Only About Half City and School Taxes Paid Here

City taxes to the extent of approximately 45 per cent were paid to Tuesday evening, the final date for payment without penalty and interest, according to D. T. Mauldin, tax collector.

School taxes came in a little better, there being collected approximately 51 per cent of school taxes paid in the Munday Independent district, however, some of these payments were made in scrip that had been issued by the district, and the schools are therefore in dire need of funds. The city has issued no scrip to date.

J. E. Bell Is Victim of Hold-Up Here Saturday Evening

J. E. Bell, blacksmith for the Steghill shop, was held up Saturday night shortly after dark by two negroes who, at the point of a gun, relieved him of about $17.00 in cash which he had just drawn in salary. After relieving him of the cash the negroes made their escape and Constable M. W. McCarty made an investigation but found no trace of them here.

Man Who Walken Around World Backward Coming

Most everyone has read in the daily newspapers about the Abilene man, Plennie L. Wingo, who walked backward around the world. Well, he was here early this week and made arrangements with P. V. Williams for a personal appearance at the Roxy Theatre on Thursday, February 9, at which time he will tell many of his interesting experiences in his visits to the various nations of the world.

Leaving Ft. Worth penniless, Wingo walked backward to New York and worked his passage to Europe. He was permitted to enter Asia by reason of the fact that the American consulate believed that to do so would have resulted fatally for him, and the adventurer had to abandon his journey from Hamburg, Germany, to Constantinople.

Wingo carries with him a scrap book bearing newspaper clippings and photographs taken in all parts of the world, as well as autographs from prominent people of all nations, including royalty. He stated that in Europe his autograph book containing the names of many prominent Americans was the source of much interest, but that they were more interested in the autograph of Jimmy Walker, late mayor of New York City, than any American.

Wingo is an interesting talker and we are sure that those who hear his talk at the Roxy on Thursday evening of next week will be well repaid.

Mrs. Effie Alexander is in Dallas this week buying new spring merchandise for The Hat Shop.

John McKenzie, who has been critically ill for several weeks, is able to be about again, and his many friends are indeed glad to see him well on the road to recovery.

Several Mundaites were called to Childress this week to attend a court trial pertaining to the Land estate. Among those who were called were J. C. Borden, T. R. Haney, E. W. McGlothlin, C. L. Mayes, M. F. Billingsley and J. S. Kendall.

is horrified beyond endurance when he discovers that the girl, who had attracted him perhaps too strongly, is merely another of the doctor's creations.

Aid reaches him ultimately when Miss Hyams, his fiancee, arrives on the scene in a vessel he has chartered. But their escape is blocked and their lives are endangered when the boat men, tasting blood for the first time, go on a rampage, intent on killing their creator and the other human beings on the island.

Sun-Back Gingham

Here is a summer sun style, as worn by Helen Kraeker of New York in a pre-season view at Palm Beach. It is a blue gingham sun back beach dress with knitted white hat.

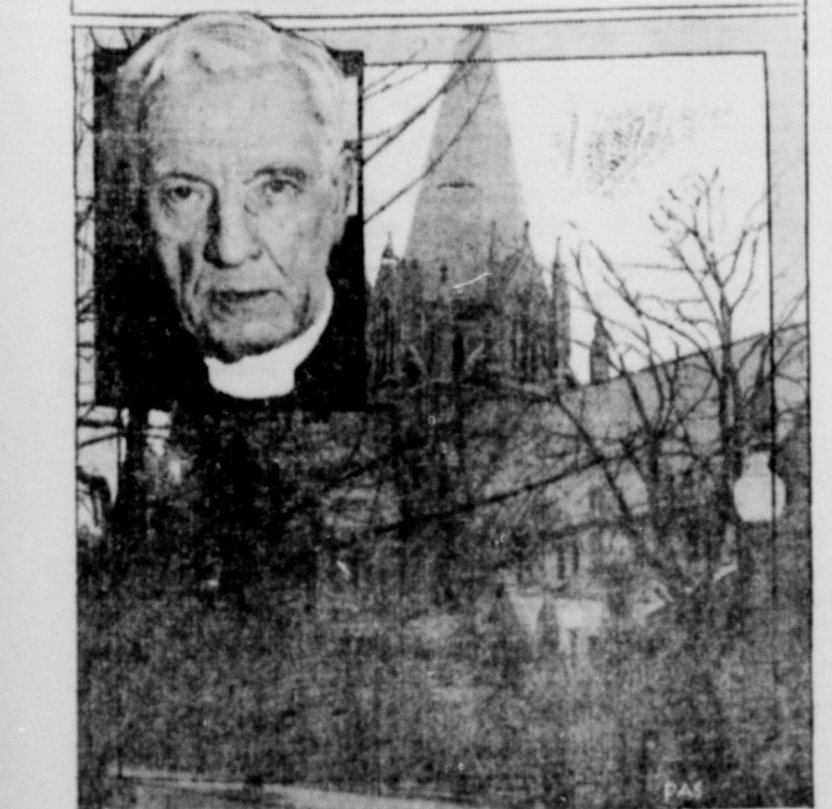

Science Changes Beasts Into Men On South Sea Isle

H. G. Wells' "Island of Lost Souls," eerie story of experiment and adventure, has been booked for the Roxy Theatre, Munday, Texas, where it will be shown Sunday matinee and Monday, Feb. 8 and 9, with a cast headed by Charles Laughton, Bela Lugosi, Richard Arlen, Leila Hyams, and the "Panther Woman." The latter, Kathleen Burks, is the Chicago girl who won the title from among 60,000 competitors in a nation-wide contest.

The picture centers around Laughton in the role of a skilled scientist whose efforts to turn animals into men have driven him insane. But the South Sea Island, the center of his efforts, bears witness to his skill. It is peopled with brute men he has created from lions, leopards and dogs. And the "Panther Woman," a beautiful girl, created from a panther, is his crowning achievement.

Into this scene comes Arlen, a young American, marooned there after being shipwrecked. He is stocked at Laughton's best-man; he

Little Pen-o-grams

"Shades of Summer"

Wm. Martin, 83, North Dakota legislator, had his state senate consider a resolution that 40 western states secede from eight Eastern states which he charged "manipulated Congress at the expense of the others." New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Rhode Island, Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont and Massachusetts are the guilty states.

Thinking Out Loud

By J. A. K.

Thursday was ground hog day and we predict that the little animal took a duck into the ground when he encountered this West Texas sunshine.

It's a little early in the season for fish stories, but George Salem and Sied Waheed have just returned from Corpus Christi, and are telling some real yarns about fishing in the bay, and these stories make us wish that we could just forget this little old paper a week and make a mad break for the coast.

Then there's Chester Borden, the Dicy, Texas, boy who made good in the city.

And a few more of these spring daisies and the golf bug will begin to sting some of these birds who have been in winter quarters.

Several local fishermen took a final fling at Lake Kemp before the first of February, and there'll be no more fishing until May 1.

The presiding elder of this column has been acting as editor, devil, pressman, linotype operator and what have you around this shop and we really haven't accumulated any great amount of dope for this column, but the blamed thing must be filled, and it's up to us to do it.

Of course we could fill this column easily by using a bunch of crap like O. C. Harrison uses in his "Passing Day" column, but we don't propose to inflict that on Times readers.

For instance, O. C. quotes Walter Winchell, famous scandalist columnist of New York as having had a dream that he went to heaven and found the newspapers there were excellent, but there were no columns like his, and upon inquiring as to the absence of the column, was advised that there were no columnists up there.

And furthermore, we have our sincere doubts that either the Seymour editor or this scribe will relieve the situation when we have crossed the bar.

But anyway, be it said to our credit that we don't fill our columns with gossip and scandal about folks.

If we should attempt such a thing we'd probably be on our way before many days.

Supt. G. C. Jones spent week end in Stephenville visiting Mrs. Jones and son, Chester, who is a student in John Tarleton.

Hoover Seeks Relief

Missing only one semi-annual interest payment of $400 on a $14,000 mortgage loan against his farm at Grand Meadow, Minn., but facing foreclosure, A. E. Hoover, cousin of President Hoover, turned to the Des Moines Joint Stock Land Bank, asking only that he be allowed to deed the farm to the bank and remain on it by paying rent. Mr. Hoover's father was the brother of the President's father.

Surprise Party Given Roy Aycock On His Fiftieth Birthday

Roy Aycock was surprised on Friday evening, January 21, when a group of friends began gathering at his home, Mrs. Aycock having arranged a surprise party in celebration of Roy's 50th birthday anniversary, and had made elaborate arrangements for the entertainment of the friends without his knowledge.

Punch was served the guests and bridge was enjoyed throughout the evening, after which a refreshment course of mince-meat pie and coffee was served Messrs. R. B. Davy, H. A. Pendleton, Fred Bronch, Cecil Jennings, R. D. Atkinson, Howell Burton, Otis Golden, T. G. Benge, E. J. Roberts, E. H. Bauman, Aaron Blanton and Joe Aycock.

Mr. Aycock was the recipient of numerous gifts during the evening, including a hat, shirt, cigar lighter and other items, and as the guests made their departure they did so in the hope that Roy would have many more birthdays and that Mrs. Aycock would have as many more merry parties.

Mrs. Jim Lewis underwent an operation in the Baptist Sanitarium at Abilene Wednesday morning and reports from there are to the effect that she is getting along nicely. She was accompanied to Abilene by the Rev. W. H. Albertson.

Tom Isbell has returned from Mineral Wells where he spent several days.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith of Knox City will join us in extending our sincere sympathy to them in the sorrow that has come to them in the death of the 12-year old son, who died on Tuesday from an attack of meningitis. Funeral services were held at Knox City on Wednesday afternoon.

Legislature Repeals Chauffeur License Law For Farmers

The Times is in receipt of a telegram from Representative George Moffett advising that the legislature has passed by an overwhelming majority a bill introduced by himself and Representative Alexander of Childress which does away with the chauffeur's license for farmer's trucks, and Mr. Moffett advises that the bill will in all likelihood be passed by the senate, and he is especially anxious that the farmers know this in order that they may save the $3.00 that has been charged for chauffeur licenses in the past.

Dye Farm Home Destroyed By Fire On Last Thursday

The large eight-room residence on the farm of W. E. Dye, known as the Powell ranch house, 6 miles north-east of Haskell, was destroyed by fire of undetermined origin on Thursday of last week. The residence was occupied by Mr. Dye's son, Clyde Dye, and wife, and they had been away from home and had just returned a short time before the fire was discovered, however, the fire originated in a different part of the house than that which they occupied, and they have no idea as to how the fire originated.

Mr. Dye purchased the farm only last year and the residence was of the most substantial type, having been constructed of the best of materials about eleven years ago.

Mr. Dye purchased the farm only a few days to Monday, but had left much of their household effects in the farm; and these, together with the household effects of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Dye were destroyed. Mr. Dye carried no insurance.

Special Music Will Be Given Sunday At Baptist Church

All services at the regular hours next Sunday.

At the morning service we will have some special music by Mr. T. I. Tucker, instructor of wind instruments. He is working up a class and is meeting with fine response. Hear the special music.

Sermon subject: The Christian's Joy In God.

Be sure to come to Sunday school on time. The Men's Bible class will render a short program in the opening service.

A Young Married Folk's class has been inaugurated, and will have its first meeting Sunday morning. Mrs. Reeves will meet the class as teacher. If you are eligible for a place in this class we extend to you a cordial invitation to be there Sunday for the first meeting.

The evening services will be at 6:30 and 7:30.

You are always welcome to any or all of our services.

—W. H. ALBERTSON.

They Will Stage Inaugural Show March 4

Although plans for the inauguration of President-elect Roosevelt into office March 4th, are still indefinite, here is the committee in charge of the event. It is reported that simplicity will mark the ceremonies in accordance with the wishes of Mr. Roosevelt. Those in the picture are, seated, left to right: James A. Farley, National Democratic Chairman and Admiral C. T. Grayson, chairman. Standing: John F. Costello and John B. Colpaey, of Washington.

Knox County Cotton Production Passes 61,000 Bales Total

With ginning season nearly completed January 16, Knox county had ginned more cotton than ever before in any one year, and nearly twice the amount ginned the year before.

Up to January 16th the county had ginned 61,007 bales, according to W. H. H. Griffin, Federal reporter. To the same date the year before the county had ginned 33,147 bales.

Jones county, with a total of 98,809 bales, leads all other Texas counties. Several West Texas counties were among the leading cotton producing counties for the year.

The fact that half of the land in Knox county is still used for ranching purposes, makes the showing for the county unusually good. The farming section of the county produced one of the best crops ever grown here.

HASKELL COUNTY GIRL ENDS LIFE

Haskell, Jan. 31.—Annie Bechel Wren, 17-year-old daughter of Mrs. Nettie Wren, died at the family home near Weinert, Monday afternoon of gunshot wounds, inflicted with a .25 calibre pistol a few minutes before Justice of Peace D. T. Dotson of Haskell conducted the inquest and held that she died of self-inflicted wounds.

Sheriff W. T. Sorrels and County Attorney B. C. Chapman accompanied Judge Dotson to the Wren home and made an investigation.

The girl had gone to her room while her mother and A. J. Stephens were in an adjoining room, officers were told. On hearing the shot they rushed into the room to find the girl staggering toward the door.

She died within a few seconds after telling her mother that she had shot herself purposely.

Funeral services were held at the Baptist church in Weinert at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The Rev. J. J. Duff conducted the services and burial was in the Weinert cemetery.

C. C. McDaniel, publisher of a newspaper at McAllen, Texas, is here this week visiting in the home of his sister, Mrs. M. F. Billingsley.

George Wallace, who has been here the past week visiting his sister, Mrs. J. A. Kennedy, left on Thursday for Phoenix, Ariz.

CARTWRIGHT

We are having some beautiful weather for January and the farmers are making real use of it. Some of them are through with the cotton and some few are beginning to start the new crop.

Our school is progressing nicely and we are having a splendid school this term.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Haven of Hefner visited Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Yates Sunday.

Quite a bit of moving is taking place in the community. Gay Davis has moved where Roy Garforth vacated.

Mr. Galley made a business trip to Bridgeport last week-end. Charley McAfee and family visited in this community Sunday.

Headaches

Here's Smiling Relief... Periodic Pains

Most of your suffering from common every-day aches and pains is unnecessary and unwise. Unnecessary, because Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills relieve quickly and without unpleasant after effects; unwise, because pain makes your physical condition worse instead of better. One pill usually brings relief in a few minutes.

If you suffer from any of the disorders listed above, take Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. If they do not give you greater relief in less time than anything else you have used, go to your druggist and get your money back.

A package of Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills in your medicine cabinet, pocket, or hand-bag means fewer aches and pains.

SENIOR SCRAPBOOK.

Mid terms are over, half the year has sped hastily by and the Seniors are still 100 per cent alive.

Now that we realize that we are nearing the conclusion of one of the most important chapters in our life, that of graduating, we plan to get from this half every blessing, joy and worth while thing we are capable of getting. How's that for philosophy?

Speaking of horrible things, mid terms are just that—in one way—but the suspense is worse. Think of having to work one whole week and not know a physics grade, and then pity us. All we can do is hope for the best.

Just as an example of how optimistic we are, read this twice—if you can stand the pressure.

Virginia Reed, usually so quiet and attentive, came to school on Monday of this week buoyant in the belief that the depression is over! Over? Yes, "all over the country." There now, we hope you can't say you kicked the slats out of your cradle the first time you heard that. Has it lasted that long?

It seems that Katherine Milam is victim to all misfortunes lately. Last Sunday she collided with a piece of hard ground and hurt her hand, and now she is complaining of a strained back. Keep it a secret, but here's why, she attempted to lift one of the biscuits she made on the eve of the Spanish examination when a number of girls spent the day with Mildred Burnett.

That does look bad for Ralph, now doesn't it?

Barbara Eiland and Lucile Hunter made higher grades on their Spanish test than the other girls who took lunch at Mildred's because they didn't help cook dinner—they're hopeless.

Can you imagine: Adelaide Barton not knowing a word in Spanish?

Bettalou Greer paying perfect attention in class?

Mildred Moore being sleep over an examination?

James Gaither getting to school on time?

Weldon Warren being "that way" over an "Indian." The joke's on you if you don't remember that Haskell's symbol is an Indian.

Chauncey Hobert with a date? Oh prunes!

Chloe Owen with a black eye? We'll hand her the bouquet though, for the real spunk and sportsmanship she exhibited Saturday night at the ball game after the misfortune.

—And last but not least, anybody wanting the examination questions?

RIGSBY'S ROUND-UP

Say, did you see the Munday Moguls whip the Knox City Greyhounds last Friday night? Boy, that was a real basketball game. The score was Monday 22, Knox City 11. Who said the boys couldn't play ball?

But for every good there is some bad, so Emerson says. I believe it's true. Goree 26, Munday 17.

Sounds like it, don't it? Well, we can promise you this, anyhow, the Moguls will make the Goree game last Saturday night look sick and weak when the tournament comes off.

By the way, the County Tournament will be played at Goree on Friday and Saturday of next week, February 10-11.

The Moguls have a good schedule for the coming week. Don't miss any of the games. They play Truscott Tuesday night; Rule Friday night and Vera Saturday night.

Don't let the price keep you away. Only 5c for grammar school pupils, 10c for high school students, and 15c for what's left. Listen, if the whole family comes together only 25c will be charged for all. Come on fans, let's give the home team some support.

THE FRESHMAN NEWS

We have just finished our mid-term exams. We are going to do better the following term than we have the past term.

In home economics we have just finished food and will take up clothing. We hope that we will enjoy clothing as well as we have foods. In the least we won't have to learn any more about vitamins or the body requirements.

We are glad to welcome Ruby Suggs in our home economics class. Evalyn Boone from Goree has joined our class, and has already made quite a few friends. She is coming out for basketball, so you see we may do a lot yet.

RULES:

- 1 Names must be not more than 12 letters; slogans not more than 12 words. Submit either or both on single sheet; plain white paper; one side only; but preferably on official contest information-and-entry blank, free at Conoco dealers and stations. Elaborate presentations receive no extra credit.
- 2 Contest closes midnight February 23, 1933. Entries must be postmarked before that date and hour.
- 3 Continental employees, members of their families and others connected directly or indirectly cannot compete.
- 4 Should more than one person submit exactly the same name or slogan, each will receive full amount of any prize such entry may win. All entries become Continental Oil Co. property, and none will be returned.
- 5 The Company reserves prior rights to phrases and slogans of its own creation, already in prepared advertisement. Also it reserves the names "Continental" or "Conoco" gasoline, "Conogas", and "101" gasoline. Whether or not the winning contest name is adopted, prize money will be paid, but the Company reserves the right to use a name of its own creation, if decided more suitable and more protectable under trade-mark laws.
- 6 No purchase is required of contestants. Continental Oil Co. executives will be the judges and their decisions final. Winners will be announced over radio, and prize money paid as soon as possible after contest closes.

Address All Entries to "CONTEST OFFICIAL"—Continental Oil Company, P.O. Box 100, Tulsa, Okla.

Here's gas to excite motors. It makes them quick on the trigger . . . fast on the move. Choking is hardly required for a quick, snappy start and a take-off like a quail on the wing.

Even old motors . . . wheezy, snorting, complaining motors . . . cut capers you just can't believe. If you doubt it, just try it. It's like rich, racing blood injected into old veins.

This gasoline is so new . . . so "different" . . . so quick, fast, powerful, and economical, it's hard to give it a name. Perhaps YOU can. When you FEEL your motor's response, it may come to you like a flash.

Ask at any Conoco station for the new bronze-colored, high-test gasoline—and an entry blank. Help name it and describe it. You may win a part of $10,000.00. You are SURE to win a grand, new thrill, and that is worth a heap. Make the test TODAY.

Diet Didn't Do This!

HAPPY little girl, just bursting with pep, and she has never tasted a "tonic!"

Every child's stomach, liver, and bowels need stimulating at times, but give children something you know all about.

Follow the advice of that famous family physician who gave the world Syrup Pepsin. Stimulate the body's vital organs. Dr. Caldwell's prescription of pure pepsin, active soda, and fresh herbs is a mild stimulant that keeps the system from getting sluggish.

If your youngsters don't do well at school, don't play as hard or eat as well as other children do, begin this evening with Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. This gentle stimulant will soon right things! The bowels will move with better regularity and thoroughness. There won't be so many sick spells or colics. You'll find it just as wonderful for adults, too, in larger spoonfuls!

Get some Syrup Pepsin; protect your household from those bilious days, frequent headaches, and that sluggish state of half-health that means the bowels need stimulating. Keep this preparation in the home to use instead of harsh cathartics that cause chronic constipation taken too often. You can always get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at any drug store. They have it all ready in big bottles.

OLD GUM DEPRESSION

SOCIETY

Woman's Missionary Society.

The Woman's Missionary Society met Tuesday afternoon, January 24, in Mrs. J. C. Borden's home, with Mrs. J. D. Kethley and Mrs. G. R. Eiland as co-hostesses, with the regular business and social program. The new vice-president, Mrs. J. C. Borden, opened the program with a scripture lesson and a very interesting talk, which was closed by giving everyone the privilege of telling some of the blessings that we receive each day and how many things we have to be thankful for if we only stop and think long enough to realize just how many come in one day.

There was lots of business, as this was the opening of the new year, and there was a nice attendance in spite of the very disagreeable day. The social hour is always a delightful feature of these meetings. Refreshments of sweetmeats filled with crushed fruit and whipped cream and tea were served with Valentine favors.

Don't forget that next Monday afternoon is bible study day.

Mrs. Joe Davis Hostess Wednesday Bridge Club

Mrs. Joe Davis was hostess this week to members of the Wednesday Bridge club and a group of guests. In the games Mrs. W. H. Atkeison held high score.

Refreshments of banana pudding and punch were served. Mmes. W. H. Atkeison, E. H. Bauman, T. G. Benge, H. F. Barnes, H. H. Langford, Whit Smith, J. D. Kethley, P. V. Williams, W. H. Chapman, C. L. Mayes and Charity Chamberlain.

Mrs. J. A. Kennedy and brother, George Wallace, and Mrs. Joe Davis were visitors to Wichita Falls on Monday afternoon.

Clava de Orcho Chosen as Name New Club

Eight girls met at the home of Virginia Atkeison Wednesday afternoon and had their first club meeting. The club was named Clava de Orcho.

Bridge was played and Maxine Lane, of Groves, won high score while Hazel Clough held low score.

A delicious refreshment of salad and coffee was served the following week: Inez Campbell Dorothy Campbell, Hazel Clough, Billie True Hal, Roselin Houser, Mildred Moore, Maxine Lane and the hostess.

CRAIG PREWITT

On Sunday L. D. Prewitt, Jr., of Abilene, and Miss Madeline Craig of this city motored to Walters, Okla., where they were united in marriage. The Rev. I. S. Dugan, pastor of the Christian church at Walters, officiating. They were accompanied by the bride's brother, Virgil Craig.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Craig of this city, and is one of Munday's most popular young ladies. She graduated from the Munday High school and later attended the North Texas State Teachers' college at Denton, and recently graduated from the Draughts Business College at Abilene.

The groom is a son of L. D. Prewitt of Abilene, a prominent oil man of that city, and is one of the young business men of that city, and is a young man of sterling character. They will make their home at the Wooten Hotel in Abilene, and have the best wishes of a large host of friends as they enter along life's pathway together.

Colored Bride-to-be Given Shower Tuesday Afternoon

The colored women of the town gave a shower for Rosie Lee Scott at the home of Allie Johnson at the Pendleton home on Tuesday afternoon, which was attended by a large number of colored women. The shower was one of the first social events that the colored folks of Munday have ever staged, and refreshments were served by Mmes. Johnson and Katie Garrett to more than thirty guests.

The social event was given in honor of the bride-to-be, who will be married in February 6th to Emery Jackson, an employee of the Munday Cotton Oil Mill, and it is announced that the ceremony will be performed at the Church of God in Christ in this city and all are invited.

RHINELAND

What a relief! The dreaded mid-term examinations are now a thing of the past. Although the exams were dreaded, every student made a satisfactory grade.

Mrs. Ethie Lee P'Pool, county superintendent of public instruction, was a visitor at our school Wednesday.

Ernest Owen, who was a student at this school last year, is reported to be at the Knox County Hospital, where he was operated upon for appendicitis. His condition was reported as serious, but he is improving at the present time.

An old landmark of this vicinity is being torn down. It was one of the oldest buildings in Rhineland, and at different times served as a school, post office, cigar factory, and shoe shop. The recent occupants, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Franklin and family, have moved to their farm where they erected a new home.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hertel died of pneumonia last Monday night. The funeral services were held in St. Joseph's Church, Rhineland, on Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Boniface, O. S. B., officiating. Interment in the St. Joseph's Cemetery followed the services. We join their many relatives and friends in sympathizing with them in their great loss.

Mrs. Fred Redder, who had been in the Knox County Hospital, was removed to the home of her mother, Mrs. Annie Simonich, last Friday evening.

A number of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Kuehler last Sunday night to celebrate their silver wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kubala and family, who were formerly residents on the farm belonging to Lawrence Friske, Jr., are now residing on a farm south-east of Munday.

Paul Ludwig of Claude, Texas, who was a visitor in the community last week, left for his home Sunday. He was accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Kubala.

Miss Marguerite Hopkins has returned to Wichita Falls.

Martin Wilde and son, Bernard, of Windthorst, Texas, who had recently been visiting relatives and friends here, left Saturday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kuehler and son, Edmund, made a business trip to Wichita Falls Friday.

Mr. Jacobs of Electra, Texas, is visiting in the home of his daughter, Mrs. Henry Claus.

Mrs. Edith Lee Powell of Wichita Falls, Texas, spent the week-end visiting relatives and friends here.

For the price of a Big Red Apple

We all know that the purchase price of a big red apple is only a nickel... but did you realize that for the price of an apple you can cook one good dinner for 15 people or five good meals for three people with natural gas?

This same five cents will pay for enough natural gas to make 165 cups of coffee; will heat enough water for 10 baths; or operate a gas refrigerator for a day and a half. Now when you get right down to brass tacks and consider comfort—convenience—and time saved, natural gas IS the most inexpensive item used in the entire household.

How to play Bridge AUCTION and CONTRACT

ARTICLE No. 19

In the preceding article a number of interesting hands were given for analysis. If you have not already decided on the proper play or bid, do so now before you read the solution in each instance. A comparison of your opinion with the writer's solution will prove most interesting and should help to improve your game.

Solutions to Last Week's Problems

Hand No. 1
Hearts—Q, 9, 8, 6, 5, 3
Clubs—8, 4
Diamonds—A, 7
Spades—A, 8, 5

A B
Z

No score, first game. Z dealt and bid.

Hand No. 2
Hearts—Q, 10, 9
Clubs—A, Q, 10, 8, 6, 3
Diamonds—Q, 10, 7
Spades—9

Z

No score, rubber game. Z dealt and bid one no trump. A bid two clubs. Y passed. B bid two no trumps and all passed. Z opened the five of spades. A played the nine, Y the queen and B won the trick with the ace. B now led the king of clubs, followed with jack, winning the trick in A's hand with the queen. All followed, so that the clubs are set up. B then led the ace of clubs. What should Y discard and why?

Solution: Y should discard the nine of diamonds to show his partner at once that the only tricks in his hand are in the diamond suit. There are three discards coming and, unless Z is informed at once that Y can protect diamonds, he may be forced to discard to his disadvantage. Don't hesitate to inform your partner at once of strength in your hand when you see that he will be obliged to discard several times. If he has to guess, he probably will guess wrong so make it easy for him. A high discard indicates strength in the suit.

Hand No. 3
Hearts—10, 9, 7, 6, 4
Clubs—A, K, 10
Diamonds—A, Q, 10, 9

A B
Z

No score, first game. Z dealt and bid one spade and A passed. What should Y now bid with the foregoing hand and why?

Solution: At Auction, Y should bid two hearts and, if Z rebids spades, Y should bid two no trump. A suit bid is always preferable to a no trump bid, particularly with a singleton of partner's suit.

At Contract, Y should bid three no trump. The hand is so strong that Z may not have a rebid and yet game is fairly certain in no trump and it is up to Y to try for game.

one club. A one heart and Y doubled. B now bid one spade and Z and A passed. What should Y now bid and why?

Solution: Y should bid one no trump at either Auction or Contract. This bid should indicate at least one stopper in spades and a fair outside hand. His previous double of one heart has shown his partner great strength in that suit, so it is now up to Z to decide whether it is better to try for game in no trump or a suit.

Hand No. 4
Hearts—8, 5
Clubs—7, 2
Diamonds—K, J, 9, 5, 4
Spades—Q, 8, 4, 3

Z

No score and A B a game in Z dealt and passed. A and Y passed and B bid one spade. Z bid two hearts. A two spades. Y three hearts and B three spades. Z now bid four hearts. A four spades and Y five hearts. B and Z passed. A doubled and Y passed. What should B now bid and why?

Solution: B should bid five spades at either Auction or Contract. His hand is too unbalanced to play to defeat five hearts, particularly after a double raise by A. This double raise by A should indicate at least four spades, so that A B cannot hope to win more than one spade trick against a five-heart bid, therefore Y Z will either make the bid or only be defeated by one trick. B should bid five spades without any question.

Hand No. 5
Hearts—A
Clubs—8, 4, 2
Diamonds—A, 5
Spades—J, 9, 8, 7, 6, 4, 3

A B
Z

No score, rubber game. Z dealt and bid one spade. A passed. Y bid one no trump and B and Z passed. What should A bid with the foregoing hand and why?

AUCTION BIDDING: A should bid two spades, not with the hope of making the bid, but with the hope that it will save game and rubber. A will probably lose one or two tricks, with a two-spade bid, but even if it is doubled, it will be a cheap way to save the certain loss of game and rubber if he allows Y Z to play the hand at no trump.

CONTRACT BIDDING: A should pass. His opponents have not contracted for game, and he has no chance for game in spades.

International Grand Champions

Herdsmen throughout the country are still talking about the high honors won by the Hampshire entries at the International Livestock Exposition in Chicago. Above is the Grand Champion barrow, over all breeds, at the International, which was bred and exhibited by Purdue University. In the background are shown the Grand Champion carload Hampshires, bred and fed by Thomas Peterson and son of Ida Grove Iowa. This is the 18th time in 15 years that carload Hampshire heavyweights have won the Grand Championship.

ATLAS

Atlas is pictured as carrying the world on his shoulders. It is only a picture, for an Atlas could carry the world on his shoulders. That brawny youth, the highway system of Texas, has carried, and carries now, an enormous miscellaneous burden of state and national finance. The burden which that system bears today is well nigh miraculous. But the limit has been reached. It can carry no more. Put new burdens on it, and it must break down under the whole burden, so that it will no longer be carrying that which it now so stoutly bears.

A sentiment to be somewhat gaining ground to double the burden which the highway system now carries for the benefit of the school fund. The system can carry no such additional burden. Put upon it that new burden, and it no longer can be the one dependable source of revenue of the common school system of Texas. The school teachers of Texas would, in their own interest, be most short-sighted to support such a policy. Instead of being in pocket by it, they would be out of pocket by it.

The price of gasoline at the refinery today is less than 5 cents a gallon. The gasoline tax, state and federal, is 5 cents a gallon or more than 100 per cent of the cost of discovery, production, piping and refining.

Largely because of this revenue, the highway system of Texas is the only public enterprise which, today, is paying its own way. Yet, paying its own way is much less than two-fifths of its total burden. It pays into the common school fund $8,200,000 a year. It pays for maturities on local road bonds $8,200,000 a year. You hear of its receiving "federal aid." It is a misnomer, for it receives in co-called "federal aid" an average of $7,200,000 a year and pays to the federal government, with the 1 cent federal gasoline tax, $8,200,000 a year.

In the relief bill, enacted into law by congress last summer, was a so-called highway tax of $200,000,000. It was not for the benefit of the highways, but was, on the other hand, a direct burden upon the highway system. The act empowered the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to match local emergency aid for the unemployed and destitute out of this fund of $200,000,000. It provides for return of that sum to the government out of future allotments of federal highway aid. Today the federal government is advancing huge sums of money for relief this winter all over Texas, and we are thinking of it as a gift from the federal government to overburdened localities in Texas. It is in truth a gift to those localities from the highway

THE FARMERS' FLIGHT.

All over the United States, although more noticeably in the great central area between Pittsburgh and Denver known as the Mississippi Valley, there is a spirit of unrest among the farmers which as we view it, foreshadows material and perhaps radical changes in our social and economic scheme of things. The demand of the farming population of America for relief from the double burden of high taxes and interest on mortgage indebtedness has never been so widely and efficiently organized as it seems to be now. In spite of everything that has been attempted in the way of relief, farm commodity prices continue at low levels. It is not to be wondered at that the "farmers' holiday" movement is spreading. Why should any man continue to produce something that he cannot sell, or that he can sell only at a loss?

When the farmer is getting no income from his farm he certainly cannot pay his debts or the interest on them, nor his taxes. The movement for a moratorium on tax and mortgage payments is growing rapidly. It may have far-reaching effects. We have a feeling that in the long run it is going to be better for creditors to give their honest debtors time, than it is for them to seize property which cannot under present conditions earn the interest on its cost. In the matter of taxes, inability of the property owners to pay has already brought about a situation in several cities and a good many counties, in which public expenditures are necessarily being curtailed to the lowest possible minimum.

As we see it, the whole world is going through a drastic economic readjustment which will, we believe, wind up by a very widespread and general compromise on all existing debts and a fresh start for everybody. Much of our trouble is due to the fact that such a high percentage of our agricultural production has been in the past for the export market. That market is rapidly diminishing, as one country after another finds ways of supplying its needs without importing.

We think that the forced economic reorganization which is now under way must result in the reduction of our agricultural production to our own internal demands. That this will benefit every grower of crops or livestock is unquestionable. The most prosperous farmers in the world today are those of France, who produce only enough to supply the needs of the French people and are protected by their government from competition from outside. Under the French plan of strict limitation of wheat acreage French farmers got better than $150 a bushel for their crop in 1932.

It seems to us that we ought to be able to apply at least as much intelligence to our own agricultural problems as the French do to theirs.

ROUGH to your finger

ROUGH means... ROUGH IN YOUR STOMACH

It's easy to say they're all alike—and easy to prove they are NOT. Dissolve a genuine Bayer Aspirin tablet in water, pour it off, feel the fine powder that coats the glass.

Do this with some other tablet; see what coarse particles are left! They feel as sharp as sand, even to your finger. How must they affect those delicate membranes which line your throat—your stomach?

For immediate relief from headaches, colds, sore throat, neuralgia or neuritis, lumbago, rheumatism, there's nothing like Bayer Aspirin. It cannot depress the heart.
