served by WTU can cook a complete meal the modern electric way... and enjoy the cleanliness and convenience of Electric Living.

"Who owns the electric company?"

"Here's who -"

The answer is that thousands of people own it. People like you, people who invest money in the electric company and help it grow. They become an investor... this is the reason we are known as an investor-owned company.

It is a good question — especially since surveys show a lot of our own customers don't know the answer.

This electric company is not owned by the city. It is not owned by the state. It is not owned by any kind of government agency or co-op. It is owned by investors.

This is one of the reasons why we can give you the best possible service and just about the best bargain you can buy.

Knox Prairie Philosopher Claims That Round-The-Clock Senate Sessions Are Just Like Round-The-Clock Farming

J. A.

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek, may be misconstruing what's been happening in Washington, his letter this week reveals.

Dear Editor: A man can go along for years without getting recognition for an idea, but when the United States Senate suddenly adopts his idea, he feels like his efforts haven't been in vain.

What I'm talking about is the Senate's round-the-clock working sessions which have been in the newspapers and on television lately.

That's exactly the system I've been using out here on this Johnson grass farm for years, and I congratulate the Senate.

As I understand it, the Senate had an unusually hard problem to tackle, so it decided to stay in session till it was solved. And the first thing it did was bring in a lot of cots and mattresses, ordered the Senate restaurant to stay open all night, rolled up its sleeves, and went to work.

New Award For 4-H Members For State Announced

A new award has been added to the 4-H Cooperative Result Demonstration and the 4-H Team Method Demonstration. Both are a part of the Farmer Cooperative Activity Awards Program. According to Robert Cooper, extension economist in farm organization, and Floyd Lynch, State 4-H Club leader, 4-H members may now enroll as participants for the new awards.

Cooper and Lynch said the 1960 winners from each of the 12 Texas Extension districts in the 4-H Cooperative Result Demonstration Program would receive all-expense trips from their counties to Amarillo where they will assemble for a trip to Berkeley, California, and the annual meeting of the American Institute of Cooperation. These trips will come in August.

The State winning 4-H Method Demonstration Team in the Farmer Cooperative Activity will also receive similar trips. This team will be named after the State contest in June which is a part of the Texas 4-H Roundup.

The State leaders point out that this is an added annual award and is sponsored by the Extension Service and the Producers Grain Corporation, a regional farmers' cooperative, at Amarillo. Each year the district and State winners, under the new program, will receive out-of-state trips and will become members of the Talent Club. Since 1942, 286 outstanding Texas 4-H Club members have been initiated into the Talent Club, originated by J. Frank Triplett, longtime general manager of the Corporation.

Cooper and Lynch emphasize that this new program makes no change in awards previously announced as a part of the Farmer Cooperative Activity Program and provided by the Texas Federation of Cooperatives.

Local county extension agents have complete details on the new program and the two specialists urge all 4-H members to ask for more information about it. Now during 4-H Club Week, Cooper says is the time to enroll in what he believes is the finest program available in 4-H Club work.

WINNERS OF TABLE LAMPS ARE ANNOUNCED

Winners of the table and two lamps which were made by the natives of Africa were announced this week by Mrs. Lawrence Friske of Rhineland. Mrs. Chester Ingram of Quannah received the table, and the lamps went to Mrs. L. C. Snow of Wichita Falls and Henry Rowe of Windhorst.

Proceeds from the event will go to build a new Mission Church in Africa, of which Father Amos Frericks, S. V. D., a cousin of Mrs. Friske, is the head.

Buy A License Before You Get Fishing Fever

"The fishing season is here, so get your 1960 fishing license before you get fishing fever," warns the director of law enforcement, Texas Game and Fish Commission.

Last month, 37 persons were charged with fishing without the required licenses. "Most of these probably were individuals who forgot about a license until they were already in the boat and fishing," said the director.

According to the Commission's monthly report on game and fish law violations, hunting contrary to the laws also ran high. A total of 70 persons were charged with illegally hunting at night. Some 29 were charged with hunting without resident licenses. Another 29 were charged with hunting in closed season, and 23 were filed on for hunting from an automobile.

Wardens arrested 19 persons for killing doves out of season, 5 for hunting on game preserves 14 for headlighting animals, 13 for killing deer in closed season, 12 in possession of wild doe deer, 2 for killing curlew, and 10 persons were charged for polluting public water.

A total of 413 violations were reported in January. Of these, 39 were dismissed in court, 3 served time in jail, 6 appealed, one had his fine suspended, and two were found not guilty.

Fines for the month amounted to $15,609.15 and court costs totaled $662.00, making $16,271.15 the amount paid by hunters and fishermen for game and fish violations in January.

Get Acquainted With Game Warden For Your District

"It is unfortunate that some persons never meet a game warden until they are involved in some difficulty," writes H. D. Dodgen, executive secretary of the Texas Game and Fish Commission, in an editorial entitled "His Work—Our Wealth," in the February issue of the agency's official publication. "It is just as unfortunate that so many persons never get to meet a game warden at all."

"Basically," writes Dodgen, "the warden's job was created to enforce game laws passed by your legislature. This still is a very important part of their daily chores. Now, however, he has another part of the job which he likes. He has become a disciple of the great outdoors. He is a walking encyclopedia of information on how to hunt and fish, and where. He must know the multiplicity of laws that govern the ownership, control, and harvest of wildlife."

"Your game warden is your neighbor. He wants to take part in your civic club activities; he will pass the collection plate in your church, or serve as a scout master, or provide motion pictures and talks for the garden club and the P. T. A. on the subject of conservation or wildlife appreciation."

"He will be one of the first on hand to fight a forest fire or to search for the lost or drowned," he continues.

"Your game warden is not perfect nor is he a saint," concluded the executive. "But he is a dedicated man who is doing his best at his job, and with your help he'll do it better. Get acquainted with him."

Rhineland 4-H Club Boys Have Meeting

The Rhineland boys 4-H club met last Thursday morning at 11:00 o'clock. Minutes were read and approved and the meeting was turned over to the county agent, Troy Jones.

Mr. Jones gave a talk of grub and screw worms and said millions of dollars of loss occurred because of these diseases. He said that stimulants were now available to combat them. The meeting adjourned at 12 noon. Dwight Albus, reporter.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hertel visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kotulek in Odessa over the week end.
