That's another time he could have kept his mouth

We think the Nixon-Frost interview, carried on television one night last week, didn't amount to much.

It didn't change the thinking of many people. It created sympathy for the former president by some; disdain and criticism by

A spot check made later by the Associated Press showed that not many people who viewed the interview changed their minds about the man who brought dishonor to himself and to the nation.

The interview came about 1,000 days after Nixon resigned in disgrace over the Watergate scandal. If that time had increased into tens of thousands, we as the nation and the world would have been no worse off. We didn't do the honor of tuning

We guess the lure of money is just too much for a lot of people. The government is taking pretty good care of the former president with retirement pay and other benefits, but that's not enough it seems.

He's been working on his memoirs, and the publication of these is expected to bring in a right tidy sum. Then Mr. David Frost comes along, and Mr. Nixon gets back on television. It was reported that he is expected to receive $600,000 or more, from the interviews. A lot of people will go after these, and the memoirs like hotcakes-and the funds will come rolling in.

Mr. Nixon's tears and his tear-jerking statement might have brought about some sympathy for his position, when he said:

"I let down my friends. I let down the country. I let down our system of government and the dreams of all those young people that ought to get into government but think it's all too corrupt, and the rest...

"I let the American people down, and I have to carry that burden with me for the rest of my life. My political life is over..." And so Watergate is revived again! That we hate to see. We think the noble thing for a people and a nation to do would be to let the hurt of bygones dwindle into nothingness. It's been some 14 years since President Kennedy was assassinated, and a long time since Martin Luther King met the same fate. Yet, ever so often, we pick up a newspaper or "light up the tube" and find a renewal of these events back into the limelight. We find such things quite distasteful. The events can not be recalled; the persons can not be brought back to life; the shame of Watergate can never be completely whitewashed. Why not let them alone until the silence of many people though many years cause them to vanish completely into oblivion? We once commented with pride that we shook hands with Richard M. Nixon. That was while he was vice-president, and when he made a speech at a Houston meeting of the Texas Press Associa-Continued on page 2

Little League Rained Out

The second game of the season for the Munday Little League was rained out last Thursday night. After one and one half innings, the game between the Yankees and Braves was called due to the weather.

The first game on Monday, May 9 between the Red Sox and Yankees was a close contest with the Yankees coming out on top 10 to 9. Darren Jordan hit a home run with two men on base for the Red Sox in the first inning. One more run came in the second inning and 5 in the third. The Yankees had 2 runs in the first inning, one in the second, 6 in the third,

May 15-22 Proclaimed Soil Stewardship Week

Man is responsible for protecting and conserving soil, water and other natural resources provided by God. Emphasis on that awesome responsibility will be the highlight of Soil Stewardship Week, May 15-22.

Theme of this year's nationwide observance is "When We Care." "The theme is designed to help everyone examine his own motives and actions in the conservation of God's manifold gifts." points out Dr. B. L. Harris, soil and water use specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. The Extension Service is cooperating with the National Association of Conservation Districts and Soil and Water Conservation Districts throughout the state in the weeklong obser-

"At a time when pressures are growing regarding the use of our natural resources, it is vital that we reflect on our dependence on God for all things," emphasizes Harris. "We must be continually mindful of all the priceless gifts bestowed upon us by our Creator-air, soil, water and sunshinewhich make all living things which will also help in

The custom of setting aside special days-called Rogation Days--for worship and prayer in thanksgiving for bountiful resources began more than 1,500 years ago in France when the country was suffering from crop failures and widespread hunger. The people united in prayer and penance and God answered their call.

"During Soil Stewardship Week, we should all acknowledge before God our gratitude for His gifts of the soil and all the bountiful resources associated with it," urges Harris.

Miss Deanne Dickerson and Terry Cartwright of Lubbock were married at 6:00 p. m. Saturday, May 7. 1977 in the Munday Church of Christ with Ray Fulenwider, associate minister of Broadway Church of Christ, Lubbock, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doris Dickerson of Munday and Terry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Cartwright of Benjamin.

Musicians were John Paul Blankenship and Becky Brown of Lubbock, also "New Beginnings" of Broadway Church of Christ, Lubbock.

AARP Meets On May 5th

The Munday Chapter of the American Association of Retired Persons met in regular session Thursday, May 5, at 10:30 a. m. in the Community Center with the Chapter President presiding. Mrs. R. M. Almanrode led the group in singing America and the pledge to the flag. The opening prayer was led by E. V. Shackel-

Members voted to have a program on nutrition, the date to be announced later. This would involve several sessions. Mr. Shackelford announced that a band group from Munday High School would be at the Center Friday night, May 20, to entertain AARP members. This will be on the regular game night.

Remember that other game nights will be at the Research Center Friday, May 13 and Friday, May 27. Mrs. Grace Gollehon led the prayer of thanks for the meal. Everyone enjoyed the delicious variety of food.

Following the meal, a good old fashioned sing song was enjoyed by all with Mrs. M. L. Raynes at the piano. There was group singing and several quartets. Mrs. Almanrode and Mrs. Raynes sang "Because He Lives" and "One Day At A Time," both of which are favorites of everyone.

The next meeting will be Thursday, June 2. Reporter, Grace Gollehon.

TEXAS

By Tommie Harper

One of the floods expected late this spring is to come from a deluge of votes cast by cattle producers from all over the nation. At long last the voting on a referendum which will make or break the Beef Research and Information Order is right around the corner. Every beef producer is encouraged to vote on the measure, which if passed, would provide some 30 to 40 million dollars a year of the cattlemen's money for research and promotion. Cost to the individual producer would be three cents for every ten dollars worth of beef sold. Funds would be administered by a 68member Beef Board representing all cattle producing regions. Registration for this special national referendum must be completed in advance of voting day. The place to sign up is the local ASCS office.

Your ENERGY Dollar$

Use your Room Air-Conditioner Wisely...

- Cover or close all floor and wall registers so that cool air does not escape into the ductwork of your heating system.
- Let nature help you save energy by shading your home with trees and shrubs to help cut down on summer cooling costs. Draw draperies against afternoon sun.
- Your air-conditioner will operate inefficiently if filters are not cleaned regularly. Dirt and lint, collected on the filters, restrict air flow to the coils.
- · Make sure that windows and doors fit tightly. The cooling equipment works on the principle of constantly reconditioning the inside air.

Communities that have built a strong, healthy economy know what they must have to keep the wheels of progress turning in the years ahead. Although each community is different, the basic requirements will be the same: A labor force known for its productivity. Municipal water supplies that can outlast a drought. A good transportation network. Diversification of industry, just to be on safer ground Cultural and recreational attractions. Favorable tax structures. Strong leader-

And energy to power assembly lines. Energy to heat, cool, process foods, lift, spin, dry, pump, drill, press, shape, compute or to use however industry needs it to create products that create jobs.

Meet the Changing Times.

The cheap and abundant energy available here in years past is one reason this area emerged from the recent recessions with one of the strongest economies you'll find in the nation. Few others have a business outlook as optimistic or an employment level as high.

The days of cheap energy are gone, of course. The cost of producing and distributing energy of almost every type has increased dramatically. This, with the demand that exthat you and people everywhere are having to pay for it.

But the availability of an abundance of energy to keep the wheels of progress turning in this area still holds true.

You Can Have What You Need.

Natural gas, for example. Lone Star's pipeline system now extends into basins that contain 50% of the remaining onshore gas reserves in the United States. And this puts us in an excellent position to buy enough new gas reserves to last all of our customers for many decades.

Securing these reserves will be essential to the future of the communities served by Lone Star. Because gas not only meets your energy requirements directly, but indirectly as the primary fuel for generating most of the electric power you use.

The new gas will cost more, and Lone Star will have to recover the actual cost of it on a timely basis. A bargain, even so? Yes. Because these long-term supplies will help your community build job security through business growth.

And that's a bargain in anybody's economy.

ists for energy, has forced a Lone Star Gas Company sharp increase in the prices Working energetically for your area's future.
