"Storyline" For Children To Continue

When Larry Fitzgerald started the Santa's storyline for children, he was overwhelmed by the number of calls he received each day. Sometimes between 50-100 children per day called to hear Christmas stories about elves, reindeer, children and Santa.

The story service was scheduled to end at Christmas, however, due to the requests from a large number of children and their parents, the storyline will continue.

Children in the Munday-Goree-Rhineland area are invited to call 422-5257. Stories will include fiction pieces about talking animals, elves, giants and knights in the days of old. Also, non-fiction stories about great people of history such as George Washington or Abe Lincoln will be read.

The storyline is a free gift to the communities. Children outside the local area need to get their parent's permission each time they call since the call would be long distance.

Children (and adults too) are invited to call and hear a favorite story.

Rolling Plains Textiles organization is still working hard at getting the wheels rolling on a cotton textile mill in Munday. They are presently waiting on a ruling from the IRS to determine the tax status of the operation. A non-profit foundation is being established to finance the plant installation.

I was given the opportunity to go on a tour of the cotton denim mill in Littlefield last Thursday, along with several members of the Textiles group, their wives and other interested parties. There were seventeen of us in all. This tour helped me to understand what a textile mill is, and what the organization is working toward.

The American Cotton Growers Denim Plant in Littlefield has contracted to make denim strictly for Levi Strauss & Company. They use 92,000 bales of cotton annually, which is processed into approximately 29 million yards of 60-inch denim.

Upon reaching the plant, I was surprised at the size of the structure, which covered approximately 10 acres.

We watched in amazement as the cotton was separated into small tufts by six large machines passing back and fourth over the tops of the cotton bales, picking up a small layer with each pass, blending 192 bales to get the right yarn texture (as shown below). Cotton is delivered by air suction to the cleaning machines, and then through a carding machine, which removes foreign matter and short fibers, and forms the cotton into what resembled a spider web. The web is converted into a continuous rope-like form known as a sliver.

Cotton fibers are formed into a yarn by centrifugal action in open-end spinning. Individual fibers are laid down in a groove of a fast spinning rotor and twisted into yarn. After the cotton fibers are spun into yarn, the yarn is wound onto spools, weighing nine pounds when full. This spinning machine had a robot on each side which automatically repaired any broken ends, and would remove full spools and put on a new one.

This process is the first phase of the proposed textile mill operation in Munday, and will also include a combing process which produces a finer quality of yarn to be used for t-shirts and sport shirts.

The next step was to dye the yarn. The Munday plant will not be using dye until their third phase.

Through a warping process, 353 individual strands of yarn were gathered in a rope form and wound onto a log, thus forming a ball warp (as shown below). The yarn goes through sulfur dye, wash boxes, indigo dye vats, and drying cans, and coiled into tubes. The dyed yarn was then separated back into individual strands, called beaming, and run through a slashing machine which coats it with a starch and wax solution. All this is done with large machinery that you just have to see to believe.

The weaving process, which will be Phase II for the local plant, interlaces the dyed yarn and the natural colored yarn, producing 100% cotton denim. This particular room held 354 weaving machines, all electronically controlled. Even though the floor was concrete, it shook as the material was formed from these weaving wenders.

It takes nine days to turn the raw cotton into denim cloth. Every yard of cloth must pass rigid inspection standards. Following inspection,

Seymour Aquifer Project Offers Free Soil Testing

The free soil testing program for producers in the Seymour Aquifer Project area will be offered again starting January 17 and ending March 31. The soil testing program is being broken down into two parts. The first part is for top dressing for wheat and will be followed consecutively by preplant soil testing for cotton and grain sorghum.

Collecting a soil sample takes only a few minutes and can pay off big dividends.

Soil sampling should be done each year to determine the amount of nitrogen left in the soil from the last crop. The soil sample should be taken from a uniform area of the field and represent 10 to 40 acres. Take 10 to 15 sample (small core slices) from the area to a depth of 6 inches. Place the samples in a clean plastic bucket, mix thoroughly and take out about one pint for the composite sample.

The soil tests are only as accurate as the samples on which they are made. Tests on poorly taken samples may actually be misleading because they do not represent the soil on the area to be cropped.

After a good composite sample is taken, the final step is to set a realistic crop yield goal. The actual fertilizer recommendation will be based on the crop requirement for your desired yield, minus soil nutrient levels identified by the soil test. Be sure and fill out the soil sample information sheet so that the lab will be able to make recommendations for your crop, otherwise your soil sample results don't do you much good.

Soil sample information sheets and soil sample bags can be picked up at any of the following locations: Parker Implement, Quality Implement or Knox Prairie Coop in Munday, Rhineland Coop Gin in Rhineland, the Extension office for Knox County in Benjamin, Benjamin Fertilizer in Knox City, Knox City SCS office or ASCS office.

Also, in Haskell at the SCS office, ASCS office, Seymour Aquifer office or the Extension office, Allison Farm Supply in Rule, Rochester Gin or Lone Star Peanut office, and O'Brien Coop Gin.

the cloth is measured and cut into rolls of proper quality and size, and shipped out to Levi cutting plants, located in 27 countries.

To think that something similar to this is in the future for Munday is a little unbelievable. A textile mill would employ workers from Munday and the surrounding area. Farmers will benefit by selling their cotton locally instead of shipping it out. The benefits are numerous, and will be a great boost to the entire Rolling Plains.

Members of the Rolling Plains Textiles, who have been working on this project since August of 1992, include Garon Tidwell, Gary Wilde and Doug Parker of Munday; Gary Coltharp, Day Carlin, Tom Coker, Randal Coltharp and Don Gregg of Seymour; James Randell Murray of Sanger; and Lynn Reeves of Abilene. If you would like to hear more about this major project, they would be glad to talk to you about it and answer any questions you may have.

Don Whetsell - Pastor
 First Methodist Church, Munday - Goree

I woke up this morning to a terrifying yet hauntingly familiar scene. Once again my TV screen was filled with images of shattered homes, roaring fires, and crushed cars and broken freeways. Another earthquake had struck southern California.

You will probably hear many Christians and even preachers talking about how this is yet one more sign that the "End-Times" are at hand. I will not debate this point because the reality is that we know nothing about the chronological timing of the "End-Times" except that they are coming, and that they get closer every day. I believe that and see evidence of that all around me.

It's just that I'm not sure how helpful it is for us, as believers, to go on and on about the coming fulfillment of Biblical Prophecy when the fires are still raging and the bodies are being recovered. A woman whose husband and children have been claimed by a natural disaster does not need to hear "I told you so" from the readers of Revelation.

Preceded in death by her husband, George Salem, she was survived by two daughters, Alva Salem and Nadine Silman; three grandchildren, Jimmie Silman III, Janeen Miller and Diana Samia Jenkins; and one great-grandchild, Alyssa Silman Miller. Selma and Mona Choucair of Munday attended the funeral.

Let us take a cue from Jesus and focus our efforts on showing love and compassion to the victims instead of pointing to this catastrophe to try to show that our interpretation of the scripture is "correct".

God didn't cause this. If He did this to everyone who rebelled against him, he would have to wipe out the whole world, including Munday, because all of us have. Let all of us who know the Lord give of our time, money, support and prayers as these brothers and sisters put their lives back together.

Thank You

How do we possibly thank you, our friends and loved ones, for all the acts of kindness and love shown us at the loss of our beloved husband, Dad, and Papa - Bobby.

The care shown us by the ambulance crew; your immediate presence in our home and calls to comfort us; all the delicious food, drinks and other means of eating; the outpouring of plants, flowers, memorials, money and cards; helping out at the Gin and keeping things going; cleaning our pickup; taking care of the paper subscription; so many ways you've shown us your love and that you care.

The caring, loving attention and service shown at this most difficult time by our funeral director and staff makes our funeral home the best there is anywhere in the best community of the most loving and caring people on God's earth.

We have felt your prayers for us then and now, and it makes it possible to continue on with our lives with so many wonderful people being here for us.

Your overwhelming attendance, the music and singing so beautifully performed, the service so meaningful, direct and caring was such a tribute to Bobby and to us.

Every aspect of this difficult time in our lives has been made easier by you, our beautiful, loving friends and families, and will always be etched in our memories.

We would like to close our Thanks To You with the poem that Bro. Randy wrote in memory of Bobby and used in the memorial service:

*He never talked much
 Or made a great display,
 But his love was such
 It never went away.*

*He never said it loud,
 But you could see it in his eyes,
 Of you he was so proud,
 And thought of you so high.*

*His gift was giving to others,
 Even to his dying day,
 For him it was not a bother,
 This was just his way.*

*He never, never cheated,
 Always gave an honest day,
 And never from truth retreated,
 And never led astray.*

*His family was his prize,
 And he was theirs, for sure.
 Now he's on to heaven's skies,
 And we, by God's help, will endure.*

Easements May Help FmHA Borrowers Restructure Debts

"Farmers with loans from the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) may be able to put flood-damaged land under conservation easements in exchange for a reduction in their debt," George Ellis, FmHA State Director, said.

Use of the easements is not limited to flood areas, but it may be particularly helpful in such areas.

"Eligible lands may include wetlands, marginal farmland, highly erodible and, woodland, wildlife areas, and several others," Ellis said. "In certain areas, there may be instance where farmland was damaged so severely by the recent flooding that restoring it may cost more than its agricultural value."

"In those cases, a conservation easement may be a solution. Under this program, a voluntary easement can be placed on a portion of the land in return for a reduction in the amount owed to FmHA."

Ellis said the easements are for 50 years or more and can help rebuild soil conditions as well as encourage development of wild-life habitat.

"Not only can FmHA farm borrowers take marginal acreage out of production in this way, they also can materially reduce their farm operating costs," Ellis said.

Farmers who think they may be eligible should contact their local FmHA County Office for further information.

Farmers Home Administration, as an Equal Opportunity Lender, makes loans or grants to individuals or groups and guarantees to approved lenders without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, familial status, and handicap. ### At Your Service

by Dr. Larry Fitzgerald
Minister, Munday Church of Christ.

Q: Where in the Bible does it say homosexuality is wrong?

A: You mention in your letter that you've never read that homosexuality is even mentioned in the Bible or in your concordance. That's because the term "homosexual" is fairly recent to the English language. The version of the Bible you are using was translated before the term "homosexual" or the application of "gay" was made. However the sin is described in different terms.

Read 1 Corinthians 6:9. The text lists a number of sins for Christians to avoid. The last sin in that verse is "abusers of themselves with mankind". Other versions translate this as "homosexual offenders". This sin is also mentioned in Romans 1:26-27; Leviticus 18:22; and Leviticus 20:13.

Despite what some people say, God will help a person overcome any sin including this one. Paul indicated that some of the Christians at Corinth had been guilty of this and other sins but were made clean through God's washing (1 Corinthians 6:11).

God will help you overcome any sin in your life if you become a Christian and dedicate your life to Him (1 Corinthians 10:13).

It may be popular to tolerate what some call "alternate life styles" but God in His infinite wisdom has given us His standards.

If you have a question for Larry, write him c/o Box 211, Munday, TX 76371.

Windbreak Trees Still Available Through Wichita Brazos SWCD

The taste of March high winds we have been experiencing should be a reminder to us of the need for good windbreaks. It's a little hard to get into a planting mood this early but looking ahead to tree planting season and preparing for the windy seasons is certainly advantageous.

Many land owners and SWCD co-operators have already taken advantage of the opportunity to obtain windbreak trees from the District. This program is made possible through the Texas Forest Service and is very beneficial to the conservation of our land.

WBSWCD still has a few Afghanistans available even though many of the favorite varieties are already unavailable. You have until February 10 to place your order. Hopefully the ones you want will still be obtainable. Delivery date is February 17.

Thousands Of Local Area Cattle Sold On Television Last Year

Powder Coffman, and Louis Timmons of Throckmorton, were extremely busy during 1993. In fact, their hard work resulted in more than 173,803 head of cattle from Texas appearing on television.

They are local representatives for Superior Livestock Auction, the nation's leading satellite video auction company headquartered in Ft. Worth, Texas and Brush, Colorado. Superior representatives work with local cattle producers at marketing time to offer their cattle to a nationwide buyer base via satellite.

These individuals, plus 300 other representatives across the United States and Canada, worked with producers to offer more than 900,000 head of cattle by satellite video auction during 1993. These numbers make Superior Livestock Auction the largest cattle auction in the United States.

While selling cattle by satellite auction is not exactly new technology anymore (Superior held its first sale in 1987), it's still new to a lot of folks. However, these representatives are convinced that for the producer who can sell in load lots or several producers who can pool their cattle, Superior's the way to sell. The main reasons for this conviction are numerous - the buyers get to see the cattle in their natural environment; there's less stress and shrink on the cattle because they are videotaped at home; they are not rounded up, loaded and unloaded before a buyer gets to see them; and the seller's cattle are seen by buyers from coast to coast and from Canada and Mexico creating more potential bidders.

Last year Superior held a satellite video auction every two weeks on the average. However, due to demand, the every other Saturday sale schedule has been expanded to include every Wednesday as well.

According to Jim Odle, Superior Livestock Auction's General Manager, "Our local representative source of our success. They represent the seller's cattle all the way through the marketing process from videotaping and describing the cattle, to delivery to the new owners, and writing the check for payment in full."

Truscott-Gilliland News

By Mrs. Clara Brown

The temperature got down to 18 last Friday, January 7, but it has been warmer since. Recent days have been clear and cold with some windy times. We still need rain.

There was a good turn out at Grandma's Sunday Dinner. The next one will be on February 13.

Several were talking about wild hog trapping Sunday. Those trapping around Truscott seem to have thinned the hogs out some, at least on the trails they have been taking. Some have been moving traps to new locations. Those with growing wheat and baled hay are glad to see any reduction, as the wild hogs are very hard on wheat fields and hay bales.

Kim and Donald Lee Miller lost their house to fire Friday afternoon. A wiring problem is suspected as the cause. Kim was in the house with their two little girls. She heard something and walked to a back room, and discovered a wall ablaze. She grabbed the little girls and ran out the front door. Apparently Andy Dushane, whose home directly south of the Miller's, saw the blaze about the same time and called 911.

The house burned rapidly and flames were all over the inside by the time a fire truck arrived, even though there was a rapid response. Trucks came from Benjamin, Crowellity and ambulances came from Crowell and Knox City. The house was the former parsonage for the Truscott Methodist Church. Nothing was saved from the house, though some things stored outside were not burned.

A pickup parked between the house and church was pulled to safety. None of the Millers were hurt. A Benjamin fireman was overcome by the heavy smoke for a time.

Kim is the daughter of Freddy and Lanay Cash of Gilliland and the granddaughter of Jim and Edith Cash of Crowell and Lamoine and Christine Patterson of Benjamin. Donald Lee is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Miller of Guthrie and the nephew of Lee Whitley of Truscott.

The Edmund Tomaneks went to Paradise, Wise County, last week to visit an Army buddy of Edmund's and his wife. The wife has been very sick.

The Shirley Moores were in Amarillo during the holidays visiting their two daughter and son and their families.

Irene New went to Amarillo with Peggy and Wayne Plunk last Sunday, January 2. She had a doctor's appointment Monday. Monday night she got to attend some basketball games at Stratford and enjoyed visiting with Stratford teachers with whom she taught and watching the children of some of her former pupils play ball. The Plunks took her to Memphis Tuesday, where Owen met her and brought her home.

June and Newell Looney visited Margaret Todd at Abilene last Wednesday. Margaret said to tell everyone "hello".

Rager Jones, the youngest brother of Edgar Jones, was buried at Dumas Wednesday, December 5. Those attending included Edgar and Opal Jones of Vernon; Joyce Williams of Floydada; Norma Lee of Vernon; and Clara Brown and Vernon Jones of Truscott.

Even though he's only weeks old, this calf has a lot of power behind him. And a lot of green pastures ahead.

Meeting the electricity needs of Texans today is a real challenge. While maintaining respect for the environment, we must balance cost and reliability without becoming dependent on any one fuel.

That's why in the early 1980s, a group of electric cooperatives got together to build a power plant that uses a local fuel resource, lignite coal. Today, this efficient scrubber-equipped plant provides 400 megawatts of low-cost power to homes and businesses served by cooperatives in 91 Texas counties.

Keeping our commitment to the environment in mind, we are also making sure that we put things back better than the way we found them. The land reclamation program at this plant's mine is turning what was once a cactus and mesquite patch into a grassy, productive home for livestock and wildlife.

Medicare General Enrollment Period Begins

by Patty Brandt, Resident Representative in Vernon

Did you decide not to take Part B of Medicare when you were first eligible for it? Or did you have Part B once and then dropped the coverage? If you fit into either of these situations, you'll have a chance to sign up for Part B during the annual enrollment period that runs from January 1, 1994, through March 31, 1994. This three-month period offers a second chance to those who did not enroll when they were first eligible and those who dropped their coverage in the interim. If you enroll during the current sign-up period, your coverage will begin July 1, 1994.

If you did not enroll when you first were eligible, your Medicare Part B premium will be 10 percent higher than the basic monthly premium for each twelve-month period you were eligible but not enrolled. For 1994, the basic monthly Medicare Part B premium is $41.10. There are special premium rules and enrollment periods (generally with no penalty for delayed enrollment) for workers age 65 or older and for people under age 65 with disabilities who have group health coverage based on their own or their spouse's current employment. Part B coverage, also called "medical insurance," helps pay for doctor's services, outpatient hospital care, and other medical services.

If you're age 65 or older and not eligible for Medicare's premium-free Hospital Insurance (Part A) coverage, you can buy this coverage along with Part B coverage during the annual enrollment period. (People entitled to Medicare Hospital Insurance through the Social Security or Railroad Retirement systems or through government employment do not pay this premium). Your monthly premium will be 10 percent higher than the basic amount if you delayed your enrollment for 12 months or more after you were first eligible to enroll. In 1994, the basic monthly premium for Part A coverage will be $245. For individuals with 30 credits or more of work covered by Social Security but not enough to qualify for benefits, the amount is reduced to $184.

If your income is about $600 a month and you have limited assets, the state may pay some or all of your Medicare expenses, including buying Part A coverage under the Qualified Medicare Beneficiary (QMB) program. Under the QMB provisions, Medicare hospital and medical premiums and the deductible and coinsurance amounts may be paid by the state government. If your income is slightly above the level to qualify for the QMB program (more than $600 a month but less than $700), you may qualify for state help in paying your Part B (Medical Inurance) premium under the Specified Low-Income Medicare Beneficiary (SLMB) program. Only your state can decide if you qualify for help under either program. Contact your state or local medical assistance (Medicaid) agency, social services office, or welfare office if you think you qualify. Call the toll-free number, 1-800-638-6833, for the telephone number of your medical assistance office.

If you think you qualify but you haven't filed for Medicare Part A, contact Social Security to find out if you need to file an application. Further information about filing for Medicare is available from your local Social Security office or from Social Security's toll-free number, 1-800-772-1213.

MHS Graduate Is Principal Of Blue Ribbon Nominee

ton, a 1961 honor graduate of Munday High School, has a very rewarding occupation. She is principal of Pattison Elementary School in Katy, one of 22 schools in Texas to be nominated for the U.S. Department of Education's Blue Ribbon Schools-National Schools of Excellence Recognition Program.

Being recognized as a Blue Ribbon School is the highest national award a school can receive. In order to be nominated, schools had to demonstrate their effectiveness in meeting state and national goals, as well as evidence that students are developing reasoning and problem solving abilities. They had to show evidence of strong leadership and effective working relationships between the school, parents and others in the community, and demonstrate that they promote high-quality instruction and professionalism among teachers.

Winners of the competition will be announced in May and school representatives will be invited to Washington in September for a White House recognition ceremony.

Mrs. Eggleston was principal for ten years at Katy Elementary, before moving to the new Pattison Elementary School three years ago. They have an enrollment of 953 students.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Offutt of Munday, and the wife of Dr. Frank Eggleston, a dentist in Houston. They have one daughter, Camille, who is a practicing attorney with a firm in Houston.

FmHA Moves To Speed Up Loan Processing

"Texas farmers applying for assistance from Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) will experience a breath of fresh air this year," George Ellis, FmHA Texas State Director, said.

"I have taken action to delegate the full loan approval authority allowed under the Federal Regulations to FmHA County Offices in Texas," Ellis said.

This action means that FmHA Supervisors at the County level will be able to exercise loan approval authority up to the full County limit without prior reviews being required at the other locations or even by FmHA officials at the same location.

"As this new year begins, I feel this will be a real help to our farm customers, and I intend to pursue this type of change in the future, wherever I can," said Ellis.

FmHA County Supervisors were previously subject to a complicated system of reviews and re-reviews of loan applications in order to approve an FmHA loan. This system was instituted several years ago in order to insure fewer mistakes and more uniformity from County to County.

"I still intend to hold FmHA Supervisors to the same high standards as in the past, however, I am also dedicated to streamlining the process so that our farm customers will have funds available to them at the time they are needed," said Ellis.

Farmers Home Administration, as an Equal Opportunity Lender, makes loans or grants to individuals or groups and guarantees to approved lenders without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, familial status, and handicap. Complaints of discrimination should be sent to: Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. 20250.

Pathways

by Randy White, pastor
First Baptist Church

In our world we hear much about what we call "self-confidence". One ancient philosopher said "He who has confidence leads the rest." Thomas Jefferson said "One man with confidence is a majority."

What is your confidence level? Do you have the confidence to lead others? Do you have the confidence to take a risk? Do you have the confidence to be different? Do you have the confidence to stand and voice your opinion?

Without trust in the Lord, it is impossible to have complete inner confidence. Why? Because no one is good enough, strong enough, wise enough, or smart enough to have unbreakable confidence. All of us, even if we won't admit it, know of our own inability.

But when "self-confidence" is not based on self, but in our trust in the Lord, we can have a complete, unbreakable confidence. You can plainly see this in the stories of the confident heroes of the Bible. Their trust in God allowed them to have confidence beyond any human ability.

The very confident Apostle Paul said "I know in WHOM I have believed, and am persuaded that He is able. . . ." The Person in whom Paul placed his trust was what allowed Paul to become so confident.

Do you need more self-confidence? You can find it as you grow in your trust in the Lord. There is no other way to confidence. Worship God this week. Study about Him this week. It will build your confidence!

"Lord, help me to grow in you so that I may grown in the self-confidence that I need. Amen."

P.S.--I've gone to 15 homes to date in my goal to knock on "every door in '94". Soon I'll knock on your door!

Munday School Board Meets In Regular Session

The Munday ISD Board of Trustees met in regular session Thursday, January 13. Minutes of the previous meeting were approved as well as payment of all bills.

Approval of the Band trip to San Antonio in February was approved. The Munday High School Purple Cloud Band is the Class A Honor Band to the TMEA Convention.

Also approved was an additional step to the local salary schedule. The state salary schedule stops giving salary increases after a certain number of years of service. This continues raises for the experienced teachers in the district.

Also approved was the bid on property and casualty insurance for the district's buildings and vehicles. The bid of Texas Association of School Boards was approved.

The school calendar was also changed. The bad weather holiday scheduled for April 20 was moved to February 11. This will allow a three day weekend while the Band is in San Antonio.

Also approved was the members of the textbook committee and a resolution for the sale of property which would allow the property to be placed again on the tax roll. Also the February board meeting was moved to February 17 because of expected absences from the district on the regularly scheduled date.

In Memory of Lorena Shackelford

*A million times we've needed you,
A million times we've cried,
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.
If all the world was ours to give,
We would give it, yes and more,
To see you coming up the steps,
And walking through the door.
To hear your voice,
To see your smile,
To sit and talk with you a while,
To be with you the same old way,
Would be our fondest wish today.
A heart of gold stopped beating,
Two smiling eyes closed to rest,
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the best.*
