Kracker Krumb's Odd Bits Salvaged At Random

(By Aaron Edgar)

Is your pig pen offensive to your neighbor?

If you have one, it is. With all the rain we've been having lately, the pig pens are very odorous—is that the proper expression.

That's one thing about our clean-up campaign that we failed to do. We didn't get rid of the pig pens, the cow pens, the "Chick Sales" specials that dot the town here and there.

And there are breeding places for flies and mosquitoes, disease spreaders, health hazards, eye sores, and what have you.

Some people have complained about pig pens being too close to their premises, and they allow as how town ain't no place to raise a pig.

We hear the complaints when the neighbors don't. Those who register complaints don't complain to the offenders, usually, because they're neighbors and folks just like to live in peace with their neighbors.

As our health officer stated recently, we must get rid of those places to get rid of the flies and mosquitoes. No amount of spraying will eliminate the breeding places.

Mr. Weatherman nearly put us all afoot last week when he dished us out that big rain.

A little more of that, and we'll all leave the autos in the garage and use our lower extremities as a means of motivation.

Very few of Munday's streets are paved, as yet, and very few of the unpaved streets can be traveled.

Here our paving crew got everything all ready for laying the sand and gravel base, then here comes the rain.

All our streets that are to be paved have been standing curb deep in water. And many of the cars that have been mired down in this muck.

If it hadn't been for the wreckers, the jeeps, the ammunition haulers and other types of mud-splitting vehicles which local citizens have converted to civilian use, we motorists would have been in terrible shape.

But we'll have paving one of these days, and such experiences as we've had during the past week will make us appreciate the paving all the more.

Munday had all the county waiting on her last Saturday night. They were waiting, and phoning and getting impatient.

The reason was our slowness in getting election returns in from our two voting boxes.

Benjamin called. Knox City called. Goree called. All voting boxes in the county had reported except Munday.

We lost our election party crowds before our returns could be posted. Our people had given up and gone home and to bed. Those working at the voting boxes wanted to get to bed, too, but they had to complete their job.

It was a big ballot, which slowed down the count considerably, which brings out the fact that we need means of speeding up the ballot count in our elections.

We're not minimizing the efforts of any of our election officials or their helpers, because they did a good job and just as fast a job as accuracy would permit.

To our mind, we need more tally clerks next time we hold a big election. Two callers and two sets of tally clerks would make the counting twice as fast, then all could get through and go home soon after the polls closed.

Some of our candidates are happy over being elected; some are still in the running and bidding for your vote in the August primary; some have taken the sorrowful journey up Salt Creek. So it goes with every election.

To our mind, it was a quiet election here in our town. No one seemed to be pulling strong for any certain candidate; some were too busy to vote, while some didn't seem to care enough to get out in the heat and vote.

But we'll have another election in August, and a big one in November. See you at the polls, then.

County Shows Heavy Vote In First Primary

Several Offices To Change Hands On January First

The heat of the campaign was over, but weather heat was "pouring it on" last Saturday as Knox county voters trekked to the polls some 2536 strong to make their choice of office holders for the next two years.

There was not a great deal of interest upon the part of local voters, although the vote was rather heavy in the county. The outcome of state races have been compiled in a state-wide count by the Texas Election Bureau, and here's how the county voted in other races:

Congressman Ed Gossett carried the county by a wide margin over his opponent, Mrs. Edith Wilms of Jack county.

John E. Morrison, Jr., and Rex E. Sullivan, Jr., both of Hardeman county, made a close race in Knox county in their race for state representative. According to the count received in Munday, Morrison received 1161 votes to 1009 for Sullivan. Reports coming from Hardeman county are that Morrison was elected by around 200 votes.

Lewis M. Williams was returned as judge of the 50th Judicial District without opposition, and the same was the case of District Attorney Joe Reeder, Jr.

J. B. Eubank, Jr., of Truscott won over Wm. Griffith, county judge. The vote was 1499 to 998.

J. C. Patterson defeated the incumbent, James A. Stephens for county attorney by a vote of 1542 to 989.

Mrs. Opal Harrison Logan was elected district clerk without opposition.

M. T. Chamberlain was re-elected county clerk by a vote of 1996 to 599 received by J. A. Wilson.

Homey T. Melton was elected to a second term as sheriff over L. C. Floyd. The vote was 1520 to 1016.

M. A. Bumpas, Jr., was elected tax assessor and collector for a second term. He had no opposition.

W. F. Snody was re-elected to county treasurer by receiving 1675 votes to 792 received by Denzil Fitzgerald of Goree.

In the race for commissioner of Precinct Four, the incumbent George Nix was re-elected over both his opponents, Dave Jetton and Otis Simpson.

A runoff will be necessary for commissioner of Precinct 2, between L. A. Parker and J. O. Warren. Other two candidates in this race were Emmett R. Richards and Lee Snaulim.

C. A. Bullion was re-elected in precinct three over two opponents, G. E. Ryder and E. D. Welch.

O. L. Knight was re-elected without opposition in Precinct 1.

There will be a runoff in the race for constable of Precinct No. 6, Munday, between the incumbent E. J. Cude and R. F. Horan. J. R. Counts was the third candidate.

Seymour Rodeo Opens Wednesday

Seymour—The Seymour Rodeo began Wednesday at the Old Settlers Reunion at the city park. A large number of old settlers attended, both locally and from a distance, and there were many happy reunions of old friends.

The rodeo events began Wednesday night, and will continue with night performances only, until after the Saturday night performance. Parades are held each evening prior to the show, with the Grand Entry at 8:00 o'clock. Dances are held each evening after the show.

The rodeo events are the best possible in that line, with the cattle and bucking bronchos the wildest in the game. Ninety-five contestants have signed up, including a large number of sponsors from neighboring towns.

The program is pepped up by a system unique in the Seymour Rodeo. The events are held on the football gridiron which has a heavy turf of Bermuda grass. The arena is divided by a heavy fence, and as quickly an event has been finished on one side, another begins on the other side. Maybe two at a time.

Many of the visiting cowboys are camped on the spacious grounds of the Seymour Park.

Music is provided by the Seymour High School Band, and there are two events each evening put on by the Gainesville Community Circus.

O. C. HARRISON
For Publicity Committee.

Joe Bob Stevens spent the first of this week in Abilene, where he attended the convention of the West Texas Ginners Association.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Smith, Jr., and little son, Art, spent the first of this week in Temple, where Art underwent medical treatment.

Last Rites For C. H. Mullican Held Friday

Last rites for C. H. Mullican were held from the family home in Munday at three o'clock Friday afternoon, July 23. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Wm. G. Barr, pastor of the Munday Methodist church.

Mr. Mullican passed away on Thursday, July 22, at the Knox county hospital, where he had been taken for treatment several days earlier. Death was attributed to a kidney infection.

Charles Harper Mullican was born March 11, 1869, and passed away at the age of 79 years, four months and 11 days. He was residing in Knox county for many years. Surviving him are his wife, Mrs. Ida Mullican of Munday; three children, Emery Mullican and Dee Mullican, both of Munday, and Mrs. C. E. Broer of Houston; eight grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren; two half-brothers, Dick Cook of Knox City and Jim Davidson of California.

Burial was in the Johnson cemetery, with the Mahan Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Pallbearers were R. T. Morrow, Boyd Meers, Elmer Cude, John Fruehwirth, Grady Howry and Ed Johnson.

Cover Crop Needs Given

Conservation needs surveys recently completed by county agricultural conservation committees indicate that 110 million acres of cover and green manure crops are needed annually to protect the cropland in the United States from erosion. About 25 million, or less than a fourth, of the acreage needed has been in cover and green manure in a peak year under the Agricultural Conservation Program.

Emmett Partridge, Chairman of the Knox County Agricultural Conservation Committee, explains that these cover crops are especially needed in the South to protect the land when it is not growing cotton or other tilled crops. Land left unprotected is open to the barrage of heavy rains with resulting runoff.

With no vegetation to break the fall of the rain drops, the surface of the land is broken up and is carried away with the water. And no roots in the soil to hold the particles of earth together, the soil washes away more readily.

The plowing under of green manure adds humus to the soil. This makes the soil porous and more water percolates down into the soil instead of running off—taking the surface with it. Humus adds plant food to the soil and the resulting increased plant growth in turn holds the soil.

Mr. Partridge urged farmers to consider green manure and cover crops as measures to help hold their soil as well as to increase production of crops.

Morrison Wins By Close Margin For Representative

Upon the basis of unofficial returns, John E. (Jack) Morrison, Jr. of Chillicothe has been elected state representative for the 114th district by a close margin. Rex Sullivan, Jr., of Quanah was the other candidate.

It was learned here Wednesday that Morrison held a lead of about 235 votes, with one small box in the district yet unaccounted for. Morrison will succeed Claude Callaway of Crowell to this post. Callaway was not a candidate for re-election.

Mr. and Mrs. Troy Warren of Wink spent a week of their vacation with Mr. Warren's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Warren and with Mrs. Warren's mother, Mrs. U. S. Rogers, and with other relatives and friends.

Sproles Infants Pass Away Early Thursday Morning

Dolan and Nolan Sproles, twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Foy Sproles of Munday, passed away early Thursday morning at the Knox county hospital, where they had been taken for treatment for diphtheria.

The twins were born at Hearn, Texas, on June 10, 1948, and were 48 days of age. The family had been living in this county only a short while.

Funeral services were slated for three o'clock Thursday afternoon at the Mahan Funeral Home, to be conducted by Minister D. L. Ashley of the Church of Christ. Burial will be in Johnson cemetery.

Mrs. Lula McElyea has returned home from Sherman, Texas, after spending some time in the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Pace. She has been caring for her daughter, who has had a long period of illness.

MILWAUKEE—The ancient sweep-power and thresher pictured above will play featured roles at the Wisconsin Centennial Exposition where they will join other historic machines and methods in a pageant dramatizing 5,000 years of agricultural history. These machines and others dating back more than a century, will demonstrate changing threshing methods from pioneer times to the present. Entitled the "March of Machines", the pageant is being presented by the J. I. Case Company. It will re-enact actual threshing methods beginning with flailing and treading, as practiced from Biblical times until a century ago, and culminating with the combine of today. The "March of Machines" is a feature of the opening week of the Centennial Exposition to be held at State Fair Park, Milwaukee, August 8 through 14.

Gravel Being Laid On Streets To Be Paved

Rains during the past week have caused another delay in the paving of Munday's streets, but this work has been resumed this week.

The gravel base is being laid on a portion of the streets to be paved, while excavation work is under way on others, preparing them for the gravel base.

Gravel work was started at the north end of Munday Avenue, and it is likely this street will be completed first. Portions of the street was curb high in water the latter part of last week. The water was pumped out so the street would dry out quicker.

The paving project is expected to be rushed to completion, and it won't be long until some of our streets will be "hard topped".

Harold P. Green Is Taking Part In Atomic Experiment

Harold Preston Green, seaman USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Green of Munday, Texas, is serving aboard the destroyer escort USS Spargler, one of the many ships that made up a joint task force of nearly 10,000 Army, Navy, Air Force men and civilian scientists, that participated in the Atomic Energy experiments held recently at Eniwetok Atoll in the Pacific.

At the conclusion of the tests, the scientists announced the task force successfully proved the post-war theories, methods and ideas developed at the Atomic Energy Commission's Scientific Laboratory at Los Alamos, California.

Parker And Warren Enter Runoff For Commissioner

The August primary will find the names of L. A. Parker, incumbent, and J. O. Warren in the runoff for Commissioner of Precinct No. 2 in Knox County.

Four men were in this race, and returns from Leroy Melton of Benjamin shows the vote as follows:

J. O. Warren, 108; Lee Snaulim, 90; Emmett G. Richards, 93; L. A. Parker, 245.

In the Precinct 3 commissioner's race, returns show that C. A. Bullion was re-elected without a runoff. The vote: Bullion, 193; G. E. Ryder, 47; E. D. Welch, 84.

Be careful! Observe our state and local traffic laws.

The above tabulation is as reported to the Munday election board by election judges and other election boards. The figures are believed to be fairly correct, although they will vary some from the official count. Some boxes did not report locally in the congressional race.

W. V. Tiner, Druggist Here For Sixteen Years, Succumbs Saturday

Miss Spiegelmirre To Teach Music In N.T.A.C., Arlington

Miss Louise Spiegelmirre was recently named assistant professor of music in North Texas Agricultural College, Arlington. She went to Arlington some ten days ago to accept the position. She will take up her duties around September 1.

Miss Spiegelmirre is spending the summer in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Haymes. She has visited here on many occasions and is known to many local people. She has been working on her master's degree at T.C.U., Fort Worth, and will receive her degree in January.

Thomas A. Spele Buried On Thursday At Frederick, Okla.

Funeral services were held at the First Methodist church in Frederick, Okla., last Thursday afternoon at three o'clock for Thomas Avery Spele of Oklahoma City, who passed away in the Frederick hospital late Tuesday, July 20, as a result of a heart attack.

Rev. Thomas Talley, pastor of the Frederick church, was in charge of the services. Interment was made in the Frederick cemetery, with the Masonic order officiating at the grave side.

Mr. Spele was born May 14, 1891, in Fanning county, Texas, where he was reared. He was married to Miss Georgia Griffin of Randlett, Okla., and had made his home in Oklahoma City since 1914.

He was a member of the First Christian church in Oklahoma City and Oklahoma City Lodge No. 36, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons.

Survivors include his widow; a daughter, Mrs. H. G. McDonald; two grand children, all of Frederick; three brothers, W. P. and Ardell Spele of Munday, and D. C. Spele of Yuma, Ariz., and a number of nieces and nephews.

Committee On Bob Baskin Dam Project Named

At a recent meeting of the Seymour Dam Organization at Haskell, the name of this project was changed to the Bob Baskin Dam of the Brazos River.

John A. Couch of Haskell was appointed chairman of the organization, with Ralph Duncan of Haskell as secretary. The following executive committee was elected: Seymour—O. C. Harrison and Joe A. Wheat.

Haskell—Courtney Hunt, John A. Couch, Ralph Duncan, Olen Dotson, A. C. Pierson and Sam A. Roberts.

Rain Brings Crop Damage In Part Of County

Additional rainfall here during the past week has brought crop damage to parts of the county and caused many of Munday's streets to become impassable for several days.

Heavy rain clouds brought better than two inches to Munday last Thursday night, while a near cloudburst west of town brought a deluge of around five inches, according to reports. Farm land was washed, and many terraces were broken by the heavy rain. Some crop damage was reported, also.

Another shower on Sunday night brought Munday an additional .15 of an inch. This brings the year's total above that of last year, according to H. P. Hill, local U. S. weather observer. Total rainfall to date this year is 15.99 inches, as compared with 13.76 for the same period in 1947.

The community was shocked to learn of the death of W. V. Tiner, Munday druggist for 16 years, who passed away at 7:30 o'clock Saturday evening at the Knox county hospital. Mr. Tiner suffered a stroke about twelve hours earlier, as he was opening his place of business for the day.

Mr. Tiner left home apparently in good health, having rested well Friday night and enjoyed a good breakfast Saturday morning. As he opened the Tiner Drug for the day, he complained to his first customer, a local colored boy, that he had dizzy headache. He was found in a critical condition by Mrs. Henry Decker as she delivered milk to the store.

He was rushed to the hospital, where he received every medical care, but he never regained consciousness.

Walter Vinton Tiner, Sr., was born at Sutherland Springs, Texas, on September 17, 1886, and passed away July 24, 1948, at the age of 61 years, 10 months and seven days. He grew up in Uvalde, Texas, where he was married to Miss Thelma Crump on June 13, 1916.

Mr. and Mrs. Tiner had both finished high school in Uvalde. Mr. Tiner attended the University of Texas School of Pharmacy in Galveston, after which he

MUNDAY'S NEEDS FOR 1948

1. A modern and up-to-date high school building, to care for the present and future educational needs of our children.
2. A waterworks system that meets all requirements of health, sanitation and supply.
3. A street sweeper that will keep our pavement clean enough to be recognized as pavement.
5. Completion of our drainage and paving program, which will probably be accomplished this year.

SUPPLY AND DEMAND BEST REGULATOR

Those who wonder why meat prices have reached present levels will find food for thought in an editorial by Nelson R. Crow, publisher of the Western Livestock Journal.

"Stockman generally are taking a sober view of the price situation," he wrote. "There are few who are particularly elated about the relatively high prices being paid on the markets for fat cattle, and it must be admitted that the cost of replacement cattle is rather frightening. . . ."

"Actually, stockmen have little or no voice in establishing the prices they receive for their livestock, nor do they have anything to say about the retail prices of meat. These prices are established by the old laws of supply and demand. As a matter of fact, retail meat prices are established by the consumer, and are based upon the ability and the willingness of the consumer to buy the supply of meat that is available. Buying power, reflected through high consumer income as a result of the successful demands for higher and higher wages, is at an all-time high."

What is true of stockmen is true along the meat processing and distribution line. The packers, for instance, do not control prices. They too are governed by the laws of supply and demand, and the profit they earn amounts to but a fraction of a cent per pound of the price paid for meat by consumers. And the retailer, finally, performs the last step in bringing meat to the home at a profit per pound as to hardly affect the selling price.

In a competitive economy prices and supply find their natural level, and profits per dollar sale, after taxes, are always moderate. Meat is a typical example.

COUNT OUR BLESSINGS

No place in the world is more healthy to live in than the United States. And if you get sick no place offers better, and few as good, doctor and medical service for all.

Commenting on this great advantage, Dr. R. L. Sensenich says: "Men live in the United States in good health to a greater average age than ever before in the history of any nation." This he attributed to the "spirit of progress of American medicine" exemplified by "the opportunity of the individual physician to congress to greater scientific attainments and better medical service, free from the deteriorating influence of government political control."

Social and political groups now advocating foreign medical plans for the United States can better devote their energies toward expanding our present

COTTON LOOKS AHEAD

The outlook for cotton and the farmer this season is bright in most sections of the Cotton Belt. There is every indication that production will show an increase and that farm selling prices will be satisfactory.

But of greater importance in the long run is the fact that the twelve million people who make up the cotton industry are looking ahead. Over the past ten years, the farmers, ginners, warehousemen, merchants, spinners, and cottonseed crushers have united in increasing numbers behind the banner of the National Cotton Council to fight for increased cotton and cottonseed consumption.

Cotton's gains during this period have been many. The fiber which was once considered suitable only for kitchen dresses is now at the pinnacle of the important fashion market. There has been a steady growth of cotton usage in many key industrial markets. Inroads of other fibers in contested markets have been slowed, halted, or reversed.

The unity of action achieved by the diverse forces of the cotton industry through the central organization of the National Cotton Council can be credited heavily with cotton's achievements and the brightness of cotton's future. But there will be need for even greater effort during the period of fierce competition immediately ahead if future cotton prosperity is to be assured.

The Cotton Council currently is in the midst of its annual campaign for full support of the cotton men of this county and state. In view of benefits received, the ten cents per bale asked of farmers and the proportionate contributions set for other branches of the industry are such tremendous bargains that participation in the Council program in this and other cotton-producing areas should be immediate and complete.

The latest member of the Jeep family is Willys-Overland's newly unveiled sports phaeton, the Jeepster. Styled in the continental fashion, the car is a glamorous, smooth-riding descendant of its rugged forbear and is one of the first full-sized light cars to appear on the market. It is powered by the Jeep engine, and has independent front wheel suspension. The Jeepster weighs only 2500 pounds, gives as much as 29 miles to a gallon and has a low center of gravity for roadability. Willys-Overland calls it "a sun car built for fun."

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION

proposing an Amendment of Section 1-a of Article VIII of the Constitution of Texas to provide that no ad valorem tax shall be levied for State general revenue purposes after January 1, 1951, and authorizing the several counties to levy additional ad valorem taxes for certain purposes, providing for a Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) residential homestead exemption, and providing for tax levies in counties having tax donations; providing for submission to the qualified electors and for the necessary proclamation by the Governor.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 1-a of Article VIII of the Constitution be amended so as to be and read as follows:

"Section 1-a. From and after January 1, 1951, no State ad valorem tax shall be levied upon any property within this State for general revenue purposes. From and after January 1, 1951, the several counties of the State are authorized to levy ad valorem taxes upon all property within their respective boundaries for county purposes, except the first Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) value of residential homesteads, not to exceed thirty cents (30c) on each One Hundred Dollars ($100) valuation, in addition to all other ad valorem taxes authorized by the Constitution of this State, provided the revenue derived therefrom shall be used for construction and maintenance of Farm to Market Roads or for Flood Control, except as herein otherwise provided.

"Provided that in those counties or political subdivisions or areas of the State from which tax donations have heretofore been granted, the State Automatic Tax Board shall continue to levy the full amount of the State ad valorem tax for the duration of such donation, or until all legal obligations heretofore authorized by the law granting such donation or donations shall have been fully discharged, whichever shall first occur; provided that if such donation to any such county or political subdivision is for less than the full amount of State ad valorem taxes so levied, the portion of such taxes remaining over and above such donation shall be retained by said county or subdivision."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held on the date fixed by law for the General Election in November, A. D. 1948, at which all ballots shall have printed thereon "FOR the Constitutional Amendment of Section 1-a of Article VIII of the Constitution of the State of Texas to provide that no ad valorem tax shall be levied for State general revenue purposes after January 1, 1951, and authorizing the several counties to levy additional ad valorem taxes, providing for a Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) residential homestead exemption, and providing for tax levies in counties having tax donations," and "AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment of Section 1-a of Article VIII of the Constitution of the State of Texas to provide that no ad valorem tax shall be levied for State general revenue purposes after January 1, 1951, and authorizing the several counties to levy additional ad valorem taxes, providing for a Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) residential homestead exemption, and providing for tax levies in counties having tax donations." Each voter shall scratch out one of said clauses on the ballot, leaving the one expressing his vote on the proposed Amendment. In counties or other subdivisions using voting machines, the above provision for voting for and against this Constitutional Amendment shall be placed on said machine in such a manner that each voter shall vote on such machine for or against the Constitutional Amendment.

Sec. 3. The Governor shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have the same published as required by the Constitution and Laws of this State.

Legal Notice

CITATION BY PUBLICATION
THE STATE OF TEXAS
TO: Irene May Crouch, Defendant,
Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to appear before the Honorable District Court of Knox County at the Court House thereof, in Benjamin, Texas, at or before 10 o'clock A. M. of the first Monday next after the expiration of forty-two days from the date of the issuance of this citation, same being the 6th day of September A. D. 1948, then and there to answer Plaintiff's Petition filed in said Court, on the 26 day of May A. D. 1948, in this cause, numbered 4655 on the docket of said court and styled George Crouch Plaintiff, vs. Irene May Crouch Defendant.

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, to wit: Suit for divorce, the plaintiff alleging statutory residence requirements of the plaintiff and date of marriage and separation of the plaintiff and defendant, and that defendant has been guilty of cruel treatment of plaintiff of such a nature as to render their further living together insupportable. That plaintiff and defendant have one child in the person of Barbara Ann Crouch and that they have no community property. Plaintiff prays judgement of divorce from the defendant, etc. as is more fully shown by Plaintiff's Petition on file in this suit.

The officer executing this process shall promptly execute the same according to law, and make due return as the law directs.

Issued and given under my hand and the Seal of said Court, at office in Benjamin, Texas, this 21st day of July A. D. 1948.

Attest:
Opal Harrison, Clerk,
District Court, Knox County,

Knox Prairie Philosopher Takes A Philosophic View Of The Plight The Democrats Find Themselves In

Editor's note: The Knox Prairie Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Miller Creek doesn't seem very worried about the national political situation, his letter this week reveals.
Dear editor:
My neighbor out here has been mighty low the past few days, sayin' it's all up for the Democrats and we're in for Republicans and an eventual depression, but I don't take that view, since my radio played out and I didn't get to listen to the national Conventions and consequently have an open mind on the matter.

J. A.

Now I'm aware that the Republicans is already convinced they've got the election won and I understand the Dewey children is invitin' their playmates to visit em in the White House in January, but I figure we'll go ahead and hold the election anyway.
And also, I notice some Republicans is beginnin' to sweat a little after President Truman called em back into session with the suggestion if they've got the solution to inflation and world peace and the high price of groceries and a lack of cars and houses, now's as good a time as any to put it into effect, no use waitin' six months until next January to do it, although I got a idea Truman is gonna have as hard a time gettin' the Republican Congress to start solvin' problems as I been havin' gettin' candidates to tell me exactly where they're gonna build country roads, and I suppose his plan is a little unAmerican, as the custom always has been to run like h... on generalities and promises and go light on being specific, don't make no difference whether you're runnin' for constable or president.

However, I been reassurin' my neighbor. There ain't no use in frettin' and worryin'. If I was gonna plant a crop next year, I'd go ahead and plan on it. After all, the Democrats has been in for sixteen years, which is about as long a stretch as they've ever had, and if the time has come for the Republicans to win, the country has stood it before. That's one thing I like about this country; we have about the same number of boll weevils under the Republicans as the Democrats. If the boll weevils can stand it, you and me might as well get ready to do it too.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

H. J. R. No. 13
HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION
amending Section 15 of Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas, by adding thereto a provision that the husband and wife from time to time may in writing partition between themselves in severalty or into undivided interests all or any part of their community property, whereupon without prejudice to the right of existing creditors the portion or interest set aside to each spouse shall be and constitute a part of the separate property of such spouse, further providing that such Constitutional Amendment if adopted shall be self-operative and self-executing; providing for the submission of this Amendment to the voters of this State; prescribing the form of ballot; providing for the proclamation and publication thereof.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 15 of Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to read as follows:

"Section 15. All property, both real and personal, of the wife, owned or claimed by her before marriage, and that acquired afterward by gift, devise or descent, shall be the separate property of the wife; and laws shall be passed more clearly defining the rights of the wife, in relation as well to her separate property as that held in common with her husband; provided that husband and wife, without prejudice to pre-existing creditors, may from time to time by written instrument as if the wife were a feme sole partition between themselves in severalty or into equal undivided interests all or any part of their existing community property, or exchange between themselves the community interest of one spouse in any property for the community interest of the other spouse in other community property, whereupon the portion or interest set aside to each spouse shall be and constitute a part of the separate property of such spouse.

This Amendment is self-operative, but laws may be passed prescribing requirements as to the form and manner of execution of such instruments, and providing for their recordation, and for such other reasonable requirements not inconsistent herewith as the Legislature may from time to time consider proper with relation to the subject of this Amendment. Should the Legislature pass an Act dealing with the subject of this Amendment and prescribing requirements as to the form and manner of the execution of such instruments and providing for their recordation and other reasonable requirements not inconsistent herewith and anticipatory hereto, such Act shall not be invalid by reason of its anticipatory character and shall take effect just as though this Constitutional Amendment was in effect when the Act was passed."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of the State of Texas at an election to be held throughout the State on the second day of November, 1948, at which election all voters favoring said proposed Amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words: "FOR the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas providing that husband and wife from time to time may in writing partition between themselves in severalty or into undivided interests community property existing at the time of partition so as to convert same into separate property of the respective spouses without prejudice to the rights of pre-existing creditors."

Those opposing said proposed Amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words:

"AGAINST the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas providing that husband and wife from time to time may in writing partition between themselves in severalty or into undivided interests community property existing at the time of partition so as to convert same into separate property of the respective spouses without prejudice to the rights of pre-existing creditors."

Sec. 3. The Governor of the State of Texas is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have same published as required by the Constitution for amendments thereto.

Pierce, Mrs. P. H. Pierce and children, Benjamin, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Foshee, and Mr. and Mrs. M. B. James and family of Knox City.

Picnic lunches and swimming were enjoyed throughout the day. It was decided to meet each year for the reunion.

The children are: Mrs. J. P. Pierce, Munday, J. B. Parris, Frederick, Okla., Bill, George, Bryan and Posey Parris all of Grandfield, Okla. and Mrs. J. J. Foshee of Knox City.

Be careful! Observe our state and local traffic laws.

CORRECTION

In the story of the funeral of Mrs. F. E. Jetton last week, it was stated that she was born at Midlothian, Dallas county. This should have been Ellis county.

Also Rev. W. G. Barr of Munday and Rev. S. E. Stevenson of Goree assisted at the funeral. These two names were left out through error.

CARD OF THANKS

Words cannot express my appreciation of the many cards, letters and flowers I received while in the hospital and also the ones who visited me. My God bless each and everyone.

So This is HOUSEKEEPING

"I'm convinced that for a time Dad merely thought of my husband as 'the nice young man' his daughter had married. But a can of paint finally made Dad see what a smart mate I've corralled."

One Sunday afternoon Dad began his favorite lament about the house again needing painting and the fact that he wouldn't pay so-called "high prices" for paint.

"That's where you're making your big mistake," jumped in my spouse.

Then the pride of the Stuarts really dressed Dad down. He pointed out that cheap house paint, by not standing up well, costs far more money in the long run. He maintained that really good paint is inexpensive insurance.

Well, Dad sputtered a bit, then stoutly declared that since the war sufficient good paint couldn't be had.

"Not according to the world's largest manufacturer of paint," says my best beau. "And you'd be surprised at the improvements they've made to give a longer-lasting, better-appearing paint job than ever before."

A few days later I discovered Dad had been checking up on a few things.

"Speaking of improvements in certain paints," he began, "chalking is a good example." For my benefit he explained that chalking provides a self-cleaning feature in good paint. The chalk with clinging dirt and dust is gradually washed away during rainfalls. It seems that in the new Sherwin-Williams paint, chalking is rigidly controlled to prevent wearing down too quickly. This control provides an extra year of fresh appearance for a paint job.

Dad got excited too, about a new control of oil penetration. He explained that a method had been found to prevent vital oil from soaking into the wood. Through a new process, developed by Sherwin-Williams, much of the oil is held in the paint film to make a better-looking, more durable film with fewer brush marks and more uniform thickness.

Until we have our own home to paint, I consider SWP has done enough for me: I overheard Dad telling one of his friends, "That new son of mine—good head on his shoulders!"

Sunstroke, which results from being out in the sun too long, may be avoided by keeping the head covered with a broad-brimmed hat and by covering the body with loose-fitting comfortable clothing.

Colored Veterans Class Has Birthday Social Friday

The "Social Club" of the colored veterans vocational class held their regular monthly social last Friday night. This was an extra special occasion, since the colored veterans were celebrating the first anniversary of the organization of this class. A huge birthday cake with one tiny candle decorated the head banquet table.

Between 35 and 40 white people were invited to this event, as the colored people showed their appreciation to those who had been instrumental in getting the class started. Visitors included members of the Knox County Vocational School and friends of the veterans classes.

Upon arrival, the visitors were shown through the shops, where various types of furniture repair work was being done. Each complimented favorably upon the training these veterans were receiving.

Then they were invited to the banquet rooms, in the colored school building, where a delicious meal of barbecued beef, potato salad, beans, pickles, onions, cold lemonade, ice cream and the birthday cake was served.

The meal was prepared under the supervision of Howard (Shorty) Hendrix. Just before the program of eating started, Shorty announced that J. A. Jolly, former county co-ordinator, was toastmaster and "the house was in his hands".

Well, Mr. Jolly did a jam-up good job, as he called on various people for short speeches. Among them were Mr. Stevens and Mr. Kelly of the Veterans Administration of Lubbock, Supt. W. C. Cox, Lee Haymes, Bruce Campbell of Knox City; E. C. St. Clair, county co-ordinator; Aaron Edgar; John Inman, class instructor; then Shorty Hendrix completed the program by making a short speech himself.

It was a good benquet and a nice program. A good time was had by all, white and colored, too.

New Weapons For Farmers in Bout Against Weevil

farmers have available in 1948 more weapons to fight the boll weevil and other cotton insects than ever before.

Long and careful studies by state experiments and the federal government have now proved conclusively the values of benzene hexachloride, chlorinated camphene, and DDT. Chlordane is in the final experimental stages. Calcium arsenate continues to be recommended in most areas.

Unquestionably the cotton farmer has poisons available which will help him cut to a new low the portion of his crop eaten by the boll weevil and his buddies.

The National Cotton Council recommends that farmers in areas where severe infestation seems likely keep on hand sufficient poison for at least one application.

The proper poison for local use will vary with the different sections of the Belt and with the particular insect damaging the crop. Complete information on recommended insecticides is available from every county agent and vocational agriculture teacher in the cotton states.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Dr. Geo. W. Cox
M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

Austin—With the report of 77 new cases of chicken pox, 11 cases of diphtheria, 320 of measles, 75 cases of polio, and 199 cases of whopping cough occurring in the state in the week between July 10-17, Dr. George W. Cox, State Health Officer, has made an appeal to all parents to have their children undergo a thorough physical examination before entering school next month.

The appeal was made to coincide with the announcements of the various opening dates of schools throughout the state.

"It is a medically established fact that a child's health has a direct bearing on his progress in school," the health officer said. "It is no longer sufficient to provide the child with books and new fall clothing. Today we realize the health factor must be considered if the child is to reach his optimum level."

Dr. Cox said that since the child spends most of his time indoors with large groups of children, it is imperative that he be immunized against communicable diseases when such protection is possible. The spread of such diseases is facilitated in constricted classrooms.

He said the examination should include a dental check-up and inspection of eyes, ears, nose and throat. The best health insurance for any child is constant supervision by the family physician and dentist.

Vet's Family On Rocks; Wife Wins $2,000 Story Contest

Two thousand dollars isn't all the money in the world, but when you and your war veteran husband have just gone on the rocks in a venture financed by a GI loan, have a young son to support, and very little income, it seems just about as unattainable as all the money ever issued.

But Fortune reserved her most dazzling smile for Mrs. Barbara Turner of Bridgton, Maine, by dropping a $2,000 check in her lap just when the Turner fortunes were at their lowest ebb.

Not only that, but the check itself was a virtual assurance that the lucrative life of a successful writer lies ahead for the comely Mrs. Turner. It happened this way.

Last March, Cosmopolitan magazine launched a Dark Goddess contest, offering a top prize of $2,000 for the best short story inspired by a rather enigmatic illustration in the magazine. Entries were to be in by June 1, 1948.

Approximately 6,000 manuscripts were submitted by aspiring writers from every state in this country, every country in Europe, from South Africa, South America, Canada, Egypt, India and China.

On June 12 the editors of Cosmopolitan agreed that they could not choose between two stories, one submitted by Mrs. Turner, and one by Pendleton Hogan, a professional writer of Washington, D. C. They decided each should get a $2,000 award.

Mrs. Turner was busily engaged in her Bridgton home on a rainy June afternoon writing another of the countless manuscripts which always came back with a rejection slip, when her telephone rang. It was a long-distance call from Dale Eunson, fiction editor of Cosmopolitan, advising her she had won the $2,000 prize.

"I wh-what?" she gasped when she was told she had won the prize. Then after another series of gasps between visions of paid-up bills at the local stores, with something left over in the Turner bank account, she exclaimed; "I'm overwhelmed."

And well she might have been for her entry in the contest was merely another desperate shot-in-the-dark trying to sell a magazine story at which she had failed consistently for years. When she recovered herself sufficiently to talk coherently, she said;

"I am still in a terrific daze from learning I won the Dark Goddess contest. My husband and I recently lost our shirts in a resort and hotel venture financed by a G. I. loan. He has been trying to pull us up by our bootstraps as a representative of a farm equipment wholesaler but the going has been tough. The prize money will erase the red ink from the Turner ledgers, but more important is the fact that winning the prize has given me the confidence to go on writing, and I'm certain I will be a success."

drought years in the Plains. Another period of very low farm prices will almost certainly be accompanied by serious soil erosion.

"One cannot, or should not, try to stop erosion, but rather to control it. On the other hand, some of the erosion least conspicuous to the casual observer is the most harmful.

"In fact, the most serious erosion injuries to the soil are not chemical, not the loss of plant nutrients, but the change in the structure, the loss of crumblike surface horizons and the exposure of massive clays, hardpans, or even solid rock.

"Generally, when a rural population becomes poverty-stricken, it fails to maintain its soil. An exploited people pass on their suffering to the land."

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fetsch and son and Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Fetsch were in Pep and Morton last week visiting with friends and relatives.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH
Wm. G. Barr, Minister
Services at the First Methodist Church Sunday will begin at 10:00 o'clock with the regular session of the Sunday school. Joel Masey is Gen. Supt.

The morning church services will begin at 10:55 a. m. A special worship program is being planned. The Choir will sing. Mrs. Oscar Spann will direct and Janie Spann will be pianist. The Pastor, Rev. Wm. G. Barr, will be in charge and will administer Holy Communion.

All evening services at the church will be dismissed, the Pastor announces. This is done in order that our people may attend the revival services being conducted at the First Baptist Church here.

Revival To Begin At Vera Sunday

Rev. R. O. Sullivan, pastor, has announced a revival meeting at the Vera Baptist church, which will open on Sunday, August 1. The meeting will continue through Sunday, August 15.

Rev. W. D. Green of Hermleigh, Texas, a well known evangelist of this denomination, will do the preaching for this revival. Song services will be under the direction of Rev. Sullivan.

The public is extended a cordial invitation to attend each and every service.

Miss Christine Burton, who underwent surgery at the Knox county hospital on Wednesday of last week, returned home Wednesday. She is reported to be doing nicely.

Be careful! Observe our state and local traffic laws.

J. C. Patterson Thanks The Voters

To The Voters Of Knox County:

I wish to express my thanks for the confidence shown in me by the returns of the election held July 24, 1948.

It will be my aim to conduct the affairs of this office in such a manner as not to cause you to lose the respect which you have just manifested.

I realize that in the enforcement of the laws of this county, that at times you have to prosecute friend as well as foe, and in doing this, I shall ever have in mind to temper justice with mercy.

Respectfully submitted,
J. C. PATTERSON. 1tp.

WHAT ABOUT EROSION?

In a recent article under the title "Conflicting Doctrines About Soils" Charles E. Kellogg, Chief, Division of Soil Survey in USDA's Bureau of Plant Industry, Soils and Agricultural Engineering, clears up some misunderstandings about erosion. He draws the distinction between natural, or geological erosion, and the erosion caused by man's activities.

He says: "Excessive erosion—accelerated soil erosion—is a serious problem in parts of our own country and in many other places in the world. Like other soil problems it has been long neglected and it demands attention. Unless farmers are careful there will be bad soil blowing again during the drought years in the Plains. Another period of very low farm prices will almost certainly be accompanied by serious soil erosion.

"One cannot, or should not, try to stop erosion, but rather to control it. On the other hand, some of the erosion least conspicuous to the casual observer is the most harmful.

"In fact, the most serious erosion injuries to the soil are not chemical, not the loss of plant nutrients, but the change in the structure, the loss of crumblike surface horizons and the exposure of massive clays, hardpans, or even solid rock.

"Generally, when a rural population becomes poverty-stricken, it fails to maintain its soil. An exploited people pass on their suffering to the land."

Winter Legumes Planted In Fall Are Aids To Soil

Now is the time to be thinking about legume seed to plant this fall. There is a scarcity of hairy vetch seed because of the extreme drought of last fall, and it may be necessary to obtain your seed from out of state. The prices of the seed will rise as demand for the seed picks up. It would be wise to get the seed and have it on hand for that first good rain in September. With the moisture in the soil such as we have at present, and if we receive additional moisture at seeding time, this fall should be an excellent season for winter legumes.

Winter legumes will prevent wind erosion on sandy or mixed land subject to blowing such as this last spring. Hairy vetch or peas should be planted in the cotton rows at least by October, and should not interfere with the cotton yield if planted correctly. The cotton should respond to these soil conservation crops especially if super phosphate is applied at seeding time. A rotation of legumes, maize, and cotton should pay big dividends for cotton farmers. Cooperators of the Wichita-Brazos Soil Conservation District report increased yields and stable soil with no wind erosion after placing winter legumes in their rotations. Technicians of the Soil

Hot weather is no time to fuss about meals. Introduce cool King Neptune Salad with a hot soup, supplement salad and soup with nourishing wheat toast wafers, add iced tea and ice cream and you have a simple evening supper. For the salad, combine one 12-oz. can flaked tuna fish (1 1/2 cups), 3/4 cup diced celery, 1 cup diced cucumber and 1 1/2 tbsps. grated onion. Mix 1 tbsp. lemon juice, 1 1/2 tbsps. catsup, 1/2 cup mayonnaise, add to tuna fish mixture, season with salt and pepper, toss lightly, chill. Wash 6 tomatoes, remove stem, chill. Cut tomatoes into fourths, petal fashion, only about two-thirds, enough to spread petals. Stuff with fish mixture. Serve on crisp salad greens. Serves 6.

Your automatic washer uses up from 20 to 30 gals. of hot water while you are washing for a half hour to an hour. Because of its "quick recovery" an automatic gas water heater keeps well ahead of such increased hot water demands in the home.

Leftover sandwiches can be well wrapped in wax paper and damp towel and put in the refrigerator. Next day take them out, spread with melted butter or margarine and toast under the broiler flame.

Corduroy play clothes and towels need not be ironed when dried in an automatic gas dryer. Just take them out when faintly damp, and smooth with the hands.

The button holes of wool sweaters often stretch during washing. Sew them up before laundering to keep them in their original shape.

Conservation Service assisting the district will help cooperators of the Wichita-Brazos Conservation District report increased yields and stable soil with no wind erosion after placing winter legumes in their rotations. Technicians of the Soil Conservation Service assisting the district will help cooperators in applying these conservation practices to their land. The acreage planted to winter legumes this fall is expected to be larger than ever before.

Eubank Says Thanks, Voters

To The Voters Of Knox County:

I take this means of expressing my sincere thanks and gratitude for the vote and confidence given me in last Saturday's election, a vote which had elected me to serve as your County Judge for the coming two years.

I assure you that I will be found doing my very best to serve you efficiently in this capacity. I intend to carry out my campaign promise to you—that I will make "Precinct Judge", not just a "Precinct Judge". With your help and cooperation, we shall go forward for Knox county.

If at any time I can be of service to you, either officially or personally, just call on me.

Very sincerely,
J. E. EUBANK, JR.

M. T. Chamberlain Thanks The Voters

To The Voters Of Knox County:

I am indeed grateful for the splendid vote which you gave me in the Democratic primary last Saturday and which has elected me to serve you another term as County Clerk of Knox County.

It shall be my policy to serve you the next two years just as courteously as I have tried to do in the past. When I can be of service to you, you have but to call on me.

Very sincerely,
M. T. CHAMBERLAIN.

Veterans' News

Next Saturday, July 31, is the last opportunity for World War II veterans to reinstate lapsed National Service Life Insurance on a "comparative health" basis, VA has announced.

All VA offices in the Dallas Branch Area of Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi will remain open Saturday so that veterans may reinstate under present liberal regulations.

After Saturday, veterans whose insurance has been lapsed more than three months must take physical examinations to qualify as insurable risks.

To reinstate on a comparative health basis, veterans need only fill out a simple application form, in which they certify that their health is as good as when the policy lapsed, and pay premiums for two months to reinstate their NSLI policies.

Eligible veterans may reinstate any amount of term insurance—from $1,000 to $10,000 in multiples of $500—regardless of the length of time it has been lapsed under present liberal regulations.

Questions And Answers
Q. Will the Government deduct money it paid on the guaranteed portion of my loan or the payments made for schooling and subsistence allowance from any future bonus that may be authorized by Congress?
A. No.

Q. May a veteran, who is receiving disability compensation, receive (at the same time) subsistence allowance under the GI Bill?
A. Yes.

Q. I am a World War II veteran and I desire to purchase a car to go to the coast and get a job. Will Veterans Administration guarantee a loan for the purpose?
A. No. VA will guarantee a loan for a car only when the vehicle is to be used for business purposes.

Q. How can I show that my parents are dependent on me for support?
A. Dependency will be held to exist if your parents do not have an income sufficient to provide reasonable maintenance for themselves and members of their family under legal age, or members of the family otherwise dependent by reason of mental or physical condition.

Q. I cashed the compensation check that VA sent me. Does that mean I am satisfied with the rating given me?
A. No. The fact that you cashed the check does not waive any rights you may have in claiming greater compensation or pension than that which was awarded you.

Homer T. Melton Expresses Thanks

To The Voters Of Knox County:
I want to take this means of expressing my sincere thanks to the voters who elected me for a second term as Sheriff of Knox County in last Saturday's primary. I am deeply grateful for your vote of confidence.

I hold no ill will against those who did not see fit to vote for me, and I assure you I'll do my best to serve all the people of the county. My chief aim is to enforce the laws of our county and state without fear or favor, believing that the laws are made for our security and protection. During my second term, I will give you the best service possible.

Sincerely,

The recent finding of oil again at the "ghost town" of Leeray (on the Eastland-Stephens county line) after the spot had been deserted 20 years ago as "played out" reminds me of the time that I started an oil boom at Leeray—probably the shortest oil boom on record. Leeray sprang up about 1919 in a wilderness of wolves and mesquite when oil was struck. The C. & N.E. railroad, building from Cisco to Breckenridge, built through the town, which grew to a population of perhaps 6,000. Then dry holes were hit and the people moved on. The buildings were torn down; piles of rubbish and streets, rapidly being reclaimed by grass and brush, were the only remainders of the one-time boom town.

It was late in 1923 that a friend of mine and I visited the scene. I had in mind writing an article on the "phantom city". My companion had a box camera, which he set up on a tripod, and took pictures. A small brick vault stood all by itself—thousands of dollars had been stored there. The bank building had been torn down but the little vault was considered not worth the trouble of salvaging.

The sun was shining that Saturday but it was a deceptive sunshine, as though it mocked the hopes of which Leeray was the graveyard. The temperature was cold and a strong wind added a penetrating keenness that was almost numbing.

Someone saw the two visitors and assumed that the camera on a tripod was a scientific device of some kind. So the report spread that Leeray was being studied for further oil development. On Monday morning, when the oil company offices in Eastland opened, landowners of the Leeray area were waiting, ready to lease their land. When the official of one company said that he was uninterested, the land-owners went on to another until all the offices had been visited, then they sadly returned home. The oil company officials scratched their heads as they puzzled about the sudden "invasion" of landowners from around Leeray.

And that's how I started an oil boom which lasted from Saturday through Monday.

But like the character in the comic strip who was "born 30 years too soon," I was just ahead of developments by something like 25 years. Leeray is now the scene of a revival of oil activity.

That cold, wind-swept day, I had been walking around on soil under which lay a treasure of deeper oil. Recently, six wells have been drilled in the vicinity—two of them in the townsite itself. In fact, one of these deeper producers is only 200 feet from where that old bank vault stood.

Well, anyhow I have a picture of the vault.

A JOINT RESOLUTION
 proposing an amendment to section 28 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas, so as to provide for a Board for apportioning the state into senatorial districts and representative districts in the event the Legislature fails to make such apportionment; providing for the issuance of the necessary proclamation by the Governor; and making an appropriation.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:
 Section 1. That Section 28 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as hereafter to read as follows: "Section 28. The Legislature shall, at its first regular session after the publication of each United States decennial census, apportion the state into senatorial and representative districts, agreeable to the provisions of Sections 25,

26, and 26-a of this Article. In the event the Legislature shall at any such first regular session following the publication of a United States decennial census, fail to make such apportionment, same shall be done by the Legislative Redistricting Board of Texas, which is hereby created, and shall be composed of five (5) members, as follows: The Lieutenant Governor, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Attorney General, the Comptroller of Public Accounts and the Commissioner of the General Land Office, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum. Said Board shall assemble in the City of Austin within ninety (90) days after the final adjournment of such regular session. The Board shall, within sixty (60) days after assembling, apportion the state into senatorial and representative districts, or into senatorial or representative districts, as the failure of action of such Legislature may make necessary. Such apportionment shall be in writing and signed by three (3) or more of the members of the Board duly acknowledged as the act and deed of such Board, and, when so executed and filed with the Secretary of State, shall have force and effect of law. Such apportionment shall become effective at the next succeeding statewide general election. The Supreme Court of Texas shall have jurisdiction to compel such Commission to perform its duties in accordance with the provisions of this section by writ of mandamus or other extraordinary writs conformable to the usages of law. The Legislature shall provide necessary funds for clerical and technical aid and for other expenses incidental to the work of the Board, and the Lieutenant Governor and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall be entitled to receive per diem and travel expense during the Board's session in the same manner and amount as they would receive while attending a special session of the Legislature. This amendment shall become effective January 1, 1951."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held throughout the state on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1948, at which all ballots shall have printed thereon:

"For the amendment to Section 28, Article III of the Constitution of Texas providing for a Board for apportionment of the state into senatorial districts and representative districts in the event the Legislature fails to make such apportionment."

"Against the amendment to Section 28, Article III of the Constitution of Texas providing for a Board for apportionment of the state into senatorial districts and representative districts in the event the Legislature fails to make such apportionment."

Each voter at such election shall mark out one of such clauses on the ballot, leaving the clause expressing his vote on the proposed amendment.

Sec. 3. The Governor of the State of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election, and shall have the same published as required by the Constitution and laws of this state.

Sec. 4. The sum of Ten Thousand ($10,000.00) Dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the treasury of this state not otherwise appropriated, to pay the expenses of such publication and election.

Governor and Lieutenant Governor, the person receiving the highest number of votes for the office of Governor, as declared by the Speaker, has died, then the person having the highest number of votes for the office of Lieutenant Governor shall act as Governor until after the next general election. It is further provided that in the event the person with the highest number of votes for the office of Governor, as declared by the Speaker, shall become disabled, or fail to qualify, then the Lieutenant Governor shall act as Governor until a person has qualified for the office of Governor, or until after the next general election. Any succession to the Governorship not otherwise provided for in this Constitution, may be provided for by law; provided, however, that any person succeeding to the office of Governor shall be qualified as otherwise provided in this Constitution, and shall, during the entire term to which he may succeed, be under all the restrictions and inhibitions imposed in this Constitution on the Governor."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified voters of this State at a General Election to be held throughout this State on the date provided by law in the month of November, A. D. 1948, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon:

"FOR the Constitutional Amendment providing for gubernatorial succession in the event the Governor-elect dies, or becomes disabled, before qualifying and for such successions in other contingencies."

Here's the BEST Tire Deal in Town
A SMOOTHER, SAFER, RIDE
OR YOUR MONEY BACK!

An amazing offer? True, but Super-Cushion is an amazing tire — a tire so sensational we have no hesitation in saying "ride, then decide"! Let us put a set of Super-Cushions, complete with new tubes, on your car. Drive it for one week. If you don't agree that Super-Cushions give you a smoother ride, easier car handling, and quicker, safer stops — we'll replace them with your old tires and give your money back!

The Super-Cushion is a bigger, softer tire — runs on only 24 pounds of air! It soaks up bumps, rattles and vibration — gives safer, quicker stops — makes your car float through traffic — flow around curves. And Super-Cushions average more mileage than the finest standard tires! Super-Cushions "roll with the punch" — are harder to cut, bruise or blow out. Don't miss the thrill of riding on Super-Cushions!
