Hailstorm Does Big Damage Here Monday

Gardens Destroyed and Roofs Badly Damaged By Hailstones and Rain

One of the heaviest hailstorms ever witnessed in this section fell here Monday afternoon and as a result gardens were leveled to the ground and composition roofs in the business section of the city were damaged to the extent of several hundreds of dollars. Harvey Hill, who keeps an accurate rain gauge, reports that the rainfall amounted to 1.70 inches, which fell within a period of not more than thirty minutes. The rain was local, extending only about five miles west of Munday and only a short distance to the south. The cloud approached from the north-west. While the damage to gardens was regrettable, the excellent season that it gives the farmers within its path will more than remunerate for the damage done. While the hail was the heaviest that has ever fallen here, according to many old timers, it was small and this fact accounts for the fact that no greater damage was done. So great was the accumulation of hailstones in many places that they were still banked in various places the following day and immediately following the storm the ground was as white as if a snow had fallen.

Constable Sam Favor and Commissioner Will Griffith of Knox City were in the city Thursday morning.

Jim Pendleton Dies In Wichita Hospital After Long Illness

After an illness extending over a period of almost two years, Jim Pendleton, pioneer cotton buyer of Munday and Farmersville, Texas, died on Friday afternoon of last week in a Wichita Falls hospital, where he underwent an operation, which was one of a number he has undergone during his long illness. Stricken with pneumonia some two years ago, complications arose which made his recovery a matter of doubt at the time. However, through his grim determination to win over the ravages of the illness from which he suffered, he succeeded in staying off the grim reaper at that time, and during the past fall he had been active in the cotton business here, despite the fact that he suffered almost continuously. However, through all his suffering he has borne the broad expansive smile and maintained the same jovial attitude that has always characterized his life, and while local friends knew of his serious condition, his death brought forth universal expressions of sorrow and regret here.

Munday Takes Opener From Hakell; Hamlin And Rule Also Win

If hitting the ball will win ball games the Munday team should be a contender for high honors in the newly formed Wichita Valley League, for they demonstrated their ability to pound the horse hide to all parts of the park here Sunday afternoon in their opening game against Hakell. The visitors used three pitchers in their efforts to stem the tide, but the Munday aggregation just kept on pounding the ball until they had accumulated a total of 12 tallies, while the visitors had garnered only 5. Leo Kuehler led in the hitting, getting a hit in each of his four visits to bat and every man on the line-up registered from one to four hits, totaling 17 hits, while the visitors were allowed only ten off Joseph Bailey King, who went the entire route for Munday. King was wild and allowed a number of walks. Bartlett, Allred and Bradley pitched for Hakell.

While Munday was taking the opener here Hamlin defeated Stamford 7-1 and Rule defeated Gorse 7-6.

Where they play Sunday: Munday at Stamford, Hamlin at Gorse, Rule at Hakell.

Abilene Christian College and Simmons University of Abilene have both announced that they will give a scholarship to the winner. The announcements were made by President James F. Fox of Abilene Christian College, and President J. D. Sandifer of the Simmons University. The Simmons scholarship has a cash value of one hundred twenty dollars according to Sandifer.

CORRECTION

In last week's Times we made a couple of errors in our baseball article. We omitted a contribution of $2.00 made by the Home Bakery, and included in the list of contributors the name of Lee Haney when it should have been Lee Haymes. We make this correction in justice to all concerned.

Association Head of All Advertising Agencies

JOHN BENSON—NEW YORK

As President of the American Association of Advertising Agencies, Mr. Benson is easily the outstanding advertising man in the world today. This is the first time he has agreed to address a state press association group and our Texas members are very fortunate that they may hear him at the Texas Press Association Houston convention, June 8th. Texas business men are invited to attend and listen to Mr. Benson's views on advertising the business world today.

MUNDAY H. D. CLUB

The Munday Home Demonstration Club met at the club house on April 14th at which time the study was on financing the county government, and the subject was interestingly discussed by a number of those present, which included Mesdames, Hobart, Bowley, Lansford, Reneau, Parker, Jones, Weeks, Hill, Pruitt, Matlock, Harrison and Browning. The next meeting will be on April 28th and the subject will be bedroom improvement. Let's all be present. —Reporter.

Tips on Taxes

LEGISLATIVE NEWS SERVICE OF THE TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION, AUSTIN

Austin—The Forty-third Legislature, now nearing the close of its regular session, will likely reduce the costs of state government from 25 to 30 per cent. Up to the present time it has created no new commissions or bureaus and levied no important new taxes. Every branch of the State government has had its budget reduced. Equally important is the passage of legislation designed to stop tax evasions, and to provide penalties that will insure more effective enforcement of special taxes, such as the cigarette and gross production taxes. The Comptroller estimates that at least $5,000,000 in these special taxes, which has been lost through inadequate enforcement facilities, will be saved and added to State revenues.

There are two constitutional amendments pending, which if adopted, will be of far-reaching importance. One would arbitrarily limit total expenditures of the State and the other would abolish the fee system of compensating county officials and make for lowering the tremendous costs of county government, which averages much higher than State government. The first of these amendments has passed the Senate and the second has passed the House. Prospects of their submission seem good, but citizens can do a real service by urging the submission of these two amendments.

In spite of failure to adequately meet conditions in many respects, the present session of the Legislature may be counted a success, if it adheres to its present apparent purpose to levy new taxes and cut expenses and also submits these two amendments. These amendments will open the way for permanent tax reform and provide effective safeguards against recurrence of the recent orgy of spending by all branches of government.

Appropriations for expenses of the Legislature were approximately $500,000. This represents a reduction of about 30 per cent below the cost of the regular sessions since the pay of legislators was increased by constitutional amendment. The Senate voted to make the pay of members $8 per day, instead of $10. The House refused to concur and fixed salaries of House members at $10 and Senators at $8. It is impossible to give the total cost of the session. It may be prolonged beyond the four months and thus necessitate an additional appropriation for salaries of members and other expenses. The effort to again bring up a

Largest Advertising Space Buyer in Texas Papers

A. F. BAUMGARTNER—CINCINNATI

As President of the Thompson-Koch Advertising Agency, Cincinnati, Mr. Baumgartner is easily the outstanding advertising figure to Texas newspaper men at this time. Each year, this man's "say so" either places or keeps out of your paper a portion of the $15,000,000 credited as being placed annually by this agency. This agency is reputed as being hard bargainers for space, but when once contracted for are pleasant business associates. Meet him at the Houston convention of the Texas Press Association, June 8th.

sales tax bill has failed for the time being. The House committee on revenue and taxation gave an adverse report on the Kayser bill, which differed somewhat from the administration sales tax bill, killed earlier in the session. It is regarded as doubtful whether the bill has a chance of being brought out on a minority report.

The House took up the higher education appropriation bill last week and made drastic cuts in salaries and other items, going below the reductions already approved by the appropriations committee. This is the last of the major appropriation bills. Senate figures in the appropriation bills average higher than House figures and differences are being compromised in conference.

Despite the fact that State support of public schools has increased more than other costs of government and has far out-run the increases in taxable wealth and population, a demand for continued liberal support of approximately the same level as during the years of prosperity for public schools is being made. Since 1920 school population has increased 26 per cent, taxable wealth 20 per cent and State school support 150 per cent.

Thirty-Seven Students In Line To Complete Courses In Munday High

Old Time Square Dance to be Feature Of W. T. C. C. Meet

Big Spring, April 26—There is going to be plenty of entertainment going on at the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Convention in Big Spring May 11, 12, 13, after and between working hours. Dr. M. H. Bennett is chairman of the committee on entertainment. Working with him in planning the entertainment features are Ray Simmons, Edmund Nostine, W. B. Hardy and Tom Davis. The committee is already actively engaged in planning its program which promises to surpass all entertainment features of conventions of several years back. Chairman Bennett says that the committee cannot announce all the entertainment features yet, but that visitors can be assured they will have plenty of different kinds of entertainment after the working hours of the convention. "We are not going to stage any entertainment while the convention business program is going on, but after it, there will be plenty of variety—entertainment of all sorts. For one thing we are going to have four big dances each night of the convention. One of them is going to be an old time square dance.

With thirty-seven candidates for graduation at the close of the present school year the Munday High School will in all probability issue the largest number of diplomas in the history of the school. The list of students scheduled to receive their diplomas contains fifteen boys and twenty-two girls as follows: Boys—Doris Dickerson, James Gaither, Chandler Hobart, Chauncey Hobart, Jesse George Kennedy, Arthur Laney, Marvin Myers, Johnnie Peyton, J. C. Phillips, Shelton Phillips, E. W. McEllothlin, Jr., J. H. Reneau, J. C. Rice, Lowry Rigby, Wallace Ross. Girls—Adelaid Barton, Katie Beth Bowden, Norene Bowden, Mildred Burdett, Dorothy Campbell, Pauline Edwards, Barbara Eiland, Madeline Fritz, Mary Fritz, Bettalou Greer, Lucille Hunter, Katherine Milam, Mildred Moore, Katherine Jones, Chloe Owen, Inez Parks, Virginia Reid, Ruth Rice, Rowen Russell, Frances Thompson, Ruth Weeks and Geraldine Burnison. Mildred Burnett has been chosen as valedictorian for the class and Mildred Moore has been chosen as salutatorian. The graduating exercises and programs pertaining to same are being worked out and will be published in an early issue.

Insurance Penalty Is Threatened Here If Action Is Not Taken

Knox Benefits From Good Roads Is Ass'n Claim

AUSTIN, April 26—Knox County state highways bring $135,000 a year in extra business in the county in the form of tourist trade, the Texas Good Roads Association has estimated from a survey of the state's last official traffic census. This business, the survey points out, does not include "nature" trade from local cars or those of adjoining counties, which obviously would improve with improved roads.

State checkers, from four day's actual count, found the actual daily traffic to be: 200 motor vehicles on Highway 24; 250 on Highway 51; and 300 on Highway 50.

Motor traffic in Texas is divided, the experts have found, into two classes.

CARTWRIGHT NEWS

Very little damage was done by the cool spell of last week, tender garden growths were damaged some by the sand storms, but the cold did not do as much damage as was thought. There will be five more weeks of our school, we have had a very splendid school and appreciate the work of Ingram and Miss Lowe are doing. They are very efficient teachers and have much patience with the pupils. We are hoping they will be our teachers for next term. Health is fine in this community at this time.

Mrs. Coy Davis visited her parents near Wichita Falls last week. Mr. and Mrs. Will Moore visited her brother near Grass Hopper last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Cude visited relatives in this community last Sunday.

The community Easter picnic was a success, every one who attended had an enjoyable time, had plenty of dinner and fun.

Mrs. Louis Cartwright's mother, who has been visiting her, has returned to her home near Plainview.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Loving visited relatives of Seymour last Thursday. This community was visited by a big rain and hail last Tuesday afternoon, which destroyed all early feed and gardens. All will have to be replanted.

Uncle Elton Cartwright is visiting his son at this writing.

The income tax bill which has passed the House seems to have little chance of passing the Senate.

To Whom This May Concern:

On the 9th of April, it appearing to the City of Munday, Texas, being on the threshold of losing our 5 per cent credit on insurance, also placing both business and property owners on a basis of collecting only 75 per cent of your fire policies in case you should have a loss by fire, due to the fact a limited number of business men in Munday have been maintaining, or rather paying the night watch, and this limited number have continued to drop out of the paying list, some refusing to pay until we find our property owners and business men on the verge of the above penalty.

At a joint meeting of representatives of the Chamber of Commerce and the City Council, we find the following status to exist, the City has failed to make any provision for the night watch, due to the fact that this year's budget has already been made up and if the City should collect all taxes for this year's assessment, there would remain a deficit on the interest and sinking fund and the necessary expenses of running the city for the year.

At the above council meeting T. R. Haney was named by the council to assist R. B. Davy of the Chamber of Commerce to arrange some place whereby this night watch can be maintained on a basis that will prevent the above loss to the city. We therefore urge all the people in the corporate limits, both business men and property owners to assist in maintaining this position, your refusal to do so will automatically place us as above stated.

The above committee asks you co-operation in this matter, and will be glad to have you call and discuss the matter, but it is imperative that you act at once.

R. B. DAVY,
T. R. HANEY.

ISELL-BRADORS

On Wednesday morning Bill Meador of Haskell and Miss Ethel Isbell of this city motored to Walters, Oklahoma, where they were united in marriage. They were accompanied by their happy mission by Miss Louisa Atkinson. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Isbell of this city where she was born and reared, and is one of the popular members of the younger social set of the city. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Meadors of Amarillo, and is engaged in business in Haskell. We join their many friends in wishing for them a long and happy married life.

Dorothy Campbell
Now we are talking of feminine girl, one with beauty, personality and gentleness. Dorothy has "oodles and oodles" of friends and who could blame "them" for falling for her?
Oh, but first she was born in Munday, April 19, 1916, and, it is necessary to tell you that she's still with us?
"Doffy" is talented too. She has taken music five years, and though you wonder how such tiny hands can reach and octave, she can play. She took expression four years, and voice one.

Here's where she's been, (out of state of course); Arkansas, Missouri, Colorado, New Mexico, Old Mexico and Oklahoma. Isn't that something?

Speaking of beauty, Dorothy was chosen Class Princess when a "fish"—do you wonder why?

Here are her favorites:

The Freshman News
We freshmen received our report cards and they showed that some of us had been studying. But we had better study harder these last three weeks. The fourth week will be taken up with exams and receiving our report cards.

In Home Ec. One we are making our dresses which is a task. Our home projects are due Friday but most of them are finished and all will be finished to be turned in Friday.

Mr. Hardegree let us take our History work books to keep until we finish our text books. We have to work hard on them so we may complete them.

One of our classmates, Drucilla Jones has been absent for the last few days on account of her little sister who has been operated on for appendicitis. We miss her very much and hope to have her back in school in a few days.

Rigsby's Roundup
Well, all I can say is very little, because the Seniors will have a lot of bologony to spill. The High School playground baseball team was defeated Tuesday by Goree 3 to 2. I don't know whether this is 3.2 per cent or not. The game was a good one but Goree "lucked out" in the 16th inning and took off the honors. —Goodbye until next week.

Roween Russell
Here's another local product for you. Roween has been reared in Munday since June 15, 1916 and during that time she has entered and almost (?) finished school here. That's giving the dope on her in one concentrated sentence isn't it? To tell the truth there isn't much to be found on her. This much I do know: She took music three years and she has been in three states. "Rusty is a nice, quiet girl, a good sport, and an honest comrade and does she like peaches? Deah me, I have almost run out of soap so, let's see what her favorites are:
Favorite sport: Riding horseback (back where?)
Favorite singer: Miss Palmer.
Favorite subject: Hood.
Favorite pastime: Working Jigsaw puzzles—no wonder she keeps us dizzy!
Weakness: Blondes.
Ambition: To go around the world. Get a globe—the kind with a map on it and walk around it—you are sure to acquire your greatest desire.
Hobby: Reading. (What?)
Career: Stenographer.

Mary has taken music three years and expression about five. No jokin', Mary can really talk—about whom? Laying all jokes aside Mary is a talented speaker and she will perhaps further develop his talent in A. C. C., where she plans to go next year.
Here's all about her (Oh, yeah?)
Favorite sport, Driving.

TAXES—easiest to pay

There is only one easy way to pay taxes. That is to pay them as a part of the purchase price of something the taxpayer wants.

Uncle Sam's latest tax, that on beer, is an example. Nobody pays it who doesn't want beer, and nobody who wants beer objects to paying a price which includes the tax, amounting to about one cent for an ordinary sized glass. The cigarette tax is another that is not painful. It comes to six cents on each package of twenty cigarettes. Last year the Government's income from cigarette taxes was over three hundred million dollars.

In Italy last fall I learned that every sign, poster or public notice of any kind has to pay a tax. Even the card over the bell button in my hotel bedroom telling me to ring twice for the chambermaid and three times for the waiter, had a revenue stamp stuck on it.

Stamp taxes have never been used in America as freely as elsewhere. They are the easiest taxes to collect as well as to pay.

CHANGE—mighty slow

Miss Frances Perkins, Secretary of Labor, said the other day that more than two thousand persons had written with elaborate schemes to change the whole social system. Probably never before have so many folks all over the world been busy making plans to remodel the world. Nothing is easier than to make an ideal plan; nothing is harder than to induce human beings to follow a plan.

It takes from three to a thousand generations to change the habits of a people. What is needed now is something that will work out next month, not next century. It would be a good plan, for example, if the relations of industry and agriculture could be readjusted so that every factory worker would have a piece of land to fall back on, but the present generation of factory workers doesn't know how to live on the land. The last thing Americans want, it seems to me, is to be compelled by law to do anything to which they are not naturally inclined. I don't think highly of any scheme of social reform which is not the product of the evolutionary interplay of natural forces.

HORSES—man's medicine

When the wild Mongols from the high plateaus of Asia swept around the Black Sea, a thousand or more years before Christ, they introduced the horse to Europe. The Greeks had never seen men on horses, and believed, many of them, that man and horse were one. Hence the myth of the Centaur, half horse, half man. In another thousand years the horse had become the indispensable reliance of travelers and explorers all over the world. A couple of thousand years later the automobile was invented and folk who thought they were wise said the day of the horse was over.

More people are riding horses today than ever before. Good horses bring higher prices than for many years. City folks are learning anew the old truth that "the best medicine for the inside of a man is the outside of a horse," and the parks are filled with riders daily, rain or shine. The best riders in the world today are still the Mongols, but the best horses are bred in America and in Western Europe. The wild mustangs and bronchos of our Western plains are descendants of the horses brought by the Spanish Conquistadores; American never had horses until after 1492.

SIDELIGHTS

Member of Congress from Texas

Everyone seems to feel that the new administration has gotten off to a good start. This is preeminently a time for action, and the President is certainly a man of action.

The Congress has voted him broad powers along many lines. No doubt other powers will be granted to him in his effort to work out of the emergency with which the country is faced.

He is not only endeavoring to secure essential legislation and to carry out the program which he has in mind, but he is trying in every way possible to reduce the expenses of government in accordance with his pre-election pledges. Many bureaus have been abolished and others have been merged in such a way as to do away with overlapping activities.

I have been called into conferences with other members a number of times at the White House, and we have all been amazed at the fine knowledge the President has of the entire situation, as well as his ability to stand the strain of long hours of continuous work. He works day and night, and seems to remain in good health and in good spirits at all times. It was my privilege to be assigned the task of introducing the President's farm mortgage refinancing bill and of handling the same in its passage through the House. It was passed on April 13 by the record vote of 387 to 12.

I regard the farm mortgage situation as one of the most pressing problems of the hour, and I hope the Senate may see fit to pass the bill at an early date, either separately or as a part of the general farm bill to which it has been attached.

The establishment of credit facilities, the adjustment of freight rates which are discriminatory against agriculture, and the adjustment of trade barriers in the interest of markets are also important steps in the farm program. I hope that all of these may be worked out.

For some time a number of us have been urging that the currency be liberalized in such a way as to make the dollar more truly a measure of value. Several methods have been suggested. The result of the adoption of any of these methods would mean an increase in commodity prices. It seems to me an increase in the price level in farm and other commodities is essential to national recovery.

The day this is being written the President has issued a statement in which he announces his determination to change the basis of our money in such a way as to increase the general price level. I believe that the carrying out of such a program will be in the interest of the entire country.

We are in a great national emergency which calls for discharging of selfish interests in an effort to save our institutions. For this reason I expect to continue to support the President in the program which he has planned.

I am glad we have a man in the White House who is unafraid, who is willing to assume responsibility, and who has a program. The American people are thrilling with a new hope under his leadership.

I have every faith that he will lead us forward into the full promise of better times and happier conditions.

AFTER 40 bowel trouble

Constipation may very easily become chronic after forty. And any continued constipation at that time of life may bring attacks of piles and a host of other unpleasant disorders.

Watch your bowels at any age. Guard them with particular care after forty. Whenever they need any help, remember a doctor should know what is best for them.

"Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin" is a doctor's prescription for the bowels. Tested by 47 years' practice, it has been found thoroughly effective in relieving constipation and its ills for men, women and children of all ages. It has proven perfectly safe even for babies. Made from fresh laxative herbs, pure pepsin and other harmless ingredients, it cannot gripe; will not sicken you or weaken you; can be used without harm as often as your breath is bad, or when your tongue is coated; whenever a headachy, bilious, gassy condition warms of constipation.

Mrs. E. E. Nix Hostess
Gillespie H. D. Club
Mrs. E. E. Nix was hostess Wednesday afternoon, April 12, to fourteen ladies of the Gillespie Home Demonstration Club.

Miss Faulkner, the Demonstration Agent, gave a very interesting demonstration on how to make hooked rugs. If you have never made one of these beautiful rugs for your home. Our club members are busy working on the live at home program, as they have canned 1,651 pints of meat since January.

On Monday afternoon the Methodist Missionary Society met in the home of Mrs. D. T. Mauldin, with Mrs. Lee Haymes and Mrs. J. R. Smith as assistant hostesses. In the living room were many vases of beautiful roses and there was a nice attendance. Mrs. J. C. Borden presided, and Mrs. Greer gave the devotional, which was on neighborliness. It was a splendid lesson and one we all should give a serious thought, "are we the neighbor we should be?" Mrs. Kethley gave a much interrupted, due to the hail, report on the Conference meeting that she attended in Vernon. We are sorry the storm came up but we enjoyed the report and I think there will be quite a number of candidates for the delegate's place next year.

Mrs. Haymes gave an urgent invitation to attend next Monday bible lesson which will meet at the church Monday afternoon. Let's surprise her and all go.

Lovely refreshments of ice cream and angel food cake was served.

CRIBBAGE

Half of the game is what you throw away. And what you keep, before you start to play. And life's the same, Same sort of game-- Much like a hand of cribbage that you play. Count up your cards, not after but before. Keep what will likely make the largest score. Some joy denied And thrown aside May, at the finish, make you even more. Discard the useless from your heart and mind, The plans unworthy and the thoughts unkind, Old hurts, old hates, And selfish traits, And winning will be easy, you will find. Yes, keep the right and throw the wrong aside, The little jealousies, the foolish pride, Consider, too, The things you do, The evil habits from the good divide. For they will win who wisely will discard The useless action and the useless care, Watch life the same, Then play the game-- And you will find the winning not so hard. --By Douglas Malloch.

The Rule of Rehoboam

My father made your yoke heavy, and I will add to your yoke; my father also chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions. So spoke the young King Rehoboam when he took the throne of Israel upon the death of Solomon. It seems that the Rehoboams have taken charge of the House at Austin. Faced with the urgent need for less taxes, they pile on more. Hard times, say the Rehoboams of the House, are to be cured with harder taxes.

Anybody with the white-collar wages of $2,500 a year is to feel the blow. Any business prosperous enough to be able to meet its pay roll will be staggered afresh with the tax gatherer's demands. Corporations do not vote. All they do is to provide jobs for voters--and voters are so simple-minded that they will tax the possibility of their jobs in blissful ignorance that these jobs now hang by all too slender a thread. Thus do the Rehoboams of Austin reason.

The House was not willing to cut its own salary. The House has refused to enact any of the major reorganizations in the interest of economy as recommended by the Graves committee. The House has been timorous in the presence of lobbying minorities seeking to maintain the old wasteful ways of government and of education. The call, therefore, is for those $10-a-day Horsemen of the Depression to ride roughshod over the last remnant of solvency in Texas with the scourge of Rehoboam.

Some members of the House deserve none of these strictures. Some of them have done their best for the beleaguered taxpayer. Some have a record beyond criticism. But the majority gives character to the group, and the majority has done but little to meet a great emergency.--Dallas Morning News, April 13, 1933.

Sidney Liles' Home Burns at Knox City

Knox County Herald, Knox City: The home of Mr. and Mrs. Sid Liles, in the west part of town, was almost totally destroyed by fire Monday morning about ten o'clock. The origin of the fire is unknown, and the house was in flames when Mrs. Liles discovered it. The flames spread so rapidly that it was impossible to save any of the contents of the house, and the family was left with only the clothes they were wearing.

Splendid work was done by the Knox City Fire department, but the fire had gained so much headway firemen were unable to save much of the house. No insurance was carried, it is said, and the community sympathizes with the Liles family in their loss.

They've Never Tasted a Tonic!

THESE are not patent medicine children. Their appetite needs no coaxing. Their tongues are never coated, cheeks never pale, and their bowels move just like clockwork, because they have never been given a habit-forming laxative. You can have children like this--and be as healthy yourself--if you follow the advice of a famous family physician. Stimulate the vital organs. The strongest of them need help at times. If they don't get it, they grow sluggish. Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin is a mild, safe stimulant. When a youngster doesn't do well at school, it may be the liver that's lazy. Often the bowels hold enough poisonous waste to dull the senses! A spoonful of delicious syrup pepsin once or twice a week will avoid all this. It contains fresh laxative herbs, belvis senna, and pure pepsin, and does a world of good to any system--young or old. You can always get this fine prescription preparation at any drug store. Just ask them for Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin. Get some syrup pepsin today, and protect your family from those bilious days, frequent sick spells and colic. Keep a bottle in the medicine chest instead of cathartics that so often bring on chronic constipation. Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin can always be employed to give clogged bowels a thorough cleansing, with none of that painful griping, or burning feeling afterward. It isn't expensive.
