Odd Bits Salvaged
At Random

(By Aaron Edgar)

Monday's wind kinda shipped the sand around, some of which lodged back around our curbs, but it reminded us of how fortunate we've been these past few years.

We remember back when the sandstorms were something to talk about. They were real gravel movers, and the gravel would move with such force that they'd beat the paint off cars that were traveling in the storm.

Then there were the "dust bowl" days, when those dark clouds would appear in the north and west. When they arrived, they would shut out the sun and give the appearance of doom all around.

Dust bowl days spelled doom for many farmers in the dust bowl area, and if we consider ourselves fortunate in not having dust bowl days now, let us hope that we continue to be as fortunate.

Some think the dust bowl days are likely to return, and some think things are just about ripe now. With the small amount of moisture on the plains area, they believe it wouldn't take much blowing to bring back the dust bowl.

What got us to thinking along that line was the junior dust bowl we had right here in town Monday. But we have such as that on our streets with just a little wind nearly with a breeze.

March, the windy month, is knocking at our door, so we just as well get our craws turned up for taking on a little dust and sand—however, much those who suffer from sinus and asthma hate to think of it.

Speaking before a local civic organization, a member of our city governing body recently pointed out three primary needs for Monday. He didn't hit on but about one of our six needs which we carry on our editorial page.

But we're inclined to agree with him—that if these three needs he spoke of are met this year, then we'll be going places and accomplishing things.

One need he mentioned was our paving, upon which some good progress is being made, with beginning of actual work coming in to view over the hilltop. This need will likely be accomplished this year.

People have been "kicking in" right well with the money for paving their premises, which is a pretty good way of determining that people realized the need for paving and are willing to pay for it.

Another need was for our drainage project, soon which subject we devoted our "colym" a few weeks ago. Some other ideas have been advanced since then, one of which is to create a Knox County Drainage District No. 1, and then have a rap at voting bonds for the drainage program.

We're not very well informed about this idea, but maybe can shed some light on it when it comes out of the embryo stage.

Anyway, if we pave our town and drain our town, and then get a street sweeper to keep the pavement swept clean, the dirt away from our curbs, etc., we'll agree that we're going places. But the sweeper wasn't the No. 3 need, in our man's opinion.

Number Three, to his way of thinking, is the elimination of gin smoke in our town—and to which he's receiving a hearty amen from asthma sufferers.

The law requires, we think, that cotton burrs be burned at the gins, but it doesn't require that they be burned in open burners and the smoke from the smoldering embers blown throughout the town.

The idea was to fix better methods of burning the burrs, with some draft to the burners, and a high smokestack that would emit the smoke high up in the air, so it

J. B. Eubanks, Jr. Announces For County Judge

J. B. Eubanks, Jr., of Truscott last Tuesday authorized the Munday Times to announce his candidacy for the office of County Judge of Knox County, subject to the action of the July primary.

Mr. Eubanks, who is 33 years of age, was born and reared in Knox county and is well known to many of the voters. He has resided in Knox county since his birth, with the exception of four years in the service, a portion of which time was spent in Japan.

Since leaving the service, he has been employed as assistant postmaster at Truscott. This is his first time to ask the voters for a political office.

"I feel that my years of residence in the county and my knowledge of its needs fully qualifies me to fill the office which I seek," Mr. Eubanks said. "If elected I will do my best to make you a good county judge, looking after the best interests of the entire county."

"I will try to see all the voters before election day, but in the meantime I will appreciate your careful consideration of my candidacy and qualifications, assuring you that your vote and influence will be sincerely appreciated."

W. H. Portwood, Rancher Dies At Seymour Sunday

W. H. Portwood, 85, prominent West Texas rancher, land owner and oil man, died at Seymour last Sunday after a brief illness. His ranching empire extended into Baylor, Throckmorton, Young, Archer, Cottle and Dallam counties.

Portwood was born in Hopkins county and moved with his family to Decatur at the age of five. In 1876, he moved to Wichita county and took a job with the Waggoner Ranch, later becoming its manager.

In 1904, he purchased the Block Ranch in Baylor county and started on his own. He soon acquired the Stevens Ranch in Baylor county and gradually amassed holdings of many thousand acres in six West Texas counties. Oil was discovered on his ranches in Young, Archer and Baylor counties, adding to his wealth.

Funeral services were held Monday from the home in Seymour with Dr. J. L. Ward, president of Decatur College, and Rev. J. R. Balch, pastor of the Seymour Baptist church, officiating. Burial was in the Seymour cemetery.

A meeting of representative citizens of Knox county will be held on Thursday, March 4, at the Knox county hospital in Knox City for the purpose of discussing the Blue Cross hospitalization plan.

A district man will be present to talk to the group regarding this form of hospitalization insurance. It is hoped that a county-wide organization can be formed at this meeting.

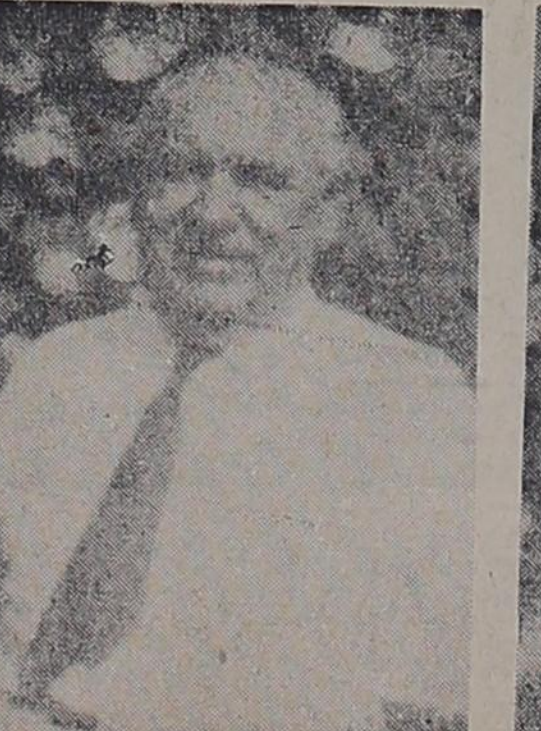

Anyone interested in the plan is cordially invited to attend the meeting.

They will likely arrive in Munday within a few days.

City Election Called April 6

Notice has been issued this week that a city election will be held at the city hall in Munday on Tuesday, April 6, at which time a mayor and two aldermen for the city of Munday will be elected.

Present city councilmen whose terms expire are: W. R. Moore, mayor, and Don L. Ratliff and Alex Jones, aldermen.

So far, no names have been filed for places on the ballot, and notice was given that all names must be filed with the city secretary at least thirty days before the election. This means that Saturday, March 6, is the deadline for filing for city office.

Many Farmers Terracing Farms

Terracing seems to be of most importance to the farmers at this time. The Wichita Brazos Soil Conservation District, with the help of the Soil Conservation Service technicians at Knox City, have run something over 70 miles of terrance lines in the last two months. Some of the more recent ones are: Fred Monke, Frank Oman, W. M. Hill, R. N. Mattison of Weinert, and Bill Reader, Jewell Day, and R. B. Howell of Knox City.

Clover planting time is here and several farmers have already planted. The varieties being planted at this time are Hubam and Madrid sweet clover. These clovers are very good soil improving crops and have been doing good on all lands in the District, except the Deep Sand. Both are drought resistant and the Madrid grows for two years without replanting. Both should be inoculated with Culture A inoculant before planting.

Miss Merle Dingus, Miss Christine Burton and Mrs. Freddie Morrow were business visitors in Wichita Falls last Monday.

Knox Calves Being Shown At District Show

Seven Knox County calves are being shown today at the District Show in the new 4-H calf barn and arena at Wichita Falls.

Feeders and exhibitors of these calves are 4-H club members, Fred Lewis and Buddy Crenshaw of Benjamin, Max Bradley, of Brock; and H. C. Chafin and Tom Bush Craft, of Knox City. These boys have fed and conditioned their calves during the past year according to a schedule plan furnished them by the county agent.

At the annual Knox County Fat Steer Show, Mr. Ray Mowery, Texas Tech Livestock Judge, placed these calves as follows:
Senior class: Fred Lewis Crenshaw, First; Max Bradley, Third and Ninth; Buddy Crenshaw, Fourth and Sixth.

Junior class: Tom Bush Craft, Second; H. C. Chafin, Fourth.
Since the county show, the second senior calf and the first junior calf have been sold at the Fort Worth Stock Show.

The boys have been watching their calves carefully since the county show. Preparation during the last month may change the placing of these calves at the District Show, but all of the calves are well finished according to observers.

J. A. Wilson Announces For County Clerk

J. A. Wilson of Knox City this week announced his candidacy for the office of County Clerk of Knox County, subject to the action of the Democratic primary in July.

Mr. Wilson needs no introduction to the majority of the voters, having been a resident of the county more than forty years. Although he has never before asked for an elective office, he has had much experience in the type of work demanded by the office he seeks.

For some eighteen years he was employed in the banking business in the county, was Postmaster at Knox City eight years and served as Clerk of the Knox County Selective Service during the entire administration and Selective Service.

"I feel that my experience particularly qualifies me for the office," Mr. Wilson said in making his announcement, "and if elected, I pledge myself to conduct the affairs of the office to the best of my ability. I will make an active campaign and will attempt to see every voter in the county before election day, in the meantime I solicit a careful consideration of my candidacy and will appreciate the support of the voters."

Thomas Tinkers, Lubbock Cagers To Play Here

They used to be the Dr. Pepper Allstars, and many basketball fans saw them perform almost unbelievable feats on the courts last year when they played some two or three games here.

Now they're the Thomas Tinkers of Lubbock. They are practically the same bunch of players, and they're just as good as ever.

They'll give another exhibition of basketball at its best here on Thursday night of next week, when the Munday Jaycee team will try to match their skill with the visitors. The Jaycees aren't expecting to win this game, especially when players on the Tinker team can bounce the ball through the hoop, but they promise you a good exhibition of basketball.

Admission prices will be 25 cents for children and 50 cents for adults. You'll get your money's worth, so be there!

Weinert Holding Cage Tournament

Where Does Your Money Go?

Read the other day where country folks and farmers spend more money, proportionately, on their homes than city dwellers do.
 Doesn't seem hard to believe when you think it over. Take the folks in our town, for instance: They're home-loving people—who'd rather spend an evening by the fire with a mellow glass of beer than go out in search of entertainment or diversion.
 So it's only natural they put more into what means most to them and to their children: their homes. They may not have too much to spend—but it goes for those permanent, abiding comforts that make home a nicer place to be.
 And from where I sit, that budget calls for some of the niceties of home life too—like cider and popcorn for the kids from time to time, and a friendly glass of beer for Mom and Dad... things that belong with what we mean when we say "Home."

reason of the payment of said taxes plaintiff claims and asserts the prior and superior lien given him by law and equity to secure the payment thereof. That plaintiff is subrogated to the rights of the said taxing units and has a lien on said lots for the taxes paid.
 Plaintiff prays that he have judgment against the defendants for the said several sums of money hereinbefore mentioned, totaling the sum of $185.14, and that his lien upon the property herein described be in all things foreclosed, for an order of sale in such cases made and provided and writ of possession in behalf of the purchaser or purchasers thereunder and for such other and further relief to which the plaintiff may in law or in equity be entitled.
 Issued this the 5th day of February A. D., 1948. Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Benjamin, Texas, this the 5th day of February A. D., 1948.

MUNDAY'S NEEDS FOR 1948

1. A modern and up-to-date high school building, to care for the present and future educational needs of our children.
2. A waterworks system that meets all requirements of health, sanitation and supply.
3. A street sweeper that will keep our pavement clean enough to be recognized as pavement.
4. A clean-up campaign of lasting effect; yes, one that extends even across the tracks.
5. Completion of our drainage and paving program, which will probably be accomplished this year.
6. More activity among our civic organizations, looking forward to, and planning for, a better Munday in the future.

THE ANTI-INFLATION CAMPAIGN CONTINUES

The desire of retailers to do everything within their power to fight inflation was illustrated once again at the recent annual convention of the National Retail Dry Goods Association. Speakers urged the industry to renew the battle against still higher prices through tighter buying procedures, narrower margins when possible on the main cost-of-living items, credit curbs, and other practical devices.

It is obvious, of course, that the solution to the price problem does not lie in the hands of the retailer. Government fiscal policy, the European aid plan, the anticipated drive for higher wages, the tremendous drain on our production machine—these and many other factors will determine whether we are to have the tragedy of unbridled inflation or not. What the retailers are trying to do is to help—to minimize new price increases if they come, to avoid them if possible, and to give what protection they can to consumer buying power.
 This is a continuous campaign. Every kind of retailer—the chains, the independents, stores which carry all kinds of merchandise—is involved in it. It has posed many problems of extreme difficulty. The expenses of doing business have risen tremendously, and one authority said that the break-even point of store operation with respect to sales is twice the prewar figure. Retailers are constantly seeking means to cut costs, to increase efficiency, and to absorb expense. The savings made go to you.

WORSE THAN THE BLITZ

What would you think if you were told that in a single year fire loss in the United States was as great as the estimated property damage done in Great Britain during two years of the terrible German blitz?

You might doubt the accuracy of the statement. But the truth is that our 1947 waste was actually 75 per cent greater than the loss England suffered in two years of blitz attack. And it was about twice as great as the damage done in the San Francisco fire which, after forty years, is still remembered as one of the most disastrous conflagrations in history.

Fire is now taking a record toll. There are various reasons, of which high replacement costs are among the most important. But, whether building costs are high or low, the main cause of fire is unaffected—it lies in human failure of some kind. Today inflation, combined with the building shortage, has made every house, store, factory and warehouse more valuable than before. It has, in addition, resulted in an overcrowding of buildings, thus increasing the value of their contents. Today every careless act is potentially far more destructive than in the past.

Fire can be compared to war as a killer and destroyer. And, like war, we can prevent fire if we sincerely want to. Prevention of war lies in the difficult field of international policy-prevention of fire can be accomplished here at home. Will we accept a challenge that is aimed directly at us all?

When Eddie, the noticeably slow-moving and inefficient clerk in a small-town general store, wasn't in evidence one morning, a customer asked: "Where's Eddie? Ain't sick, is he?" "Nope, he ain't sick," replied the proprietor. "He's just not working here any more." "Got anybody in mind to fill the vacancy?" responded the curious villager. "Nope," said the proprietor. "Eddie didn't leave no vacancy."

When the colored preacher said to Brother Jones that he should give a small donation for a fence around the cemetery, Jones replied: "I don't see no use in a fence around the cemetery. Dem what's in there can't get out, and dem what's out sho doan wanna get in."

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh
Where Does Your Money Go?
 Read the other day where country folks and farmers spend more money, proportionately, on their homes than city dwellers do.
 Doesn't seem hard to believe when you think it over. Take the folks in our town, for instance: They're home-loving people—who'd rather spend an evening by the fire with a mellow glass of beer than go out in search of entertainment or diversion.
 So it's only natural they put more into what means most to them and to their children: their homes. They may not have too much to spend—but it goes for those permanent, abiding comforts that make home a nicer place to be.
 And from where I sit, that budget calls for some of the niceties of home life too—like cider and popcorn for the kids from time to time, and a friendly glass of beer for Mom and Dad... things that belong with what we mean when we say "Home."

Knox Prairie Philosopher Doubts If Government Officials Could Let News Of Market Breaks Leak Out

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek is still preoccupied with the market drop, his letter this week reveals. Dear editor:

I don't think Spring is here yet, although the weather warmed up a little the other day and I heard a bird singing and it can't be too far off, however I ain't taken in too readily by these things and figure it will be a good while yet before I can stretch out on the bunk of Miller Creek in my shirt sleeves and contemplate my work in comfort, but I was out Monday walkin' around as a man ought to get some exercise in the winter time, not too much, and the same applies in summer, when I found a copy of the Star-Telegram which the wind had blown against a brush heap and findin' a spot dry enough to sit down in I sat down and read where Washington is in a turmoil over the recent drop in prices and some speculation in general and some Congressmen is claimin' government "leaks" from "inside" information sources has enabled speculators to clean up.

Now what I know about the market ain't no more than you know about what's behind Russia's iron curtain or even where the curtain is and it always has puzzled me how a speculator could make money out of fallin' prices, but what I want to know is where is the government official who had any inside information on exactly when the turnin' point in inflation was gonna happen, if it has, which I doubt? I admit I don't know too many government officials, but I know a few and have read after a good many and I been wrackin' my brain and I'm blamed if I can think of one smart enough to have figured out when the spiral of high prices had reached the top and was about to start back down again. I just don't see how it would be possible for any official I know to let any such information leak out, no more'n it would be possible for me to betray the secret of the atomic bomb.

Turn the ones you know over in your mind. You know of any who even knows what caused wheat to go sky high and pecans to fall off and work pants to double in price and thousand-dollar automobiles to sell for $2100 second-hand, and who has any smitherin' of an idea of how to stop inflation, other than to just keep talkin' and deplorin' it and blamin' it on the other party until something happens and everything starts comin' back down the other way?

If you ask me, aint no government official been lettin' no inside information leak out. They're bucket empty, same as yours and mine.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Spring Edition Of Highway Maps Being Released

Austin—The Spring Edition of the Texas Highway Department's official travel maps is being released for public distribution, State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer has announced.

The new four color map incorporates all changes in the state road system through December occasioned by the Department's vast postwar road building program.

There is a generous display of color pictures representing a cross section of the State's industrial and recreational assets.

A message from Governor Beauford H. Jester is printed on the cover. Addressing "motorists everywhere," the Governor invites all to "see and travel in Texas, revel in its sunshine, its modern cities, and scenic beauty."

Except for revisions in the road system and the new pictures, the edition is similar to others issued since the war which have been acclaimed among the best of the state road maps published throughout the nation.

Standard highway warning and directional signs are reproduced on the map to familiarize drivers with road markers.

Size of the Lone Star State is again graphically told by a table of comparative distances. The 868 miles from El Paso to Orange is greater than the 815 miles from El Paso to Los Angeles. It is also further than the 760 miles from Laredo to Mexico City.

Included also is a small scale map of the United States showing all state capitals and major highways.

The Texas map is published un-

Fairy Tales For Grown-ups By GEORGE S. BENSON President of Harding College Searcy, Arkansas

Looking Ahead

EVER HEAR of grown-ups believing in fairy tales? Well, perhaps not Cinderella or Jack and the Beanstalk. But when it comes to the economic "facts of life," it is amazing what some folks will accept instead of facts.

One tale of economic nonsense, usually going the rounds, has it that industry is rolling in money and making exorbitant profits. Usually, industry (erstwhile known as "big business" and "bloated capitalists") is the villain.

These uncalled-for profits are literally squeezed out of the consumers and the workers, and piled up somewhere by the "soulless corporation," like so much gold guarded by a fire-breathing dragon. It is high time somebody got a true-to-life story started that shows what our system of free investment and free enterprise has done for the people of this country.

A Fair NATIONAL POLLS, not Profit too long ago, found workers thinking that business makes from 25 to 50 per cent profit. Surveys among labor union members have found the workers thinking that 10 per cent profit on sales would be about right. Even a government booklet prepared for veterans says "A business . . . should make at least 10 per cent profit clear." Well, fairy tales to the contrary, one statistician shows that actually business makes on the average only 2.9 per cent profit on sales volume.

Some businesses make less; some make more. In 17 years of sales, the Republic Steel Corporation has made 2 per cent on the company's sales to customers. General Electric has figured its average for 30 years at only 8.9 per cent. You see, it just so happens that industry gets far less than the 10 per cent that everybody seems to think would be fair.

Our Best BUT WAIT a minute! We have been taking a lot for granted. Nobody has shown, fairy tale fashion, why it would be so bad if industry were making a better profit. Actually, nothing would be bad about it. It is good for the welfare of the nation, for the consumer, for the worker, for everybody — if industry makes a good profit.

Only if industry makes a fair profit, can we expect plant expansion and more jobs. Republic Steel, already mentioned, divided each dollar that it had for owners and for workers in 1946. The workers got 91 cents. The owners got 4 cents in dividends, and 5 cents went back into the business. Without profit, a business would have nothing with which to replace worn tools so it can remain productive. Without profit there's not a chance for good wages to continue.

Without dividends, there's no attraction to new venture capital. New investments are important to the welfare of everyone. We need prosperous industries. Yet, who wants to invest hard-earned dollars in a business that can't make a profit? Active production lines, in industries that can show a profit, are the basis of America's prosperity and high standard of living. Profit is our best incentive.

der the direction of R. M. Stene, who performed all the cartography made the color photographs, and attended to the technical details of production. At 76, Mr. Stene's boundless energy and versatile talent uphold his contention that "life begins at 70."

A registered professional engineer, he came with the Highway Department in 1927. He had previously built dams in Arizona and worked for railroads in Texas.

Copies of the new Spring Edition are available to the traveling public at the Highway Department's main office in Austin, its twenty-five district offices throughout the State, and at its nine information bureaus operated at ports of entry into Texas.

Many Employees On Jobs Covered By Social Security

Over 4,500 workers are employed in the fine county area including on jobs covered by the federal social security program, Ray L. Miller, Dallas regional director of the Department of Commerce reported today. The report made public by the Department of Commerce reveals the annual pay roll in the five counties covered by social security taxes amounts to $6,400,000.

The figures do not include non-taxable wages, nor do they include wages drawn by workers in industries or occupations outside the social security law. (Taxable wages under the old-age and survivors insurance program are limited to the first $3,000 which a worker received in a year from any one employer is covered industry.

The report was the first made available on social security tax data broken down in detail by states and counties. Mr. Miller said the basic data presented in the bulletins are "of prime value in deriving and analyzing market potentials and sales aolals, in the measurement of efficiency and effectiveness of sales operating and advertising efforts, and in the planning of sales territories."

In Texas 1,224,135 workers are employed in jobs covered by social security. The total pay roll in the state from which social security taxes are drawn amounts to nearly $2,250,000,000 a year.

The statistics were compiled as a joint project by the Department of Commerce Federal Security Agency, U. S. Employment Service and other interested government agencies. The information was taken from social security tax reports by 2,254,445 American employers in 1946.

Throughout the nation almost 31,000,000 workers are employed on jobs which fall under the social law. Their pay roll, from which taxes were deducted in 1946, amounted to more than $65 billion dollars.

Of 893 employers in the five counties making reports for social security tax purposes, only 2 had more than 100 employees from which the tax was deducted and only 6 had more than 50 employees. 864 employers, or 96 percent of the total had fewer than 20 employees.

The reports may be consulted by businessmen, at the field offices of the Department of Commerce and at business libraries.

Fixing Up the Farm
by BURTON WILLIAMS

Estimating Fire Hazards

ON the average farm, winter means not only cold weather but also increased fire hazards. If you haven't done so already, now is the time to look around and eliminate as many as possible.

Check your stove or furnace set-up in particular. Then, as an added precaution, be prepared to fight any small fires that may break out. Hand extinguishers are for controlling flames that otherwise might spread into disastrous fires. Have several, placed strategically at the more likely danger points.

The above sketch illustrates one effective way to reduce fire hazards resulting from stoves. The stove can be set on a base consisting of a fireproof material such as asbestos cement board. Another piece of the same material can be nailed to the wall directly behind the stove to serve as a shield. Sparks or hot coals cannot burn asbestos cement board because it is made of incombustible minerals.

A wise investment in fire prevention is to enclose the furnace in a separate room with fire-resistant walls. Asbestos cement board, which is easily applied to wood framing, is ideal for this purpose, too. For more complete fire protection, your house and other farm buildings should be covered with a fireproof roofing material. Among those used widely on farms are asbestos shingles, which are weather-proof as well as fireproof.

DON'T BE SHOCKED? LIGHTNING CAN HIT SAME PLACE TWICE

It isn't true that lightning never strikes in the same place twice. The National Safety Council says it can and does, because certain places and things attract lightning.

Lightning is chiefly a rural hazard, where nine out of 10 deaths occur, and only occasionally strikes areas with many buildings. Here are some thunderstorm tips:

Get inside a house. Avoid isolated outbuildings and single trees, especially on high ground. If you must stay out, seek a grove of trees or a gully. Stay away from utility poles, downspouts, wire clotheslines, metal fences. In the house, close windows and doors, stay away from stoves, fireplaces, radiators, telephones, radios.

In Texas, in 1947, more than 343,500 acres of austrian winter peas were plowed under as a soil improvement crop.

New Brake Lining Service Offered Area Motorists

Safe stops for a long, long time! That's what you'll get when the brakes on your car are relined with MoPar Cyclebond Brake Lining. And it will pay you to remember that Reeves Motor Co. is now equipped to install this long wearing lining.

MoPar Cyclebond lining is bonded right to the brake shoe. This is done by a special process developed by Chrysler Corporation engineers for Dodge and Plymouth cars and some Dodge trucks.

Because it is bonded to the shoe, you can wear MoPar Cyclebond lining almost down to the shoe itself. That makes it last up to 75 per cent longer, helps reduce brake drum scoring, saves you money. Let Reeves Motor Co. check your brakes today. Proper brake adjustment will be made if necessary. And if new linings are needed they'll reline with MoPar Cyclebond brake lining. Remember, it's Reeves Motor Co. for MoPar Cyclebond brake lining and expert brake service.

We have exchange shoes to take care of late model Dodge, Plymouth, Ford and Chevrolet cars, and we can reline any other car by this new process by using your old shoes. This is a service that has never been offered in this section before.—Adv.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Dr. Geo. W. Cox
M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

Austin—With the incidence of measles more than three times higher than the seven year median, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, has issued a statement concerning the use of gamma globulin for protecting very young or frail children from an attack of this perennial childhood disease and its often serious complications.

"If you have a child less than five years old who has been exposed to measles, your family doctor may recommend giving him gamma globulin, Dr. Cox advised. Through city, county or state health departments, doctors can obtain gamma globulin free, when parents are unable to pay. Infants and children, whose health makes it inadvisable for them to suffer an attack of measles, may postpone the disease if gamma globulin is administered within 8 days from the time of exposure.

The State Health Officer emphasized the fact that gamma globulin cannot give a child permanent protection against measles and added that the protection against

Coin Machines Big Help to Cancer Fund

HOLLYWOOD—"Coin machines have raised more money for the Damon Runyon Cancer Fund than all other American products!" This statement was made by Walter Winchell, newspaper columnist and radio commentator, second from left above, here to make a new record of thousands of amusement machines, such as juke boxes, pin games and vending machines of all types, has already raised and turned over $120,000 to cancer officials for research on finding the cure for cancer. Coin machine owners, recognizing the public service nature of their equipment, are donating a share of the proceeds of their machines to this cause, which benefits all humanity. Peanut vendors, penny weighing scales and a hundred odd types of very human coin-operated machines are fighting cancer in this way. Shown left to right above are Dave Gottlieb, president of Coin Machine Industries, Inc., Winchell, Herb Jones, vice president of Bally Mfg. Co., and Ray Maloney, chairman of the Coin Machine Industries campaign to raise funds for the Damon Runyon Cancer Fund.

measles is ordinarily of about three weeks duration. However, there is no limit to the number of times it can be used, and a baby who is protected by it now can be protected by it again in June or July. Gamma globulin can go on shielding him against measles until he is old enough and strong enough to stand an attack without serious consequences.

During an outbreak of measles Dr. Cox said that it is well to keep children under five years of age, and more especially frail children, away from all other youngsters who might serve as sources of infection. Statistics show that nine-tenths of all measles deaths occur in children under five years of age.

Fruits and vegetables freeze more successfully after their moisture is reduced, scientists find, because there is less breakage of the cell tissues from large ice crystals which form when more water is present.

New Brake Lining Service Offered Area Motorists

It's a long time between brake relining jobs when MoPar Cyclebond Brake Lining is used. That's the good news Reeves Motor Co. has for all car owners.

Yes, MoPar Cyclebond brake lining gives up to 75 per cent longer lining life. Why? Because it's bonded to the brake shoe. This is done by a special process developed by Chrysler Corporation engineers.

Bonding the lining to the shoe gives nearly full lining-depth wear, almost down to the shoe. It also helps prevent brake drum scoring, helps increase braking effectiveness. Reeves Motor Co. is equipped to install economical, longer-wearing MoPar Cyclebond brake lining.

Why not drive in today for a brake inspection? Correct adjustments will be made if needed. And if new linings are necessary, MoPar Cyclebond brake lining. You'll enjoy extra miles of safe braking and extra savings.

We have exchange shoes to take care of late model Dodge, Plymouth, Ford and Chevrolet cars, and we can reline any other car by this new process by using your old shoes. This is a service that has never been offered in this section before.—Adv.

The Chinese have a proverb which goes like this:

"He who knows not and knows that he knows not, train him. He who knows and knows not that he knows, awaken him. He who knows not and knows not that he knows not, shun him for he is a fool. He who knows and knows that he knows—follow him."

A Texas town had a mayor who, during the days of an oil boom, launched a vast program of improvements, financed through a bond issue. The boom collapsed and there were bonds for a million or two to be paid off by a deflated citizenship. But they kept electing and re-electing the mayor. When a stranger asked why, a native said, "Old Brown got us into that and, by cracky, he's a-gonna have to git us out." In Fort Worth, they are going to tear down a grand old mansion to make way for a grocery store. Hundreds of veterans are looking for a place to live yet this fine residence, which could be made into a home for a dozen families, is to be destroyed. It was beautiful when new and doubly beautiful now because of the touch of time and the aura of memories that pervades its big, high-ceilinged rooms. It has been the scene of balls and dinners. In Paris, it would be called a chateau; in Italy, a castle—and it would stand for centuries.

But we tear it down, so we can have another grocery store—when we don't have enough groceries now to fill the shelves of the ones we already have.

The winners will have an opportunity to sit down with their idols and ask such questions as youth longs to ask of the celebrated.

In addition to the trips to the homes of the great, the magazine will award five prizes of $10 each. The awards will be based on the appropriateness of the reasons given for the naming of a particular American. The nature of the questions the entrant would like of his nominee will also be considered in determining the winners.

The contest is open only to rural boys and girls from 13 to 20 years and who live in one of the fourteen Southern states: Georgia, Alabama, Florida, Mississippi, Arkansas, Louisiana, Kentucky, Tennessee, West Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Virginia, Texas and Oklahoma.

Entries will be made through a ballot appearing in the March and April issues of the magazine. Editors of the five editions together with their staffs will serve as judges in the contest. The contest closes April 30th.

Roots hold soil. Tiny roots that push their way down through the soil and wrap themselves around soil particles provide the reinforcement that keeps the land from being washed away. When the vegetation has been killed and the roots have been destroyed the land is open to the bombarding of rain or the driving force of the wind. There's nothing to hold it and it is carried away.

According to Emmett Partridge, Chairman of the Knox County Agricultural Conservation Committee, this explains why the application of phosphate in connection with approved legumes and grasses is a part of the conservation program.

The real purpose, says the chairman, is to increase the growth of roots in the soil. Since grass and legumes are the more permanent types of farm crops and their roots system are very effective in holding the soil, the application of phosphate has been especially encouraged for these crops. Grass and clover also are good crops for livestock and conservation farming systems. So the effectiveness of the application of phosphate as a conservation practice, the chairman explains, is in the accelerated growth of grasses and legumes.

Veterans' News

Only veterans taking full-time courses in schools or colleges will be entitled to increased subsistence allowances under a law signed February 14 by the President, the Veterans Administration has announced.

Veterans taking any of the following types of training are not entitled to the increases, but will continue to receive subsistence at the old rates of $65 monthly for those without dependents and $90 for those with dependents:

1. Institutional on-the-farm training and part-time institutional training.
2. On-the-job training or apprenticeships.
3. Combination training in which students attend school part time and are employed part time, usually in a related field.
4. Internship and residency training; and graduate training under a Fellowship requiring a reduced credit course-load because of services rendered under provisions of the Fellowship.

Eligible veterans now in school who are entitled to $75 (no dependents) or $105 (one dependent) will not have to apply for the increases. VA, requesting that these veterans not write, said it had sufficient information to make automatic increases.

However, veterans entitled to

Helps Bring Battleship Texas Home

Dana Andrews, 20th Century-Fox Screen Star and Texan, is one of the first to contribute to the campaign to bring the Battleship Texas back home, which is being sponsored by the Motion Picture Industry of Texas in cooperation with the Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce. Andrews is shown above presenting his check to Paul Short, Dallas theatre executive and past Chief Barker of the Variety Club of Texas. The popular star, who will soon be seen in "The Iron Curtain" appears with lovely Linda Darnell, fellow Texan, in a special screen production which will highlight the Campaign to raise funds necessary to return the big battleship to the Lone Star state.

$120 a month because they have more than one dependent, will be required to submit evidence of their additional dependents before the increased payments can be made. For dependent children, photostats or certified birth certificate copies will be necessary. For dependent parents, evidence of actual dependency must be submitted. If veterans now training submit evidence prior to July 1, 1948, they will receive retroactive payments at the new rates back to April 1, 1948.

The higher rates are applicable after April 1. However, since subsistence allowance checks are not due until the end of the month in which the veteran is in training, most of the eligible veteran-students will receive their first checks at the higher rates on or shortly after May 1, VA said.

Questions and Answers
Q. I am a World War II veteran and would like to know how much an attorney who represents me in my claim for compensation or pension against the Veterans Administration is permitted to charge?

A. If the attorney is admitted to practice before the VA he may receive $10 in an original claim or $2 in a claim for increase in compensation or pension, provided the claim is allowed. These fees are paid by VA and deducted from the monetary benefit awarded the claimant.

Q. I have been granted admission to a Veterans domiciliary home and now would like to know if it is possible for me to take my wife to stay at the Home?

A. No. The law does not permit the wives of servicemen to be admitted to any domiciliary home of the Veterans Administration.

Q. How do I calculate the period of eligibility time consumed while I am taking a correspondence course under the G-I Bill?

A. One-fourth of the lapsed time in following your correspondence course will be charged against your period of entitlement.

Q. If I am hospitalized in a Veterans Administration Hospital, must the benefits from my hospitalization insurance policy be assigned to VA?

A. If treatment is rendered for a nonservice-connected disability, the amount of the policy that provides for hospital expenses must be assigned to Veterans Administration. If the policy provides for stipulated amounts for the period of disablement, it is not necessary that it be assigned.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Jungman and Mrs. H. M. Michels went to Temple last week, where Mrs. Michels is undergoing examination and treatment at the Scott and White Hospital.

February 28th Is Final Date of Drive To Combat Heart Disease

The Texas State Heart Association was organized in 1934 and immediately became affiliated with American Heart Association. The Wichita Falls district of the state heart association comprises 15 counties, one of which is Knox county, Texas can be proud of the fact that it was one of the first states to have an organized heart association.

Organizations long have existed to fight tuberculosis and cancer. The war against infantile paralysis was dramatized by Franklin D. Roosevelt. This is universally recognized as a terrifying disease, but rheumatic heart disease causes 500 times as many deaths in infancy and childhood and cripples at least twice as many children as does infantile paralysis. Most astonishing is the apparent inevitability with which these facts have been accepted by so many people. For every death resulting from infantile paralysis $525 is spent annually in the U. S. on research; for every death from heart disease, only 17 cents. Why, we ask, and are asked, has relatively so little been done to attack the problem of cardiovascular disease? How can we account for the fact that funds for medical research in this field have been so pitifully meager—so insignificant that vitally needed investigations have been delayed or abandoned for lack of support. We can no longer explain away the neglect of heart disease by saying "nothing can be done about it." Something can be done about it! In this belief the American Heart Association has acted.

It is undesirable and impossible for doctors to carry on this campaign. It takes the entire nation. Have you given your bit to combat heart disease?

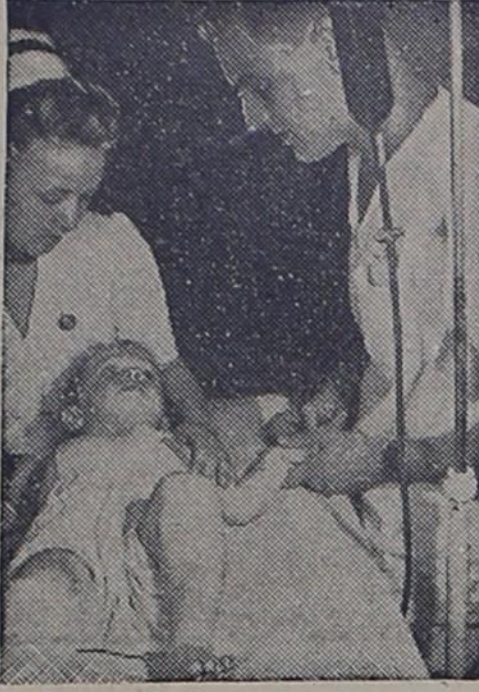

USDA cotton specialists say cotton will face increased competition from synthetic fibers and paper.

Annual Report Of Cub Scout Activity

The following is the annual report of Cub Scout activities of Munday Pack No. 76, as submitted by Mrs. D. C. Eiland, den mother:

Eight new Cubs have been added, and six Cubs graduated into the Boy Scouts. Five members were lost, one moving away and four withdrawing from the pack. Cubs have earned a total of 54 achievement awards during the year.

This time last year, there were 24 Cubs; now there are 20 who are active in the organization.

Among the activities are the following:

A field meet was held with 10 events and prizes in each event. A Christmas party was given with Christmas making all the tree decorations and a craft gift for Dad. Helped American Legion with Christmas boxes, and each den prepared one Christmas box for a family. Made decorations for annual banquet this year and last year.

Each den has had several hours of outdoor activities including cook-outs, picnics, swimming and skating parties and baseball games.

Attend Some Church Next Sunday

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Next Sunday morning Dr. Carson Taylor of Abilene, Texas, will speak on the effects of alcohol. Dr. Taylor is a man of national reputation. He discusses the bad effects of alcoholic drinks from the scientific point of view. His appeal is not through sentimentalism or prejudice, but from the cold facts in the case.

Dr. L. R. Elliott of Fort Worth, Texas, has this to say about Dr. Carson Taylor, "His lectures are scientific, scholarly and educational; objective, with no appeal to prejudice or passion. I have taken the pains to have his work checked for medical accuracy by one of the recognized physicians of Fort Worth who reports favorably on the accuracy of Mr. Taylor's lectures."

Dr. Thomas H. Taylor, President, Howard Payne College, Brownwood, Texas, makes this statement, "He has the best information on the physical effects of alcohol that I have heard."

Let's give this man a hearing. Surely we need his message! W. H. Albertson.

GOREE METHODIST CHURCH

We urge everyone to be present Sunday morning for the Sunday school hour which will be in at ten o'clock. Especially do we urge our elderly people to be present if at all possible at the eleven o'clock hour since the morning services will be dedicated to you. Perhaps there are some in our church who will not live to see another fifth Sunday in February, because it will be about thirty three or thirty five years before we have another one. So we urge you to be present for this service. The Sunday evening service will be in the form of a program, under the direction of one of our Laymen, followed by a brief message from the pastor.

C. R. Copeland, pastor.

would go over the town.

These are the three primary needs, as pointed out at that organization's meeting. They are needs, all of them, but so are the six we have listed, and we're still pulling for them.

We want paving, and drainage, and less smoke, and cleaner streets and alleys, pretty yards, less tin cans laying around, better schools—in fact, progress.

Why, shore, it costs money. But it costs money to live, and to die. It costs money to do things, and it costs money just to sit around 'cause some of these times you're gonna wear the seat of your breeches out!
