Cotton Pickers in Heavy Demand in Munday Farm Area

MORE THAN 200 PICKERS NEEDED IN FIELDS NOW

State Employment Office Here Has Placed 526 Pickers

FEAR SHORTAGE FOR BIG RUSH

1400 Bales Ginned in Munday From New Crop

Demands for pickers in the cotton fields in the Munday trade area are increasing rapidly according to Van Norman, manager of the Texas State Employment office here.

Farmers have been using the office to much advantage during the two weeks that it has been in operation. Norman stated, and we have been able to supply their demands until this week. The office has placed 526 cotton pickers in fields adjacent to Munday, it was given out.

Thursday morning the office needed more than 210 pickers to supply demands for farmers of this area, and that figure is expected to be increased within the next two weeks. More than 300 could be used, Norman said.

Munday's gins had run out 1486 bales of cotton by Thursday morning and cotton was coming in at a fast rate, and was expected to force giners to work on 24 hour shifts by this week end.

With cotton opening fast in this section pickers are going to work just as soon as they arrive here and farmers have stated that they will need many more in the next few days. Should the picker supply be short, as is predicted, ginning operations will be slowed somewhat from the expected October rush.

Assessor Sams in Receipt of Letter Regarding License

E. B. Sams, tax assessor-collector of Knox county, received the following from Ralph L. Buel, chief of the drivers' license bureau, on a question arising in the county concerning use of the chauffers' license.

The letter in whole follows: Mr. E. B. Sams, Tax Assessor-Collector, Benjamin, Texas. Dear Sir:

Answering your inquiry of September 6th, in which you ask if every person driving a car or truck bearing a commercial license is required to possess a chauffeur's license, you are advised as follows:

While there are a few isolated exceptions, it may be taken as a general rule that every person driving a truck, which truck bears a commercial license, is required to possess a chauffeur's license.

Persons driving passenger automobile bearing a commercial license are required to possess a chauffeur's license, if such automobiles are used for the transportation of materials, or for the making of deliveries.

By Authority of the Public Safety Commission. (Signed) Ralph L. Buel, Chief of Drivers' License Division.

OFFICERS MAKE 16 ARRESTS IN TRAFFIC DRIVE

Two Others Fined for Reckless Driving in City

The drive for safer traffic conditions in Munday was felt by 16 drivers who violated city traffic laws and two others who were fined for reckless driving during the past week. Chief of Police Tug Nesbitt stated today.

Tickets were given in the arrests and the party asked to appear at court, five of which failed to do Nesbitt stated. However, in the future the car tag will be checked and capis pro warrants issued for the arrest of persons failing to appear as scheduled in corporation court, causing a heavier fine and more stringent prosecution to be invoked.

Nesbitt stated that he wanted citizens to cooperate in the move to make safer traffic conditions, and wanted it impressed upon the people that the drive is for their benefit. All fines for traffic violations go into the city treasury with no commissions to arresting officers or to the court.

A new phase of safety control will be inaugurated on tractor driving, Nesbitt announced. All tractors, by state law, must have two lights, a tail light, and if a trailer is pulled, the trailer also must have a light or have a reflector. The state highway department has approved only one reflector, and no other will exempt tractor owners from fines.

Within the next two weeks state highway patrolmen will take the lead in this drive, considered as a menace to the highways, and general safety to drivers of cars. Sheriff Lewis Cartwright and the local constable will also assist in this work.

STATE CHAIRMAN DISCUSSES COTTON PRICE PAYMENT AND ADJUSTMENT PLAN ELIGIBLES

Indications Are That A Large Majority Of Eligible Farmers In State Plan to Take Advantage of Payment Plan

College Station.—Advises from the field indicate that a large majority of eligible cotton farmers in the State plan to take advantage of the government's cotton price adjustment payment plan. George Slaughter, chairman of the Texas Agricultural Conservation Committee, has announced.

The plan was made possible through the authorization by Congress for the use of $130,000,000 for this purpose, Slaughter said. It is contemplated to make payments on cotton sold by farmers eligible to receive the adjustment on the basis of the difference between the average market price and 12 cents.

It is understood that payments will be made on 65 per cent of the producer's base as established in the past AAA program. Slaughter pointed out that if the 1937 production does not call for the entire appropriation, payments will be made on a larger part of the base production.

"It is especially important that the producer keep receipts which list the gross weight of each bale sold, that receipts carry the date of sale, and are signed by the purchaser," Slaughter said. The receipts will be necessary in establishing the sale, and as a record of the total number of pounds of cotton sold.

The amount of the payments made to individuals will depend upon the level of cotton prices at the time the producer sells his cotton. Slaughter indicated that the current price adjustment plan was the forerunner of a permanent farm program which is expected to be the primary business of Congress at its next meeting.

Coach Cobb Has Seven Lettermen Back For Team

With seven lettermen and several squad hopefuls working out daily, the Munday Moguls, under the direction of Howard Cobb, new mentor, are making final preparations for the initial football game of the season at Seymour Friday night.

Cobb has been working his crew for the past two weeks, which in comparison with other teams in this sector is a short period.

Cobb has been working under the handicap of not having enough men out to really get down to this work. (Continued on Page 8)

The charge made by the animal picked up the prominent farmer and hurled him into the air, causing him to fall on his head. Mr. Reeves sustained concussion of the brain and severe body injuries, none of which had proved serious at the time of going to press.

Arms Embargo

President Roosevelt invoked a partial embargo on arms shipments to the Far East Wednesday. The move inaugurated to prevent the U.S. from becoming involved in the Sino-Japanese conflict, ordered all merchant vessels owned by the United States not to transport war supplies to either nation. ## Farmers Want Control!

Approximately 200 farmers from all sections of Knox County attended a meeting at the Farmers Union hall this morning to participate in a cotton improvement meeting.

Several outstanding farm leaders, including Congressman W. D. McFarlane, State Representative George Moffett and J. A. Scofield, district agent, were among those appearing on the program.

W. W. Rice, county agent, presided at the meeting and introduced Scofield, who outlined the purpose of the meeting and introduced the next speaker, E. A. Miller.

Miller spoke at length on the value to farmers, in co-operative community and county one variety planting of cotton.

Moffett in Talk Miller was followed to the speakers stand by F. E. Litche who discussed the importance of proper ginning, giving faults of farmers in care of the cotton before taking it to the ginner. He criticized severely the ginning of wet or damp cotton.

George Moffett, one of the featured men on the program, spoke on his bill that was passed in the recent state legislature, for establishing of cotton laboratories to develop new uses of cotton. Although the bill was passed by both houses, it was vetoed by Governor Allred, in an economy move.

McFarlane Discusses Program Congressman McFarlane, introduced to the group as a "friend of the farmer," flayed the Supreme Court as a body favoring a few, and endorsed President Roosevelt and his entire program. McFarlane made the statement that a more liberal judicial body was needed to carry out the promises of the President and his platform. (Continued on Page Eight)

Pittman and Nichols To Hurl Second Tilt For Crown

The Haskell Indians moved into the lead of the Wichita Valley league modified Shaughnessy play-off for the loop title last Sunday when they plastered a 6-2 defeat on the faces of the Munday Moguls at Haskell.

Archie Pittman turned in one of the best hurling performances that any pitcher has this year against the booming bats of the Moguls. Ten were set down with strike-outs and he allowed six scattered hits over the nine frames.

Red Nichols, who has been highly effective against the Indians, was shaded slightly in hurling performance by Pittman, but pitched winning ball. The Mogul fielders folded up in the fourth allowing Haskell four runs, and bringing defeat to Nichols for the first time in nine games.

Play Here Sunday

Haskell will move en masse on Munday next Sunday for the second game of the series. A record crowd for the season is expected by club officials, who are basing their attendance hopes on the large crowd that packed the stands at Haskell last Sunday.

It was disclosed this week that the valuation of the City of Munday was the lowest since the last complete record, (1924) when a valuation figure of $719,750 was entered on the tax rolls, for the ensuing fiscal year, Riley B. Harrell, city clerk, announced.

The new valuation was approximately $30,000 below last year's listings of property and holdings in the city. The 1937 valuation was $747,545. The school valuation was also off from last year, when the district's taxable property was placed at $1,212,334 compared to a valuation of $1,224,245 last year.

The city valuation will net the city approximately $10,875 for operating expenses, which is slightly less than needed to carry on the city's business.

Estimated need for the fiscal year by the city is $11,507.67, which will operate all departments of the city on a minimum basis, it was stated by officials.

Of the $10,000 to be received in taxes, $8,745 will be needed to pay premiums and principal on the sewer bonds, which were refunded by the city previously to the new estimate.

The water department will spend $5,400, the sanitary department $4,253, the general fund will use $2,762.67 and the street department will spend $600, making a total expenditure of $21,761.42.

Salaries to be paid by the city for the new year will aggregate $5,220 and will pay for services of the city clerk, assistant clerk, water superintendent, sanitary superintendent and chief of police and nightwatchman.

City officials stated that the city is free of indebtedness, and announced that they expected to collect enough delinquent taxes to take care of the possible deficit. Tax delinquencies total more than $14,000.

The water and sanitary departments are self supporting.

Nesbitt will come on duty at 11 o'clock each morning and work until 2. Franklin will work from 4 p.m. until 4 a.m., and Brown's hours will be all night until 6 a.m.

Saturday is Exception

The above hours will be used except on Saturdays, when Nesbitt comes on at 10 a.m., Franklin at 12 and Brown at 4 p.m. The three men will probably work throughout the night.

Brown is commissioned by the city and is under the supervision of Chief Nesbitt, and will be employed for four months.

W. C. Bevers has been on the sick list for the past few days.

Employment Up Eight Million

Employment in regular non-agricultural industries increased approximately 8,800,000 from March, 1933, to May, 1937, Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins declared in a recent address in New York City.

In addition she quoted figures to show that the estimated total employment today is 34,722,000 as compared with 35,377,000 in March 1929, at the peak of the pre-depression boom. This would place the current employment figure only 665,000 below the boom-time record.

Those now employed in manufacturing, mining, construction, transportation and public utilities, number 14,592,000; those in distribution and service, covering trade, finance, service and miscellaneous industries, government, education and professional service, number 12,800,000; those classified as proprietors and self-employed, number 3,085,000, Miss Perkins estimated.

She pointed out that the average weekly payrolls in manufacturing industries alone had increased from $80,700,000 for the first quarter of 1933 to $194,900,000 for the corresponding period this year.

Kindness Pays Dividends

Beware of easy ways to progress. During your lifetime you will see many false prophets, hear many offers of something-for-nothing. Maybe somewhere there is an undiscovered path to quick success. But whenever any such way is offered to you, ask yourself one simple question: "Whom will it harm?"

Remember that your security and your progress often depend on how well others succeed.

Through those long years behind us it was invariably the man who tried to profit by harming others who found himself losing what he had hoped to gain.

New Jobs Created

Jobs in America have increased faster than a swiftly growing population. Since 1879, eighteen new manufacturing industries alone have created, directly and indirectly, an estimated 10,000,000 new jobs.

The Birthday of the Constitution

"We the people of the United States, in order to form a more perfect Union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution of the United States of America.

With the above preamble America's government was planned and established 150 years ago.

On September 17 of this year we observe the 150th anniversary of the signing of the Constitution, that document under which has grown the most perfect civilization ever created by man. Under the Constitution there has been created better living, more of the comforts and luxuries of life, for more people than anywhere else in the world. Under the Constitution there has grown a land of opportunity, drawing millions of people from other countries to our shores.

Our streets are not paved with gold, as so many of those who came to our shores believed, but there has existed and does exist today golden opportunities and liberty for one and all.

What has been the foundation of the vast progress of America in the short space of 150 years? What lies at the bottom of our vast opportunities? How is it that we have built great industries that pay the highest wages in the world and where men work shorter hours than elsewhere? How is it that we have the world's highest living standards? Why do more people own their own homes in America? How is it that we have more schools for the education of our children and that there are more hospitals for the sick?

Because behind all of these stands one thing—the Constitution of the United States, which today, as 150 years ago, guarantees freedom, liberty and opportunity for all.

No other document in the world has given:

1. Religious freedom.
2. Freedom of speech.
3. Freedom of the press.
4. Freedom of assembly, the right to get together at any time.
5. The right to petition the government to right wrongs.
6. The right to vote and choose our own governing officials.
7. The right to work, using our earnings for ourselves and our families and to hold property which we acquire.
8. The right of citizenship and of equal protection of the law. No political group can pass a law removing the right of citizenship of any class or group.

These are but a few of the protections which the Constitution guarantees to every American through a government of three independent parts—the Legislative, headed by Congress; the Executive, headed by the President; the Judiciary, headed by the Supreme Court.

Under the Constitution and this form of government, which it lays out, America and Americans have progressed as no other nation and no other people. So long as we respect and support the constitution, so long as we hold it sacred as the foundation of the nation in which 130,000,000 people enjoy life at its best, so long as we strive to preserve the principles of the Constitution, that long will we remain a nation and a people envied by the world.

Air-Conditioning Creates Comfort, Jobs for Texans

Lone Star State Is Among the Most Active; Progress Since 1935 Shown

Dallas, Texas, Sept. 12.—With the science of air-conditioning recognized as the outstanding field for new employment and new "good services" growing out of technological advances, a survey by the All-South Development Council shows Texas cities rapidly gaining leading positions in this industry.

Statistics for the first six months of 1937 show, for instance, that on the basis of horsepower connected for air-conditioning, Dallas ranked first in the whole United States, being topped only by New York, Chicago and Philadelphia—while Houston and San Antonio ranked 10th and 11th, respectively. In contracts awarded for installations in the same period, Houston was the fifth-ranking city, Dallas ninth, El Paso, Fort Worth, and Beaumont are also among cities listed in national surveys as being "active areas" in air-conditioning progress.

With these six cities as the statistical guide, the amazingly rapid growth of air-conditioning in Texas is revealed in the fact that in the last two and a half years there have been let 770 contracts for installation, nearly three and a half times as many as all the air-conditioning jobs there were in Texas up to the start of 1935 (226.)

Furthermore, in the first six months of this year contracts (317) exceeded those for the whole year of 1936 (304), which indicates that 1937 will at least "double the score" on 1936, as that year did on 1935 (by 304 to 149). The 104 per cent gain in Texas installations for 1936 over 1935 for exceeds the national average gain of 63 per cent for that year.

Although the air-conditioning equipment manufacturing industry is still largely confined to northern industrial centers where refrigeration, electrical and automobile firms have branched out into this field, the engineering, assembling and construction work incidental to installations have brought much new employment and wages to Texas, the survey shows.

In this connection it is estimated that probably 1,500 persons are employed directly in the air-conditioning industry on Texas, now, whereas three years ago there were probably less than 100; and that workers in plumbing, sheet metal working, electrical wiring, carpentry and plastering trades have been given at least 500,000 man-hours of work in the first six months of this year, on air-conditioning jobs.

An auxiliary of this modern development where machine cooled store interiors are gradually displacing the traditional Texas canopied sidewalks and the need for studiously seeking the "shady of the street, if any," is the parallel growth of insulation. Here native Texas products such as gypsum, plaster and synthetic wall-fillers are finding increased use, for insulation is a vital part of air-conditioning.

The University of Texas is one of 88 colleges in the country now including air-conditioning engineering in their curricula, and Polytechnical High School of Fort Worth this fall will open a preparatory course in this subject.

At the halfway point of 1937, an air-conditioning standing of Texas (subject to change from month to month) would show Dallas in first place with 374 installations and 12,265 connected horsepower. Houston second with 298 and 10,500; San Antonio 152 and 8,661; Fort Worth, 81 and 3,329; El Paso 50 and 834, and Beaumont, 41 and 1,300.

'The REST Of the Record'

BY JAMES V. ALLRED
Governor of Texas

Several months ago, when the industrial North and East were paralyzed with sit-down strikes, I issued a statement that we were not going to have any confiscation of property down here in Texas.

I said I was convinced that the sit-down strike method did not represent the desires of an overwhelming majority of organized labor in our State, and that while I was and had always been friendly with organized labor, it was "un-American and unlawful to sit down on somebody's property and try to remain there." If a man wants to quit a job, or strike, he has a perfect right peaceably to do so; but after quitting he has no more right to sit down on property or premises without permission than he would have to sit down in a private home uninvited.

The people of Texas approved of my statement because it represented the sentiments of an overwhelming majority of them. We haven't had any sit-down strikes in Texas and have had very little labor troubles as compared to other states.

Now another unfortunate situation has developed. Recently in Dallas a man who was trying to show a pro-labor picture in a public park was kidnapped and taken out into the country by a bunch of hoodlums who tarred and feathered him. Another labor organizer was kidnapped and beaten so brutally that he was laid up in the hospital for over a week. Other outrages of a lesser nature were perpetrated and threats were freely being made as to what was going to be done with labor organizers.

Everyone concedes that labor has a right to organize and to select organizers and leaders of their own choosing. The freedom of speech and the right to assemble peaceably are guaranteed both by State and Federal Constitutions. The brutal treatment accorded these men in Dallas is indefensible. I recall a few years ago when the unfortunate Ku Klux epidemic broke out and many men were taken from their homes at night and flogged because they had violated the laws. The people of Texas rose up in their might and took the position that even if a man had violated the law he was entitled to a trial in a courthouse and not in a creek bottom. Today it isn't even claimed that the men who were kidnapped or tarred and feathered were violating any law. All that was said by those who perpetrated the outrages was that the men belonged to the CIO. It isn't a violation of the laws of our country for these men to belong to the CIO, regardless of what we may think of that organization.

In my opinion, it is just as important to protect people from outrages of this kind as to prevent the taking of property from the rightful owners by the sit-down strike or other unlawful method. Because I didn't want to see the thing get started again in Texas I immediately sent twenty-five members of the State police to Dallas with instructions to protect men in their right to speak freely and to assemble lawfully. These officers are instructed not to take sides in any controversy but simply to prevent violence on either side.

I was surprised to get a bunch of inspired telegrams apparently approving the treatment given these organizers, because, the telegrams said, they were members of the CIO. I don't care to what organization they belong. If they violate any law they ought to be prosecuted for it; but no set of men has the right to take the law into their own hands and kidnap, or beat, or tar and feather, these men. I think the people of Texas are backing me up in this stand.

Since the State police went to Dallas these troubles have practically ceased. I am very hopeful that the situation will adjust itself without any further trouble.

I really wish the general public could know in detail the many fine things that have been accomplished by the Public Safety Department. I am particularly proud of the intelligence branch. In this division we have fingerprint, handwriting and ballistic experts. This has been a great help to local officers everywhere, and of course, has materially assisted the State in dealing with the more hardened type of criminal.

Just as illustrative of what has been done in the one field of ballistic work: As perhaps most of you know men from this department can take a bullet that has been fired and trace it to the gun that fired it by markings on the bullet. They have done this in many instances and solved cases that might otherwise have gone down as "perfect" crimes.

For instance, recently in one Texas town a man was murdered at night as he slept. He was not robbed, and officers were at a loss for a motive. They did, however, find shotgun shells of a certain type. They picked up every gun of this calibre in the little town and fired some test shells from them and sent these test shells together with the ones found on the ground in to Austin. The fired shells from each gun had been numbered and the experts in the Public Safety Department shortly advised that the shell with a certain number on it was from the same gun as that which fired the shells found at the scene of the crime. It was no trouble to trace the ownership of this shotgun and its use to a negro in the community who promptly confessed the crime. This is just one of a number of similar cases that illustrate how quickly the department can assist your local officers.

Some time ago I had occasion to use the handwriting experts. The State of Illinois had asked for extradition papers on a prominent citizen of this State on a charge of forgery alleged to have been committed in Illinois. The notary public who took the acknowledgment in Illinois identified this citizen and in an affidavit asserted that he had seen him sign the instrument in question. While I was hearing the case I had the handwriting expert from the Public Safety Department to go over the alleged forged deed and compare it with samples of the defendant's handwriting; and before I could close the hearing these experts reported to me that without any question the defendant had not forged the deed. You can imagine how grateful these people were to our Department of Public Safety for the service, which cleared the name of a good citizen of Texas.

From time to time I shall try to tell you more of the work of this department and other departments of the State government in which I think you may be interested.

A CHECK THAT GAVE MOST PLEASURE WAS GIVEN THIS WEEK

Three times we had gone to the office of Ideal Security Life Insurance Company, at Anson, with sorrowful hearts caused by violent and unexpected deaths in our family. The first time was when our son, Gean V. Cummins, was killed in a boiler explosion near Christmas of 1935; then when his daughter, Marcella, was killed in the New London School disaster.

Last week we received and carried messages of what we then thought was the untimely going of Earl Dean Cummins, when the mangled body of a boy was identified as that of his, by his mother when she was called to review the remains. Her son was away from home and other sad experiences caused her to feel that this was him. She accepted what she felt was more grief, and put the remains tenderly beside the bodies of her other two ill-fated loved ones.

The knowledge that Earl Dean is yet alive and is coming home to his mother and to us, who have twice mourned his death, makes the refund to the Ideal Security Life Insurance Company, who so promptly paid all claims, the most pleasant check we ever gave. That other parents and grand-parents be spared the sorrows that have been ours, is our earnest prayer. (Signed) Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Cummins

The FOOD PRIMER
stands for Aspic
A tasty delight
In salad or fish loaf
At noon or at night.

By BETTY BARCLAY
Jellied meats and moulded salads, formed and flavored with a new unsweetened meat-like gelatin, are now as easy to make as gelatin dessert. Good news for housewives who, in the past, have labored long hours to achieve the same result.

A salad gelatin now on the market, a member of an old royal family of gelatins, is ideally suited for salads. No meat stock need be added, nor is a fancy mould necessary. A loaf pan will do. Yet served on lettuce or watercress, or garnished with olives and cream cheese, the dish will look fancy.

Economy adds appeal to this salad gelatin. Leftovers of meat, fish or vegetables can be quickly made into tempting salads for supper or bridge luncheons. These two easy recipes will prove excellent Lenten dishes.

Tomato Aspic Ring (with Cabbage Salad)
1 package salad gelatin (aspic)
2 cups tomato juice
Cabbage salad

Heat 1 cup tomato juice to boiling. Pour over salad gelatin. Stir until dissolved. Add 1 cup cold tomato juice, stir again, pour into ring mould and chill until firm. Unmould and fill center with cabbage or mixed vegetable salad. Garnish with lettuce and mayonnaise. Serves 6.

Salmon Salad Loaf
1 package salad gelatin (aspic)
1 cup boiling water
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon paprika
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1/2 cup cold water
1/2 cup mayonnaise
1 cup salmon, flaked
1/2 cup celery, finely chopped
1 small green pepper, minced
Dissolve salad gelatin in boiling water. Add salt, paprika, lemon juice and cold water. Chill until it begins to thicken, then gradually beat in mayonnaise. Fold in remaining ingredients and pour into loaf pan. Chill until firm. Unmould on platter and garnish with lettuce. Serve in slices. Serves 8.

Laughing Around the World With IRVIN S. COBB

The Lure of the Limelight

By IRVIN S. COBB

MIKE CUNNINGHAM, who was an interesting Chicago character, got a job as stage-hand at a vaudeville theatre. In his first week it fell to him to don a policeman's uniform, and at the conclusion of one of the scenes in a comedy sketch he chased a comedy tramp across the stage meanwhile brandishing a big club.

On Wednesday night he went to the dressing-room of the comedian and said:

"Say, do me a favor—will you?"

"What is it?" asked the actor.

"When I chase you across the stage tonight let me catch you and beat you up. Me goll's out front!"

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

SOME RELICS OF BARBARISM

We profess to be a highly civilized people. But are we? It would seem that centuries of studying the beautiful life and precepts of the man of Galilee would cause that love and kindness to be more manifest. But there is so much of the cruel and savage in evidence; and that, too, when God is willing to verify his promise to take away the stony heart and give us a heart of flesh. There are doubtless members in the churches in good and regular standing who would prefer to hear a prize fight radioed than to attend a prayer meeting. Dallas promised a bull fight as one of her attractions and its said that Mexico could not continue that gruesome pastime were it not for traveling sightseers.

The early American savages used to make their prisoners of war "run the gauntlet," only once, however. If they survived the merciless belts and clubs that descended upon them from side lines, they were free.

Long years before that Sampson, after having his eyes put out, was called forth to "make sport" for the heathen Philistines, but calamity overtook these merry-makers. Not many years ago, hazing was carried on in some of our colleges (to their shame). It took

PIONEER COUNTY MAN SUCCUMBED

Ross Oliver Died Last Wednesday Evening

Ross Oliver, 48, member of a prominent pioneer family of Knox county, died unexpectedly of a heart attack at the Knox County hospital Wednesday afternoon of last week. Oliver had been carried to the hospital Wednesday morning, but his condition had not been regarded as critical. He died at 2 p.m.

Funeral services were held at the family home 18 miles west of Knox City last Thursday afternoon. Mr. Oliver was an outstanding farmer and citizen and for a number of years was overseer of the large farm and ranch tract owned by Mrs. Charles McGregor of Haskell.

Surviving are the widow and five children.

Hey Kids! Look! Mystery Contest

O.K., KIDDIES. Here's a chance to do a little detective work in your own city Friday night and get a prize, providing you solve the mystery.

Dick Tracy, the new serial starting at the Roxy Theatre Friday night is a thrilling story revolving around the activities of the super sleuth as he tracks down a criminal known as "The Lame One" and his gang.

That brings you kiddies into the picture. "The Lame One" will appear in the streets of Munday at four places Friday night and the first to identify him will be given a prize.

Here's how and where. The Lame One will appear at the Rexall Drug Store at 7:15 o'clock Friday night, at the Eiland Drug Store at 7:20, at the City Drug Store at 7:30 o'clock. If you identify the man you must have the Munday Times with you and must say to the "hunted man"—"YOU ARE THE MUNDAY TIMES LAME ONE."

"X" marks the spot—and on that spot a prize is awaiting some lucky young detective of Munday and vicinity. There may be only one man appearing at each place, or four different men representing the Lame One, who knows?

MUNDAY METHODIST CHURCH

The increase in attendance at all services last Sunday was a good indication that the fall months are here and people are turning back to the church. It is a mighty good time for those who have been absent from church services for some time to again get the habit of going. We will be expecting you along with others Sunday in time for Sunday School.

The general theme for Sunday 11 a.m. "Something for Nothing." Our trite sayings frequently carry a deeper meaning than is given them by the general public. Christ had a way of turning things inside out and revealing hidden truths.

For two years a daily devotion booklet, known as the "Upper Room" has been distributed at five cents per copy. This little booklet has won for itself a broadening reputation. It is rapidly approaching the "million per quarter" edition. Place your order Sunday for your copy and form the habit of "daily devotion" by this method of a verse of scripture, a brief comment, just a word of prayer, and the thought for the day. One copy will supply your daily devotion needs for three months, for the price of a "Coke."

Our house to house visitation has been extended for a few days in order to reach every Methodist home. If we fail to get into your home it is because of an oversight or lack of information on the part of the committee tabulating the homes. The church is here to serve and it is eager to fulfill its mission. "Mercy means judging human nature by its needs, not its deeds."
H. A. Longino, Pastor

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

The Workers Conference of the Haskell Association will meet with our church Tuesday, September the 28th.

Preaching at 11 a.m. and 8 p.m. B.T.U. at 7:15 p.m.
Sermon subjects, morning, "The Reconciliation," evening, "Breaking the Fallow Ground."

You are always welcome to any or all of our services.

MUNDAY CIRCUIT

There is to be a District meeting at Knox City Monday, Sept. 20. It convenes at 10:00 a.m. and closes at approximately 2:30 p.m. One or more laymen from each Church is urged to attend this meeting. Plans will be made at this gathering for the finishing of the year's work.

Do not forget the Quarterly Conference at Thorpe Sept. 26. This conference will not only close the year but will set up the work for another year. Let each official make plans to be present and make known what you think best for your Church next year.

We will be at Hood as usual Sunday, Sept. 19. At the eleven o'clock hour, we will speak on the subject, "How we Rob God." At the evening hour, our subject will be, "The Trails to the Alkali Bog." These are subjects that apply to life as we experience it. "Come and worship with us and we will do thee good."

Home Economics Department Here Installs Library

The Home Economics Department installed a library, consisting of different kinds of health books, clothing books, books on the care of children, and a completely revised edition of America's most famous cook book, The Boston Cooking School Cook Book. This new cook book contains 3119 recipes, including hundreds of old ones as well as the new.

The Home Economics Library is also taking several interesting magazines. Good Housekeeping, The Vogue, Ladies' Home Journal, McCall's, Pictorial Review, Delinquent and Hygeia Magazine.

For each class of Home Economics there will be a Librarian. She is to check all the books at the end of each period to see if they are all there. The students may keep the books only during class time and over night.

Since $20 has been set aside in the Home Economics Budget Plan to buy library books with, other books will be added to the Home Economics Library during the year.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

BY JULIAN CAPERS JR.

This is the open season for estimates of the financial condition of the State of Texas. The estimates of the various "experts" must be considered with some knowledge of how the political wind is blowing if they are to be appraised with any conception of their accuracy.

State Auditor King, appointee of Gov. Allred, has brought out the most pessimistic estimate of all to date. He estimates the general fund will be about $24,500,000 in the "red" by the end of the current biennium. This estimate, of course, supports the demand which has been the governor's shibboleth since the day he took office—"more taxes". The only exception has been the brief period of a few months in 1936, when he said no new or increased taxes would be necessary.

All authorities agree that the school fund, with money in sight to pay a $22 per capita apportionment, and the largest appropriations in history for rural aid, is in the best shape in history. The highway department, likewise, has a substantial cash balance on hand, and sufficient funds allocated to carry out its extensive commitments for both federally aided and state highway projects for the next two years. The Confederate pension fund, of course, is deeply in the "red," but it is limited by constitutional requirements, and is gradually working itself out.

General Fund Problem

That leaves the general fund as a source of worry for the legislature. One of the best fiscal experts in Texas, whose past record stands up remarkably in contrast to those of the political estimators who have an axe to grind, has compiled a careful study of the general fund situation, which this column believes to be reliable. At least, it is a dispassionate study of the actual figures without any political purpose to serve.

This authority estimates the general fund deficit, at the close of this biennium, after paying the $22,000,000 hike in appropriations which the regular session of the 15th legislature so generously dealt out, will be $14,000,000.

Two alternatives are suggested by this expert. He points out that the general fund is now paying out approximately $5,000,000 per biennium on the "bread bonds," issued for relief purposes during the depth of the depression, and that this entire $20,000,000 bond issue will be retired within five years after the end of the current biennium. If taxes are raised now, he points out, it is extremely unlikely that they will be lowered again when the general fund is relieved of the bond payment burden. Therefore, he suggests letting the deficit "ride" as a brake on future expenditures.

State Debt is Low

It has been frequently pointed out that Texas follows a policy of paying for all capital expenditures out of its general fund. This policy of financial permanent improvements from current revenues has resulted in a net per capita debt of the state government in Texas of $3.26 for general governmental purposes, whereas in Arkansas, the next state per capita debt is $82.36, while the per capita highway debt totals another 70.04. In Louisiana the per capita debt is $51.40, and the highway debt is $40.52 per capita. Over half the states in the union have a state per capita debt of $20 or more, while only 15 states have avoided highway debts.

The policy of paying cash for permanent improvements may be a very good one, but in Texas it has given politicians the excuse continuously to increase taxes. Thus, if the state decides to build a hospital for instance, at a cost of $2,000,000, the legislature makes the appropriation from the general fund, which becomes overdrawn to that extent. Then the politicians raise a hue and cry to "wipe out the deficit" by upping taxes. When it is wiped out, the next legislature, seeing that the state is on a cash basis once more, becomes liberal with appropriations, and another deficit ensues. Then the cry goes up for more taxes, and the vicious circle continues ad infinitum.

Must End Somewhere

During the three-year period beginning in 1936, Texas taxpayers will have assumed about $40,000,000 in additional state taxes. They also must pay out about $7,000,000 in new federal social security taxes during this period, making about $115,000,000 of new taxes for which they must foot the bill, not counting other increased federal and local levies. There is a limit to what the people can pay. Many believe that limit is rapidly being approached.

MOTHER'S CRY

The house is empty, the hours drag, I've nothing to do, my footsteps lag—

The evening hours seem far away, My baby started to school today.

I stood and watched him down the lane, He turned and waved again and again,

My blinding tears began to start, But I checked my foolish mother heart.

The noonday meal was a lonesome one, We two alone—like life was done.

We smiled in a rather half-hearted way, Our baby started to school today.

I know he is happy and eager and glad, And it's foolish of me to be lonely and sad,

But my arms are empty, the hours are gray— For my baby started to school today.

MOST LITTLE TOWNS

Most little towns are smug and neat With their prim dresses starched and clean;

And watchful eyes which guard each street With a content grown old and lean.

I do not like a town like these, My heart is much too wild and young is open season for the boys who want to "organize" some group of citizens. Within recent weeks letters have been mailed out to two groups, one asking for subscriptions, and promising legislative results that are, to put it mildly, extravagant. One such letter was sent to dealers in electric appliances, requesting that each rush $10 to a self-appointed president of "Independent Appliance Dealers' Association" at Tyler. About all the organizer promises is a "flood of letters to members of the legislature" urging a law to prohibit utility companies from selling appliances. Such a bill was decisively killed by the present legislature at the last session, and there is no encouraging prospect that such a bill would pass, even if it should be submitted, which it probably won't.

To be hemmed in by age-old trees, Or torn to shreds by some lank tongue.

Another organizer has sent letters to merchants and others operating trucks, seeking donations of $250 each to support a movement to raise the load limit on trucks. Similar legislation was also killed in the regular session, as it has been in numerous previous sessions. Most of the effective lobbying in Austin is done by men whose services are sought out—and very little of it by the boys who send out circular letters for donations.

The FOOD PRIMER

BY BETTY BARCLAY

There is a potent magic in words—such words like "Hawaii" and "pineapple" have the gift of conjuring delightful thoughts to even the most unimaginative mind. Thoughts of blue surf pounding on white sands... soft singing voices, smooth velvet skies... and tangy, golden fruits growing amid a lotus profusion of tropical verdure.

Science and romance are not always companions... yet the scientific mind approves the pineapple. Your doctor will tell you that the Hawaiian pineapple is a valuable part of both your diet and that of your children. The canned, unseasoned Hawaiian pineapple juice that has established itself as one of our favorite breakfast beverages is not only a good source of vitamins A, B, and C, but its fruit sugar content is a fine source of energy. The same may be said of the canned pineapple itself in its many available forms—sliced, sliced, spears, and crushed.

Here are two recipes, one for the use of pineapple juice in a desert, and one for the use of pineapple spears in a meat dish.

Delmonico Pudding
1/2 cup sugar
Few grains of salt
3 tablespoons cornstarch
1 cup Hawaiian pineapple juice
1 cup milk
2 eggs, yolks
1/2 cup chopped nuts
1/2 cup raisins
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
2 egg whites
3 tablespoons sugar
Mix 1/2 cup sugar with cornstarch and salt in the top of a double boiler, stir in pineapple juice and cook over boiling water until clear, about 20 minutes, stirring frequently. Gradually add the milk, cook 3 minutes longer. Then stir the mixture into slightly beaten egg yolks. Return to double boiler and cook 5 minutes longer, or until the mixture coats the spoon and is of the consistency of custard. Fold in the nuts, raisins and vanilla and pour into a baking dish. Cover with a meringue made by beating the egg whites until peaks will form when the beater is lifted, and adding sugar gradually. Brown lightly in a moderately slow oven, (325 degrees to 350 degrees F.). Serve either hot or cold. 8 servings.

Meat Loaf Honolulu
1 1/2 lbs. ground beef
2 medium size onions, chopped
4 soda crackers rolled
1 cup seedless raisins
2 teaspoons salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
3 eggs beaten slightly
1/2 cup grated cheese
6 half slices of bacon
6 or 7 canned Hawaiian pineapple spears
Combine all ingredients except cheese, bacon and pineapple. Grease a deep pan (5 1/2" or 6" x 10"), place 6 or 7 pineapple spears across the bottom and press one-half of meat mixture into pan. Sprinkle with cheese and press remainder of mixture. Bake in moderate oven (about 375° F.) for at least 1 hour. When half done arrange bacon slices across loaf. When ready to serve, turn meat loaf on a platter, pineapple side up, garnish with parsley. Serve with a hot tomato sauce or catsup. 6 servings.

Establish Social Security Office At Wichita Falls

Wichita Falls, Sept. 15—Establishment of the Wichita Falls field office of the Social Security Board for the benefit of the people of this section of the State was announced here today by J. Gordon James, who has been assigned here as acting manager of the recently opened office.

"One of the duties of this field office will be to provide employers, employees, and all other interested persons with accurate information regarding their rights and obligations under the Federal Old-Age Benefits provisions of the Social Security Act. The services of the staff of the Wichita Falls office will be available to the public at all times for interpretation of this section of the Act," James said.

"The major function of the Wichita Falls office will be to maintain local contacts necessary to the administration of the program under which monthly retirement benefits will be paid to qualified workers beginning January 1, 1942, and under which lump-sum payments will be made to those who have or will become entitled to them since January 1, 1937. The amount of the benefits will be determined by the wage record of the individual. It is necessary, therefore, that employers keep an accurate record of the wages paid to workers.

"The Wichita Falls office will have nothing to do with the collection of taxes under any title of the Social Security Act, since, under the Act, this is the function of the Bureau of Internal Revenue, Treasury Department. Tax remittances by employers in this area should be made to the Collector of Internal Revenue at Dallas.

P.T.A. LUNCH ROOM COMPLETELY REMODELED FOR NEW SCHOOL YEAR

Building Moved From High School to Grade Campus

One of the recent improvements in the school system is the remodeling of the lunch room. The lunch room has been moved from the high school campus to a site just behind the new elementary building, which is much more convenient for the majority of teachers, and pupils, especially the smaller children. The exterior has been painted a cream color to harmonize with the light brick of the school building. The interior is finished in a color scheme of tan and light oak, the latter being used on the wainscoting, above which tan paper covers the walls. The tables and stools which replace the old tables and benches are also topped with oak veneering. The P.T.A. sponsors the lunch room, and it is under the supervision and its under the excellent management of Mrs. C. M. Matlock. It is self supporting. Its advantages are far beyond the expense in dollars and cents. For all dieters agree that those engaged in mental effort, need a hot nourishing meal at lunch time. This need, the lunch room supplies at a minimum expenditure of time and money. For a very moderate sum pupils may obtain sandwiches, soups of some similar foods with milk or cocoa, or a plate lunch is served to those who prefer a heavier meal. As the lunch room is located on the campus, there is no time lost in going to and from home to lunch, nor is there the danger which is always present when small children are on the street during the rush hour. Also homes where both parents are employed, the lunch room is a most convenient solution of the problem of a hot lunch for children. Children who come from out of town find the lunch room useful, furnishing a real home cooked meal where otherwise the cold lunch would be unavoidable. In all, the lunch room is a most useful part of our school equipment and all patrons are urged to support it, as their support will make possible better means and an enable better equipment to be purchased as needed.

Sophomore Report

The Sophomores studied something in English Monday that made some of them dig up the truth. The question was "Am I trusting my luck to get me by?" Some said "No," but the majority answered "Yes." And you, the public of Munday, Texas, are you trusting your luck for success?

Each student in English, if he so desires, may correspond with another student in a foreign country. This should be helpful as well as entertaining.

DORIS HOWELL IS PRESIDENT HOME-EC CLUB

Thirty-four girls met Thursday evening for their first Home Economics Club meeting of the year. The girls elected Aleen Houser as song leader, and selected maroon and white as their club colors. The president, Doris Howell, appointed five committees and asked the initiation committee to work immediately in planning the initiation of the first year girls. The club is trying to make this year a little more prosperous than last year and is asking all the Home Economics girls to help do so.

SENIOR REPORT

The Senior Class met in front of the High School building Tuesday night at seven o'clock for their first social. They divided into groups, and in the cars provided, went to Cartwright pasture for a very enjoyable picnic. Various games were played, a picnic supper was served, and the party returned home about ten-thirty o'clock. The Spanish II class is very proud of itself. We have already learned a song, and have been promised several more. Outside of the usual class work, various costumes of the Spanish people are to be learned, traditions to be studied, and Spanish dinners are going to be held where only Spanish food and conversation in Spanish will be allowed. We are very proud of the progress we have been making under our new teacher, Mrs. Webb.

FRESHMEN

The Freshman class seems to be progressing nicely as far as studies are concerned. The girls in Home Economics I seem to think it is a grand subject. Almost every girl attended the meeting Thursday night. The boys were rather relieved when Mr. Hardegre announced the initiation was over. At every opportunity the upper classmen used their belts. The Math students seem to have an intense interest for the subject, or one would think from the remarks that have been made about the class. The other day a student went to the teacher and said: "I have cast these figures eight times, sir." "Very good and thorough," the teacher praised. Student, with an outward gesture, "Here are the eight results." The Office Practice students have received their shorthand books, and with the aid of Mr. Cobb are learning the new language more quickly. Although there are only eight in the class, they enjoy studying immensely and hope that they are learning it accurately.

Funny Blunders of School Children have been installed. New cupboards have also been built. Some of the funniest comedy in the world is occasionally found in the mistakes that crop up in the examination papers of school children and even college students. The lives of the teachers are often brightened by the amusing answers that come when the child mistakes a word for another which sounds like it, and turns out a gem that would be worth money to a radio gag man. At other times wrong answers crop up when the student has no idea what the word in question means, but makes a brave effort to figure it out by thinking of some other word that sounds like the unknown one.

H. Cecil Hunt, an English specialist in humor, has been collecting these "howlers," as they are called in Britain, from the examination papers of English schools for several years, and some of the best of them are printers for your readers.

LIFE'S DRAMA
If you look upon life as drama, you can have as much fun as if you were sitting in your own private theatre. You'll be able to enjoy even the faults of your friends, or men and women who have heretofore got your goat. You'll even come to applauding the villains for their technique. Every actor and author has to regard his acquaintances as lessons in human nature. Can you imagine Charles Dickens being annoyed when he found Uriah Heep in real life? He was merely an interesting character for fiction. Be an author. Write your own life, your own comedies.

An irate baseball enthusiast, who had watched his home team go down in defeat, stopped the umpire as he was leaving the field. "Where's your dog," he demanded.

"Dog?" ejaculated the umpire, "I have no dog."

"Well," said the grouchy one, "You are the first blind man I ever saw who didn't."

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL NEWS

Contrary to past school openings the Elementary School attendance has held up satisfactorily so far. Our enrollment has even increased to about 320. Usually we have a drop in attendance at this time of the year. It is hoped that every student will put forth every effort to stay in school as much as possible, for time lost in school can never be regained. Workbooks, current events, magazines, etc., are being ordered this week so everyone is saving their dimes and quarters. Mr. Ingram invites all 5th, 6th and 7th grade boys to participate in his football game held daily on the west side of the building. We have our see-saws and swings up now and are enjoying them very much. The Sunday School attendance race starts next Sunday so be ready to go to Sunday School on time next Sunday morning and at the same time help your room to win the flowers. Come to see us.

October 3 to 9 is Set Aside as Fire Prevention Week

Austin, Sept. 16.—Urging statewide observance of the annual Fire Prevention Week, Marvin Hall, fire insurance commissioner, has written over 425 mayors of Texas cities and towns requesting their continued support of what he terms a "most profitable and worthwhile civic project." The week of October 3 to 9 has been chosen and appropriately named, Fire Prevention Week of 1937.

Adding impetus to the movement will be a proclamation issued by Governor Allred requesting cooperation and support from "every Texan interested in performing a distinct service to his State, to his community, and to himself."

"Fire uncontrolled is one of the most serious problems that confronts us today," Hall declared in his letter to Texas mayors. "For years it has taken far too heavy a toll of life and property. May we suggest that you and your city officials, fire marshal, fire chief and his department begin making preparations at once for the proper observance of Fire Prevention Week this year."

Tersely expressing the theme of the Week's activities, Hall wrote: "The fire that never starts will never get out of control. Fires can be controlled, but not until every single Texas citizen accepts fire prevention as his individual responsibility."

"Since fire losses have a direct bearing upon the fire insurance rates which the people pay," Hall explained, "there are a great many practical benefits accruing from effective fire prevention. Fire prevention is a habit and easily acquired; and it is the most pleasant to practice, for by practicing it, a life may be saved or a disastrous fire prevented."

Calling for immediate action, Hall said: "Today, not tomorrow—for tomorrow it may be too late—is the time for you to call a fire prevention meeting. We suggest that you invite representative business men and women of your community, as well as school teachers, preachers, civic and patriotic workers, and boy scouts. It is every one's obligation to prevent fires. Act today!"

Bill Hogue returned last week from a visit in Wichita Falls.

786 Persons Died Of Appendicitis in Texas Last Year

Austin, Texas, Sept. 12.—During the past year 786 persons died of appendicitis in Texas, according to Vital Statistics compilations of the State Department of Health. Many of these deaths might have been prevented had the patient been more aware of the disease and its symptoms.

There are two forms of appendicitis, acute and chronic. The form that appears suddenly, with great pain and sickness is acute. Chronic appendicitis may extend over a long period of time and consist of slight attacks at intervals, but, at some time, there will usually occur an attack worse than any before and the disease may then become serious.

"In the presence of abdominal pain, give nothing by mouth. Never give laxatives. Apply an ice pack. Call your family physician. Abdominal pain which persists over a period of six hours is usually serious," advises State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox.

Hospital records show that the above advice has reduced appendicitis deaths 75 per cent. When otherwise healthy people are operated upon soon after the beginning of the "pain in the stomach" caused by appendicitis, little danger is experienced, but the surgeon's work is made more difficult and the patient's chance of recovery is considerably lessened when there is a long delay in seeking medical help, and especially if a cathartic has been given.

How to prevent appendicitis? Keep the body in perfect health as long as possible. Watch your teeth, your tonsils, any place where an infection may occur. Get plenty of good food, plenty of sleep, and plenty of exercise. Have a thorough medical examination at least once a year and have your teeth examined and cleaned by a dentist at least once every six months. This kind of watchfulness will not only help you to avoid appendicitis; it will help you to avoid many other illnesses as well.
