Today And Tomorrow

AUTOMOBILES—more comfort

I went to the New York automobile show and examined all the new and, many of them, odd-looking cars. One thing impressed me particularly, and that is the effort of all the makers toward greater comfort in riding. In such matters as independent front wheel suspension, moving the rear seat forward so it is not right over the axle, roomier and more comfortable seats, new kinds of windows to provide ventilation without drafts, larger and softer tires, and many minor details, the emphasis is all on comfort.

Greater speed through "streamlining" in another trend in which all the makers are moving. And nowhere have I seen such a variety of color, inside and out of automobiles.

Manufacturers and dealers were jubilant. Sales at the show were far in excess of the highest expectations. This is going to be a good year for the automobile industry, but I would suggest to anyone who wants a new car to place his order now, for the factories are already behind the demand. Also prices are likely to go up before the year is over.

CAREERS—often accidental

Few people know when they are very young what their life-work is going to be. Most of them find themselves in careers they never dreamed of. There is Ted Geisel, for example. He went through two or three universities, intending to become a great author or a college professor, or both. But one day he drew a comic sketch and sent it to a popular magazine. It was published and caught the eye of the advertising manager of a big corporation.

"We want that young man to draw advertising pictures for us," he said, and that is what Ted Geisel has been doing, with great profit to himself and his employers and amusement to the public, for several years. Everybody has seen his pen-name, "Dr. Seuss," on advertisements.

MOST PEOPLE BECOME WHAT THEY ARE BY ACCIDENT, AFTER ALL.

"I am impressed by one result of the depression. It has stimulated the resourcefulness of many people, young and old, who had been content to let other people do things for them.

One young woman whom I know is supporting herself and her mother by giving parties. The husband and father, supposed to be wealthy, committed suicide in 1930, leaving his family with nothing but a house and its furnishings that they could call their own. The daughter had never been trained to any sort of work, but she had a wide circle of friends.

"I'm going to keep right on giving parties," she told them, "but to come to my parties you'll have to pay." A least once a week she gives a dance, with a simple supper, and her friends who still have money left flock to it and bring their friends, paying $2.50 a head. The young woman and her mother are living as well as they used to and she is putting money in the savings bank.

That's what I call resourcefulness.

Rev. Childress, Former Pastor, To Fill Pulpit Here

Rev. W. C. Childress, pastor of the Methodist church here twenty years ago, now pastor of the First Methodist church at Abilene, will exchange pulpits with Rev. H. C. Hand, local pastor, on Sunday, February 4th, and his many friends over this section will have another opportunity to hear this popular pastor.

Rev. Childress was transferred from Munday to the Louisiana conference and remained in that conference until this year, when he was transferred into this conference to the pastorate of the First church in Abilene.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Maples left Tuesday of last week for their home at Spearman, Texas. Mr. Maples had been confined to his bed in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Maples, for two weeks, and had suffered an attack of influenza. He was well on the road to recovery when he departed for home.

C. R. Elliott Will Again Seek Election To Office of Sheriff

Sheriff C. R. Elliott early this week set at rest all rumors that he would not seek re-election as sheriff of Knox County when he authorized his announcement for re-election to that office, subject to the action of the democratic primaries, and in so doing he has asked that we convey to his many friends over the county his sincere thanks for the support and cooperation they have given him during the years that he has served as a county official and he promises the same efficient service in the future that he has rendered in the past should he be honored with this responsible post.

Mr. Elliott's policy as an official entrusted with the enforcement of the laws of the state has been to save the taxpayers of the county all costs possible in the enforcement of the laws and the records will show that he has worked up evidence in cases he has handled to the extent that in most instances the state has either secured convictions or pleas of guilty, and he feels that in so doing he has saved many thousands of dollars in trial costs.

Mr. Elliott needs no introduction to the citizens of this part of Knox county, since he served as chief of police in Munday for some sixteen years before being elected sheriff, and he is regarded as one of the most efficient peace officers in West Texas.

Mrs. E. F. Branton Asks For Office of Co. Superintendent

The Times is pleased to present the name of Mrs. E. F. Branton for the office of County Superintendent of Public Instruction, subject to the action of the Democratic primary in July.

Mrs. Branton early chose the profession of teaching as her life work, and has devoted many years of earnest study and application in preparation for the duties devolving upon one who enters that exacting service. She attended Sam Houston State Teacher's College, and Texas Technological College, from which college she will receive her B.A. degree this June.

Since coming to Knox county she has been employed as seventh grade teacher of Knox City, and as principal in the Union Grove school where she has been retained consecutively for this the twelfth term. Each year this school under her efficient direction has taken an active part in all county and district school events of athletic and academic nature.

Mrs. Branton has made a special study of the rural schools, and her service in them has given her a valuable insight into the inner workings of their supervision. With her college training, experience she has gained, and the high conception she holds of the duties of this educational office, she feels that she can render real constructive service should the people of the county honor her with the nomination. She will see the voters and lay before them her claims to the office, and will appreciate the support of those who deem her worthy of this important trust.

Mrs. J. R. Smith was in Wichita Falls Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mahan of Abilene were here Tuesday.

R. D. Atkinson was in Abilene on business Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sled Waheed were in Benjamin Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sanders of Haskell are guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Pendleton.

Mrs. John Ed Jones and son, McGeely, are in Dallas and Waco this week visiting relatives.

Mrs. S. A. Bowden, Mrs. Erin McGraw and Mrs. Levi Bowden were in Wichita Falls Tuesday.

U. R. Houser and daughter, Miss Helen, returned Tuesday from Paris, Texas, where they visited relatives.

Perry Moore of Seymour was a dinner guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Harpham Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Aycock accompanied their son Albert to Abilene where he entered the West Texas Baptist Hospital for treatment Monday.

Capital News Letter

Devalue Gold Content of the Dollar

WASHINGTON—On January 15th the President sent a special message to Congress requesting the devaluation of the gold content of the dollar at not more than 60 per cent of its present statutory value, and asked Congress to enact legislation vesting title in the Government to all supplies of American owned monetary gold and providing for the payment therefor in gold certificates. This legislation was considered in the committee all week and the House committee reported the bill Friday. The bill was thoroughly debated for 7 hours in the House on Saturday and was finally passed by a vote of 359 to 40. The bill takes all gold held by the Federal Reserve system and places it in the United States Treasury. It also establishes a fund of $2,000,000,000 for the purchase and sale of gold, foreign exchange and Government securities as the general welfare of the United States may require. Final passage of this bill is predicted in the Senate by Tuesday.

Extension of RFC

The House extended the operation of the RFC until February 1, 1935 and appropriated $50,000,000 for the continuation of its functions.

St. Lawrence Waterway Treaty

The Senate has had as its regular order of business all the week the Great Lakes St. Lawrence Waterway Treaty. The President strongly favors the treaty. A poll of the Senate now indicates its defeat by about 10 votes.

Refinancing Farm Mortgages

Under this measure we appropriate $200,000,000 and guarantee interest and principal of a $2,000,000,000 bond issue. This measure had the endorsement of the President and met with little opposition in the House.

Interior Department Appropriation Bill

On Wednesday, Thursday and Friday the House debated and finally passed the Interior Department Appropriation bill. This is the second major appropriation bill considered at this session. This bill carried an appropriation for P.W.A. irrigation power projects in the West amounting to $3,000,000.

Gag Rule and Veterans Legislation

The House leaders have definitely decided against the use of gag rules in considering future legislation. The rule adopted on the Independent Offices Appropriation bill was aimed directly at prohibiting any cut in Federal employee's pay. A poll of the senate shows a strong majority in favor of full restoration of the 15 per cent cut and the President now states he will leave this matter entirely to Congress. Friday the enactment of the so-called "economy bill" has amended his rules and regulations. By this third amendment he has increased the veterans' compensation $21,092,205, 228,000 Spanish and World War veterans will be benefitted by the President's orders. The benefits restored by executive order include:

1. Increase in pension rates for veterans suffered from service connected disabilities from $90 to $100 a month for a total disability and proportionate increases for lesser disabilities.
2. Liberalization of eligibility rules to permit free hospital treatment of needy veterans whose ailments are not traceable to war service.
3. Granting of $15 a month pensions to Spanish American War veterans who served 90 days or less and were discharged for disabilities incurred in line of duty, or who are 50 per cent or more disabled whether their condition results from war service or not.

Increasing burial and funeral allowances for veterans from $75 to $100.

Waiving of the requirement that veterans suffering from disabilities not due to misconduct and not incurred during service must prove 90 days service in the event they were discharged for disabilities incurred in the line of duty.

Restoration of previous pension rates payable to certain widows of regular army officers and enlisted men who died of disabilities incurred in line of duty, the maximum to be $30.00.

Modifying the prohibition against payment of pensions to Federal employees who receive salaries of more than $50 a month, so as to permit pensioning of single employees earning $1,000 or less a year and those supporting families whose salaries do not exceed $2,500.

A. U. Hathaway In Auto Accident And Sustains Bruises

A. U. Hathaway happened to an automobile accident on the 15th inst, which resulted in his securing numerous bruises and cuts, but aside from that and minor damage to his car, no serious damage was done. In attempting to pass a farm wagon near Weiner Mr. Hathaway drove a little too near the barrow-pit and his car slid into the ditch, turning completely over, and he was very fortunate that the mishap was not more serious than it was.

Interesting Program Outlined for Meet of Federated Societies

An interesting program has been arranged for the meeting of the Federated Missionary Societies of Munday, for Monday, January 29 at the Baptist church, beginning at 3 p.m.

The subject for the meeting will be that of caring for the poor and needy, with devotional services in charge of Mrs. M. H. Reeves and special music by Mrs. J. C. Borden while Mrs. G. R. Eiland will discuss "Our Obligations to the Poor and Needy, and How to Meet It." Every woman of Munday and vicinity who is a member of any church is urged to attend this meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Dobbs of Frederick, Oklahoma were guests in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McGraw, Sunday.

PAY YOUR POLL TAX NOW!

Only one more week remains in which to pay your poll tax, and we urge every citizen to pay their poll tax and thereby be able to have a part in the affairs of our government. There will be numerous occasions to use a poll tax this year, and the man without a poll tax receipt will be equivalent to the man without a country, for certainly he can have little or no voice in our government without the right to vote.

Next Thursday, January 31 is the deadline. Pay before that date.

Capitol Items Of Local Interest

By Julia A. Kennedy

Perhaps some of the readers will be interested to know that William Gayle "Bill" is getting along nicely following the very serious injury in November. He is enjoying the freedom of the capitol. Saturday he had the thrill of his life, met and shook hands with Tom Mix and his troop were showing at a local theatre and as he was a member of the Texas Rangers under the Hogg administration called at the Adjutant General's office to meet the Rangers. Henry Hutchison, adjutant general and head of the Ranger force, renewed his commission as a Texas Ranger while he was here.

Hardly a week passes without meeting someone from or near Knox County. Of course it isn't news that the F. O. Campbell family is here. But it will be of interest to all to learn they are doing well. The daughters, Misses Margaret and Geraldine, are lovely girls. Margaret is a junior in the State University and Geraldine is a sophomore in Austin High school. Mr. Campbell recently opened a confectionery near the University.

Mrs. J. D. Miller and son, Buster, formerly of Weiner, are residents of Austin. Mr. Miller, deceased, was mail carrier on one of the routes out of Weiner for many years. Munday basketball fans will remember Buster as a member of Moguls. He is a graduate of the class of '29. Other sons of Mrs. Miller, J. D. and Walter, are teachers in Texas Military Institute at San Antonio.

Met Mrs. Starkey Dunbar recently, and while she has never been a resident of Munday she has visited there often, being a sister of Dr. Joe Davis. Mrs. Dunbar is very active in church, club and civic activities and just now she is helping put over the President's Birthday Ball, which will be, it is predicted, second only to the inaugural ball for Mrs. Ferguson a year ago. State employees have purchased tickets 100 per cent.

Mr. Sheppard has announced for reelection to the office of State Comptroller. Will enclose his announcement. I attended a tea given at the Delta Delta Delta sorority house announcing the approaching marriage of Miss Georgia Sheppard, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Sheppard, and Mr. Gay Sheppard. Mr. Sheppard and members of the sorority were hosts. Need less to say it was a lovely affair.

See in the Times where work has started on moving the Rhineland bridge, that's fine and it only shows what can be done when some one like Father Boniface puts his shoulder to the wheel. He doesn't know the word "can't."

Allerita Loomis Players in Gore During the Week

The Allerita Loomis Players are in Gore this week, and reports are to the effect that their show is even better than last year, and most Munday folks saw their show here last year. The Loomis organization has established themselves in West Texas as being one of the best shows on the road, and they cordially invite their Munday friends over to their show.

SIGNING OF HOG CONTRACTS NOW UNDER WAY

All producers desiring to sign Hog Contracts will sign before or by next meeting day which will be next Wednesday, January 31. This meeting will be held in Benjamin at the Court house at 2:00 p.m. and will complete the signing of all Hog Contracts at this time.

REPORTERS SCHOOL BENJAMIN JAN. 27

A reporters school will be held at 2:30, Saturday, January 27 in the County Court Room at Benjamin. The reporters of both the girls' and women's clubs are asked to come. Anyone else who wishes may attend this meeting, where methods of writing will be discussed.

Tom Hunter Makes Public Platform For Governorship

WICHITA FALLS, Jan. 23.—A tax free home and a tax free vote, revision of the state tax system to distribute the burden of raising revenues upon all in proportion to their ability to pay, submission of the prohibition repeal amendment for an edict of the people, limitation of capital stock issue and abolition of holding companies, assessing the death penalty for public officials convicted of taking bribes and of prison terms for state employees accepting fees from private interests while holding office, election of the state auditor by the legislature, creation of a board of public relations, rigid control of public utilities and reduction of rates, a tax upon out-of-state chain stores, coordination and consolidation of overlapping and duplicating departments of government, the abolition of more than a hundred of our units of state government, and the reorganization of the state education system are among the principal planks announced by Tom F. Hunter, of Wichita Falls, in making public his platform for his race for governor in the 1934 Democratic primaries.

"Big business for a number of years has financed both ends of some 'ism' or prejudice for a political division of the ranks of the plain people, that its organized effort prevail over the true will of the people. The prohibition question will probably be the one upon which the division is sought this year. Though one's belief on the subject of prohibition is not indicative of his capability, in announcing for Governor of Texas, I recognize it."

"The state constitutional amendment for the repeal of prohibition shall be submitted for the edict of the people. It would be just as wrong to refuse submission of the repeal amendment now as it would have been to refuse submission of the prohibition amendment when its adoption was sought. We shall, though, if and when the sale of liquor is permitted, make sure that the old saloon and its attending evils do not return. The highways must be kept safe, life held sacred. The youth, not yet at the age of discretion, shall be protected, temperance must be taught. The sale of liquor, if and when permitted, must be well regulated. Enforcement of the law requires respect of the voters edict, county and/or state."

"Our tax system has broken down. The value of our basic wealth, real estate, has been destroyed. Real estate producing only 15 per cent of our income, pays 77 per cent of our ad valorem taxes. The state ad valorem tax shall be abolished. A blended tax system shall be adopted, one that will require the combines to pay proportionately with the plain man. A tax shall be levied to recapture for the benefit of the state a part of the proceeds of the sale of its natural resources outside the state and nation, including natural gas, salt and sulphur."

"A conference of the officials of oil producing states shall be called and an uniform production tax levied upon oil so that a part of our state gasoline tax burden may be transferred to the consumers of the nation, and that the automobile registration fee be reduced."

"A state supervised and tax free annuity fund shall be established so that the aged citizens of Texas may be assured support in their declining years."

"A tax levy upon the net earnings of the big brackets, reaching those corporate interests that do a state-wide business, and a select or luxury tax will help replace the county and school ad valorem."

"Requirement of a poll tax is discrimination and except for a registration fee every citizen shall have a tax free vote."

"It is manifestly unfair that real estate be required to pave our roads. No part of the road bond issues of the counties shall be paid by the levy of an ad valorem tax. Those who use the roads shall pay for them. Adjustments shall be made with counties, not bonded, by road improvement."

"Reduced tax burdens and a fair price for his products is the greatest relief that can be offered the farmer. A sales tax on out of state produced or processed substitutes for state produced commodities will stabilize his market prices."

"The practice of a state official

4-H BEDROOM IMPROVEMENT STARTED IN KNOX COUNTY

The 4-H bedroom contest was started Saturday, January 20, when nine bedroom demonstrators had their bedrooms judged before they began the improvements. The judging was done by Miss Irene Clifford, Home Economics teacher in the Munday High School.

These rooms were scored on a basis of 1000 points. 125 points for sanitation, including ventilation, screening, cleanliness and ease of cleaning; 100 for lighting, both natural and artificial; 160 points for interior finishes; 365 points for furnishings, furniture that is adequate for needs, appropriate, comfortable, the condition of the furniture and the arrangement; washing facilities, curtains, floor coverings, bedding, linens, pictures and appropriate and harmonious accessories; 50 points for storage for clothing; 100 points for general appearance, the attractiveness, restfulness and outlook and 100 points for the suitability to needs of particular girl.

The points scored by the girls varied from 342 points to 677 points. Each girl is busy now to make the most improvement possible as inexpensively as she can. They are striving to have as pleasing a room, one that meets their needs, is comfortable and one that they can easily keep.

Those entering this contest as Bedroom demonstrators are; Bernice Crawford, Dixon Club; Lucille Jackson, Hefner; Margaret Westbrook, Truscott; Mary Bell Mills, Rhineland; Frances McGuire, Gilliland; Addie Bell Jernigan, Vera; Bonnie June Roberts, Gore; Mary Helen Partridge, Sunset and Inalee Williams, Union Grove.

HOTBED BUILT IN HOOD COMMUNITY

"We want to have greens the year round and also raise all the plants for our spring garden and I believe this hotbed is large enough for that purpose," said Mrs. H. L. Cannon, 4-H pantry demonstrator in the Hood club. "There are only three in my family so I dug the pit for my hotbed much smaller than the one described in the leaflet," Mrs. Cannon further stated.

This hotbed is located on the south side of the garage where it will be well protected. It is about three feet wide and six feet long. It is some 18 or 20 inches deep. At a demonstration held in the community a frame was made for this bed using scrap lumber. Muslin cloth dipped in paraffin is to be used to cover the hotbed. It will be tacked on a frame and braced with 2 or 3 cross boards.

"I just couldn't wait to start improving my bedroom," said Inalee Williams, Union Grove 4-H bedroom demonstrator. "I filled in the cracks between the pieces of sheetrock and had my room papered. My daddy made my chiffonier several years ago so if I can use it for my storage space I would much rather have it. It has a rod for clothes racks, a place for shoes, hats and folded garments and can easily be used for storage space, I think," stated Inalee.

Another feature of the chiffonier is that one side of it is just the right height to be used for a study table which is quite an advantage to Inalee since her room is so small.

"In making a dressing table, Daddy took the legs off two old incubators and with some scrap lumber, orange boxes, a new piece of lumber for the top and the mirror that had been on the chiffonier made me this nice dressing table," said Inalee.

Inalee still has a great deal of work to do before her room is completed. She has to improve her floors, woodwork, screens and do some more work on her bed.

VERA 4-H GIRL IMPROVES BEDROOM

"When I get my closet built I guess I will be just about through improving my bedroom," stated Addie Belle Jernigan, Vera 4-H bedroom demonstrator.

"Since I decided to be the demonstrator I have papered my walls and added a new rug. I moved the standard size bed out and replaced it with this half bed. This gives so much more room for my study table and dresser, too.

Before the bedrooms will be judged again Addie Belle plans to paint the woodwork, build a clothes closet, make a washstand and improve her bed by adding a spring cover, a mattress cover and pad, a bedspread and adequate bedding.

WILL FARMERS COOPERATE?

John Rice, who is in charge of the local office provided for the signing of cotton acreage reduction, reported Saturday morning that only about twenty-five farmers have signed contracts to that time, notwithstanding the fact that probably seventy-five per cent of the farmers of the Munday territory agreed to sign these contracts at the time they were advanced ten cents for their cotton, which was above the market price at that time.

We are just wondering if this lack of response is due to lack of information on the part of the farmer, or whether it is negligence or what is causing the delay.

As we see it, the Government has outlined a plan for the relief of the farmer. This plan will fall flat without cooperation from the farmer since the Government is proposing no drastic action in its effort toward acreage reduction but is merely exacting a promise from farmers who have been beneficiaries of profitable prices through Governmental effort to cooperate in the program of price stabilization to the extent that they will reduce their acreage to a point where they may be assured a price that is above cost of production.

Well organized business institutions have thrived in the past through cooperation in curtailing production in the various lines, but we have heard many farmers express the opinion that the farmer is the one class of people who will not agree on any one method of relief, and it has heretofore been next to impossible for the government or any of the numerous organizations that have been formed for the benefit of the farmer to accomplish any material good.

One thing is certain, and that is that the present administration at Washington is striving to de-bank the farm relief program and really bring relief to those who till the soil. Whether this can be accomplished through cooperation or whether it will have to come through legislation is a matter that history must chronicle, for it has been demonstrated that a breaking down of farm commodity prices means a break-down of business generally, and this nation cannot survive another series of years such as it has survived during the year immediately preceding the good year 1933, and here's hoping that the job can be accomplished through cooperation rather than by legislation.

receiving compensation from a corporation is wrong. This practice shall be made a felony. One who betrays his trust to the extent of taking a bribe shall be executed.

Our primary election laws shall be rewritten so that voters are permitted to express first and second choices when the number of candidates exceeds two and three when the number exceeds three. This will prevent organized combines from setting the stage for a run-off with "bumper" candidates.

Permanent relief and reform shall be had, affording every person the opportunity to provide for himself and family. The provisions for subsistence and maintenance, home-steads are advisable; though a national question, the state should co-operate.

Trusts and monopolies shall not be permitted. Holding company operation of subsidiaries shall be denied permits to do business. A combine of wealth will not be permitted to sell at a loss in one community for the destruction of independent business while making its profits elsewhere.

Out of the state chain stores must go. A levy upon the number of stores operated and a sufficient sales tax upon their gross sales will remove the cancer. These master chains are committing us to a rule of plutocracy. In one Texas county these chains are responsible for the closing of more than 1000 stores.

the abolition of elective offices as recommended by the 13rd legislative committee on that question.

The five to seven managers should be required to reorganize and allocate to their several members the various functions of the departments. Their appointment by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate would require them to be experienced and capable. Each member would directly administer the duties assigned to him. In matters of dispute they would sit as a whole and collectively would form the governor's advisory board.

"Budgeting would be simplified in that all departments would be brought together and overlapping, done away with. With such a reorganization the ultimate cost of administration should not exceed 50 to 60 per cent of the present cost."

"Officials that fail to keep campaign pledges or those found inefficient or for other good cause should be removed. The recall shall be authorized."

Personal if So

Joe Peabery has been hard at work at the General Merchandise Store trying to argue them into not letting his wife take out two dresses to their home so as to decide which she wants to keep. The trouble is, Joe points out, she's "by whom" that she's taking.

And when Heck Yess asked sympathetically, "Well, why don't you take out an injunction?" the melancholy Joe said gloomily, "I'd buy that for a dollar."

Mrs. De Fitchey and Henry Wain are not speaking, though Henry says he never was following a short passage of words at the recent Volunteer Fire Department picnic. It seems in the course of conversation Mrs. Fitchey chirped, "You know, one thing you can say about my mother, she's a talker."

The members of the Friendly Ten Bridge Club have given up their notion of giving a benefit play, it being impossible to find a play with a cast of ten leading ladies.

"I often regret," said Doc Gillingsby emotionally, "that I did not receive more instruction at my mother's knee."

"Not at," snuffed Mrs. Gillingsby. "Amen."

He Fitchey's spare time photography shop is still not progressing satisfactorily, by all reports, especially that of Mrs. Hector Gabby who had some snaps taken Tuesday morning and yesterday saw the prints.

"My heavens!" cried Mrs. Gabby. "These don't do me justice!"

"You don't want justice," muttered Ike. "What you want is mercy."

RELIEF BOARD HAS JOB ON HANDS

Constable Ezra Gruffy, well-known pillar of law and order in our community, was called into action Friday afternoon in what can only be described as a big way. Gruffy's phone rang and a shrill feminine voice inquired: "Is this the constable?"

"It is," Gruffy assured her. "And aren't you an honor-able member of the Be Humane to Animals Society?" queried the voice.

"I am," said Gruffy. "Well," said the voice, "you better come out to my house right away. There's a book agent sitting up in a tree teasing my dog."

Society Note Mrs. Joe Peabery and husband have returned from a trip to the seashore, though Joe reports he was not much impressed. "What the heck?" says Joe. "When you've seen one wave, you've seen 'em all."

Fearful Setback Plans for the Willing Hands Sunday School Class, to have been organized Sunday, have been announced as abandoned since the member selected as teacher, Elmer P. Twilly, bank cashier, last night skipped with the institution's funds.

Sports Department Ike Fitchey, local plumber and very inventive spirit, came very near to inventing a system whereby the amateur carpenter could absolutely avoid hitting a thumb, but found he could not satisfactorily hold a hammer in his teeth.

EDITOR'S CORRECTION It is with a natural confusion that we hasten to apologize for last week's mix-up in our paper, two photographs of the society and live stock departments, respectively, having got into each other's place. Not for anything would we have shown Doc Gillingsby's photo with the caption, "Long Ears Sign of Alertness" nor would we have inserted a picture of Hiram Hawkins' "Voted Most Typical Member of Local Luncheon Club."

AUNTY BELLUM'S Question Box

Dear Aunty: I am a young girl 22 years of age and have a serious question to ask. The serious question I have to ask is this, and I am serious about it: Would you marry a man who is old and bent?

—Debutante. Dear Debutante: Better that than young and broke.

Dear Aunty: What can you tell me about raising rabbits?

—Emma. Dear Emma: Nothing a lady could listen to.

Dear Aunty Bellum: What creature was half man, half goat?

—Scholar. Dear Scholar: A husband.

Dear Aunty: Since I have started reading your column, my hair is all coming out.

—Joe. Dear Joe: You haven't seen my hair since I started writing it.

Dear Aunty: What was the egypt's curse?

—Taxpayer. Dear Taxpayer: Mrs. Gypsey.

Dear Aunty: If you look your income of 122 and deducted your intangible expenses for three months preceding, then added the sum made from other than regular stipend sources and divided by number of dependents (together with insured under six years of age) and subtracted from that 15 per cent of your per annum outgo, what would you have?

—Worried Accountant. Dear Worried Accountant: A headache.

Courthouse Exposure

Judge Barnothing, who examined Mrs. Hector Gabby as witness in a suit Thursday, apologized as he concluded, saying, "I hope you didn't mind all those questions."

"Oh, no," said Mrs. Gabby with a smiling smile. "I have a small boy of six at home."

Planes Vie With Gulf-Dymaxion In Thrilling Air Pageant Throng

By Don Mocker (Feature Writer, "U. S. Air Service")

ROOSEVELT FIELD, N. Y. (Special)—With the calm and efficient hand of Captain Alford J. Williams at the controls as Director of Events, the aeronautical extravaganza staged for charity and billed as the National Air Pageant held here October 7 and 8, came to a glorious conclusion Sunday night.

More than 75,000 New Yorkers have had their first real taste of aviation activity on their "home grounds" since the races here in 1925.

As a special Pageant feature Captain Williams took his Curtiss "Gulfhawk" into the air on both days and introduced "painting aerobics in the air," accomplished by a unique chemical smoke tank arrangement, allowing detailed study of the intricate maneuvers performed by this outstanding aviator.

The Pageant attracted several hundred civilian fliers in addition to 21 ships of the 8th Pursuit Group, 11 planes of the 2nd Bombardment Group, and 39 ships of the Coast Expeditionary Force of the U. S. Marines.

As the Manager of the Aviation Department of the Gulf Refining Company, Al Williams had seen to it that the full airport service facilities of Gulf were placed at the disposal of the Pageant participants, and the Gulf airport trailer, special trucks, field cars, etc., were busy twelve hours both days of the Pageant.

Jimmie Wedell, holder of the land plane speed record of 305 mph, was prepared to defend his record against all-comers, and incidentally also try and establish a new record but was forced down on his first attempt when his motor cooling loosened, damaging his propeller.

"I consider that this gesture is one of the finest and most important that has ever been made in the name of aviation."

Major Ernst Udet, German ace, was excellent in his aerobatic work. An outstanding performance was staged by Roy Hunt, who with Major Alexander F. DeFever, in an amphibian of his own design, est-established an unofficial amphibian speed record of 176 mph.

Trophy donated anonymously as inspiration to continued development of American aviation.

Despite the air festival, attention was diverted to the ground every time the Gulf-Dymaxion came past the stands. This car, illustrated above, embodies the streamlining lessons taught by aerodynamics.

With a top-speed of 120 mph, it produces thirty miles to a gallon of fuel. Its single rear-wheel steering makes it especially suitable in any traffic situation.

As the aerial boom late at night signalled the close of the Pageant, Captain Williams expressed his personal appreciation to Mrs. Roosevelt and all the members of the many volunteer committees who had worked with him during weeks of intensified effort to bring the revived program of the National Air Pageant to a successful conclusion.

L. M. Palmer and Albert Aycock were in Abilene Saturday.

John McGraw was in Frederick, Oklahoma, last week visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Dobbs.

Mrs. Leland Harlegree and daughter Mary Carolyn, were in Wichita Falls first of the week visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Harpham and Mrs. Dorse Rogers were in Wichita Falls Monday.

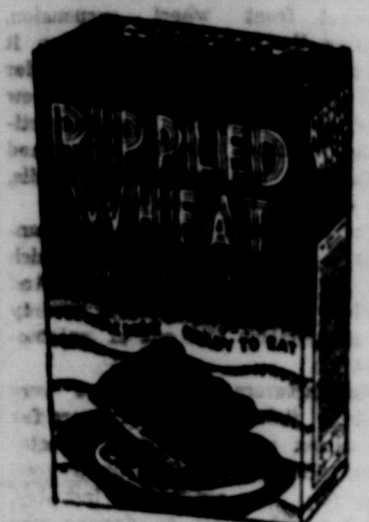

Miss Annie Michalk has returned to her home after spending a few days with friends at Rochester.

FOOTBALL BOYS ARE HONORED

Mr. Bass delivered a good message to us last Friday afternoon at one o'clock on Sportsmanship. He stated that he was not awarding the boys, because the only thing he thought could be termed as an award was their representation of dear old Munday High on the football fields.

- 1. Thou shalt not quit.
2. Thou shalt not offer excuses.
3. Thou shalt not gloat over winning.
4. Thou shalt not be a rotten loser.
5. Thou shalt not take unfair advantages.
6. Thou shalt not ask odds thou art unwilling to give.
7. Thou shalt always be willing to give thy opponent the shade.
8. Thou shalt not underestimate thyself.
9. Remember that the game is the thing and that he who thinketh otherwise is a mucker and in no wise a good sport.
10. Honor the game thou playest, for he who plays the game hard and straight, wins even though he loses.

On account of finances, he stated, only the Seniors and the boys serving their last year in football could be given awards. Those receiving sweaters were: Jerry Kethley, Albert Aycock, B. B. Bowden, John West, Jack Williams and Earl Nichols, (Capt.).
The other boys who lettered this year only received the purple "M's" for them to use at their own choosing. Those honored in this way were: Clifford Brock, Everett Pruitt, Buddy Rayburn, William Ellard, Joe Kethley, Randolph Homsley and Robert Layne.

SENIORS

Professor Reed has been giving the seniors a fit. He has made a division in his Chemistry classes, and the senior are deprived of the last period in the afternoon, otherwise known to the seniors as "loafing period."

The cast for "Depend On Me" has been selected and work has begun on it. Miss Mildred Kennedy is directing the play, and needless to say, it will go over. You will see more about it later.

The seniors are proud to announce that they have three new students, they are Ruth Moore and Jessie Mae Webb, who came to us from the junior class at mid-term, and Emogene Sullivan who comes to us from Greenville. With this new addition to our class, and the renewed spirit, we are seeing things in a new light, but we are not saying anything about Chaucer.

P.S.—Watch next week for another Senior Biography.

JUNIOR REPORT

Friday, January 19, the juniors were called together for a class meeting.

Mary Eva Rigbsy resigned as class reporter and her resignation was accepted. To fill this vacancy Robert Layne was elected.

Last month we missed our monthly entertainment on account of the Football Banquet, so we decided to begin our entertainment a little early this month. Mrs. Isbell gave the suggestion (she's good at ideas) and the class seemed delighted. Thursday night at 6:45 we shall meet at Burton's Cafe for a chill supper and later we shall go to the show to see Will Rogers in "Doctor Bull" at the Roky. We want to thank Mr. Burton and Mr. Williams for their willingness in co-operating. You see, the party will be "Dutch."

We decided to begin practicing our plays Tuesday evening, January 23. Mrs. Barnes and Miss Lowe will take charge of one and Mrs. Isbell will have the other. Mrs. Louise Ingram and Mrs. Steen will have charge of the vaudeville. We certainly appreciate the kindness of these ladies and the time they are giving to us.

Arthur Smith, Jr., has been showing some of our junior boys how well he can ride these wild cows of Munday.

DEBATE

Friday evening at one o'clock four students of History IV debated on the subject Resolved: That the southern states were not justified in some very good points. Gordon James Barnes, Florene Kendall, Jack Williams and Duane Johnson gave some very good points. Gordon James and Florene had the negative side of the question and certainly gave some good points and a good rebuttal. It was evident that they had put more time on their points than the boys, but the boys gave a good fight.

Mr. Bass said a few words about the question afterwards, among which he stated that he had always believed that the south was not justified in seceding from the union, but that he could not blame them. He said that if he had been living in that time he would have been as true as possible to the southern states in all that they did.

SOPHOMORE REPORT

We sophas have had a hard time this week. We've had quizzes, and how! Especially the Home Ec. girls. Miss Clifford certainly does know how to give a "Pop" quiz.

Mr. Bass is very thoughtful; he gave us eleven problems and allowed us to omit one, just imagine! Everyone except Willard seems to like Poe's romantic stories; he said they were not romantic because they were not about love.

Clifford: "Say, do you happen to know how Thanksgiving originated?"
Robert: "Nope, but I can dope it out. It probably was started by parents whose sons survived the football season."

Duane: "Tough, old boy, about having your car taken. Did you notify the sheriff?"
C. B.: "He knows. He took it."

Jack: "There isn't a girl in school with a voice like my girl's—so soft, liquid, flowing..."
Rupert: "Yeah, but you can't stop the flow."

Bill Dingus: "I envy you when you laugh."
Vinton: "Why?"
Bill: "There seems to be so much of you having a good time."

"Hello," said a girlish voice over the telephone, "Is this the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals?"
"Yess."
"Well, this is Betsy Reeves, and there's a bookagent sitting in a tree in our front yard, and he's got Towser so excited he can't eat."

"One of my cows swallowed my pocket book," announced the chatty milkman to the pretty housewife.
"Any money in it?" she asked.
"Yes, nearly forty dollars."
"I hope your milk will be a little richer hereafter."

"Name?" queried the immigration official.
"Sneeze," replied the Chinese proudly.
"Is that your Chinese name," he asked.

"No, English name," the Oriental replied blandly.
"Then let's have your native name."
"Ah Choo," said the Chinese.

Bill: "Say, old boy, what's the matter?"
Sam: "Aw, I flunked my final in my correspondence course. When I sat down at the piano nobody laughed..."

Docia: "Hazel certainly is polished isn't she?"
Mattie Mae: "Indeed she is. Everything she says casts a reflection on someone."

"Earl certainly is sore today."
"Who happened?"
"He took Billie True to dinner last night and while they were eating soup she found a fly. 'Waiter,' she said, 'remove this insect.'"

"And..."
"They threw Earl out the back door."

Bank Cashier: "Good morning, sonny."
W.R.: "I want a checkbook for a lady that folds in the middle."

Reporter: "Hold the presses! Hold the presses! I have a death!"
City Editor: "We're loaded up with deaths today. Three columns of automobile accidents, a couple more of suicides, several drownings, and half a page of murders. Put it in a paragraph and we'll use it to-morrow."

Reporter: "But this is a natural death!"
City Editor: "Boy, what a scoop! This news will jar the city! Hey, Tam, hold the presses! Hold the presses."

The bright young bell captain met the advertising salesman as he entered the hotel.
"How many trunks, sir?" he asked.
"I have no trunks," said the salesman.

"I beg pardon, sir. I thought you were a salesman."
"I am. But I sell brains. Understand? Brains!"
"Yess sir; excuse me, sir. But you are the first salesman this year without samples."

HOW WOMEN CAN WIN MEN AND MEN WIN The Favor of Other Men

Unless two pints of bile juice flow daily from your liver into your bowels, your food decays in your bowels. This poisons your whole body. Movements get hard and constipated. You get yellow tongue, yellow skin, pimples, dull eyes, bad breath, bad taste, gas, dizziness, headache. You have become an ugly-looking, foul-smelling, sour-thinking person. You have lost your personal charm. Everybody wants to run from you. But don't take salts, mineral waters, oils, laxative pills, laxative candies or chewing gums and expect them to get rid of this poison that destroys your personal charm. This isn't so. For they only move out the tail end of your bowels and they don't take away enough of the decayed poison. Constipation won't help at all. Only a free flow of bile juice will stop this decay poison in your bowels. The one mild vegetable medicine which secures a free flow of bile juice is Carter's Little Liver Pills. No harsh ingredients in Carter's. Only pure, mild vegetable extracts. If you would bring back your personal charm to its normal, strong, healthy condition, take Carter's Little Liver Pills according to directions today. They do great things. "Nothing but good" for it may grip, loosen bowels or cool, soothe. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name and get what you want for $1.00, C. M. Co.

IF husbands did the housework every home would have an Automatic Gas Kitchen Only those who actually do the housework, realize what a difference it makes to have the important housekeeping appliances up-to-date. Husbands and wives alike will find that the modern automatic gas kitchen is an investment that saves both time and money. The automatic gas kitchen takes all the hard work out of housekeeping and brings organization and system into home management. The automatic gas range takes the effort out of cooking and gives you time for the things you would rather do. The automatic gas water heater supplies instant hot water at the turn of the faucet. The air-cooled gas refrigerator gives you modern refrigeration at its finest... without machinery and at low cost. If you are not enjoying all the advantages of modern gas appliances inspect the latest models now on display at your gas appliance dealer. Stamford and Western Gas Co

Modern Electric Cookery "Seals-In" Vital Health Elements of Foods In contrast to old-fashioned methods of cookery, the modern Electric Range makes it possible to serve meals of surpassing healthfulness... as well as incomparable flavor. And the reason is simple. With electricity foods are cooked in a minimum amount of water, or entirely in their own juices. The heat is concentrated directly on the bottom of the utensil... so the steam rises, condenses on the cool lid, and drops back into the vessel... to be used over and over. Thus, all vital food values remain "sealed-in". Don't Pour Food-Values Down the Sink If you're using an old-fashioned method of cookery, the most valuable elements of your foods are going into the sink... with the water you pour off vegetables and meats! For Health, for Convenience, and for Economy you should cook the modern electrical way. Prices and terms... right now... allow your purchase to fit into the family budget with ease. Ask for a demonstration of modern Electric Cookery... Today! Call us for an individual investigation of your use of electric service, to determine the cost of cooking by electricity in your home. You may be surprised to know that there are many cases where electric cookery actually decreases the total of electric and gas bills. West Texas Utilities Company

After these mid-term exams we seniors will not have any mind of our own. It took almost everything we knew to take the test on English IV. I don't know what we will do for the others. Can Miss Blanton give a hard test? I'll say she can! There isn't much news to report for the seniors this week. Nothing whatever over the week end, because we spent most of the time studying for exams. We certainly will be proud when these exams are over, (if we make the grade.)

We are very proud indeed of our ball teams. The senior girls are winning, although one of our best players is absent.

The Lone Star School put on an excellent play in the auditorium of our school last Thursday night. Everyone who came enjoyed it. We hope they will come back again.

JUNIORS

Here it is; mid-term examination week and no one ready for them. The Juniors played off today and did not come to school because they did not have an examination. But oh! Tomorrow we have two! Of all the juniors there are only four here today.

We are supposed to go home when our exams are over, but Elsie says that she had rather stay and worry the teachers.

Mr. Harber asked us in Geometry class the other morning, "When do the leaves begin to turn?" Elsie studied a while and said, "the night before examinations."

Our class president, Rex Howell, is out of school with a severe cold. We are hoping that he will be back soon, for we need him in our class, and especially on the ball team.

A certain Sophomore girl wishes that he was back too. We wonder why.

Mr. Harber was telling the pupils what to do when they did not have an exam. Mr. Hughes asked: "What will the teachers do when they don't have an exam to give?" Mr. Harber answered: "You can furnish the ice cream." We wonder if he meant to serve it to the entire high school or was he only joking?

SOPHOMORES

We are passing through the dreaded ordeal this week. By passing we mean that we hope we are passing the exam, but we are sorry to say that perhaps to some of us it may mean passing out of the door. That three-weeks test in Algebra may help us through the mid-term exam.

Although it is a serious time to have very much fun with the teachers, J. C. passed a compliment on our favorite teacher, (maybe all the teachers will get the impression that they are the favorite teacher.) As we were saying, J. C. passed a compliment on the favorite teacher to the favorite teacher's face. He said if her (or his) brains were dynamite and they exploded they would not knock the dandruff off her (or his) head.

Miss Blanton says she thinks that Jimmie and Jack get tickled at hearing their own laugh.

Mr. Hughes said he had so much electricity in his hat that it curled the teeth in the comb. But J. C. said that's nothing! Just listen to this: there's so much electricity in his hair that there is static when he talks.

We agree that the Parent-Teacher Association of Lone Star has some fine actors and actresses. We saw their exciting play, "Mother Mine," last Thursday night at Sunset.

We are glad to have Louise Russell back with us.

FRESHMEN

The freshmen are busy, as usual, taking exams and studying for others. We know what passing this first half means; it is merely two credits and one-eighth of the way through high school. You can hardly expect all of us to make perfect, but we know there will be a few to imitate Tom, Dick and Harry, the story Mr. Hughes told us.

Buddy Bumpass just returned from taking the English examination. He states that he left with a package of these papers but returned with only twenty sheets. We noticed his pitching his ink bottle into the waste basket as he ran by.

Some say that it is a very bad habit to cram before exams, but after taking that English exam, we freshmen wanted lunch time an hour earlier. And did we cram? Per-

Mr. and Mrs. Payne Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Payne celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Saturday, January 20, 1934, at their home about six miles northeast of Munday. Mr. and Mrs. Payne were called away to see a sick neighbor early in the morning and when they returned all the children and several old friends were gathered there and had brought a beautiful cake with "Golden Wedding Anniversary" and the year in which they were married written on it. This cake adorned the center of the table and with all other kinds of good things to eat, which they brought. Mr. and Mrs. Payne were the recipients of many nice gifts, among which was a beautiful radio, which will give them many pleasant memories of their golden wedding day.

Children present were; Dr. and Mrs. Payne of Slaton, Texas; Mrs. Mina Waldrop of Lamesa, Texas; Mrs. George Tidwell and children of Seymour; Mrs. John Polson and family, Eugene Payne and family, of the Hood community. Friends of the family present were J. W. Cartwright and Mrs. S. A. Russell of Goree and Mr. and Mrs. Murphy of the Hood community.
