Officials Will Be Chosen Saturday

Candidates Make Final Pleas To Voters Saturday

Saturday was a big day for candidates in Munday, as there were many farmers in town on that day and it gave the many candidates who were here an opportunity to meet them and solicit their support at the polls next Saturday.

In the evening a general gathering was held on the lawn at the city hall and was attended by several hundred citizens who listened attentively to the talks of the various candidates as they presented their claims. J. S. Kendall presided over the meeting and introduced the various speakers. The principal address of the evening was delivered by T. R. (Dun) Boone, Wichita Falls attorney, who spoke in the interest of the candidacy of Tom F. Hunter for Governor, and who devoted a major portion of his attention to an assault on the record of Gov. Sterling, especially condemning him of curtailing oil production in the East Texas oil fields and charging that his actions in dealing with the oil production problem had been influenced or dictated by the major oil companies and had resulted in the destruction of many independent oil operators. He also scored Gov. Sterling's highway commission and charged that thousands of dollars had been squandered by the commission in needless work and excessive salaries to employees.

Fireworks was injected into the otherwise peaceful meeting when Jas. A. Stephens of Benjamin asked for a few minutes time to speak in the interest of Hon. Ed Murphy for Railroad Commissioner, and following his remarks in behalf of Mr. Murphy he took occasion to direct some criticism toward Attorney General James V. Allred. His criticism of Allred brought J. S. Kendall to his feet with a strong denunciation of Stephens for having deviated from his announced intention of speaking for Murphy, and he paid his respects to Judge Stephens in strong language.

The various candidates for county and district offices and on down to precinct offices presented their claims for office and despite the fact that the speakers continued well into the night the audience remained and gave the speakers close and courteous attention.

State-Owned Cars Being Used For Making Campaign

July 18th, 1932.
Mr. J. A. Kennedy,
Editor Munday Times
Munday, Texas.

Dear Sir:
It has repeatedly come to me, that some of the State officials running for re-election were using State Owned Cars for distributing their propaganda. Today a young man came into my office in the interest of C. V. Terrell who is running for re-election on the Railroad Commission and handed me one of his cards. I proceeded to follow him, and he got in a State Owned car with the Railroad Commission's insignia and number thereon, and another young man was with him. Then there appeared one of the State employees, a man giving the name as H. W. Barton of Wichita Falls, and the writer proceeded to question him in the presence of J. D. Kethley and W. H. Chapman near the postoffice, Munday, Texas. He admitted to the writer that it was a State Owned car, it bore a State License tag denoting it to be free from taxes, and belonging to the State, with the Railroad Commission Sign in Green letters on each of the doors. The man Barton stated to the writer that he was off on his vacation and was distributing literature for this named candidate.

I am ready and willing to make an affidavit of the above facts and the two gentlemen named above will concur in the above statement.

It seems to the writer that this one act would dam any candidate in the eyes of the voters of Knox County, and for that matter the State. If this man was on his vacation as stated, then does the State of Texas have to furnish its employees with a new car, licensed exempted, to take their vacation in. Do you get to take a vacation in your own car. I am frank to state that I do not believe any man that will take advantage of the conditions as existing in that way is worthy to hold any office within the

Election Returns Will Be Received Saturday Evening

Election returns will be received and posted here Saturday evening and those who are interested in the returns will know at the earliest possible time how the ballots are falling. Telephone service will be depended upon to gather returns from the county and district races, while state returns will be received over the radio. No arrangements have been made this year to receive returns from the Texas Election Bureau, as has been the custom in the past, as it is believed that returns will be broadcast over the radio as early as any thing definite can be gathered from over the state.

Rhineland And Rochester Tie For First Place

By losing to Goree Sunday afternoon Rhineland lost its claim on first place for the first half of the season, for while they were taking a drubbing from Skipper Forest Daniels outfit, Rochester was taking the big end of the score with Knox City, and as a result of Sunday's game Rhineland and Rochester are on even terms, each having won 11 out of the 14 games played during the first half of the season, while closed with Sunday's games, and as a result of the tie, a play-off series will be played to determine the winner for the first half.

At a meeting of the league on Monday evening here representatives of the two teams discussed the play-off series and have tentatively agreed that the games will be played during the first week in August, and will consist of three games, the first of which will be played at Rochester, the second at Rhineland, and the third, if necessary on neutral grounds. No definite arrangement has yet been agreed upon as to dates but they will likely be played on Thursday, Friday and Saturday during the first week in August.

At Monday night's meeting it was agreed that the mid-week games, which had been originally planned for the last half would not necessarily have to be played during the first two weeks of the second half, as many of the players are busy in the harvest fields or otherwise engaged in farm work that will demand their time until the crops are further along, and games omitted during these weeks may be played at any time during the remainder of the season at the option of the teams involved.

Rhineland Hears Political Claim of Office Seekers

Candidates for district, county and precinct offices on Monday night presented their claims to the voters of the Rhineland community at Rhineland, at which gathering practically all of the candidates for these various offices were present and made brief talks. Again at Rhineland the fireworks broke loose when James A. Stephens of Benjamin spoke in behalf of the candidacy of Clem Calhoun for Attorney General, and was followed by J. S. Kendall of Munday, who is equally enthusiastic over the candidacy of James V. Allred for re-election. Indeed there seems to be quite a variance between the opinions of the two distinguished Knox county attorneys with reference to the fitness of these candidates, and their appearance on the program represents about all the crossfire in these meetings, as all county and district candidates are steering clear of personalities and are contenting themselves with brief outlines of their platforms.

gift of the people. I have no brief for any particular candidate, but you can rest assured that I will never vote for a man that is using state property to further his private interests. Let us turn this man out to graze with the dry cattle.

Munday Takes Big End In Opening Game Last Half

Munday got off to a good start toward its coveted goal of winning the last half by defeating Rochester Wednesday afternoon on their own grounds to the tune of 8-9. The little trick was turned in by Joe Bailey King, who is going to be relied upon by Skipper Purton to do much of the pitching during the last half of the season. Munday registered 13 hits off the left feigns of Pitman, while Rochester gathered only 5 off King.

Cecil Jennings, Munday's second baseman, was out of the game after the fifth inning by an injury, which he sustained when he ran into a low wire in an effort to catch a ball. He was rushed to the hospital at Knox City where an x-ray revealed that he had suffered a dislocation joint and will likely be out of the game for some time, however, the boys carried on with the aid of Thomas and the shifting of the players.

Following is the box-score of the game:

Thinking Out Loud

By J. A. K.

TOL TOL TOL TOL OLOL

After Saturday some of the candidates who have been engaged in the campaign for the past few weeks can go back to their jobs and forget about it.

Some of them will probably return to their usual activities with less faith in mankind, for there are always those who, after feeling confident of victory, feel there are a lot of liars in the county.

T. O. L. decided a long time ago that he was a poor political prognosticator, and has therefore made no effort to forecast who will be who in the election.

However, T. O. L. makes the prediction that there are going to be some political up-sets in state politics this year, without saying what they are going to be. That's a safe prediction most any election year.

Anyway, there's one candidate on the ticket who hasn't lost any sleep over the outcome of the election, and that's E. B. Davy, who is a candidate for chairman of the County Executive committee.

We didn't say Democratic Executive committee, for the reason that everybody knows that Gramp Davy is a Simon-pure Democrat—yes, he is even one of those old-fashioned Tennessee Democrats who never knew that "dem" and "Republican" were two separate and distinct words until he emigrated to Texas and cut his way through the underbrush to Hickory creek in East Texas.

And voters should beware of last-minute campaign stories. Often reports are circulated reflecting upon the integrity of candidates which would not stand investigation, and as all candidates have had ample time to air any facts that they might have in their possession, don't be misled by misrepresentations at the last minute.

President Hoover has voluntarily cut his salary 20 per cent and we Democrats are going to take away the other 80 per cent next November.

Rev. C. A. Tucker Will Hold Meeting Next Week At Sunset

A week's meeting will be conducted at Sunset, beginning with services Sunday night, by the Rev. C. A. Tucker, pastor of the Presbyterian churches at Munday and Haskell. The services will be conducted at the school building and will be at night only, at 8:30, and a cordial invitation is extended to everyone.

Pioneer Citizen - Fatally Injured In Auto Accident

Henry Coody, 68, pioneer Knox county ranchman, died in the Knox County Hospital at Knox City at an early hour Friday morning from injuries received some two hours before on Saturday about four miles south of Munday.

Coody, together with a young man, stopped their car to make repairs, when they had tire trouble and had Coody was said to have been engaged in jacking up the rear of the car when his companion warned him of the approach of a car and in response to the warning Coody is said to have walked toward the left side of the pavement, and Lee Haney and James Rayburn, occupants of the approaching car, state that they made an effort to avoid hitting him and in their effort to do so they clipped the Coody car and hit the road man.

Mr. Haney came to town in a passing car and summoned medical aid for the injured man and after receiving first aid treatment here he was rushed to the County Hospital at Knox City in an ambulance. Both Haney and Rayburn received minor injuries and both cars were wrecked.

Deceased was one of the pioneer citizens of Knox county and had for many years been engaged in ranching in the Benjamin country, and was well known as an ardent lover of rodeo events. He was among the pioneers to participate in the annual Cowboy's Reunion at Stamford.

Funeral services were conducted at Benjamin late Friday afternoon. He is survived by Mrs. Coody and six children, Walter Coody of Truscott, Buck Coody of the Waggoner ranch near Vernon, Mrs. Myrtle Minzer of Benjamin and three younger children at home.

Miniature Baseball Newest Sport To Be Introduced To Fans

Miniature baseball is something new in Munday, and local enthusiasts have arranged a diamond on the south side of the Wm. Cameron lumber yard and have installed a lighting system which makes it possible to play the game at night, and with the opening of the grounds on Monday night an interesting game was played between the Munday regulars and a railroad team sponsored by Hoyle Barnes. The score of these games resemble more the national debt than they do a baseball score, but fans are enthusiastic over the game and many local enthusiasts have been going to Knox City to play the game having proven a most enjoyable pastime there for several weeks past.

E. L. Covey Makes Final Appeal To Voters of County

As the election draws near I wish to take this method of making a final solicitation of your vote. While I have tried to see the voters of the county personally, I have been unable to see all the voters, due to the fact that I have had to continue my business and devote much of my time to same, but I have not intentionally missed anyone, and I hope that everyone who reads this will take it as a personal solicitation of your vote, and I promise you that should you honor me with the office of Tax Assessor of Knox county I shall give my very best efforts toward making you a faithful and efficient officer.

Respectfully submitted,
E. L. COVEY.

Long State List But County Has But Few Contests

Saturday, the voters of Texas will go to the polls and select their officers for the coming two years. The ticket printed for this county is one of the longest ever used by the voters here. The list of State candidates is the longest ever known in Texas.

The ticket for Knox county shows fewer candidates for county offices than we usually have here. There are only four contested county offices and in each of these places are to be found only two candidates. All other county officers are standing for reelection without opposition, show a total of 18 candidates for county Commissioners. There are four in the Goree-Munday precinct, four in the Benjamin-Vera precinct, five in the Knox City precinct and five in the Gilliland-Truscott precinct. It will likely require a run-off to determine the winners in the commissioner races.

All county places will be settled in the Saturday election as there are not more than two candidates for any position.

All holders of poll tax receipts and those who are above sixty years of age and who have become 21 years of age since January 1, 1931, will be eligible to vote.

Goree Wins From Rhineland 14 to 0

The game here Sunday between Goree and Rhineland was the best attended game that has been played in the local park this year. And while both teams put some hard playing, the results were a great surprise to most of the fans.

The 14 to 0 count against Rhineland did not indicate the same type of playing that Rhineland has been doing all the year. However, the score does not truly indicate the real game. It could not be regarded as a "rotten" game. The visitors made too many errors and they were punched just at points that counted for the Goree players. Then the Goree hard-hitting sluggers were on their toes every minute and made their hits count.

Neale Moore pitched one of the best games that has been played here this year, allowing the visitors only six hits, and no hits after the third inning. It was a great game despite the one-sided appearance of the score card.

To My Friends And Voters of Commissioner Precinct No. 1

I am asking your vote and influence in Saturday's election for Commissioner. You are interested in your candidate's views and methods in the discharge of his official duties.

If I am elected to serve you, it will be my sincere effort to look to the interest of the tax payers and curtailment of any expense not absolutely necessary for the county operations.

I am conscious of the need to relieve the citizens of any extra burden of taxation and believe the tax rate and valuation should be reduced in every instance. I believe in equitable distribution of road funds.

C. V. TERRELL
OF WISE COUNTY
Candidate for His Second Full Term as Railroad Commissioner

Mr. Terrell is asking for a second full term on his record, which is in part as follows:

During his term of office, the Commission has turned back into the General Revenue Fund more than $500,000.00.

They have tried more than fifteen thousand cases, with only four reversals, a record unsurpassed by any similar body in the United States.

Mr. Terrell was the first state official to use the half time job plan, thus helping a number of boys and girls through school, who could not have gone otherwise.

He has never indulged in a mud slinging campaign, believing that "One can never elevate himself by trying to pull the other fellow down."

When Mr. Terrell was elected to his first full term, which he is now serving, he carried 224 of the 256 counties in this great State, which was a large majority over his two honorable opponents.

Only a few of the many things which Mr. Terrell has accomplished can be mentioned, due to the limited space. However, it is believed that his faithful discharge of public duty in the past is the best guarantee of a promise to perform a like service in the future.

How to play Bridge AUCTION and CONTRACT
by Wynne Ferguson
Author of "PRACTICAL AUCTION BRIDGE"

Copyright, 1931, by Horik, Jr.

ARTICLE No. 10

Contract, as the name implies, allows the player to score towards game only the number of tricks he has bid. For example, if a player bids two spades and makes four, he can only score two, the number bid, and the remaining two tricks are scored in his honor column at 50 per trick. This rule makes it necessary for players to bid for game every hand, whether their opponents overbid or not, provided, of course, these hands warrant a try for game.

As a result, there are no "dead" hands at Contract where one player, for example, bids one heart and all pass as occurs very frequently at Auction. When one side holds all the cards there is no need to be plenty of action whether opponents bid or not. The lucky side may bid for game if they want it and can feel sure of game, they have the still further incentive of trying for "game." At Contract a little slam, if bid and made, scores 500 points if not vulnerable and 750 points if vulnerable and a big slam, if bid and made, scores 1000 points if not vulnerable and 1500 points if vulnerable. As a result of these large bonuses, the effort to bid and make slams offers one of the exciting features of Contract.

In the regular game of Auction you may bid for game and then with a weak bid. It costs very little but in Contract you'll find it very expensive. For instance, in Contract you bid one trump with just an ordinary thin 5-4 trump. What will happen? If second hand passes, your partner may have gone in for a good no trump. Your partner will of course bid you up; he may be justified in bidding three no trumps. Think of the wallop you'll get if it's doubled. You have no place to go, and oh, boy, wallop in Contract a suit heavily against you.

It's the ambition of all Auction and Contract players to become experts, but it is really surprising how little real work they are willing to do to accomplish this result. There are probably two million people in the country today who play Auction or Contract and yet not five per cent of them ever buy a book on either game and, if they do, it usually is placed carefully in the bookcase and never opened.

But if you will not read a book on the game, you will derive much benefit from a study of the various hands that are analyzed in these articles and, if you keep at it, you are bound to improve your game; and if you learn to play a little better than your associates, you will win, even without the ace and kings. As one player described the game of a well-known expert: "The boy certainly knows how to play 'em."

He doesn't get much to work with, but he can sure make sevens and eights act like kings and queens.

We cannot all be experts but we can certainly improve our game; and one of the best ways to do so is to study over the analysis of the test hands given in these articles. Every one of such hands will bring up points of play or bidding that, if properly understood, will be invaluable. These hands have all been submitted to the writer for analysis and came up in actual play. Study them over and make up your mind as to the correct bid or play in each instance. When the analysis is given, compare your opinion with the writer's and, if there is any difference, think it over and then adapt yourself and your game accordingly. Handled in this way, test hands will prove invaluable.

There is one point in the play of a hand that some of the good players don't always follow, and yet is generally a consistent winner. When the declarer has won the declaration at a suit and you have four or more trumps, open your long suit. With four or more trumps, there is always a possibility of being able to establish your long suit and break up the declarer's hand by forcing him to trump your established suit. For example, hearts are trumps and your holding is as follows:

Hearts—Q, 9, 6, 5
Clubs—A, K, 7, 6, 5
Diamonds—Q, 6, 2
Spades—10

With such a hand, it is much better to open the club suit than to lead the singleton spade. Suppose you have bid clubs and your partner has supported the bid. You lead the suit and the declarer is forced to trump. Even if he has six hearts, he can only lead two rounds of trumps. If he leads three rounds, you can win the third round with the queen and force him to trump again.

Then it takes his last trump to draw yours and, if your partner can take a trick in the other suits, the declarer cannot score game. If the declarer has only five trumps but great strength in your singleton suit, the lead of your strong suit would beat him, but the lead of your singleton up to his strong suit would give him an advantage that would enable him to score game. The singleton lead is always a gamble and is seldom a winning play, unless holding three trumps. With a strong suit and four trumps, the long suit lead is much the better. Watch this play and, when you understand the theory of it, you will be a much better player.

THE SMALL CITY. . .

A Pacemaker of Progress

More and more the signs point to the greater importance of the small and medium-sized community.

We are proud of the part electric power is playing in laying the groundwork for this greater progress and prosperity.

Gone is the day when the larger metropolitan centers had a monopoly of power supply, the first essential of industrial growth and development.

Widespread networks of transmission lines have given the smaller communities the same high-grade electric service as the larger cities have.

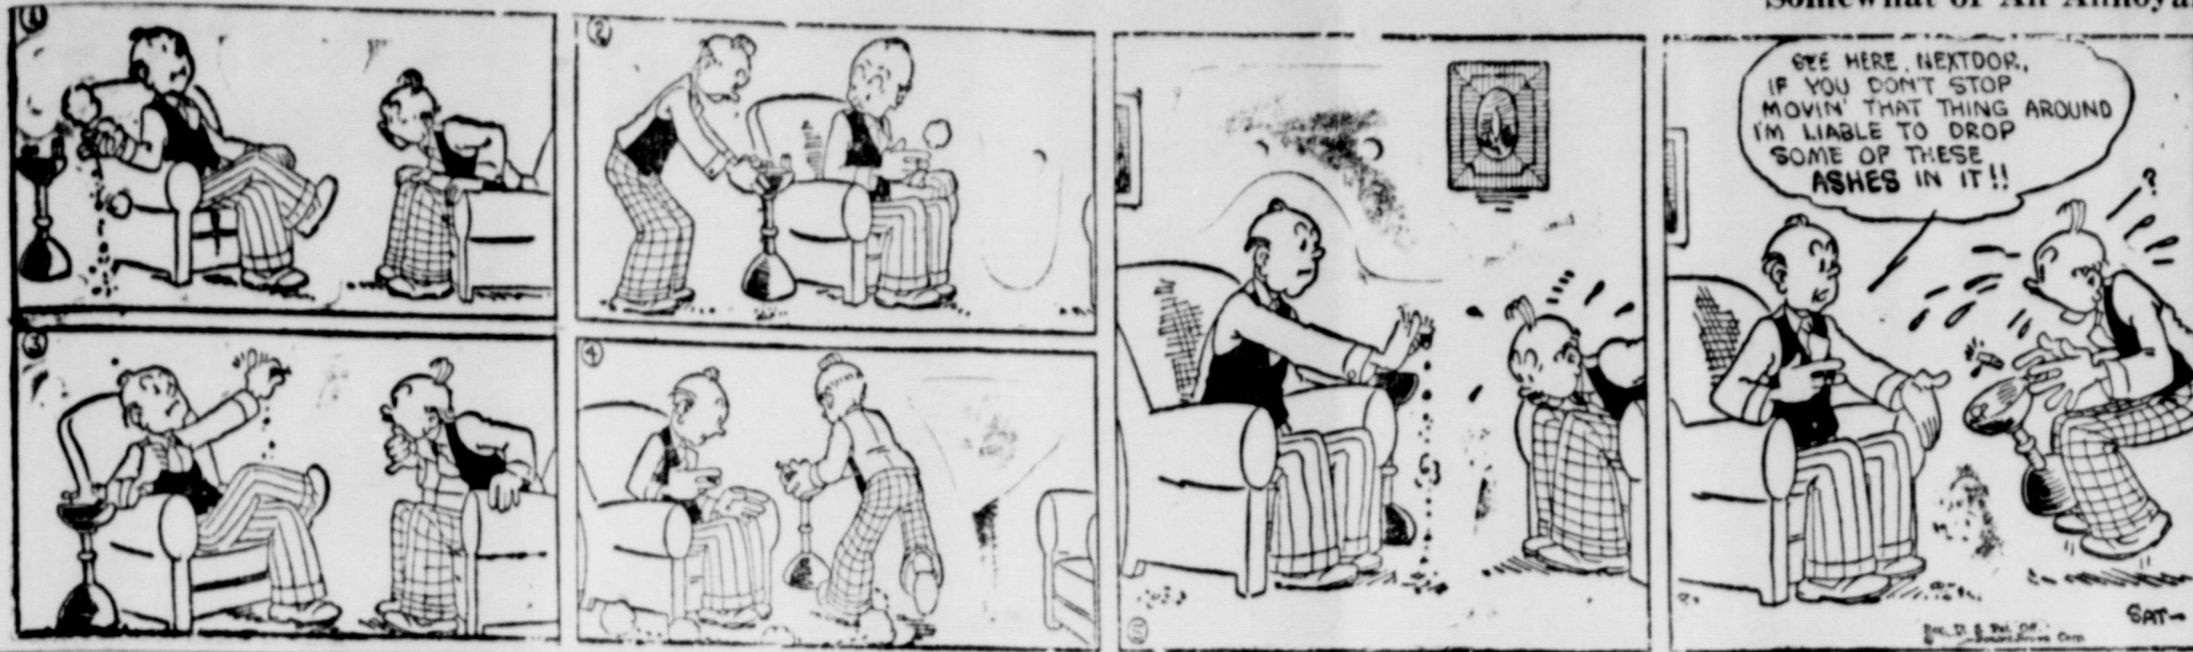

On this firm basis, industries are increasingly recognizing the advantages of location in small communities.

This trend will react most favorably to West Texas, the "Land of Opportunity"—efficiently, dependably and inexpensively served by the West Texas Utilities Company.

Do you know that your increased use of Electric Service is billed on a surprisingly low rate schedule . . . and adds only a small amount to your total bill?

Buffalo Bill Rides Into New Glory in Film

Great Western Hero Recreated in Big Western Serial Called "Batting with Buffalo Bill"
 At last the beloved character of Buffalo Bill is recreated for the talking screen. In a setting of rousing Indian battles, blazing guns, romance, and action, Universal's serial-thriller, "Batting with Buffalo Bill," opens at the Roxy Theatre in the first of its twelve chapters, "Captured by Red Skins."

The cast, reported as one of the most expensive ever corralled for a chapter play, includes the virile Western star, Tom Tyler, in the role of Buffalo Bill; lovely Lucile Browne, Rex Bell, William Desmond, Francis Ford, Jim Thorpe, the great Indian athlete; Yakima Canutt, and the distinguished Cheyenne Chief Thunder Bird.

Based on William F. Coody's "The Great West that Was," the picturization of the red-blooded Buffalo Bill's adventures are said to retain all of their thrills in the screen play which Henry M. Rae wrote. Ray Taylor, the man who filmed "Danger Island," "The Scarlet Arrow," and a host of adventure pictures, was the director of this serial. The Cheyenne-Blackfoot Indian battles are impressively brought into the film as the fearless Buffalo Bill rides again, and as pretty Lu-

TEXAS RAILROADS PAY SUBSTANTIAL PART OF STATE'S TAX BURDEN

● Taxes is one of the large fixed charges connected with the operation of Texas railroads. From the standpoint of the welfare of state, counties and communities, railroad taxes are of much importance. This annual obligation must be met from the earning capacity of the rail carriers.

In 1931 the railroads of Texas paid a total of $8,303,108.47 in federal, state, county, municipal and miscellaneous taxes. The distribution of this amount to the various tax funds is shown below:

	Amount Paid	Per Cent of Total Tax Paid
U. S. Government.....	$ 61,270.13	.74
State.....	1,954,435.47	23.54
County.....	1,146,669.97	13.81
Roads.....	1,699,764.15	20.47
Improvement Districts.....	175,606.87	2.12
Schools.....	1,437,152.74	17.31
Cities.....	1,792,994.61	21.59
Miscellaneous.....	35,214.59	.42
Total.....	$8,303,108.47	100.00

It can thus be seen that railroad taxes represent an important and indispensable factor in the economic life of our state. They help in a large measure to pay the expense of our state, county and municipal government, build and maintain highways, pay the cost of drainage and other improvements, and support our schools and educational institutions.

It is the desire of Texas railroads to extend this helpfulness to Texas counties and communities in carrying this heavy burden. However, their ability to meet these obligations as they become due depends upon their ability to earn sufficient revenue with which to pay this and other heavy expenses connected with their operation.

● RAILROADS HAVE ALWAYS SHOULDERED THEIR SHARE OF RESPONSIBILITIES TO THE NATION, THE STATE, AND THE CITIES AND COMMUNITIES THEY SERVE, AND WILL CONTINUE TO DO SO TO THE EXTENT OF THEIR ABILITY.

THE ROAD IS LONG, COMING BACK

The only thing that keeps most of us from realizing our own possibilities and of getting the highest satisfaction out of life is fear. There are very few human beings in the world who are not afraid of something, and as long as one is afraid of anything he cannot achieve perfect happiness.

Primitive man must have lived in a state of almost constant terror. He was afraid of wild beasts, afraid of enemies of other tribes, afraid of lightning and thunder, afraid of evil spirits that lurked in the darkness of the forest, of real dangers and of unreal dangers which he imagined. Very few people in these days have the perfectly natural physical fears that surrounded the lives of our ancestors, at-who-of us has not a some mental fear, fear of something that has not happened but which we think may happen to ourselves or our loved ones?

In the past two or three years the people of the United States have been the prey of a new kind of fear. They have been afraid that, in the popular phrase, the bottom had dropped out of everything. They have feared that never again would they have a job, that the factories that have shut down would never start up, that they would never be able to sell the products of their farms—those and a thousand other fears which have no relation to common sense or reality seemed to take possession of perhaps the majority of Americans.

And that is one of the reasons we have been slow in coming back from the economic crisis. We have been afraid to use our intelligence and common sense and go ahead when everybody else was afraid to do anything but wait until conditions as they are and wait until, suddenly, some reverse than they are.

We see signs that this winter fear is beginning to disappear. We do not believe it ever had any real foundation, and we believe people are waking up to that fact. If we are right, and hope and courage are beginning to replace fear, then we have made a good start toward the return of good times.

Following a prolonged illness of several weeks, medical advisers have ordered Ora Lee Floyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Floyd of the Sun-

Who May Vote Without Paying A Poll Tax

It seems that there has been some misunderstanding as to the age of those who may vote in the Democratic primary without a poll tax receipt. For that reason we give the ruling of the Attorney General of Texas on the subject.

All who have become 21 years of age since January 1, 1931, may vote in the 1932 primary and general election without a poll tax receipt. This may seem just a little confusing if one's 21st birthday was early in last year, but even if his or her present age is 22 the law would permit them to vote without a poll tax receipt.

Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Rogers and daughters, Mrs. Bernard Stodghill and Mrs. Doris Rogers left Wednesday for Silveston to visit Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Swett.
