Saturday, May 2 Is Election Day

While the heated presidential campaign is on everyone's mind these days, it's time to turn our attention to the local political scene. Saturday, May 2, is election day for places on the city council, school board and hospital board. At that time, all eligible voters may cast their ballots from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. at the Munday City Hall for all three races.

In the local Mayor's race, incumbent Richard Albus will oppose Carla West for the key position. The City Council election, also a contested race, will find four candidates vying for the two seats available. Incumbents George Oustad and Winters Matthews will be on the Council ticket along with Coyt Smith and Glenn Jennings.

Three candidates will be listed on the Munday ISD Board of Trustees ballot, but only two will be elected. Incumbent Byron Gass and newcomers David Key and Sandra West each hope to fill one of the two available positions.

In the race for the two positions open on the Knox County Hospital Board of Directors, incumbents Don Bunton of Munday and Peggy McGaughey of Knox City will be on the ballot with Gill Gilliloin, also of Knox City. Both terms available are two-year tenures.

Being able to select your representatives in local government is an honor and a privilege. Be sure to exercise your right to vote next Saturday at the City Hall.

Sunday Evening Shooting Results In Four Arrests

Gary and Otis Dixon, both of Goree, were arrested Sunday evening and charged with attempted murder and attempted capital murder of a police officer. The arrests came after a suspenseful altercation at the Elementary School playground at approximately 7:00 p.m.

A group of youngsters were playing basketball in the schoolyard when the Dixon brothers and an unidentified black male arrived on the scene. The Dixons confronted Bobby Dockins concerning a previous misunderstanding. When Otis produced a gun and threatened Dockins everyone fled the scene with the exception of one individual. This young man went to the tennis courts adjoining the basketball court to warn a mother and daughter who were playing tennis that the Dixons had a gun. The mother, however, had seen the gun. With no way out except directly in front of the Dixons, she and her daughter had advanced to the far side of the tennis courts and laid down.

The young man who had attempted to warn them then turned and saw that Gary Dixon had taken the gun from Otis and aimed it at Dockins' head. At that point, the young man turned and ran. Upon seeing him run, Gary raised the gun and shot, narrowly missing the young man's head. The shot hit the side of the school building causing debris to strike the young man in the face.

Meanwhile, the Dixons realized the gun had jammed and fled the scene. A witness to the incident spotted a local deputy driving by and informed him of the incident. The deputy radioed an alert to area law officials who advanced to the scene.

Johnny Andrade, a reserve officer with the Munday Police Department, was driving on Fifth Street near the Baptist Church when he spotted two black males running. Suspecting that they might be involved in the incident, he followed them to the 400 block of Cisco. There he identified himself as a police officer and ordered the two to put their hands in the air and advance slowly towards him. One of the men, Otis Dixon, complied. The other, Gary Dixon, raised only one hand. Andrade then repeated his order, at which point Gary drew the gun from his pocket and aimed it at the officer. Andrade drew his gun, aiming it at Gary, who then dropped his weapon and raised his hands.

The Dixon brothers were arrested and charged with attempted murder and attempted capital murder of a police officer. Federal charges will also be filed against them for taking and discharging a gun on school property. This offense carries a mandatory sentence of five years with no parole.

Two other individuals were arrested in connection with the incident, but no charges have yet been filed against them.

The incident was handled jointly by the local police department, the Knox County Sheriff's Department and the Knox City police department. This joint effort allowed for the apprehension and arrest of the suspects without any injuries to anyone involved.

Police Chief Issues Warning To Public

Following the emergency situations that have arisen in the past two weeks, Police Chief Randy Whiteside has issued a warning to the public against visiting the scene of an incident.

At the truck/carwash accident, at both recent fires and at the scene of the shooting, there were so many curious bystanders that officials couldn't get to the site and perform their duties.

"This is not a game. The public needs to stay back out of the way and let these officials do their job," Whiteside said. "Anyone coming within 500 feet of an emergency vehicle in progress to the scene of an incident will be noted and cited."

Public officials are there to protect and serve you... let them!

Weekend Fires Destroy Apartment And Vehicles

Two seemed to be the tragic (rather than magic) number this weekend, as two separate fires destroyed two apartment units and two vehicles.

At approximately 4:00 p.m. Saturday, local firemen answered a call at the Munday Housing Authority on Elm Street. The volunteer firemen used three fire-fighting units, but were unable to save the two apartments which were totally destroyed in the blaze. Both the Flores family and the Murray family, occupants of the units, lost all their household goods. Both families have been placed in other Housing Authority apartments.

Cause of the fire, which remains under investigation, has not yet been determined. While no injuries were reported, volunteer fireman Randy Bob Cypert was treated for smoke inhalation.

Approximately two and a half hours later, firemen were called to the K-C Oil (Shamrock) gas station on Highway 277. A local woman was turning into the station and hit a gas pump, knocking it into the front left car door of another customer, Lila Ann Hutchens. Mrs. Hutchens' car immediately burst into flames, forcing her to exit through a back door of the vehicle. Both cars were destroyed in the fire. The station is closed pending an investigation by the EPA.

Bill Williams, local fire chief, sustained burns to his right arm during the gas station fire. He was held overnight at the Haskell Hospital for observation.

Munday is indeed fortunate to have a caring, dedicated team of firefighters who selflessly volunteer their time to protect the community.

Live Churches -- Dead Churches

The other day, I was asked, "If the church is the people, does a church ever die?" This started me to thinking.

There are two kinds of churches in the world today, LIVE CHURCHES -- DEAD CHURCHES. There is a lot written about the differences in the two. I would like to share some of the contrasts that I have heard.

Live churches main concern is people - Dead churches main concern is programs.

Live churches look at what's right with the church - Dead churches look at what's wrong with the church.

Live churches have lots of noisy youth and children - Dead churches are relatively quiet.

Live churches have worship that celebrates - Dead churches have worship that is endured.

Live churches focus on God's power - Dead churches focus on people problems.

John Wesley referred to the church numerous times as the "Living Body of Christ".

I hope to see you at the "Live" place this Sunday!

Greenwood-Redder United In Candlelight Ceremony

Amy LyNell Greenwood and Rickey Joe Redder were married in a candlelight service on April 18, 1992, in the First United Methodist Church of Goree. Reverend Neal Shepherd of Sweetwater, retired Baptist minister and longtime friend of the bride's family, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Tommy and Joyce Greenwood of Goree. The groom's parents are Reinhart and Reba Redder of Munday.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Cinderella-style wedding gown with off-the-shoulder bouffant sleeves accented with large bows. The fitted bodice and sweetheart neckline were adorned with tiny seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The full skirt, gathered by a large bow in back, featured a long, sweeping train accented with lace and tiny seed pearls. The veil fell gracefully from a floral crown adorned with seed pearls and iridescent sequins.

Carried in the bride's bouquet was the traditional something old, a Bible clip given to the bride's grandfather, the late Pete Beecher, by the groom's great-grandmother, the late Mrs. Walter Thornton, in the early 1950's. Something borrowed were pearl earrings belonging to the bride's sister, and something blue was her garter that was accented with a silver heart bearing the names of the bride and groom and their wedding date. Something new was her gown and a strand of pearls. In her shoe were pennies dated 1969 and 1971, the years in which the groom and the bride, respectively, were born.

MRS. RICKEY JOE REDDER

Attending the bride as matron of honor was her cousin, Gina Hutchens of Goree. Bridesmaids were Christye Gannaway of Haskell, sister of the bride, and Jamie Peek of Vernon. Junior bridesmaid was the bride's niece, Tanya Greenwood of Seymour.

The bride's attendants wore identical dresses of wine satin with cinched waists, short bouffant sleeves and full skirts. The low cut backs featured three strands of pearls attached to each side of the dress. They wore wine and primrose flowers in their hair, wine satin slippers and each carried a single silk Easter lily accented with shades of primrose and wine.

The groom was attired in a gray pin-striped tuxedo with tails and silvery gray cummerbund and tie.

Serving as best man was the groom's brother-in-law, Robin Raynes of Weinert. Groomsmen were Ron Redder of Austin, brother of the groom, and Dwayne Redder of Munday, the groom's cousin. Junior groomsmen were Matthew McCord, nephew of the bride. All wore black tuxedos with wine cummerbunds and ties.

Candlelighters were Jennifer Carden of Munday, cousin of the groom, and Cody Corley of Burleson, cousin of the bride. Jennifer's dress was of primrose satin with full skirt and lace bodice. She wore matching primrose slippers and primrose and white flowers in her hair. Cody was attired in a black tuxedo with primrose cummerbund and tie.

Flower girl was Heather Greenwood of Seymour, niece of the bride. She wore a dress of primrose satin with primrose lace bodice and white patent slippers. She wore a wreath of tiny primrose and white flowers and ribbons and carried a small white basket accented with primrose and white ribbons and flowers.

Serving as ushers were Ron Patella, foreign exchange student attending Munday High School who currently resides in the Redder home, and Kurt McCord of Haskell, nephew of the bride. They wore black tuxedos with matching black cummerbunds and ties.

Wedding music was provided by Molly Stout of Goree. Songs were performed by Lynann Stewart of Seymour. As a special dedication by the bride and groom to immediate members of their families, she sang Wind Beneath My Wings as they were seated. Other songs included The Rose and After All.

Renita Raynes of Weinert, sister of the groom, registered guests.

The reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church. The bride's table featured a three-tiered wedding cake accented with tiny pink roses and silver leaves. It was topped by a pair of white doves holding a silver wedding ring and accented with pink flowers. From a crystal punch bowl, wine-colored punch was served and the bride's bouquet served as the centerpiece. Serving guests at the bride's table were Jeanie Carden, aunt of the groom and Deanna Greenwood, sister-in-law of the bride.

The groom's table featured a small John Deere tractor and trailer filled with cotton and a replica of one of the earliest made John Deere tractors. Coffee and Texas brownies were served from silver appointments. Serving at the groom's table was the bride's cousin, Lorrye Lou Moore of Rising Star.

A rehearsal meal of fish, hush puppies and all the trimmings was hosted by the groom's parents at the Dairy Queen in Munday.

Following a honeymoon trip to Quartz Mountain resort in Oklahoma, the couple is at home in Goree where the groom is engaged in farming.

Benjamin News

By Mrs Gladene Green

NEW ARRIVAL

Randy and Jane Ann (CJ) Engbrock of Wichita Falls would like to introduce you to their baby boy. Little Dylan Ogden was born Tuesday, April 21, at 4:04 a.m. at Wichita General Hospital. He weighed 5 pounds, 7 ounces and was 18 1/2 inches long.

His grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ogden of Wichita Falls and Joe and Julia Trepanier of Benjamin. He also has lots of other relatives and friends who plan to help spoil him every chance they get.

NEW RESIDENTS

Still more new residents have moved into our community. Most recent newcomers are Peat and Yolanda Robinson and their 2 1/2 year old daughter, Chrystalen. They are living in the Benny Grill home. Mr. Robinson is the Park Ranger at the Brine Lake near Truscott. They moved here from Waurika, Oklahoma. We welcome them and hope they enjoy living here.

SHOWER HONORS NEW GRANDMA

Friday night, friends of Julia Trepanier "showered" her with gifts for her new (and only) grandson. The get-together was held in the home of Gladene Green. Refreshments of finger sandwiches, cookies, cake and punch were served the guests. Lots of useful "little boy" gifts were received by the honoree.

Those attending were Reyes Barrientez, Virginia Barrientez, Gloria West, Jonnie Williams, Shirley Borwn, Barbara Ainsworth, Jimmie Klutts, Gertrude Brannan, Jessie Roberts, Judie Whitten, Rosalie Golden, Dorothy Spikes, Louise Hertel, Kim Trepanier, Julia Trepanier, Gladene Green, Anthony Golden and Michael Barrientez.

HERE 'N THERE

Dutch and Imagean Young, Pat Benson and Jack and Mary Young were in Dallas Thursday and Friday on business. Jack and Mary remained for the weekend to visit their son and his wife, Jackie Jr. and Cindy, in Arlington and their daughter and family, the Barry Neils in Watauga.

Don Ervin returned home Friday after a four day stay in the Bethania Hospital in Wichita Falls. He's feeling better, but can't work for three weeks.

Louis and Jessie Estrada of Laredo visited Don and Louise Hertel during the Easter weekend.

Jack and Kathie Waldron were in New Braunfels three days last week for Jack to attend a Water Works Operators School. Jack is Benjamin City Manager and said he found the school to be very helpful. Kathie took advantage of being away from home and work a few days and rested and visited a lot with Jack's mom, who lives in San Antonio.

Visiting his parents, Jane Gideon and Weldon Gideon, for a few days are Oscar, Shannon and Ariel Gideon of Playas, New Mexico. Also visiting their parents have been Sue Gideon of Dallas and Casey and Lana Caldwell of Haskell.

Don and Louise Hertel were in Abilene Saturday for the one-act play competition. Their son, Craig, teaches at Lindsey and is the one-act play director there. Craig's cast didn't advance any farther, but did place two on the All-Star cast, had the best actress and also won the "technical" award, so they did quite well.

Johnny Corley, Eric and Byron were in Stanton Saturday for the funeral of Johnny's nephew, who died in Del Rio on Thursday. We extend sympathy to the Corley family.

Eric and Lynn Redder, Traci and Sarah of Gainseville visited his parents, Herman and Ruth Redder, and friends in Benjamin during the weekend.

Don't forget to vote in the local election coming up on Saturday, May 2. In the Benjamin City Council race, six are running for three places. Incumbent Henry Rogers, is joined by Jack Young, Dutch Young, Raul Barrientez, Joe Trepanier and Jerry Parker in having their names on the ballot. Regardless of how you vote, please vote. Polls will be open from 7 'til 7.

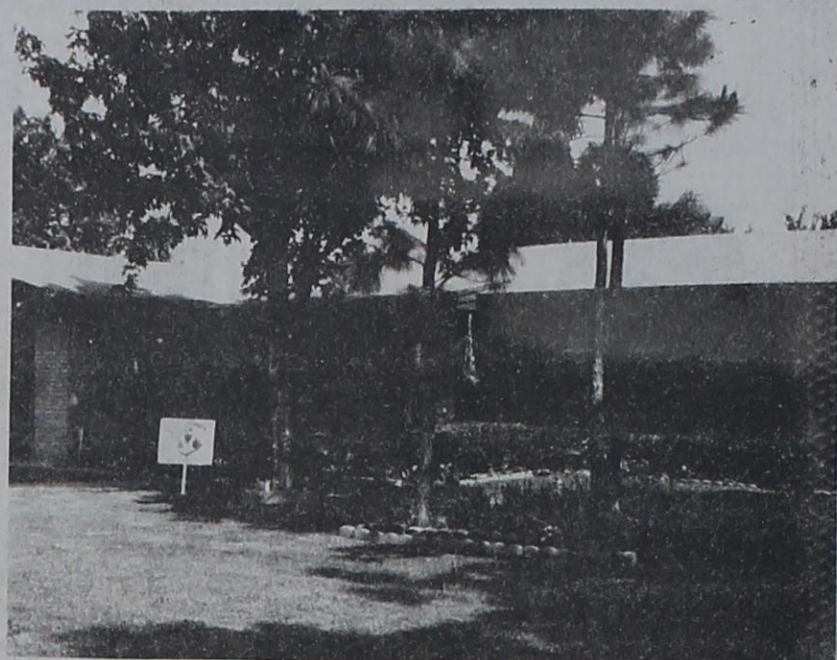

In the school board race, Wyman Meinzer and Jack Whitten, both incumbents, are the only names on the ballot.

Still favorable reports from Era Brown. Though still hospitalized for therapy, she continues to make good progress daily. Her cards cheer her, so take a few minutes to send one.

A reminder to attend the series of lectures on "Faith" beginning Wednesday night at 7:00 at the Church of Christ in Benjamin. Terry Cartwright will be bringing the messages nightly and we all know he's a "good-un". He's a hometown boy and we may be a little prejudiced, but come hear him yourself and we think you will agree. Remember, April 29, 7:00 p.m. at the Benjamin Church of Christ.

Final Certification Date for Wheat

May 15 is the final date to certify wheat and other small grains, including ACR and CUPAY acres with a small grain cover. If you are a wheat only farm and participating in the program, you must also certify your ACR (set-aside) and, if applicable, CU for PAY acres by May 15, regardless of the cover. ACR and CUPAY acres without a small grain cover do not have to be certified until July 15 if you are participating in the cotton and/or feed grain programs.

Certification is by Appointment Only - Phone 817-658-3537.

Wheat Cover on ACR (set-aside) and CUPAY Acres

If you have wheat, oats or any other small grain planted on your ACR (set-aside) and/or CUPAY acres you must have the cover destroyed (to the point that it will not make grain) before it reaches the hard dough stage. Acceptable methods of destruction include baling, grazing, plowing and shredding. If you wish to leave the cover standing, you can file a request and pay a nominal fee prior to the certification date.

Sign-up Date Extended

1992 cotton, wheat and feed grain program sign-up date has been extended until May 1. If you did not sign up by April 17 and now wish to do so, phone 817-658-3537 for an appointment.

At Your Service

by Dr. Larry Fitzgerald
Minister, Munday Church of Christ

Q: Does the Bible say that money is the root of all evil?

A? No, the Bible does say that the love of money is the root of all evil (1 Timothy 6:10). There is a difference.

Money, and other riches, are given to us by God (Deuteronomy 8:17; Hosea 2:8). It is God who gives us the power (abilities, etc.) to earn our funds (Deut. 8:17-18; Psalms 112: 1-3). For this reason, we must be good stewards of all that we have. Those with wealth have the responsibility to: give to the poor (1 Corinthians 16:1-2; 2 Corinthians 8:9); do good works with their wealth (1 Timothy 6:17-19); and support their church (1 Cor. 16 compared with Malachi 3:8).

The secret to being a good steward with your riches is found in 2 Corinthians 8:1-7. We give ourselves first to the Lord, and then giving money becomes a pleasure and not a chore.

GORÉE NEWS

By Joyce Greenwood

As we knew it would, spring has followed winter after all and Goree folk--like people everywhere--are busily planting gardens and digging out flower beds. Some of the 'fraidy-hole hitters' are hastily cleaning out storm cellars before the threatening, black clouds begin to loom in the south-west.

Spring is for new calves being born--new buds on trees--new beginnings and new ventures. Mine is a new venture. Many Goree citizens--both present and former--have requested the return of the Goree news. My mother subtly suggested at first and finally was just flat rude wanting me to call the Waggoners and offer to write it. So, when Mattie called to see if I'd be interested, I accepted. I know that I will lack the dedication of former correspondent, Grace Smith, who so faithfully called each Goree citizen every Sunday afternoon. I will call when I know somebody has done something they may want reported, my mother has promised to keep her eyes and ears open for news, but most of all, I wish anyone who has anything to report would call me. Maybe between all of us we can cover all bases and keep people informed of everything that goes on in Goree.

Well, nearly everything-----
JG--

Peek Reunion

Spring and summer are almost synonymous with family outings and family get-togethers. There's something about the ending of the long winter 'hibernations' that cause us to want to renew ties with family and friends.

Such was the case last weekend as the family of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Peek came together in the Goree Memorial Building for a family reunion.

Those attending and enjoying the food and fellowship were: Ora and William Lane of Megargel, Sharon Lane of Borger and Candice Conner of Denton; Effie Neighbours of Goree and Noel Neighbours of El Paso; Dimple Jetton and Lynell, Burt, Lynette and Kevin Williams all of

The Lord's Corner

by Dr. Pete Bradford, pastor
First Baptist Church

Take a brief inventory of your riches in this world:

How much money do you have in the bank? _____

Will you take that wealth with you when you die? _____

Do you belong to a royal family? _____

Do you own a house? _____

Did the builder promise it would last for eternity? _____

A pity, isn't it? If earthly wealth and pedigree are all you can boast about, you are truly poor - both now, and for eternity. On the other hand, the person who has God for his Father and heaven for his home is rich beyond measure, regardless of his net worth on earth.

See you next week, and remember: the real measure of our wealth is how much we'd be worth if we lost all our money.

What Immigrants Need To Know About Social Security

By Patty Brandt, SS Representative

Many immigrants living and working in the United States know little about Social Security. They may wonder if the taxes they are paying will provide anything for them and their families. The answer is yes!

Social Security eligibility rules are the same for citizens and non-citizens. In addition to earning credits toward retirement benefits, immigrants who work in jobs where they pay Social Security taxes are eligible for disability benefits, and their families may be entitled to survivor benefits when they die.

Some immigrants may plan to return to their homeland one day. Those who become U.S. citizens may have their Social Security benefits sent to most foreign countries.

Those who are not U.S. citizens can receive benefits outside the United States, but only in certain circumstances.

The Supplemental Security Income (SSI) program is another federal program managed by the Social Security Administration. SSI pays monthly cash benefits to people age 65 or older and to people with disabilities. To qualify for SSI, a person must have limited income and resources. Immigrants may be eligible for SSI if they have been lawfully admitted for permanent residence, or if the Immigration and Naturalization Service is permitting them to remain in the United States indefinitely. Special provisions apply for sponsored aliens and for immigrants who are granted asylum or who are refugees.

Anyone working in the U.S. needs to have a Social Security number. When an immigrant applies for a number, he or she needs to show a birth certificate or passport and Immigration and Naturalization Service documents, such as a "green card". The Internal Revenue Service requires that tax returns include a Social Security number for all dependents age one year or older.

Anyone who wants more information about the Social Security programs, who thinks he or she may be eligible for SSI, or who needs a Social Security number, should call or visit the nearest Social Security office, or call Social Security's national toll-free number, 1-800-772-1213, any business day from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

TERMITE SEASON OCCURS IN SPRING

Subterranean termites are by far the most destructive of all wood-destroying insects. Termites strike five times as many homes as fire and do more economic damage than all tornadoes, hurricanes, and windstorms combined. They have the longest life-span of any household pests; under favorable conditions, individual termites may live up to 15 years, and colonies may exist in dwellings for considerably longer periods.
