LOCAL MEN TO HEAD STATE ORGANIZATION

Revival Begins Sunday at First Baptist Church

Plainview Pastor Will Do Preaching

A two weeks revival meeting will begin Sunday morning at the First Baptist Church in this city according to announcement given out by the local pastor, Rev. W. H. Albertson.

The Rev. J. Pat Horton, pastor at Plainview, Texas, will do the preaching, assisted by the local pastor. Services will be held both morning and evening, the morning services will begin at 10 o'clock and the evening at 8:15.

Dexter Riddle, widely known evangelistic singer of Abilene will be in charge of the song services. Rev. Horton comes to the local church highly recommended as being among the most forceful and effective evangelists in all West Texas. His sermons are appealing and inspiring.

A warm welcome is extended to all.

Boyde Carley Resigns Position With the Times

Announcement was released on Monday by the Southwestern Life Insurance Company of Dallas, that Boyde Carley, news editor and advertising manager of the Munday Times for the past 13 months, had been named agent for Knox County to succeed R. R. "Rip" Davenport who is being transferred to the Houston branch office of the company, as assistant branch manager.

Mr. Carley will take over the territory Davenport previously worked and will care for any needs of old policy holders as well as new ones and will retain the office in the First National Bank building, where "Southwestern Rip" was located.

Mr. Davenport will continue to work here until the 15th of this month and then leave with Mrs. Davenport for a 15-day vacation before taking over his duties in the Houston branch office. Mrs. Davenport recently resigned her position as primary instructor of the Sunset school system.

Munday will lose one of her valuable citizens with the removal of Mr. Davenport to Houston by the company, as he and his wife have been prominent in civic affairs of Munday and Sunset. Davenport is past president of the Munday Lions Club, active in Chamber of Commerce work, and an active leader of the board of Stewards and young people's leader in the Methodist church.

In a statement to the Times Mr. Carley expressed his sincere thanks to the citizens of Munday and its adjacent territory for the fine way that they cooperated with him in gathering news for the Times while he was news editor and also expressed his appreciation to Munday business men for their assistance in giving this area the kind of a newspaper they wanted.

District and Area Supervisors Inspect Local Sewing Room

Mrs. Addie Layne, local supervisor of the WPA sewing room has cause to be proud of the record being made by this worthy project. The growth of the sewing room has been steady since its establishment and recently the district supervisor, Mrs. Edna E. Hardwicke of Fort Worth and Area Supervisor Mrs. Lena D. Avis of Vernon, made a thorough inspection of the local project, and were high in their praise of the manner in which the work is being turned out. Both agreed that the Munday sewing room had reached a degree of efficiency equal to any in this section of the state.

Burney F. Hart, area time keeper, was also among the inspecting group and spoke highly of the local project.

The sewing room is at present temporarily housed in the old grammar school building.

R. R. Davenport and Boyde Carley were in Electra, Texas, last Saturday attending to business.

W. R. Moore, Chevrolet dealer, was in Abilene Wednesday attending to business.

PRESIDENT—

Weinert Farmer Is Charged After Auto Accident

Abilene Woman Is Hurt When Car Is Sideswiped

As a result of an automobile collision Thursday night on the highway several miles north of town in which one person was injured, a charge of reckless driving was preferred against J. R. King, Weinert farmer. Complaint was signed by Constable J. H. Ivey, who with City Marshal Sebo Britton investigated the wreck, which happened about 9:30 o'clock.

According to the officers, the car driven by King, coming toward Haskell, sideswiped an automobile driven by Mrs. Veda Wardruff of Abilene, who was driving north. Both cars were badly damaged, and Mrs. Wardruff sustained slight injuries to her neck, shoulder and arm, but was not seriously injured. King was unhurt.—Haskell Free Press.

COACH COOPER MOVES TO MUNDAY THIS WEEK

Newly elected Coach W. E. (Bill) Cooper, who will pilot the Munday Moguls the coming season, moved to Munday this week and will soon issue his first call for practice. Coach Cooper hails from Cisco, Texas.

Thanks, Mr. Frost! ... It Was Delicious

J. E. Frost who lives two and one-half miles west of Munday is not only among the most progressive farmers of this section, but is what we call one of the champion watermelon growers in these parts.

However, the evidence which caused the above statement is no longer available. The Times crew ate it, and all really enjoyed the feast. It was in the form of a fifty-pound melon presented to the Times force Saturday afternoon.

Thanks, Mr. Frost. It was really delicious.

J. E. Edwards and Peter Loran Head Farmers Union

Munday delegates of the Farmers Union Co-Operative returned Friday from Houston, Texas where they attended the thirty-seventh annual convention of the organization held in that city Wednesday and Thursday at the Rice hotel. Local delegates reported it one of the most interesting meetings they ever attended. The 1937 convention was held in Munday.

Munday Men Re-Elected to Head Organization

Peter Loran of Rhineland who was elected president of the organization when they met in Munday was again elected to head the organization for another year. J. E. Edwards of Munday was again elected secretary-treasurer for the 14th consecutive year. J. E. Davis of Midland, Texas, was re-elected vice-president and John Bowden of Munday was chosen as chaplain for the second consecutive year. The entire executive committee was re-elected.

Aside from the two days interesting and helpful business discussions, the several hundred delegates were given a free trip to Galveston and a sea food dinner by the organization's friends in Galveston and Houston, reported J. E. Edwards.

A partial account of the opening days session as reported by the Houston Chronicle is reproduced below:

A group of 200 singing members led by a trumpet-playing president, Peter Loran, of Munday, opened the thirty-seventh annual convention of the Farmers Educational and Co-Operative Union of America, Texas division, Wednesday at the Rice Hotel. The meeting will close Thursday.

The organization is in reality the old-time Farmers Union, which was organized back in 1905, and spread all over the Southland and finally invaded the North. Loran said the Union had seen many ups and downs, but "it is here now to stay," and he said the organization is now stronger in the North than

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hendrix Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary Friday

A large number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hendrix, pioneer farmers of Knox County who reside northeast of Munday in the Hefner community called throughout the day last Friday and paid their respects to the elderly couple on their Golden Wedding anniversary. The affair was the second such celebration held in Munday this year, the other being the Golden Wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Simpson, retired farmers who reside in the city now.

A unique feature of the two celebrations is the fact that Otis Simpson, son of the Simpsons, is married to a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hendrix.

Both in excellent health Mr. and Mrs. Hendrix greeted friends and relatives throughout the day, which was one of the happiest events of their lives, and too, they had all of their children at home with the exception of one son, who was unable to attend.

Mr. Hendrix has passed the 70th milestone and his good wife has passed 68. They were married July 29, 1888, at 11 o'clock in the morning by the Rev. Ben Gilliland, a Methodist pastor, at a Missionary Baptist revival meeting near Reno, Texas, Parker County. Mrs. Hendrix's maiden name was Emma Campbell.

The couple came to Knox county in 1901 where he purchased the

Lighting Material For Gridiron Has Been Purchased

At the regular weekly luncheon of the Munday Lions Club Wednesday noon in the Terry Hotel, a report from the committee in charge revealed that the reflectors, wire and other necessary equipment for lighting the football field was purchased last week. The pipe which will be welded to make metal poles for the lights was also purchased and brought to Munday this week from Electra.

With the arrival of the equipment actual erection of the poles and installation of the lights will begin in the next few days.

The field has been leveled and new turf will cover the playing surface. The field is being watered daily, and with the installation of the lights Munday will have one of the most modern and complete athletic plants in this section.

A vote of thanks was given P. V. Williams for his splendid cooperation with the club on the picture sponsored by the Lions Club and shown at the Roxy last Monday night.

Upon completion of the business session, Dr. J. H. Bass, in charge of the program for the day, gave a very interesting and informative talk on the expense involved in operation of the Munday school system.

Kendall Places Endorsement On Grady Roberts

J. S. Kendall of Munday who was unsuccessful in his candidacy for Representative of the 14th District expresses his thanks to the voters of this county and endorses Grady Roberts as Representative.

Judge Kendall was greatly pleased with the outcome of the first primary and made the following statement:

August 2, 1938.

To the People of Knox County:

When I announced for the office of Representative of this District I stated that if some other person was more suitable to the people than I, they should vote for him. The people have spoken and by almost a majority vote of the County have said that Grady Roberts was their choice and in conformity to my statement I will cast my vote in the run-off primary for Grady Roberts. I do not intend to try to influence my friends in any manner as to how they vote but this is only to thank those friends who did vote for me and to say that I hold no ill-feeling toward any person on account of their voting.

I believe the people of the county should vote as their best judgment dictates to be for the best interest of all the people and so believing I shall cast my vote for Grady Roberts.

Assuring you that my every effort will be to help the people advance their material interests and assuring you of my continued friendship, I am,

Sincerely,

"Clean Up Rural Mail Box Week" Ends Saturday

Postmasters and rural route carriers of the nation recently inaugurated what is known as "Clean Up Rural Mail Box Week" effective the week of August 1-6. The following statement has been issued by the local post office department:

WHAT IS THE CONDITION OF YOUR RURAL MAIL BOX? The spotlight of the entire nation will be focused on it during the week of August 1-6, which has been designated by the Postoffice Department as "Clean Up Rural Mail Box Week."

As a matter of community pride it is urged that every resident on our rural routes examine his box carefully and determine whether it measures up to the required standard.

Let's show the world we appreciate our rural mail boxes, which have been aptly described as "the symbol of rural America."

The condition of your rural mail box, as a matter of fact, is a serious matter. The box is the receptacle for millions of dollars worth of money orders, invaluable documents and priceless letters.

Following is the text of the official Post Office Department order on the subject:

Clean Up Rural Mail Box Week "Unserviceable and unsightly mail boxes both retard the delivery of mail and detract from the natural scenic beauty of the highway. Particularly to be deplored are the non-regulation, old type top-opening boxes, as well as makeshift receptacles which expose mail to the elements."

"It is the desire of the Department not only to correct the above mentioned unsatisfactory situation, but to encourage all rural mail patrons generally to possess pride in their boxes, both in the manner of erection, neat stenciling, and tidy appearance."

"To help accomplish these desirable objectives the Department is designating the week of August 1 as 'Clean Up Rural Mail Box Week.'"

Postmasters are hereby instructed to acquaint the rural mail patrons of their offices with this fact, as well as instruct rural mail carriers to cooperate and report results."

Local rural carriers stressed the fact that a height of four feet for rural mail boxes made mail delivery much easier and speedier.

Supt. Hughes Will Leave Saturday For Supt's Conference

County Superintendent J. Lynn Hughes will leave Saturday for A. & M. College where he will attend the fifteenth annual County Superintendents conference which will be held August 8th to 11th.

Subject of the program will be school finance. Since August is the month for school budgets and estimates, the conference is expected to prove very beneficial to the school heads.

Mrs. L. S. Hardegree, Howard Lynn and Mary Carolyn, passed through Munday last Saturday enroute to Henrietta, Texas, where they will visit their mother and grandmother.

"What a Man Does For Himself Dies With Him—
What He Does For His Community Lives On and On"

"MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DRAMA"

"Lord, what fools these mortals be!"
Those are the words of Puck in "A Midsummer Night's Dream," written by Shakespeare back in the days of the horse, the coach and the litter. And though, it is true, the words bore no relation to problems of travel, there is a temptation to echo them now every time the constantly mounting statistics of death on the highway point to the tragedy of these beautiful summer nights.

"A Midsummer Night's Drama" is a modern drama that no man wrote. Nevertheless, it is one in which thousands play a part after the curtain of darkness has fallen over the highways and by-ways and over the busy city streets . . . and Thousands Die!

It is a paradox of this age of light that we continue to carry on the potentially most dangerous activity of the time in comparative darkness—continue to drive at mile-a-minute speeds over highways that are as lacking in illumination as those over which the coaches rattled from Boston to Worcester 200 odd years ago.

Seeing is affected by two major factors. The first, reflected light—light which, thrown upon an object, is reflected back, distinguishing for us the detail of that object. The second factor is silhouette or the lightness or darkness of objects contrasted with the backgrounds against which they are seen. The distinctness of black type on a white page is a good example.

Headlamps contribute almost nothing to seeing by silhouette and their effectiveness, therefore, must be determined, not merely by the beam power of the lights, but just as importantly by the reflective qualities of pedestrians, roads, unlighted cars, trees, etc., is worse than poor, and consequently the effectiveness of headlights is correspondingly limited.

Until major highways and main city streets, at least, are provided with really adequate illumination and are made as modern and safe at night as they are in the daytime, there can be but one salvation—common sense!

When darkness comes, slow down! Be more careful than ever! Use dimmers when meeting other cars! Keep headlights in proper adjustment and keep them clean—dust or dirt on lenses or reflectors cut their efficiency in half.

Let's not keep chanting "Lord, what fools these mortals be!" Let's not make of a summer night a tragedy in which we play a part.

MAN'S BEST YEARS

What are man's best years? If you could live your life at one age, what age would you choose? Would you anchor at 20, or would you be satisfied to follow a normal life span?

Those questions, always good for a verbal battle, recently started a word-fracas in the British press when Winston Churchill, former Minister of State, recorded in the Sunday Chronicle: "Twenty to twenty-five are the best years of a man's life, the earth is his and the fullness thereof!"

To which George Bernard Shaw, not to be kept out of any argument, replied: "If you want to be a prize-fighter, you don't want to be over thirty. If you want to be an old dotard, well, I'm over eighty."

The best answer of all came from Dame Marie Tempest, the actress: "Each age should be a golden age, if you keep your brain clear, and if you have the capacity for absorbing those things which will give a happy life."

True it is that every age has something to offer. Childhood has its frolic, youth its romance, maturity its mastery of the world, and age its contentment. For some, contentment is the highest goal of life. For them, the age that seems to offer least, may in reality turn out to be the best. What are man's best years? All of them—if he learns to live each age as it comes along, and to forget the joys of the past in the understanding and appreciation of the present.

There's a difference between lighthouse keeping and light house keeping; at least a young woman in Georgia found this out when she applied to the civil service to take the examination.

THREE NEW HOLLYWOOD COIFFURES

ACCORDING to Dorothy Cocks, Beauty Editor of the Pictorial Review, "Girls under twenty want to wear their hair so as to look older. And the women past thirty want coiffures to make them look younger. Here are 'wish coiffures' for both.

Says Miss Cocks, "I went to those talented hairdressers on the movie lots who are so uncannily expert at creating coiffures that make a star more emphatically herself, or make her over into a different personality, as the director commands."

"Show me how you would dress a young girl's hair, to suggest that she is growing up but without in the least letting her look so sophisticated that the effect is silly or common or hard," she asked them.

The pictures show what Miss Cocks learned.

It's the designedly crooked part that does it. . . that takes away the babyish look from symmetrical features and gives them an unexpectedly grown-up quirk. Judy Garland shows it here. A one-sided arrangement adds to apparent age.

Conversely, a symmetrical coiffure (alike on both sides of face) is young-looking. A center part is always youthful and adds length to a square face or a low forehead. Deanna Durbin wears flowers to accent youthful symmetry.

Carole Landis has her page-boy bob thinned out and trained close to her head to look grown-up. You don't need to be told, by now, that there's more than one way to turn the trick. All that remains is to decide which is yours!

"DOERS OF WHAT MUST BE DONE"

Much has been said concerning Douglas Corrigan's madcap flight to Ireland, and every red-blooded human admires and loves this brave young rascal, but nobody takes seriously his little tale about "misreading" his antiquated compass and having his sense of direction thrown in reverse, or that he landed in old Erin purely by accident. Persons on the ground at the New York flying field saw him turn eastward when he was supposed to head the other way and they sounded the alarm. If people standing below could see and distinguish his plane, he, Corrigan, could and did see the Atlantic Ocean staring him in the face.

While the U.S. Department of Commerce authorities suspended Corrigan's experimental certificate for the plane, they did this merely to forestall any undertaking by him of the more hazardous flight back home. There is no plan afoot to punish or quench the spirit of this intrepid aviator. The public would not stand for this kind of treatment for one they now look upon as a hero. But like all true heroes, Doug is very modest and self-effacing about it all. It seems that technical restrictions and lack of funds for assembling creditable equipment prevented Corrigan making a public declaration of his intentions, but such small things as no cash and no modern plane—and no flying permit—mind you, could kill his determination to hop the Atlantic.

Today, Douglas Corrigan is a world hero simply because he had faith in himself. The fact that his plane was old and outmoded, lacked almost everything in the way of modern accessories that make for safe flying, made no dent in his will to dare and courage to do. He wanted to fly the ocean, and he did this with the only instrumentalities at hand. It took clean thinking, clean living and intelligent courage, but Doug had exactly these qualities—albeit he had not much of anything else. We like men who think, live and do things that way.

I wish I could be the man, inside, that Doug Corrigan is. I wish all men were like him—not as aviators, all, nor doers of physically hazardous stunts, but DOERS of whatever must be done—not for the sake of the thrill which comes with the applause of the world, but for our very own sakes—privately—down deep within us, where we THINK.

If, today, only half the men of our country had the entrails, or visceral courage of Douglas Corrigan, the United States would snap out of her erratic fit of economic and spiritual despondency with the next sunrise, and before the passing of another week the wounds of depression would be healed in every heart and on every hill. We would quickly emerge as a nation economically and spiritually whole, and stand forever resplendent at the pinnacle of earthly glory and human achievement.

Don't scorn the business failure, who, as a government expert may come to tell you how to run your business. Maybe he knows all the things one should not do.—Winston-Salem Journal.

Most colorful trip in this day of Hughes speed and Corrigan daring ended with the arrival in Chicago of the Ranch Boys, "National Barn Dance" trio, after a 2,875 mile horseback ride from Hollywood that took twelve weeks.

Scenes reminiscent of a past century were recalled as Jack Ross, Curley Bradley and Shorty Carson were received at the finish of their weary trek by Chicago's Mayor Edward J. Triumphant, but dead tired after "pounding leather" for 82 days over mountains, deserts and plains, the boys were awarded the cup for "The Outstanding Equestrian Achievement of 1938" by the Woodland Valley Polo and Hunt Club. They earned it the hard way.

AUSTIN.—Dove hunters of Texas will not be subjected to a series of conflicting regulations such as confused them last year, the Game Department announced.

Compared to those of last year, the 1938 regulations are fairly uniform. Combined state and federal laws governing both mourning and the white-winged dove provides the following open seasons:

From Sept. 1 to Oct. 31 in the counties of Yoakum, Terry, Lynn, Garza, Kent, Stonewall, Throckmorton, Young, Jack, Wise, Denton, Collin, and Hunt and all counties north thereof, and the counties of Parker, Tarrant, Dallas, Rockwall, Kaufman, Johnson, Hopkins, Delta and Franklin.

In the remainder of the state the open season on both species is from September 15 to November 15. Below the Texas-Mexican Railway in the Rio Grande Valley, however, only four days of dove shooting each week during the open season will be allowed—on Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays and Sundays—but this exception is not applicable to Webb and Zapata counties.

The hours for shooting mourning and white-winged doves during the open season are from 7 a.m. to sunset.

Neither species may be shot with a weapon other than a shotgun, and it shall not be larger than No. 10 gauge. If it is a repeating or automatic shotgun it must be permanently plugged to a three-shell capacity.

The daily bag limit is 15 in the aggregate of both mourning and white wings. The possession limit is also 15 in the aggregate of both species.

Baiting of doves of either species is prohibited by federal regulations.

Under new Federal migratory waterfowl regulations announced recently Texas duck hunters will have a 45-day open season this year compared to a 30-day open season in 1937; and in addition may shoot a limited number of species hitherto protected.

The open season on ducks and geese, Wilson's snipe or jacksnipe, and coot, is from Nov. 15 to Dec. 29.

The open season on rails and gallinules, except coot, is from Sept 1 to Nov. 30.

Not only has the open season on ducks and geese been lengthened, but the possession limits have been doubled.

The bag limit on ducks, except the wood duck, is 10 in the aggregate of all kinds, the same as last season, but the possession limit has been doubled to 20 in the aggregate.

This season hunters may take three canvasbacks, redheads, buffleheads or ruddy ducks in their daily bag or an aggregate of three birds of the different species. The possession limit for these ducks is six of any single species, or six in the aggregate.

The daily bag limit on geese and brant is five in the aggregate of all kinds, and the possession limit has been increased to 10 in the aggregate.

The daily bag limit on rails and gallinules, except sora and coot, is continued at 15 in the aggregate of all kinds. The possession limit is the same.

Bag limits for some of the other migratory birds are: Sora 15, coot 25, Wilson's snipe or jacksnipe 15. In each case the possession limit may not exceed the bag limit. A new federal regulation added this year forbids the rallying of coot for hunting.

As was the case last year, waterfowl and coot may be hunted in season from 7 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Not more than two days bag limit of lawfully taken and lawfully possessed ducks and geese may be transported in one calendar week. Transportation last season was limited to one day's bag.

Chief restrictions in this year's federal regulations that have been continued from last year are:

Baiting of waterfowl and doves and the use of live duck and goose decoys in hunting waterfowl are not authorized regardless of the distance between the bait or decoys and the shooter.

The three-shell limit on repeating or automatic shotguns, in effect the last three seasons, is continued. Hunters may shoot waterfowl with shotguns only, not larger than No. 10 gauge.

Meeting Place—Old School Building

Last Monday night several of the Munday Scouts met at their regular meeting place, the old grammar school building, and discussed various kinds of business. We decided to have our meeting in front of the school building rather than inside of it because we thought it would be cooler.

One thing we decided was that there will be no more scout meetings until Monday, August the twenty-second, due to the fact that the Baptist revival meeting is going on. All the scouts were also reminded of the fact that our Scout charter expires in September, and that we will have to get another one. We intend to work hard during the next month or two on our first-class Scout tests. The next Scout Court of Honor will be in Seymour on the last Thursday in September, which will be the twenty-ninth.

As a part of our tests we will have to make a fourteen mile hike and carry our bedding with us. We are looking forward to it.

All Scouts are urged to be at the next meeting at the regular place but a different time, next August the twenty-second.

Thanks to Voters

I desire to thank the voters of Knox County for the vote given me in the recent primary election. Although defeated I hold nothing against anyone and yield to the majority. I also desire to extend thanks to all the people of the county for their many courtesies extended me during the campaign. Your very truly,

Proper Handling Of Cotton To Be Urged Over States

More than 20 regional meetings have been held this season by ginners in the interest of more careful handling of cotton on the farm and at the gin, and 14 additional meetings are scheduled, according to F. E. Lichte, ginning specialist of the Texas A. & M. College Extension Service. The meetings have been attended by 2,800 ginners and other representatives of the industry.

"Texas has been making considerable headway in increased plantings of quality strains of cotton, but this is a slow process," Lichte said. "Quality cotton is on the way back, but in the meantime we can improve the quality of our cotton tremendously by proper handling."

"Picking the cotton clean and dry is the responsibility of the grower. Most ginners, by the use of improved equipment and cleaning machinery, are doing a great deal to maintain quality."

"Sometimes it almost seems that each new advance in ginning equipment results in more careless handling of cotton on the farm."

Modern equipment will provide higher grade lint from damp or moderately trashy cotton, but no machinery has been developed that can dry wet cotton or glean roughly harvested cotton to give lint equal in quality to that ginned from dry, clean-picked cotton, Lichte warned.

Already 550 of the 12,700 gins in the Cotton Belt are using the driers developed by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Of these, 273 are in use in Texas' 3,564 gins.

The ordinary temperature of the drying air should not be over 160 degrees and even in the case of wet cotton, air-temperature should not exceed 200 degrees. Excessive temperatures, Lichte pointed out, injure the cotton fiber.

Major railroads are readjusting their schedules to handle 4,000,000 visitors who will travel through the West to the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition.

It's a Toss-Up—A Toast to Taste

A trick of the old-time bartender—tossing a drink from glass to glass—is being revived by modern maidens at summer drink fountains. This brings tree-ripened freshness to canned fruit juice, grapefruit growers in the Rio Grande Valley of Texas have found. The explanation: Grapefruit juice, which is packed now in its full fresh taste, is put up in vacuum—all air removed. To serve, "put the air back." Fountains and restaurants featuring the drink this summer pour the grapefruit juice from cans into their motor-driven mixing machines to aerate it.

Workers May Have Change Made In Social Security Record

Workers who wish to have changes made in their records under the Federal old-age insurance program of the Social Security Act should secure a new form which has been issued by the Social Security Board for this purpose and which may be obtained by writing to the Wichita Falls, Texas, office of the Board.

Chief purpose for which the form may be used are to notify the Board of change in name, and to correct misstatements as to date of birth. Many workers, in their original applications for social security numbers, gave only the name by which they are usually known, and may wish to add the name given them at birth to their records; other workers have changed their names through marriage, and have gone to work at new jobs without notifying the Board of the change; some workers, when filing the original applications, could give only the approximate date of birth, and have since learned the exact date. While such notification is not compulsory, the Board urges that all workers make these corrections in their records, to insure complete accuracy and avoid difficulties in ascertaining the amount of benefits to which they will ultimately be entitled.

VACCINATION OF SCHOOL PUPILS

Patrons of the Munday Independent School District are advised here that the board of trustees voted unanimously to require successful Diphtheria and Smallpox vaccination certificates of all pupils entering the Munday Schools for the coming season. "When you call me that, smile . . ." How many times, the old phrase has been whirled about since the day its author, Owen Wister, made it famous in his delightful book, the Virginian, back in 1902. Death closed Wister's career on July 21 at his summer home at North Kingston, R.I., after an illness of only a few days from cerebral hemorrhage. The "Virginian recounted scenes of cowboy life in Arizona and Wyoming and was a different western in many, many ways. There is one chapter that will be literature in any country many eons after its author has passed. It gives the whole book power and sweep. It is the one where the hero is tracking down some cattle rustlers and capturing them, finds that one of them is his buddy. By the law of the range the Virginian facing the dreadful duty and a law higher than duty had to obey that law which let his pal hang by a rope until dead. It is a masterpiece in writing. Sunset Home Demonstration Club Met Tuesday

The Sunset Home Demonstration Club met Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. A. P. Garrett. The president, Mrs. I. W. Walling presided. It was with regret that we accepted her resignation because of her forthcoming duties as a teacher in the Sunset schools. In the absence of our delegate to the Short Course, Mrs. R. M. Almanrode, council delegate, gave a brief report of her activities while at A. & M. Mrs. Roscoe Partridge, vice president, was made president, and Mrs. A. P. Garrett vice president. The club always enjoys having Mrs. Shannon with them when she is free of her school duties. During the business session and afterwards we worked on the tufted bed spread which is being made for the council chest.

Members of the Sunset Alumni Association spent a most enjoyable afternoon and evening in Haskell last Friday skating and swimming for their annual celebration.

The group left Monday at 1:30 p.m., but because of the heavy rainfall at Lueders were unable to go there. Incidentally, several old classmates joined the party in Haskell and made the trip more enjoyable. A better school spirit was shown on this occasion than ever before.

A regular business meeting was held and new officers were elected and some changes made in rules, permitting ex-seniors to invite guests if they desire. Officers for the coming year are: President, Buddy Bumpas; Vice-president, Rex Howell; Reporter, Juanita Forehand.

Data of the picnic next year was set on the last Friday in July.

Everyone present had a splendid time.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman White of Paducah spent the week-end here visiting relatives and friends.

The Hint Beyond
By Frances Frost

He and the wilder part of earth were secret allies from his birth. He hates to plant a sloping field which last year had a mustard-yield.
Hawkweed and paintbrush on his land you'd think he's sown with his own hand.
And as for blue vetch flanking hay, he'd stand and stare at it all day nor lift a scythe to buttercup that might as well be down as up.
His hired man says that he was hired to work, and he is getting tired of waiting while the farmer looks at brown-eyed Susans by the brooks, of being told to mow around a patch of colored haying-ground.
He and the wilder part of earth were secret allies from his birth: that may be why his eyes behold a hint of blue, a ghost of gold,

U. S. Mint Will Coin New Nickels

Last week, for the third time since the first one was coined in 1866, the American nickel was in the process of a major change. At the United States mint in Philadelphia, a new master die was being fashioned to replace the familiar Indian-buffalo design in circulation since 1913.

Chosen by the Treasury Department last fortnight after a nationwide competition, the new design won $1,000 for Felix Schlag, its Chicago creator. As released by the Treasury, it showed one side carrying the profile of Thomas Jefferson, and the other carrying a front view of Monticello, his historic home.

By thus being scheduled for appearance on a five-cent piece, the third president of the United States became the third American ever so honored on a regular coin issue, joining the company of Washington (quarters) and Lincoln (pennies). A handsome coin, it will retain the metal composition that has remained unchanged in the nickel for 72 years—75 per cent copper and 25 per cent nickel.

It was expected last week that the first Jefferson nickels would appear in the fall, in a batch of 700,000 to be released for general distribution. Within a year, it was estimated, approximately 60,000,000 would be minted. As for the Indian-buffalo pieces, they will not be recalled but the mints will stop making them.

Why Newspapers Ask For "Early Copy"

The Advertiser Is Unfair to Himself When He Sends His Advertisement to the Newspaper Office Just Before the Dead-Line

Early "Copy" Late "Copy"

- Better position.
- No errors.
- Time for store corrections
- Good typography.
- Prompt delivery to reader.
- Fair to mechanical staff.
- Advertisement well written.
- Advertisement inserted.
- Overhead normal.
- Illustrations correct.
- Risk of poor position.
- Risk of typographical errors.
- No opportunity for store corrections
- Risk of poor typography.
- Risk of late delivery.
- Unfair physical and mental strain.
- Advertisement hurriedly written.
- Risk of omission.
- Often cause of rate increase.
- Risk of misplaced cuts.

- While a newspaper is a marvel of mechanical efficiency, there are limits on what can be done by a given force of printers, stereotypers and pressmen in a short, crowded period of stress.
- There is plenty of time to give every advertiser good service when early copy is sent in.
- The Times believes that its advertisers desire to be fair to the printers, stereotypers and pressmen who serve them as well as to be fair to themselves.
- Visitors to the mechanical department are invited so that the process of handling advertising may be thoroughly understood and the mechanical problems fully realized.
- Your co-operation will be greatly appreciated by the entire personnel of The Times.

W. D. McFarlane Answers Charges Of Ed Gossett

DECATUR.—Congressman W. D. McFarlane spoke to a large crowd here last Monday afternoon. Mr. McFarlane reviewed the Administration's legislative program and pointed out that not one vote he had cast has been challenged as wrong. That he has supported the Roosevelt Recovery program and the platform upon which he was elected 100 per cent.

After reviewing his own platform for re-election, which included cost of production, plus a fair profit for agriculture, elimination of red tape and injustices to the aged, he pointed out that he had voted for $40.00 per month old age pensions and had signed petitions to immediately bring the general welfare act before Congress for consideration.

He stated the opposition finding nothing wrong with his legislative record, that "Gossett is attacking my character and thus trying to ride into office on what he alleges are my demerits rather than any qualifications he may have for this important office."

Mr. McFarlane referred to letters showing that he had the endorsement of the Administration and the leaders in Washington including the agriculture, oil, labor and the livestock industries because of his record in fighting to protect their interests.

Mr. McFarlane then answered the three and eight page scandal sheets attacking his character, integrity and standing in Congress. He challenged his opponent to support by any reputable evidence, any of the statements made in either of these scandal sheets.

Answering charges made about the Horsepower Bill, he pointed out that this measure was introduced by him at the request of representatives of different trade unions affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, who were anxious to place this subject before Congress because of the large numbers of their men thrown out of work in the industrial centers, due to the installation of automatic machinery. He read from the bill and showed that the intention of the bill was "To relieve unemployed workers deprived of work through the mechanism of industry" and the intention was to tax the automatic machinery used in the production of goods for transportation in interstate commerce.

He pointed out that this measure was introduced more than a year ago and that two sessions had occurred since its introduction; that the bill is dead and could have no bearing on any legitimate issue in this race except to try to deceive the voters regarding same. Mr. MacFarlane pointed out that the clear intention of the bill as expressed in the preamble as well as in the bill itself, was to tax only goods manufactured and shipped from one state to another in proportion to the number of men thrown out of work. He denied that it was the intention of the bill to tax automobiles, trucks, tractors and machinery not directly engaged in manufacture for interstate commerce.

He referred to his record of service showing that he had never supported any measure and would not have voted for this measure, if it had reached the hearing stage, if there was any doubt about protecting small industry.

Mr. McFarlane answered the different charges made by his opponent and pointed out that many felony charges were thus made and if his opponent had any proof justifying any such charges, it was his duty to file same with the proper authorities for prosecution. That such felony charges thus brought a cloud over him as well as his children. That the failure of his opponent to substantiate these charges by reputable evidence should cause the people to repudiate him at the polls.

Mr. McFarlane read from the sworn uncontradicted evidence before the Federal Communications Commission which showed the facts regarding the ownership of the radio station at Wichita Falls, which testimony showed that the station was wholly owned by reputable Wichita Falls citizens therein named. He stated that Leslie Humphries, attorney for the Texas Electric Service Company was also the attorney for the Wichita Daily Times and the Wichita Record News, who were disappointed applicants for the radio station, their application not receiving a favorable vote by the seven-man Commission.

Annual Wichita County Fair To Open Sept. 20th

Featuring a Pioneer Celebration on the opening date of the Wichita County Fair, the committee in charge is planning to honor the early settlers in Wichita and surrounding counties. Entertainment for the day is being planned to take the form of early day frolics with old fiddlers' contests, square dance contests and other forms of amusement for old and young alike.

The tenth annual fair will cover a five day period, opening on September 20 and continuing through the 24th with present plans including an enlarged fair in every department and division.

Exhibitors in the Livestock Department are showing great interest and are planning an enlarged show. The Poultry Department will be sponsored by the Wichita Valley Poultry Association and will be the largest Poultry department ever shown at the county fair. Residents of the Resettlement Colony and of Wichita Gardens are enthusiastic over the prospects for an outstanding Agricultural display.

Entertainment, featuring free outdoor programs with well known radio artists, talent from other cities in the county and a group of one act plays produced by the Home Demonstration Club women of Wichita County will be used.

Catalogues will be available in a few days at the Chamber of Commerce offices in Burkburnett, Electra, Wichita Falls and Iowa Park and at the offices of the County Agent and Home Demonstration Agent in Wichita Falls.

concerning the Decatur Post Office Building, Mr. McFarlane called attention of the people to his visit two years ago, long after the primary, to Decatur at which time the announcement was made as to the location of the post office building at Decatur. Mr. McFarlane pointed out that if he had promised any community a postoffice or any one else anything, in order to secure their vote, that it would be a felony and any one having such information—that it is their duty as a good citizen to file such information under oath with the proper authorities in order that the facts may be made known. He reviewed the many accomplishments of the Administration and the many projects received by Wise County, all of which he voted for and assisted in securing.

Mr. McFarlane referred to his important committee assignment and what it means to Texas and the 13th Congressional District, in securing needed funds for this section.

HOW TO TAKE FINER PICTURES

YOUR vacation may actually last only two weeks, but you can make it last a lifetime if you follow the advice of William M. Strong, author of "Photograph for Fun" in an article in the August Cosmopolitan Magazine.

Mr. Strong has listed "Ten Don'ts for Snapshooters" that will make even the most amateurish camera fan bring home an album of vacation pictures that will provide pleasure for many a long winter evening.

- Here they are:
- Don't jiggle the camera while making an exposure. The picture will be blurred.
- Don't take too many pictures in the middle of the day. Before 11 and after 3 shadows are longer, light more flattering.
- Don't picture more than one thing at a time.
- Don't take a portrait with a distracting background. Backgrounds should not be noticed; a plain gray background is best.
- Don't think you have to have the sun behind your back. Pictures with the light coming from behind the subjects are beautiful.

But—
Don't let the sun shine in your lens. Stand in the shadow—or use a lens shade.
Don't make pictures of people standing stiffly and staring at the camera. Take pictures of them doing things.
Don't take any picture, ever, without

1. Focusing carefully.
 2. Figuring out the exposure.
- Don't attempt a slower speed than 1/50 second with the camera held in your hand.
Don't over-expose the shots you make on the beach or the water. The reflected light is usually greater than you think.

BETTER HUNTING AWAITS TEXANS

Nimrods Will Have 30 Per Cent More Game Than Last Year

AUSTIN.—On the word of Will J. Tucker, secretary of the game commission, Texas nimrods can thank Jupiter Pluvius for what looks like better hunting ahead.

Based on physical conditions that hinder or aid game propagation, Tucker estimates hunting this fall and winter should be 30 per cent improved over last year.

Credit for most of the improvement should go to ample rainfall over the state, except for parts of Southwest Texas that still suffer from drouth hangover Tucker says.

Better land uses, including terracing, less grazing and abandonment of cotton acreage, have aided also.

The cotton acreage reduction program is a highly important one, he says.

"Several million of acres, normally given to cotton, have been converted into grain fields and pastures, making additional food and cover for birds," he declares.

His definition of a cotton patch, in so far as it affects the game management program, is "a biological desert."

Based on personal observations, reports from field workers and surveys of cooperating agencies, Tucker says prospects for the new seasons shape up about like this:

Deer—exceptionally good breeding season. More than normal rainfall, except in Southwest Texas, has aided propagation. There is danger, however, of too much rainfall before the season opens.

Turkey—best prospects in six years. Many young ones now reported flying, indicating they have passed their most critical age.

Dove—Mourning dove situation greatly improved. In some localities they have already brought three broods off the nests. White wing dove situation somewhat improved in the Rio Grande valley.

Quail—good leave over from last season and excellent breeding conditions, except in Southwest Texas, should give good supply.

Squirrel—very good except in East Texas where lack of acorns and too long an open season has cut sharply into the supply.

Ducks—The biological Survey reports a 100 per cent increase over last year's population.

Distribution of Texas Products Is Program Keynote

DALLAS—Wider distribution of Texas-grown products will be a subject for discussion at the annual sessions of the Texas Retail Grocers Association in Ft. Worth four days, August 21st to 24th, inclusive. Elaborate preparations are being made by Ft. Worth and Texas Retail Grocers Association for the meeting. These organizations are being enthusiastically supported by the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce, wholesale and manufacturing associations, the local hotel associations, bankers and others who know the value of the meeting from past experience. The 1938 assemblage is expected to attract the largest gathering or retail distributors in several years.

In addition to a very interesting social program including the annual dinner dance on Tuesday evening, August 23rd, subjects touching State and National legislation; distribution, transportation and marketing will be discussed by speakers of State and National reputation.

Texas' position in the field of food production has taken on new and far greater importance in the past three or four years than prevailed previously. Her position in this field is being vitally felt by other states that produce table delicacies similar to those of the Lone Star State. The superior quality of Texas-grown products, and the advantages this State holds in soil, climate, transportation facilities and other elements so essential in food distribution are proving profitable to Texas producers.

"Consumer demand for Texas-grown products" is felt in all important food marts of the nation. Grocers and other food distributors are constantly met with requests for Texas meat, fruit, vegetables, and poultry products. These demands by consumers have a direct bearing upon the annual gathering of Texas retailers. Exhibitors, distributors, manufacturers, commission merchants, wholesalers and manufacturers of every food line are annually represented at the Texas meeting. Also, Texas products are exhibited in profusion by producers and processors, putting them in touch with the 10,000 Texas retailers and 153,000 retailers throughout the nation.

Mrs. Addie Layne spent Sunday the guest of her son, Ralph Layne of Wichita Falls.

REVIVAL MEETING AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH

Dr. J. Pat Horton of Plainview, Texas, will do the preaching in a revival meeting beginning next Sunday at the Baptist Church. Mr. Horton is well known all over Texas as a good preacher, a wide-awake leader. His messages are vigorous, interesting, and well worth anyone's time to hear him. Mr. Dexter Riddle of Abilene will lead the music. He is a young man of fine personality and excellent ability as a musical director and leader of young people's work. The meetings will be held at the church. In the house for the morning services—out in the open for the evening services. There will be plenty of room, good comfortable seats. There will be a committee of several men to take care of parking the cars. We want you to come and enjoy these services. If you are a Baptist you will feel that it is your duty to come. If you belong to some other church, or if you do not belong to any church we want you to feel doubly welcome. We say it with all the chivalry and hospitality we know how to put into the word, and when you come we will do our best to show it by both words and deeds. We will be glad to have you to help in the singing. There will be a place for all.

We wish to extend again to all of the other churches of the town an invitation to worship with us in these meetings.

Open Letter to a Drunken Driver

Travelers Safety Service

SURE, you can drive home a'right. Don't let 'em feed you any of that bunk about letting somebody else take the wheel. Any time old Pete can stand on his two feet he can drive an automobile, drunk or sober. What's a few drinks between friends, anyway. You show 'em who's going to drive.

Pile 'em into the car. That sweet little wife of yours, who's such a swell kid even if she does nag you about driving when you're drunk. And that funny couple with you who want to take a taxicab home. Imagine! Wanting to take a cab! Pile 'em in. Step on the gas. Whoopee! Go places. . . .

Brother, you're not the big shot you think you are. You're just a fuzzy-brained, liquored-up, obstinate ass with about as much right to drive an automobile on the public highway as a monkey from the zoo would have.

I won't appeal to your reason because it's obvious that you haven't any. I won't appeal to your emotions because they're pickled.

I only hope you'll start to drive home some night, alone, when you've one too many under your belt. Then I hope some little emergency will arise which your addled brain and fumbling hands won't enable you to meet. I hope you'll have an encounter with a tree or a telephone pole that will land you in a police cell and your car on a junk heap. As you sober up I hope the baseness of your continued offenses against society will be borne in upon you with sickening clarity. I hope the newspaper headlines will scream out to all your relatives and friends and business acquaintances: PROMINENT LOCAL MAN GETS DRUNK AND LANDS IN JAIL.

Yes, I hope an All-Wise Providence will arrange this little lesson for you. And soon, before you kill somebody, as you surely will if you continue to drive when you are drunk.

General Crop Conditions Good Over the State

Weather in North, Central and East Texas early in July was generally hot and dry followed by light to heavy rains which were of benefit to all growing crops, according to report on agricultural conditions by representatives of the Santa Fe System lines. Only in a few sections is further moisture an immediate need as most crops with the exception of cotton, have matured.

Harvesting and threshing of wheat and oats virtually has been completed. While a good proportion of oats has been forwarded to elevators, low prices are causing much of the crop to be held at points of production where it will be fed to livestock.

Corn, with the exception of late fields, matured under favorable conditions. Production for the state is estimated at 85,104,000 bushels last year. Considerable corn has been cut for fodder and is in the shock.

Due to increase in the cotton acreage, there has been a marked increase in acreage planted to feed crops which are generally in good condition. Both milo and kafir in the southern areas are ready for harvest.

Rice in the Eagle Lake-Matagorda district, and between Beaumont and Galveston, is making favorable progress; yield prospects good. It is believed that some cutting will be done before the first of September.

Cotton has good stand, fields are well cultivated, plants are thrifty; there are no dead spots in the fields such as usually appear about this time, and insect damage has been reported in only a few isolated areas. Under favorable conditions between now and maturity, it is apparent that the yield will be satisfactory.

The cotton acreage, however, is the smallest since 1908. Account of the Agricultural Adjustment Act, it was reduced to 9,960,000 acres, compared with 12,769,000 acres last year.

Ranges are in fairly good conditions and stock water is ample for present needs.

In general, Texas wheat yields were disappointing, and with harvest finished, it is evident that total production has fallen under that of last year. The last official estimate was 35,397,000 bushels which is quite a contrast to prospects earlier in the season.

Account of low prices and the recent Federal loan announcement, the wheat movement so far has been rather slow, much of the crop being held on the farm or in local elevators. Many farmers are planning to take advantage of the wheat insurance program for 1939.

Cotton, although late, is in splendid growing condition, the stand is good and fields are clean. With plenty of moisture and a favorable late maturing period similar to that of 1937, there is a chance for a normal yield, but not a normal crop, as the acreage has been greatly reduced.

Grain sorghums and sudan grass are fully up to normal, and the general outlook for a feed crop is very promising.

Payments which unemployed workers receive under the Texas unemployment insurance law will not be deducted from the amount they will receive under the Federal old-age insurance program, according to J. Gordon James, manager of the Wichita Falls, Texas, office of the board.

The two programs are entirely separate. Some confusion has arisen because the social security account number, which is issued to workers covered by the old-age insurance program, is also used for unemployment insurance.

CHURCH

Perhaps many have wondered if we have church and what kind we have. First, services are held at the auditorium, which is a very nice place. Second, I was greatly surprised when I attended church the first time to find that we do not sing. Singing would be a great strain on our lungs; so in order that we may have music a Victrola is played. Although this is very unusual we soon get used to it.

The chaplain does not preach to us. Instead he talks to us and by doing this brings to us what we individuals of the Sanatorium need to know. He tries to help us in the everyday things we do.

If you go to Sunday School and prayer meeting each time during stay here, you are awarded a cross, which is worn by many noted people for good luck. It is a natural wonder, shaped by Nature's own hand. These "fairy stones" are found in a field of about fifty acres on top of Bull Mountain, Patrick County. They are in the shape of a cross, and millions of people are now wearing them in various forms of jewelry.

It is well known that ex-President Roosevelt and ex-President Wilson carried these little lucky pieces tucked snugly away about them.

As to the real origin of these crosses of stone, comparatively nothing is known. However, in that remote mountain section runs a very pretty legend to the effect that hundreds of years before King Powhatan's dynasty came into power, the fairies were dancing around a spring of limpid water, playing with the naiads and wood nymphs, when an elfin messenger arrived from a strange city bringing the sad tidings of the death of Christ; and when they heard the story of the crucifixion they wept. And as the tears fell upon the earth they were crystallized into little pebbles, on each of which was formed a beautiful cross. When the fairies had disappeared from the enchanted spot the ground about the spring was strewn with these unique mementoes of that melancholy event. How this legend originated no one knows, but for many years the crosses were held in superstitious awe.

In the "Trail of the Lonesome Pine," by John Fox, Jr., the lover gives his sweetheart one of these stones and you will note that it also brings them luck.

"I appreciate the many courtesies shown me by the citizens of Knox county in my campaign for State Senator, and I wish to sincerely thank all those who voted for me. The campaign was pleasant over the entire district, and although time prevented me seeing as many of the citizens as I would liked to have done, the many friendships made will always be one of my most cherished possessions. I look forward to seeing each of you again, and often.
"I extend my congratulations and best wishes to my opponent as a member of the Texas Senate."

McFARLANE'S RECORD
Age 44, widower with five children.
Four years in the Texas House of Representatives.
Was joint author of the gasoline tax and supplemental aid school bill; voted for regulation of utilities and to raise school aid from $10.00 to $15.00 per capita.
Four years in the Texas Senate, where he introduced and helped pass legislation for the oil, farm, livestock and labor interests. He led the fight to defeat the tax remission bill, saving over $15,000,000 to the taxpayers.
As chairman of the Penitentiary Committee he led the fight saving the state-owned prison property valued at least $10,000,000.
He was joint author of the gasoline tax bill, building state highways through such funds.
He was joint author of anti-lobbying legislation to require members of the Legislature to state under oath their corporate connections and fees received.
Was opposed to special privilege legislation.
On this record was elected to Congress. McFarlane pays his own campaign expenses.
(Paid for by the McFarlane for Congress Club of Knox County)

GOSSETT'S RECORD
Age 36, single, last 20 years in school and practicing law.
Returned to this district 11 years ago and has run for office four times within the past 11 years. District Attorney four years, from 1933 to 1937. According to sworn affidavits for this period of time his record as District Attorney is as follows:

	Foard	Hardeman	Wilbarger
	No.	Pct.	No. Pct.
Felony indictments filed	78	211	473
Dismissals on motion of District Attorney	46	59	114 57 145 31
Dismissals on account of repeal of Dean Law	0	23	10 16 3
Acquittals	4	5	9 4 7 2
Pleas of guilty	17	22	48 20 146 31
Tried before a jury	25	32	63 27 131 28
Suspended sentences	15	19	31 13 67 14
Cases appealed	11	14	15 6 42 9
Cases reversed	5	45	13 87 19 45
Cases affirmed	6	55	2 13 23 55
Sent to penitentiary on contested jury trials	12	48	22 35 52 40

Thus, you see from the above record that about 41 per cent of the Grand Jury indictments he had returned on contested cases has ever been sent to jail. You will note that he dismissed on his own motion about 39 per cent of the Grand Jury indictments he had returned. You will further note that 54.4 per cent of the cases appealed were reversed because of a defective record. That out of 792 indictments filed that only 86 were ever sent to the penitentiary and 305 cases dismissed on his own motion, which clearly shows that he dismissed the cases he thought he could not win, thus showing favoritism and even of the cases he tried, he could only get affirmed, 41 per cent of the cases appealed.
NO LEGISLATIVE EXPERIENCE
No special aptitude for legislative action; none claimed; the constructive parts of his platform already the law.
Two years ago in his speeches throughout the First Primary, he stated he had mortgaged his father's farm to make the run-off campaign. Who is paying for this expensive campaign? The records show he has not earned enough to pay his living and office expenses since moving to Wichita Falls.

NYA Quota To Be Released Within Next Few Days

J. C. Kellam, director of NYA for Texas, in a letter to the county superintendent notified him that the NYA quota for Knox County would be released in the next few days.

Immediately upon receipt of this quota, a conference of all the superintendents of the county will be called and a quota for each school will be allotted.

NYA aid pays $6.00 per month to every pupil qualifying. Eligibility is based on age, need and scholarship of the pupil. NYA aid was given to fourteen pupils last year and it is believed the quota will be raised this year.

$1,038,915 Allotted Texas by NYA
A federal allotment of $1,038,915 to aid Texas high school and university students in meeting expenses during the 1938-39 scholastic year, was announced by J. C. Kellam, state director of the National Youth Administration.

Kellam said the appropriation was 20 per cent more than received last year when 17,300 students who otherwise could not have attended school were given part-time employment.

College students average $12.00 monthly and secondary students $6, he said.

Kellam explained quotas for NYA jobs among college students would be based on 9.3 per cent of the enrollment of full-time students between 16 and 24 years of age. Each institution will be notified of its quota in a few days, he added.

The quota for secondary schools will be determined by the director on a basis of need and the availability of school facilities. The director will be assisted by recommendations of county school superintendents and local advisory committees.

State Co-Op Meet—

in the South. Its members are described as being real dirt farmers. Loran, a heavy-set man past 50, carries his trumpet with him and used it to lead the singing of the farmers. One of the first songs the members hopped on was "Beautiful Texas," composed by W. Lee O'Daniel, Democratic nominee for governor. Loran kept his trumpet by his side, and mixed music with his duties as chairman of the sessions.

Welcomed by Cox
The union members were extended a welcome to Houston in an address by W. O. Cox, manager of the agricultural department of the Houston Chamber of Commerce. Cox told the delegates what Houston and its Chamber of Commerce are attempting to do for the farmers.

He told of the port facilities in Houston which gives the farmers and cattlemen of the Southwest water transportation and an outlet to the markets of the Atlantic seaboard.

"The farmers of Texas and Oklahoma by shipping to the Port of Houston can deliver their products as cheaply as the farmer living within 300 miles of New York City," Cox said. "A few years ago the people of Houston further showed their appreciation of the farmers by building them a $1,000,000 municipal farmers market designed to bring the farmers and the consumers closer together."

He also mentioned the $1,300,000 Sam Houston coliseum completed a few months ago, and said it was designed largely to help the cattlemen of the Southwest to exhibit the products of their ranches. He said Houston always is happy to welcome farmers to visit it.

Production Cost
Cox left immediately after his talk, and L. Gough, of Amarillo, the next speaker, writer of cowboy

READY FOR RUN-OFF

G. A. Jerry Sadler, 30, Longview, is the youngest candidate for State office and is opposing the oldest. Sadler fought through a field of veteran campaigners to run a close second to C. V. Terrell, incumbent in the Railroad Commission, who has been in public office in Texas for more than half a century. Sadler's slogan is "Put Sadler in the Saddle," and he is shown here with one foot in the stirrup. Sadler promised a continuation of his same fast and furious campaign methods that enabled him to win a run-off place.

poems of 50 years ago, said he was sorry, because he wanted to ask if the farmers of the Houston territory are "getting the cost of production" out of their crops.

"I had a nice breakfast this morning," he said, "but as I ate my eggs, bacon, rolls and butter, I couldn't keep from wondering if the farmer who produced that food got the cost of production out of it."

"I wonder how many other people of the United States think of that? Very few, I am sure, yet that is at the root of all our farm problems."

"If the farmers are not getting the cost of production, they are not getting justice and they are not enjoying the benefits set out by them by our state and federal constitutions. There is one way the farmers can get the cost of production and that is to join the farmers union; to blend the city and rural residents viewpoints into one, to wipe out city and country distinctions," he said.

A report on the all-state convention of the union recently at Estes Park, Colo., was given by Alf Crowell of Wichita Falls, educational director of the organization.

"If you were to tell a Communist our organization is communist, he would be insulted," Crowell said. "The same for a Socialist. Our organization is neither communist nor socialist. But we do propose, if necessary, to save the profits of our labor, and buy our own utilities and set up our own banks."

$5000 Is Enough
Crowell asserted that if "conditions were right every family head in the United States should be getting from $3000 to $5000 a year, and said $5000 a year is enough for any man."

An old-fashioned organizing talk was made by Ed Reger of Oklahoma City, who declared that 72 per cent of the land of Oklahoma and 70 per cent of Alabama and Louisiana is tilled by tenant farmers.

"We have simply got to get back to the day when the great bulk, if not all, farmers own their farms free of debt," Reger said. "Until the farmers own their lands, they will not be able to fulfill their obligations to their families."

He urged all farmers to join the union and fight for legislation favorable to farmers, as did the farmers of Oklahoma. If politicians don't travel along with the union, vote against them, he said.

E. A. Calvin of Houston, one of the organizers of the farmers union in 1905, spoke, and briefly reviewed the history of the organi-

High School Aid to be Paid

AUSTIN.—The State Auditor authorized Tuesday the release of $364,152, or about 50 per cent, of completed and approved claims for high school tuition and aid under the rural school equalization plan.

Fladger Tannery, first assistant auditor, estimated that 93 to 95 per cent of approved claims could be paid from the appropriation which totals $780,000, less about $25,000 for administration. Other payments will be released on completion of the auditing of recommendations by the Department of Education, which estimated that 95 per cent would be paid.

Payments released went to 417 affiliated and classified high schools and ranged from a low of $2 to the Tom Bean Rural High School in Grayson County to $6,595 to the Tyler High School. The payments are to compensate high schools transferred from districts which do not offer high school courses.

Tannery estimated compensation to the high schools would average about $41.25 per student per year, based on a maximum of $7.50 per student per month above free time reported by the State apportionment.

Payment of high school tuition aid is the last phase of the 1937-38 equalization bill administration, for remittances previously have been made on other aids, including those for transportation of students and teachers' salaries. The total appropriated by the bill was $5,500,000 for each year of this biennium.
