Champs Slip Cog In Pennant Race At Peacock 2-1

The Champs slipped a cog in their machine Sunday when they journeyed away over to Peacock only to return with the disappointing end of a 2-1 score, and about the only excuse any of the lads have to offer for the defeat is that the old machine just wasn't working up to its usual efficiency, and it was just one of those days that a team will have at intervals. Four errors enabled the Peacock lads to put over the winning run while the Champs' only score resulted from a home-run registered by Shorty Koehler in the fifth. Pitching honors between Hambright and Weaver were about evenly divided, each allowing only six hits, while Hambright was credited with ten strike-outs and Weaver six.

All Clubs to Stay In League; Each Team to Post Fund

Rumors that some of the teams would drop from the circuit of the Wichita Valley League were put at rest at a meeting of league officials Tuesday evening at Haskell, according to Lee Hane, who represented the Champs in the meeting. And, furthermore, to insure that each team remains in the circuit and fills its appointments, each team will post an additional $25.00 to be forfeited when it fails to play a scheduled game unless unavoidably hindered by weather conditions or caused beyond control.

For some time it has been rumored that Aspermont and Knox City would not complete the season, but these rumors were denied by representatives of these clubs and they expressed a desire to stay in the circuit until the schedule is completed.

Rumors have also been afloat that the Rule team might drop out due to the fact that Mose Simms has retired from the management of the Sunday by the Haskell aggregation, Stamford would have been tied with the leaders. Anyway, the closeness of Stamford to the top insures that they are going to put up a stubborn scrap for Sunday's game and it will be a baseball classic.

Funeral Services For Mrs. N. E. Moore Held Here Sunday

Funeral services for Mrs. N. E. Moore, 72, who died at her home here Saturday, were held at the Baptist church Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock with the Rev. W. H. Albertson officiating, assisted by the Rev. H. C. Hand. Funeral arrangements were in charge of R. G. Campbell funeral home and interment was made in Johnson cemetery.

Mrs. Moore before her marriage was Miss Eva Blanton, and was born October 18, 1862, in Johnson county, Texas, and was married to Owen H. Moore near Cleburne on March 15, 1885. Mr. Moore preceded her in death some three years ago. Mrs. Moore was the mother of twelve children, two of whom died in infancy, and another, Mrs. Emerson Parramore, died two years ago. Surviving children are Mrs. W. J. Lewis and Willie Moore of Munday, Mrs. T. M. Goolsby, Lindale, Texas, Mrs. T. J. White, Novice, Texas, Mrs. A. M. Searcy, Munday, Texas, Mrs. Sammie Norwood, Tahoka, Texas, Mrs. Claude Hill, Munday, Texas, Mrs. Jim Proffitt, Bomarton, Texas, Mrs. R. T. Parramore Dallas. Forty-two grandchildren survive. She is also survived by four brothers, J. A. Blanton, Cleburne, J. F. and W. C. Blanton of Tolar, Texas, and G. C. Blanton of Dimmitt, Texas.

Early in life Mrs. Moore was converted and joined the church and lived a consecrated Christian life ever thereafter.

The family had resided in Munday and vicinity since 1917, coming to this section from their native Johnson county. She had been in ill health for some time.

Rhineland Makes Plans For Fourth of July Picnic

Rhineland is busy making preparations for its picnic on July 4. Everything possible is being done to make this the greatest and most enjoyable affair in its history. The festivities of the day are not only in commemoration of the great historical declaration made by our forefathers on July 4, 1776, but also to celebrate the opening of the new Rhineland bridge across the Brazos.

There will be plenty to eat and drink for everybody. No matter how fastidious your taste is, you will find here just what you want. Rhineland has always been known to serve you what you want and just as you want it.

A large outdoor platform, accommodating approximately 100 couples, will be built. The well-known Gordon C. Shays' orchestra of Wichita Falls will furnish the music for the dance.

Many attractions are being planned for your enjoyment. The Lone Star band will furnish good band music for your entertainment during the entire day.

Prominent candidates are being invited. Of course, all county candidates are cordially invited. Watch for announcements later.

Much interest is being taken by people from various sections of the county. Many liberal donations have been received from home people and from business people and friends from neighboring towns. John J. Hoffman has been elected secretary-treasurer. Due recognition will be made of all contributions. The proceeds of the picnic will be used to continue the building of the new church here, which was begun in 1927. Lack of funds, due to the depression, caused work on the new structure to cease for several years.

A hearty welcome is extended to all to come and enjoy the day with us.

Sunday's Game to Play Important Role in Contest

Sunday's game with the Stamford Steers may play an important part in the pennant race in the Wichita Valley League, since the Steers are only one game behind the Champs and should they win over Munday in Sunday's game here they would have the Champs tied, and anything might happen in this pennant race yet, for happen in the present time Rule and Munday are again tied for first place in the percentage column, and had it not been for Stamford's defeat Sunday by the Haskell aggregation, Stamford would have been tied with the leaders. Anyway, the closeness of Stamford to the top insures that they are going to put up a stubborn scrap for Sunday's game and it will be a baseball classic.

F. L. Anderson, residing on the D. B. Weaver farm north of town, was given a trial here Wednesday afternoon by Judge J. W. Melton and declared insane. Anderson was taken into custody upon complaints that he had beaten his wife and after investigation by local officers it was their opinion that the man was mentally deranged and the county officials were notified and the trial resulted in his conviction and he will likely be committed to one of the state institutions. The family moved here only a short time ago from Cleburne.

John W. Cartwright Buried Thursday

The many friends of J. W. Cartwright of Hefner were shocked Wednesday when the report of his death was received. While Mr. Cartwright had been in failing health for several months, his death was unexpected.

He seemed to have lost hope of regaining his health just a few days ago and members of his family who were with him could see that he was losing strength, however, he continued to get about as usual until Wednesday morning when a severe pain caused alarm and the doctor was sent for. The end came at 12:45 when he apparently closed his eyes and went to sleep peacefully.

The deceased was born in Georgia November 21, 1866. He had lived in Texas since he was 19 years of age. He had made his home in Knox county since 1910. He had been married twice. He was first married to Miss Minnie Rhoades in Parker county and after her death he was married to Miss Musie Jones, a half sister to Ed and Roy Jones. His last wife preceded him in death in December, 1933.

Five children from the first union survive. They are Mrs. Dr. Payne of Slaton, Mrs. W. F. Lovorn and Mrs. H. F. Crow of Portales, New Mexico. Mrs. Sidney Russell of Goree and J. W. Cartwright, Jr., of Bomarton. Four children from the last union survive. They are Howard, Roy, Harding and Omega, all single and living in Goree.

Mr. Cartwright was a member of the Baptist church and a Mason. Funeral services were held at the Friendship church Thursday afternoon with the Rev. J. C. Parks of Rev. Parks, the Masons took charge of the services.

Francis Albus Loses Limb in Motorcycle Crash at Rhineland

Francis Albus of Rhineland suffered the loss of his right foot below the ankle and knee joint in a motorcycle-automobile crash on the streets of Rhineland Wednesday night. Mr. Albus, riding a motorcycle from his home to his garage, crashed into an automobile driven by his brother, Pete Albus.

Dr. W. P. Farrington administered first-aid treatment and Mr. Albus was placed in the R. G. Campbell ambulance and rushed to Wichita Falls, where an examination revealed that the limb was crushed to such an extent that amputation was necessary, and late reports from there are to the effect that he is getting along nicely. Mr. Albus was rendered unconscious for some time following the crash but is believed to have suffered no injuries of consequence other than the crushed limb.

The victim of this unfortunate accident is a brother to John Albus, who was critically burned some months ago when the building of the Rhineland Mercantile company was blown up by the ignition of an accumulation of gas in the building.

Former Munday Man One of Victims In Auto Crash at Spur

A tragedy described as one of the most awesome in Plains history, near Spur late Saturday afternoon snuffed out the lives of five people when their automobiles crashed together, and among the victims was a former Munday citizen, Joe Collier, 46, who was a brother to Mrs. Walter Harris of this city, who was notified of the tragedy soon after it occurred. Others who were fatally injured in the tragic accident were Mrs. Harvey Holley 34, and son, L. A. Holley, 3, of seven miles north of Spur, R. E. Page, 51, and son, Mark D. Page, 5, both of near Grand. Four others were critically injured and at least two of the injured are not expected to survive.

Collier was reared in the Gillespie community and resided here until about ten years ago. He is survived by five children; his father, T. W. Collier; four brothers, Claude of Abilene, and Harvey, Pete and Hollis of Spur; and six sisters, Mrs. Alfred Tuttle of Edmond, Oklahoma, Mrs. John Chaney of Post, Mrs. Ruby Wadsworth of O'Brien and Mrs. Opal Guffey of Spur.

Collier was an automobile salesman for a Spur motor concern and at the time of the accident was demonstrating a car with the prospective customer at the wheel, and the tragedy occurred only a short distance from the Collier home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris and children attended funeral services for Collier at Spur Sunday, and Mr. Harris stated that the funeral services were attended by a large concourse of sorrowing friends.

Three Performances Daily at Cowboy Reunion July 2-3-4

Stamford, Texas, June 20.—Three rodeo performances daily will be staged this year during the Texas Cowboy Reunion, July 2, 3 and 4. A morning matinee has been added at one-half the adult price of admission to the regular afternoon and night performances.

W. G. Swenson, president, believes this will be an added convenience to the crowds attending the reunion, relieving the congestion which has resulted in the past from the great crowds attending the afternoon show. It will also give all the cowboy contestants in the rodeo an opportunity to perform before the crowds.

Mr. Swenson has called attention of visitors to the advantages of attending the night performances. The arena is so well lighted that the performers may be seen as well as in daylight and at the same time the spectators have the comfort of the cool night air.

The morning matinee will start at 9 a. m. each day and the regular performances at 2:15 p. m. and 8 p. m. Low admission prices are being maintained, some of the tickets being slightly lower than last year. Besides the additional performance to accommodate the increasing crowds at the rodeo, a new grandstand of approximately 1,000 seats has been added this year.

Rodeo prizes are more generous than ever before. Besides the cash prizes such as have been given for daily winners in the past, six saddles and other premiums are being given to champions in the various events this year. The total prize list will amount to over $3,000.

Rodeo events include the cutting-horse contest, oldtimers calf-roping, steer riding for juniors and the usual cowboy contests, bronc-riding, steer-riding, wild-cow-milking and calf-roping.

The rodeo is the attraction around which is built a continuous program of entertainment for three days and nights of the reunion.

Ben G. Oneal Made Address On Street Saturday Afternoon

Senator Ben G. Oneal of Wichita Falls spoke to several hundred citizens here Saturday afternoon in the interest of his candidacy for reelection to a second term as State Senator from the 23rd District.

Senator Oneal stated that he had fulfilled his promise to the citizens of the district in demanding that appropriations be cut, and as a result of the work of himself and other members of the Senate more than 14 million dollars had been cut from the original appropriation bills during the last session.

He also called attention to the fact that he was the author of the bill which permits the payment of taxes in two installments without penalty, and also was instrumental in procuring the present auto license law which extends the time for payment of automobile and truck licenses to March 1st of each year.

Senator Oneal, notwithstanding the fact that he is serving his first term, has been named on ten of the most important committees in the senate, one of which being that of chairman of the committee on Constitutional Amendments, and he has made a serious study of tax problems with a view of making lighter the tax burden on real estate.

J. W. Harris, 78 Recovering From Injuries Sustained

J. W. Harris, 78, is recuperating at the home of his son, Walter Harris, from injuries received last week when a small Ford car which he was driving along the Dickens-Crosbyton road near Silver Lake Falls was struck by a truck and demolished. Mr. Harris received severe bruises, but is recovering nicely and is still lamenting the loss of his car, which was completely demolished he said.

Colored Folks Here Enjoy Juneteenth

The colored folks of Munday celebrated June 19th with a big free barbecue and program, and everybody had a fine time, according to reports. A ball game scheduled for the afternoon was called off when the rival team failed to arrive at the scene of action, much to the disappointment of the colored population as well as many white folks who had planned to witness the game.

TODAY and TOMORROW

By Frank Parker Stockbridge

HISTORY and laws

The key to the future lies in the study of the past. If you want to know whether this, that or the other scheme for saving mankind from the consequences of its own folly will work, read history.

From time immemorial people have had a belief in the magic of laws. Laws can make people good, or so they believe. The prohibition laws were going to make everybody temperate.

Two thousand and more years ago the Greek philosopher Plato wrote: "How charming people are! Are they not as good as a play? Trying their hands at legislation and imagining that by reforms they will make an end to the dishonesties and rascalities of mankind!"

Solomon the Wise said much the same thing; so did Saint Paul. Today, as in the past, it is impossible to legislate avarice, selfishness and greed out of the human race.

PLANS always selfish

Men of imagination have tried their hands from the earliest days at working out plans for the Perfect State, in which everybody would be happy and contented. Plato, Francis Bacon, Sir Thomas Moore, Edward Bellamy and many others have written fascinating books telling how a planned economy would operate.

None of them ever worked, because all of these schemes have been based on the idea that the mass of humanity is imbued with elemental justice and wants everybody to have a square deal. The fact is that few of us care whether the other fellow gets a square deal or not. If we get what we want, whether squarely or otherwise, the other fellow can have what's left, provided someone else doesn't get it first.

NATURE steps in

The trouble with all human planning is that there are always incalculable factors which may upset all the plans. Nobody can ever be sure that he has taken all of them into account.

For example, the plans of the AAA for a reduction of wheat and corn acreage were all very well—if anyone could have taken the weather into account. But nature stepped in and did in one grand wholesale effort what the Government was trying to do with the co-operation of millions of farmers. The drought in the Northwest cut down production and sent prices up more speedily and more effectively than any human plan could possibly have done it.

The main trouble in getting plans for the benefit of humanity to work, however, is that you never can get everybody to agree to travel in the same direction at the same speed. That can only be done by force. In private business the force is the threat of loss of employment if one doesn't do team-work. Government can compel general compliance with any plan only by fines, imprisonment and, if those fail, machine guns.

That sort of enforced co-operation is only possible under a dictatorship. RUSSIA then and now

I knew the Grand Duke Alexander of Russia, cousin of the last Czar, pretty well. That is, I met him a number of times at the homes of New York friends, and had numerous conversations with him. I have just finished re-reading his book, "Once a Grand Duke," and I am again convinced that the common people of Russia enjoyed a great deal more liberty under the Romanoffs than they have had since the revolution under the Soviets.

The only thing the Czarist government demanded of them was that they keep order among themselves and pay their taxes.

Now the poor Russian people are compelled to live according to a prepared plan, to conform to standards imposed upon them whether they like them or not. They are punished if they protest. Under the Czars the newspapers of Russia enjoyed greater liberty of expression than those of almost any other Continental nation. Now the press is muzzled and the people have no voice.

I have not heard that they are happy. SECURITY rather limited

The whole idea back of most plans for the regimentation of people is the redistribution of wealth and the equalization of the economic status of everybody. That is why every such plan is accompanied by propaganda against the wealthy and the means whereby wealth has been accumulated.

THE GOVERNORS RACE.

Editor O. C. Harrison of the Baylor County Banner, commenting on the visit of Attorney General James V. Allred to that city recently, while heartily approving the contention of Mr. Allred that members of the legislative bodies should not be permitted to accept employment from public service corporations that have an interest in legislation, continues by expressing the opinion that Mr. Allred is a "grandstander, and a man who is continually appealing to popular opinion and prejudice."

By the same line of reasoning the Seymour contemporary might have concluded, had he have at that time reached the age of conclusions, that James Stephen Hogg fit into the same category, for in that day the citizenry was in revolt against the railroads on account of the rates charged for freight and passenger fares, and Hogg campaigned Texas on the promise that if he was elected the railroads would be regulated, and as a result of that election we have the Texas Railroad Commission. Followers of his opponent in that memorable campaign contended that competition would adjust the rates. Today Hogg stands out to the forefront among the many able men who have served as Governor of Texas.

Indeed, after reading the platforms and speeches of the various candidates one must form the conclusion that Jimmy Allred has about the only platform that is worth considering, and the fact that the various other candidates are silent on the corrupt practices mentioned by Allred in his speeches might indicate that they are looking to these interests antagonistic to Mr. Allred for financial support as well as moral support in the campaign.

The disgraceful attempt to defeat Jimmy Allred for Attorney General two years ago was one of the most brazen efforts the major oil companies have ever made to dominate the politics of this state, and certainly there's no reason, from developments in this campaign to believe that they're not just as anxious to defeat him for governor, and our prediction is that regardless of who goes into the runoff with Mr. Allred they will have an abundance of financial support from those corporations that feel no unrest so long as they may continue to employ a certain number of members of the legislative bodies.

Edgar Witt, whom Editor Harrison expresses a preference for, while conceding that Mr. Allred will in all likelihood be the next governor, would probably make as good an executive as some of the others, since he like the others promises relief from taxes without telling how he will do it, he comes out for the payment of old-age pensions like most of the others without giving his plan of raising funds with which to pay them. Anyway, his logic is better than that of those who believe that a candidate's fitness for office depends largely upon whether he is a wet or dry, and our prediction is that some of those who have been yelping for the return of liquor will find that in the final analysis that the rank and file of Texas voters have awakened after more than a quarter century to the fact that demagogic politicians have been using the liquor issue as a smoke screen to divert the minds of the people to some of the matters that Jimmy Allred is discussing in this campaign.

Bill Moore says:—"The public is taking to the NEW CHEVROLET . . . Knee Action," and he's ready to demonstrate it to any who may doubt its merit . . .

CHEVROLET'S

Presenting
THE 4-DOOR SPORT SEDAN

CHEVROLET Chevrolet proudly presents the new Sport Sedan as the most beautiful model ever built by any manufacturer of low-priced cars. On a long chassis embodying Chevrolet's combination of exclusive features—enclosed Knee-Action, an 80-mile-an-hour, 80-horsepower engine, cable-controlled brakes, and all the rest—is mounted a body that combines five-passenger capacity, exceptional luggage space, and more de luxe touches than we have space to tell about. If appearance and convenience come first with you, and you wish to stay in the low-price field—here, beyond a doubt, is your car.

PEOPLE who have an eye for handsome lines will admire the way the spacious trunk merges into the body lines. And make no mistake about it—handsome as this trunk is, it is a decidedly practical feature.

The plea is always that everybody is entitled to equal economic security. That is as contrary to human experience, in which there has never been any such thing as economic security for anybody, that it can only work so long as the dictatorship which enforces the plan is in full power. Eventually, every experiment of that kind—and they have been tried many times in the world's history—ends with the collapse of the plan and a return to the ancient system under which the competent get more than the incompetent, the industrious more than the lazy, and the competent and industrious have to take care of the others.

Will Rogers' First Speech Most Vital

Will Rogers has made many speeches during his career. But the first words he ever uttered in public changed the whole course of his life.

It occurred one night nearly 30 years ago while he was in vaudeville, spinning two ropes. One of his spurs caught in one of the ropes and Rogers muffed the trick.

"Got my feet through all but one of 'em," muttered the comedian and stage laughed.

Those of the audience nearest the stage saw the rope and the stick of gum.

The next night, either by accident or design, the same thing happened, and from that time on, talk gradually crept into his act.

Before that, all he had to depend upon was a pair of chops, the two ropes and a stick of gum.

"Had it not been for that spur and rope getting tangled up I might still be spinning ropes," declared Rogers on the "David Harum" set at the Fox Film studio recently. "It is the little things that guide the entire course of our lives."

"For instance, one day I was on the way to the Brown building in Buffalo, New York, to patronize my favorite barber. A few yards from the entrance to the shop, which was on the ground floor, a beggar stepped me and asked for a dime.

"I did considerably fumbling before I was able to fish out a quarter to give him and, in the meantime, the Brown building collapsed and killed everybody in the barber shop."

"They were excavating for another building close by and the earth gave way, causing the Brown structure to fall into the hole. That was the narrowest escape from death I ever had and I was mighty glad that beggar held me up long enough for the thing to happen while I was outside."

"David Harum" begins a two day engagement at the Rexy Theatre on June 26-27.

H. D. CLUB.

BEDROOM IS IMPROVED FOR COUNTY CONTEST

"This year, when I volunteered to be the bedroom demonstrator in my club, I had no idea I could ever have as comfortable a room as I really have," said Margaret Westbrook, 4-H bedroom demonstrator in the Truscott club.

"My room is on the west side of a six-room house. I have five windows and two doors. Before I started my bedroom work, I had a small closet, a bay window that couldn't be cleaned, an old desk, a piano and other objects that were not so desirable in my room.

"This room is 16x16 feet and I have plenty of room. My father and other members of the family helped me paper my room. As I wanted my room finished as nearly as possible in brown and pink, I obtained the best paper suited for these colors. Mother and I varnished over the pink woodwork and made it a dark oak. My linoleum was brown. I obtained several small rugs. I varnished around the edge of the rug with a dark oak varnish.

"At first my closet was very low and was 4 feet wide. It was constructed of sheet rock. I had it built up to the ceiling with wood. A small door was made to slide up and down in the top. This provided storage space for quilts and suitcases.

In the lower part I had room for only one shelf which I made out of another piece of the box. I made my rod of a broom stick. I painted the rod a shade of brown. Of course I papered both inside and out the closet and painted the woodwork. To build a door to the closet was inconvenient; so I fixed a curtain before the door. This was made of unbleached domestic embroidered with pink. It was fastened on a stick and the stick was hung on hooks.

"I took the board off the front of the bay window. This enabled me to clean it easier. I also painted it. "Both curtains and window shades I had. They blend in with the colors in my room very well. The screens were fixed on securely and I plan to get a frame for these soon.

"I framed all my pictures except one. They are small and I have only four in my room.

"These are the principle things I have done to my room. I have enjoyed my work as bedroom demonstrator greatly, and in fact, I enjoy all 4-H club work.

"My co-operators have made shoe racks, have plans for their bedspreads and improved their beds. Every one had arranged their bedrooms and most of them have re-finished some furniture. Most every one has cleaned their rooms thoroughly and have kept them clean."

"I am really going to have my pantry filled this year and other than that I am going to have it well organized," said Mrs. Marion Ryder, 4-H pantry demonstrator in the Gililand Home Demonstration club.

Mrs. Ryder is planning to add shelves to her cellar so that she may organize her canned products so that they will be displayed nicely and also be convenient to get to. Mrs. Ryder plans to get labels for her containers as another means for improving the appearance of her pantry.

These 4-H pantries will be judged early in October in preparation for a county-wide tour that will be conducted at that time.

You Don't Have to Buy a Thing to Win!

Stamford and Western Gas Co. LONE STAR GAS SYSTEM

"REMEMBER GIRLS . . . I must leave at 4 to cook supper . . ."

"Goodness, Evelyn," says Rose, "when will you ever make up your mind to get an Electric Range? We girls also have to have 6:30 suppers, but it's no problem at all with automatic cooking. We just put the entire meal in the oven before going out, set the clock control, and supper is being cooked while we play. The same control automatically turns off the current when the cooking process should stop, and the insulated oven retains sufficient heat to keep the food tender and piping hot to serve when we want it."

"Don't say you can't afford one. Really, it's so economical. Costs less than a penny per person, per meal, to operate, and you can buy one on a small down payment and easy terms. I wouldn't be without one, would you girls?"

"Do you know that your increased use of Electric Service is billed on a surprisingly low rate schedule . . . and adds only a small amount to your total bill?"
