Local Girl Shows Grand Champion Steer

All aboard the "Peanut Special."

Just a week remains for President Ford to complete his tenure of office, and chuck the reins of government over to Jimmy Carter, who will no longer be president-elect.

The man who said he didn't enter the race to lose will receive the oath of office on Thursday, January 20. Elaborate plans are under way for this big event. And as plans are completed, hopes will soar for a successful tenure of office for the peanut farmer of Plains, Ga.

Heard over "the tube" several nights ago that a big special train will be chugging along the rails from Atlanta, Ga., to Washington, D. C., and its passengers will be those headed for the inauguration and the festivities that follow.

Few, if any, residents of Plains will be aboard this special. They are shunning the offer to ride this train, if offered the opportunity, because of another big reason.

People of Plains will be going to Washington aboard another train. It has been dubbed "The Peanut Special," and out guess is that only residents of the new president's home town will be eligible to travel on it.

There may be exceptions, however. There may be some of Jimmy Carter's appointees, some advisors, could be some bodyguards, etc., aboard the "Peanut Special." We're sure Mr. Carter will not be aboard himself, because our guess is that he will already be in Washington and up to his ears in involvements and details before the special train leaves Plains, Ga.

There are three persons from Texas who we know won't be able to attend the inauguration.

One is a woman who sort of had a vision that Jimmy Carter would be elected president, and sent him a letter after her visionary dream to this effect. We guess the detailed letter kinda touched Mr. Carter, and he figured the least he could do was to send her an invitation to the inaugural.

She was delighted at receiving the invitation, and it will likely always be a highlight of her experience. But she can't go. Her bosses said "no."

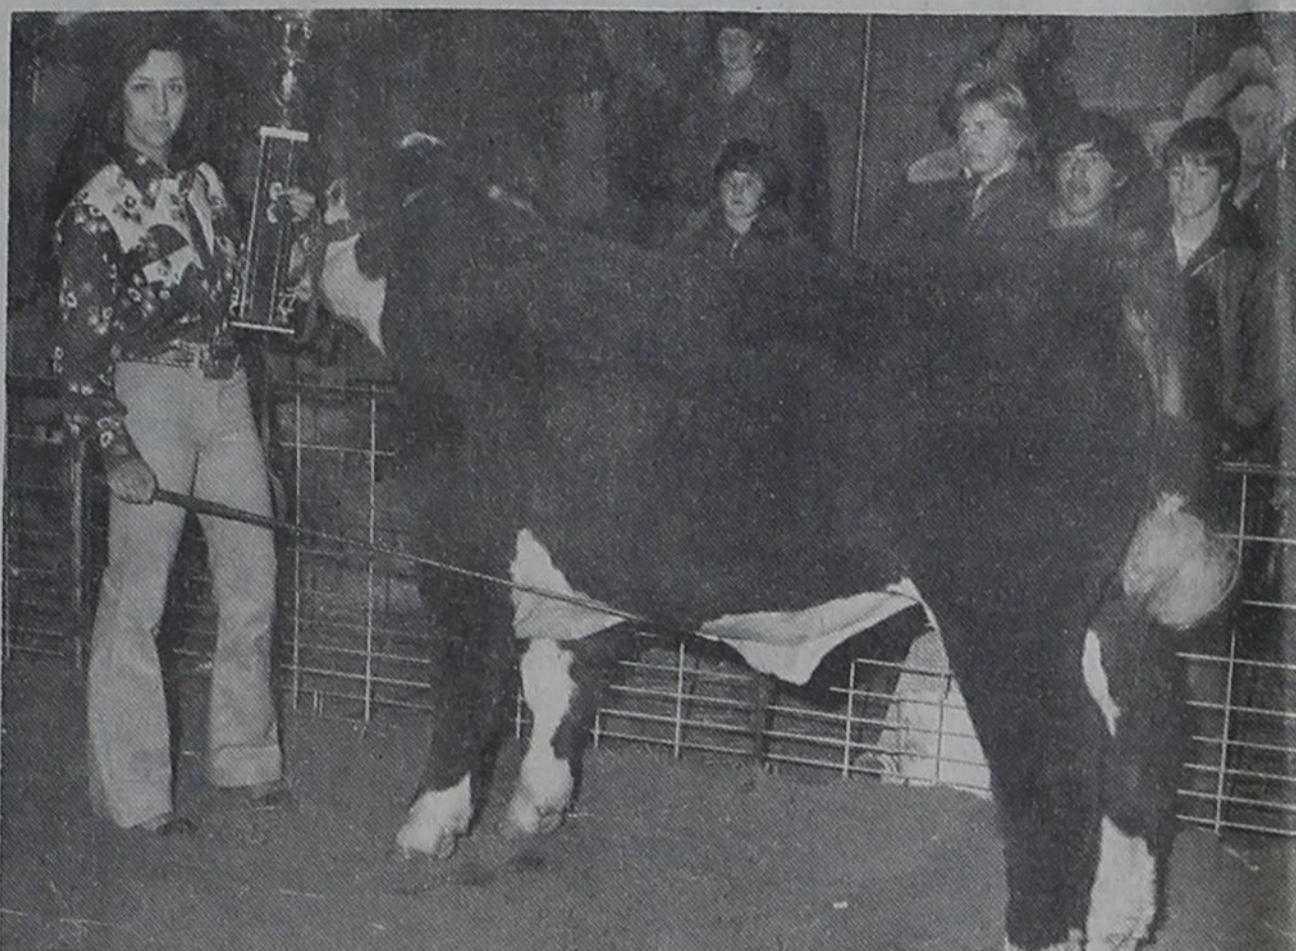

You see, her bosses were members of the Texas Department of Corrections--and they wouldn't open prison doors for her.

The second person, another woman, criticized the president-elect during his campaign for some of the antics he pulled; such as: the Playboy Magazine incident, and being photographed "drinking wine before the entire world." She wrote him a letter suggesting he mend his ways.

As a reward, she, too, received an invitation to the inauguration. But she can't go!

The woman, wife of the Peacock Baptist Church

Bank's Deposits Climb

Records are made to be broken.

This is a truism of the sports world. But in banking circles, at least locally, it's also true.

Proof was submitted December 31, when the First National Bank of Munday issued its end-of-the-year report of condition. The financial statement showed a total of over $11 million on deposit, the greatest in the history of the local bank.

Total deposits were listed at $11,530,116.09, as compared with $10,283,000 on deposit a year ago. Deposits climbed early in January, 1976, to surpass the $11 million mark by several thousand dollars, according to bank officials.

But this was also true in 1977. The deposits had increased during the first five days of January until they totalled $12,500,000--still the largest in the local bank's history.

Deposits are usually referred to as a criterion of the community's health--and the beginning of 1977 is certainly depicting a healthy condition for the Munday area.

"At the close of business December 31, 1976," M. L. Wiggins, president of the bank said, "our deposits were $1,250,000 more than a year ago, reaching a new high of $11,530,000. Since January 1, 1977, deposits have jumped to $12,800,000, the highest figure in the bank's history."

"This increase," he con-

Cure's Farming Equipment To Sell Saturday

J. Omar Cure, whose health has been playing skip-the-rope with him for two or three years, announced this week that he is retiring from farming due to health reasons, and his farming equipment will be sold at auction.

The sale will be held on Saturday, January 15, at 10:30 a. m., at the Cure Farm north of Gilliland. Dulin and Reagan will be the auctioneers.

Mr. Cure lists well over 100 items in farming implements and equipment which will be sold at public auction. Lunch will be available to those attending the sale.

"We had a good year," Wiggins concluded, "and

Nine Band Students Win District Honors

Selected for the High School Band were Tori Graves on flute, Julie Hines on flute, and Gala Myers on two instruments--tenor saxophone and alto saxophone.

These students prepared music selected by the district band directors. Then Saturday, the students performed individually before the directors selected to judge their instruments, along with students from all the district schools such as Seymour, Crowell, Olney, Throckmorton, Quanah, and many others. The best on each instrument were then selected to perform in the 1977 All-District Band concert which takes place in Iowa Park this coming Saturday evening, Jan. 15.

Parents and Mogul Band fans are urged to attend the concert at Iowa Park High School at 6:30 p. m.

pastor, said: "Can you imagine, a country Baptist. We live, but we don't take trips to Washington."

The third Texan who isn't going for sure writes a weekly column in the Munday newspaper.

He's better off than the dreamer in prison; maybe further advanced financially than the country preacher's wife, but he isn't galavanting off to Washington for several reasons-and most of them spell m-o-n-e-y! He hasn't gotten his invitation!

The "cotton" in Washington is just too tall for us to be stomping around in! But whatever happens at the inaugural that is shown on the airlines, we'll probably see a portion of.

And for the new President, our best wishes will be that his success in solving the nation's multiple problems and his role in world affairs will exceed even his fondest expectations.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Welch visited their son, Danny Welch, in Lubbock last Saturday.

GED Tests January 15

The General Educational Development (GED) Tests will be given at the Haskell High School Official Testing Center, in Haskell, Texas, on Saturday, January 15, 1977, beginning at 8:00 A. M. The fee for the battery of five tests is $20.00.

The GED Program provides a means for determining the educational level of adults who have not completed a formal high school education. A certificate of high school equivalency may be issued to adults who successfully complete the GED examination, verifying that the holder has demonstrated a level of competence on the examination which is equivalent to that of a high school senior.

The program is administered nationally by the American Council on Education, Washington, D. C. The Texas Education Agency authorizes accredited high schools and institutions of higher education to serve as testing centers. The centers administer the GED tests to adults who are eligible and report the scores of successful examinees to the Texas Education Agency, which issues certificates of high school equivalency free of charge.

The test has five parts: Correctness and Effectiveness of Expression, Interpretation of Reading Materials in the Social Studies, Interpretation of Reading Materials in the Natural Sciences, Interpretation of Literary Materials, and General Mathematics Ability. The test questions are multiple choice. There is no time limitation but most examinees take approximately eight hours to complete the test battery.

Persons eligible for testing must:
-be a resident of Texas or a member of the Armed Forces stationed in Texas;
-be at least 17 years of age and officially withdrawn from school for one calendar year. (Applicants who have attained their 17th birthday and will enter the Armed Forces may test immediately after withdrawing from school.)
-be 18 years of age and officially withdrawn from school.

high school equivalency, the examinee must:
-complete the examination with a minimum standard score of 40 on each of the five test OR an average standard score of 45 on all five tests;
-have attained at least their 17th birthday prior to date of testing and be out of school for one calendar year;
-have attained their 18th birthday and be officially withdrawn from school.

Applicants must wait six months before retesting. If the applicant is tutored by a certified teacher or participates in an adult education program, retesting may occur when the instructor determines the applicant is prepared.

Applicants are advised to bring their Social Security Number and their driver's license as proper identification.

TAX FORM DUE FROM FARMERS

Farmers who have not filed their 1976 declaration of estimated Federal income tax must file and pay that tax by Monday, January 17. The sole exception to this rule is if they file their income tax return and pay the total tax due by March 1, the Internal Revenue Service said today.

Farmers are defined as those persons who earned at least two-thirds of their 1976 gross income from farming. IRS Publications 225, "Farmer's Tax Guide," and 505, "Tax Withholding and Declaration of Estimated Tax," provide additional information and are available free at local IRS offices.

Study Aimed At Heading Off Farm And Ranch Accidents

A move is under way to put a halt to the mounting farm and ranch accidents that occur in Texas every year—accidents that claim more than 200 lives and cause more than 4,000 disabling injuries.

The effort involves a survey in 42 Texas counties that will be conducted throughout 1977 to determine the causes of farm and ranch accidents. From the information provided, safety education programs will be launched.

Coordinating the Texas Farm and Ranch Accident Study is Dr. Gary S. Nelson, agricultural safety engineer with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Providing yeoman service during the year will be some 700 neighbor volunteers who will be interviewing almost 7,000 of the state's 205,000 farm and ranch families.

"We are really concerned about doing something in Texas to reduce the high cost of farm accidents, both in terms of human suffering and property damage as well as associated production losses," points out Nelson. "To set up a firm base from which to operate and reach out with safety programs, we need to know just what is happening in farm and ranch accidents. That's why the survey is so important. It will provide the best information on the nature and extent of accidents—what is happening to whom and why."

Volunteers involved in the study will be contacting farm and ranch families in early January to obtain "base data," such as size and type of operation and equipment used, explains Nelson. These same families will then be contacted every three months to determine if accidents have occurred and to gather all available information on such accidents.

All survey information will be sent to county Extension agents who will in turn send it to Texas A&M University for analysis. Nelson hastens to point out that the information will be completely confidential since only code numbers will be used on the questionnaires. Only the neighbor interviewer will know which farm and ranch families are participating.

"Due to the seriousness of the accident situation and the fact that the individual information will be kept confidential, we hope that the farm and ranch families contacted will all cooperate to the best of their ability," notes Nelson.

The study is endorsed by the Texas Farm Bureau, Texas Home Demonstration Association, Young Farmers and other groups. Local Farm Bureaus are supplying a significant portion of the volunteer interviewers.

In addition to providing guidelines for farm and ranch accident prevention education, the study may help equipment manufacturers identify and eliminate machine hazards, improve 4-H safety education programs, and reduce insurance costs through reductions in accidents and accident costs. The study may also help prevent bad farm legislation and limit legislation to what is realistic and practical, contends Nelson. The ensuing study has nothing to do with the Occupational Safety and Health Act (OSHA), adds the engineer.

"This study is a project by Texans for Texans," emphasizes Nelson. "It has the potential of saving the lives, limbs and productive talents of Texas farm and ranch families as well as preventing the loss of millions of dollars through equipment damage and production losses."

Hightower To Be Speaker At Lubbock Meet

LUBBOCK—U. S. Rep. Jack Hightower will be one of the featured speakers at the 10th Annual Membership Meeting of Water, Inc.

The meeting has been set for Saturday, Feb. 19, in Lubbock with more than 300 Water, Inc., members and guests expected for the yearly gathering. Hightower will headline a program that addresses the unique water problems of the High Plains as Water, Inc., completes a decade of work toward meeting the area's future water needs.

Water, Inc., President J. W. Buchanan of Dumas said the non-profit organization has served the High Plains well during its 10-year life. "Through the efforts of Water, Inc., residents of the High Plains are acutely aware of our problem and are better educated about water needs than most people in other sections of the state."

Water, Inc., is a non-profit organization which seeks alternative water resources for the High Plains area. The organization's public education efforts are supported by donations from more than 2,200 members.

AUSTIN—A picture of the growth and development of the crops industry in Texas is presented in the recently issued publication, Texas Historic Crops Statistics 1866-1975. Agriculture Commissioner John C. White has announced.

"The publication provides data back to the earliest year for which estimates were made, with many statistics going back more than 100 years for a multitude of Texas crops," White explained.

The free publication is available by writing to the Texas Department of Agriculture, P.O. Box 12847, Austin, Texas 78711.

Investigation of Grain Shortage Is Continuing

A week-long investigation into the grain operations of Robert Johnson of Iowa Park, who reportedly disappeared from the deck of a cabin cruiser at Port Aransas on Sunday, January 2, was resumed at Wichita Falls last Monday after a weekend break. The investigation had revealed a shortage of some 500,000 bushels of grain belonging to farmers in the Wichita Falls area.

Johnson's operations extended into another area in Knox County. He reportedly leased (or bought) the 50,000 acre McFaddin Ranch near Benjamin and spent much of his time there while heavy equipment was clearing thousands of acres of thick mesquite so the land could be seeded in wheat.

In the belief that Johnson had drowned after he fell overboard, authorities at Port Aransas were still waiting for the body to wash ashore as investigations into the grain shortage resumed Monday.

Farmers in the Texas-Oklahoma area covered by Johnson's grain operations are producing storage receipts in the hopes of recuperating a portion of their losses.

HOME ECONOMICS AT A GLANCE

Play is more than just fun. It provides the child with opportunities to explore the world, try alternative roles, and test new skills, says Debby Johnson, family life education specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Social Security News

People who didn't sign up for Medicare medical insurance when they first became eligible or who have cancelled the protection once can enroll now through March 31 at any social security office, according to Carl Beisner, Social Security Claims Representative in Vernon.

Medicare medical insurance is offered automatically to people who reach 65 and are eligible for social security benefits—and to disabled people under 65 who have been entitled to monthly social security disability benefits for 24 consecutive months or more. Nine out of 10 people eligible are enrolled in the program, according to Beisner.

"But some people decline the protection when they're first eligible," he said. "And some sign up once and cancel later. They can enroll in the first 3 months of any year."

Medical insurance helps pay doctor bills and other medical expenses and is the voluntary part of Medicare, funded by individual premiums and Federal general revenues. The basic premium is $7.20 a month through June 1977. It will be $7.70 a month for the 12-month period starting in July 1977.

"People who decline Medicare medical insurance and delay signing up for more than a year pay a higher premium," Mr. Beisner noted. "People who sign up and cancel later can re-enroll only once."

Medical insurance supplements Medicare hospital insurance, which is funded by social security contributions from workers, employers, and self-employed people.

"People 65 and over who are not eligible for social security or railroad retirement benefits can apply at any social security office and get Medicare hospital insurance by paying a premium," he said. "The basic premium is $45 a month through June 1977. It will be $54 a month for the 12-month period starting in July 1977. People who buy hospital insurance must also sign up for the medical insurance," he said.

People who have worked long enough under social security or the railroad retirement system can get Medicare if they have permanent kidney failure. Their wives or husbands or children may also be eligible for Medicare if they have permanent kidney failure.

Medicare is administered by the Social Security Administration, an agency of the U. S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare. The Vernon Social Security Office is at 1701 Cumberland. The phone number is 817-552-9346.

Oink, Oink ... Wheat Acres Decline ... Crop Reports On The Way.

Texas hog producers apparently see some dangers ahead in expanded pork production as they are planning to cut back on sow farrowings during the first half of this year.

The Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service notes that from now through May, Texas farmers intend to farrow 91,000 sows. This is two per cent less than the same period a year ago.

The December-February quarter is expected to show an increase of four per cent from a year ago, but the March-May quarter is expected to see a decline of nine per cent compared to a year ago.

Nationwide, by comparison, U.S. hog producers intend to farrow 6.1 million sows through May. This would be an increase of five per cent from a year ago.

As of Dec. 1, the inventory of all hogs and pigs in Texas was 850,000 head. This is nine per cent more than a year ago, but is ten per cent less than two years ago.

The number of market hogs totaled 731,000. This is 11 per cent more than a year ago. The breeding herd was 119,000 head. This is two per cent less than a year ago.

Across the nation, hog and pig numbers totaled 55,100,000. This is 11 per cent more than a year ago. The number kept for breeding, at 8,000,000, is five per cent more than a year ago.

The 1976 pig crop was 19 per cent higher than a year ago, which explains some of the reason for the drop in prices for hogs to producers.

A STEADY SIX-YEAR INCREASE in wheat acres nationwide has come to an end. But there still will be plenty of wheat.

The Texas winter wheat acreage expected for harvest in 1977 is now estimated at 6,150,000 acres. This is down five per cent from last year.

Based on Dec. 1 conditions, production is expected to total 98,400,000 bushels; this would be down five per cent from last year, but is still close to the 100 million bushel production for Texas that has been exceeded only twice since 1866.

Wheat seeding is complete in the state. Too much rain in some parts of the state prevented some farmers from completing planting. Cold weather has also reduced growth and has reduced the quantity of forage available for pasture.

Winter wheat acreage for the nation is set at 55,800,000 acres. This is a three per cent decline from last year. Based on Dec. 1 conditions, this would produce 1,438,000,000 bushels, which is about twice the amount that would normally be used in this nation.

CROP REPORTS coming out in the near future include the Jan. 17 annual crop summary. On Jan. 21, look for the prospective plantings for 1977 as of Jan. 1 intentions.

April 14 will be the date of the prospective plantings for 1977 based on April 1 intentions. May 10 is the date for the winter wheat production based on May 1 conditions. And June 8 is the date for the winter wheat production forecast based on June 1 conditions.

Spot On TV!

Ron Stahl of Channel III TV News in Wichita Falls, was in Munday on Wednesday of last week to secure a "news spot" on the local housing situation. The situation was that Munday had unrented apartments, while housing shortages were prevalent over a wide area.

He showed on Friday's 6 p. m. report a picture of the Munday Home Development Corp. apartment complex, with M. L. Wiggins, president of the organization, giving the vocal story.

"Out of the 24 apartments, we have about half of them rented," Wiggins said, "and I think we won't have any trouble renting them once we secure street paving in the area." He pointed out that the apartments rent for $125 per month with water and sewerage being furnished. Electricity, gas and telephone are paid by the tenant.

IT ALL STARTED WITH A BET...

by Tim Hertel

Before the Christmas holidays the seniors made a bet with their class sponsor, Mr. Therwhanger, on the Los Angeles - Dallas football game. Each of the thirty-seven seniors made a one dollar bet that Dallas would win the game and Mr. Therwhanger went with Los Angeles. It was agreed when the bet was made that the loser would send the money to the West Texas Rehabilitation Center.

Dallas lost the game by a score of 14-12 and the members of the senior class paid off the bet. With a little encouragement from our sponsor, who also happens to be our civics teacher, we all agreed to collect donations offered from any of the teachers or other members of the high school. We set our goal at $100.

The seniors are proud to say that the final sum donated to the West Texas Rehabilitation Center was $145.85.

We, the senior class, would like to express our appreciation to those who made donations toward this worthy cause.

Delbert Thompson, who has averaged 23 points a game, had a good night putting in 33. Mike Urbanczyk had 16 for Munday while R. Q. Tolliver added 15. This defeat set the Moguls district mark at 2-3 and 9-10 for the year.

TEXAS TALK
By Tommie Harper

Cattlemen have a bone to pick about bones... and assorted other parts of the beef carcass included in figures used to indicate beef consumption. Per capita consumption of beef is generally thought to be just 120 pounds...a figure some critics of the beef industry (commonly called steak-stoppers) consider too high to be healthy. Let's make sure everyone is talking about the same thing. Consumers are buying over 120 pounds of beef a year. That's true. However, it's 120 pounds of beef on the hoof. There's the catch. When you talk about consumption, most people think about the amount actually eaten. That total is just over 40 pounds (cooked weight) per person... less than 2 ounces a day. That means on the average, as good a beef consumer as most Americans are, they still average less than a hamburger a day in terms of beef consumption. That's one average we can do something to improve. How about a steak?

Stuffed pork chops are a perfect cure for those post-holiday cooking blues. Pork is plentiful in Texas markets with supplies now at their seasonal peak. The peanut stuffing also provides a protein boost to the tasty main dish, while an alternate stuffing contains both protein-rich pecans and plentiful Texas rice. Add the tangy taste of a Texas citrus fruit salad to enhance flavor and provide important vitamins.

Sun School was omitted Sun due to the lovely snow which was wonderful. It was beautiful lesson and I hope those wasent able to attend Sun morning will read it. Subj Jesus accepts calling. Bible basis: Lesson Scripture: Mark 1:4-13 Background scripture Mark 1:4.13 Luke 3:1.22:4:1.13.

Bible truth Jesus baptism showed his connection with the Father and the Holy Spirit and marked the beginning of his earthly ministry. Bible verse: The spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord. Isiah 11:2.

Lesson aim. That adult christian publicly identify them selfs with Christ and his people. To day's scripture passage focuses on one of the gospel accounts of Jesus baptism. We hope the lesson won't get bogged down in old arguments rather we pray that it will lift minds and hearts to larger wider truth; that we, as adults christians must follow example and publicly identify our selfs with God's people.

I my self no the lesson is wonderful because its about how our Lord Jesus you no in this life which God have given us we should appreciate him enough to prove to him we thank him for our life and prove to him how much we love him by teaching our girls and boy how to live for him and teach them the tenth commandments then you take time and explain it to them so they can understand and not to steal that bad but when the parants dont tell them they don't no also not to lie. We should give our children more time to be kind to them dont abuse them. In the scripture it say's beat them with a rod that realy the word. and if we read God's word, we would no how to live and train our children because they are the future church. You no I'm question about the children only ans I can give probly they don't get the proper training at home that true Im not in the homes. On last week one of my boys visit me from F Worth his home is yet here Mr John Tucker also other friends

Bill's Blabbin

By Bill Bowley

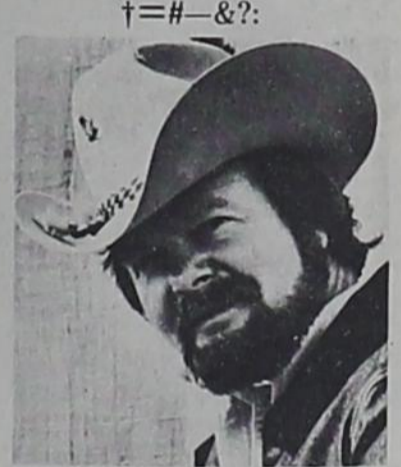

Guess if she is important enough to appear in the 1977 January issue of Self Discovery-Seventeen at School magazine, she can make it in Bill's Blabbin. We are talking about Penny Winchester, homemaking teacher.

blab
Penny was interviewed some time ago and had forgotten about it when here comes this magazine with her picture and her article on Speaking Freely. She told of her work in the Munday Schools, having three homemaking courses and her activities in the FHA program.

blab
All in all it was a very nice article and now we have a VIP in our school. She'll kill us for this, but at least we'll let you know before we pass on, and we are proud of and for her.

blab
Looking at the leafless trees on the City Hall lawn, adjacent and catcornered from us, and how utterly bare they look reminds us of one day when the leaves on this certain tree were turning their autumn colors and we happened to look over that way at just the right time.

blab
The sun was shining just right to bring out all the beauty and glory of the several different shades of brown and gold. We called attention to it when one of the "City Hall Gals" who was over here after supplies. We should share the beauty and good in this world of ours with others. Somehow, when you share, things take on a brighter glow.

Texas Taxes

By BOB BULLOCK, State Comptroller

AUSTIN--Since taking office two years ago, we have made no bones about being aggressive in our tax-collection efforts.

Our much-publicized raids on sales tax delinquents and intensified audits, particularly of out-of-state corporations, produced additional millions of dollars of badly needed revenue for the State Treasury.

I'm proud of those efforts because that money we collected belonged to you, the people of Texas.

It's money we can use to help better educate our children, to help build and maintain our highways, to care for our sick, to help feed and house our aged poor.

Since the dawn of time, the tax collector has been one of the most unpopular figures in society. But I have always believed that if you know everyone is having to pay their fair share of the tax burden, some of the sting out of paying your own is removed.

That's why we got aggressive. And I think most Texans applauded our efforts.

But in tax collecting, like many other things, the most is not always the best.

The Comptroller's Office is an agency of people--2,000 of them. And I know as well as you do that with that number of people there are bound to be some mistakes--mistakes caused by overzealousness, or just plain human error.

Because of this I am placing more emphasis on taxpayer service in our tax collection programs. We will continue to aggressively collect the taxes owed the state, but I don't want to collect a single dollar not rightfully due.

We want to familiarize you, the taxpayers, with your rights under the law. We will spell out those rights in subsequent Texas Taxes columns.

We are particularly concerned about the small businessmen--the grocer and the drug store owner--who we fear sometimes reluctantly pay a tax bill they feel is unfair because they don't believe they can "fight city hall" and win.

They don't have the batteries of high-powered lawyers and auditors the big corporations can afford to fight their tax battles.

To assist the small taxpayer, we want to make the appeals process as informal, inexpensive and swift as possible. We want taxpayers to have every opportunity to present their side--and with the assurance that their arguments will be heard.

You are entitled under the law to protest and appeal any tax assessment you feel is improper. That is your right and I urge you to exercise it.

More on how to appeal next week.

FINAL TAX PAYMENT DUE FOR SOME

Many people who do not have enough taxes withheld are required to pay their final installment of 1976 estimated Federal income tax no later than Monday, January 17. Also due the same day are amended estimates from those whose 1976 income changed substantially during the last quarter. Many taxpayers first met the requirements for filing a tax declaration during the last three months of 1976, according to the Internal Revenue Service. Taxpayers are generally required to file an estimate if they owe the IRS more than $100 not covered by withholding. The estimates in this case are due January 17.
