Munday Champs Win First Half In Classic Game

The Munday Champs made a wise step toward retaining that title last Thursday afternoon when they defeated Rule 4-3 before a large crowd of enthusiastic fans in the Hamlin ball park. The game was the final one of a three game series to determine the winner of the first half of the season in the Wichita Valley League, each team having previously won one game, Munday defeating Rule here and Rule defeating Munday at Rule, hence the third game was played on neutral grounds.

Lefty Hambricht, Munday's one-handed ace, stepped in there and did his stuff, allowing the heavy-hitting Rule aggregation only seven bingles throughout the game, two of which were home-runs. Big Jake Myers also contributed very materially to Munday's victory by driving in the winning score in the ninth inning, while Aubrey Myers had a good day at bat, hitting 3 for 3, and Shorty Kuhler was close behind with 2 for 3.

William Gulic, Knox Pioneer, Succumbs At Home Near Goree

William Gulic, familiarly known over this section as "Uncle Bill" Gulic, 87, one of the earliest settlers of Knox county, died at his home near Goree Saturday and funeral services were conducted Sunday, with Rev. J. R. Balch, pastor of the Baptist church at Seymour, and Rev. W. H. Albertson, local Baptist pastor, officiating.

Mr. Gulic was born at Elkhardt, Indiana, April 14, 1847, and in 1862 he went to Colorado, where he resided until 1878 when he came to Texas, following the old cattle trail through Guthrie, Benjamin and Seymour, and first locating near Graham, then an outpost of civilization. He had resided in the same location in Knox county for the past 44 years.

In 1883 he was married to Miss Mary Jane Colthrop, a member of another pioneer Knox county family, and to them six children were born, three of whom survive. They are Mrs. Harp Jones, Mrs. J. C. Paris and Mrs. Dibrel Jones, all of Goree.

Hundreds Here For Election Returns Saturday Evening

Probably the largest crowd ever to assemble here on an occasion of that character was here Saturday evening to attend the election party made possible by the business concerns of Munday, the Munday Chamber of Commerce. In addition to the large bulletin board upon which was posted the county returns as fast as they came in, a loud speaker was installed in front of the city hall ever which state returns were given as they were received. The crowd remained until near midnight waiting for further state returns, which were difficult to get due to restrictions placed upon the giving out of information by the Texas Election Bureau.

TODAY and TOMORROW

By Frank Parker Stockbridge

BANDITS and boys
In my boyhood the most glamorous figure in boyhood was Jesse James, the Missouri bandit. His exploits in robbing banks and holding up railroad trains were celebrated in song and story and when Bob Ford shot him most American boys felt that a hero of romance was dead. Years later I got to know his brother, Frank James, who was a partner in many of his escapades. He said there had never been a minute of his life that he had not bitterly regretted his youthful sins, and he deplored especially the bad effect the example of himself and brother had upon impressionable youth.

I see signs that something of the same sort of wrong-headed but quite understandable hero-worship may preserve the memory of John Dillinger. Boys are still boys. They admire courage and dare-devilry, without moralizing much about the object or the motives of the men they consider "brave." I do not think modern boys are any worse than boys were in my youth, or more easily influenced.

It is human nature to regard the outlaw with admiration. He had the courage to defy authority, and every boy in his secret heart wishes he had the nerve to cut loose from the restraints which parental and school discipline impose upon him. That, I think, is the secret of the continuing popularity of the story of Robin Hood, the bandit of Sherwood Forest, who after five hundred years is still a glamorous figure of romance.

DEMOGOGUES in politics
The success of so many impressionable demagogues in politics is rooted in the same trait of human nature as admiration for the outlaw. Folk who don't or can't think very deeply or reason things out for themselves, admire the man who shouts the loudest defiance to the existing order of things and makes the most glittering promises of what he is going to do for the common people if he is elected.

That type of mind attributes the conservatism of the well-balanced to timidity or to their having been "sought by the interests." It makes little difference a manly folk whether their popular hero ever delivers what he promised.

It is essential for him to keep on bawling, however. Once he shuts his mouth his followers turn to some other fellow who will tell them what they want to hear.

POLITICS in our system
I look for little improvement in politics under our present system, which makes it incumbent upon leaders to go to the people for reelection every two or four years, and keep them in office for a stated term, no matter how incompetent or irresponsible they may turn out to be.

There is a great deal to be said for the parliamentary system of government in England, in which no man holds any important office having to do with the shaping of policies for any longer than he has the confidence of the nation, represented in the House of Commons.

I don't imagine we will ever change our system so radically as to follow the English method, but I do know that many people are beginning to recognize the faults inherent in our way of doing things, and look for a gradual elimination of one of the worst of them.

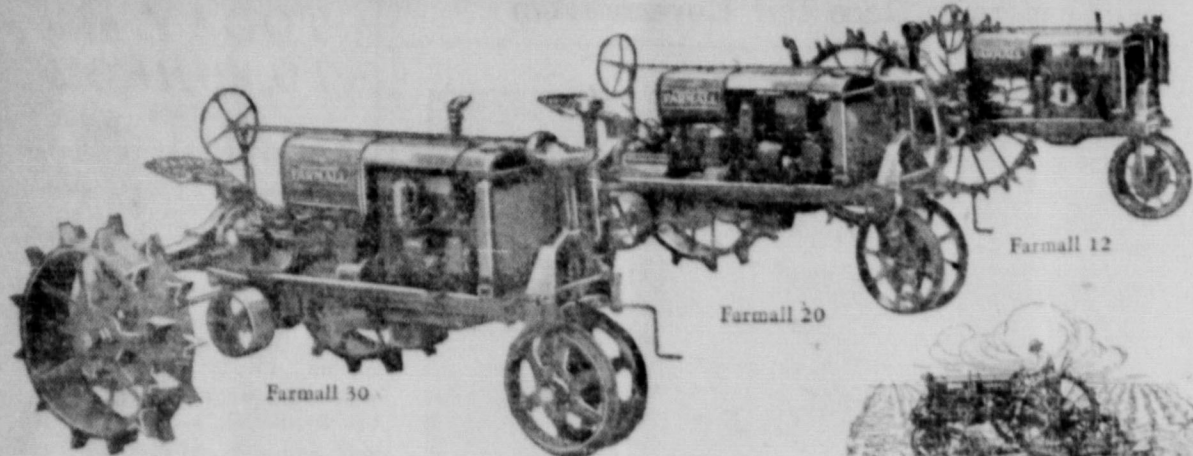

WISDOM then and now
I was re-reading some of Benjamin Franklin's letters the other day. I was especially impressed by one that he wrote to an Englishman who had asked him about opportunities in America, back in 1776. Among other things he warned people against coming to America in the expectation of getting a chance at a lucrative public office.

The constitution of Pennsylvania Yankin pointed out as typical of the whole, provided that no public office should have a salary or stipend attached to it large enough to make anyone want the job for the sake of the money reward! How differently public affairs are run today.

I have an idea that one way to cure a lot of the evils of politics would be to cut all official salaries to the point where anyone competent to fill them could make so much more money doing something else that he would have to be dragged

Here Is the Famous FARMALL FAMILY

Qualified to Provide Any Farm With Economical Power

MANY good things come in threes, and among the very best from the farm point of view is FARMALL power—in THREE sizes. Here they all are—F-30, F-20, and F-12—each of them ready not only to plow but to plant, cultivate, row belt machines, and handle all row-crop and general-purpose needs.

The FARMALL 12

In the low-cost McCormick-Deering Farmall 12 you get all the advantages of Farmall design when it comes to cultivating. These exclusive patented Farmall features—quick-dodging ability, forward location of gangs, and braking either rear wheel through the steering gear for square turns—are built into the Farmall 12. Equipped with the McCormick-Deering 2-row Cultivator, the Farmall 12 has a capacity of 20 to 30 acres a day in corn, cotton, potatoes, and other crops planted in rows 28 to 44 inches apart.

In haying time, too, the Farmall 12 offers all the special Farmall advantages. It can be equipped with a 7-foot Farmall mower and used to cut 20 to 30 acres a day. And it readily takes on other haying tasks, efficiently powering rakes, sweep rakes, hay presses, etc.

See this efficient, economical Farmall 12 and its modern equipment at the nearby McCormick-Deering dealer's store. Or write for complete information on this or any other McCormick-Deering Tractor.

Did He hesitate for a moment? Was there an instant in which the temptation to seize this proffered leadership battled with His real desire? We know only the final decision, which was quickly made:

When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again into a mountain himself alone.

From that hour His popularity waned. Most of those who had followed Him in the hope of reward through a successful revolution began to drop away.

From that time many of His disciples went back and walked no more with Him.

Even the twelve were disappointed and disheartened. Why was it necessary for Him to be so inflexible? Why must He always abuse the Pharisees and other influential people? Why turn so abruptly from those who could be of so much help? Jesus alone saw clearly. He led them away from Galilee into the foreign shores of Tyre and Sidon.

He wanted to be alone with them, to try to make them understand why He must refuse temporal power; why indeed it would be necessary for Him to insure the permanency of His message by sealing it with His blood.

He must "go into Jerusalem," He told them, "and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed." Indignantly they sought to dissuade Him. "Be it far from thee, Lord," the hot-headed Peter exclaimed. "This shall never be done unto thee." Their remonstrances were in vain.

The whole last year of His ministry has a different tone. He is far more emphatic, far more audacious. Knowing that compromise is useless. He lashes out against the smug complacency of the Pharisees who render lip service to Jehovah but are rotten at the core with selfishness and greed.

THE BOOK

(By Bruce Barton)

Jesus, miracles caused His reputation to spread before Him, and the most dramatic of them, the feeding of a host of people, was followed by one great moment of triumph, which, however, marked the beginning of the end.

That multitude of people whom he had seated in groups of fifty and a hundred rose to their feet after their miraculous meal and discovered that they were an army. They looked up with new eyes at the strong young man who had fed them as Moses had fed their ancestors in the wilderness.

The words of the prophets surged into their minds. Here indeed was a son of David; here was the promised leader who should free his people, drive the Romans before him, and sit again upon the throne in Jerusalem. With a great shout they surged forward.

Thinking Out Loud

By J. A. K.

It is certain that a precedent was established Saturday when James V. Alfred, Tom F. Hunter and Chas. McDonald, three leading candidates for Governor, cast their votes in the same ballot box at Wichita Falls.

Munday's election party eclipsed anything in history, and despite the fact that those sponsoring the affair were handicapped in getting state returns, due to restrictions placed upon it by the Texas Election Bureau, fairly good reports were available throughout the evening.

The action of the Texas Election Bureau and the large daily newspapers which maintain that organization might possibly be reflected in future legislation, for with restrictions placed upon returns there might be a demand that the state appropriate funds for gathering returns to give to the public as they are received.

With the continued co-operation of the officers and citizens I feel that, in the future, I will be better able to perform the duties of your District Attorney.

This office is yours. When I may be of service to you do not hesitate to command me. Your advice and suggestions at all times are appreciated.

Again assuring you of my appreciation, I am,

Sincerely,

J. DONNELL DICKSON

District Attorney

Candidates Thank Voters

LEE HAYMES EXPRESSES THANKS

According to unofficial tabulations of returns of Saturday's primary, I received sufficient votes to go into the primary on August 25, and I wish to express my sincere gratitude to the voters of the county for the vote given me, and should the official tabulation sustain the present returns I shall make an active campaign for election in August, and shall try to see as many voters as possible in the meantime. I am indeed grateful for your vote and ask that my candidacy be given due consideration in the runoff.

Respectfully,
LEE HAYMES.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to take this method of expressing my sincere thanks to the voters of Knox county for the vote given me in Saturday's primary and wish to assure each and every one that no one could be more appreciative for friends than I, and the fact that I failed to receive sufficient votes to remain in the race does not in the least lessen my appreciation.

Respectfully,
M. G. NIX.

D. C. OSBORNE THANKS HIS FRIENDS FOR SUPPORT

I wish to thank all my friends and neighbors for the vote I received last Saturday. I appreciate very much the many acts of co-operation by the people of this precinct since I have been serving you as your commissioner.

Whether you voted for me Saturday, I want you to know that I deeply appreciate your friendship in the past, and should I be re-elected, I will continue in the future as I have in the past to look after the business of the precinct the very best I can.

With nothing but the kindest of feelings toward each and every citizen of the precinct, I assure you that I shall be satisfied with your action August 25.

Sincerely yours,
D. C. OSBORNE.

ED JONES EXPRESSES GRATITUDE FOR VOTE RECEIVED IN PRECINCT

I wish to express my sincere thanks to the voters of Precinct No. 4 for the vote given me in Saturday's primary for County Commissioner, and will say that I am still in the race and will make an effort to see as many of the voters as possible between now and the 25th, and personally solicit your support.

Respectfully,
ED JONES.

TO THE VOTERS OF KNOX COUNTY

I wish to take this method of expressing my sincere thanks and gratitude to the citizens of Knox county for the excellent vote given me in Saturday's primary, and want to assure you I shall continue to strive to merit your confidence in the future as I have in the past by making you the best official that is within my power to do. After having served as a peace officer in the county for twenty years, I feel that your vote Saturday was an approval of my official services, and I shall continue to give my best efforts to the discharge of the duties of the sheriff's office with the sincere hope that I shall merit the confidence you have shown by your vote, and for which I shall always feel grateful.

Respectfully,
C. R. ELLIOTT.

TO THE VOTERS OF KNOX COUNTY

Please accept my sincerest thanks for the splendid vote of confidence given me in my recent campaign for Tax Assessor-Collector of Knox County.

I am proud of the large vote given me in the first primary and assure you that I shall appreciate your continued support in the run-off primary August 25.

It will be impossible to see every voter personally in the short time left to make the campaign so to those I fail to see, please consider this a personal solicitation of your vote and influence.

Senator Ben G. Oneal Thanks Voters Knox County For Support

Senator Ben G. Oneal of Wichita Falls, who led by more than 5,000 votes in the first primary for the Democratic nomination for the State Senate from the 23rd Senatorial District, issued the following expression of appreciation to his friends and to the voters generally in Knox County.

I wish to express to my many friends in Knox County and to the voters generally my thanks for the large vote they gave me. The returns show that I lacked only a few votes of getting as many in Knox County as my three opponents all together got.

I am glad to say to my friends in Knox County that I led in all of the other eight counties in the district, with the single exception of Archer County, where Judge Dyeus, one of the other candidates, lives, and that in that county I was a close second.

I am deeply grateful to my many friends in Knox County who freely gave their time and effort in my behalf.

I consider the vote of last Saturday as an endorsement of my record in the State Senate and as an expression on the part of the people that they want more business methods and less politics in the State government.

TO THE CITIZENS OF KNOX COUNTY, TEXAS

May I take this means of extending to you my appreciation for the splendid vote of confidence you gave me. I am particularly indebted to those staunch friends and supporters who so faithfully and unflinchingly supported my candidacy. No hesitancy is entertained in recognizing the fact that one may be just as great a defeat as in victory, and that, of course, is my part. Even, though, so far as I am concerned, the race is over, the last chapter written and the book closed; it is with much pleasure that I look back on the past weeks, the many new friendships won, and the pleasant contacts made.

To my opponents, Mrs. Branton and Mr. Hughes, I am deeply grateful for the clean, free-from-mudslinging campaign they conducted. They are both fine, upright and efficient, and will continue, I am sure, the same campaign policies in the run-off that we followed up until now. As respects the ultimate outcome, I refuse to prophesy or strive to affect it in any way. May the best man, acting upon his own own initiative and running his or her own race, win.

Again receive my thanks for your manifestation of confidence, and, regardless of whether or not you supported me, receive my friendship.

Sincerely yours,
VERNON BREWER.

E. L. COVEY THANKS VOTERS FOR SUPPORT GIVEN HIM SATURDAY

May I take this means of thanking my loyal friends for the vote Saturday that gave me a big lead over my opponents. I also wish to express my sincere appreciation for all the help that I received during the campaign.

If you did not vote for me Saturday, I want to ask that you give my candidacy your careful consideration before the run-off election Aug. 25. Should you cast your vote for me and I am elected, I shall show my appreciation by giving you the very best service that I can.

Again assuring you that I appreciate all past favors, and soliciting your co-operation and friendship in the future, I am,

Sincerely,
E. L. COVEY.

REID THANKS VOTERS

I take this method of expressing my sincere thanks to the voters who cast their ballot for me in Saturday's primary, and wish to solicit the votes of those who voted for others in the run-off primary. I shall make an effort to see all the voters of the precinct between now and August 25, and should I fail, please take this as an earnest solicitation of your vote on that date.

Respectfully,
WALLACE REID.

TO THE VOTERS OF PRECINCT 1

I take this method of extending my sincere thanks to the voters of Precinct 1 who cast their vote for me in Saturday's primary, and wish to solicit the support of those who voted for others in the race in the August run-off. I shall try to see as many voters as possible before August 25, but should I fail, please take this as a solicitation for your vote.

Respectfully,
D. W. DAVIS.

J. LYNDALE HUGHES IS THANKFUL FOR SUPPORT IN SATURDAY PRIMARY

I wish to express my sincere thanks to the voters for the excellent vote given me in Saturday's primary, in which I received sufficient votes to go into the run-off primary August 25, and permit me to say that no one will appreciate the vote of the unsuccessful candidate more than myself, and I earnestly solicit your consideration. The campaign has been a clean one and I shall continue to solicit the support upon my merits as a school man whose life shall be devoted to the education of the youth of our country, and I respectfully solicit your support and influence during these next few weeks.

Respectfully,
J. LYNDALE HUGHES.

TO THE CITIZENS OF THE THIRTEENTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart for the splendid vote you gave me for Congress in the first primary, at which time you carried for me eight counties in the district and gave me a lead over my nearest opponent of 1809 votes.

I stayed on the job at Washington until Congress adjourned and was thus deprived of sufficient time to cover the district after my return home. My opponents were busily engaged campaigning among you since the first of the year. I expect to immediately begin an active campaign throughout the district and trust that those believing in honest efficient service and that such a record should be given a second term will help me to organize our forces in the run-off campaign. The fight is now on but the continuation of the fight I have made during my first term in Congress for you against graft, crime, special privileges and for the constructive program of the President on behalf of the "forgotten man."

I want to again thank you for your help in the first primary—let's organize and fight for the victory just ahead.

Your friend,
W. D. McFARLANE.

MRS. BRANTON THANKS KNOX COUNTY VOTERS

I desire to express to the voters of Knox county my deep gratitude for your loyalty and splendid vote that you gave me July 28. The vote which I received is extremely gratifying and I construe it as an endorsement of a progressive organization of our school system. Your vote indicates your appreciation of years of service in the various school positions, and if one that has always been professionally active and thoroughly familiar with the school conditions of Knox county.

It will be impossible for me to call at all of your homes again, but I shall endeavor to see you and solicit your continued support. Should I fail to see you, let this express my sincere, and my desire to serve you as your next County School Superintendent.

Sincerely yours,
MRS. E. F. BRANTON.

PETER LORAN THANKS FRIENDS FOR SUPPORT

While I am among those who were eliminated in Saturday's primary, I am none the less thankful to my many good friends for the vote given me, and entertain no animosity against those who did otherwise. I shall always be grateful to my friends for their loyal support.

Respectfully,
PETER LORAN.

One Box Missing In Congress Race

A total of 1,794 voters separated Sam Spence and W. D. McFarlane in their race for congress Monday as complete returns came in from Young county. Despite McFarlane's residence in Young county, the veteran Wichita Falls district attorney polled only 351 votes less than McFarlane in that county.

With the Young county count complete, only about 45 votes over the entire district had not been counted. This was from one box in Denton county, and could not affect the race materially.

The tabulated returns:

into taking the office. SERVICE . . . incentive lacking

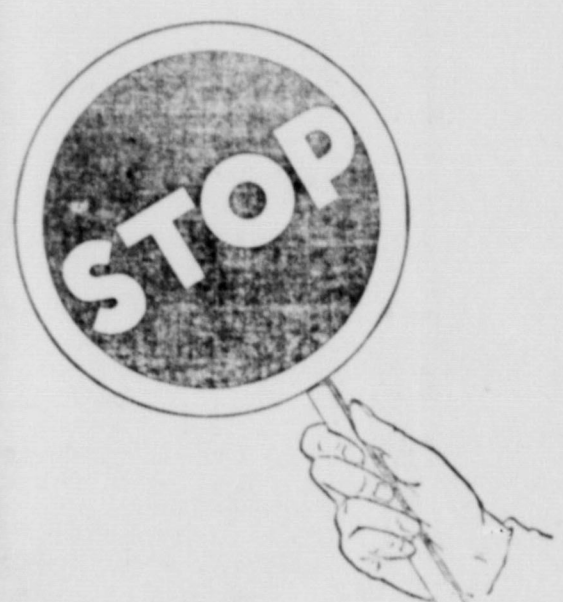

Public service as a career rather than as a means of putting money into one's pocket has not appealed strongly to the great mass of American young men. The national standard of success has been measured in dollars instead of in the social value of the individual's life.

I think there is an increasing tendency among young men of high ability to prepare themselves for governmental posts, but I see no signs of any change in the system of throwing all the best men out when a new party takes charge of things and filling their places with those whose chief qualification is their partisanship.

Arthur Morgan, head of the Tennessee Valley Authority, spoke wisely the other day when he said that wrong end too. They protect the holders of unimportant jobs, which take no particular competence to fill, whereas they ought to protect the important posts, if the real purpose is to improve the public service rather than to take part of political hangers-on.

My dear Mrs. G. H. Craig are visiting relatives here and are moving their household effects to Abilene, where they will make their home in the future.

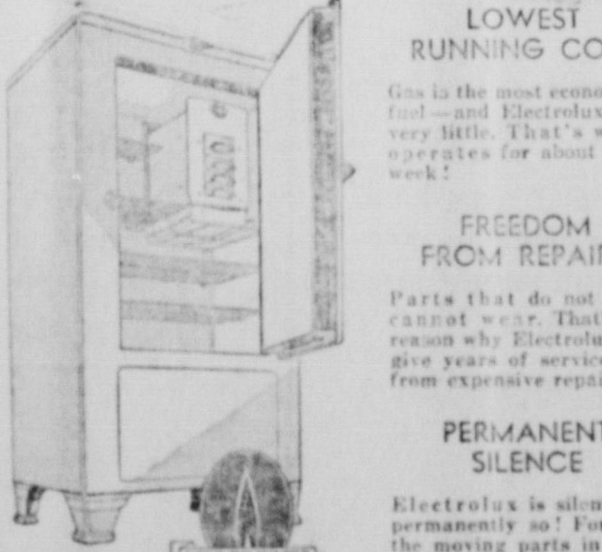

Get the true facts before you buy your Refrigerator

HERE'S one sure way to get the facts about refrigerator performance. And that's to ask the woman who owns the refrigerator. She hasn't anything to sell and you can depend on her for a straight-from-the-shoulder answer. Find out if hers has the power to deliver safe refrigeration these torrid days . . . if it makes any noise . . . about repairs . . . its operating cost . . . its conveniences.

And if she's a GAS Refrigerator owner you'll find that she enjoys safe refrigeration for a remarkably low operating cost, the comfort of permanent silence, and the assurance that parts that do not move cannot wear.

FREEDOM FROM REPAIRS

PERMANENT SILENCE

Electrolux is silent, and permanently so! For it is the moving parts in a refrigerator that cause noise. But Electrolux has none!

A Statement From The E. K. Secretary

Many rumors have come to our ears concerning the condition of our insurance association. The E. K. is in A-1 condition and has more money in the banks than it has had for years, and all claims have been paid in full.

Concerning the change to the adequate level premium plan, the loss in membership has been light and everyone seems delighted to be able to know just what he will have to pay each month. Those remaining on the $1.10 death assessment plan will be cared for by merging with another group close by and will continue to enjoy the $1.10 death assessment protection.

We sell pure protection on an adequate rate.—G. B. JONES, Secretary.
