Communication Gaps Widen
Due To Lack Of Understanding

Miss Katharyn Duff, assistant editor and "Page One" columnist of the Abilene Reporter-News, addressed a large crowd of area women at the First Baptist Church, Thursday, November 5. papers now seem to be under fire from everyone from the Vice-President on down. To this statement she added "If we can't be examined and critized, we shouldn't be in the business in the first place."

The communications revolution has a lot to do with our lack of understanding in mass communications. Miss Duff cited the fact that in her lifetime global affairs are known in only minutes where it once took weeks to months to have the news. Thus, you have the information instantly. Briefing Session To Be November 18

Housing Supply May Expand In Knox County Through FHA

Knox City - The supply of modern housing in Knox County may be expanded by a new cooperative effort with private industry announced this week by Joe T. Boone, county supervisor for the Farmers Home Administration, rural credit service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

The county supervisor said a briefing session for interested builders and developers will be held at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, November 18, at the City Cafe in Knox City.

"From now on, builders, developers and others in the home building and financing fields can work directly with prospective borrowers to 'package' applications for rural housing loans," Boone said.

ing program," he added, "will be limited to those who can provide all the necessary information about the home, assure its delivery at a specified price, and can work directly with the applicant family."

He explained that the packager will assemble reliable information on the applicant and the home he wants to buy, build or improve. They will submit the data on forms supplied through the local Farmers Home Administration office at Knox City. When the information about the building and applicant is complete, the loan can be approved and funds made available by the FHA.

Families residing in communities of 5,500 population or under are eligible to apply for FHA loans. They must be unable to obtain adequate credit from private sources. Approved borrowers receive direct financing through FHA.

"The first step for prospective packager is to meet with the FHA county supervisor to obtain detailed information about eligibility requirements for a loan and the type and cost of homes the agency can appropriately finance," Boone said.

In general, he explained, the family must lack decent, safe and sanitary housing, must be unable to obtain credit from other sources and must have sufficient income to repay the loan, pay taxes and insurance, maintain the house and meet other living expenses. Family income, however, may not exceed limits established by FHA.

The county supervisor said loans may be made to farm-owners, nonfarm tract owners, rural residents or nonrural residents with low to moderate incomes who work in a rural area. The home may be on a farm, in open country or in towns under 5,500 population that are rural in character and not adjacent to an urban area.

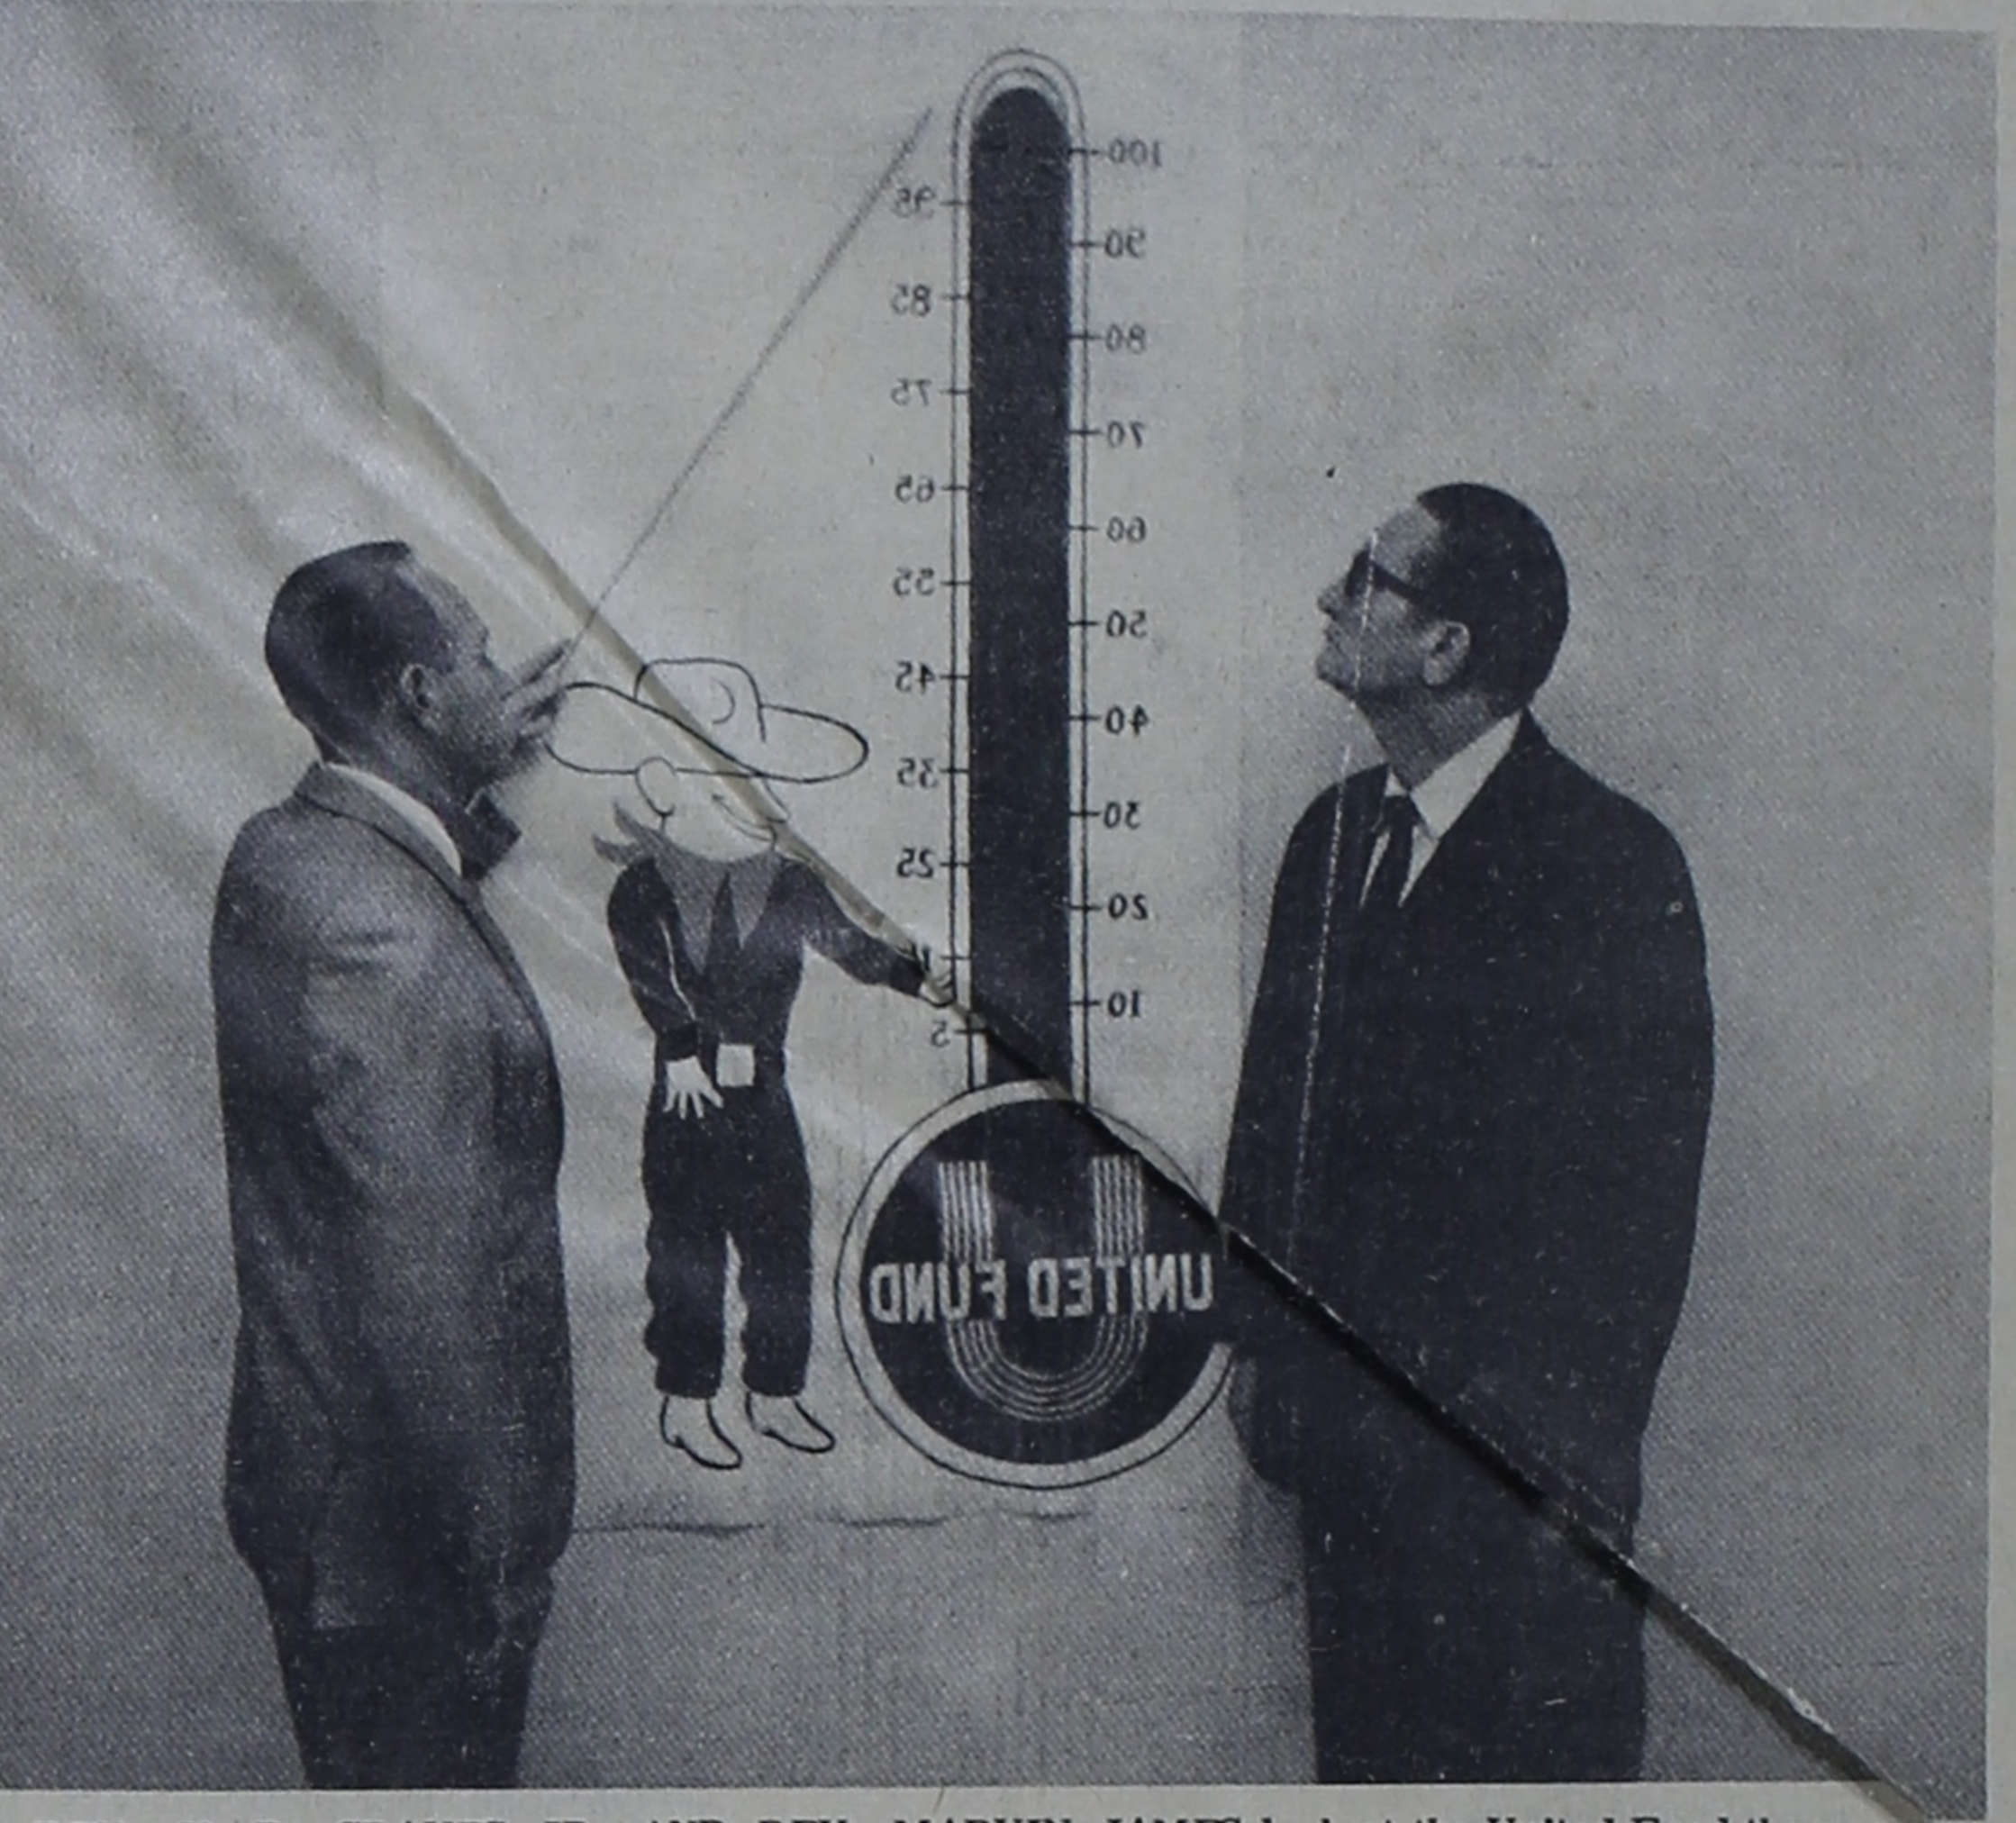

"Each packager should understand that final action cannot be taken on applications until all required information has been submitted to FHA, the applicant is interviewed by the county supervisor and any required supplementary information has been obtained," Boone pointed out.

A 36-page manual explaining the program is now available at the local office.

The Farmers Home Administration rural housing program totals $1.5 billion in fiscal 1971, and will finance about 125,000 units. The total in 1972 is expected to reach 200,000 units.

The county supervisor noted that James V. Smith, administrator of the Farmers Home Administration "has expressed confidence that this new program will help smooth the way for applicants and move us more rapidly toward the national goal of adequate housing for EVERY FAMILY in rural America."

All lumbermen, housing contractors, real estate dealers, as well as any other interested persons are invited to attend the meeting, next Wednesday night, Boone said.

REV. H. B. GRAVES JR. AND REV. MARVIN JAMES look at the United Fund thermometer that registers 100 per cent of the goal for 1971.

"A Job Well Done" For The Munday United Fund

The Munday United Fund has gone over the 100% mark on its goal. The United Fund was begun in Munday in 1957 and has had a realistic budget, as it has never failed to reach 85% of its goal. In 1967 the goal was reached, but has fallen short in years since then.

The organizations included in the 1971 budget are The Salvation Army, City-County Library, Medical Research Foundation of Texas, Texas United Funds, Inc., City Park Maintenance Fund, Northwest Texas Council of Boy Scouts, United Service Organizations - U.W.O., American Red Cross, Munday Baseball League, West Texas Rehabilitation Center, Abilene Muscular Dystrophy, Cerebral Palsy of Texas, North Central Council for Girl Scouts, and Campaign expenses. The total proposed budget was $5,500.00.

The many people who worked tirelessly and continuously for the United Fund are to be commended. These include the campaign chairman, Rev. Marvin James; the officers, Rev. H. B. Graves Jr., Chairman; J. Weldon Smith, Co-Chairman; Mrs. Phillip Homer, Treasurer; and Mrs. Don Comb, Secretary; the other Board members, Mrs. Bob Therwanger, Mrs. A. S. Cartwright, Russell Penick, Travis Lee, Mrs. Dorse Collins; and the Cadette Troop 39 for canvassing the town. The many volunteer workers who collected contributions are to be commended for their hard work in the campaign, and finally, many thanks go to the citizens of Munday who gave generously when called upon. All of this hard work and generosity combined made the 100% mark on the United Fund goal possible.

On November 20 the Goree Wildcats will play the Harrell Hornets for the district title. The game promises to be spectacular as both are good teams offensively and defensively. The game will be at Goree at 7:30 p.m. Friday, November 20.

Lions Learn Of Work With Adult Blind

By AARON EDGAR

By the method of viewing slides, members of the Munday Lions Club received detailed information last Tuesday on rehabilitation work with the adult blind as it is being done at the Texas Lions Crippled Children's Camp at Kerrville. Lion Boyd Baker, program chairman for the month, showed the slides and did the commentary to provide this program.

During the summer months the Kerrville Camp devotes its energies toward a program for crippled children. During the remainder of the year, since 1957, it serves as an adjustment training center for the adult blind, bringing faith and hope to those who have been deprived of their sight.

These blind people remain at the adjustment center for some three or four months, where they are given some light in their world of personal darkness. Here they are taught how to thread a needle, the use of scissors, personal care of their clothing, how to cook for themselves on either gas or electric stoves, repair comodes, make simple electrical repairs and many others.

The happiest day of their lives, it was pointed out is when they learn to get around in downtown Kerrville by themselves. They are also taught in such areas as recreation and entertainment, and those visiting the camp are greeted by persons who are so thoroughly rehabilitated that they at first find it difficult to determine that they are blind.

Thirty-five persons enjoyed the meal and program. Visitors included John A. Smith and Herbert Bellinghousen of Knox City, Bill Meggins of Abilene, and Frank Thetford of the Texas A&M ranch experiment station near Throckmorton.

Mr. and Mrs. Hank Matthews and Vickie and Mrs. Henry Matthews Sr. spent the weekend in Friona with Mr. and Mrs. Dowell Matthews and Brandi. ## Cotton Classing Reports For Week

Excellent harvesting weather has helped put the USDA Cotton Classing Office at Munday about 5 days behind. According to John E. Williams, Officer-in-Charge, 6,632 samples were classed during the week ending November 6, 1970. The season's total now stands at 10,750 samples. Most of the sample receipts continue to be from Haskell County.

The predominant grades were as follows: 41 with 23 per cent; 32 with 37 per cent; and 42 with 31 per cent. Staple lengths stayed about the same with 29's making up 28 per cent of the total. Forty-four per cent was 30's, 8 per cent was 31's, and 16 per cent was one-inch or longer.

Micronaire readings continue to be high but show a slight decrease over last week. Fifty-five per cent of the cotton miked 3.5 through 4.9, 37 per cent was 5.0 through 5.2, and 8 per cent was 5.3 and higher.

Buyer demand is still strong especially in the lower grades and staples. Producers receive stant information and instant understanding are two different things," said Miss Duff. Radios and televisions have changed newspapers tremendously. Through these conveniences you have instant information and you know what has happened before you get your newspaper. But your newspaper helps you to learn all the facts and gain some understanding in news matters.

COMMUNICATION

Miss Duff said that as a reporter she has always tried to cover both sides of the story. She said that so many times the readers like to read only what they agree with. Her purpose as a reporter is to tell you what happened, who, when, where and how. She strives along with many other reporters to give you the correct information and let you develop your own opinions. She said to always demand impartial information and keep things in perspective.

Miss Duff cited the communication gap between the older generation and the younger generation as more serious now and more evident than ever before. She remarked that they are two entirely different generations raised in different civilizations. In her youth the problem was whether you ate or not, whether you went to school or not, whether you survived.

The youth of today face a different set of problems and have different values. Drugs seem to be the most frightening. The between youth and adults to young people can't be grasped the difference and social drinking in youth, smoking said that adults.

ed from 250 to 400 points above CCC loan prices for the predominant qualities.

Sample receipts continue to pour in at the USDA Cotton Classing Office Abilene, Texas. Officer-in-Charge B. B. Manly Jr., reports that 29,000 samples were classed for the week ending November 6, 1970 compared to 1,200 for the same period last season. The seasons total is now 55,800 samples classed compared to 24,200 for a season's total a year ago.

Sixteen per cent of the cotton classed was in the white category, 81 per cent was light spotted and 3 per cent was spotted. The predominant grade was 32 at 48 per cent.

Predominant staple lengths were 30, 47 per cent and 29, 29 per cent. Micronaire readings showed 75 per cent in the premium range.

Pressley or strength readings showed 83 per cent reading 80,000 PSI (pounds per square inch) and better.

The Consumer and Marketing Service, Abilene reports average gross prices for some predominant qualities are: 3229 brought 20,70¢; 3230 brought 21,05¢; 4229 brought 20,20¢; 4230 brought 20,50¢.

them. She said they were certain they were about to be robbed. The boys started talking to them and finally, after plenty of confusion, the ladies learned that all the boys wanted was two ticket stubs to the opera. They only wanted to see the last of the opera since the ladies were leaving and would not be using the tickets. She said this was just one example of how we criticize our youth because of their looks, when we should be worried as to whether or not they have been taught some of the old values of manners, honesty and integrity.

She said we need to accomplish something rather than just yelling at our youth. The story of the mother that screamed at her child proved her point. The mother yelled at the child every day and every day the child continued to antagonize the mother. The more she yelled the worse the child behaved. Such could be the problem of today's youth and the older generation. To succeed in diminishing the generation gap, both sides need to stop and exchange the information, so as to obtain understanding.

In conclusion, Miss Duff said that in person, as well as in mass communications, we must demand the best, but remember, they are only human members. They are only human members.

A reception was held in the fellowship hall of the Baptist Church after the program. Miss Duff mingled with the guests and took pictures of the groups which presented her. The beautiful flower arrangements seen throughout the church were arranged by Mrs. W. C. Kirschner and Mrs. Weldon Floyd.

John Russell, a student at NTSU, spent the weekend visiting his grandmother, Mrs. J. B. Bowden, and his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hawkins.

We haven't figured out yet what we will do when they start tearing up our street for the paving project. As it is we have a way to come to work and a certain route to go home, and if we make a bobble in either going or coming - stoo bad 'cause we are liable to wander 10 or 15 minutes before finding a familiar land sight. Ole Boy will vouch for this.

Right now some of the streets are in a mess and you have to drive some four or five blocks to get home, in what used to be "just a block away".

We're really not complaining, because you have to "suffer" for beauty, and that is what our town is going to be when our streets are paved and we will be proud-proud, and bet you will be too.

We stand corrected. A mortician is one who holds an embalmer's license and also a Funeral Director's license. It is a Funeral Coach instead of a Funeral car. Boy can we ever put our foot in it.

Reminds us of the time we told the man he wasn't used to seeing us with clothes on. You better bet our face got red and the more we tried to explain what we meant, the more complicated it got. Phew!

It was really very simple. We were all wrapped up in a big coat and head scarf and he had never seen us outside our office. But why, oh why do such strange sayings come out of such an innocent person as poor little us?

Somebody told us we might try keeping our trap closed. Won't work on us, we like to talk even if it is silly. So There.

Home Sewing Soars

Home sewing is now a $2 billion industry. Most of the "stitchers" belong to income groups in the $7,000 to $15,000 range, according to the Monsanto Company. Following the installation ceremony, a drawing will be held for Christmas presents brought by the members attending.

It was reported that thirteen attended the educational tour to the Vernon Mental Health and Mental Retardation Center on October 20.

At the white elephant sale conducted after the October council meeting, $34.01 was raised for the treasury. Each of the twenty-one members and visitors present brought an object gift-wrapped which was auctioned off. No one knew what she had bought until it was unwrapped.

During the month of November the HD Agent will present to each HD Club a program on "Holiday Foods".

Taxpayers Ask IRS

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q Can I deduct the contribution I made to one of the candidates running for office here?

A) No, contributions to political candidates and campaigns are not deductible.

Q As part of my job I work at home a lot and have a little office for myself. How do I handle my deduction for this?

A) To qualify for a deduction, you must show you are required to provide your own space and facilities as a condition of your employment and you use it regularly for business purposes.

You must also show the portion of your home used for this purpose and the time it is so used.

For example, if the office space accounts for 10% of the space in your home, you may take 10% of such items as rent, depreciation, heat, light, insurance, real estate taxes and mortgage interest. If you use the office portion only half the time for business purposes, then you may deduct only 5% of the expenses as a business deduction.

Q If I give presents to some of my customers can I deduct the cost as a business expense?

A) Yes, business gifts are a deductible expense as long as they do not exceed $25, to any one customer during the year. If gifts total more than $25, only $25 may be deducted. A gift to a customer's wife or child must generally be included with any gift to the customer himself in figuring the $25 limit.

Note that gifts which cost $4 or less are not subject to this limit if your name is clearly and permanently printed on the item and is one of a number of identical items distributed by you. This would cover calendars, pens and similar items.

Q My brother had some heavy medical expenses last year and I helped him out with them. Can I deduct this on my return?

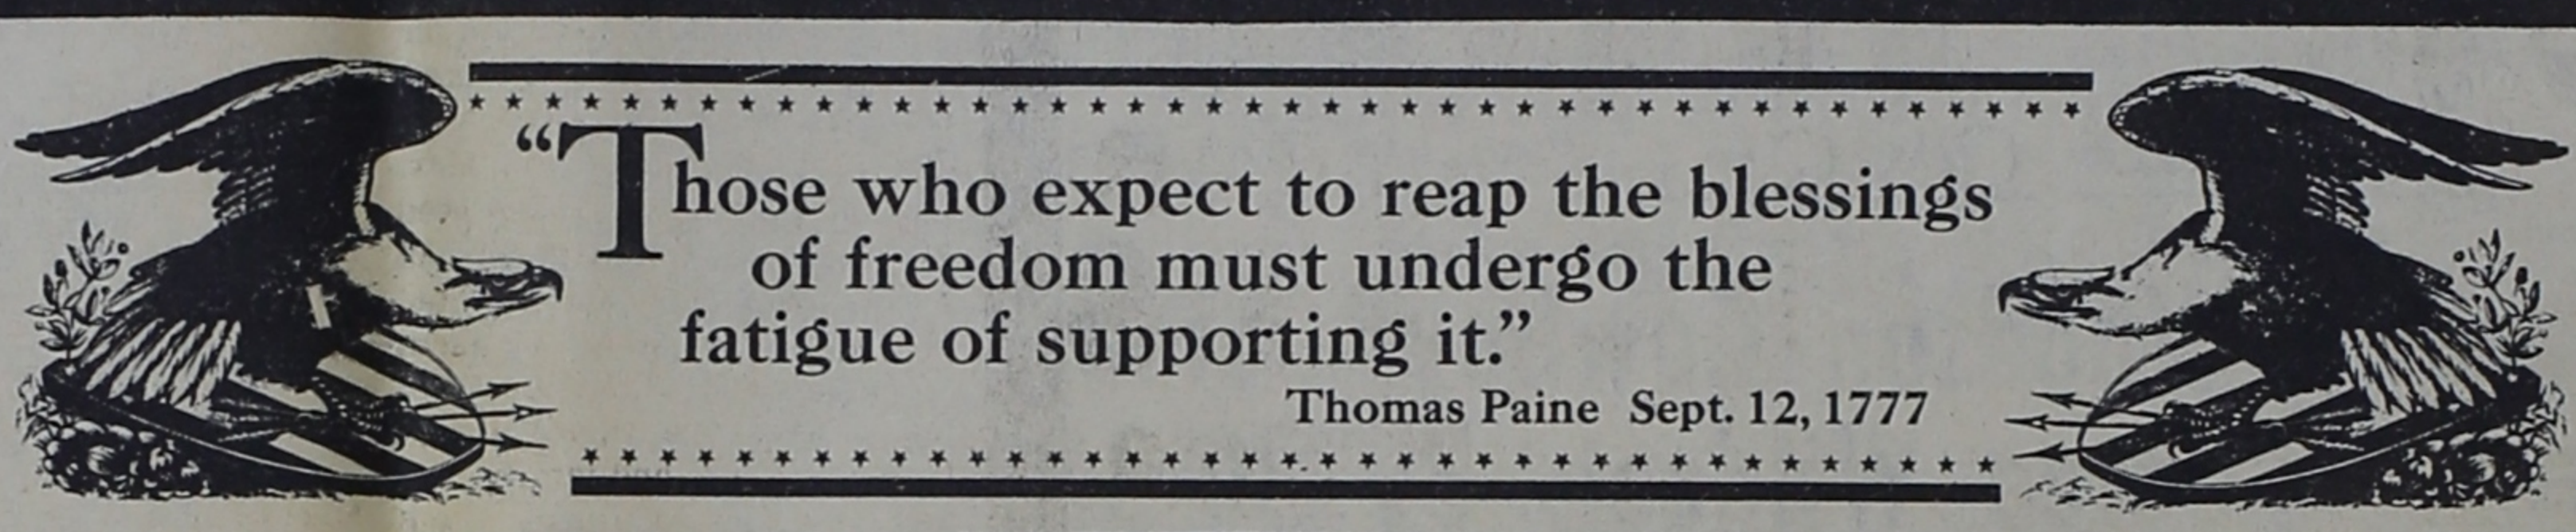

A) As a general rule, only medical expenses paid for a dependent may be deducted with your other medical expenses. This rule would not apply if you could have claimed your brother as a dependent except for the fact that he had income of $625 or over or filed a joint return with his wife.

If you think this exception applies in your case, be sure to have a good record of what you contributed to your brother's support for the year.

Following a devotional brought by Mrs. Haymes, Zada Smith conducted the annual pledge service with twenty-one members participating.

Janie Almanrode conducted the business meeting which followed. Items coming up for discussion included the Guild Bazaar set for November 20, and the appointment of Sue Bowden to represent the Guild before the Council on Ministries with reference to the possibilities of setting up a day care center to serve the children of migrant workers in the Munday vegetable harvest season.

Discussion of the day care center was a follow-up of the Guild program on October 26 when Rev. Larry Ortega, pastor of the Templo Baptist Church spoke on the need in Munday for such a center. Much interest in such a project was evident at Monday night's meeting.

Accent on Health

J.E. PEAVY, M.D.,
Commissioner of Health

A major effort toward drug abuse education and prevention has been launched by the Texas State Department of Health.

The Department's Division of Food and Drugs and Public Health Education Division are cooperating in the development of new programs and services for the citizens of Texas.

The State Health Department is planning a series of 10 regional seminars on drug abuse and its community health implications. The first one is scheduled November 17 in State Health Department Region 7, headquartered in Tyler. Health professionals and community officials from the 36-county East Texas region will be eligible to attend the one-day seminar in the auditorium of the East Texas TB Hospital Annex.

The seminar will focus on the health aspects of drug abuse, detail current programs underway, and examine possible future directions a local and state campaign against drug abuse may take. The course content will include a history of drug traffic, the problem today, current state attack, and how communities can be organized. State Health Commissioner Dr. James E. Peavy will keynote the program.

The faculty will include a nationally-known drug abuse expert, Dr. Joe Schoolar of the Texas Research Institute, a unit of the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation. The health aspects of drug use and abuse, and current research, will be emphasized.

Also on the program will be Curtis Dickson, health information specialist with the State Health Department. He was a recent participant in the Western Institute of Drug Problems held in Portland, Oregon. Allan Schurr, assistant director of the Food and Drug Division of the State Health Department, and Hunter Brush, the Tyler district attorney, also will participate.

The State Health Department is also deeply involved in other drug abuse programs. Department personnel, working in the Governor's Task Force on Drug Abuse, are involved in the planning and development of a coordinated statewide, inter-agency attack on drug problems. They will be participants on Inter-agency Community Assistance Teams.

With the Assistance of KUHT and the University of Houston, the State Health Department has produced a one-hour film that will be released to statewide television this fall. The film vividly portrays the scope of the problem in Texas and the reaction of parents and students to the use, misuse and abuse of legal and illegal drugs.

Purpose of the film is to stimulate communities and organizations to action.

For years the State Health Department has conducted statewide drug abuse education programs, mostly to school audiences. Emphasis now is informing the adult community.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Bruce and Ronnie Glenn of Lubbock were weekend visitors with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oather Poe, and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bruce.

Local Draft Board News
Local Draft Board No. 82 Executive Secretary Mrs. Leola Isbell announced today that random selection number 186 is the highest lottery selection number reached in 1970.
However, the board spokesman said, it may be necessary to go to a higher random selection number than the previous high number in order to satisfy the remaining 1970 draft calls.
Executive Secretary Mrs. Leola Isbell said that in compliance with the White House Executive Order announced recently, all registrants of Local Board No. 82 who hold the highest reached number or numbers below the highest reached number and who have not been issued orders for induction due to any circumstance, will be considered for carryover into the extended priority selection group if the are classified 1-A as of December 31, 1970.
Such young men will have their liability for induction extended for the first three months of 1971.
The local board spokesman said that the Executive Order states that registrants who held numbers above the highest reached number of Board No. 82 and are classified 1-A on December 31, will be placed in a lower draft priority group on January 1.

The 1971 Farmers Tax Guide will be available at your County Agent's office, as well as all the Internal Revenue Service offices, within a few days. If you are one of that vanishing breed of Texans that still till the soil for a living, you had better pick up a copy and start plowing through this year's tax problems. You may be interested in a copy even though you simply live on a farm, work for wages or a salary, and farm for food - and maybe a little profit. Actually the Farmer's Tax Guide is as valuable for the city dweller who owns a farm and does his farming through the windshield of his car as it is for the on-the-farm dweller. The price is right - it's free.

THE MOGUL SPEAKS

By PAT CARTWRIGHT
While you look through a magazine or newspaper advertising, I'm sure that you have come across some attention capturing lines. With this idea in mind I have put some students with a few lines and here is what I've come up with.
Jeff Searcy, Turn any car into the touchiest car in town.
Barry Benner, Take up to 7 years to pay.
Charles Hutchinson, How I retired before fifty.
Terry Alexander, Learn to play the banjo like a star.
Paula Pendleton, Miller makes it right.
The stories are true but the names have been changed to protect the innocent.

P.E. GIRLS PARTICIPATE WELL, SAYS COACH
By STEPHANIE FERNANDEZ
"Watch that ball!" is one of many exclamations heard as Mr. Charles Beebe's Girls' P. E. class participates in a rousing game of Dodgeball.
As Mr. Beebe knows, too much of one game over an extended period of time can be boring, so he has set up his plans so that softball, volleyball, track, archery, and other such activities can be experienced throughout the year.
The ten energetic young ladies, who compose the class, are very prompt to join in any new game that their teacher introduces to them. As a matter of fact, Mr. Beebe was reluctant to take over a girls' P. E. class when he was first offered the job. Now, he's proud that he took the job, as he admires the girls' ability.

The combination of active girls, an experienced coach, and many sports to choose from give way to a very fulfilling year for this class.

SUPERINTENDENT VALUES YOUNG PEOPLE

By DANNY WELCH
The question directed to Supt. Douglas Myers by one of the Civics students recently was "How is the issue of the 18-year-old vote developing in Texas?" What followed gave way to the fact that Mr. Myers thinks well of young people.
After explaining that this issue has not yet been decided upon in our state, he went on to say that he suggests all 18-year-olds register to vote the January after their eighteenth birthday, which is the registration period.

Following this recommendation, Mr. Myers qualified his belief in the youth of this age, and why he believes the young people should be able to vote. "I have always believed that if a young man is old enough to fight, he is also old enough to vote."

Mr. Myers believes that bad images of young people have been made through false representation in the news media. "If you did what we did when I was young - we wouldn't put up with it for one minute!", Mr. Myers honestly reveals. He adds, "It was common then for a day in school to include one or two fistfights."

In contrast to the mass media harming youth, Mr. Myers believes that the mass news media makes the young smarter. "Kids in the fifth and sixth grades learn things today that I hadn't been exposed to until I was a Senior. The only problem now is to learn how to use this intelligence."

Of his twenty-two years work with teenagers, Mr. Myers believes that the group he is working with now has been the best.

As a result, we find that to ask Mr. Myers about young people is like asking a Mathematician about fractions - he is very experienced and interested in the subject.

MOGUL BAND RATES AVERAGE

By MARY KANE
A season full of hard work and determination led the Mogul Band to its ultimate goal at the marching contest last Tuesday in Wichita Falls.

The band broke even after contending in the stiff competition with other Class A high schools, as it received a rating of "3".

This rating placed the band in the average category. Knowing that they are above average, the band members have already started preparing for the next contest, which takes place at the end of the year.

The work that they are putting into this effort shows that "3" they received was only the beginning as they are planning a great comeback which supporters will admire.

also active in basketball, tennis, volleyball, and track.

Willing and able in scholastics, athletics, and leadership, Becky shows overwhelming promise in being a valuable part of any environment she may enter in the course of her life. At this time, MHS considers itself lucky in having such a responsible person in its school system.

DEBBIE THOMPSON

DEBBIE THOMPSON CLOCKS FIVE YEARS

By LINDA FETSCH
Cheerleaders are known as being energetic at pep rallies and football games, but proof of one as being always active is seen by Debbie Thompson, a Sophomore of MHS.

Debbie was a cheerleader for four years in junior high, and this is her first year as a cheerleader of MHS.
Of course, working in sports is usually a pretty active thing, but Debbie not only has participated in basketball, but also girls' track, since her junior high years.

Way back in elementary, Debbie remembers her Girl Scout activities, and in junior high she joined the local 4-H Club.

One summer she even worked as a Volunteer at the rest home.

Now one can see that cheerleaders are not just active on the football field and at pep rallies.

QUIET MISS AROUSES SPIRIT

By STEPHANIA FERNANDEZ
She's a quiet girl by nature, but as Pep rallies and football games come around, her shouts bring about a trail of spirit. This describes Junior Becky Ratliff, one of MHS's five delightful cheerleaders.

Although this is only her first year in her role as cheerleader, Becky has proved to be a very efficient and trustworthy young lady.

In addition to this position in MHS, Becky is FTA and Student Council Vice-President, a National Honor Society officer, and a member of the Annual Staff. Her scholastic ability has shown through in that she received the Spanish Merit Award her Sophomore year and has had the highest average in her class for two years. She is great professional joined the Mogul Band? A closer look shows that the so-called "pro" is Mickey Stoddard, an MHS sophomore, up to his delightful tricks with the trumpet.

You would figure that he likes jazz or other related music, but Mickey reveals that Country and Western is his favorite. He names "Warmth of the Wine", "His and Hers", and "The Other Woman" as the top hits in his list.
About his goal in life? Mickey believes that it is to live for God, and he is achieving this goal by living everyday.

By LINDA FETSCH

"Besides band, in what activities do you take part?" Well, Paula Pendleton comes up with a list as long as your arm, including basketball, tennis, volleyball, persuasive speaking, and Mogul Staff.

With all these things to keep her busy, Paula still finds time to practice on her trumpet for the MHS Band, mostly because she has a love for music, besides having the talent.

She likes Country and Western music as well as some rock groups.

Her favorite groups are Creedence Clearwater Revival, Blood, Sweat & Tears, and Chicago.

Individual performers turn her on, such as David Houston, Conway Twitty, and Lynn Anderson.

Paula's main goal in life is to "be happy and content," and to achieve this goal she is doing "a lot of laughing."

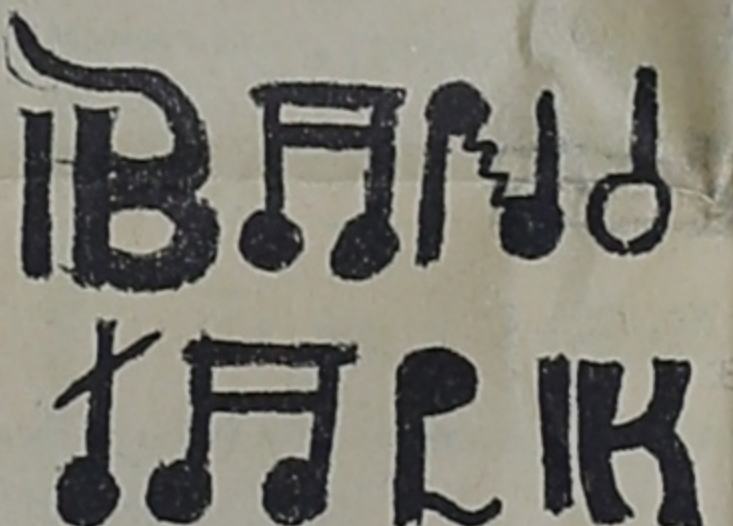

MHS SENIOR Paula Pendleton gives a big smile for the camera after she says that to be happy and content one needs a lot of laughing.

FIRST GRADE "EARTH PATROL" TAKES OVER

By LINDA FETSCH
Have you ever heard of the "Earth Patrol"? No? Well, let Mrs. Ina Cowan's first grade educate you on this clean-up campaign.

First of all, they will relate to you, the fact that one should leave Earth in a better condition than one finds it. This is the main point they will and do try to enforce on the playground, in the lunch room, or in the classroom, "Do not litter."

For example, no matter who litters the playground with candy wrappers, the Earth Patrol is willing to beautify it by picking the paper up and giving it a free ride to the nearest trash can.

Where did first graders get such an up-to-date suggestion for helping the community? The class will say from the "Weekly Reader", which is coming up with new projects every time the students turn around.

Mrs. Cowan states, "The children are doing beautifully in this clean-up campaign. It gives them worldwide understanding, even though their part of it is taking place locally."

To emphasize the importance of being a member of Earth Patrol, the class has a bulletin board with name tags of all the first grade members on it, surrounding a picture of "Buddy The Bear" throwing paper into a trash receptacle.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray L. Hardin and Donna attended the Tech-TCU football game last Saturday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Hardin. Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Demel and Marty visited in the Ronnie Hardin home. The Ray Hardins returned home Sunday evening.

November Is Rice Month

Austin - Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White has announced that November is rice month in the Lone Star State. During this period, TAP (Texas Agricultural Products) will promote rice as one of Texas' top foods. The Texas Department of Agriculture will team up with the Rice Council for market development to call the housewife's attention to this product.

Considered our most versatile food product because of its use as a breakfast cereal, vegetable, main dish, and dessert, rice is produced in 21 counties, mainly along the Gulf Coast area. This area is bounded by Orange, Hardin, and Liberty counties on the north and in the south by Calhoun and Victoria counties.

An important export crop, rice is a strong economic force. Last year, Texas lead the nation in rice production, with 2 1/2 billion pounds produced on more than 550,000 acres. Farmers received in excess of 100 million dollars in gross receipts last year.

This is the third consecutive year that the TAP marketing program will work with all segments of the rice industry to promote rice as a food. The TDA's marketing division sends out news releases, radio and television spot announcements and places posters in about 14,000 food stores throughout the state in efforts to inform the consumers about the high quality of Texas-grown rice.

Marcus Mauritz, chairman of the Rice Council, said "The council promotes rice year round throughout the nation and around the world, and we especially want every person in Texas to know the many ways to use this versatile food product."
