Mystic Provides Entertainment For Lions Club

At the semi-monthly luncheon of the Lions Club on Thursday at the Munday Hotel, Mile Flo LeRoy, mystic, who is appearing at the Roxy Theatre, provided entertainment by keeping those present mystified. With her back to the audience her assistant, Prof. P. H. Gordon, passed among the Lions, who exhibited various articles, and in each instance Mile Flo could tell what the item was, and describe it fully. In addition to this she called each of the Lions by name as they were pointed out and performed a number of other feats that made one wonder how she did it.

President Dickerson announced again that the local club had been challenged by the Benjamin club for a game of indoor baseball to be played on the outside, but in view of the fact that most of the local members are going to be very busy until after the first of the year, the invitation was respectfully declined and will possibly be accepted at a later date.

Birth and Deaths Over Six Years For Knox County

Through the courtesy of Judge W. S. Bailey we publish herewith the official report on births and deaths in Knox county covering the period from and including 1924 to 1929. The report is furnished by the United States Department of Health, which department has been urging a closer cooperation of the various states and counties in compiling this very valuable information to the proper authorities, and Judge Bailey is the person to whom to make reports here.

The report sent out by the Department of Health shows the following birth and death records in Knox county for the years named: 1924, 221 births and 40 deaths; 1925, 273 births and 69 deaths; 1926, 209 births and 72 deaths; 1927, 162 births and 45 deaths; 1928, 301 births and 79 deaths; 1929, 301 births and 112 deaths.

Santa Claus Will Pay West Texas Visit Saturday

Abilene, Texas, Dec. 12.—Santa Claus is paying West Texas a pre-Christmas visit.

The jolly old chap from the North Pole, in his sleigh drawn by actual live reindeer and with a band of 75 assistants, will be in Abilene Saturday, with the "big" feature to be a spectacular parade starting at 2:30 p. m.

Abilene has "dressed up" for the gala occasion. Colored lights have been strung over 27 blocks of the business district, Yuletide trees grace the sidewalks, and plans are being made to entertain thousands of neighboring citizens for the day.

The city is entertaining representatives of nearby towns at a midday Christmas dinner Saturday, invitations having been sent to city officials, newspaper heads, chamber of commerce and service club officers and school authorities in all counties within a 75 mile radius of Abilene. After the feast, the guests may witness the parade from a special reviewing stand.

High school bands of the section have been asked to take part in the parade, and these delegations, with scores of nuts from this city's schools, colleges and organizations will make the spectacle an outstanding one.

The Santa Claus troupe is one of a character never before seen in this section, and the same party will appear in West Texas only at Amarillo, San Angelo and Wichita Falls.

In addition to Santa and his reindeer other sights which will amaze and delight the children as well as grownups include Eskimos, color bearers, train bearers, groups representing foreign nations, and comely units—tumbling clowns, freak figures, and others.

Munday Merchants Cutting Prices to Lowest In Years

Munday merchants are staging sales galore. Stores that have announced sales beginning this week are the Hassen Dry Goods Company, who have announced a big sale for ten days, beginning today, The Tennessee Store, whose sale begins today also, and the Grissom-Robertson Company, who has announced their regular Dollar Days for Friday, Saturday and Monday, and with these sales in full blast together with the other sales that have been announced in various ways, there should be no need to go away from home to do your Christmas shopping, for we believe you can get better values right here in Munday at this time than in any

From Stinnett, Texas, comes the announcement of the birth of Frances Mae to Mr and Mrs. Epp H. Wilson on November 29th, and here's hoping that the little lady grows up and doesn't resemble its father too much.

Parent-Teacher Association To Meet On Tuesday

The Parent-Teacher Association will hold its regular meeting on Tuesday afternoon of next week instead of on Wednesday afternoon, which is the regular time for the meeting, and a Christmas program will be carried out. A program will be carried out. A full attendance of patrons and teachers is earnestly desired at this meeting.

Plenty of Horses If They'll All Pull

By Albert T. Reid

THINKING OUT LOUD

BY J. A. K.

Of course it has been a long, long time since TOL was a kid, but just the same we can remember some of the ideas we formed of Santa Claus.

But in all our childish dreams of good old St. Nicholas, never did we dream that he would develop the wide variety of voices that he has developed in this day of the radio.

But of course, we can get a jazz band by merely turning the dial, which we do.

But, can you imagine the stunts that the minds of the little kiddies have to perform today to keep faith in Santa Claus.

By simply turning the dial of your radio you can hear his wide range of voices from Kalamazoo to Timbuktoo, and in each case he is located in some department store waiting patiently and watching eagerly for a visit from his little friends.

This job of being editor, reporter, linotype operator, ad man, job man, pressman and devil is a snap.

Frequently there are as much as three or four hours during the twenty-four that we have nothing to do but turn our pink toes skyward and sleep the sleep of the just.

And if we have a little spare time in between we get out and do a little soliciting, but we urge our patrons not to wait on us to come around to see them during the holiday rush, as we are as busy as a cranberry merchant, and frequently have very little time to look after the work on the outside.

Program Given For Mid-Week Prayer Services

Following is the program to be carried out at the prayer meeting services at the Methodist church Wednesday evening, December 17th:

Subject: Prayer.

Leader—Mrs. W. D. Ford.

Prayer—Matt. 6-9 to 15; Luke 11-9 to 13, by leader.

Persistence and Humility in Prayer: Luke 18-1 to 14—Mrs. W. C. Howell.

Male Quartette—S. A. Bowden and others.

A Prayer of Abraham: Gen. 18-23 to 33—Mrs. Oscar Spann.

A Prayer of Jesus: Luke 22-39 to 46—L. S. Hardigree.

Mrs. Frank Meers Died On Saturday At Family Home

Mrs. Frank Meers died at the family home in the Hood community on last Saturday afternoon after a prolonged illness, and funeral services were held at the Goree cemetery on Sunday afternoon and were conducted by the Rev. W. H. Albertson, pastor of the Baptist church of this city.

Mrs. Meers was born in Parker county, Texas, on March 17, 1881, and was united in marriage with Frank Meers in Parker county some twenty years ago, and in addition to her husband she is survived by three sons. She had been a member of the Baptist church for a number of years.

CARD OF THANKS

With the deepest of gratitude to our many friends during the illness and decease of our dear companion and mother we wish to thank one and all for the tender attention given our loved one and for the many floral offerings.

May God's richest blessings rest upon all is the prayer of Frank Meers and Family.

Mrs. H. T. Maples and Mrs. P. V. Williams left Tuesday for Spearman, Texas, where they will be joined by Roy Maples, and together they will go to Colorado Springs to visit with Miss Opal Maples, who is in a sanitarium in that city.

Rural Schools Of County Become Standard Schools

The Rhineland, Union Grove, Washburn, and Dixon schools have received certificates of standardization from the State Department of Education, according to County Superintendent Ethie Lee P'Pool.

Rhineland was classed as a Standard Rural School in 1928, and the standardization has been extended two more years. The other schools are receiving standardization certificates for the first time.

Prof. John J. Hoffman is superintendent of the Rhineland school, teachers are Misses Mary de Aguirre, Mary Ruddy and Lula Pearl Puckett. The trustees are Messrs August Schumacher, A. H. Wildie and Frank Kuhler. They have been trustees of this school for around fourteen years. Prof. Hoffman has been superintendent for a number of years; Miss de Aguirre has taught there three years, Miss Ruddy two and Miss Puckett one year.

This is the third school being taught in the new brick building at Washburn. The teachers are Mrs. J. T. Raynes and Mrs. Leatrice Hammett. The trustees are Messrs J. B. King, J. C. Stephen and W. R. Owen.

One of the points scored on is that the local paper is used in the schools. The Washburn school has a copy of the Goree Advocate brought to the school each week and is read by the pupils, and the Rhineland school uses the Munday Times.

Munday Puts On Holiday Attire For Christmas

Munday is taking on the Christmas spirit right along. All the business houses of the city are decorating their windows for the season and there are indeed some very attractive window displays among them, and most of all of them are offering attractive prices to holiday shoppers on all items of merchandise for the season.

And another evidence of the Christmas spirit in Munday is in the beautiful array of colored lights which have this week been strung over the business section by the West Texas Utilities Company. The wire and globes for this display were purchased last year by the local chamber of commerce, and this expenditure represents something that can be used from year to year to an advantage.

Subscribers Take Advantage Low Rates By Times

Ambrose Worthington called us down on the streets the other day and handed us $1.50 for this moral guide for 1931, and told us confidentially that he had a fine yearling out his way that he was feeding perfectly good maize to with a view of having a goodly supply of canned beef at his home, and stated that when the fatted calf was butchered that he would remember TOL, all of which was very kind of him, and as we're getting it down here in black and white, the agreement is binding. In fact, Ambrose has always entertained a more or less sympathetic attitude toward TOL, by reason of the fact that we are both afflicted with the same cognomen. In fact, the name Ambrose is somewhat exclusive.

J. A. Caughran stepped into our sanctum Thursday and had us renew his subscription to the Record-News and The Munday Times, both of which are mighty good newspapers, and for which we are very grateful to Austin.

The Wichita Record-News and The Munday Times at our clubbing rate of $5.50 continues to be a favorite combination with our subscribers, and we have received the following subscriptions on this combination during the week: Prof. John J. Hoffman, route 3; A. H. Dierning, route 3; S. T. Easley, Munday; and H. F. Jungman, route 2.

E. F. Jungman on route 2 is another one of our good subscribers who always takes advantage of the clubbing offer and makes the saving thereby and he recently gave us his renewal for the Star-Telegram and Munday Times, for which he has our sincere thanks.

Grady Thornton likes the Wichita Daily Times, and so do we. Say, folks, there is a knock-out for an afternoon paper, and if you like your reading in the evening and live in town where you can get your paper late in the day, there's absolutely nothing that you will enjoy more than the Wichita Daily Times. Personally, we're not deeply concerned about what daily paper you take, but this Wichita Times is our favorite, for it gives us the latest news to read at the time of day when we have the time to read it. However, to those residing on rural routes we would (Continued on last page)

—Old Santa Claus has again advised us to tell his little friends to write their letters to The Munday Times for publication, and as he reads the paper each week it will help him get all the nice things together in time to get around to all the little kiddies Christmas.

So we urge all the little kiddies to write their letters to Santa Claus and mail them to SANTA CLAUS, in care of The Munday Times, and Santa will read it in next week's issue. Hurry up and get your letters in as early as possible so we will have time to get them all in the paper next week, so get paper and pencil and write your letter today and mail it so we can get in early next week, or before.

POULTRY NOTES

Oats, when first started, make excellent forage for chicks.

Get in touch with your county agent to obtain the paid culling service.

Planting twenty rows of corn in the poultry yard furnishes shade for chicks besides yielding well in the fall.

Tying strings crosswise over the chick yard, fastening the strings to the fence posts will keep away crows and hawks.

Small cement runs are probably best for use with long, continuous brooder houses. Dirt runs are quickly contaminated and trouble results.

Although pigeons have long been reared only as a fancy, not as an industry, of recent years, the lofts are multiplying. The work of carrier pigeons in the war is accountable for this.

The common fly is usually infested with tapeworm eggs. The only place it can get the eggs is from the droppings of infested birds. It will lay to clean the droppings boards frequently.

The poultry flock which furnishes a food supply for mites has little energy for egg production. Rid the birds of the pests by painting the perches with carbolicum, old crank case oil, or gas tar.

If pullets are cared for and fed properly during the summer months, they will start laying two or three months earlier than if they are given no attention and made to hunt for all their feed.

When the pullets and cockerels are distinguishable they should be separated. The pullets should be allowed to grow normally while the cockerels should be pushed on feed consumption for an early market.

Plans have been developed for a northwestern turkey marketing organization. The turkey marketing organization leaders will meet as soon as the present crop has been sold to perfect a marketing program.

A pedigree is a valuable aid to the poultry breeder since it expresses briefly the performance history of a bird. Although the possession of a good pedigree does not guarantee that the bird itself will be a good breeder it furnishes the most reliable means on which to base expectations.

Diversity Club Annual Banquet Held at Chapman Home
 Climaxing a year of monthly meetings, the Diversity Club met for its annual banquet on Tuesday evening at the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Chapman.

As the guests arrived they were greeted by twinkling Christmas lights hung about the entrance. A large tree, brilliantly illuminated, in the living room carried out the Christmas theme. Chrysanthemums and roses were used in profusion throughout the suite of rooms. The place cards were miniature Christmas trees bearing the names of the guests and carrying out the general scheme of red and green.

Following the serving of the cocktail a buffet luncheon, consisting of turkey, dressing, giblet gravy, cranberry sauce, cream potatoes, baked apples, English peas, cheese and nut peppers, fruit salad, olives, Parker House rolls, coffee, cocoa, and mince pie with cream, was served. Plate favors were old fashioned candles made of confections, holding lighted tapers, and bearing numbers by which the guests found their places at tables of 84.

The guest list included Dr. and Mrs. Wm. P. Farrington, Messrs. and Mrs. E. D. Atkinson, H. F. Barnes, J. D. Kethley, D. T. Mauldin, G. H. Craig, Tom Haney, L. E. Lovelace, J. A. Kennedy, W. H. Mr. and Mrs. McGlothlin Entertain at Bridge

Pretty Shower for Bride-elect
 Friday evening Mrs. R. L. Ballinger and Miss Lorene Parker entertained with a kitchen shower honoring Miss Margaret Ann Keel at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Smith. Miss Keel's wedding will be an event of December 14.

The home was decorated with beautiful flowers of pastel shades carrying out the color scheme of pink and green.

Miss Keel was given a pleasant surprise when she found the rooms filled with friends awaiting her arrival. The evening was spent playing bridge and forty-two.

About ten-thirty o'clock everyone was surprised when a knock was heard at the door. In came two maids carrying a basket filled with gifts. Each table was visited by the maids, with them they carried a large photograph of a gentleman who was to be identified by his bride-to-be. Upon visiting by the last table the maids found a beautiful young lady awaiting to identify the gentleman. The young lady was Miss Margaret Ann Keel, who was presented with the basket of gifts.

Miss Mirandy Ann, the handy kitchen maid, had her place of honor on top of the basket. Miss Mirandy's face was a wooden spoon, her hair was made of a dish soap. Two kitchen forks dangled down for arms, her limbs were made of a cork spoon and a soap shaker. Upon her chest she wore a pot scrubber, her skirt was made of a tea towel, and around her shoulders she wore a dust cloth.

The guests gathered around as Miss Keel opened her gifts. Angels and miniature braided wreaths were used as favors.

Those entertained were Miss Margaret Ann Keel, Mrs. J. J. Keel, Misses Virginia Curry, Trade Keel, Janella Stodghill, Beatrice Beville, Mary Ellen Batesman, Elizabeth Mounse, Hene Bowden, Lucille Harris, Kate Tuttle, Maxie Dingus, Merle Dingus, Grace Nelson, Florene Williams, Opella Blanton, Christine Burton, Opella Clifford, Mary Brown, Margaret Nichols, Mrs. E.  Decides How Long They Will Last

And so it is with your motor... 40% to 60% of all motor wear occurs in the first few minutes after starting, because ordinary oils drain away in idle periods. But CONOCO Germ-Processed oil is always on guard duty, never drains away, penetrates metal surfaces, reduces starting wear.

A step on the starter always takes ordinary oils unaware, and it is then that most damage occurs in your motor. By draining away during idle periods, ordinary oils "let down their guard" and let your motor in for severe punishment at a time when protection is vitally needed.

On the other hand, Germ-Processed oil always has its guard up. Its film penetrates and clings to every working part while the motor is idle. The first motor revolution finds ready lubrication guarding every clearance. The 40% to 60% of wear which might have taken place before you ever shift a gear is substantially reduced.

Thousands of motorists have found that this improved motor oil prolongs motor life and gives better all-round performance. You can find CONOCO Germ-Processed Motor Oil wherever you see the CONOCO Red Triangle.

August Schumacher of Rhineland came in Friday and had his figures shoved up a year and also placed a nice order for printing matter. Mr. Schumacher is one farmer who always has printed letter heads and envelopes, which are a worthwhile investment for any farmer, just as they are for the business man, in fact, the farmer should be just as much a business man as a merchant, and neatly printed stationery is an evidence of permanency and good business, and the farmer who gives attention to these seemingly unimportant details is invariably a success at his undertaking. And August Schumacher is a success at farming.

R. M. Almonrode came in the other day and showed his figures up another year on the Munday Times, for which he has our sincere thanks.

GIANT EGG OF ELEPHANT BIRD LAID CENTURIES AGO

Worth more than its weight in gold, a rare and almost priceless specimen of the huge egg of the elephant bird has been brought to this country after having been dug from the sands of Madagascar, where it was laid many centuries ago, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. The bird that laid this egg is properly known as the aepyornis maximus, and in legend was called "the bird as big as a mountain." The egg is thirty inches in circumference on way and twenty-six and one-half inches the other.

Sunset Reflections

The bricklaying of the Sunset building is expected to be finished within two weeks. The wall is finished in places now.

A high school meeting was called Friday, December 5, to select school colors, and a name for athletic teams. We are well pleased with the ones selected. The colors selected were black and white. The names chosen for the teams were "Eagles" and "Eaglets", first and second teams respectively.

The Sunset Eagles will play the Knox City junior basket ball team December 12, at Knox City. The school is glad to have a bus as a means of conveyance for the team.

The girls have organized a pep squad. It was decided that the girls would wear a white dress trimmed in black and white tams.

Four leaders were elected: Yell leaders—Christine Clowdis and Lillian Verhalen.

Song leaders—Annie B. Reagan and Mary E. Shannon.

Much pep work is expected from these girls. They will attend the Knox City game Friday.

Friday afternoon the Thespian Players convened in an interesting meeting. We had try-outs and three members were admitted to the club: Lillian Verhalen, Eva Read and Jimmie Lois Frasure. The players are planning for a Christmas social.

The Sunset girls were glad to have Miss Nelson meet with them and organize a 4H Club. The first regular meeting will be the second Wednesday in January. All girls are expected to have work boxes ready at that date.

The following officers were elected: President, Mary E. Shannon; sec.-treasurer, Christine Clowdis; song-yell leader, Elma Hudson; reporter, Olive Mae Partridge.

We are expecting excellent work of our members. We extend a special invitation to each person who is interested in cooking and sewing to join our club. Visitors are always welcome.

JUNIORS

Christine Clowdis has been elected captain of the girls' high school basket ball team, and Arnold Land was elected captain of the boys' high school team. The Juniors are glad to have both of these splendid people in our class and we are sure that they are worthy of this honor. If the players will cooperate with them, the teams will surely be successful.

The Sophomores seem to have plenty of homely men. At the pie supper at Jungman, Lennie Offutt was elected as the ugliest man and Corban Swanner was elected homeliest man at League. This was a tragic incident in their lives, because each one thought himself rather handsome.

The fact that three of our classmates have been elected as important leaders in our athletic work gives us much pleasure.

SOPHOMORES

The Sophomores have been well represented at the various suppers. The Junior boys seem glad that they did not win any cakes, but we are glad that our boys won them for us like cake.

A singing was given last Sunday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Shannon. The large group of high school students that attended report an excellent time.

A Smart Junior

Mr. Day—"Arnold, give me a sentence with the words defeat, defense, and detail."

Arnold—"Defeat of de cat went over defense before detail."

As school progresses, the Freshmen improve in their work.

A few of the students have been absent on account of bull-pulling and bad weather.

Mr. Day: "What did Paul Revere say at the end of his ride?"

Miss Bacon may return when the new building is completed, but at present, with the pupils scattered as they are, she has found it unpractical to continue teaching, much to the regret of the patrons and pupils.

Father No Longer Takes All the Night Life for Himself

MIKE LANDAU

America Becoming a Family Nation, Mike Landau, Famous Musician Declares

New York City—Night clubs are family affairs these days, or rather, nights. In the nineties, only the four hundred and bachelors frequented de luxe restaurants. Now, ma and pa and the whole family celebrate their birthdays and wedding anniversaries and do all their entertaining at the better class restaurants. So says Mike Landau, orchestra leader who knows his Broadway.

"This, of course, has taken away a great deal of the hilarity and instead of getting wild, as daily all their entertaining at the better class restaurants. So says Mike Landau, orchestra leader who knows his Broadway.

"The lack of formality has taken the starch out of our manners but the freedom of informality has made things much more charming."

"The daily press to the contrary, we are really becoming more and more of a family nation. We are getting to take all of our enjoyments in family. Father no longer has all the good times to himself. The motor car, the dance craze, and golf links have done the most to bring this about."

"The requests for music differ, too, from those of the old days. Risque songs are hardly ever asked for any more. Good dance music with a catchy lyric is the most popular. The Hawaiian fox trot song, 'Why Have You Forgotten Waikiki' with its mid-Pacific lilt gets the most requests right now. It is a number the whole family likes to strum, to hum and to dance to."
