TODAY and TOMORROW

By Frank Parker Stockbridge

ANIMALS . . . and children

It was Sidney Smith, the famous English wit of a century ago, who said: "The more I see of men, the better I like dogs." The reason why every normal human being finds the lesser animals interesting, it seems to me, is that when you come to know them you can always count on their attitude toward any situation. That is decidedly not true of mankind, except in rare instances.

Some of the finest friendships I have ever known have been between children and their pet animals. Children seldom understand grown-ups, who live in a different kind of world and do the most unexpected things, from the child's point of view. But a dog or a cat or almost any other animal meets the child on a level of equality. Neither is concerned with any problems except those of the moment. What the future has in store for them, doesn't worry them, because the idea that there is any future finds no lodgment in their minds.

When a man or a woman gets too self-centered to be interested in animals and their ways he or she is out of balance. I would hate to trust a child to the care of anyone who doesn't like the little beasts of the hearth and the fields.

FOXES . . . in U.S.A.

I feel sorry for city children who grow up without seeing any animals except dogs, cats and horses, unless they go to the Zoo. To them all other animals seem dangerous, because they see them only behind the bars of their cages.

The other day a little gray fox from the Long Island woods strayed into a New York suburb, and women and children ran shrieking into their houses, crying "Wolf!" The police finally captured the frightened beast and took him to the city Zoo.

Probably nobody concerned realized that the gray fox, which is becoming rarer and rarer in the East, is the only native fox south of the Canadian border. The common red fox was unknown in America until about 200 years ago, when a group of sportsmen, trying to introduce their English sport of fox-hunting into the colonies, imported a few pairs of red foxes from England and turned them loose on Long Island. Now their progeny have driven the gray foxes back into the deep woods, all over New England, New York, New Jersey and Eastern Pennsylvania.

MONKEYS . . . and us

I don't think I know anybody who isn't interested in the human-like antics of monkeys, who are so much like miniature people that we're instinctively feel kinship with them. But most folk feel an instinctive terror of the great apes, the orangutans, gorillas and even chimpanzees. They are so very much like humans that we can't feel sure how they will react to emotional stimuli, and they are so much stronger, size for size, than any human being, that there is generally a decided fear of personal violence should something anger them.

My friend Ben Harbridge brought a baby gorilla home from Africa a few years ago and I got to be well acquainted with her. She was an affectionate creature, who would tear the clothes off anybody she liked, in the effort to show her affection. She didn't realize, of course, how much stronger she was than a man or woman.

After a while she, like all the other apes in captivity, had to be sent to a Zoo, for safety. It would have been kinder to have left her in her native jungle.

ELEPHANTS . . . old Jumbo

Of all the animals I have ever known I like the elephants the best. They seem to me to be far more intelligent, docile and friendly than any of the other larger animals, and there is something about their bulk and strength and their calm outlook on life that inspires confidence.

I knew old "Hattie," the very first elephant ever brought to America. She was more than 100 years old when she died at the New York Hippodrome a few years ago; there was a record of her appearance at public exhibitions for 103 years! And in my boyhood I had the rare privilege of a ride on the back of "Jumbo," the great African elephant of the old Barnum circus, who stood 11 feet high. Jumbo was killed in a train wreck in Canada, while trying to protect some of the smaller elephants.

I can say, with Sidney Smith, that the more I see of humans the better I like the other animals.

Referendum on Bankhead Bill To Be Conducted Friday, Two-Thirds Majority Necessary For Retention

Chamber Commerce Hears Dr. Slover at Tuesday Meeting

Dr. Geo. S. Slover, newly appointed pastor of the Methodist Church here, but by no means a stranger, was the principal speaker at the regular meeting and luncheon of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday noon at the Munday Hotel. Dr. Slover stated that it was his aim and desire to be of service, not only to the Methodist church, but to the entire community, and when a motion was adopted making him an honorary member of the organization he protested the action, stating that he wanted to be a regular member, and he warned his "roasters" present that he asked no odds and gave none, hence there may be some real spilling heard in these meetings hereafter.

The organization went on record as heartily endorsing the re-appointment of Judge W. B. My of Abilene on the State Highway Commission, and numerous other detail matters were transacted.

Cartwright News

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Weeks of Munday visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Scareary last Sunday afternoon.

We are glad to report that Mrs. Louis Cartwright, who has been ill with pneumonia, is recovering nicely. Some of the farmers are very busy in their feed, some cutting feed and others heading maize.

Mrs. Harlan Clayborn's parents are visiting here.

Mrs. Jack Kemp and little daughter are visiting relatives here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Loving entertained the young people with a social last Saturday night.

Miss Mildred Finannon is ill at this time.

Our school is progressing nicely with full attendance.

Several in this community are killing hogs.

C. N. Smith received a message last Monday from Sidney, Texas, telling of the critical illness of his brother-in-law, Ed Andrews.

Mr. Kemp and family visited relatives in Throckmorton last week end.

George Bradley is visiting relatives here this week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Wardlow, who has been making her home with her daughter, has moved to Munday.

Mr. A. D. Wallace and son, S. J., made a business trip to Henrietta, Texas, last Wednesday.

C. Y. Morris and family of Rule visited in the home of C. N. Smith and family last Sunday.

Miss Lilly McEfee visited Miss Estelle Gully last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hill and family of Thorp visited relatives here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Cude of Sunset visited Mr. and Mrs. O. A. King last week end.

A. M. Scareary is in Benjamin last Tuesday on business.

Louis Wallace has moved to Munday to make his future home.

City Council Warns Against Fireworks On Streets of City

Every year there are numerous fires caused by exploding fire-crackers, torpedoes, and other explosives in the celebration of Christmas. The State Fire Insurance Commission places a penalty on the storage of these explosives in buildings.

It is not the wish of the Council in issuing this warning to cramp the style of anyone, but it is the matter of public safety, from the standpoint of accidents, fires, and nuisance. This is especially true down town. There is an ordinance to the effect that fireworks cannot be exploded except on ones premises, but the Chief of Police has been instructed to stop the practice in the fire limits only. Please cooperate with him to the extent that you refrain from celebrating in the business part of town.

—CITY COUNCIL

Mrs. Cecil Jennings of Stamford spent several days here last week visiting Mrs. Howell Barton.

Farmers of the cotton growing states will march to the polls Friday for the purpose of expressing their wishes with reference to the Bankhead Bill. The ballot to be voted is of the Australian type containing two squares one of which is marked "yes" and the other "no" and the voter merely makes a cross mark in the square representing his sentiment, leaving the other untouched. By a continuance of the Bankhead Act it is meant that a tax will continue to be levied on the ginning of cotton in excess of an allotment made to meet the probable market requirements.

Those Eligible To Vote

Any person who signed a 1934 or 1935 Cotton Acreage Reduction Contract, any person who is or was eligible for tax-exemption certificates in 1934, any person who presents proof that he owns and has a present right to produce cotton, on a cotton farm, or any person who signs (by signature or other mark) and files a witnessed written statement that he has made arrangements to produce cotton on a cotton farm in 1935 (that is, has entered into a lease or share-cropping agreement to grow cotton on a cotton farm in 1935) is deemed eligible to vote on the continuance of the Bankhead Act for the crop year 1935-36 (June 1, 1935, to May 31, 1936). A cotton farm is defined as any farm on which cotton has been produced commercially one or more years since 1927.

The hours of balloting will be from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. The County Committee will meet at 8:30 Saturday at Benjamin and canvass the votes and make tabulations.

One of the unusual features of this election is that a two-thirds majority will be necessary for its retention of the Bankhead Act. This is a departure from our usual custom, but even though a majority of two-thirds is required for the retention of the Act, there is every indication that the arrangement will be retained, notwithstanding the fact that most everyone has a better plan in mind.

Dr. E. M. Ammons Is Applicant For Place On Dental Examiners

Dr. E. M. Ammons of this city is an applicant for a place on the Board of Dental Examiners of the State of Texas, and numerous endorsements have been forwarded to Gov.-Elect James V. Allred in behalf of his application.

Dr. Ammons has practiced his profession here the past eight years, and since he has been a citizen of Munday he has identified himself with every movement for the betterment of Munday and the Munday country. At the present time he is president of the Munday Chamber of Commerce and is making an enviable record. He is also active in the religious development of the community, being a deacon in the Baptist Church, and has always identified himself with every forward movement since becoming a citizen of Munday.

In addition to his local activities, Dr. Ammons has given numerous clinics on dental subjects before the district and state dental societies and is regarded as one of the most progressive members of his profession. He is a graduate of the Baylor University Dental Department at Dallas.

Face powder may catch a man, but it takes haking powder to hold him.

Mrs. Dora Robinson, 65, Succumbs Friday In Knox Co. Hospital

Mrs. Dora Robinson, 65, familiarly known here as "Aunt Dora" died in the Knox County Hospital at Knox City Friday evening after suffering a stroke of paralysis on Thursday afternoon. She was carried to the hospital at Knox City late Thursday by a Campbell ambulance.

Aunt Dora was born in Kaufman County, Texas, her maiden name being Jackson. She had no relatives in this community but had resided here for a number of years and had always been able to sustain herself and make some provision for the approaching old age. She was a devoted member of the Church of Christ, a jovial, good natured woman and a friend to all, and her passing removes one of the familiar and lovable characters from our city. Insofar as is known she has only one sister living in Van Zandt County, who was unable to attend the funeral services.

Services were conducted at the Church of Christ Saturday afternoon by Elder Carter of Weinert, after which the remains were laid to rest in Johnson cemetery. Funeral arrangements were in charge of R. G. Campbell, local undertaker.

Cattle Buying Is Resumed; Any Kind May Be Purchased

County Agent W. W. Rice was here from Benjamin Monday and stated that cattle buying had been resumed by the Government this week, and he stated that anyone having cattle to sell this week may bring them to the shipping pens at Benjamin. Anything condemned will be taken care of by the owner.

Mr. Rice stated that the price would be the same as they have been before. $12 to $20 for cattle over two years old; $10 to $15 for yearlings and $4 to $8 for calves. Any kind of cattle will be bought, but the producer will have to go to the county agent's office and sign a contract and appraiser's record.

Dr. Farrington Is Head Of Tri-County Medical Association

Dr. W. P. Farrington of this city was elected president of the Tri-County Medical Association at a meeting held on Thursday of last week at Goree. Other officers elected were Dr. T. W. Williams of Haskell, vice-president; Dr. J. W. Foy of Seymour, sec'y-treasurer. Papers were presented by Dr. Charles Farrington of the staff of Charity Hospital, New Orleans, and Dr. Chase Eiland of the staff of the Knox County Hospital at Knox City, and Dr. Joe Davis of this city. The meeting was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Taylor and at the conclusion of the meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. Taylor.

SANTA CLAUS WILL RECEIVE LETTERS OF KIDDIES NEXT WEEK

All the kiddies of the Munday country are invited to write their letters to Santa Claus, mail them to the Munday Times and they will be published in next week's issue in plenty of time for Santa to receive them before Christmas. Just address your letters to Santa Claus, in care of the Munday Times, and they will be published, and as Santa is a regular reader of The Times, he will read your letter.

Firemen Are Guests of Council Members At Banquet Monday

Twenty-two members of the Munday Fire Department were guests of members of the city council at a banquet at the Terry Hotel on Monday evening, at which all members of the city council including city secretary Riley B. Harrel were present, and brief talks were made by Mayor E. E. Akers, councilman J. C. Campbell and Chief Grady Thornton. The banquet was given by the councilmen in appreciation of the hearty cooperation given by the members of the fire department in maintaining such an organization at so low an insurance rate within the city.

Holder Home Is Destroyed By Fire Early Saturday

Fire originating from undetermined causes completely destroyed the home of D. E. Holder early Saturday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Holder were away from home at the time of the fire, having gone to Throckmorton, and the cause of the fire was undetermined, however, it is believed to have originated from a gas stove which had been left burning.

The fire had gained considerable headway before it was noticed by neighbors and when the alarm was sounded the firemen could do little toward saving the building and contents.

Tom Rigsby Again Selected Chief Of Munday Fire Dept.

Tom Rigsby, who has served in former years in that capacity, was elected chief of the department on Monday evening. Other officers elected at that time were H. C. Hawes as assistant chief, P. W. Bryan, president (re-elected), Paul Mansell vice-president, Harvey Lee secretary-treasurer and Clovis L. Stephens, assistant secretary. The meeting followed the banquet served the members of the department at the Terry Hotel earlier in the evening.

Thinking Out Loud

By J. A. K.

Munday is putting in its regular holiday regalia this week, which reminds us that Christmas is only ten days ahead.

Personally, TOI has reached the age when his faith in Santa Claus is shaken. However, if some of our delinquent subscribers would drop in and shove their figures up our faith might be restored to some degree.

Anyway, we're not going to hang up our socks for the reason that if they should happen to catch anything it would fall on through to the floor, and Santa Claus might just as well lay it there to begin with.

And while you're doing your Christmas shopping bear in mind that no gift would be more appropriate in many instances than a year's subscription to the Munday Times, especially for that friend or relative who lives at some distant point. It will be a constant reminder throughout the year of your thoughtfulness.

The passing of W. T. Waggoner of Fort Worth early this week removes one of the real cowmen of the early days in this section of Texas, and the estate owns much land in Knox County. His estate is said to be one of the largest in the South-west, with a major portion of his land holding located in Knox, Wilbarger, Wichita, Foard, Baylor and Archer counties.

It is told on good authority that he was greatly disappointed when oil was found on his land some years ago while drilling for water. In disgust he stated that he wanted water for his cattle and left the oil undeveloped for several years thereafter.

Farmers will decide on Friday whether or not the Bankhead Act will continue in force. The Administration is passing the responsibility back to the cotton farmers and here's hoping that everyone will be satisfied with the results.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Haney, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mayes and Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Bengue were among the number that saw Earl Carroll's Vanities at Wichita Falls Monday evening.

R. R. Davenport To Open Insurance Office In Munday

R. R. Davenport, representative of the Southwestern Life Insurance Company of Dallas announced last week that he had leased a portion of the building now occupied by the Kethley Gift Shop and would open an office in this city on January 1. Mr. Davenport departed first of the week for Fort Worth to attend a meeting of the company's agents and will spend a part of the week in that city. He is a member of the "100,000 Club" and has made an enviable record since entering the insurance business.

Joe Michalik Is Injured In Auto Crash at Dundee

Joe Michalik was seriously injured in an automobile accident near Dundee Sunday afternoon. Following the accident he was carried to the Wichita Falls General Hospital in a semi-conscious condition, where an examination revealed that he had sustained several broken ribs and a rash over the right temple in addition to severe body bruises.

R. B. Bowden Wins Trip To Fort Worth In Sales Contest

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Bowden will leave Friday for Fort Worth, where they will spend several days, and where Buell will be a guest of the Magnolia Petroleum Company as a result of having won in point of sale in this district in a contest conducted by that company. Buell will be the guest of the company at numerous events, including the Masonic Home-Highland Park football game.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday morning the first fifteen or twenty minutes of the preaching services will feature a program given by the Amigos Class under the direction of the class teacher, Mrs. M. H. Reeves.

Sunday evening at the preaching hour the Munday Music Club will give a worthwhile program and the public is urged to attend.

We are happy over the good spirit, and the fine work that is being done. In the past twelve months we have paid out of debt. We have had about 135 additions to the church, painted the church building inside and out, and are painting the S.S. Annex this week.

We appreciate the cooperation and fellowship. May it continue.
W. H. ALBERTSON.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES

The following is the time and order of the services for the coming week.

Sunday School at 10 A.M.
Preaching at 11 A.M.
Leagues 6:15 P.M.
Evening Service 7:15 P.M.
Board meeting Tuesday evening 7:15 P.M.

Last Wednesday evening at a meeting of the Council, the goal of 300 in Sunday School was set, and plans are being formulated to that end.

Attendance has been steadily growing at all services, but there are a great number not attending the services that should: if you are one of these, come.
—Reporter.

Mrs. J. B. Bowden, Mrs. Lois Bowden, her little daughter, Bobbie Carolyn, Mrs. W. A. McCay and little daughter, Billie Lois, returned the latter part of last week from a two weeks visit with relatives and friends in Pittsburg, Mississippi. Mrs. McCay and daughter and Mrs. Lois Bowden will leave Saturday for their home in Coolidge, Arizona.

AARON BLANTON

you consulted with the teachers in case of low marks?

The high school card calls for parental signature and invites a like cooperation on the part of the parent. This significant statement appears at the bottom of the card: "Interest in school work is important and depends upon regularity of attendance, good health, plenty of sleep, and nourishing food."

Attendance is always one of the major problems largely because parents permit pupils to remain at home for light reasons. It is extremely difficult for the type of student who is not greatly interested in school work to maintain even that slight interest when he is irregular in attendance. Local observations and regional surveys prove that poor health is responsible for much low scholarship and lagging interest in school. Enlightened parents will see that physical ailments have medical attention.

Many students do not get enough sleep to keep them mentally awake. This is not because they study too late at night but because parents permit them to run at large in many cases. Students who run at large at night suffer not only from the loss of sleep but are subject to various de-educating influences which nullify interest in school.

We ask that our readers not overlook the students who appear on the honor roll at each report. Those students are certainly to be congratulated for their fine application to school duties. It is no easy thing to make three or four A's in this school and a student who can do it ought to be commended.—J. Horace Bass.

CHAPEL

An interesting and entertaining program will be rendered Friday by the Freshman class. Mrs. Jones, sponsor, helped the Freshmen prepare the following program:
"The Problem of Leisure" a talk—Thomas Egeby
"Opportunities for Work" a talk—John Phillips
"When the Sun Goes Down" and "Merry Widow Waltz" vocal solos—Lavena Counts
"Breve" and "Stay As Sweet As You Are" vocal duets—Mary Moore and Weena Thompson.
"Noia" and "The Flatters" piano solos—Margaret Tiner.
"Visiting Sal" reading—Mozelle Mullean.

TEACHER'S PROFESSIONAL LIBRARY

At a recent general faculty meeting, the teachers of the Munday Schools agreed to contribute a percentage of one month's salary to a professional library fund. This contribution will be the beginning of what is planned to be one of the best professional libraries in any school in the state.
The library will consist of the latest books on all phases of educational development, and many timely works are now appearing. Research publications of the National Educational Association will be purchased, and the leading professional and educational magazines will be added.

CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS

In case you are planning some excursion during the Christmas Holidays, we will have seven days to celebrate. School will close Friday, December 21, and will open again December 31. Therefore, if you want to be present when school opens after the holidays, do not plan for a big celebration New Year's Day. Remember we have only seven days!

DEBATE CLUB

Mr. Parker, having debated in been selected by the faculty as coach for the debating teams for county meet next year. Last year Mr. Bass was coach, but, since he is superintendent, he is almost too busy for such work.

Last year Munday High School surprised the coach by rendering such excellent debates. However, we lost in the fight because they began work too late. Gordon James Barnes and Ralph Layne are both entering our local contest; they debated last year. Florene Kendall and Duane Johnson were their colleagues, but they were graduated last year. Vinton Tiner, Vernice Trick, Joe Kethley, Philip Zeissel, Junior Boles and Glyn Bibrey were also present at the first meeting. The Club will meet again Wednesday night.

The question—"Resolved: That the United States Government should own and operate all public power and electric utilities"—will prove interesting, and Munday High hopes to be victorious.

LETTERS TO SANTA

Dear Santa Claus:
You were very dear to me last year, and I hope you will not forget me this year. Just between you and me, Santy, I have been an exceedingly good little boy. I wash my hands before every meal and use the manners Grandma taught me once. I have heard people say they were going to tell you about my girl and me, but our fuses are all in fun.

I wish you would bring me a '34 Chevrolet roadster. You might buy it from my dad since he sells them. Your very humble servant,
Aron Clifford Brock.

Dear Santy Claus:
I haven't been such a good little boy but I have most people fooled into thinking that I have. Please bring me a crate of cough drops, to give my fellow students a chance to catch up with me in "bumming." Also bring me a pair of ear-muffs and a pint of hair oil.
Lovingly Yours,
P. Herman Johnson.
P.S.—A manicure set (Rudy polish) and a back scratcher would also be appreciated. If you would bring me a sponge and a bar of soap, I would take a bath.—P. H. J.

An Ordinance regulating the erection and maintenance of all tents, tent shows, carnivals, skating rinks, medicine shows, circuses, menageries, and all other shows or attractions showing in tents, and providing penalties for violation thereof.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Munday, Texas, that hereafter it shall be unlawful for any tent, tent show, carnival, skating rink, medicine show, circus, menagerie or any other show or attraction, showing or exhibiting in a tent, whether herein specifically mentioned or not, to be erected or maintained within 300 feet of any residence, store building, barn, cotton gin, cotton oil mill, cotton warehouse, cotton compress, or any other permanent building constructed of combustible material, within the City limits of the City of Munday, Texas. Any person or persons, firm or corporation violating the provisions of the preceding section, upon conviction, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding Fifty Dollars, and each day any tent or other structure mentioned in the preceding section is maintained shall constitute a separate offense.

The fact that tents, and the shows and exhibitions above mentioned, are of highly combustible material, and creates a fire hazard, and the nuisance created by the erection and maintenance thereof in proximity to other buildings, creates an emergency, and an imperative public necessity that the rule requiring ordinances to be read on three several meetings, be and the same is hereby suspended, and this ordinance shall become effective from and after its passage and it is so ordained.

Passed this 10th day of December, A.D. 1934.

We are very proud of our senior boys and girls who are the champions of the Brazos Valley League. We challenge anyone to beat them. Tonight our senior boys play Oklahoma and our junior boys and the independent team play Monday. Everyone has the basketball spirit and that is what it takes to win. Then will we be victorious? If that is what it takes, we will be, but we know the boys have strong teams to play against, but we are not to be daunted by that. We hope the senior boys win their game because they have worked hard and deserve to win. If they win the first game, perhaps they will win the championship of the two Leagues. We are backing them. Are you?

The Rhineland band will be here and the pep squad is planning on some real yells and drills which will be sponsored by Miss Turman and Mr. Hill.

A play, "The Girl in the Fur Coat," was presented here last Thursday night by the Lone Star community. It was enjoyed by all who saw it.

Has anyone heard about Mat and Loree's elopement? Boy, O boy, there is something interesting to watch about these two. Mat is such a gentleman when Loree is around, always ready to pick up any pencil or handkerchief she accidentally "on purpose" may drop, and even to tell her what to say when she doesn't happen to know the answer to the teacher's question.

HOWARD'S EAGLE CRY

Our senior girls seemed to have a horse shoe with them last Friday and Saturday. They defeated Bonarton in the first two games of the play-off. The score of both games was close.

The senior boys are in a play-off with Oklahoma, the winner of the Red River Valley League. They will be playing at Oklahoma Friday and Saturday, December 14th and 15th. Our senior boys lost two games this season, one to Old Glory and one to Goree. They have played 10 conference games and several practice games. We are expecting them to defeat Oklahoma.

Our junior boys have made a fair showing this season also.

Come and watch all of our teams play. They need your support to play their best. How can we expect them to fight to the last unless they know the entire school and community is yelling for them to win? Do your part. Come and yell for our teams. The school is proud of them.

Although the senior boys are playing in Oklahoma the junior boys and the Stars play here Friday.

SUNSET 4-H CLUB

The 4-H Club girls of the Sunset community met with the home demonstration agent, Miss Faulkner, and the sponsor, Mrs. E. C. Partridge, Tuesday, November 26.

In this meeting the process of making a purse of woolen yarn was demonstrated by Miss Faulkner. As a result, various members of the club have purses already made, and several have them started.

Bedspreads which were made last year by club members were shown.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all our kind friends and neighbors for the kindness and help during the illness and death of our loved one, and especially to wish to thank each and every one for the beautiful flowers and for the beautiful songs that were sung.

May God bless each and every one of you.

Sincerely,

SOPHOMORES

Only eleven more days until Christmas; the holidays which we Sophomores are looking forward to.

We caught Juanita Forehand out riding with a Senior boy last Sunday evening. Well, we'll look over it, Juanita, and we won't give him too much credit.

Elizabeth Earp's little brother was injured while riding horseback last Saturday. However, after her brother had at last regained consciousness and was much better Elizabeth went to Goree and played in the basketball game with Bonarton, which the Sunset girls won.

Miss Blanton is a very valuable person in the school activities outside of the classroom as well as in her teaching of English. She contributes much of her time tending the candy stand during the ball games and sponsoring the publication of the Sunset Glow. Thus, you can see why the Sophomores are so proud of their sponsor.

We have been giving you a few statistics on some of the Sophomores. As there are only fourteen sophomores these are the concluding three:

Mary Helen Partridge is the club girl who won so many trips this summer. If she keeps on, she will have entered the entire United States. Mary Helen is one of the three "A" students of the class, and is very valuable to the entire school.

F. G. Offutt, Jr., is very quiet and likeable. His having only one Sophomore subject lessens our knowledge of him, but we are proud of him as a Sophomore.

Margaret Shannon is just another class reporter.

Two Sophomore girls, Juanita Flenniken and Juanita Forehand, were responsible for the play, "The Girl in the Fur Coat," which at Lone Star Community put on at Sunset, going over so good. These girls were in it, and we Sophomores are very proud that we have such talented actresses in our class.

Several have been absent for the last few days, the two Louises—Bornton and Russell—Jack Frost, and Johnnie Little. Some of them are back again.

The English class should be interesting in the class that Miss Blanton reads our autobiographies. She says she can judge the student's "ego" by the length of the autobiography.

We hear that Johnnie is good at tapping. Who would have thought it?

Boomerang Class Entertained

The annual Christmas party of the Boomerang Class was held Tuesday evening in the Ammons home when Dr. and Mrs. E. M. Ammons were hosts to this class in one of the most unique entertainments of the season. Since Mrs. Ammons is teacher of this class she took the opportunity to test the Biblical knowledge of her pupils, using various Bible games for diversion.

The guests were met at the door by the following receiving line dressed as Biblical characters: Joseph, Loyd Bowden; Lot's Wife, Leona Keel; David, Glenn Hilbery; Queen Esther, Katie Beth Bowden; Goliath, Vivian Tiner; Eve, Vivian Rogers. As the guests arrived the name of a Bible character was pinned on their back and when they were able to guess their identity, the name was moved to the front. A Bible spelling match proved very entertaining, while a dramatization of Bible characters was the feature stunt of the evening. Music was furnished by Ted Tucker and Billie True Hill with a sing song of popular music adding to the mirth.

For this occasion, the entertaining suite was in gala holiday dress with a glistening Christmas tree as the central decoration, bearing a gift for each one present. A dainty refreshment plate of sandwiches, devil's food cake, macaroons, bon bons and hot cocoa was served. As a grand finale, the lights were turned out, sparklers lighted, and all joined in singing "Silent Night."

Mrs. Ammons was assisted by Mrs. W. V. Tiner in entertaining this group.

The guest list included Mesdames Lorene Parker, Leona Keel, Vivian Rogers, Annie Mae West, Lucille Harris, Mildred Kennedy, Maggie Cole, Lorena Cole, Norene Bousien, Desai-Hammack, Hettie Beecher, Onella Brock, Christine Burton, Billie True Hill, Katie Beth Bowden, Opal Dollar, Donna Lee Williams and Messrs Loyd Bowden, Roy Parsons, Ted Tucker, Troy Warren, Glen Hilbery, Vivian Tiner, Wallace Reid and Edgar Beecher.

Munday Study Club Has Christmas Program

On Friday afternoon, December seventh, the Munday Study Club met in the Club House for their Christmas program. The program committee, Mesdames J. C. Harpham, H. A. Pendleton, M. H. Reeves, W. M. Huskinson and Dorso Rogers, were hostesses.

Mrs. J. U. Fields of Haskell delighted us with a lecture. Her subject was The Holy Land and was very interesting and presented in such an impressive and original manner that we could visualize the land where the Christ Child was born. The Munday Choral Club presented an enjoyable number. Tea with sandwiches and cakes and sprigs of real holly as favors, were served the following members and guests: Mesdames E. D. Atkinson, J. C. Borden, Beulah Bowden, Dorso Rogers, T. E. Dickerson, Jack Mayer, W. M. Huskinson, J. R. Smith, Ralph Johnson, H. A. Pendleton, C. A. Eiland, G. R. Eiland, M. H. Reeves, Carl Jungman, W. E. Reynolds, H. T. Maples.

Woman's Missionary Society Has Outlook Program

On Monday afternoon the Methodist Women's Missionary Society met at the church in a World Outlook program, with Mrs. Lee Haymes in charge. Garnering the Sheaves was the theme of the program it being the last meeting of the year. Mrs. H. A. Pendleton, president, held a short business session and closing reports were given from all divisions. The Society is closing out the year with splendid reports and a forward look for 1935. At the close of the business session Mrs. D. E. Holder was honored with a surprise shower of many pretty and useful gifts.

Those present were Mesdames John Spann, Oscar Spann, Austin Coughran, J. T. Lee, Lee Haymes, Worthy Gafford, Ky Hunter, G. R. Eiland, R. D. Atkinson, W. H. Atkinson, J. D. Kethley, John Lane, D. E. Holder, H. A. Pendleton, W. P. Farrington, J. C. Borden, H. T. Maples, M. F. Billingsley, S. E. MeStay, D. T. Mauldin and Miss Shelby Lee.

Sunday School Class in Borden Home

Christmas decorations with mistletoe preponderant made a pretty setting for the party given by Mrs. Chester Borden for her Sunday School class at her home Tuesday evening.

Games were the diversion and an attractive refreshment plate with sandwiches, fruit cake and punch was served to the group of boys and girls who are members of the class and a few invited guests.

Munday Night Club in Moore Home

The W. R. Moore home was in gala holiday dress Tuesday evening when Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Moore were hosts to the Munday Night Club.

Decorations for the rooms centered about snow and reindeer scenes on the mantel and glistening Christmas tree in the living room.

High score was held by Tom Haney and Mrs. Russell Matson.

Refreshments of congealed chicken salad, olives, crackers and pecan pie squares were served to Messrs and Mesdames H. A. Pendleton, Tom Haney, Fred Branch, J. D. Kethley and Russell Matson.

Sans Souci Club in the Blanton Home

Christmas decorations were combined in an artistic way in the apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Blanton when they entertained the Sans Souci club Tuesday evening.

At the conclusion of six games of bridge, high score was held by R. B. Harrell and Mrs. Ira Bowden. At the refreshment hour small trees in white and silver formed attractive centerpieces for the quartette tables and laer were given as out prizes from each table.

The Christmas motif was further emphasized in the refreshment plate of grape sillabub and fruit cake with miniature Christmas trees as favors. The guest personnel: Messrs and Mesdames Riley B. Harrell, Glen McGehehin, Ira Bowden, E. J. Roberts, Jr. and Hubert Isbell.

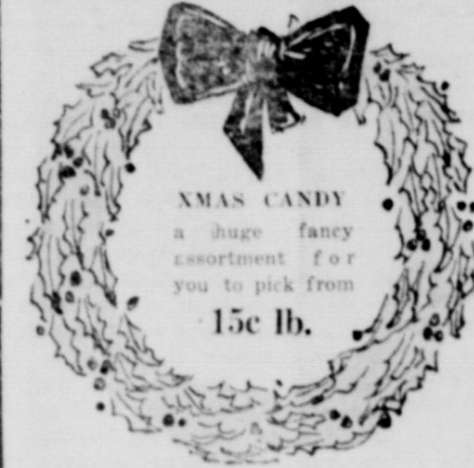

Missionary Society Gives Shower

A pleasant surprise came for Mrs. D. E. Holder Monday afternoon when she was tendered a miscellaneous shower by the Missionary Society of the Methodist church at the conclusion of their program. Mr. and Mrs. Holder recently lost their home and contents by fire and the shower was given her as a small measure of the appreciation of her splendid work in the Society.
