

OFFICIAL MEMORANDUM
STATE OF TEXAS
OFFICE OF GOVERNOR

Local chambers of commerce in communities across Texas play a vital role in encouraging business growth, promoting tourism, and facilitating the relationships among business, community, and government.

A strong partnership between these entities is critical in today's changing world economy. The commitment that chambers make to fostering economic progress and community development lends strength to their local economies and to the economy of the state and nation.

The Texas Chamber of Commerce Executives (TCCE) met in Austin on Tuesday, April 13. Organization members are offering in more than 300 chambers of commerce across the state.

The members of TCCE play a crucial leadership role in expanding our state's economy, and it is fitting that the people of Texas recognize their contributions and those of their chambers.

Therefore, I, Ann W. Richards, Governor of Texas, do hereby proclaim the week of April 18 through April 24, 1993, as:

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE WEEK

in Texas and urge the appropriate recognition thereof.

Ann Richards
Governor of Texas

Help Your Community By Joining The Chamber

The Chamber of Commerce is a voluntary organization of local business and professional people who are interested in the community's civic and economic progress. It is funded primarily by the annual investments of its members.

This organization works toward the economic development of the area by assisting new businesses, promoting existing businesses and encouraging companies to relocate here. Newcomers are welcomed, and the Chamber provides them with information on available housing, public education and local health care facilities. They are currently sponsoring a new-

School Finance - Next Step

This is the second article in a series written by Superintendent Doyle Lowrance of Munday ISD that will continue until May 1 election.

The decision as to how to vote on May 1 regarding school finance will have a dramatic effect on the schools of Texas.

Passage of the propositions should ensure the continued operation of schools as we now know across the state. The continued process of recapture will enable the state to flow money to schools in a similar fashion as the prior two years.

What is not known at this time is how this will impact local taxes, whether it be in the form of just local taxes or in combination with taxes like or similar to the current C.E.D. Recapture would only take money from the wealthiest counties, which according to reliable sources would be 33, and redistribute that money by some method to schools in the other counties.

The amount of money to be recaptured is estimated at about 400 million. Munday I.S.D. will contribute $242,000 toward the C.E.D. in 1992-93 and is scheduled to receive $570,000 from the C.E.D.

Some legislative sources believe that failure of the first proposition on the May 1 ballot would result in mass consolidation of school districts across the state. This belief is shared by many professional educational organizations around the state. Consolidation could re-

April Is Child Abuse Prevention Awareness Month

The Knox County Child Welfare Board wants to remind all citizens that April is Child Abuse Prevention Awareness Month. Knox County Judge David N. Perdue has issued a resolution, alerting all residents to the problems of child abuse.

Earlier this month, the Child Welfare Board presented a program on Child Abuse to all students in the Knox City, O'Brien, Munday, Benjamin and Goree school systems. The program was conducted by Linda Haynes, Child Protective Services supervisor. In addition to the informative program, each child was given an abuse prevention poster, on "101 Ways to Praise a Child".

Staggering statistics show that the number of reports of child abuse and neglect are on the rise all over the country, as well as in Knox County. If you are aware of a child that is being abused or neglected, please call the Child Abuse Hotline number, 1-800-252-5400. Your call to help a hurting child will remain confidential.

Community Cancer Crusade Volunteers Ready For Drive

The Munday Unit of the American Cancer Society will hold its annual door to door Community Crusade Drive April 19-30.

The residential drive will have volunteers calling on local residents for donations and to distribute literature.

Sue Bryan and Naomi Pape are co-chairmen for this year's drive. "The door to door is the backbone of our annual crusade in that it establishes our identity as an organization in every community, provides us with our greatest source of volunteer strength, offers an opportunity for one-on-one lifesaving education of our neighbors, and is one of the largest sources of crusade funds for our cancer control program in Knox County."

The American Cancer Society provides a number of services on both the state and local levels, all free of charge, with local programs administered by volunteers. "Last year in Knox County alone, the American Cancer Society provided direct patient services to cancer victims that would have cost $5,489 if these services had been purchased. Our volunteers also provided educational materials and services to our county that totaled $1,148. This included furnishing videos, activity kits, and educational materials to all our schools, as well as programs and clinics for adults concerning early detection, lifestyle changes, and cancer awareness."

Patient services in the Knox County area can be obtained by calling Grace Welch, 658-3061. Literature, education resources, or programs that are available can be obtained by contacting Carolyn Brockett at 658-3077.

Knox County PROFILE

"The informational profiles in no way reflect a promotion or endorsement by the Munday Courier, nor is it an attempt to interview the most prominent or interesting persons in our area, but rather to depict the common people, their values and interests. Hope you enjoy them."

Retired City Administrator Walter M. Hertel is in our spotlight this week.

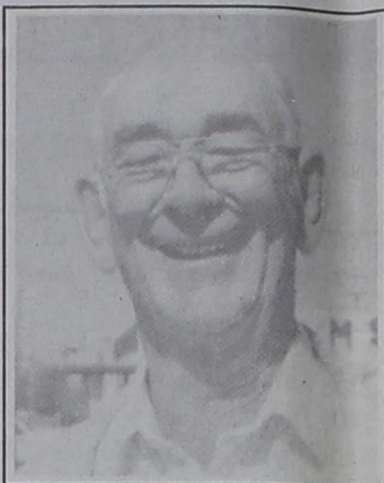

Walter was born September 5, 1925, in Knox City to Walter R. and Elnora A. Hertel. He has two brothers and one sister.

Raised in Benjamin, Walter attended 11 years in the Benjamin school, graduating in 1942.

Following graduation, he entered the military service, U.S. Army division, on December 27, 1943, serving in England, France and Germany. During a furlough from Camp Carson, Colorado, he and Peggy Trainham were married in Seymour on May 5, 1944. Walter was discharged on April 13, 1946. "Two years, three months and seventeen days, I counted them!" Walter said. "I was ready to return home to my young wife."

The couple made their home in Benjamin, where Walter served as City Manager until 1969. During this time, three sons were born, Gary Mat, who was a victim of cystic fibrosis and died in 1954, Larry Don, now a city engineer for the City of Lubbock, and Walter Timothy, a construction engineer for the Texas Department of Transportation served by Wichita Falls. They now have two grandchildren, Gregory, 14, and Kristi, 10.

Walter accepted the position of City Administrator for the City of Munday in 1969, a position he held until his retirement in 1990. He was involved in many improvements during his 21 years of service to Munday. "I feel the Corps of Engineers' million dollar drainage ditch was the most important project for Munday. How can a town grow or do anything else when we did not know when all work had to be dropped and downtown business doors had to be sandbagged to keep floodwater out?" Other projects completed were the storm sewer construction, tion, which was the first storm sewer grant in Texas, paving projects, airport construction, and a new city hall, which all citizens of Munday are proud of.

Walter's recommendation to the citizens of Munday is, "Be proud of your mayor and city councilmen. Some of the finest people I know served during my tenure in office, and they and the present mayor and council deserve our thanks for the many hours of service they give to us. Problems they face are much greater than most of us realize."

"My thanks to each citizen of Munday for your support given to me for 21 years, and to the present city administration for maintaining existing facilities and seeking ways to further improve our city."

Walter fulfilled his dream occupation by working with others to help promote progress in Munday, and therefore help the citizens here.

The most famous person Walter and Peggy met was President Lyndon B. Johnson. They were on vacation, and as the President drove down the Pedernales River at his Johnson City Ranch, his convertible stopped periodically to visit with vacationers. "He had a pretty blond driving for him. We wondered if she was his chauffeur, granddaughter, or what!"

"The most important person in my life, and also in my career, is Peggy, my wife, who patiently listened to my sometimes seemingly insurmountable problems."

The best advice Walter received was from his father. He taught him how to work, and stressed that it wasn't a sin to work.

What would you do if you won the grand prize in the Texas Lottery? I would give some to family members, help my children, and travel more as long as my wife and I were physically able.

Favorite city - Next to Munday, it has to be Corpus Christi, the sparkling city by the sea, which is my favorite vacation spot, as is the Rockport area.

Favorite movie - "Love Story" starring Ali McGraw and Ryan O'Neal, and "Curly Sue"; actor - Burt Reynolds; actress - Brook Shields; comic strip - "Sally Forth"; TV show - Evening Shade and Matlock; magazine - Readers Digest; food - steak; recreation - visiting the Johnny High Country Music Review in Fort Worth; song - "God Bless the USA."

Hospital Administrator Explains New Terms

Every change in health care is a sure stimulus for growth in one area: the abundance of new terms and acronyms. The new health care proposals being considered by the Clinton administration has given rise to several new terms.

To keep you from drowning in this alphabet soup, Knox County Hospital Administrator Stephen Kuehler has made this guide to some of the new terms:

HIPC - Health Insurance Purchasing Cooperative - Groups which would serve as regional purchasing agents.

AHP - Accountable Health Plans - Certified health care providers who agree to offer a standard benefits package.

NHB - National Health Board - a group of physicians, public officials, and consumers charged with defining a standard benefit package and creating standards for health insurance plans.

Managed Competition - Tax and regulatory reform to stimulate cost consciousness in the selection of a health plan and to allow providers and insurers to compete on quality and price.

Global Budgeting - A single payer system, such as Canada's, with national budget caps.

Pay or Play - Employers provide health care insurance for all employees (play) or contribute to payroll taxes (pay) into a government-run health care system.

Benjamin Participates In Land And Grass Judging Competition

The Tri-County Land and Grass Judging Contest held recently in Baylor County proved to be a great day for all who participated. Fifty-seven students from ten schools entered the competition.

Benjamin's Grass Judging team placed second, with Stephens County 4-H taking first place, and Holliday third. Benjamin members included Kathy Bufkin, Stephanie Conner and Rebel Rainwater. Rebel also won third place individual winner in grass judging.

Other schools and clubs participating were Archer City, Paducah, Bryson, Woodson, Harold, Seymour, Northside Vernon, Qaunah and Knox City.

The contest was sponsored by Throckmorton SWCD, Wichita Brazos SWCD and Mill Brazos SWCD with the co-operation and assistance of the SCS from each district.

Marguerite King Passes Away In Abilene Hospital

Marguerite Adelle King, 76, of Munday, died Wednesday, April 14, 1993, in an Abilene hospital.

Marguerite married Bill King September 23, 1939, in Benjamin. He passed away in November, 1977.

Steps Should Be Taken To Control Ticks And Fleas

by Tracy Phillips, DVM, Knox County Veterinary Clinic

Ticks and fleas are very prominent in this part of Texas. They carry diseases that not only affect pets, but also humans. These diseases include Ehrlichiosis, Rocky Mountain Spotted Fever, and Lyme disease.

Ehrlichiosis is caused by the rickettsial organism ehrlichia and is carried by the brown dog tick. The organism is transmitted from the tick to the dog or man through blood. This disease causes high fever, enlarged lymph nodes, decreased appetite, depression, weakness, and bleeding problems. It is diagnosed through clinical signs and serology.

Rocky Mountain Spotted Fever (RMSF) is an important disease in man and is caused by rickettsia rickettsii. It is known as "tick fever" in dogs. The demacenter tick carries this organism. Clinical signs are very similar to those of Ehrlichiosis. The diagnosis is also made through serology.

Lyme disease, caused by barttella burgdorteri, is carried by the ixodes tick. Arthritis is the primary clinical sign in animals. Humans also develop arthritis and may exhibit skin rashes and headaches.

Treatment for these diseases in dogs is through oral antibiotics. It is important that treatment be continued at least two weeks.

These diseases can easily be prevented through the control of fleas and ticks. Due to the mild temperatures this winter, fleas and ticks are sure to be out in large numbers.

It is best to treat all areas at the same time and repeat at 2-3 week intervals. Yards should be sprayed or granules applied, the bedding washed, and your pet should be bathed and dipped. Yard products such as diazenon and malathion are both effective. Dogs with excessive hair may be sheared so that fleas and ticks are more easily noticed.

Great care should be taken in removing ticks. It is important that you do not come into contact with the blood. Your hands should always be washed thoroughly.

If you are uncomfortable removing ticks, contact your veterinarian for assistance.

"On A Wizer Note"

by Paul Weiser,

Knox Couty Extension Agent - Agriculture

Many vegetable producers throughout Texas and other states use plastic mulch. Studies have shown that different colors result in plant production changes.

For example: tomato plants grown over red mulch produce higher early marketable yields as compared to other colors. Plants grown over white or silver colored mulch tend to have the lowest early marketable yields and produce more foliage.

Fruit and nut trees are also beginning their yearly chores. For those pecan growers, the 72nd Annual Conference and Trade Show of the Texas Pecan Grower's Association will be July 18-21, in Dallas.

Registration fees are $40.00 (add $10.00 after June 15) for TPGA members and $60.00 for non-members. This fee covers two adults of the same family and children. The registration will be open from 1-5 p.m. on Sunday, July 18.

Texas A&M University will be hosting a horse short course on May 7-9, 1993. The cost of this short course is $30 for adults and $20 for youth (Group Rates Available).

Some of the topics to be covered include: parasite control, fly control, toxicity problems, white line disease, lameness, managing heat stress, horse racing, and a futuristic look at the industry.

If more information is required on any of these topics, please contact the Knox County Extension Agent in Benjamin.

Knox Hospital Celebrates National Volunteer Week

Volunteers at Knox County Hospital will be honored with a week of recognition during National Hospital Volunteer Week, April 18-23, according to Stephen Kuehler, administrator. Hospitals throughout the country depend on a willing staff of volunteers to support their efforts in non-technical, non-medical areas.

Members of the Knox County Hospital Volunteers Auxiliary donated more than $20,000 in gifts to the hospital last year, he said. "Last year the auxiliary helped the hospital purchase the AVL Blood Gas Machine for the laboratory. The auxiliary also purchased a defibrillator for the hospital."

Funds for the volunteers projects come from the proceeds of the slightly-used clothing store downtown. The shop, open three days a week, is staffed by volunteers, and is the auxiliary's primary fund raising activity.

"Our community can be very proud of the Knox County Hospital Auxiliary," Kuehler said. "They prove every day their commitment to service to others with a warm smile, a friendly handshake and a caring touch."

"We encourage our communities to show their support this week to the Knox County Hospital Volunteers," Kuehler concluded.

ONE-TWO PEST CONTROL FOR A HIGHER QUALITY CROP.

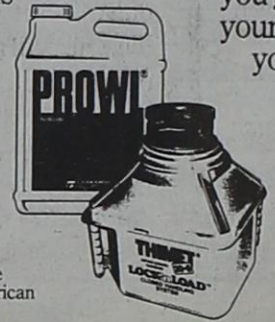

Protecting your cotton crop from weed competition and insect damage can pay off in higher yields. And we have a great combination to help you do just that.

WEED CONTROL
PROWL® herbicide delivers long-lasting control of grasses and certain broad-leaf weeds, without root pruning, stunting or carry-over. And less root pruning helps improve insecticide uptake. That means your cotton gets off to a fast, healthy start, for a higher-yielding quality bottom crop.

INSECT CONTROL
THIMET® 20-G soil and systemic insecticide provides early-season control of aphids, thrips and mites in cotton. And applied at planting, it also controls aphids, leaf miners, leafhoppers, black cutworms and white flies.

See us today about the one-two combination that helps you get the most out of your cotton crop. We're your local Cyanamid AgriCenter® dealer.

Even though he's only weeks old, this calf has a lot of power behind him. And a lot of green pastures ahead.

Meeting the electricity needs of Texans today is a real challenge. While maintaining respect for the environment, we must balance cost and reliability without becoming dependent on any one fuel.

That's why in the early 1980s, a group of electric cooperatives got together to build a power plant that uses a local fuel resource, lignite coal. Today, this efficient scrubber-equipped plant provides 400 megawatts of low-cost power to homes and businesses served by cooperatives in 91 Texas counties.

Keeping our commitment to the environment in mind, we are also making sure that we put things back better than the way we found them.

The land reclamation program at this plant's mine is turning what was once a cactus and mesquite patch into a grassy, productive home for livestock and wildlife.

Medicare Limits Physician Charges

If you're on Medicare, here's a story that could happen to you.

You're visiting your son in another State and become ill. You call your son's doctor and discover that she doesn't accept assignment on Medicare claims. What does this mean and what can you do? Should you search for a doctor who accepts assignment on Medicare claims? Not necessarily.

When physicians accept assignment on all or some of their Medicare claims, they agree to charge no more than the amount Medicare approves for each service they offer. Since Medicare will pay 80 percent of the approved charge, this means you will be responsible for paying only 20 percent of the approved charge.

Physicians who don't accept assignment can charge more than the Medicare-approved amount, but because of a new law, they are limited in the extra amount they can charge you. This year, the most they can charge for Medicare covered services is 115 percent of the Medicare approved amount. For example, if the Medicare fee schedule amount for treatment by physicians who don't accept assignment in the local area is $100, the physician who treats you cannot charge you more than the $115. When you get your Medicare statement it gives approved amount for each service.

If you live in Connecticut, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont, or New York, your state has laws that could further reduce your costs. In certain cases, such as for participants in the Qualified Medicare Beneficiary (QMB) program, physicians must accept assignment for covered services provided to beneficiaries who qualify for QMB.

If you have a physician who doesn't accept assignment on Medicare claims and he or she has exceeded the charge limit for services you've received since January 1, 1991, contact the doctor and ask for a reduction in the charge or a refund. If you cannot resolve the issue with the doctor, contact your local Medicare carrier to ask for help.

My seminary class on "The Jewish Faith" is taught by Rabbi Zimmerman. It is a new experience for me to spend so much time with a Jew. In the first through twelfth grades I had a Jewish classmate, and I remember thinking that his name was odd: Goldstucker. But I never got to know him throughout our school years.

Now I am a preacher of the Christian faith, and I sit under a preacher of the Jewish faith. How do I feel about that? First, I hide my feelings. The Rabbi and I have much in common as fellow human beings. We both put on one trouser leg at a time. Furthermore, we share the same religious roots. Jesus was a Jew.

Christianity is the child of Judaism. But hiding or ignoring feelings will not work. They sneak out. After class I say something to the Rabbi which I thought was innocuous, even funny, but I immediately feel the blood rush out of my face and fellow classmates become deathly quiet. Then the Rabbi laughs and slaps me on the back! I quickly, fearfully, leave.

Later I feel amazed and embarrassed at my choice of words to the Rabbi. Is the monster of irrational, hateful, hurtful anti-Semitic prejudice in my heart, too?

I read in the Abilene newspaper this morning that 50 years ago today, at the start of Passover, the Jews of Warsaw, Poland began a valiant, month long defense of their ghetto against the German Nazis. The defense could not last, but it was valiant and joyful (!), the article says. The Nazis finally burned the ghetto down in May, 1943. All in all, 400,000 Warsaw Jews were destroyed, 3/4 of them in the gas chambers of Treblinka, Poland.

Today at Treblinka there is a commemoration of the uprising. Vice-president Gore is there. Rabbi Zimmerman is there, too. I wonder what he is thinking and feeling as he stands upon that holy, bloody ground. When I see him in class Thursday, I will wonder about my thoughts and feelings before I speak.

The Rabbi and I have much in common, but we also have much different. We pray to the same God, the God of Moses and Jesus Christ, but we pray with very different beliefs and heritages. I am not sure how to bridge such a chasm. A good slap on the back helps, though!

Comparing Cosmetics
Consumers tend to give up their rationality when they step up to the cosmetic counter. An immense amount of marketing hype caters to egos and creates unrealistic expectations.

Author Paula Begoun tested 25 major brands of cosmetics and concluded that the difference between a $100 moisturizer and a $5 one was price, not ingredients. Each cost the manufacturer about $1 to create. Begoun shares tips for buying makeup:

* Expensive does not mean better. All makeup has the same basic ingredients.

* Wear a product for two hours before you buy it. Have a mirror with you so you can leave the store and look at yourself in daylight.

* The more products you use on your skin, the more likely you are to irritate it.

* Don't assume that a salesclerk is trained or knowledgeable.

* Don't buy eye shadow sets. Rarely will you use all the colors, and you get less product for the money.

* Beware of scientific jargon, such as cellular balancing complex, micro-targeted, bio-synergetic, isotonic energy, micro-lipid-concentrate and hydra-film. All these terms have been created by the company to sound impressive.

Overprescribing Causing Older Adults To Become Addicted

Two million older adults are addicted to, or are in danger of becoming addicted to, tranquilizers and sleeping pills due to overprescribing, according to testimony before a U. S. House subcommittee that was cited in Public Health Reports. The report added that the cause of some mental problems, such as memory loss, could be misdiagnosed due to drug-related confusion. This could lead to the prescription of other psychoactive drugs. Thus exacerbating the problem.

W. G.'s Meet And Party At The D. Q.

The W. G.'s wanted to go out and eat. Dulah said, "Party at the D. Q., it will be fun!" So we did!

Saturday evening at six to the D. Q. we went. We ate chicken and had pie for dessert. We guessed at who might be our secret pals, exchanged gifts, and played games.

It was fun. Thanks to Dulah, the D. Q. and the girls who smiled and served us well.

Those attending were Allene Beaty, Elaine Gulley, Viola Cude, Pauline Morrow, Juanita Massey, Ruth Griffith and Dorothy Putnam.

All Departments Are Important At Center

The Activity and Social Departments at Munday Nursing Center also excelled in state and company standards, and played an important part in the center receiving the prestigious "E-Award". They were unintentionally left out of last week's story.

COMING IN FIRST AND SECOND in the 100 meter hurdles were Michele Berryhill and Brandy Branam. Both girls ran their personal best times of the year at the District Track Meet held Saturday in Knox City. They will be competing in the regional qualifiers track meet on Friday, April 23, at Abernathy.

POLICE REPORT

by Officer Tejada

Following is the police report for the week of April 11 through April 17.

One citation was given for disregarding stop sign, one for expired driver's license, two for no driver's license, one for expired registration, and two for speeding. Eight warning citations for speeding were also issued.

Since the subject of stop signs came up this week, I would like to remind everyone to practice correct, safe and complete stops at all stop signs throughout the town. One intersection of major concern is vehicles turning off of West Main onto South 277, or Main Street across onto Allsup's parking lot. Be careful... it's for your own good, and it's the law. Save us from the headaches of filling out accident reports and save your family the heartache.

Rolling Plains PCA Holds Stockholders Annual Meetings

Dean Turner of Matador and Keith Corzine of Sagerton were re-elected to three-year terms on the Board of Rolling Plains Production Credit Association in Stockholders Annual Meetings held in Childress on Thursday, April 15, and in Stamford on Friday, April 16. Mr. Turner represents the Matador office area while Mr. Corzine represents the Stamford office territory. Other board members are Garon B. Tidwell of Munday, Dan Henard Jr. of Wellington, Lance D. Morris of Crosbyton and Jack Reese of Abilene.

Awarded plaques as 50-year plus members at the 59th Annual Meetin at Stamford were Mrs. Clara McLennan and W. D. Smith of Avoca, Mrs. Nellie Lindsey of Stamford, Mrs. Neva Clabum of Anson, Leon Burson of Haskell, Sam A. Baugh of Rotan, Carl Back of Hamlin, Ben Loe of Spur, Carl Booe and John Michels of Munday and Mrs. Opal Hutchinson of Knox City.

Director Morris gave the Report of the Board to the gathering. Earning the highest rating possible by the Tenth District Regulator for the fifth consecutive year, the Association continues to maintain its Tier I designation.

This prestigious award is based on continued strength in capital, asset quality, management, earnings and liquidity.

President Rike related cost comparisons in farming and living expenses between 1933 and 1993. Tractors costing $525 in 1933 now run $65,000 and more. In 1933 some 24% of the family budget was used for food. Through the efforts of agricultural America, today the average family spends only 13.1% of its budget on food.

Larry Browning of Childress presented the Nominating Committee Report at the Childress section while Jerry Don Klose of Haskell handled these duties at Stamford Friday night. Elected to serve on the 1994 Nominating Committee were Edwin Meyer of Childress - Childress office; Billy Shannon of Quitaque - Matador office; Sammy Nauert of Stamford - Stamford office; Warren Short of Rochester - Munday office; and Snooks Williams of Spur - Spur office.

Entertainment for both evenings was brought by the "3-M Company" from the Matador area. The nine singers and musicians were well received.

Cash prizes totaling $250 were awarded in each session to the following: Barbara Armstrong, Fred Rister and Billy Shannon of Matador; Snooks Williams of Spur; Claude Andrews of Childress; Eustacio Ramirez of Munday; Lloyd Williams of Abilene; John Mayfield of Weinert; Richard Corley of Hawley and Billy Teichelman of Sagerton.

Rolling Plains Production Credit Association maintains branch offices in Abilene, Munday, Spur, Stamford, Childress and Matador. Office managers for these respective offices are David Pitzer, Bobby Sosolik, Ronnie White, Gary Decker, Gene Bruce and Alan Bingham. Rolling Plains PCA serves 19 counties from its Central Office located in Stamford.

Secretaries Week Is April 18th-24th

Secretaries play an important part in running a business. They do the bookkeeping, answer phones, run errands, some even do the office cleaning, and lots more.

This week is Secretaries Week. Why not show your appreciation for all the hard work your secretary does by giving her a little gift. The local businesses carry a large assortment of special items that your secretary would love.

Some gift ideas would be cologne, jewelry, flowers, knick knacks, a card... or how about a day off from work!! She deserves it!

The Telephone Companies Are Talking Out Of Both Ends Of Their Receivers.

The Texas Telephone Companies Are Asking The Texas Legislature To Deregulate Their Industry.

A Presentation Of Their Claims And The Real Facts:

Telephone Claim: "We are not making enough money to really invest anything back into the Texas telephone infrastructure."

FACT: They made record profits last year. They say they can't afford to invest in Texas, yet they invested in Mexico's telephone system, bought an overseas cable company and are one of the brand-new owners of the San Antonio Spurs basketball team.

Telephone Claim: "We want deregulation so we can be competitive. It really has nothing to do with the rates we will charge customers."

FACT: The telephone companies under their proposal will be able to increase consumer rates as much as 10 percent a year (25 percent in some cases). Their bill is all about money - more for them, less for the consumer.

It Is Time To Hang-up On The Telephone Companies.

Call your legislator and say NO to telephone deregulation

Thank You
I would like to thank all my friends for your calls, cards, food, visits and concern shown for me during my surgery and since my return home. You are all special to me, and at times like this, I don't know what I would do without you. I appreciate everything you've done.
