TAXES, PAYROLLS AND DIVIDENDS

A world of changes have taken place in this country over a 30 year period.

And one of them has to do with the relationship of the tax collector to a successful business enterprise.

Take, for instance, the typical experience of an oil company.

In 1932 it paid total taxes of $1.6 million. In the same year it paid its employees $13 million in wages and salaries, and its stockholders got $5.2 million in dividends. The tax collector, then, was low man on this totem pole.

Thirty years sped by. And in 1962, employee compensation came to $57 million; stockholders received $20 million; and taxes amounted to $34.5 million.

So, in just 30 years, payroll and dividend payments increased four times—where taxes zoomed 21 times.

This isn't the whole story. If the taxes the company was required by law to withhold from its employees' paychecks, along with payroll taxes, and the estimated income taxes stockholders paid on their dividends (figured at the minimum taxable rate of 20 per cent) are counted, the tax bill reaches the $50 million level. That works out more than three times the stockholders' returns after taxes—and more than the employees received after withholding and payroll deductions.

So—who comes out farthest ahead when an oil company does a good job, pleases an army of customers, and makes money? Answer: the tax collector. And this is true of any other enterprise and industry.

SCHOOL BEGINS ONCE MORE

September brings a profound change in the lives of millions of Americans. These are the members of what might be termed “the younger set.” For September is the month when school begins once more. For three long months the school doors have been closed. Now in September they open again, and it is back to the book and the blackboards.

Shakespeare, in his famous lines on the seven ages of man, gave a typical view: “... the whining school-boy, with his satchel and shining morning face, creeping like snail unwillingly to school.” For the typical boy (and, no doubt, the typical girl) is supposed to hate school as the devil hates holy water.

This, of course, is a vast exaggeration. For modern education, whatever its faults may be, is enormously different than in Shakespeare's time. Incredible new worlds have been opened, or are being explored. The frontiers of knowledge are being advanced at an almost unbelievable speed.

The youth of today is offered opportunities that would have been unimaginable even a few years ago. The opportunity is there—it is up to each individual whether it shall be used to the full or not.

One more word from the past is in order. When Aristotle was asked how much educated men were superior to those uneducated, he said, “As much as the living are to the dead.”

DON'T LEAVE A DEATH TRAP!

A short time ago “Don't Leave a Death Trap” week was observed throughout Oregon. That observance, and application of the lessons that were then widely publicized, should be made a part of every day of every week of every year.

The death trap in this case is a valuable and almost universally used appliance—the home refrigerator. Old ones are discarded, and left in places accessible to children. They are air tight and sound proof. The fascinated child who gets inside and closes the door will suffocate in a matter of minutes.

Figures tell the tragic story. Over a period of years 246 children have met a terrible and needless death in this manner. And last year was the worst of all, with 35 thus killed.

A memorable slogan reads: “Don't Let Another Child Become a ‘Statistic!’” Those who are fighting this menace urge that if you see an abandoned refrigerator, call the police department, the sheriff's office, or a member of the Refrigeration Service Engineers Society. The help of every one is needed.

“I rather thank most Americans are conservatives (classic liberals), and that they oppose the shenanigans of the intellectual dreamers...” —Ethel B. Finch, Portland, Oregon.

GOSHEN, IND., NEWS: “Under a buy now, pay later philosophy, the present generation has run the national debt up to $305 billion... To help Congress check the growth of this debt, committees of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States have analyzed President Kennedy's 1964 budget and have itemized 117 spending requests that could be cut without hurting national defense or essential services. The cuts could save as much as $9.1 billion.”

ENDERLIN, N. D., INDEPENDENT: “It's no wonder that today's teenager is mixed up,” says the North Dakota Safety publication, published monthly by the North Dakota state highway department. “Half the adults are telling him to “find himself.” And the other half are admonishing him to “get lost!”” tract, followed with modern treatment could cut this figure in half.

Breast cancer took 947 lives last year — often women in the prime of their lives. For a long while now regular medical examinations, supplemented with self-examination, have saved hundreds of lives each year. More could still be saved—if they were found early enough.

Perhaps the most tragic statistic points out of the hundreds of Texas women who die each year from the effects of uterine cancer.

Examination by laboratory specialists of a smear sample, which is obtained quickly, easily and painlessly by a physician, can determine the presence of malignant organisms long before the disease reaches the deadly stage in its victims.

Follow up medical procedures are nearly always successful—provided the diagnosis is made early enough.

Texas cancer statistics could be a lot lower, but meanwhile, the yearly compilations of the latest death figures continues to rise. This is due to improved diagnosis and reporting coupled with better methods of case finding.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by the State Health Department

AUSTIN — Texas' number two killer—cancer—continues deep in second place behind the nation's front runner—heart disease.

Statistics make dull reading. However, some interesting facts concerning Texas' cancer picture come to light with a close look at the final 1962 figures compiled on cancer-death sites and ages.

A grand total of 12,282 Texans suffered death from cancer last year—or as the statisticians call it—malignant neoplasms.

Agnes 55 to 79 are the dangerous ages for cancer, claiming well over half of all victims—7,604.

Sad fact of the matter is that many of the cancer deaths which occur during these years may have really had their beginnings in earlier years—perhaps as young as 40 years of age.

For this reason public health authorities have been urging people to start a program of definitive physical examinations each year once they have passed their 40th birthday. Somehow, the admonitions still go unheeded by too many persons.

Deaths from cancer continue to mount. Each year the statistic is a little bit higher and a little bit sadder.

Cancer involving the digestive system, for instance, reaps the largest toll among cancer causes, claiming 3,686 lives last year.

Early diagnosis, before the malignancy has a chance to spread throughout the digestive

Ted P. Arnold Dies In Accident

Ted Patton Arnold, 29, of Arlington was killed last Saturday morning at Green Valley Raceway when the brakes failed on his dragster during a 181-m.p.h. warmup run. He was dead on arrival at Glenview Hospital.

The vehicle crashed into two trees east of the drag strip at an estimated speed of 150 m.p.h. A parachute used to break the vehicles speed failed to open.

The accident apparently was triggered by a faulty clutch, said Kerry Clark, race director for the competition at the strip northeast of Fort Worth.

The vehicle careened to the right and struck a guy wire connected to the retaining net at the end of the strip. The car overturned, smashed through a wire and wood fence at the eastern edge of the track, then slammed against the trees.

The impact ripped the seat from the dragster and broke the car into several pieces. Arnold's body still was strapped in the seat when emergency vehicles arrived. He had been driving a dragster for two years.

Funeral services were held Monday in Arlington.

He is survived by his wife; two sons, Ted, 9, and Tony, 7; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Arnold of Mansfield; a sister, Mrs. Joan Williams of Arlington; grandmother, Mrs. Walter Patton of Weinert.

LOCALS

Mrs. W. A. Floyd and Earl returned home last Saturday from a three weeks visit with relatives in Fort Worth and Arlington. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Swamer of Arlington brought them home.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Gaines of Odessa spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Gaines. Their children, Linda and Gerald, returned home with them after a weeks visit with their grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Montgomery visited their son, Lynn, in Wichita Falls last Monday.

Mrs. R. M. Almanrode spent last week in Pampa. She also visited in Amarillo and Quanah.

Mrs. Ivan Prosser and Mrs. Lee Rice and children of Lubbock brought their mother, Mrs. Hoyt Gray, who spent the past two weeks with them, home last Saturday and remained over Sunday for a visit.

Guild Members Open New Year

On Monday, August 26, members of the Wesleyan Service Guild met in the beautiful backyard of Mrs. Julia Mae Hicks. This meeting opened the new year for the Guild.

Mrs. Joe Roberts showed film of a trip to a Guild seminar in Mt. Sequayah, Ark., which she, Mrs. Lee Haymes and Mrs. Roberta Beck attended in May.

Mrs. Weldon Smith gave the devotional "Do we see all the beautiful things around us." Mrs. Hicks presented the new year books and gave a review of the programs for the new year.

Those present were Mes. J. C. Harpham, E. R. Ponder, M. L. Wiggins, Joe B. Roberts, Lee Haymes, Erin McGraw, J. C. Borden, Aaron Edgar, Weldon Smith, C. P. Baker, Oscar Spann, R. M. Almanrode, Levi Bowden, Joel Massey, J. C. Spann, Rex L. Mauldin, Julia Mae Hicks and Misses Merle Dingus, Florence Gaines and Ruth Baker. Mrs. Jim Blakely and Rev. Rex L. Mauldin were guests.

GRANDSON ARRIVES

He's here folks—the one and only grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. John Peysen. He made his arrival at 6:30 a.m. Wednesday, September 4, 1963. He weighed 6 pounds and 14½ ounces and has been named David Wayne. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. David C. Moore of Houston. His other grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Moore of Goree. How Big Is Texas?

Most any school child and perhaps a few adults can tell you that Texas is 801 miles from south to north and 733 miles from east to west. An even smaller number of people might know that the state land area is composed of 168,648,320 acres.

Although it is a rare Texan who will admit it, Alaska is bigger in land area but, after all, that "frozen state" isn't even connected directly with the continental limits. Agriculturally speaking, there is no comparison between the two—Texas is far in the lead.

In the last year of record, Texas farmers harvested 21,735,000 acres of land yielding 59 principal crops. Total farm value amounted to $1,575,104,000.

Through no fault of our own farmers, this value only rates second in the United States—California being in the lead. California managed to harvest a smaller acreage of 6,767,000 acres with a production value of $1,714,752,000.

Texas' average cash farm income, including both livestock and crops, is approximately 2.4 billion dollars annually. Government payments average slightly over $100,000,000 a year and brings the state agricultural income figure to near $2½ billion.

Texas ranks sixth in the United States in population with 9,579,677 persons counted in the 1960 census. Population per square mile is 36.4 persons.

The state is 75% urban and 25% rural in population distribution. Some 7,188,011 persons live in urban places and 2,393,666 in rural territory.

The land area of Texas is 263,513 square miles or 168,648,320 acres but the inland water

FARM and RANCH Notes

JOE W. DOBY
COUNTY AGRICULTURAL AGENT

I would like to give more information on wheat, oat and barley varieties which farmers may be hearing about in the coming weeks.

Texas has a very comprehensive program for the development of new varieties and performance testing of varieties developed in other states. Producers should be extremely cautious of seeding varieties not recommended in Texas.

Ottawa wheat was developed and released by the Kansas Experiment Station. It is a late maturing variety, acceptable quality, and resistant to leaf rust. It is not recommended for our area.

Warrior wheat was developed and released by the Nebraska Experiment Station. It is a late maturing variety with excellent milling quality. It is of moderate height with good straw strength. It is susceptible to both leaf and stem rust. Warrior is on the recommended list for our area.

Gaines wheat is a semi-dwarf winter wheat developed in Washington State. It is not recommended because the wheat is not suited to commercial bakery flour.

Omaha Wheat was developed and released by the Nebraska Experiment Station. It is not recommended in Texas.

Oat varieties which have been recommended for this area are Mustang, Bronco, Cimarron, Now Wintok has added to this list. Wintok is one of the most winter hardy varieties known but susceptible to leaf rust.

Barley varieties recommended for this area are Rogers Cordova and Harbine. A new barley named Will has been developed and released by the Oklahoma Agriculture Experiment Station. It is a new greenbug resistant variety, moderate height and good straw strength. Seed will be hard to find for another year or so. Kearney, Wintok, and Texan are acceptable, but all other varieties should not be planted in this area.

Not all of the grain sorghum fertilizer test paid off this year as moisture was the limiting factor. Omar Cure had a field across from the school at Gilliland, which looked good until it quit raining and then the field dried up.

The Brucellosis testing crews are nearing the end of their task of testing cattle in the County. Some of the boys will stay here to finish up, but the lab is moving to Bell County on September 9. If you have not had your cattle tested, call 658-7031 in Knox City, before Friday, September 8. If you can't reach them there, call be at 2651, Benjamin.

The latest count shows 8,255 cattle tested from 305 herds. There were 251 negative herds and 23 positive. There have been thus far, 64 positive cows and 11 suspects.

New 1964 Stickers Are Now Available

Col. Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, has announced that the new 1964 vehicle inspection sticker became available September 1 at all Official Inspection Stations in Texas.

"During the summer months, the department has conducted intensive re-training schools for all owners and mechanics of inspection stations," Garrison said. "These men are now qualified and they are ready to serve the motoring public in their vehicle inspection needs."

More than five million vehicles registered in the state are required by law to be inspected at one of the 5,000 official stations between now and April 16, 1964. Operators of vehicles not displaying the new sticker by that date will be in violation of the law.

Garrison urged motorists to get their vehicles inspected at the earliest possible time and pointed out:

"Since the vehicle inspection program began in Texas, vehicle defects as causative factors in motor vehicle accidents has been reduced from 13 per cent in 1951 to five per cent in 1962. We have every reason to hope that with continued voluntary compliance with this law, accidents can be further reduced."

Knox City Man Is Serving In Germany

Murnau, Germany (AHTNC)—Army PFC Howard M. Davis, whose wife, Betty, lives at 2329 E. Grant, Fresno, Calif., completed a four-week wheeled-vehicle maintenance course at the U. S. Army School, Europe, in Murnau, Germany, early in August.

Davis, a truck diver in Company B of the 24th Supply and Transport Battalion in Germany, entered the Army in February 1962 and arrived overseas the following November. He received basic training at Fort Ord, Calif.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. George Davis, 912 E. Fifth St., Knox City, he attended Knox City High School and was employed by the "M" System Super Market, Knox City, before entering the Army.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Hukabee vacationed at points of interest in New Mexico last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Jakubec returned home Tuesday from a ten day visit with their daughter, Mrs. Johnny Cardwell, and family in New Laguna, N. M.

MOBIL SKY-REVUE, featuring daring aerialists in death-defying circus acts high above the Mobil Stage, will be presented at 2 and 7:30 p.m. daily throughout, the 1963 State Fair of Texas, October 5 through 20 in Dallas. Overseeing each performance is Big Tex, who towers 52 feet above the crowds who watch the free stage shows at the State Fair.

Trophies Awarded To Women Bowlers

A women's bowling team from Munday, composed of Mrs. Earl Little, Mrs. Charles Sargent, Mrs. Milton Maske and Mrs. Orville Heiskell, won third place in the Bowlerett League at Stamford on Monday night of last week. They also won first place in the high team series. The league was composed of ten teams.

Individual trophies were awarded in each event to these ladies at a dinner at the Cliff House restaurant in Stamford. The sponsor's trophy was also awarded to Morton and Welborn Food Store, sponsors of the local team.

Mrs. Little also received the sportsmanship trophy, having been voted this honor by members of the league.

Gems Of Thought

"Ridicule"
Ridicule is the first and last argument of fools.—Charles Simmons.

The sublime and the ridiculous are often so nearly related that it is difficult to class them separately.—Thomas Paine

Ridicule may be the evidence of wit or bitterness and may gratify a little mind, or an ungenerous temper, but it is no test of reason or truth.—Tryon Edwards

Sarcasm I now see to be, in general, the language of the devil.—Thomas Carlyle

At present mortals progress slowly for fear of being thought ridiculous.—Mary Baker Eddy

I defy the wisest man in the world to turn a truly good action into ridicule.—Henry Fielding.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Martinez and daughters, Rita and Alice, and granddaughter, Sylvia, have returned home from a ten day vacation in California. They visited their children, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Martinez, Jr., in LaCrescenta, Rudy and Eddie Martinez in Glendale and S/Sgt. and Mrs. William Martinez and children in Sunny Mead. They visited such points of interest as the Griffith observatory in Los Angeles, also the zoo in Griffith park, the Redondo beach, and Santa Monica beach. The following families accompanied them to attend the Escobar reunion: Mr. and Mrs. Ray Escobar and children Janie and Charles, of Knox City; Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Escobar and family and Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Macios and family of Fort Worth and Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Acosta, Sr., of Knox City.

Miss Florence Gaines visited Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Dwight and Barbara Ann and other relatives in Fort Worth over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Verbon Voss and children of Stephenville visited Mrs. J. T. Voss over the week end.
